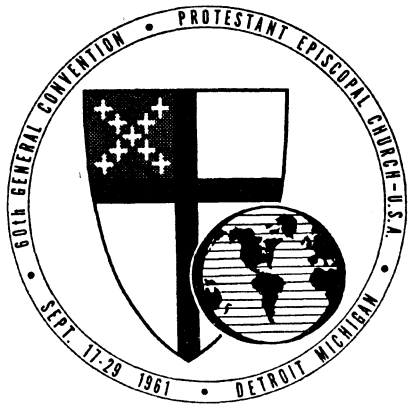
General Convention Digest . . . Detroit 1961



The 60th General Convention of the Protestant Episcopal Church in the U.S.A., meeting in Detroit, Mich., September 17–29, 1961:

CHURCH UNITY

• Made a series of important decisions in the area of Church unity including:

(1) Full communion with three Churches in other countries—the Philippine Independent Church, the Spanish Reformed Episcopal Church and the Lusitanian (Portuguese) Church, Catholic, Apostolic, Evangelical.

(2) Authorization of four-way unity discussion in the United States among Presbyterians, Episcopalians, Methodists, and United Church of Christ.

(3) Conditional approval of a Scheme of Union in Ceylon which will unite Anglicans, Methodists, Presbyterians, Baptists, and South Indians in a new "Church of Lanka."

(4) Disapproval of a similar union plan in North India and Pakistan which differs at certain key points from the Ceylon Scheme.

(5) Repeal of a canonical provision for ordination to the priesthood of Protestant ministers who would continue to serve in their previous denomination.

(6) Encouragement of closer relations with the Eastern Orthodox (who have no governmental means of establishing criteria for unity with other Churches except an ecumenical council).

In resolutions implementing these decisions, the Convention:

Philippines

• Accepted a concordat offered by the three-million-member Philippine Independent Church in the following terms:

"(1) Each Communion recognizes the Catholicity and independence of the other and maintains its own.

"(2) Each Communion agrees to admit members of the other Communion to participate in the Sacraments.

"(3) Full communion does not require from either Communion the acceptance of all doctrinal opinion, sacramental devotion, or liturgical practice characteristic of the other, but implies that each believes the other to hold all the essentials of the Christian Faith."

• Invited Obispo Maximo de los Reyes to celebrate Holy Communion according to the PIC rite for a congregation of bishops, deputies, and Triennial delegates; the service was held at Mariners' Church, Detroit, September 27th.

• Set up, subject to parallel action by the PIC, a joint council of the two Churches with the Bishop of the Philippines as chairman and a liaison officer resident in the Philippines. With a $50,000-a-year-budget supplied by the Episcopal Church the joint council would:

(1) Pay for the liaison officer and Joint Council expenses.

(2) Support the program and personnel of the Central Office of the Philippine Independent Church.

(3) Provide retirement income for elderly bishops and priests of the PIC.

(4) Finance programs of both Churches in the Philippines in lay leadership and stewardship training, and youth and college work.

(5) Assist "pilot parishes" of the PIC to develop the parochial and pastoral structure of the local congregation upon a "sound theological and financial basis."

(6) Consider other projects in the life and work of the two Churches, including possible establishment of high schools and a college.

Spain and Portugal

• Invited the Spanish and Lusitanian Churches to enter into a concordat with the Episcopal Church in the same terms as that with the Philippine Independent Church (substantially the wording of the "Bonn Agreement" with the Old Catholics of Europe.)

• Also agreed with the 850-member Spanish Church and the 1,200-member Lusitanian Church to "work together ... and give such mutual assistance as they are able." (The two Churches have long received episcopal ministrations from the Church of Ireland, with which they are in full communion, and recently were supplied with bishops of their own in the Anglican succession.)

United States "Conversations"

• Accepted a proposal from the United Presbyterian Church in the USA to join with it in inviting the Methodist Church and the United Church of Christ (consisting of the former Congregational-Christian and Evangelical and Reformed Churches) "to explore the establishment of a united Church truly Catholic, truly Reformed, and truly Evangelical." The Presbyterian resolution asked that each Church appoint a committee of nine persons "to negotiate a plan of union." Instead, Convention authorized its 17-member Commission on Approaches to Unity "to conduct these conversations" on the basis of the Chicago Lambeth Quadrilateral and directed the Commission to invite representatives of the Polish National Catholic Church to participate.

• Continued the Commission on Approaches to Unity and authorized it to continue the separate discussions with the Methodists which have been going on for some years.

• Instructed the Commission to conduct its unity discussions within the framework of statements of Church's position in the Chicago Lambeth Quadrilateral, the Lambeth Appeal to All Christian People, and the Statement of Faith and Order prepared by the Unity Commission on instructions of the 1946 General Convention.

Ceylon, North India, Pakistan

• Declared, "We anticipate thankfully recognizing the Church of Lanka, if organized on the basis of the proposed Constitution, as a Province of the Church Universal, holding the apostolic Faith and possessed of true bishops, priests, and deacons."

• Looked forward to establishment of full communion with the Lanka Church, "in anticipation that certain anomalies and contradictions in the proposed practice of the Church of Lanka will be satisfactorily resolved."

• Informed the Metropolitan of India, Pakistan, Burma, and Ceylon that the Episcopal Church cannot say that it would enter into full communion with the proposed Church of North India/ Pakistan because of objections to the proposed service of unification and certain theological objections on Baptism, the ministry, statements of faith, and the Holy Communion. (The plan covers two distinct proposed Churches, one of North India and one of Pakistan, but is otherwise identical for both.)

Ordination in Special Cases

• Adopted a new Canon 36, replacing old Canons 36 and 38, eliminating the former provisions of Canon 36 for (1) ordination of Protestant ministers who wish episcopal ordination while continuing to serve as pastors of non-Episcopalian congregations; (2) ordination to dual ministry in the Episcopal Church and a non-Episcopal Church. The new canon provides educational standards and testimonials similar to those required for Episcopal Church candidates, adapted somewhat to the situation, and provides for recognition that the ordinand has already been ordained "a minister of Christ." From Canon 38, it preserves a provision for conditional ordination of episcopally ordained clergy whose orders are doubtful. (Canon 36 was originally adopted as part of an effort to enter into a concordat with the Congregationalists, but the concordat failed and no non-episcopal Church since has indicated that it desired its ministers to receive ordination from bishops of the Episcopal Church.)

Eastern Orthodox

• Called for continued participation of the Episcopal Church with other Anglican Churches in conversations with the Eastern Orthodox Communion.

• Encouraged clergy and parishes to maintain friendly relations with Orthodox churches in their communities.

• Continued the Joint Commission on Coöperation with the Eastern Orthodox and Old Catholic Churches, designating 15% of the Good Friday Offering for the Russian Orthodox Theological Institute in Paris and other purposes under the Commission's direction.

• Asked the National Council to clear up some confusion about the Good Friday Offering by a study of financial needs in the Holy Land and by making sure that promotional materials reflect the actual scope of the use of the offering.

• Provided that "not less than $15,000 annually" from the Good Friday Offering be earmarked for the Jerusalem and the East Mission under the Anglican Bishop in Jerusalem, the remainder (after deducting the Commission's 15%) to be expended for work in the Near East under discretion of the National Council.

• Sent fraternal greetings to the Orthodox Conference at Rhodes, which met to make plans for a Pan-Orthodox meeting.

Ecumenical Machinery

- Provided for an ecumenical officer in the office of the Presiding Bishop to serve as his special assistant on ecumenical matters.
- Continued the Joint Commission on Ecumenical Relations with seven bishops (including the Presiding Bishop), seven priests, and seven laymen. The House of Deputies adopted a resolution asking Mr. Morehouse, president of the House, to reappoint himself as a member.
- Welcomed the proposal of certain Roman Catholic scholars for a translation of the Bible which would be acceptable to Roman Catholics and Anglicans and Protestants alike.

EPISCOPATE

- Elected three new missionary bishops: the Very Rev. Romualdo Gonzalez-Agueros, dean of the Havana Cathedral, as Bishop of Cuba; the Rev. Dillard H. Brown of Washington, D. C., as Bishop Coadjutor of Liberia; and the Rev. Charles P. Gilson of Taipei, Taiwan, as Suffragan of Honolulu for Taiwan. (The House of Bishops elects and the House of Deputies confirms the election.)
- Subsequently gave the required consent to the "request of the missionary district of Honolulu for the election of a suffragan" in order to legalize Mr. Gilson's election. (He was consecrated at General Convention on September 28th, an unusual, but not unprecedented occurrence.)
- Accepted the missionary district of San Joaquin into union with General Convention as a diocese. Bishop Walters, the missionary bishop, automatically becomes the diocesan. (In the past 10 years, five domestic missionary districts have become dioceses.)
- Gave canonical consent to: election of John M. Allin, as Coadjutor of Mississippi; election of Joseph W. Hutchens as Suffragan of Connecticut; the request of South Florida for permission to elect a Suffragan to replace the Rt. Rev. William F. Moses, deceased; the request of the same diocese for permission to elect a second Suffragan. (Between meetings of Convention such consents are obtained by mail from the bishops and the standing committees of the dioceses.)
- Asked the new Strategic Advisory Committee to study questions of erection of new missionary jurisdictions and election of overseas bishops in consultation with the overseas committee of the House of Bishops.
- Expressed concern (deputies) about increasing activities and responsibilities laid upon the bishops, and asked the House of Bishops to appoint a committee to study the problem; the bishops thanked the deputies for their concern.
- Sent greetings to the new Archbishop of Canterbury (Dr. Ramsey) from the first General Convention since his accession to the chief see of the Anglican Communion.
- Set aside Easter Even, April 21, 1962, as the day to celebrate the 175th anniversary of the return of Bishop William White to Pennsylvania after his consecration at Lambeth, February 4, 1787, as the first American bishop in the English line.
- Provided by amendment of Canon 42 that when an otherwise suitable person is to be consecrated Bishop for a foreign land but has not been episcopally ordained to the diaconate and priesthood he may be so ordained on successive days.

CHURCH'S PROGRAM

- Adopted a budget for the missionary, educational, and social work of the Church, administered by the National Council, in the sum of $10,504,760, for 1962; $11,496,615, for 1963; and $12,104,147 for 1964, subject in each year to revision by the National Council in view of expected income, on the "pay as you go principle" (i.e., no deficits allowed).
- Urged that missionary salaries and salary increases and missionary travel allowances be the last to be cut in case of downward revision of the budget.
- Asked the National Council to assign to appropriate departments or units responsibility for reviewing financial assistance to agencies not under its administrative control.
- Required that all Church Organizations organized by General Convention or National Council, or receiving funds from either, file annual audited reports with the treasurer of National Council.
- Urged all Church members to practice tithing as a "basic Christian responsibility and privilege."
- Asked parishes and missions to accept as a goal the giving of half their ordinary income to work outside the parish in national, diocesan, and local programs.
- Asked dioceses and missionary districts to accept the goal of giving to the national Church an amount equal to their expenditure on diocesan or district programs.
- Urged parishes and dioceses to give 10% of the amount raised in capital campaigns for needs beyond their own boundaries.
- Set up a budget item of "Revolving loan fund and grants" ($500,000, $700,000, and $900,000) and provided that in its use priority be given to needs of missionary districts and that in both dioceses and districts the fund be used only in cases of inability to obtain funds from other sources on reasonable terms. Money repaid is to be used for future loans.

• New budget funds for work in the inner city under the Home Department of the National Council were earmarked for experimental programs and research on the Inner City Church, for training clerical and lay workers, for stimulating vocations and encouraging local programs, under the guidance of an advisory committee on the Church and the City.

Industrialization

• Toured industrial Detroit and met in joint session to hear recommendations of the Industrial Study Project of the Joint Commission on the Church in Human Affairs.

• Instructed National Council to utilize "theological and scientific resources" in expanding present programs for Church ministry in industrial society and pioneering new forms of ministry. (Difference from "Inner City" emphasis is that Industrial Study Project views all of society as equally involved in revolutionary changes of present day.)

Indian Work

• Adopted a comprehensive policy and program for Indian work in a set of nine resolutions resulting from a National Council study of the subject:

(1) Recognizing "the right of all peoples to self-determination" and the Indian as "a person who is culturally unique and yet fully sharing in American society," the Church intends to involve Indians constantly in the planning and conduct of Indian work; the Church's ministry is "to the total man" and concerned with education, employment, home community life, and full citizenship, as well as spiritual development; admitting fluctuation and some "apathy" in the past, the Episcopal Church is "resolved to atone for these failures in renewal of its mission and ministry to the Indian people."

(2) The Church demands a just and consistent Indian policy on the part of Congress and the Bureau of Indian affairs; opposes termination of federal services; urges development of reservation and community resources. Resolution calls for the appointment of Church representatives to governmental and voluntary groups, with one representative appointed "to function in Washington."

(3) The National Council is asked to appoint a "permanent advisory council on Indian work," to designate a Home Department officer to carry major responsibility in this area, and to select clerical and lay consultants on Indian work to help orient and train personnel in the field.

(4) New situations facing Indians in urban areas in towns near reservations and in reservations themselves require pioneer projects which the Home Department is requested to set up.

(5) Steps are proposed to stimulate vocations among Indians and non-Indians for Indian work, and to provide training and retraining for workers.

(6) Additional funds should be made available for the repair and adaptation of physical plants and equipment.

(7) Scholarships for Indians should be the concern of a scholarship committee.

(8) Leaves of absence for study should be granted to Indian workers, clerical and lay.

(9) The Department of Christian Social Relations is asked to assist in a study of the social problems afflicting Indian community life.

National Council

• Elected two bishops, two presbyters, three laymen, and four women to six-year terms on the National Council as follows: Bishops Louttit of South Florida and Hunter of Wyoming, the Rev. Messrs. Edward G. Mullen and Joseph S. Young; Messrs. Hugh Laughlin of Ohio, Stephen Shadegg of Arizona, and Byron S. Miller of Bethlehem; and (on nomination of the Triennial Meeting of Episcopal Churchwomen) Miss Leila Anderson of New York, Mrs. John H. Foster of West Texas, Mrs. John R. Newcomer of Arizona, and Mrs. Donald W. Pierpont of Connecticut. Mr. Ernest Greene of Washington was elected for three years to fill a vacancy.

• Defeated a proposal from the Joint Commission on Society and Alcohol to add an executive secretary for Alcohol Education to the Department of Christian Social Relations.

• Asserted that Evangelism is the concern of every National Council officer and Department, but asked the Presiding Bishop to "designate or appoint a qualified person" to coördinate evangelistic emphases in the Council; this was the Deputies' substitute for a resolution from the House of Bishops asking that an executive secretary for evangelism be appointed.

• Requested the National Council to conduct a study of the salaries of missionary clergy in missionary districts and increase them to meet rising costs.

• Reëlected Lindley M. Franklin, Jr., as treasurer of "the Domestic and Foreign Missionary Society of the Protestant Episcopal Church in the United States of America," which automatically makes him treasurer of the National Council.

Other Action

• Asked the Presiding Bishop to designate a Sunday on which gifts may be received for the Episcopal Church Center, new headquarters building in New York which will house the National Council and other agencies; asked that offering envelopes be provided for dioceses that desire them.

• Created a Joint Committee to Study Quotas and propose canonical changes aimed at a "financial partnership plan" between dioceses and National Council.

• Created a Commission to consider status and nomenclature of missionary districts (a recommendation of the Gray report referred to Convention by the National Council).

• Expressed "grateful appreciation" to the Churchwomen for the United Thank Offering of $4,339,190.81.

CHURCH GOVERNMENT

• Elected Clifford P. Morehouse as president of the House of Deputies, succeeding the Rev. Theodore O. Wedel, who was given the courtesy title of president emeritus. (Mr. Morehouse's was the first unanimous election of a new president in 108 years.)

• Elected the Rev. Samuel N. Baxter, Jr., secretary of the House of Deputies; reëlected the Rt. Rev. Nelson M. Burroughs as vice-chairman and the Rev. Alexander M. Rodger as secretary of the House of Bishops (each house elects its own officers).

• Elected by concurrent action as officers of Convention: the Rev. Mr. Baxter, secretary of Convention and editor of the Convention Journal; the Rev. Mr. Rodger, registrar; Richard P. Kent, Jr., treasurer; the Church Pension Fund, recorder of ordinations; the Rev. Walter H. Stowe, historiographer.

• Defeated in both Houses proposals to change the name of the Church (Bishops and lay deputies voted against; clerical deputies voted for the change to "the Episcopal Church in the U.S.A."); Bishops also defeated a proposal from the House of Deputies for a Commission to study and report on the subject to the next Convention.

• Adopted definitions of Church member, member in good standing, and communicant in good standing after many years of unsuccessful attempts; under the new definitions:

A member is a properly baptized person whose Baptism has been "duly recorded in this Church."

A member in good standing is one who has for the past year, "unless for good cause prevented," obeyed Canon 19 which provides that "All persons within this Church shall celebrate and keep the Lord's Day, commonly called Sunday, by regular participation in the public worship of the Church, by hearing the Word of God read and taught, and by other acts of devotion and works of charity, using all godly and sober conversation."

A communicant in good standing must also have been confirmed or received by a bishop and have received the Holy Communion at least thrice in the past year.

• Resisted all proposals to change the frequency of General Convention or the composition of the House of Deputies, but kept the subject alive by referring it to a Commission for report to the next General Convention; also gave this Commission the assignment of studying the provincial system, discontinuing the separate bodies which had been studying national and provincial Church government.

• Rejected a request from the Triennial Meeting of Churchwomen to amend the Constitution to permit women to be elected deputies to General Convention.

• Adopted a General Convention Budget of $475,485 for the next three years, covering the Presiding Bishop's stipend and expenses, costs of General Convention and its Committees and Commissions, and a few other items.

"Other relevant information" included, and a copy of parish report must be sent to National Council as well as the bishop. (Modern business machines will be used for statistical analysis.)

PUBLIC AFFAIRS

• After long and lively debate in the House of Deputies, recognized "the importance of having the National Council of Churches speak to the Churches about the Christian implications of contemporary social, economic, and political issues," but declared that "no pronouncement can, without action by this Church's authority, be regarded as an official statement of this Church;" instructed the Joint Commission on Ecumenical Relations to make a study of NCC in relation to matters on which it has been criticized, and to increase Episcopal Church representation of lay persons "not professionally employed by the Church."

• Reaffirmed the Church's opposition to Marxist Communism as a "false, atheistic religion," and asserted (quoting Lambeth Conference): "It is the special duty of the Church to oppose the challenge of the Marxian theory of Communism by sound teaching and the example of a better way, and the Church, at all times and in all places, should be a fearless witness against political, social, and economic injustice."

• Warned Churchpeople "to examine carefully charges of disloyalty and subversion brought by extremist groups ... lest fear and suspicion destroy honest public debate and silence the expression of Christian faith."

THE MINISTRY

• Reorganized the Standing Joint Commission on Theological Education, with the new name of the Joint Commission on Education for Holy Orders. In a complete rewriting of Canon 30, the Commission was given new composition, new duties, and new authority as follows:

(1) The Commission will consist of three bishops, the deans of General and three other seminaries, three examining chaplains, three other presbyters, and three laymen, with an executive committee of five or more, representing all three orders.

(2) It will study needs and trends and report to National Council and Convention.

(3) It will determine, subject to defined standards, whether a seminary shall be recognized as a "theological seminary of this Church."

(4) It will advise and assist seminaries at home and overseas and promote interseminary coöperation.

(5) It will compile statistical reports.

Standards for recognition of a seminary were defined in the canon as follows:

(1) Its primary purpose must be education for Holy Orders.

(2) It must offer through each normal academic year the canonically prescribed courses for preparation for Holy Orders.

(3) There must be four full-time duly qualified professors.

(4) There must be 20 students taking the full course and 80% of students must have the B.A. degree or equivalent.

(5) Organization, finances, equipment, and facilities must be adequate.

• Called upon every parish and mission to observe Theological Education Sunday and to take an offering on that day or make other provision for the needs of the seminaries.

• Asked the Commission on Education for Holy Orders to study a plan of national scholarships for theological education and report to the next Convention.

• Recommended a minimum salary for deaconesses of $3,000 a year plus housing, travel expenses, and social security.

• Approved a retirement plan for deaconesses, supplementing social security, paid by the employer at 9% to 11% of compensation, with benefits at the rate of 0.8% of her compensation at age 63 multiplied by the number of years she has been in the plan.

• Amended Canon 51 to require that all Church units employing deaconesses provide pension coverage under this plan or its equivalent.

• Set up a Joint Commission to study the ministry of healing and report to the 1964 Convention.

Messrs. John Butler, Herbert S. Brown, Henry P. Krusen, W. M. Moore, Jr., and J. W. Montgomery; Messrs. Kempton Dunn, Leigh K. Lydecker, Byron S. Miller, Edwin F. Russell, and Richard K. Paynter, Jr.

ARMED FORCES

• Provided, by amendment of Canon 45, that chaplains serving on military installations and Veterans Administration facilities do not need consent of local clergy or license from the bishop, except when they wish to minister outside of such installations; chaplains will continue canonical connection with diocese from which they entered service.

• Requested the National Council to strengthen its Armed Forces Division and to consider appointing a Commission to assist the Division.

LAY MINISTRY

• Reworked Canon 50 on lay readers to provide special standards of training and examination for lay readers who serve congregations that have no ordained minister; new canon provides that women may serve as lay readers where no male is available, but departed substantially from original proposal of Laymen's Division for a canon that would require all lay readers to be trained and examined and make annual reports to the bishop.

• Authorized the General Division of Laymen's Work to prepare a revised lay reader's guide and a new training syllabus on the basis of the new canon.

• Considered, but did not act upon, a proposed canon on women Church workers, which was withdrawn by Commission on Women Church workers for further study; continued the Commission.

Knowles, Bishop Mosley of Delaware, Very Rev. J. Milton Richardson, Bishop Wright of East Carolina.

• Informed Pension Fund of Convention's desire to amend Canon 7, Section 2, to permit Church Pension Fund trustees to fill vacancies on the board (Canon on CPF can be amended by Convention, but only after prior notice to trustees and opportunity for them to be heard).

PRAYER BOOK AND DOCTRINE

• Reaffirmed the Church's adherence to the Faith of Apostles' and Nicene Creeds as represented in the Pastoral Letter of the House of Bishops at Dallas in 1960 (the Bishops amended a resolution from the Deputies to substitute a reference to the Creeds for one to the Councils of Nicea and Chalcedon, and the Deputies concurred).

• Approved trial use of revised Prayer Book services by action of one General Convention (requiring a vote by orders) as "an alternative to the Book of Common Prayer." A Constitutional amendment, this requires ratification by the 1964 Convention.

• Failed to pass on second reading a Prayer Book revision providing a calendar and proper collects, epistles and Gospels for lesser holy days (the Book of Propers).

• Commended the work of the Standing Liturgical Commission and referred the Book of Propers to it for further study.

• Defeated (House of Deputies) a perennial proposal to permit laymen to administer the chalice in Holy Communion, but referred the matter to the Liturgical Commission for report in 1964.

• Authorized overseas missionary districts to substitute the name by which the Church is known in their language and area for "Protestant Episcopal Church in the USA" on the title page of translations of the Prayer Book; permitted other changes in relation to prayers for U.S. officials and national holidays such as Independence Day.

ARTS, COMMUNICATION, ETC.

• Organized the Episcopalian, Inc., to publish the new Church magazine, the Episcopalian, as a separate, non-profit corporation with a board of directors appointed by the Presiding Bishop at each General Convention; provided it with subsidies of $200,000 in 1962, $192,000 in 1963, and $159,000 in 1964 under the National Council budget; commended the magazine to Churchpeople.

• Commended the Forward Movement Publications for over 27 years of "ministry of printing;" authorized the Presiding Bishop to continue the organization and appoint staff.

• Directed the Secretary of General Convention to collate Convention actions of particular interest to congregations and make the material available through the clergy.

• Accepted the report of the Commission on Church Architecture and the Allied Arts and continued the Commission; directed it to have plans drawn up for demountable Church structures for temporary use.

• Accepted the report of the Commission on Church Music and continued the Commission; future printings of the Hymnal will contain three new Communion services, several new chants, and a revised liturgical index; appended to the report was a 9,000-word essay, Recommendations for Church Music, prepared for guidance of Church musicians and the clergy. It will be published this winter in pamphlet form.

• Continued the Church Historical Society as official agency of General Convention for collection, preservation, etc., of records and furthering historical research.

• Ordered the transfer of certain Convention archives from the New York Historical Society to the Church Historical Society, with thanks to the former for its services.

• Transferred the Church Historical Magazine to the Church Historical Society, discontinuing the separate Commission on the magazine.

• Received with appreciation from Mrs. Bland Mitchell, widow of the Bishop of Arkansas, her husband's reminiscences of his service in the early years of the National Council, and turned the material over to the historiographer.

• Endorsed the American Bible Society and set aside the Second Sunday in Advent as Bible Sunday.

• Adopted (House of Bishops) a Pastoral Letter on the Ecumenical Movement which asserted, "Our deepest allegiance is not to the Episcopal Church, nor to the Anglican Communion, but to the one Catholic and Apostolic Church .... We are committed to the One Great Church and must know ourselves called to be faithful to it .... We, your bishops, call you, therefore, to work and to pray without ceasing until by God's grace and in His time the divisions by which we dishonor our one Lord are done away." After the reading of the Pastoral to a joint session on September 29th by Bishop Dun of Washington, serving for the last time as chairman of the Pastoral Letter Committee, the 60th General Convention adjourned sine die.

The Church's Evolving Architecture

1958–1961

The Joint Commission on Architecture and the Allied Arts of the General Convention has produced a film strip for use throughout the Church which illustrates significant developments in Church design over the past decade. As a member of the Commission I have drawn heavily upon our findings and photographs for this third essay on "The Church's Evolving Architecture" covering the years 1958–1961. This essay is based upon many men's opinion and is thus more reliable.

As is clear from the evidence presented, the altar as "central" has won its place as a major feature of our times. In a great many of the churches selected the altar stands either in the center of the congregation or is "central" as surrounded by the Communion Rail and/or a major part of the congregation. A second characteristic of our times seems to be an evermore increasing use of the "A" frame, plastic forms, the laminated arch, reinforced concrete vaulting and thin shell membrane concrete vaults. Most of these as construction methods are represented in our illustrations and indicate growing "traditionalism" through standardization of engineering forms and materials to solve similar architectural problems. Where fire laws permit we find a return to a use of wood by itself and in combination with natural stone. One would sense a direction that points to the rennaissance of the romantic rustic style. In general there is an increase in enrichment following the cycle that has long existed in architecture which moves from the simple to the complex, from the puritanical to the splendid. Stained glass is back in full glory with an increasing use of cement instead of lead as the membrane between the pieces of glass. Glass, on its part, is heavy and partakes more of its natural characteristics, particularly in the area of its prismatic possibilities. The effect of light coming through the heavy uneven glass has added a new dimension to the art which, with its thicker membrane of cement manages to keep its jewel-like quality with added power. The increasing use of sculpture, mosaic, painting, and metal work indicates a much desired return to the use of all the arts in proper concert with architecture.

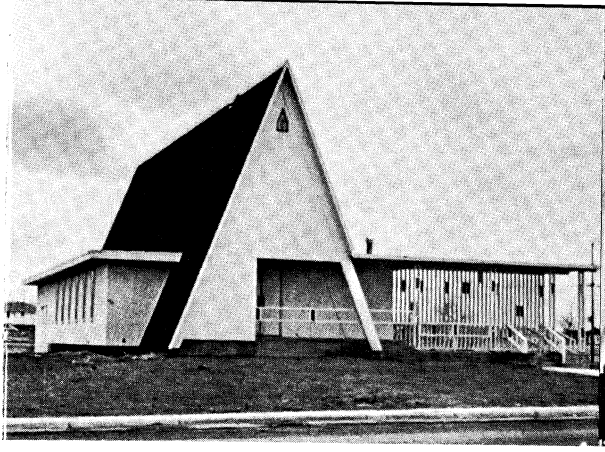
There seems to be a hopeful trend developing in which the architect is being used for small churches as well as large. More importance is placed upon the esthetic value of buildings with the happy result that our churches "work better" and are more skillfully "engineered" with a resulting saving in money in proportion to value received.

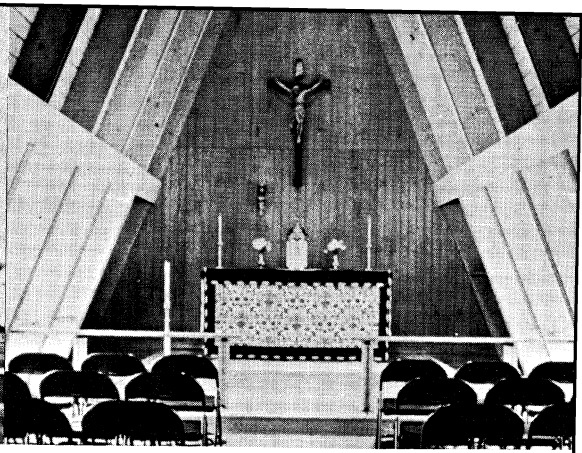
Although it is too early to make a firm prediction, the Church's use of architecture seems to be following the use of architecture in general in that we are turning from a preoccupation with the tendency to "merge" the building to its site, and being limited to human scale, to our being tempted by the desire to return to the heroic scale. Monumental structure and the appreciation of the church building as a form of sculpture representing the meeting of man and God rather than simply being "a place" where the meeting occurs are concerning us again. The "organic" architecture of Frank Lloyd Wright never really got a firm hold on the affections of the Episcopal Church. It may be that the massive monumentalism of Corbusier may be more influential.

On the other hand, it is quite possible that the "urbanization" of our society will cut short this development. The mobility of city populations may cause us to build churches that are "expendable," light, quickly written off, torn down or remodeled for other uses. It may well be that "building for a thousand years" can no longer be the theme of the architect and building committee. Facts may cause them to lean more to the tendency of transitoriness of structure and use which fortunately, or unfortunately, seems to be the fate and the effectiveness of all that ministers to a world in transition.

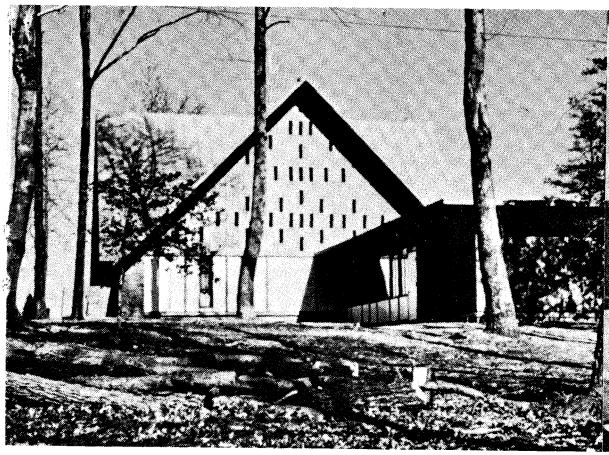
We enter a most doubtful and interesting Triennium!

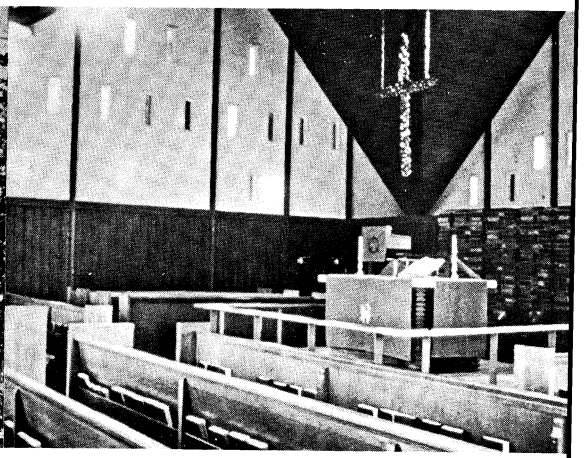
DARBY WOOD BETTS



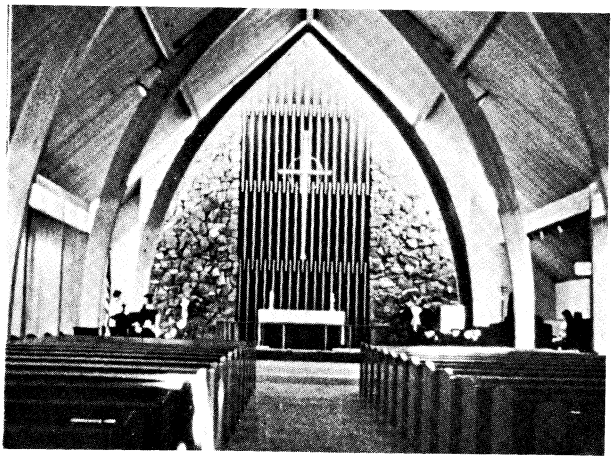


The Chapel of the Resurrection, Limon, Colorado. Architects: Craig, Brooks and Associates. This effective little church seating 75 people, at a cost of $330 per seat, was completed in 1960. It is a good example of the now widespread "A" frame which, in this case, effectively combines with low flat roofed side aisles. It is a happy combination of carpenter-like simplicity which emphasizes the richly vested altar and the crucifix. Permanent seating will add much to the total effect.

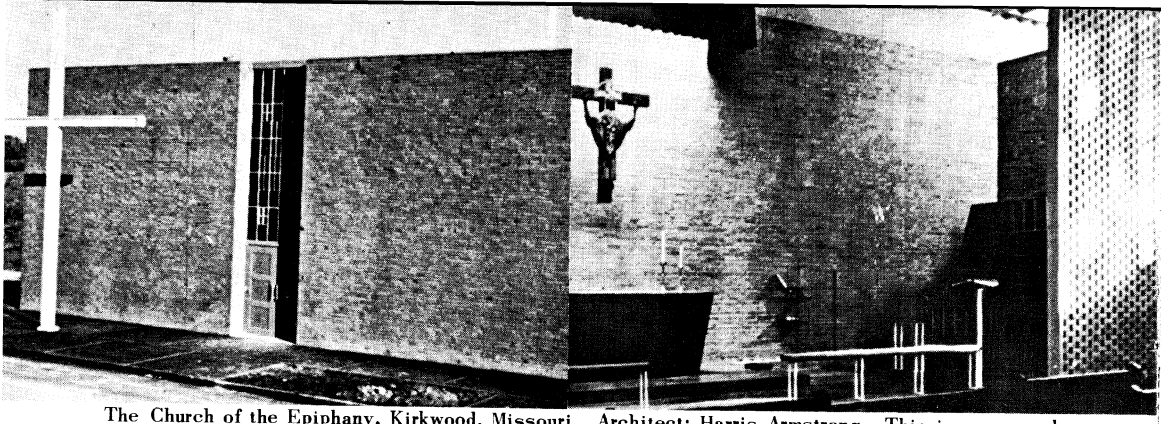




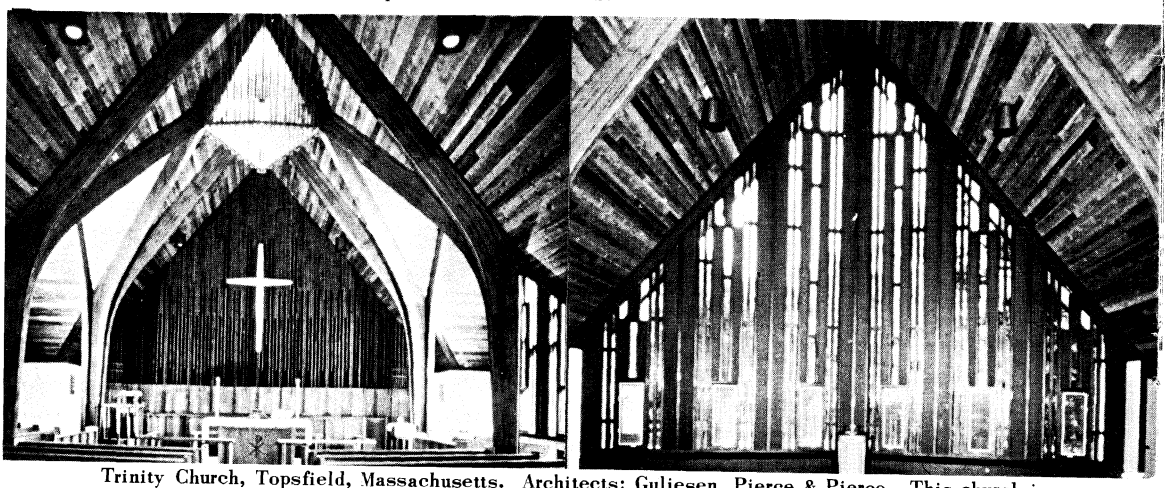
St. Andrew's Chapel, Mayo, Indiana. Architects: Rogers, Taliferro & Lamb. A good example of the "central" plan with free-standing altar surrounded on three sides by pews. It is well proportioned, carefully executed and is in the medium price range. The random arrangement of small rectangular openings with colored glass is an effective and inexpensive means of making the triangular gable walls suggest a traceried window.



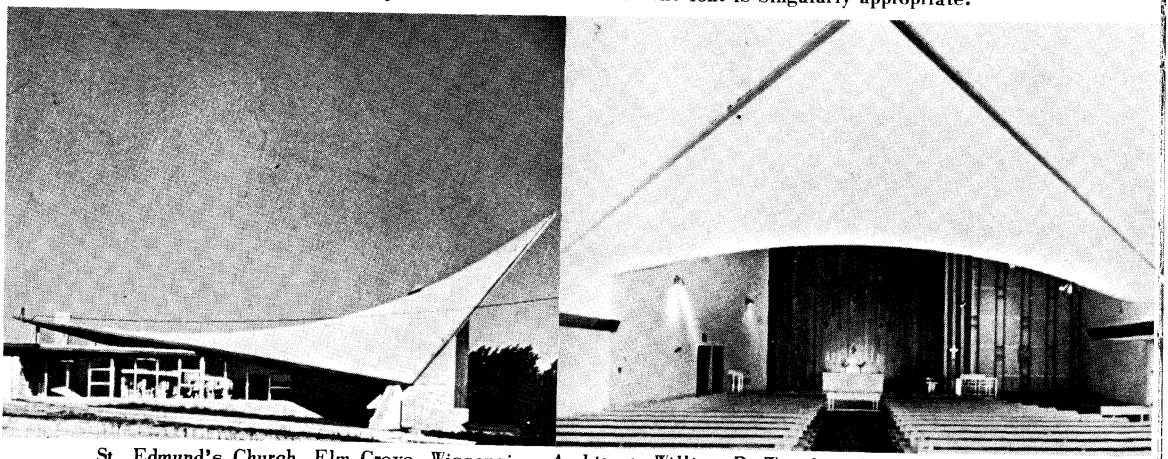
St. Paul's Church, Mt. Vernon, Washington. Architects: Durham, Anderson & Freed. Completed in 1960 this expensive church (cost $701 per seat) is most satisfactory and has been included in order to demonstrate the effectiveness of stone when used in conjunction with a predominately wooden structure. The east wall as shown here produces an immense effect of stable dignity.



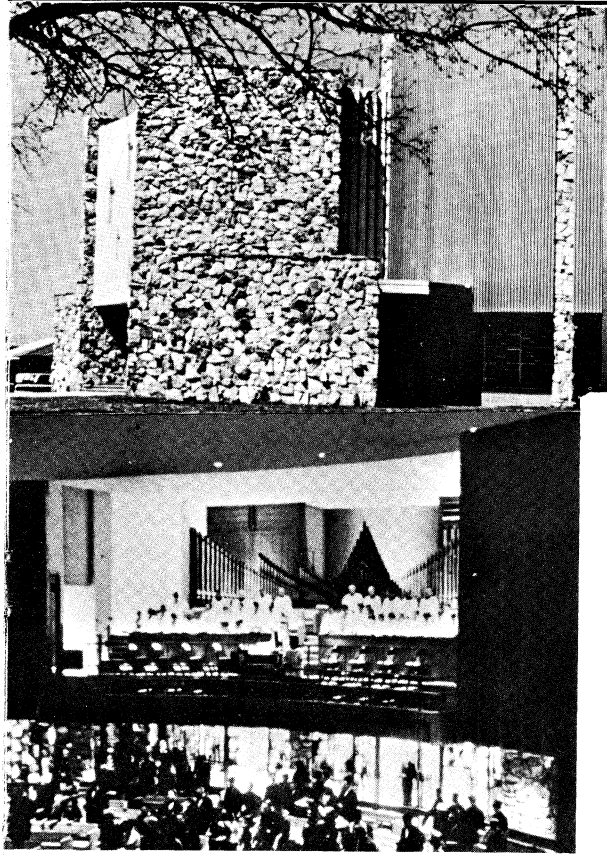
The Church of the Epiphany, Kirkwood, Missouri. Architect: Harris Armstrong. This is an example of the monumental use of brick. The exterior gives both richness and emphasis to the tremendous standing cross. The interior view of the sanctuary shows the effectiveness of simple materials and uncluttered space left to accomplish their natural ends.

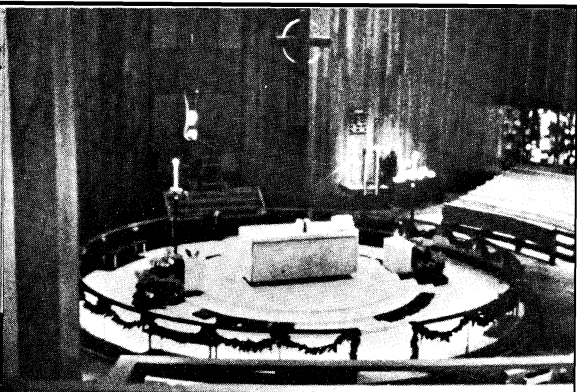


Trinity Church, Topsfield, Massachusetts. Architects: Guliesen, Pierce & Pierce. This church is a striking example of the modern use of wood to produce a conservatively styled church of great dignity. The interior shows the free-standing altar dictated by modern liturgical requirements. The liturgical west end of the church illustrates a remarkable use of glass. The use of space is as dignified and splendid as that of any ancient parish church we know of. The font is singularly appropriate.



St. Edmund's Church, Elm Grove, Wisconsin. Architect: William P. Wenzler. Built at the low cost of $277 per seat, St. Edmund's is an interesting expression of the increasingly popular plastic form, expressed this time in concrete. The interior is surprisingly successful though the effect of the more lofty sanctuary is lost in this illustration.





St. Luke's Church, Dallas, Texas. Architect: William H. Hidell, Jr. The exterior elevation of this church has evolved from a plan which might be called "a church-in-the-round." It is an illustration of the rich effect to be gained by the combination of wood and stone. The arrangement of the communion rail on the lowest of the chancel steps is highly commendable and is becoming a common practice. No one in the congregation must go up and down steps during communion service but kneels on the first step just a few inches above the main floor. The choir has been placed in the gallery above the congregation instead of between the altar and the people further adding to the sense of intimacy during a communion service. In effect we have here one family gathered closely around the Lord's Table.

St. Mark's Church, New Canaan, Connecticut. Architects: Sherwood, Mills & Smith. St. Mark's combines heroic scale and sculptural qualities in an impressive design. The use of heavy stained glass set in cement, the folded concrete vaults of the ceiling of the nave and the inspiring reredos done in steel by Clark Fitzgerald backing up the beautifully vested altar surrounded by the communion rail all work together to make this church an effective union of architecture and the arts which is exciting and worshipful.
