

What Does the Archives Do?

Archives By The Numbers

189 Years Old

Established in 1835

Discrete
Collections 5,160

64.1 Million

Pages of Documents

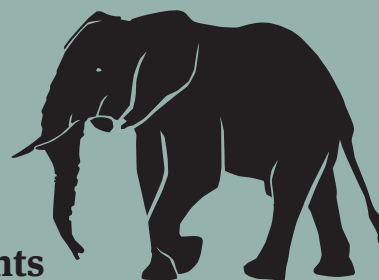

15,285 Cubic Feet
in the collection

The collection weighs 764,250 pounds

The Equivalent
of

85

African Elephants

520

Research
Requests
per year

21.5

Football Fields
Length of our shelving
laid end-to-end

2,018

Years Old

Oldest Artifact:
a Roman coin
minted in 6 AD

22,660

Diocesan Journals
Our Largest Single Collection

1,949

Unique Volumes of
The Book of Common Prayer

838 Years Old

Age of Our Oldest Book
The Peshitto
Syriac manuscript of the New Testament

120 TB

Of Electronic Records