PRAYERS FOR THE USE OF THE WOMAN'S AUXILIARY.

The Apostles' Creed and the Lord's Prayer.

Stir up, we beseech Thee, O Lord, the wills of Thy faithful people, that they plentifully bringing forth the fruit of good works, may by Thee be plentifully rewarded, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

O Lord, without Whom our labour is but lost, and with Whom Thy little ones go forth as the mighty ; we humbly beseech Thee to prosper the work which we have undertaken in Thy Holy Church, and grant to Thy labourers a pure intention, patient faith, sufficient success upon earth, and the blessedness of serving Thee in Heaven ; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Most gracious God, the giver of all good and perfect gifts, who of Thy wise Providence hast appointed divers orders in Thy Church, give Thy grace, we beseech Thee, to Thy servants, the Bishops of this Diocese ; grant them a right judgment in all things, and so replenish them with the truth of Thy doctrine and endue them with innocency of life, that they may faithfully serve before Thee, to the glory of Thy great name, and the benefit of Thy Holy Church ; through Jesus Christ, our only Mediator and Redeemer. Amen.

O Lord, who didst come to seek and to save the lost, and to Whom all power is given in heaven and earth, hear, we beseech Thee, the prayers of Thy Church for those who, at Thy command, go forth to preach the Gospel to every creature. Preserve them from all dangers to which they may be exposed ; from perils by land and by water ; from the deadly pestilence ; from the violence of the persecutor ; from doubt and impatience ; from discouragement and discord, and from all the devices of the powers of darkness. And while they plant and water, send Thou, O Lord, the increase ; gather in the multitude of the heathen ; convert in Christian lands such as neglect so great salvation ; so that Thy name may be glorified and Thy kingdom come, O gracious Saviour of the world ; to Whom, with the Father and the Holy Ghost, be honor and glory, world without end. Amen.

The Lord bless us and keep us, the Lord make his face to shine upon us and be gracious unto us, the Lord lift up his countenance upon us and give us peace, both now and evermore. Amen.

For Noon-Tide, Daily.

"And I, if I be lifted up, will draw all men unto Me."

Blessed Lord, Who at this hour didst hang upon the Cross stretching forth Thy loving arms ; grant that all mankind may look unto Thee and be saved ; through Thy mercies and merits, Who livest and reignest with the Father and the Holy Ghost, ever one God, world without end. Amen.

"Direct us, O Lord, in all our doings with Thy most gracious favor and further us with Thy continual help."

THE PRESIDENT'S ADDRESS

The Twenty-eighth Annual Meeting of the Albany Diocesan Branch of the Woman's Auxiliary to the Board of Missions, is being held in the well known and well beloved parish of St. Ann's, Amsterdam.

It is many years, dear friends, since it has gathered here, and it gives me the very greatest pleasure to feel that St. Ann's branch of the Auxiliary was so glad, and so eager to entertain us. I hope that every branch in the diocese has sent at least, one representative. Let us try through the coming year, to encourage a more equal representation in the future.

What has been the result of the past year? What have we done? I believe that we have paid our pledge to the Board, for General Missions, which pleases me very much.

I am wondering whether we have also remembered about our two Diocesan pledges, current expenses and the salary of the Diocesan Missionary.

Will not each branch send a stated amount, for these two objects, to the treasurer each year at the same time that they pay their pledge for General Missions? A small amount of two or three dollars a year, from small branches; and five or ten from the larger ones, would pay our running expenses, and would add greatly to our Treasurer's peace of mind. I feel sure that all those branches that already give liberally to Missions, could vote five or ten dollars a year, also, to these Diocesan needs. In like manner, also, the smaller branches could vote smaller sums for the same purposes, as they might feel able.

During the coming year let us try to make strong, the weak places at home; by our prayers, our work and our gifts, while we hearken, also to the cry for help of those in far off lands.

We have witnessed two very important and notable events, during the past year. The General Convention, in Cincinnati, and the Woman's National Foreign Missionary Jubilee.

"Missions" was the great theme at the Convention, and the bugle-note of advance was then sounded, which still rings in the ears of all that heard it. It practically called for a general reconstruction of everything. The Church itself, has determined upon a more aggressive Missionary Policy than ever before.

New fields have been opened out, and new Bishops have been Consecrated to shepherd them. The district of Hankow, China, and also that of Oklahoma in our own country, were each divided: a portion of California was made into the Missionary district of San Joaquin: from parts of the dioceses of Dallas and West Texas, the new Missionary district of North Texas was formed, thus making five new districts to be added to the Missions of the Church.

As the field grows larger, year by year, and as the demand for the support of the work and workers increases, does it not call us to more work; more prayer; more self-denial; more love and sympathy than ever before? I think so.

Our vision must be larger and broader than in the past; our prejudices must be made to lose some of their ugly creases, and in some way, we must adjust ourselves to the forward march of the age, if we would keep pace with it at all. In the Golden Jubilee of the Woman's National Foreign Missionary Societies, which swept over the Country from the Pacific Coast to the Atlantic, like a mighty tidal-wave, there was an attempt made to give a clear and vivid picture of Woman's organized work for Foreign Missions, since its beginning in America fifty years ago, and I am indebted to the Spirit of Missions for March, 1911, for much of my information regarding the Jubilee.

While the chief object of the meetings was to celebrate the Fiftieth Anniversary of Woman's Work in the Foreign Field, they also had the added object of seeking to stimulate the interest for Missions among the Christian Women of our own country.

Meetings were held in all the principal cities and towns, literature was distributed freely, and many addresses were made by Missionaries.

We gained much from the meetings in Albany and Troy. A wider and more true conception of the great opportunity confronting the Christian Church in the Orient; a deepening of the prayerful life in each individual, and a larger sense of obligation in the matter of giving to Missions.

Many who were already interested in Foreign Missions were stimulated to greater effort, and many I am sure, who have been careless and indifferent before, were given a better and wider knowledge of Foreign Missions.

In an age when we hear so much about Church Unity, it was gratifying to find the women of all Christian Communions coming together on the subject of Missions.

"Missions" are without doubt the one great object of the Church, and our Blessed Lord was, himself, the first and greatest Missionary, imparting to it an endless ever fresh supply of spiritual life and strength.

My wish for the Auxiliary in the Diocese of Albany, is that it shall rise to the opportunities which confront it. Never in our time have the doors of the Orient been thrown so wide open to western learning, thought and religion as they are to-day. What is to be our attitude? If we are unable to offer ourselves to the work, we can at least, give of our abundance for the support of the work and workers, and in all cases we can surely pray for them as well.

I wish every possible success to the Albany Diocesan Branch in the year just beginning, and I wish to thank my Secretaries and Treasurer, my Managers and Vice-Presidents, for their most gracious and untiring help.

HENRIETTA PELL-CLARKE,

Deaconess.

DIRECTIONS FOR PARISH SECRETARIES

1. The Corresponding Secretary of the Diocesan Branch, has on hand letters, sent from the Church Missions House, stating needs of missionaries, hospitals and schools in the Mission field. Also letters, approved by our Bishops, which state the needs of the missionaries in our own Diocese. When your branch is ready to start work, write to the Corresponding Secretary for such letters.
2. When your branch has undertaken the work for which your selected letter calls, notify the Secretary at once, sending her the name and address in such letter, and your own address and parish.
3. It is of the utmost importance that immediately after such decision, all rejected letters be returned to the Corresponding Secretary.
4. Write to the Missionary at once, stating when and from whom he may expect a box.
5. Write to the Missionary as soon as the box has been dispatched, also the Diocesan Corresponding Secretary, with statement concerning value of box.
6. Blanks will be sent out early in April, 1912, for a report of the year's work. Read them carefully and fill them out fully. Return them to the Corresponding Secretary at once, correcting any errors which appear in the report of 1911. At this time also write to the Manager of your division, giving any details of work and method in your branch.

All boxes of books, single books or magazines should be reported through the Church Periodical Club.
7. Always notify the Corresponding Secretary of any change of branch officers during the year. Keep in touch with the Manager of your division, and for any desired information write to the diocesan officers having such matter in charge.
8. Copies of the Special Auxiliary service, approved by the Bishop, will be sent on application to either Recording or Corresponding Secretary.

RECORDING SECRETARY.

Mrs. A. V. Bell 265 Hamilton St., Albany.

REPORT OF ARCHDEACONRY OF ALBANY

1st DIVISION.

ALBANY—ALL SAINTS :

The Cathedral branch of the Woman's Auxiliary, has held regular monthly meetings from October to May, inclusive, which have been well attended and at which addresses have been made by the clergy and by members of the Auxiliary. Two boxes have been sent and all pledges paid. Special meeting for Missionary sewing and reading have been held during Lent.

ALBANY—HOLY INNOCENTS :

This branch reports a year of continued effort. Meetings have been held each month during the autumn and winter and on the second Sunday in January a special Missionary service was held with a sermon by the Rector and a corporate Communion for all women workers in the parish. This branch has also been visited by the Diocesan president, Deaconess Pell-Clarke, who told of the work of the Auxiliary at the General Convention. Gifts to the United offering and pledges have been made, and a creditable box sent.

ALBANY—ST. PAUL'S :

This branch has held seven business meetings at which missionary addresses and stereopticon lectures were given. During Lent weekly meetings were held, when garments were made to be sent to Cafe Palmes Orphanage in Africa. All pledges have been paid and a contribution made to the United offering.

ALBANY—ST. PETER'S :

This branch reports nine boxes, which partly represents its year's work. The Lenten service was started a few weeks before Lent and the subject of study was our Missions in Africa. At one of the monthly meetings an address was made by Miss Schereschewsky, of Japan, and at another by Rev. C. E. Betticher, of Alaska.

ALBANY—ST. ANDREW'S :

This branch has been much encouraged this year. Deeper interest has been taken in the work, and the serving of light refreshments at the meetings greatly improved the social side of it. Boxes and barrels have been sent to different missionaries, also gifts of money.

ALBANY—TRINITY :

This branch is at present in a dormant state, but it is hoped that very soon it will be doing the very excellent work it once did.

COHOES—ST. JOHN'S :

This branch sent three barrels and one box to the South, also money to a clergymen's family and to St. Margarets, Tokio.

AMSTERDAM—ST. ANN'S :

This branch has held thirteen meetings at which there was an average attendance of thirteen members. Much sewing has been done and a regular course of reading has been followed. On Feb. 1st a missionary conference for neighboring auxiliaries was held, at which the Rev. C. E. Betticher, Jr., of Alaska, made a stirring address. On Maunday Thursday a corporate Communion was observed. Four fard sales and teas added to the treasury, and a miscellaneous barrel was sent to the Rev. A. B. Livermore, of Fletcher, N. C. At the annual meeting it was voted to double the apportionment to the Board of Missions and in addition money was sent to Mr. Betticher for his work in Alaska, and to St. Margaret's, Tokio. During the year two valued members were lost by death and two by removal from city. Fifteen new members have come into the branch making the present membership forty seven.

FONDA—ZION :

This branch reports a membership of fourteen members and eight meetings during the year. Also a contribution to the United offering, Branch fees, salary of diocesan missionary, and general work.

GLOVERSVILLE—CHRIST CHURCH :

During the illness of the president this Branch did not begin work until November. Notwithstanding fifteen meetings fairly well attended were held. During Lent they worked for a sale. All pledges were paid and one box sent.

RENSSELAERVILLE—TRINITY :

This branch, although small in number and strength, is nevertheless anxious to do what it can and struggles to keep in existence. All pledges are paid, also a contribution to United offering.

JENNIE B. KING,

Manager First Division of Archdeaconry of Albany.

Stamford	Grace.....	President, Secretary, Treasurer,

There is really very little for the manager of the 2nd Division of the Archdeaconry to report.

Walton Parish Branch reports for the year ending April 6th, 1911, eight regular monthly meetings and twenty-seven meetings for work. Average attendance at monthly meetings seven; at work meetings, five; number of members enrolled thirty-three. The Branch has paid all pledges, also giving to several appeals not included in the pledges.

The United Offering has been made and sent to the Diocesan Treasurer. A box valued at fifty dollars has been sent to the Virginia Mountain Missionary. With the exception of a dinner given in the Parish House in November, the money for all purposes has been raised by the payment of dues, and by the work of a few faithful members at the work meetings, but the Annual Report of the Parish Treasurer is most encouraging and gives evidence of how much the few faithful ones have accomplished. They have the prayers at meetings in behalf of those for whom work is done, and for those engaged in it. There are readings at meetings from the "Spirit of Missions" and quite a number are regular subscribers; we also have one copy at the public library.

At the Annual Meeting suggestions were made for a fresh attempt at readings and Missionary meetings during the coming year to which the members present assented gladly.

The United Offering for the past six months is $10.22. All leaflets sent me in regard to it, have been sent to every Parish Branch. There is not as much interest in this Branch in Missions and Missionary work as I wish and hope to see and pray for. I am grieved to report the death of Mrs. Olive Webster, one of the most faithful, devoted, and interested Auxiliary Mission workers Walton Branch ever had, and our loss was Franklin's gain, as she had moved from Walton to Franklin some time before her death, and before her sickness was active in the work for the Auxiliary of St. Paul's.

STAMFORD—GRACE :

It is most encouraging to receive a report from Stamford this year. They are still working away on the old lines, having their monthly meetings except during the Summer. They have prayers, intercessions, and instructions, and do what giving they can.

St. Paul's, Franklin, says they have already sent their report to Mrs. Griswold. They hope to have the General Meeting of the Woman's Auxiliary next year.

ST. JOHN'S—DELHI :

The women are greatly interested in the work, consequently they are prayerful. At each of their meetings they have prayers. They also have Corporate Communion at their first meeting, and each person is expected to come to that service and it is always well attended, and afterward they hold their business meeting when the letters are read and their work for the year decided upon. They have Missionary reading at their regular business meeting held the first of every month, and find the "Spirit of Missions" most helpful. Their regular study for this year and next is Japan.

Mrs. Norton, the United Offering Secretary is very faithful in her duties connected with the work, and holds a meeting annually at which she gives a talk on the work, sees the boxes distributed and reads a report of what the Branch does through the year ; also a report of the whole United Offering.

I regret very much to report that the Branch at Sidney has been disbanded, with the hope of re-organizing again when they feel they can have both a Parish Aid and Woman's Auxiliary.

HARRIET LOCKWOOD,

Manager.

CAMBRIDGE :

Meetings have been held, and money raised from dues and sales. This Branch has been interested in the work under Archdeacon Stuck, in Alaska ; also, in that under Rev. Mr. Hardin, in North Carolina.

FORT EDWARD :

On account of sickness and death among its active members, this Branch has been unable to do any work this year.

GRANVILLE :

This Branch reports thirteen active members, and monthly meetings. Articles on work in the Missionary fields have been read from the Spirit of Missions.

HOOSAC :

This Branch has twenty-two members, an increase of four over last year. Meetings were held weekly, money was raised by making and selling aprons and rugs ; also from food sales. The first Thursday of each month was devoted to Missionary study. During the year the study was Missionary work among the Indians. The members are much interested in the work.

HOOSICK FALLS :

St. Mark's Auxiliary is strictly a Missionary Society. Meetings were held once a month. The season was devoted entirely to the study of Missionary work in China. The program outlined by the Educational Department was followed. There was an average attendance of twenty-five members and great interest shown.

HUDSON FALLS :

Monthly meetings have been held, with weekly meetings during Advent. At the Advent meetings papers were read on the work among the Mountaineers of the South.

RENSSELAER :

This Branch met semi-monthly, with weekly meetings during Lent, and is interested in the work at Marion, North Carolina ; also in Alaska. During Lent, garments were made for the colored children at Holy Cross Farm, O.

SALEM :

Although this Parish has been without a rector for a year, the work of the Branch has gone on. Meetings have been held for the study of Missions, and an offering taken at each meeting. The members are few in number, but all of them are deeply interested in Auxiliary work.

TROY—ASCENSION :

Weekly meetings have been held with an average attendance of sixteen members. One Missionary Tea has been given, at which time Mrs. C. M. Griswold, Corresponding Secretary of the Diocese gave an interesting talk. Miss Plowsdale, of Mercedes Home, London, also visited this branch and gave an account of her work. Money has been raised from dues, suppers, food and apron sales. Altogether the year has been a successful and prosperous one.

TROY—HOLY CROSS :

During the past year this Branch has been working along the usual lines, with perhaps a better attendance. Meetings are held monthly except during Lent when they are weekly, and these are for prayer, work and special devotional reading. One of the annual interests is the opening of a birthday bank in May. The contents are given for some special object. This Branch has been particularly favored by having addresses from Bishop Lloyd and Miss Schereschewsky ; also in hearing Bishop Rowe and the Rev. Mr. Betticher of Alaska.

TROY—ST. JOHN'S :

No report.

TROY—ST. PAUL'S :

This Branch has held monthly meetings, the work being carried on as in former years, by the sending of valuable boxes and money to the Mission Field.

Respectfully submitted,

They have not had any Missionary reading at their meetings, or any study class but hope to do better next year. They report several new subscribers to The Spirit of Missions.

Report that much illness among their members has very seriously interfered with their work this year ; their meetings have been very irregular, sometimes only two present ; but they have met their pledges and are full of interest and enthusiasm.

CHARLTON—ST. PAUL'S :

A very sad letter received from this branch. The clergyman left last May on account of his health, no one else was called ; for the first time in one hundred years the Church has been closed. MECHANICVILLE—ST. LUKE'S :

Has had a very successful year of work, the meetings are held monthly with an average attendance of six ; they have readings from the Spirit of Missions and other literature at the meetings. During Lent they worked on a box for St. Barnabas Hospital, Salina, Kansas. A large delegation from Mechanicville, East Line and Round Lake attended Mr. Betticher's lecture at Saratoga.

EAST LINE—ST. JOHN'S :

Has a membership of fifteen an average attendance of nine. They made a box of clothing and bedding for the Cooperstown Orphanage ; have met their pledges.

SARATOGA SPRINGS—BETHESDA :

They have had weekly meetings with a study class every other week during Lent, when they took up Mexico, The Mountain Whites, Dacotah. They have worked on three boxes during the winter ; have sent a clerical suit. Sent a barrel of magazines to the Free Reading Room at Marshall, Michigan. A box of second-hand clothes to the consumptives in the Adirondacks. This branch had the great pleasure of entertaining the semi-annual meeting of the Woman's Auxiliary in the fall. They also had an extremely interesting lecture from Rev. Mr. Betticher of Alaska.

No report received from the other branches in my division.

MINUTES OF THE 27TH ANNUAL MEETING.

The annual meeting of the Albany Diocesan Branch, of the Woman's Auxiliary, to the Board of Missions, was held in Christ Church, Cooperstown, on May 27th and 28th, 1910, with an attendance of one hundred and fifteen. The Clergy, Officers and Delegates arrived on Friday morning and were met by the Rector, Rev. Ralph Birdsall and Mrs. Birdsall, with a most courteous corps of assistants who welcomed and arranged comfortable quarters for all.

2:30. About 75 delegates took the boat Mohican, which the President, Deaconess Pell-Clarke had provided, and sailed to her beautiful home at Swanswick, where all were most cordially entertained. In the evening a Missionary Service was held in Christ Church, at which Rev. H. L. Burleson, Assistant-Secretary, from the Church Mission House, New York City, gave a stirring address on the personal responsibilities of Missionary Work.

Saturday, 7:30 A. M. Corporate Communion Service at which there was a large attendance.

Resolution Fifth. The Diocesan Woman's Auxiliary assembled at Cooperstown for its 27th Annual Meeting, wishes to convey its expression of regret to Miss Sterling of Morris, on her absence through ill health, assuring her of the great disappointment at missing her address upon "Mission Study Methods," feeling we have lost an opportunity of profitable instruction upon the subject, which she fully understands and has so successfully demonstrated in her own parish. On December 12th, Dr. Harding, Secretary of this Missionary District, spoke at the Cathedral Guild House, Albany, at which time representatives from 22 Branches were present.

Mrs. E. W. Babcock arranged an itinerary in February from the Rev. Betticher of Alaska, including Amsterdam, Cambridge, Hoosic, Glens Falls, Saratoga, Hudson, Troy and Albany. At each place all nearby parishes were invited and all meetings were enthusiastically attended.

The Jubilee of Woman's Foreign Missionary Work was held in Albany, the Episcopal Rally in connection with it at St. Peter's. The parishes in the vicinity sent good representations and the knowledge and interest gained will be shown in our future work.

Respectfully submitted,

ELIZABETH W. J. GRISWOLD,

Corresponding Secretary.

REPORT OF THE WOMEN'S AUXILIARY DEPARTMENT IN THE CHURCH RECORD FOR 1910-11.

In the report for 1909-10, Mrs. Mather, then in charge of the department, wrote as follows:

As the aim of the Woman's Auxiliary is to "diffuse missionary intelligence, to increase missionary activity among the women of the diocese, and to encourage the formation of new branches," and the aim of this department is to further these ends, it will readily be seen that if properly managed the writers of the articles should be in closer touch with the different branches than at present.

It hardly seems feasible to write each branch for an account of individual work, as there are several reports already to be prepared, and reports seem burdensome things.

If the different branches would send in anything of interest being accomplished in the line of work or study it would help to spread the interest, we feel sure.

Let us hope that during the coming year the articles may at least be more helpful than this past winter.

To emphasize the words of Mrs. Mather, is all that can be said this year.

If the branches will write to the department, any items of interest and help will be printed, and the department asks that every branch of the Woman's Auxiliary in the Diocese, will subscribe for and read the "Church Record," that the work of the Auxiliary may be known throughout the Diocese, and be of help to the individual parishes.

S. T. KNAPP.

CONSTITUTION.

ARTICLE I.

The name of this society is "The Albany Diocesan Branch of the Woman's Auxiliary to the Board of Missions."

ARTICLE II.

The object of this society is, by means of mutual and systematic effort, to diffuse missionary intelligence, to increase missionary activity among the women of the diocese, and to encourage the formation of new branches. In furtherance of this there may be maintained :

- (a) A department in the periodical newspaper of the diocese to be devoted to the interests of the Woman's Auxiliary.
- (b) A branch of the church periodical club for the distribution to missionaries of religious and secular literature.
- (c) Such other work as from time to time may be deemed expedient for the further development of the society.

ARTICLE III.

Any woman who is a member of a parish branch becomes thereby a member of the Diocesan branch.

The officers of each parish branch shall send to the treasurer all pledges and money given for other than parish or local purposes. They shall make to the corresponding secretary, before May 1st of each year, a report of the number and value of their missionary boxes.

ARTICLE IV.

The officers of this society shall be a president, five vice-presidents, a recording secretary, a corresponding secretary, a secretary for the junior department and a treasurer, and a treasurer for the United Offering.

These officers shall be appointed by the Bishop at each annual meeting and shall serve one year. In addition there shall be one or more managers for each archdeaconry, chosen by the Archdeacon and approved by the Bishop. These officers, together with the chairmen of standing committees, shall constitute the executive committee.

1. The president, or in her absence, one of the vice-presidents, shall call and preside over all meetings.

2. The recording secretary shall send all notices, keep the minutes of all meetings and shall send a copy of the minutes of every executive meeting to each manager not present at such meeting. She shall be responsible for the issuing and distributing of the annual report.

3. The corresponding secretary shall assist in preparing the annual report and conduct the correspondence of the society with parish branches, with missionaries, with the managers and with the general secretary of the Woman's Auxiliary to the Board of Missions.

4. The secretary of the Junior Auxiliary shall conduct all the business of her department and shall make a report at the annual and semi-annual meetings. She shall make an annual report of missionary boxes to the corresponding secretary and all money to the treasurer.

5. The treasurer shall have the custody of all money received by the Diocesan Branch, and shall collect by correspondence if necessary, all sums payable to the same ; shall keep a full and accurate record of all receipts and disbursements, with date, purpose and amount, and shall make a full report of the same at each regular meeting. She shall pay out money only as directed by the Diocesan Branch or Executive Committee, except such sums as may be received for a definite purpose, and which may be disposed of without formal directions. All money received for purposes outside the diocese shall be forwarded through the general secretary of the Woman's Auxiliary to the Board of Missions.

The treasurer of United Offering shall be responsible for the collection and disbursement of that fund.

The Bishop shall appoint annually an auditor, who shall examine the accounts of the treasurer before they are presented at the annual meeting.

ARTICLE V.

Managers shall endeavor to stimulate the formation of new parish branches, to infuse greater missionary spirit throughout their archdeaconries, and shall seek to increase intelligent interest in the missionary work of the church.

At the annual and semi-annual meetings an opportunity will be afforded the managers to meet the members of the branches of their respective archdeaconries.

At least one general meeting should be held during the year in each archdeaconry.

Each manager shall present a written report of her work for the year at the annual meeting of the Diocesan Branch.

ARTICLE VI.

The annual meeting shall be held in May, the time and place of meeting to be decided by the Executive Committee.

At this meeting the annual reports shall be presented and the officers appointed. A semi-annual meeting shall be held in the fall of each year, the date and place of meeting to be decided upon by the Executive Committee.

Special meetings may be called by the president at the request of five of the executive committee.

Notice of all meetings shall be sent to each diocesan officer and the secretary of each parish branch.

A quorum for the transaction of business shall consist of the members present at any meeting regularly called.

ARTICLE VII.

This constitution may be amended by a two-thirds vote at any regular meeting, provided that notice of the proposed amendment has been given with the call for this meeting.
