Mid-Day Prayer for Missions

"And I, if I be lifted up, will draw all men unto me."

Blessed Saviour, who at this hour didst hang upon the cross, stretching forth Thy loving arms; grant that all mankind may look unto Thee and be saved; through Thy mercies and merits, who livest and reignest with the Father and the Holy Ghost, ever one God, world without end. Amen.

For Use in Study Classes and Other Missionary Gatherings

Dear Lord of our lives and Master of the hearts of men, who hast commanded that we go forth into all the world and carry Thy message to every creature; give us faith to believe and grace to obey Thy word. Make us to understand that this is the common task and the highest privilege of all Thy servants; and that each of us, to the utmost of opportunity which Thou dost grant, must be Thy messenger and aid others so to be. To those who go afar, carrying glad tidings and publishing salvation, give Thy largest and richest blessing. Go Thou with them, or else send them not forth; be Thou their strength and stay, and their exceeding great reward. To those of us whose appointed service it is that we remain in our accustomed place and walk in the familiar ways, grant us such a vision of the great world and its needs as shall make us instant and eager sharers in speeding the work now, in the great day of our opportunity. We ask it for the glory of Thy name, who with the Father and the Holy Ghost art one God, world without end. Amen.

Direct us, O Lord, in all our doings with Thy most gracious favor and further us with Thy continual help; that in all our works begun, continued and ended in Thee, we may glorify Thy holy Name, and finally, by Thy mercy, obtain everlasting life, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

THE DIOCESAN CORPORATE COMMUNION

January sixth, the Feast of the Epiphany, has been selected by the President and Executive Board as a most fitting time for the Diocesan Corporate Communion, and it is hoped that all the branches in the diocese may unite in this special service.

PRESIDENT'S ADDRESS

A fortnight since, it was my very great privilege to have attended one of the largest gatherings of patriotic women that has ever been assembled. The reports made by them in the various departments of their work done for their country, during the period of the war, were of a most extraordinary and inspiring nature, often assuming really stupendous proportions.

But finally there came a solemn moment, when it was announced that, the war being over, the various committees, organized especially for war work, must now, automatically cease. I call it a solemn moment, and such, in truth, it was, for I doubt whether there was a woman in all that large assemblage who had not given freely and generously of her time and her talent to help her country in its need, and surely hundreds of them had given to the very utmost of their ability. But to some of us the moment was doubly solemn, for while to many it may have meant the laying down of unusual duties and burdens, engendered by the war, and returning to a more placid, restful life, to others of us it seemed a moment pregnant with wonderful hopes for the future, and that the time had come when a vast opportunity was opening to us all.

Women of the Auxiliary, such is now your chance. During the years of the war, you have done splendid work, but, in certain cases, perhaps the Red Cross, or perhaps some other organized war work, has interfered, sometimes disastrously, with your missionary work, and you have fallen behind with those obligations.

Will you not now come back to your Church work with redoubled vigor, energy and interest. As I just said, a vast and splendid opportunity lies before you. There is not one member of the Auxiliary, on the one hand, too humble, too sequestered in her life, or too feeble, or, on the other hand, too busy or too occupied with the stirring events of the day, but now has the chance to become an active, virile force in lending her hand to the reconstruction of the world, through the effort of the life of the Church. Let the Woman's Auxiliary be a vital factor in this. Go back to your parishes inspired with a new zeal for splendid accomplishment, and determined to do your utmost in helping in the new fields of Auxiliary development. Will not each one of you lend your aid to see that the Diocese of Albany takes a leading part in this? It will be through your effort, the effort of each individual member, lending your influence and working in conjunction with all the other members, that alone can accomplish this, and make the Albany Diocesan Branch of the Woman's Auxiliary to the Board of Missions take and keep the leading place in which it so justly belongs. Will you not do your utmost in helping to make, through our missionary work, the lives of thousands of people, both near by and far away, holier and happier through your broadening and more potent ministrations?

LOUISA VAN RENSSELAER.

DIRECTIONS FOR PARISH SECRETARIES

---

Always mention your parish and your town in every communication.

1. The corresponding secretary of the Diocesan Branch has on hand letters sent from the Church Missions House, stating needs of missionaries, hospitals and schools in the mission field. Also letters, approved by our Bishop, which state the needs of the missionaries in our own diocese. When your branch is ready to start work, write to the corresponding secretary for such letters.

2. When your branch has undertaken the work for which your selected letter calls, notify the secretary at once, sending her the name and address in such letter, and your own address and parish.

3. It is of the utmost importance that immediately after such decision, all rejected letters be returned to the corresponding secretary.

4. Write to the missionary at once, stating when and from whom he may expect a box.

5. Write to the missionary as soon as the box has been dispatched, also to the diocesan corresponding secretary, with statement concerning value of box.

6. Blanks will be sent for a report of the year's work. Read them carefully and fill them out fully. Return them to the corresponding secretary at once, correcting any errors which appear in the last report. At this time also write to the manager of your division, giving any details of work and method in your branch.

All boxes of books, single books or magazines should be reported through the Church Periodical Club.

7. Always notify the corresponding secretary of any change of branch officers during the year. Keep in touch with the manager of your division, and for any desired information write to the diocesan officers having such matters in charge.

REPORT OF THE PARISH BRANCHES OF THE ARCHDEACONRY OF ALBANY

FIRST DIVISION

ALBANY—CATHEDRAL OF ALL SAINTS:

Had speakers for some meetings. They have met monthly, except during Lent, when weekly meetings were held. All pledges were kept.

ALBANY — ST. ANDREW'S:

The Auxiliary in this parish had a very interesting study class that met each week, when different branches of missionary work have been reviewed each time. They have been fortunate in having a president who has had special training for the work.

ALBANY — HOLY INNOCENTS':

The members in this branch are few, but the faithful few have kept all pledges, and have given twenty-five dollars for the United Offering.

ALBANY — ST. PETER'S:

The president of this branch has invited members of various denominational Churches, interested in missionary work, to tell of their efforts and success in different branches of the work, and in many fields.

ALBANY — ST. PAUL'S:

This branch has had two speakers this year—Major Anderson of the Salvation Army, who told of the work of that organization on the battle-fields of France, and Mrs. Walter Hughson of Grace Hospital, Morganton, N. C., who spoke of the missionary work among the mountaineers of that region.

ALBANY — TRINITY:

The Aid Society, the Guild and the Auxiliary have met together in this parish, and have given all they could for each organization.

AMSTERDAM — ST. ANN'S:

Meetings have been held from October to April. A Corporate Communion was held, with a large attendance. They have contributed to Current Expenses, Foreign Life Insurance, William C. Doane Scholarship, Mary H. Rochester Scholarship, and for general work.

GLOVERSVILLE — TRINITY:

The outlook for the future of this branch is very promising. They have had missionary addresses, and they have had an average attendance of eighteen members.

JOHNSTOWN:

No report.

FONDA:

No report.

RENSSELAERVILLE:

No report.

WATERVLIET — TRINITY:

The secretary of this branch reports the death of their president, and that in consequence no work has been done.

COHOES — ST. JOHN'S:

From October 1, 1917, to January 1, 1918, twelve working meetings were held and four social meetings. At these meetings addresses were made by the Rev. Dr. Sill, Rector, and by officers of the W. A. Each meeting is closed with devotions, and at many of the meetings missionary readings are given. At the Annual United Offering meeting, in September, 1918, Miss Emery was present, and gave a most wonderful address upon the Auxiliary and personal service. The Advent Call services were well attended, with twenty-four messengers sent out, who covered the parish, while at least sixty intercessors were named. The number of those unknown intercessors, daily and hourly breathing prayers for the success of the work, cannot be computed.

Respectfully submitted,

MARY A. GAZELEY, Manager.

ASHLAND — TRINITY:

This branch, while unable to meet regularly the past year, has sent its usual amount to the Auxiliary, and feels that the work of the Auxiliary is of the greatest importance, and hopes to be able to meet more regularly next year.

ATHENS — TRINITY:

The year was started by this Auxiliary under rather discouraging circumstances, one of which was an empty treasury. One of the members gave a series of talks on Shakespeare Heroines, charging a small admission. The result was very gratifying. Funds thus obtained were used to buy materials for making garments to be sent away. These sewing meetings were well attended, and the year closes with a feeling that good work has been accomplished.

CAIRO — CALVARY:

The work done by this branch has been given to war relief.

CATSKILL — ST. LUKE'S:

There has been an average attendance of forty at the regular monthly meetings, and great interest shown in papers prepared on work among the Indians. During Lent, sewing meetings were held every Thursday. The result was a large box sent to a school in the South.

COXSACKIE — CHRIST CHURCH:

Christ Church Auxiliary has lost one of its faithful members this past year, leaving only nine. During Lent sewing is done for the Cooperstown Orphanage. The money raised is used for meeting the Auxiliary pledge, and for parochial needs.

DUANESBURG — CHRIST CHURCH:

No report received.

FRANKFORT — ST. ALBAN'S:

No regular report has been received from this branch. The organization has become almost entirely parochial in its interests.

HERKIMER — CHRIST CHURCH:

No report.

HUDSON — CHRIST CHURCH:

This parish reports monthly meetings held, with a good attendance, also weekly sewing meetings, most of the working year. In addition to these, the branch met, as a body, every Friday afternoon at the Red Cross rooms, and did excellent work there. Articles from the Spirit of Missions were read at several meetings, and one Corporate Communion was held during the year.

HUDSON — ALL SAINTS':

This Auxiliary seems to have had a very interesting and encouraging year. It is their custom to have a speaker from out of town for the first meeting in the fall. The interest then obtained gives stimulus to the work throughout the year. Special sewing meetings are held in Advent and Lent to work for missionary boxes. The Study Class has become the vitality of the life of this branch.

ILION — ST. AUGUSTINE'S:

No report.

KINDERHOOK — ST. PAUL'S:

The Auxiliary and St. Paul's Guild of this parish have merged, and weekly meetings were held from October to May. The greater part of the Auxiliary work was done during the Lenten season. Clothing was sent to Valle Crucis School, and fruits and jellies to the Cooperstown Orphanage, also some clothing was sent to a clergyman in the diocese. The loss of the former secretary, Miss Wynkoop, is greatly felt.

LEBANON SPRINGS — CHURCH OF OUR SAVIOUR:

No report.

LITTLE FALLS — EMMANUEL:

The Auxiliary in this parish sends many garments made at their meetings, which are held weekly during Advent and Lent to various missionary stations. At their monthly meetings, held from September to June, they often have readings from various Church papers. The attendance has not been as large as could be wished, but those who come do excellent work.

PALENVILLE — GLORIA DEI:

No report received.

SCHENECTADY — ST. GEORGE'S:

SECTION A.

This Auxiliary reports a good year, with quite a large increase in membership. Two luncheons have been held at the homes of two of the members, with a very interesting talk by Mrs. Armstrong at one of them. The Pilgrimage of Prayer was observed from December 31st to January 6th, closing with a Corporate Communion. A Mission Study Class was held during Lent.

SECTION B:

This branch has also had a satisfactory year, the members meeting every two weeks to sew for missionary boxes. A plan is on foot to merge Section B with Section A the coming year. This plan was carried out in the fall of 1918, both sections meeting as one every two weeks for sewing, with a very good attendance.

FLORENCE C. STRONG, Manager.

The manager feels that the exigencies of the war, and the epidemic of influenza in the early fall of 1918, are, partially, at least, the cause of the failure of so many branches to send in a report of their year's work.

BRUSHTON—ST. PETER'S:

The work was, as usual, for the Cooperstown Orphanage.

CHAMPLAIN—ST. JOHN'S:

This branch sent a box to Saluda, N. C., and made contributions to pledges and to United Offering.

GOUVERNEUR—TRINITY:

Two boxes were sent off by this branch—one to St. Thomas' Mission, Beattyville, Ky., and the other to St. John's Industrial School, Corbin, Ky.. A Christmas box was sent to Satterlee Settlement House, Columbia, S. C. Meetings well attended.

MASSENA—ST. JOHN'S:

The missionary spirit in this branch is alive, and much good work has been done. In addition to keeping up parish work, an Easter box was sent to Atlanta, Ga., and sewing done by members for Red Cross. All pledges kept, and contributions made to United Offering.

OGDENSBURG—ST. JOHN'S:

This branch held its thirty-fifth annual meeting January 5, 1917. The Rector presided. Reports were read and officers elected. The Rector spoke of the interest in the work of the Auxiliary, in spite of the many demands for war work.

There is an average attendance of eighteen members at the regular monthly meetings. Six reading meetings were held before Lent, The Spirit of Missions furnishing articles for thought and consideration. Much work was accomplished at the six working meetings held during Lent, for Saluda, N. C., Missionary District of Asheville. The box sent off was valued at $45.79.

At the annual meeting, the Treasurer reported $175 in hand, and $17 sent for United Offering.

PLATTSBURG—TRINITY

Box sent by this branch to Lawrenceville, Va. Pledges kept and contributions to United Offering. Much time spent at Red Cross headquarters.

POTSDAM—TRINITY

The regular meetings of the Woman's Auxiliary of Trinity Parish, for the year, were held at the homes of the different members, with an average attendance of 33. Hostesses were appointed for each meeting, and tea was served after the meetings adjourned. One meeting was devoted especially to the topic, "United Offering", and, at the other meetings, articles were read relating to the missions where we sent our boxes, as well as articles relating to other missions. A vote of thanks was extended to Miss Stone for collecting the Auxiliary dues for the year.

"The Spirit of Missions" was placed in the reading room for the year. The Christmas box was sent to the Pine Ridge School, South Dakota, and was valued at $71.01. The Lenten sewing was done at the homes of the different members, with an average attendance of 16. The box was sent to Rev. W. H. DuBose, at the Emerald-Hodgson Hospital, Sewanee, Tennessee, and was valued at $30. At these meetings, the choir music was put in order for the year. A box of linen thread, valued at $2.75, was sent to Miss Ridgway, at All-a-ka-kit Mission, in Alaska. Mrs. Lockwood gave a very interesting account of the Missionary Conference at Albany.

It is with deep regret that we record the passing of four of our members—Miss Elizabeth Clarkson, Mrs. Morphy, Mrs. Dutcher and Mrs. Erwin.

A check for $40 was sent to Mrs. Rochester, at Albany, for the pledges. This makes a total of $144.76 expended. The United Offering for the year was $44.

The present officers were re-elected for the coming year.

Aside from reports of boxes and moneys from various branches in the Archdeaconry, as given by respective corresponding secretaries, there is little to say.

Influenza and war work played havoc with time and energy in many instances, and several organizations have worked against great odds, as they had no Rectors. The branches in Morris and Cooperstown have held Mission Study Classes, using Burleson's "Our Church and Our Country" as the text-book. The Morris Branch also read books on "Social Service".

Gilbertsville and Morris have done splendid work in sewing for the Susan Fennimore Cooper Foundation.

A two days' session was held in Cooperstown in November, at which time Mrs. James Olmstead of Cooperstown and Miss Gertrude Washburn of Morris instructed delegates from the various parishes regarding the Advent Call Campaign, both having been delegates in July to the Geneva Conference.

Morris, Unadilla and Cooperstown were, however, the only branches that reported having taken part in that campaign.

DELHI—ST. JOHN'S:

Six business meetings were held during the year, with an average attendance of thirty; twelve sewing meetings, with an average attendance of seventeen. A box of clothing was sent to Grafton, North Dakota, valued at $323.96. A box was also sent to St. Christopher's League, valued at $24.25. Work is also done in this parish for the

C. P. C and for the Comfort Club. The epidemic of influenza interfered with the regular work, but the members of the parish are filled with the missionary spirit, and always ready and willing to do what is required of them.

FRANKLIN—ST. PAUL'S:

This branch has held only two regular meetings during the year. A box of second-hand clothing was prepared and sent to Hendersonville early in the year. As the Church is without a Rector, little interest is shown in missionary work.

LAKE DELAWARE—ST. JAMES' CHAPEL:

A branch was recently organized in this Chapel, and expects to do active work during the coming year.

ONEONTA:

No report.

STAMFORD:

WALTON—CHRIST CHURCH:

The prevailing conditions of the past year have interfered materially with the work of this branch, but, in justice to the members, can say they have not failed in their duty to the cause of missions. This branch has a membership of twenty-eight, with an average attendance of ten. Miss Maude North, a loyal and earnest member, is now doing good work in Italy. A box was sent to St. Philip's Industrial School, San Antonio, Texas, and all pledges met. Funds for missionary work were provided by the dues of the members and by money earned by sewing.

In November, the W. A. entertained the Interdenominational Missionary Society in the Parish House. A Study Class was held during Lent, and papers read at the evening meetings were interesting and instructive. The Rector conducted a Bible Class, which was fairly well attended. Section B joined with the W. A. at their last meeting in June.

THE THIRTY-FIFTH ANNUAL MEETING

The thirty-fifth annual meeting of the Albany Diocesan Branch of the Woman's Auxiliary to the Board of Missions was held at St. George's Church, Schenectady, October 17-18, 1917.

Bishop Nelson and 12 clergy were present, and there were 230 delegates, representing 44 parishes.

Oct. 17, 8:00 p. m. Service in St. George's Church, with address by Rev. H. Percy Silver, chaplain at West Point.

Oct. 18, 9:30 a. m. Celebration of the Holy Eucharist.

Amount of the United Offering, $263.54.

10:15 a. m. As the Rev. Mr. Silver had to leave by an early train, the regular order of the program was changed, so that he could go. The meeting, therefore, began with Mr. Silver's address, in which he urged the necessity of seeking out those who are in darkness, and lifting them up into the light. He said that we should never let a missionary feel lonely, and that the duty of the women at home is to teach others about missionary work; that prayer must be the light we throw behind Christian leaders. He asked, "What do YOU do? What effect on your parish does your prayer have?"

At the close of Mr. Silver's address, the president asked Dr. Tayler to open the regular business meeting with prayer, after which Mrs. Van Rensselaer gave a splendid annual address, which is printed on another page. This was received enthusiastically.

The minutes of the semi-annual meeting were accepted as read.

The treasurer, Mrs. Rochester, was in Rochester, at the 200th anniversary of her old Church, and her report was read by the secretary and approved.

The report of the corresponding secretary was received with acclamation, and accepted by a rising vote. All the reports were interesting, and were approved as read—those of the Church Periodical Club, the Educational Secretary and the Albany Church Record.

12:00 m. Noon-day prayers were read.

The Junior reports were heard with much appreciation.

Bishop Nelson addressed the meeting. He paid a tribute to the meeting, and congratulated the members upon their president, speaking in a delightful way of her leadership. The Bishop then made a plea for patriotic duty, and presented the importance and the obligation of the Liberty Loan. He also spoke of the faithfulness of the missionary clergy in our own diocese, and of the need to help them.

The president explained about the fund for the missionary bed, the McKim memorial, which Mrs. Rochester is raising, and it was suggested that an attempt be made by the meeting to complete the fund. A little over one hundred dollars was pledged, and a telegram to this effect was sent to Mrs. Rochester, to show the loyalty of the meeting, although this did not meet the full amount needed.

Mrs. Hobart W. Thompson of Troy spoke of the necessity of all organizations co-operating in patriotic work, and she obtained immediately, in small sums, fifty dollars with which to purchase a Liberty Bond for the Diocesan Branch of the Woman's Auxiliary.

A delicious luncheon was served, after which the business meeting was resumed. Archdeacon Brooks of Albany asked permission to speak on the apportionment.

The president set forth, clearly and appealingly, the great need for the missionary work of the diocese.

The subject of the November Conference was presented. A discussion followed with regard to the Annual Report, as to the length and the general matter. It was voted to leave this to the Executive Committee.

An open conference on Right and Wrong Giving was conducted by Miss Ruth Hall.

The meeting adjourned, after a rising vote of thanks to the Rector and members of St. George's Parish for their courtesy and hospitality.

JOSEPHINE CLEVELAND ARMSTRONG,
Secretary.

MINUTES OF THE SEMI-ANNUAL MEETING, 1918

The semi-annual meeting of the Albany Diocesan Branch of the Woman's Auxiliary to the Board of Missions was held at Trinity Church, Plattsburg, May 22nd-23rd, 1918.

Present, 65 delegates, representing 14 parishes.

May 22. Afternoon meeting of Juniors, with missionary play.

8:00 p. m. Service in Trinity Church, with address by Bishop Hulse, on America's Duty to Its Latin Races.

May 23, 9:00 a. m. Celebration of the Holy Communion by Bishop Hulse, assisted by the Rector and the Rev. D. C. White.

9:45 a. m. Business meeting in the church, the president in the chair.

Minutes of the annual meeting read and approved.

In the absence, through illness, of the treasurer, her report was read by the president and approved, with a message of appreciation and grateful love for her splendid work accomplished, and with deep sympathy in her illness.

Reports of the corresponding secretary and Extension Committee read and approved. It was moved and carried that that of the corresponding secretary be sent to Miss Lindley, in the hope that she might be able to find room for it in the W. A. Department of The Spirit of Missions.

Reports of Juniors' secretary, treasurer and educational secretary read and approved.

11:00 a. m. Bishop Hulse spoke of the work in Cuba, where the Church was teaching vital religion—how to live, not alone to escape eternal death. At the close of his address, the president presented him with a collection of money as a silver wedding gift.

12:00 m. Prayers for missions.

Roll-call. Letter from Miss Lindley read. Amendment to Article 6, paragraphs 1 and 2, moved and carried. A resolution to levy a tax of 25 cents for luncheon on each delegate to annual and semi-annual meetings was moved and carried.

Open discussion followed on Auxiliary aims and methods of work.

1:00 p. m. Luncheon, after which Mrs. Conover explained the war work plans.

The meeting then adjourned.

RUTH HALL,
Recording Secretary pro tem.

ANNUAL REPORT OF THE ALBANY DIOCESAN BRANCH OF THE CHURCH PERIODICAL CLUB

At the annual meeting in April it was decided to change the annual meeting to January, thus making our year coincide with that of the Board of Missions and other Church organizations. It is most encouraging to note the enlarged interest that is being taken in the C. P. C. by the clergy and other leaders, through the work it has done in the war. Through our connection with the War Commission, the C. P. C. has been able to give valuable assistance to the chaplains, and this is attested to constantly by their executive secretary, Rev. H. B. Washburn, who has said several times in public that he cannot speak highly enough of the great help that has been given, and the same testimony comes from the chaplains themselves, as one writes: "You don't know how much your service is appreciated by us, and how close, by your efforts, you bring the Church to us. One who has been accustomed to parish life, with its good women and sweet children, misses the contact very much indeed, and such reminders as your letter, with its remembrances, almost sets us right down again in the midst of the good things we left behind." Also, through relationship with the Brotherhood of St. Andrew, the Club has come to be known and loved for its personal interest in others. Of course, the work of the Brotherhood itself is entirely personal, and so they feel a very strong bond of sympathy with us, and have welcomed our assistance in strengthening this part of the Church's life. And the friendships which have grown up between those who have been sending magazines and writing to individual boys in the service, whose names have been given by the Brotherhood, are developing into very warm ones, which will be one of the bright spots in their memories of those hard times during the war.

Of course the last year or two have been largely given to this kind of personal work, but still the regular work has gone on quietly through it all, interrupted to some extent by the immediate interests, but continued enough to bring happiness to many a distant missionary and lonely individual. As one of our clergy in Japan writes: "I must not forget to say how much we appreciate the magazines. It is not only a joy to receive them, but it is a pleasure to think that there are people over in the homeland to whom we are a little more than names in a list of missionaries."

These instances of personal interest, and what it means to those far away from the center of activities, show the importance of the C. P. C. work, for it is always this personal side of the work which should be emphasized. Let every one, in sending a magazine, think of the recipient as an unseen, but nevertheless real, friend, and write letters accordingly. There have been a few cases where the magazines have not been welcomed as we would wish, but these instances are comparatively few, and we have never known, where a friendly letter was written, that it was not responded to in the same spirit.

But, with the enlargement of our work, the responsibilities are naturally growing, and we must rise to meet them and prove that the C. P. C.

is equal to what is asked of it. At St. Paul's College, Tokyo, Japan, the library consists of some two thousand books, most of which have been provided through the Club. They are now building their new library, just outside Tokyo, and this library is planned for the future, and is to hold some twenty to thirty thousand volumes. The present books will be lost on those shelves! It behooves us to help fill them. Also, in Japan, the missionaries have been translating some of the best books into Japanese, and are in great need of a fund to have these printed. Again we are looked to for help.

And then, coming home from the foreign field, though this is by no means covered in these few suggestions, we find the most tremendous need for simple books on the Church and religious matters all through the country, especially the West and South. Every mission should have a good lending library of such books, with an unlimited supply of simple leaflets for distribution. Many a time the clergy are unable to follow up an inquiry, simply for lack of this kind of material. Consequently the Church is weak in many places where it might be strong, and the missionaries become discouraged, naturally, because they are not backed by the people of the Church, and have not the wherewithal to make the Church better known through this class of literature.

Plans are now under way for the meetings of the Club at the General Convention in October, at Detroit, but it will be useless to make plans for the enlargement of the work in the future, unless those who make the work possible—every one who cares for the spread of the Gospel to the life of every individual—stand back of the leaders and make those plans come true, through their interest and personal help.

The Church Periodical Club asks its members to forward books and magazines to given addresses, and to make some contribution toward current expenses. It offers an opportunity to reduce ignorance, to lighten suffering, and to express Christian friendliness.

THE COMFORT CLUB OF THE WOMAN'S AUXILIARY

When an Auxiliary branch, in filling a missionary box, finds some very important and urgent need, too expensive for the parish treasury, particularly clerical suits and overcoats, it may apply for assistance to the treasurer of the Comfort Club, which aims to be an aid to the parish branch, and a comfort to its beneficiaries.

The sum asked from members of the Club is 25 cents a year.

MARY H. ROCHESTER,

Secretary and Treasurer.

REPORT OF THE WOMAN'S AUXILIARY DEPARTMENT IN THE ALBANY CHURCH RECORD

The Department reports the splendid help given by the president of the Junior Auxiliary, and by various officers of the Woman's Auxiliary. Articles have appeared from time to time which must have been of interest to some Auxiliary branches, although we never hear that any have been so helped. Suggestions have been sought, and one of such value that we beg for the help of any and all branches in the diocese.

There is but one ideal—to create an intelligent interest in each Department work, and to make more ideal and more personal the aim of the Auxiliary. Therefore, again we ask for expressions of opinion, and for communications from the branches, that we may be able to make our Department in the "Church Record" a successful and beneficial help to the Diocesan Auxiliary.

REPORT OF THE CHAIRMAN OF THE EXTENSION COMMITTEE and EDUCATIONAL SECRETARY

In listening to this report, I ask you to remember that it is for the year 1918—the hardest year, pray God, through which our country shall ever pass. Lent was a time of agonizing mental stress, when the civilized world watched, aghast, the steady progress of our enemy on and on and on, and the check and the defiance and the final defeat were still wrapped in the dark future. How, in such sorely stricken days of hope long, long deferred, could one find heart to study anything but war maps and the last word from the front? And in the autumn, when classes began to form for the winter's work, there was that sweep of the epidemic that bore all before it in a resistless flood of sickness, worry, nursing, and a woeful toll of death. Those again were times when one could not speak—one could not think—of study. That, in the face of such obstacles and untoward, unprecedented events, our list of Mission Study Classes made so brave a showing, is evidence of the sturdy missionary spirit that had been implanted in the women of the diocese by leaders like Mrs. Van Rensselaer, and Mrs. Rochester, and Miss Knapp, and fostered by many a faithful parish priest and studious leader and zealous Auxiliary president.

The list is as follows: Study Classes—St. Andrew's, Albany; St. Paul's, Albany (addresses); St. Ann's, Amsterdam; Trinity, Athens; Calvary, Burnt Hills; St. John's, Cohoes; St. Luke's, Catskill (two—one for both men and women); Zion, Colton; Calvary, Cairo (addresses); Christ Church, Cooperstown; Trinity, Granville (addresses); St. Mark's, Hoosick Falls; St. Peter's, Hobart; All Saints', Hudson; St. James' Chapel, Lake Delaware; Grace, Mohawk; Zion, Morris; Gloria Dei, Palenville; Trinity, Plattsburg; St. Luke's, Saranac; St. George's Schenectady (two—one in Section B); the Holy Cross, Troy; Christ Church, Walton; Trinity, Whitehall. Reading Circles—All Saints' Cathedral, Albany; St. Peter's, Albany; Trinity, Ashland; St. John's, Champlain; St. John's, Delhi; Trinity, Gouverneur; Christ Church, Hudson; Zion, Hudson Falls; Christ Church, Herkimer; Christ Church, Gilbertsville; St. Augustine's, Ilion; St. John's, Johnstown; St. John's, Ogdensburg; Trinity, Potsdam; the Epiphany, Rensselaer; St. Paul's, Raymertown; Bethesda, Saratoga; the Ascension, Troy. Forty-four in all—a total with which I feel we should be both proud and grateful. Dr. Sturgis writes me from the Church Missions House concerning it: "Many thanks for your admirable report. It is a great encouragement to receive a report indicative of so much good work done, especially in times of war activities, when most of the women are engaged in other lines than those connected with the Church."

I am asked, moreover, to give you some statistics of the Advent Call. I need not remind you of that high summons to special endeavor and consecration, nor how the best laid plans crumbled away before the onslaught of influenza. I could not speak too warmly of the patience, selflessness and unflagging energy with which Mrs. Conover urged her committee to prepare the way. None but those who worked with her can realize her own achievement, struggling from the first with the terrors and devastation of last autumn's illness. The outward and visible sign of that prodigy of labor may be read between the lines of these figures. The inward and spiritual part is recorded in the Book of Life:

All Saints' Cathedral, 111 calls; St. Andrew's Church, Albany, 132 calls, 117 cards returned, 18 intercessors and 15 messengers; Grace Church, Albany, had 20 messengers, but made no report; St. Paul's had 18 cards returned through the Girls' Friendly Society. In Troy, at the Holy Cross, there were 150 calls made, 143 cards returned, 25 intercessors and 10 messengers; at St. John's, 193 calls, 153 cards returned, 10 messengers; at Christ Church, 200 calls made, 143 cards returned, 7 intercessors and 10 messengers. In Cohoes, at St. John's Church, there were 220 calls made, 210 cards returned, 60 intercessors and 24 messengers. At St. John's Church, Ogdensburg, the week was observed by special services, and some pledge cards were taken from the church. In Trinity, Plattsburg, there were 146 calls made, 130 cards returned, 17 messengers. In St. George's, Schenectady, 300 calls were made, 225 cards returned, 45 intercessors and 22 messengers. In Emmanuel Church, Little Falls, 150 calls were made, 150 cards returned. At St. John's Church, Johnstown, 130 calls were made, 125 cards returned and 10 messengers. At St. Mark's Church, Hoosick Falls, 130 calls were made, all cards returned and there were 8 messengers. At Grace Church, Waterford, 125 calls were made by the Rector, every one taking cards, but with no request to sign them. In Zion, Morris, 60 calls were made and 60 cards signed. (One old lady of 80 made 20 of these visits. At St. Luke's, Catskill, 200 calls were made, 160 cards returned, there were 42 intercessors and 15 messengers. Christ Church, Hudson, had 11 messengers, but no report was received as to their work. All Saints', Hudson, had 40 cards returned. Calvary, Cairo, returned 3 cards. Trinity, Athens, made 25 calls, with 2 messengers, and 75 cards were distributed. Trinity, Ashland, sent out cards about the scattered parish. Zion, Fonda, gave out the cards and Bible readings among the congregation. The parish of Christ Church, Cooperstown, was canvassed and wonderful service held, mid-week, when pledge cards and Bible readings were taken, but with no demand for a return. At the Church of the Messiah, Glens Falls, special prayer cards were mailed and services held throughout the week. At St. Mark's, Green Island, likewise, special services were held. The parish of Christ Church, Walton, was well canvassed, and pledge cards were freely taken, but no results have been reported. In all, our figures are 2,246 calls made, 1,832 cards returned, 198 intercessors and 174 messengers.

Fired by what had already been accomplished, the women of the Auxiliary throughout the country, early in the year, urged Miss Lindley to carry on the work of the Advent Call in Lent. Accordingly, literature was prepared and sent forth, as in our diocese, where every Rector and every W. A. president received a copy—and was urged to procure others—of those most practical Suggestions for Service and the deeply spiritual booklet of prayer and meditation. Here, as in Advent, the diocesan effort was hampered by a long list of Churches without a priest—and we had been warned that it was impossible to lead hither a flock which was shepherdless. The tangible result of this Lenten work belongs rather in next fall's report. I mention it here merely as the first fruits of the Advent Call.

In conclusion, I would urge whoever hears me, and is so circumstanced that she may heed me, to remember the two summer conferences, the one at Wellesley, June 19-30, and the one at Geneva, from June 30-July 11, with their vast opportunities for the Church worker and the Church student. Cannot some of you take advantage of what is so cheaply, so interestingly and so well provided? Pray consider the matter seriously, in making your summer plans. Every one of us acknowledges the need of such instruction. Surely some one of us can supply that need.

Respectfully submitted,

RUTH HALL.

Totals—Domestic Missions and Missionaries... 94 boxes, value $5,084.23
 Totals—Missions and Missionaries in Diocese of Albany ..... 15 boxes, value 1,320.21

Totals ..... 109 boxes, value $6,404.44

So far as reported, the value of boxes sent by our Albany Branch of the Woman's Auxiliary to Diocesan missionaries, for personal and family use, is $1,129.76. For distribution, $190.45.

To the families of domestic missionaries, boxes valued at $822.32 have been forwarded. To mission stations in the domestic field, boxes and barrels valued at $4,261.91.

A sum total of $6,404.44.

When we consider the Himalaya of obstacles that the times have presented, and also comparing—not vaingloriously, but thankfully—our achievement with that of many other dioceses, we realize that the result, in mere dollars and cents, is almost incredible. Six thousand dollars has a pleasant sound to the outward ear; to the inner understanding, it is a heavenly melody. Upon the thought of none of us is a shadow cast of battered coin and soiled bank notes; the bill of exchange is bodily comfort carried to our Christian brothers, warmth and decent fitness for Church attendance made possible for certain Southern mountaineers, the pretty rapture of the missionary's wife, who confesses to receiving, in a generous family box, the first nice gown she has had in six years—it fitted perfectly—and the always stirring gratitude of the Indian, who finds pre-eminently in his gifts the fact that his white brother cares for him, and, seeing our good works, they glorify their Father which is in heaven.

The spiritual benefit of all this to those who receive is but the merest wreath of its benefit to us who give: "They who minister about holy things live of the sacrifice." One secretary in a tiny parish writes: "Our little branch of the Woman's Auxiliary seems to be broadening our women in every direction." And, as we know, all spiritual waters deepen as they widen. Another secretary reports a parochial list of what might seem annihilating calamity: Auxiliary members in hospital, in quarantine, in illness, with more illness, and death, too—but ending gloriously: "We have started our work with enthusiasm, and hope to accomplish lots!"

A practical suggestion comes from another branch, with an itemized list of a truly wonderful box. The attractive garments were displayed for several days in the basement of the church, where the uninterested were led by the exhibition to offer future service. For, seeing their good works, they, too, "glorified their Father which is in heaven". An aged president, who supposed she had long ago gauged the capacity of her local branch, reports: "I had only hoped for a little—but the response to my appeal amazes me!"

This president had not been the only one amazed. In no season before have I had so much appreciation from the Missions House, to pass about the diocese as occasion served. My statements from time to time were pronounced most cheering, while at the beginning of the year, when I was told that if I had done fairly well with the appeals for our Advent work, I might withdraw certain ones, I could echo, with, I think, forgivable pride: "Fairly well? Why, they are every one completed, just as we were told: one box for Haw Creek, one for the Good Shepherd Hospital, two for St. Mary's, several for many others." Then it was that our chief broke into the stirring words: "You are doing great things this year in the Albany Branch!"

When this chief—whom we shall sorely miss—in her farewell to me, said: "I am sure your branch will be to my successor a tower of strength," I knew those were no idle words, for the simple reason that the Great Architect has already fashioned from us a Tower of Strength, built upon the sure foundation not alone of the materially strong Auxiliaries, but of those, too, that the work broadens and deepens, those that can evolve enthusiasm from physical ashes, those whose results amaze—all these fitly joined together by that celestial cement that we call faith, must lift us higher and yet higher, until from the lofty pinnacle of our Tower of Strength we gaze into heaven itself.

Respectfully submitted,

VIOLETTE HALL.

"O God, our Heavenly Father, we thank Thee for the gift of Thy dear Son. Grant that we who have received Him in our hearts may joyfully go forth with Him on many errands. Bless those who toil for Thee in far off places; comfort them in their loneliness; and unite our work to theirs. Accept our gifts; receive our prayers; and use us for the sake of Thy Son Jesus Christ, our Lord." Amen.

REPORT OF JUNIOR EDUCATIONAL SECRETARY FOR THE YEAR ENDING OCTOBER, 1918

During the last year the work of the Junior Auxiliary has been much hindered by other activities. The needs of the Red Cross, sewing for refugee relief, and other compelling calls, have come to us all. Perhaps it is natural that the educational part of the work should suffer most, and the material gifts be provided. Still, we are sure that in many cases, where we have no reports to make from branches, it means only that the leaders have not found time to make them. We are glad to report that more Sunday schools than ever are holding missionary services and giving regular instruction in missions, even if it is only teaching the Missionary Catechism. There is a new edition of this, and you may be interested to know that we have had several calls for it from outside the Diocese, the last being from Canada and Louisiana.

I have written two hundred and seventy-five letters, sent out books, prayer cards, catechisms and leaflets, and visited seven Parishes. I have also loaned missionary and mystery plays to a number of Junior Branches and Sunday schools.

As the matter of the New Junior Plan will be definitely settled at the Triennial next October, it has seemed wise not to urge its adoption now, as in many parishes it must be adapted and altered to meet particular conditions.

With the time and energy released by the cessation of war work, we hope to make this coming year a most successful one in our Junior Department, and that our reports next May will show a real advance.

HELEN U. HANAMAN,

REPORT OF THE SEVENTH ANNUAL MEETING OF THE DIOCESAN BRANCH OF THE JUNIOR AUXILIARY,

AT ST. JOHN'S CHURCH, COHOES, MAY 3, 1919.

The seventh Annual meeting of the Junior Department was held at St. John's Church, Cohoes, Saturday, May 3, 1919, at 2:30 o'clock.

There were present 140 delegates, representing ten parishes. The meeting was opened by the Junior President, Mrs. Conover of Schenectady, after which reports of diocesan officers were read and branches represented read their reports. At 4 o'clock a service was held in the church, conducted by the Rector, the Rev. E. J. Hopper, assisted by the Rector Emeritus, the Rev. Dr. Sill. Mr. Hopper gave a brief talk upon the threefold aim of the Juniors, "prayer, study and gifts". An offering was taken, amounting to $11.74.

At 4:30, in the Parish House, Miss Littell gave an illustrated talk upon China, particularly upon the Church General Hospital at Wuchang, after which the delegates unanimously voted to give the offering, which was increased to $40, for the hospital, while one branch offered to give the "Teddy Bear" for the children's ward, for which Miss Littell asked. Supper followed, and the meeting adjourned.

MARY A. SWITS, Secretary.
