MID-DAY PRAYER FOR MISSIONS

"And I, if I be lifted up, will draw all men unto me."

Blessed Saviour, who at this hour did'st hang upon the Cross, stretching forth Thy loving arms; grant that all mankind may look upon Thee and be saved; through Thy mercies and merits, who livest and reignest with the Father and the Holy Ghost, ever one God, world without end. Amen.

REPORT

Nineteenth Annual Meeting — OF THE —
WOMAN'S AUXILIARY
of the District of Asheville

Asheville, N. C., June 23, 1915

PRESIDENT'S ADDRESS

To the Right Reverend Bishop of the District, and Woman's Auxiliary:

Each year that is added to our Auxiliary life here in the District of Asheville, brings with it, I am sure, an increased feeling of cordial co-operation as we come together at these annual meetings.

We gather for a mutual purpose, and it is the aim and pleasure of your officers to arrange for your satisfaction the reports, for which you have so faithfully worked to make possible.

When we met together last year it was in ignorance of the devastating war that should shake the civilized world before we would again come face to face.

As a nation, and some of us as individuals, have been seriously affected by these forces of destruction, and a strong desire to help and repair has found expression through the hearts and hands of many women, as it comes peculiarly within our sphere to do certain relief work in time of war. But it was just this point that made those in authority in Church matters feel that there was danger of the organized work of the Church, which it was obligatory to maintain, suffering for lack of the customary support.

The relief work was just and proper, but it must be done in addition to our organized work, not in place of it, and we Auxiliary women should feel an added responsibility with regard to all this, first to uphold by contributions and work the efforts that the Board of Missions puts forth to carry on the work it pledges to do in the name of all Church people, and to constantly bear in mind that we are an Auxiliary to this end.

Also, that as Church women by this example of faithfulness established, we must still work on to give to the sick and needy across the seas.

“‘Go, break to the needy sweet charity's bread,
For giving is living,’ the angel said.
‘And must I be giving again and again?’
My peevish and pitiless answer ran.
‘Oh, no!’ said the angel, piercing me through,
‘Just give till the Master stops giving to you.’”

I know of several Branches in the District which have engaged in relief work, and I have no doubt but that much more has been done that has not been reported to me, yet in spite of this additional work, or shall we say because of it, you will notice in the Annual Report an increase in the total of our contributions to the Missionary work in general.

In conclusion, let us again remind ourselves that the Woman's Auxiliary to the Board of Missions stands for the extension of Christ's Kingdom upon earth. We should count that meeting lost that fails to record a re-consecration of ourselves in emphasizing this point.

No words of mine can be as telling as those used by the President of the Southern Florida Branch at its annual meeting, which were in turn quoted from the Ontario Churchman, and read as follows:

"There is in your Church a young lady who will join the Auxiliary or Church if you ask her; a woman who will send her children to Sunday School if you ask her: a woman waiting to join; and still another, tender in sorrow, who will make a special offering if you ask her; a man who will become an honorary helper if you ask him; there is a man and a woman who will subscribe for a church paper if you ask them, also for missionary papers for the children; another who will ask a friend to subscribe for them also if you ask him; a woman who will pray for mission work if you ask her; perhaps there is another who will give herself to the work if you ask her. The Master is waiting for you and you and you to do His work."

President.

Minutes of the Nineteenth Annual Meeting of the Woman's Auxiliary of the District of Asheville

The Nineteenth Annual Meeting of the Woman's Auxiliary of the District of Asheville opened in Trinity Church, Asheville, on Tuesday, June 22nd, at eight o'clock. At this Missionary Service the address was made by the Rev. George H. Harrison, of Gastonia. On Wednesday morning at half past seven the Corporate Communion was celebrated by the Rev. Wyatt Brown, assisted by the Rev. Walter S. Cain.

Shortly after twelve o'clock Bishop Horner opened the business session, and as he always does, encouraged the Workers by thanking them for what they had done to help the Work in the District. "But," he said, "our interest must go far beyond the Parish and the District to the uttermost ends of the earth." There will always be an opportunity to do for those who do not know our Lord. The Bishop urged the Auxiliary to start a branch in every small Mission where three or four women will come together and work. "We are going forward, but there is a great vision for us to have of the possibilities of the Southern Appalachian region."

Mrs. Minor, President of the Trinity Branch, welcomed all delegates and visitors, and said that Miss Lindley would speak at 4 o'clock; that a tea would be given at Mrs. Minor's at half past five, to which all were cordially invited; that an adjourned meeting would be held at half past nine on Thursday morning, and at 10 o'clock Miss Lindley would conduct a normal study class.

Roll call showed forty-nine (49) delegates present, thirty visiting members, nine Diocesan officers, and seven visitors, making a total of ninety-five.

Mrs. Bacon's address, as President, was helpful and encouraging, and the Auxiliary was urged to work more earnestly than ever before for the extension of Christ's Kingdom. Mrs. Bacon read the Treasurer's report, showing that a total of $779.45 in money had passed through her hands since last June. The items will be printed in the Annual Report.

Miss Martin, in giving her report as Secretary of the United Offering, an office she has resigned to the great regret of the Auxiliary, said that she wished to thank the different Branches for their co-operation in the work. It is with extreme unwillingness that the Auxiliary allows Miss Martin to resign a position which she has filled so efficiently since 1902. A rising vote of thanks was given to show our appreciation of this long and faithful service. Miss Martin has consented to become Organizing Secretary, so will still be a Diocesan officer of the District. The Treasurer stated there is $85.00 for this work in her hands.

Mrs. Balthis, of Gastonia, has been appointed by the Bishop to take Miss Martin's place as Secretary of the United Offering, and we are glad to welcome a new member to the Advisory Board.

Mrs. Minor, Secretary of the Junior Auxiliary, stated that she believes the Juniors are "on the eve of great things," and was glad to say that two new Branches had been formed and one old Branch reorganized.

Mrs. Wetmore, the Educational Secretary, urged every member of the Auxiliary to make a special effort to hear Miss Lindley speak on Thursday morning.

In the absence of Mrs. Norris, the report of the Babies' Branch was read by the Secretary.

Mrs. Bacon said she found it difficult to call for the report of the Church Periodical Club, owing to the great loss the Auxiliary had sustained in the death of Mrs. Chapman, the faithful Secretary of the C. P. C. Miss Weeks has accepted her appointment to this office, and gave a short report. In this new officer the Advisory Board has gained another efficient worker.

All reports were voted on, and accepted as read.

It was announced that in commemoration of the twentieth anniversary of the Auxiliary in the District of Asheville, a scholarship, known as the Bishop's Scholarship, will be given to one of the four schools, Christ School, Arden; The Appalachian School, Penland; The Patterson School, and the Valle Crucis Industrial School. This will be the District work for every Branch, and will take effect in the autumn of 1916. The child will be chosen by the Principal of the school, and will be the special charge of the various Branches of the Auxiliary.

At quarter past one a recess was taken until half past two, when the meeting was again called to order. Mrs. Bacon made the cheering announcement that five new Branches had been formed since the last Annual Meeting: St. Mary's, Asheville; Trinity, Third Branch, Haw Creek; Biltmore, Young Woman's Auxiliary, and St. Cyprian's, Franklin.

Mrs. Chester Lyman spoke briefly of St. Mary's School,

Shanghai, as an object for Foreign Work; Mrs. Julian Lyman presented the cause of St. Mark's Hospital, Salt Lake City, Utah, for Domestic Work, in an interesting paper, while work in Brazil was described by Mrs. Stevens, who told of the beginning of the Work in 1889, and traced it in a comprehensive way to the present time. Mrs. Grady read a letter from the Rev. Guy H. Madara, of Alaska, asking help for the School at Nenana. The vote was then taken for Domestic Work, resulting in favor of the School at Nenana. For Foreign Work the vote was in favor of Brazil.

Turning to Work in the District, Rev. Hugh A. Dobbin presented the claims of the Patterson School, saying it was difficult to tell in seven minutes all that had been accomplished in twelve months, and stating that $100.00 would cover a scholarship for one year.

Rev. Rufus Morgan, of the Appalachian School, Penland, next spoke of his work in an interesting way. In this School both boys and girls are trained, but Mr. Morgan does not make use of scholarships in his School.

Miss Horner read a fine paper on the Valle Crucis Industrial School, where scholarships are welcomed, and it was interesting to note the reasons given by the two speakers for their different points of view.

Mrs. Wetmore spoke in behalf of Christ School, Arden, and told of the way in which the boys are trained in this well known school. Here, fifty dollars ($50.00) will support a scholarship.

The Rev. Walter J. Smith, of the Thompson Orphanage, Charlotte, spoke for five minutes on this important Home, urging those present to interest the Sunday Schools as well as the Auxiliaries in the Orphanage. As Mr. Morgan stated that he did not wish a scholarship, the number to be voted on was reduced to three. The vote was taken by ballot, and Christ School received the greatest number of votes, and will therefore receive the Bishop's Scholarship in 1916.

Miss Lindley, of the Church Missions House, New York, made a strong plea for Mission Study, telling us we must work in one of two ways, either by "preparing a field, or by using a force." She also spoke in behalf of the Junior Auxiliary, saying, "We are here to train the next generation—to put into them the spirit that will make them invincible for the Kingdom of Christ."

Miss Horner moved that a rising vote of thanks be given to Trinity Parish for its cordial hospitality, which was gladly done. She also read a report on the Primary Synod of the Province of Sewanee which she attended last November in New Orleans, and also suggested that a committee of three women be appointed "to collect data, consisting of facts, incidents and pictures of work in our District for Dr. Whitaker and Miss Weed." Mrs. Bacon appointed Miss Horner chairman of this committee with power to choose the two members, and later Miss Horner stated that Miss Patton and Mrs. Wetmore were the two co-workers.

Mrs. Little moved that everyone present should constitute herself a committee of one, as is the case in the Brotherhood of St. Andrew, to bring some member of the Parish to hear Miss Lindley speak on Thursday morning, thereby receiving the inspiration gained from the address of the afternoon. This motion was carried, and the meeting adjourned until half past nine, Thursday morning, going from the Church to the tea at Mrs. Minor's, where the delegates of the Convention, as well as the members of the Auxiliary, were most delightfully entertained.

At half past nine on Thursday morning the minutes were read and accepted, the President and Secretary being authorized to make the minor corrections necessary. Mrs. Bacon asked Miss Lindley to say a few words in regard to the Emergency Fund to which those present were asked to contribute some part at least of "the one day's income." An offering was taken, which amounted to $21.25, which will be forwarded to The Church Missions House in New York.

Mrs. Wetmore, the Educational Secretary, took the Chair, and introduced Miss Lindley, who told us how a Mission Study Class should be conducted.

After this very interesting and helpful lesson, the meeting adjourned until June, 1916.

S. CHESTER LYMAN,
Recording Secretary.

ANNIE H. MARTIN,
Treasurer.

I am only stating the sum total of the United Offering this morning, as the detailed amounts received from each Parish will be printed in our Annual Journal Report. The amount in bank is $752.61.

As our President has told you, I have given up this work, but I cannot leave it without thanking the Auxiliaries, through their delegates, for the pleasant intercourse I have had with them, since I first took charge of the United Offering in 1902. I am leaving the work with regret, but it goes into younger and more capable hands, and with new zeal and new methods, will, I am sure, grow in more ways than in mere dollars and cents.

Wishing my successor, Mrs. Balthis, of Gastonia, all the prosperous results for which I longed, but could not achieve, I leave this work with her—and with you.

The annual report of the Church Periodical Club for the year ending April 1st, 1915, owing to the lamented death of Mrs. Chapman, must necessarily be very brief. At the Bishop's request, I have assumed the position of C. P. C. Correspondent for the District and I earnestly desire the co-operation of the Librarians in the various Parishes and Missions interested in carrying on the work. The Bishop urges especially that our interesting and informing magazine, The Spirit of Missions, be more widely known and used.

Very truly,

ELIZABETH S. WEEKS,
Cor. 66, C. P. C., Correspondent.

REPORT OF JUNIOR AUXILIARY.

The contributions of the Branches of the Junior Auxiliary have fallen off considerably this year, though they have not gone back to what we were two years ago, yet they are much less than in 1914, when the interest shown, the work done and money given encouraged me to think that we were on the eve of great things.

We were on the eve of great things last year, we are on the eve of great things today. Let us not fail to realize this and that if we do not accomplish great things it is because of our own lack, our lack of devotion, of faith, of endeavor, and let us try the more earnestly to take hold of our work lest we let our great opportunity slip.

We have two new Branches, and one old Branch reorganized, and one Branch has graduated from the Juniors and joined the Woman's Auxiliary.

The number of members was not added to the report of each Branch, so that it is not correct.

Woman's Auxiliary of the District of Asheville

CONSTITUTION

I.

The name of this Society is the Asheville Branch of the Woman's Auxiliary to the Board of Missions.

II.

The object of this Society is to diffuse knowledge of the Missionary work of the whole church among the women of the District; to increase their interest and activity in the work; to encourage the formation of parish branches of this Society; and by means of united and systematic efforts to prosecute the work of Church extension.

III.

The officers of this Society shall be a President, who shall perform the duties of the Treasurer; a Vice-President; a Recording Secretary; a Secretary for the Junior Branch; a Treasurer for the United Offering; a Secretary for Mission Study; a Secretary for Church Periodical Club; a Secretary for Babies Branch and an Organizing Secretary.

These officers shall constitute the Advisory Board of the Auxiliary of the District. Vacancies in the Advisory Board shall be filled by appointment of the Bishop from nominations to him by the Advisory Board of two names for each vacancy. The Bishop may call together the Advisory Board at any time to make nominations for vacancies.

IV.

The duties of the President are to call all meetings, preside at them and to have the general oversight and direction of the work of the Society and as Treasurer to receive all money sent her and disburse the same in accordance with the determination of the Society at its annual meetings, making a detailed report of the same to the Society.

V.

The duties of the Vice-President are to act as a member of the Advisory Board and in the absence of the President to preside at all meetings of the Society.

VI.

The duties of the Recording Secretary are to keep the minutes of all meetings of the Society and with the President to have charge of the printing of its reports and other documents and to conduct such correspondence with the parent Society and other branches as the President may direct and approve.

VII.

The duties of the Secretary for the Junior Branch are to call all meetings of the Juniors, to preside at them and to have general oversight and direction of the work of the Juniors and as Treasurer to receive all money contributed by the Juniors and disburse the same in accordance with the determination of the Junior Society at its annual meeting.

VIII.

The duties of the Secretary of the Babies Branch are to have the general oversight and direction of the work of the Babies and to receive and disburse the money contributed by the same.

IX.

The duties of the Treasurer of the United Offering are to correspond with Parish Branches and with individuals in regard to this offering; to receive all money contributed therefor and to present the same to the Triennial meeting of the Woman's Auxiliary.

X.

The duties of the Secretary for Mission Study are to keep on hand a supply of literature on the Foreign, Domestic and District Missions of the Church and to advise with Parish Branches in regard to the study of the Missions of the Church.

XI.

The duties of the Secretary for the Church Periodical Club are to correspond with the Parish Branches of this Club and to have the general oversight of the work of the Club in this district.

XII.

The duties of the Advisory Board are to meet at the call of the President, to advise with her in regard to the general work of the Auxiliary in the District and to nominate to the Bishop names to fill vacancies in the Board. Three members of the Board shall constitute a quorum.

XIII.

Each Parish Branch shall send the President, acting as Treasurer, all money contributed for Missionary work, except such special contributions as the Branch may prefer to send direct to the beneficiary and shall make to the President an annual report of all work done by the branch.

XIV.

There shall be an Annual Meeting of the Society at such time and place as may be determined upon by the Society itself and in the absence of such determination by the Society, the President, upon consultation with the Bishop, shall appoint the time and place of Annual Meeting.

XV.

At the Annual Meeting each Parish Branch shall be entitled to one delegate and an additional delegate for each additional ten members of the Branch after the first ten.

XVI.

All officers of the Society shall make a report of all work done under their direction, to the Annual Meeting of the Society and the same shall be printed in the Annual Report of the Auxiliary.

XVII.

At the Annual Meeting of the Society, any member of a Parish Branch shall be entitled to vote on all questions, unless there is a call by at least two delegates for a vote by Parish Branches, in which case only delegates shall be entitled to vote.

XVIII.

This constitution may be amended by a two-thirds vote of the Society, voting by Parish Branches at any Annual Meeting, provided the Bishop approves of such amendment.
