NOONDAY PRAYERS FOR MISSIONS

Blessed Saviour, Who at this hour didst hang upon the Cross, stretching forth Thy loving arms, grant that all mankind may look unto Thee and be saved; through Thy mercy and merits, who livest and reignest with the Father and the Holy Ghost, ever one God, world without end. Amen.

O, Lord, Who didst come to seek and save the lost, and to Whom all power is given in Heaven and on earth hear, we beseech Thee, the prayers of Thy Church for those who, at Thy command, go forth to preach the gospel to every creature. Preserve them from all dangers to which they may be exposed; from perils by land and perils by water; from the deadly pestilence; from the violence of the persecutor, from doubt and impatience; from discouragement and discord; and from all the devices of the powers of darkness. And while they plant and water, send Thou, O Lord, the increase; gather in the multitude of the heathen; convert in Christian lands such as neglect so great salvation; so that Thy name may be glorified and Thy Kingdom come, O gracious Saviour of the world; to Whom, with the Father and the Holy Ghost, be honor and glory, world without end. Amen.

---

O Lord, Jesus Christ, who in the days of thy flesh didst accept the services of faithful women who ministered unto Thee of their substance; be pleased, we humbly ask, to bless our endeavors to aid and encourage missionaries. Put into our hearts the things we should do and say to promote Thy glory. Grant that we may never be discouraged under difficulties, but go forward in faith and hope looking up to Thee. Have pity on those who know Thee not; on those who are far from the Church of their fathers in a strange land, visit them with Thy salvation, and grant that all may be speedily brought to acknowledge Thee as their Lord and Master. Christ hear us, and answer this our prayer, for Thine own Name's sake. Amen.

SPECIAL PRAYER

O Heavenly Father, Lord of the Harvest, look graciously upon Thy servants who earnestly desire the extension of Thy Church among those who have not known Thee or do not call upon Thy Name, and send forth more laborers into the harvest-field which lies ripe to Thy Church in this Diocese, especially among the mill workers and mountain people. Bless we pray Thee the work undertaken in Thy Name, and Favor, give abundance of Thy Grace to the laborers and a right judgment in all things, and we beseech Thee to open the hearts of Thy people to contribute freely of their means to the support of this and other like efforts for the edification of Thy children, so that Thy kingdom may be enlarged and Thy Holy Name be forever glorified amongst us, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

MINUTES OF THE THIRTEENTH ANNUAL CONVENTION OF THE WOMAN'S AUXILIARY, DIOCESE OF ATLANTA

The Thirteenth Annual Convention of the Woman's Auxiliary of the Diocese of Atlanta met in Christ Church, Macon, May 4th, 1920.

The Holy Communion was celebrated by Bishop Mikell at nine o'clock, assisted by the Rector, the Rev. Robert Gibson. The Bishop spoke of the deeply spiritual service and mission of the Auxiliary.

The convention was called to order by the president, Mrs. C. L. Pettigrew. Words of heartfelt welcome were extended by Mrs. Emma LeConte Furman, of Christ Church, referring to her three years of service as diocesan president as an inestimable privilege.

Mrs. Pettigrew responded for the Auxiliary with highest appreciation of the courtesies of the hostess parishes.

Mrs. Pettigrew's annual address dwelt with great strength and vision on the spirit of the new organization, and its details, giving her recommendations for the diocesan branch. She then tendered her resignation from the presidency, an office that she esteemed the highest, holiest privilege of her life, which she had held for seven years, appreciating the loyalty, fidelity and faithfulness of her co-workers in this service. A committee waited on Mrs. Pettigrew to urge her to reconsider, expressing the deep need of the Auxiliary for her consecrated leadership. She responded that other sacred duties compelled her to lay down the presidency, though she would always be a loyal worker in the ranks.

The memorial hour commemorated the life service of Mrs. Nellie Peters Black, former diocesan president, and Mrs. W. H. Shaw, beloved parish leader in Christ Church, Macon.

Greetings were sent Mrs. Mallory Taylor, at St. Charles, Va., honorary custodian, with grateful appreciation of her two decades of service as diocesan custodian of the United Offering, and for the great increase of interest and gifts in this diocese and throughout the country resulting from her devoted labors.

The roll call showed nearly every parish and mission represented. A large number of Macon visitors were present, as well as a number of the clergy, including the Bishop, who remained throughout the session. About seventy-five registered.

The report of the treasurer, Mrs. H. N. Hurt, was read from May, 1919, to Jan. 1st, 1920.

Mrs. J. N. Talley presented the United Thank Offering in words of deepest spiritual earnestness. The last half of the year 1919 totalled $892.72 up to Jan. 1st. Mrs. Talley stated that the offerings for the current year were most gratifying and will come in the next year's report, the amount altogether being over $1,500.

The Committee on Constitution and By-Laws then presented its report, submitting a proposed revision, along the lines of the recommendations of the Detroit Convention, and to correspond with the new organization of the church under the Presiding Bishop and Executive Council. The Constitution, as adopted by the convention, is printed in full in this Year Book.

The nominating committee made its report, endorsed by the Bishop, and the Convention then elected the following officers:

The Bishop of the Diocese—The Right Rev. H. J. Mikell, D. D.

President—Mrs. Ulric Atkinson, 84 Columbia Ave., Atlanta.

Vice-President—Miss Lucinda Snook, Chairman Department Missions and Church Extension, 103 Cleburne Ave., Atlanta.

Vice-President—Mrs. Charles M. Strahan, Chairman Department of Religious Education, Athens, Ga.

Vice-President—Mrs. W. R. Prescott, Chairman Department of Christian Social Service, Clifton Road, Atlanta, Ga.

Recording and Corresponding Secretary—Miss Rosa

Woodberry, 149 Peachtree Circle, Atlanta, Ga.

Treasurer—Mrs. H. N. Hurt, 548 Spring St., Atlanta.

Custodian United Thank Offering—Mrs. J. N. Talley, Vineville Avenue, Macon, Ga.

Secretary Missionary Education—Mrs. Charles Pitner, Rome, Ga.

Secretary of Box Work—Mrs. Alexander Blair, Macon, Ga.

General Secretary—Miss Grace Lindley, 281 Fourth Ave., New York.

Mrs. Charles Pitner, educational secretary, gave an address on the study work for the year, and explained the survey, which is the official text for the next three years, together with the manual, both to be obtained from the Church Missions House for $1.75. She urged a weekly Bible class with a different leader at each meeting and a monthly program on Alaska and the work of Bishop Rowe and Archdeacon Stuck.

Mrs. Ulric Atkinson discussed the enlarged box work on Red Cross lines, and Mrs. Robert Alston the new work of the Church Department of Christian Social Service.

The Nation-Wide Campaign was presented by Bishop Mikell who went into full details of the survey for the Diocese and the large plans for the church at large.

Miss Rosa Woodberry spoke of the proposed Church Service League and the objects and aims of the Department of Religious Education.

The Appleton Church Home was recommended to each parish branch, under its department of Christian Social Service, and it was recommended that one dollar per capita be collected from every woman in the diocese for its maintenance. Mrs. John R. L. Smith, 20 Arlington Place, Macon, was appointed custodian of this fund. Mrs. Ralph Smith, of Griffin, was appointed special representative to solicit for this fund.

A discretionary fund of not less than $1,000 was adopted to be raised by a proportionate assessment on each parish. This was in accordance with the recommendation of the president, the object being to thus aid the Bishop in his diocesan work.

It was voted to pay the president's expenses out of the Expense Fund. It was voted to assess each member 25 cents for the expense fund, to be collected by each parish branch and forwarded to the diocesan treasurer of the Auxiliary.

The offering received at the Holy Communion celebration was $15, sent to the diocesan treasurer.

Resolutions of thanks were offered for the delightful entertainment of the churchwomen of Macon.

The convention adjourned and many remained to attend the opening of the Diocesan Council the following day and the missionary program that evening.

The place and date of the next annual convention is Griffin, Tuesday, May 11th, 1921.

The Appleton Church Home entertained the delegates at tea following adjournment.

The delegates to the Synod to meet in Louisville Nov. 16, are Mrs. Ulric Atkinson, Mrs. C. L. Pettigrew, Mrs. J. N. Talley, Mrs. Warren Stokes, Marietta.

Resolutions were adopted requesting the Diocesan Council to petition Congress to suppress the salmon canneries at the mouth of the Yukon, for the protection of the Yukon Indians under the care of Archdeacon Stuck.

The secretary submitted the report of the Auxiliary for the year to the Diocesan Council, showing a total of $3,444.79 for the second half of the year 1919 for missionary work.

ROSA WOODBERRY, Secretary.

Annual Report Submitted to the Council, Presented by the Bishop and Diocese, and Accepted With Thanks by the Council.

To the Bishop and Council of the Diocese of Atlanta:

The 13th annual report of the Diocesan Woman's Auxiliary marks the close of one period of continuous progress as auxiliary to the Board of Missions. After making its report up to May 1st, its energies were directed to the promotion of the Nation-Wide Campaign, with a view to reorganization along the lines indicated by the Presiding Bishop and Council. This has just been accomplished at the Convention held May 4th, 1920, by forming Departments of Christian Social Service, Religious Education, and Missions. It was agreed that the United Thank Offering should be open to all the women of the church.

The Summer Conference at Sewanee is being more widely attended and used by our church workers.
