Prayer for the Auxiliary Branches.

O Lord, our Heavenly Father, by Whose Spirit we are taught knowledge, and Who givest wisdom to all that ask Thee, grant Thy blessing, we beseech Thee, to the branch of this Parish (or Diocese). Mercifully assist us in the work which Thou hast given us to do. Enable us to labor diligently and faithfully, not with eyeservice, but in the singleness of heart, remembering that without Thee we can do nothing, but that trusting in Thy strength we shall prevail. May we set Thy Holy Will ever before us, and do that which is well pleasing in Thy sight. Of Thy great goodness unite us in unity of spirit and the bond of peace. Pour into our hearts Thy most excellent gift of charity, and we pray Thee to hasten the coming of Thy Kingdom that all the earth may be full of the knowledge of the Lord as the waters cover the sea. Hear us, O gracious Father, in these our humble supplications for the sake of Thy Son, our Saviour, Jesus Christ. Amen.

A Mid-Day Prayer.

Blessed Saviour, who at this hour didst hang upon the Cross, stretching forth Thy loving arms, grant that all mankind may look unto Thee and be saved, through Thy mercies and merits, who livest and reignest with the Father and the Holy Ghost ever one God, world without end. Amen.

In Memoriam.

MINNA H. KETCHUM.

September 25, 1917.

The members of the Diocesan Branch of the Woman's Auxiliary, assembled to-day for their annual meeting, are saddened by the knowledge that one, who for many years has been wont to meet with us on these occasions, has passed from this life to the life beyond, and to her memory to-day we pay our last tribute of sorrow and affection.

Mrs. A. E. Ketchum was born in Troy, N. Y. About fourteen years ago she came to Scranton, where she was a communicant of the Church of the Good Shepherd until her death on September 25, 1917.

Mrs. Ketchum came into the Woman's Auxiliary of the Diocese of Bethlehem in May, 1912, when she was appointed Organizing Secretary of the Scranton Archdeaconry.

Her love and enthusiasm for the work knew no bounds. She had a great vision of the wonderful work being done and to be done by the Auxiliary. Nothing was too hard or too much trouble for her to undertake.

The spirit of her life was summed up in the following beautiful prayer of consecration which she constantly used during the last year of her life:

"Take our minds, O Lord, and think through them; take our lips, O Lord, and speak through them; take our hearts, O Lord, and set them on fire with love for Thee—and to the glory of Thy name. Amen."

MRS. D. W. COXE,
MRS. H. L. JONES,
MISS SARAH RUSSELL,

Minutes

of the Annual Meeting of 1918.

The thirty-sixth annual meeting of the Bethlehem Branch of the Woman's Auxiliary to the Board of Missions was held in St. Stephen's Parish House, Wilkes-Barre, Pa., May 14 and 15, 1918.

The meeting was called to order Tuesday afternoon at 3 o'clock, by the President, Miss Ruddle.

The Rector of St. Stephen's, the Rev. F. W. Sterrett, opened the session with prayer and followed with a few words of welcome to the delegates.

After a few words in reply, the President called for the report of the Nominating Committee, Mrs. L. O. Emmerich, chairman. This committee reported Miss Laura L. Ruddle for President, Mrs. A. M. Hildebrand for Secretary, Mrs. R. P. Linderman for Treasurer, and Mrs. Guy Johnson and Mrs. L. O. Emmerich for Vice President. Upon motion, this report was accepted and the committee discharged.

The report of the Program Committee followed, Miss Laura F. Boyer, chairman.

Ten-minute conferences followed, with Miss Boyer presiding. The conference on box work was led by Mrs. Hildebrand; on the Church Periodical Club, by Mrs. Glick; on Money, Gifts and Pledges, by Miss Boyer. Miss Helen Ware led the conference on the Junior Branch. Miss Farrer led the conference on "The United Offering".

Dr. Jeffreys, of the Philadelphia City Mission, followed with a talk upon the subject, "Lay Thoughts About the Church During the War".

The Bishop then spoke of the stimulating meeting of the Diocesan Board of Missions held that day in Wilkes-Barre and also of his plan to keep Leonard Hall self-supporting during the war. He spoke of the Church Extension Fund and the many Parishes it had helped. A call at the present time is worth $1,200.00.

The meeting was adjourned at 5:10 p. m.

Wednesday, May 15, 1918.

The meeting opened with a celebration of the Holy Communion at 9 o'clock in St. Stephen's Church. The Bishop was the celebrant, assisted by the Rector, the Rev. F. W. Sterrett, and the Curate, the Rev. L. B. Sheen.

The service was followed immediately by the business meeting in the Parish House, Miss Ruddle presiding. After prayer by the Bishop, the roll was called, and 134 delegates from thirty Parishes responded.

The President then read her address. In the absence of the Treasurer, the Secretary read the Treasurer's report. Mrs. J. P. Ware, Organizing Secretary, reported for the Reading Archdeaconry, and also read the reports of the Educational Secretary, the "Little Helpers" and the "United Offering".

Mrs. W. A. Lathrop, Organizing Secretary, reported for the Scranton Archdeaconry, and also read the reports of the "Junior Branch" and the "Church Periodical Club". Mrs. Emerich's motion to accept these reports was seconded and carried.

The President then called for the report of the Finance Committee, Mrs. A. M. Hildebrand, chairman. The committee reported twelve Parishes responding, with a total of $111.10 toward the deficit, and presented three plans for raising money for the General Expense Fund. The first plan suggested that the amount to be contributed by each Parish be left to the discretion of the Organizing Secretaries. The second plan suggested making up an annual budget of expense and asking each year for pledges from the different Parishes to meet that budget. The third plan suggested basing an apportionment for each Parish branch upon the average expenditure of the Parish for three years.

Mrs. Wainwright moved that the third plan be adopted. Seconded by Mrs. Sturge. Motion lost. Mrs. Emerich moved to adopt the first plan. Seconded by Miss Hill. Motion carried.

The Rev. J. T. Ward then presented the "Witness", a reliable church newspaper, which should be in the home of every church family.

Mrs. Beaumont spoke for the Committee on Definite Representation and suggested the plan of allowing one delegate from each Parish Auxiliary and one extra delegate for every ten members. After some discussion Mrs. Emmerich moved that we continue the plan now in use without change. Seconded by Mrs. Kingsbury. Motion carried.

Noon-day prayers were read by the Rev. F. W. Sterrett.

Then followed an address by Dr. W. H. Jeffreys on the subject, "Women and the Church After the War".

Upon motion, further business was deferred until after luncheon.

The afternoon session opened with the report of the Committee upon a Limited Tenure of Office. After discussion it was moved by Mrs. Wood to lay the resolution on the table until it is decided whether the Organizing Secretaries shall be appointed or elected. Motion seconded and carried. Mrs. Scott then moved that the question of appointing or electing the Organizing Secretaries be laid on the table. Mrs. Wood amended the motion to read: "That the question of appointing or electing the Organizing Secretaries be laid on the table" and a committee be appointed to confer with the Bishop about it. Motion seconded by Mrs. Thomas. Motion carried.

The President then took up the discussion of recommendation No. 6, which is to be voted upon at the next triennial. Upon motion, a rising vote of thanks was given for the hospitality of St. Stephen's Parish. Upon motion, a vote of thanks was extended to the Program Committee. The delegates were then asked to stand in recognition of the presence of two ex-Presidents.

Mrs. Coxe took the chair during the election of officers. There being only one nominee for President, for Secretary and for Treasurer, the Secretary was ordered to cast a ballot for those, and Miss L. L. Ruddie was declared elected President; Mrs. Hildebrand, Secretary, and Mrs. R. P. Linderman, Treasurer. The voting for Vice President resulted in the election of Mrs. L. O. Emmerich of Hazleton.

Mrs. J. P. Ware presided during the conference that followed. Miss Mary C. Hill led the conference on "The Parish Branch Meeting"; Miss Boyer had charge of the Mission Study Conference; Mrs. A. A. Beaumont led the conference on "Section B"; Mrs. Ware led on the subject of "Prayer", and Miss Ruddie on "Auxiliary Aims and Ideals".

The minutes of the meeting were then read and approved and the meeting adjourned.

MAUDE G. HILDEBRAND,
Secretary.

President's Address.

It would not be surprising if the records of the past year, the first year that America has taken her part in the world war, had shown a great decrease in the number of boxes sent and the amount of money given to Missions by our Disocean branch of the Woman's Auxiliary. That this is not the case is cause for great joy and thankfulness.

We have all heard repeatedly that the Missionary Societies in England have given more and more each year of the war, and we certainly ought not to be less devoted than they, who have been bearing that burden for the last four years.

The Red Cross, National Defense, Liberty Loan and other war activities claim much of our time and money, but we must not lose sight of the most important thing in the world to-day.

We are told that "men are thinking now seriously about the deep things of life; that we have come down to the real human being. And if we would profit by what history teaches us we will see that God's work is not neglected in a time when our most whole-hearted support is needed. We will not let our faith grow dim nor our courage flag."

Dean Robbins says: "Missions are an indispensable part of our war work, as much a part of it as surgical dressings. For this war is a conflict of ideas. Liberty is the object. But the object of all missionary endeavor is to bring to men the liberty that is in Christ Jesus."

So we must not say that during the remainder of the war we cannot do anything for Missions but pray for them. Work with prayer is just as necessary for the success of the missionary work of the church as prayer with work is for the work of the Red Cross.

The Auxiliary in the Diocese suffered a great loss during the past year in the death of Mrs. Ketchum, who had been the organizing Secretary of the Scranton Archdeaconry for five years. She was most devoted, untiring and conscientious in the work which she so cheerfully undertook, and her success was apparent in the splendid meetings which were held in this Archdeaconry, in which so many women took part. We miss her enthusiasm and counsel in the meetings of the Board of Managers as you miss her in this Archdeaconry, and as we all miss her presence here to-day.

Mrs. Lathrop of Dorranceton has been appointed to succeed Mrs. Ketchum, and under her supervision the work will grow and prosper, we are sure.

We have been most unfortunate in not having the active assistance of our Vice President, Mrs. Thompson, this past year. Early in the summer her husband was called to the colors and she accompanied him to the training camp. The branches of Section B already at work in the Diocese have done well, but few new branches have been organized.

At the last annual meeting Miss Donnelly, who had been so faithful in the discharge of her duties as chairman for ten years of the Junior Branch of the Auxiliary, resigned her office, and Miss Farrer was appointed her successor.

The effort to enlarge the board of officers for the Junior Branch has been very successful; new Parish branches have been organized, and everything looks most favorable for this important department of our work. New branches of the Little Helpers have also been organized in several Parishes in the Diocese.

The pledges made by our delegates to the tri-ennial in 1916, $75.00 for Christ Church, Anvik, Alaska, and $700.00 for St. Agnes' School, Kyoto, have been paid in full during the past year.

A committee was appointed at the last annual meeting to make a catalogue of the members of the Auxiliary in this Diocese. This has been done and the committee reports 961 in the Reading Archdeaconry and 915 in the Scranton Archdeaconry, making a total of 1,876. This number includes those who are in any way connected with the Woman's Auxiliary and Section B. Those who attend the meetings, are in study classes, or who contribute to the United Offering. The number of communicants in the Diocese, reported at the last Convention, is 16,323. Assuming that half of these are women and girls (8,161), the number engaged in the recognized Missionary Society of the church is not very encouraging—6,285 are not so connected. I recommend that a determined effort be made this year to increase the membership of the Auxiliary.

Early this spring sixty-two copies of a questionnaire addressed to the Presidents of Parishes Branches of the Auxiliary were sent out and fourteen were returned. These questions were not original with me, but were sent me by Miss Corey of Massachusetts, who was appointed to serve on a committee to prepare a program for the next tri-ennial in 1919. The replies were most interesting, and a discussion of the questions will occupy a large part of the program of the conference held in South Bethlehem this summer.

For several years the Diocesan Board of Religious Education has conducted a summer school for Sunday School teachers in South Bethlehem the last week in June. This year the Board has invited the organizations of women in the Diocese to hold conferences during that week and arrangements have been made as follows:

On Tuesday, the 25th of June, there will be a conference for the Woman's Auxiliary; on Wednesday, the Rev. Arthur R. Gray will conduct a conference for the Junior Auxiliary, and on Thursday there will be a conference for the Girls' Friendly Society, for which Mrs. Estes, the Diocesan President, has arranged a good program. One of the objects of these meetings is to bring us nearer together and to find out how these societies can cooperate with each other. It is hoped that many of the members of the Auxiliary will attend these conferences and any one desiring accommodations may communicate with the Rev. Dr. S. U. Mitman, South Bethlehem, Pa.

Last November the Synod of this Province met in Philadelphia and twelve women from our Diocese took advantage of the opportunity of attending the sessions, which were very interesting. The next meeting will be held in Wilmington, Delaware, and it is hoped that this Diocese will be well represented. In conclusion, let me say with Coningsby Dawson: "We must carry on". The boys who are fighting over there are perfectly sure that the allied forces will be victorious, and each one is doing his best, even giving up his life, if necessary, so that he may have a share in the victory. We are perfectly sure that the gospel will be preached in time to every creature, and we must do our utmost to accomplish God's purpose.

No matter what duties and anxieties are laid upon us, we must not be faithless in the missionary work of the church.

The General Convention and the Board of Missions have recognized the Woman's Auxiliary as one of the most important factors in carrying on this great work, and this should be an incentive to every woman in the Diocese to do her best to "tell to all the world that God is Love".

LAURA L. RUDDLE.

Reading Archdeaconry.

REPORT OF ORGANIZING SECRETARY.

The signal falling off of offerings indicates that somebody is forgetting the cause of Missions.

I have been very anxious over the reports as they have come in from Parish after Parish to find that so many have the explanation attached that "Red Cross Work is making quite a difference with the church work".

Does this express the measure of our Christianity? We know it doesn't. No Christian wants Missions to starve, so we must remember and feel that shining more brightly than the little read cross which we bind on our forehead or our arm is that cross upon the forehead by which we were made members of Christ, children of God, and an inheritor of the Kingdom of Heaven. These are days of testing to the Auxiliary—let us make them days of victory. The light that shines farthest abroad shines brightest at home.

Let the wants of our Missionaries be supplied, because if that is done in a truly consecrated spirit, the work that lies near to our own door will also be accomplished. The neglect of Missions is not necessary. There are many economies that may yet be practiced to avoid infringing on Mission funds.

The church of England still maintains its marvellous record for missionary giving in spite of the heavy drains of war, while the American church had a deficit in the 1917 apportionment and that of 1918 shows a serious falling off.

Will each Parish branch of the Auxiliary in the Reading Archdeaconry see to it that through this new Auxiliary year of 1918 and 1919 that their regular duty to the church and her missions at home and abroad be sustained.

As usual, two meetings were held in this Archdeaconry, one at St. James' Church at Drifton on October 25 and the other at Trinity Church, Easton, in January. At the Drifton meeting there were fourteen different Parishes represented by eighty delegates.

The new Diocesan officers were introduced, Miss Ruddle, the President, and Mrs. Hildebrand, the Secretary, and each spoke of their own particular phase of Auxiliary work.

The Treasurer, Mrs. Linderman, reported that the Mrs. Sara Israel Memorial Fund was completed.

Mrs. Emmerich told of church work in Honolulu and Rev. Amos Goddard of Nangchang, China, presented the church's work and mission there.

At the meeting at Easton eleven Parish were represented with fifty delegates. Bishop Talbot was present and assisted by the Rector of the Parish, Rev. Mr. Bradshaw, celebrated Holy Communion at the opening service.

Some of the vital questions before our Diocesan Auxiliary were discussed, also suggestion No. 6 was touched upon. Miss Ruddle gave an "Aftermath of the Pilgrimage of Prayer" and Miss James read an exceedingly good account of Rev. Mr. Mason's work at Mission Home, Vir.

A questionnaire of the methods of work in our Diocese was started and elicited great interest.

This Archdeaconry has given in money, under the different heads, the following amounts: General Fund, $423.71; U. O., $1,088.04; General Missions, $429.00; Special and Pledges, $500.35; Speaker's Fund, $9.00; the value of thirty-eight boxes, $3,117.90; making a total of $4,543.00, against that of $5,382.55 for last year.

Organizing Secretary.

Scranton Archdeaconry.

Uppermost in the minds of the members of the Scranton Archdeaconry is a deep sense of personal loss, which has come to us, in the death of our Organizing Secretary, Mrs. A. E. Ketchum, who for six years so faithfully performed the duties of her office.

Her untiring interest in the Woman's Auxiliary, her readiness to answer every call, and her real love of the work, will ever be an inspiration to those of us who were privileged to be associated with her.

Her untimely end has brought to her the reward she so richly deserved, and the memory of her devotion to the Master's work gives us courage to go forward.

There have been two meetings of the Scranton Archdeaconry during the past year, one at St. James', Jermy, November 13, 1917.

The celebration of the Holy Communion at 10 a. m. was followed by the business session with ninety-eight delegates attending.

Suggestions and plans were put before the Auxiliary, the subjects being: Box Work, Mission Study Classes, and the Church Periodical Club.

The report of the Junior work showed a very satisfactory progress, two new branches having been organized.

The missionary address of Dean Shaw gave a clear insight into his work in the sandhills of western Nebraska, and the need for help in that section.

An appeal was made at that meeting in which we were asked to economize in time and money by denying ourselves luxuries and social good times, so that we might be able to help in the Red Cross work, and still not neglect Auxiliary work.

This we consider is a point well taken, for the tendency is to forget the church and its missions in our zeal to help win the war. These extra demands we feel should be considered as extra, and not in place of church work we have formerly done.

The mid-winter meeting was held at St. Luke's, Scranton, February 7 and 8.

Bishop Burleson was the speaker at the service on the evening of February 7—a helpful and inspiring address.

Holy Communion at 9 o'clock on the morning of the 8th, with the business meeting following at 10 o'clock.

After the usual business routine there were discussions of the questions to be brought up at the annual meeting, namely: Definite Representation, Tenure of Office, and the Current Expense Fund.

Following the luncheon, Miss Boyer and Mrs. Glick conducted Mission Study Classes. There is evident a growing interest in these classes, and we hope that through them a more thorough knowledge of the mission field and its needs will be ours.

Our President, Miss Ruddle, presided at both of these meetings.

It has been difficult for the new Secretary to grasp the details of the office but as far as reports have been received, we have the following statement to offer:

Junior Auxiliary.

REPORT OF THE DIOCESAN SECRETARY FOR THE YEAR 1917-18.

During the year 1917-18 the Junior Auxiliary has been working under something of a handicap, due to the fact that the work formerly done by one officer has been turned over to a Junior Board of eight members. Some adjustment was necessary, and the proper division of duties caused some confusion. I think, now, we can safely say that the Board is in working order, and is prepared to proceed with greater efficiency during the coming year. It is with regret that we are forced to accept the resignations of Mrs. Tuthill as chairman of the Boys' Department, due to removal from the Diocese; and that of Miss Pearsall as Treasurer of the Auxiliary, she having entered upon a course of hospital training.

There have been twenty-five old branches actively at work during the past year; six old branches apparently have lapsed, for I have received no report from them. Three new branches have been organized and reported on work done; one at St. Peter's Church, Hazleton; St. James' Church, Jermyn, and a Boys' Branch at St. Stephen's, Wilkes-Barre. Four additional branches have been organized and are probably beginning to work for next year; St. Luke's Church, Reading; Calvary, Tamaqua; one at Calvary, Wilkes-Barre, making two in this Parish, and one at St. Stephen's, Wilkes-Barre, making four branches here. This brings the total number of branches on our list to thirty-two.

There were no general or Archdeaconry meetings held during the year.

From thirty-two blanks on Mission Study sent out by the Educational Secretary, but eight were returned; seven of these reported having classes. May I not ask a greater co-operation between the branches and the Diocesan officers? Of the blank reports on work for the year sent out by your Secretary, twelve were returned. We must make a greater effort to work together if we would have the results we hope for.

The Christmas boxes for 1917 were sent to the Indian children at Wakpalak, South Dakota, and to the Colored Mission in Union Level, Virginia. Twenty-two branches contributed over 600 gifts. Also $10.00 was sent to South Dakota, and $3.00 to Virginia to purchase candy in addition to the gifts.

The value of the money and boxes contributed during the past year was:

Educational Department.

This year, as always, there are encouraging as well as discouraging things about the educational work in the Diocese.

It is discouraging each year that so many Secretaries do not fill out and return the report blanks which are sent out by the Educational Secretary. This year, out of the sixty-two blanks sent out, thirty-two were returned, and therefore the annual report of the Educational Secretary is based on the work done in only one-half of the Diocese.

It is discouraging also to find that the same Parishes year after year make no serious attempt to organize educational work of any kind, even though every help is offered them.

But it is encouraging to notice from the reports that Parishes who have had mission study in other years did not give it up this year on account of the demands of the war on their time. In only one case did a Parish which had previously done splendid educational work give it up for war work.

It is encouraging, also, that five Parishes that had never attempted any mission study before, planned and carried out good schemes of educational work, and report very enthusiastically of the results to their own Parish branch.

During the year Mrs. A. H. Glick of Frackville was appointed as Educational Secretary for the Junior branch.

The report this year shows a gain of three mission study classes over the report of last year; a loss of four Parishes holding mission study meetings, and a loss of three Parishes conducting reading circles.

The report of Educational work in thirty-two Parishes is as follows: Eighteen missions study classes were held in the following Parishes: Church of the Mediator, Allentown; Dorranceton, Drifton, East Mauch Church, Frackville, Hazleton, Mauch Chunk, Pottsville, Sayre; St. Luke's, Scranton; Church of the Good Shepherd, Scranton; South Bethlehem, Nelson Chapter; Stroudsburg, Towanda; St. Clement's, Wilkes-Barre; St. Stephen's, Wilkes-Barre, Section A; St. Stephen's, Wilkes-Barre, Section B; West Pittston.

In addition to these classes, members of Section B of St. Clement's, Wilkes-Barre, attended the class at St. Stephen's as well as one member of the Plymouth Parish Branch. Members of the Drifton Parish branch attended the class at Hazleton.

Fifteen Parishes conducted mission study meetings, as follows: Church of the Mediator, Allentown; Dorranceton, Frackville, Hazleton, Olyphant, Pottsville; Christ Church, Reading; Sayre; St. Lukes, Scranton; Church of the Good Shepherd, Scranton; St. Clair, Towanda, Tunkhannock; St. Stephen's, Wilkes-Barre, Section A; St. Stephen's, Wilkes-Barre, Section B.

Eight Parishes reported Reading circles as follows: Grace Church, Allentown; East Mauch Chunk, Honesdale, Lebanon, Montrose, Reading, St. Mary's; Reading, Christ Church; St. Luke's, Scranton.

LAURA F. BOYER,
Education Secretary for the Woman's Auxiliary.

ANNUAL MESSAGE.

In our enthusiasm and desire to do all that is possible to help win the war, some of us seem to have lost sight of the other conflict with the powers of evil, a war dating back to the Day of Pentecost, the birthday of The Church—militant, until she shall become the Church Triumphant. Into the Church Militant—the Body of Christ—we were received at baptism, as “soldiers” who promised to be “faithful”. Are we faithful? Certainly not, if we fail to stand behind the Soldiers of the Cross who are at the front in as real a sense as our Soldiers under the Flag.

The United Offering Missionaries are soldiers; think of them trying to live and work under the present conditions—their meagre salaries taxed by the fall in exchange and the increase in cost of living. They need, as never before, the prayers and money of the women and girls of the church at home.

The thing is this: The war should have our time, thought and money, but not at the expense of the other war for the bringing of all peoples of the earth into His kingdom. We can carry on both; we are only beginning to realize our capacity for service—whether it be praying, working or the giving of money; and why do we speak of two wars; is it not really one war against evil for righteousness?

While the present needs are imperative greater needs are before us. For greater opportunities will come in the period of reconstruction after the war. Then our United Offering may be a valuable asset, if we can only catch the vision of its possibilities now.

ANNUAL REPORT.

In the review of United Offering work accomplished during the year in our Diocese, the creation of the office of Junior United Offering Treasurer comes first in importance; then the devotion of the Parish United Offering Treasurers, and the women and girls who in spite of the many demands upon their money, kept up the work and pushed it a little ahead, and two Parish branches have returned to our list, while two appear there for the first time—St. Elizabeth's, Allentown, and St. Martin's-in-the-Field, Nuangola. We welcome them.

Constitution.

ARTICLE I.

The name of this Society is the Bethlehem Branch of the Woman's Auxiliary to the Board of Missions.

ARTICLE II.

The object of this Society is to diffuse knowledge of the Missionary work of the whole church among all people in the Diocese; to increase their interest and activity in that work; to encourage the formation of branches of this Society in every Parish and Mission of the Diocese; and by means of united and systematic effort to promote the work of Church extension.

ARTICLE III.

The Church is the Missionary Society. Every Baptized person is a member of this Society; therefore all baptized women who aid the Missionary work of the Church by their prayers, work or offerings are recognized as actual members of the Woman's Auxiliary.

ARTICLE IV.

The officers of this Society shall be a President, a Vice President, a Secretary, a Treasurer, a United Offering Treasurer, an Organizing Secretary for each Archdeaconry of the Diocese, and an Educational Secretary. Other officers may be chosen at the Discretion of the Society.

1. These officers (except the Organizing Secretaries and the Educational Secretary, who shall be appointed by the Bishop) shall be elected by ballot at the annual meeting of the Society.

2. A Nominating Committee shall be appointed by the President two months previous to the annual meeting, whose duty it shall be to prepare a ticket containing, if possible, the names of two candidates for each office.

3. A Treasurer of the United Offering shall be elected once every three years, at the May meeting in the same year as the Triennial Meeting of the Woman's Auxiliary. Her election shall take effect November 1st of that year, and she shall hold office until her successor is elected.

4. The Chairman of the Junior Auxiliary and the Chairman of the Babies' Branch shall be appointed by the President and approved by the Bishop.

5. The above officers shall constitute a Board of Managers to which the affairs of the Bethlehem Branch shall be entrusted.

ARTICLE V.

The duties of the President are to call all meetings, to preside at them, and to have the general oversight and direction of the work of this Society.

ARTICLE VI.

The duties of the Vice President are to assist the President, and in her absence, to preside at all meetings of the Society.

ARTICLE VII.

The duties of the Secretary are to prepare a report of the work of the Society for its annual meeting; to keep the minutes of all its meetings; to have charge of the printing of its reports and other documents, and to conduct such correspondence with the parent Society and other branches as the President may direct and approve.

ARTICLE VIII.

The duties of the Treasurer are to receive all monies of the Society, to keep a full and accurate record of all receipts and disbursements, and to present to the Society at the annual meeting a full report of the same. She shall pay out money only by the direction of this Society, or its Board of Managers, except such sums as may be received for definite purposes. All money received for purposes outside the Diocese shall be forwarded to the Treasurer of the General Board of Missions.

1. The duties of the United Offering Treasurer are to increase and deepen interest in the United Offering, to receive all money for this offering through the Organizing Secretaries and the Junior Board and with the advice of the Board of Managers to place this money at interest until it is presented at the next Triennial meeting of the Woman's Auxiliary.

ARTICLE IX.

The duties of the Organizing Secretaries are to form new Parish branches in their Archdeaconries, to stimulate the missionary spirit and to increase intelligent interest in the missionary work of the church. They are authorized to hold meetings within their Archdeaconries and are free to conduct their work under the general approval of the President of the Society and the Bishop of the Diocese.

1. They shall receive from the Parish branches reports of all work done by them and all monies contributed by them or through them and give a receipt for the same.

2. Each Organizing Secretary shall send to the Treasurer of the Society all monies, except the United Offering, received from its branches immediately on receipt of the same, together with a detailed account designating the source from which, and the object for which they were received.

3. The Organizing Secretaries shall make an annual report to the Secretary of the Auxiliary of the work done in their Archdeaconries, the same to be printed in the annual report of the Diocesan Branch.

ARTICLE X.

At each annual meeting the President shall appoint a committee of two persons whose duty it shall be to audit the accounts of the Treasurer, and the United Offering Treasurer.

ARTICLE XI.

Before May 1st of each year each Parish branch shall send to the Organizing Secretary of its Archdeaconry all monies contributed for the Society, and also reports of all work done, including the furnishing of boxes for Missionaries.

ARTICLE XII.

There shall be one general meeting of the Society in May of each year at such time as may be designated by the Bishop.

ARTICLE XIII.

Special meetings of this Society may be called by the President at the request of the Board of Managers or of four Parish branches.

ARTICLE XIV.

This Constitution may be amended by a two-thirds vote of the members of the Society present at any annual meeting.
