Prayer for the Auxiliary Branches

O Lord, our Heavenly Father, by Whose Spirit, we are taught knowledge, and Who givest wisdom to all that ask Thee, grant Thy blessing, we beseech Thee, to the branch of the Auxiliary in this Parish (or Diocese). Mercifully assist us in the work which Thou hast given us to do. Enable us to live diligently and faithfully, not with eye-service, but in the singleness of heart, remembering that without Thee we can do nothing, but that trusting in Thy strength we shall prevail. May we set Thy Holy Will ever before us, and do that which is well pleasing in Thy sight. Of Thy great goodness unite us in unity of spirit and the bonds of peace. Pour into our hearts Thy most excellent gift of charity, and we pray Thee to hasten the coming of Thy Kingdom that all the earth may be full of the knowledge of the Lord as the waters cover the sea. Hear us, O gracious Father, in these our humble supplications for the sake of Thy Son, our Saviour, Jesus Christ. Amen.

A Mid-Day Prayer

Blessed Saviour, who at this hour didst hang upon the Cross, stretching forth Thy loving arms, grant that all mankind may look unto Thee and be saved, through Thy mercies and merits, who livest and reignest with the Father and the Holy Ghost ever one God, world without end. Amen.

MINUTES

Annual Meeting, 1923

The Forty-first Annual Meeting of the Bethlehem Branch of the Woman's Auxiliary to the National Council was held in St. Mark's Church, Mauch Chunk, Wednesday and Thursday, January 24th and 25th, 1923.

From 4:30 to 6:00 p. m. Wednesday, a Mission Study Class was conducted by Mrs. R. H. Williams of the Diocese of Newark. The opening service of the meeting was held Wednesday evening at 7:30. At this time, the Rector welcomed the delegates to St. Mark's and introduced the speaker of the evening, Mr. Lewis B. Franklin. Mr. Franklin gave a most interesting and inspiring talk on "The Missionary Work of the Church". The meeting on Thursday was preceded by a celebration of Holy Communion at 9:00 a. m. The Rector was the celebrant, assisted by Rev. Mr. Kreitler of Scranton.

The business session was called to order at 9:45 by the President, Miss Laura L. Ruddle. In the absence of Mrs. Parsons, Mrs. Hildebrand was appointed Secretary pro tem. Delegates were asked to register instead of responding to a roll call. By motion duly carried the reading of the minutes were dispensed with. Mrs. John A. Frick, the new Vice President of the Reading Convocation was then introduced. The Treasurer's report followed showing $237.27 as a bank balance of all funds December 31, 1923.

Mrs. Frick gave a very complete report of the work done in the Reading Convocation during the past year. She called especial attention to the sums of money that could not be included in the Annual Report because they had not been sent through the regular channels of Convocational Vice President and Diocesan Treasurer.

Mrs. W. A. Lathrop gave the report of the Scranton Convocation. She spoke also of the difficulty in reporting money contributions and urged every Parish Branch to send all money to its respective Vice President. Mrs. Lathrop reported three new branches.

Miss M. L. Farrer, in making her report of the United Thank Offering urged the more general use of the blue boxes.

The Supply Secretary reported the need for some sweaters and warm mittens to complete one of the assignments. The following branches pledged money to buy these articles:

Trinity, Athens, five pairs of mittens.

Nativity, Bethlehem, Senior Branch, $20.00.

St. Luke's, Scranton, $15.00.

Redeemer, Sayre, $5.00.

St. Stephen's, Wilkes-Barre, $20.00.

St. Peter's, Hazleton, $10.00.

Trinity, Lansford, $5.00.

Nelson Chapter, Bethlehem, $10.00.

All Saints', Shenandoah, $5.00.

Mediator, Allentown, $5.00.

Calvary, Tamaqua, $5.00.

Christ Church, Reading, $15.00.

St. John's, E. Mauch Chunk, $5.00.

Christ Church, Frackville, $5.00.

Discussion of the work of the Supply Department brought out the need of a fund of at least $500.00 each year which the Supply Secretary might draw upon for the purchase of ready made garments. Mrs. Sturge of Scranton moved that the Supply Secretary allot each year a sum of money to each organization according to the amount of box work each does, to be paid by June 1st. Seconded by Mrs. Taylor of Scranton. Motion amended by Miss Farrer by adding "And the Vice President shall be made Financial Secretary of this fund". Motion carried as amended.

In the absence of Miss Maurice, Mrs. Frick read the report of the Church Periodical Club. Miss Ruddle called attention to the fact that Miss Maurice is also acting as Secretary of the "Spirit of Missions".

Miss Gettel read the greeting from the Girls' Friendly Society and spoke of the delight that the girls have in doing some of the work of the Supply Department as part of their missionary work.

The Nominating Committee, Mrs. Trautman, Chairman, reported two nominees for the office of Vice President, Mrs. Hook of Reading, and Mrs. Foster of Palmerton.

The President then read her annual address.

Mrs. Fulford followed with a conference on "Our Devotional Life." Mrs. Wagner of Lebanon, conducted a conference on "A United Day of Prayer", and Mrs. Sturge, a conference on "Faith and Order". A World Conference is to be held in Washington in 1925 and anyone wishing literature on the subject may have it by writing to Robert Gardiner, 174 Water St., Gardiner, Maine.

The noon day having arrived, the Rev. Mr. Stark conducted noon day prayers and meditation. The meeting was then adjourned for luncheon.

The meeting reassembled at 1:30 p. m. The first business was the election of Vice President.

The President asked for nominations from the floor, but no one responded. Mrs. Harry Hook was elected.

The question of the date of meeting was next brought up. It was moved by Mrs. Taylor of Scranton to try a January meeting once more. Seconded by Mrs. W. A. Lathrop. Voting on this was delayed until the Mauch Chunk ladies could be present. Mrs. Sturge spoke further on Faith and Order. Voting on the motion made by Mrs. Taylor carried the original motion.

Mrs. Glenn then spoke on the Church Mission of Help.

Mrs. Smead of the Church of the Good Shepherd, Scranton, moved a standing vote of thanks to the ladies of St. Mark's for their generous hospitality.

Discussion led by Mr. Kreidler followed Mrs. Glenn's talk. Mrs. Lathrop, seconded by Mrs. Butler of Hazleton, moved that a message of sympathy be sent to our Secretary, Mrs. Parsons, of regret that she was not able to be with us on this occasion. Miss Elizabeth Ruddle addressed the meeting on the subject of the Program of Week-day Activities, set forth by the Department of Religious Education.

Meeting adjourned at 4:00 p. m.

GERTRUDE K. PARSONS,
Secretary.

Report of Girls' Friendly Society

To the Woman's Auxiliary of the Diocese of Bethlehem:

The G. F. S. of the Diocese of Bethlehem wishes to greet the Woman's Auxiliary and expresses a desire to help in any way possible.

We all feel it to be a great privilege to be able to participate in so fine and great a work as Missions.

The Girls themselves consider it a work of love, both while sewing on garments and when earning money for our Branch apportionments.

I think all agree that having our work assigned simplifies things for us, and our Missionary work becomes thereby not merely arbitrary, but a real duty to be performed.

If presented appealingly to the girl, she loves this work for others, whether it be for the Parish, the Community, the Diocese, the Nation or the World.

Be assured of our continued help and co-operation.

Most sincerely,
GRACE A. STEUBER,
Dio. Pres. G. F. S.

President's Address

The Program Committee this year has placed the President's address after all the reports have been presented, so I shall not speak of the work of the past year, but of plans for the future.

First the Box Work. That has been a great anxiety the last few years, and some plan must be devised to make it more efficient. As one of our officers has said, "We are doing a big thing in a small way."

Our allotment the past year included a large number of articles that had to be bought, such as shoes, underwear, overalls, caps, handkerchiefs, etc., as well as soap, soap powders and dispensary supplies.

You all know that it would be much more economical for one person to purchase these articles in bulk from some manufacturer, than to divide the order among several different parishes, which would make it necessary to pay retail prices. Much of the purchasing of articles of dress, and of materials could be done in this way much more economically and efficiently than it is done now. The suggestion has also been made that the Supply Department could furnish materials to small parish branches where the members are willing to work but cannot afford to buy materials at retail prices. In this way those who have money but no time, and those who have time but no money could help each other, and we could more truly work together. If these suggestions are adopted, there must be a fund created to purchase articles and materials at most advantageous prices. How is this fund to be gathered? By asking contributions from each parish branch of the Auxiliary? By borrowing a sum sufficiently large to carry us through the next year? By giving the offerings at our meetings for this purpose?

This whole matter will be discussed later, and I hope we can make the Supply Department more economical and more efficient.

The Educational work has suffered the past year through the retirement of Mrs. Bates as Educational Secretary. No one has been found to take her place. We have a fine record for our educational work; beginning with Mrs. Wood who was one of the first in the whole Church to see the necessity for and to grasp the possibilities of such a work, and continuing until last May when Mrs. Bates was obliged to resign. The work is discouraging, as all educational work is, and the progress is slow, but it is a fine opportunity for some young woman to show her faith and courage.

I hope the educational work in the parishes will still go on. We can always get supplies, information and inspiration from the Missions House, and Miss Boyer is always ready to help any one from this Diocese.

In connection with this subject I would say right here that the Lantern Slide Bureau of the Church Missions House has a Nation-Wide Campaign Lantern Lecture.

Problems of each field are presented and pictures are shown to illustrate those problems. There are also suggestions as to how the individual and parish may take their place in a concerted effort to make the Church of God move forward.

The Conference for Church Workers will be held this year in Bethlehem from the 25th to the 30th of June. There will be classes in Social Service, Religious Education and Missions, and probably a class for Auxiliary members. I hope many of you will make an effort to attend some of the classes at least, and I particularly urge that you try to have your parish represented by some of the younger men and women. The committee has secured the services of a man much interested in young people both in Sunday School work and in week-day activities; one who was prominent in the discussions and gatherings at the General Convention.

The committee is to be congratulated upon their success in securing a man of such ability, and the young people in the Diocese have a wonderful opportunity of hearing and meeting such a man. Please make it your business to persuade some young man or woman, or both to attend the Conference; if necessary pay their expenses. The Conference was not a success financially last year. We all must help to make it so this year.

The Church League Club has opened its new headquarters at 130 East 57th St., New York City. Any woman in good standing in the Church is eligible for membership in this Club and may secure rooms at this house at any time. Mrs. C. R. Stetson, Murray Hill Hotel, New York, is the secretary.

Several appeals for help have come to us this year. Archdeacon Baskerville needs most urgently assistance for the work he is doing among the negroes in South Carolina.

The Dean of Nashotah House writes that fine men in larger numbers than ever before are presenting themselves as candidates for the ministry. They need an additional building to accommodate them.

The Bishop Rowe Foundation Fund is short $27,012.07 of the goal of $100,000.00. It is hoped the full amount will be in hand by Easter.

The Hudson Stuck Memorial Hospital at Fort Yukon is also in need of funds. $8,000.00 have already been given by Indians in Alaska. We read in the Spirit of Missions: "It is inspiring to see how Indian after Indian has given one hundred dollars or more to this fund. Even Indian children have given their dollars and half dollars."

The Rev. J. H. King, principal of Christ Church Industrial School for Colored Children, in Forrest City, Arkansas, is asking for help. His needs are, five knitting machines, five broom making machines, five sewing machines, five canning outfits. Address 1852 Cross Street, Little Rock, Arkansas.

The Auxiliary in the whole country gave more than $93,000.00 to the Emery Fund during the last three years of which our Dioceses contributed about $1,200.00. We are asked in the next three years to raise $75,000.00 to purchase and equip houses for women who are preparing themselves to be missionaries. One of these houses is to be in New York city, and one in Raleigh, North Carolina, for colored women. There is such great need of this last that the Department of Missions has voted to advance the money, $10,000.00, so it can be opened next autumn. The Auxiliary will repay the money to the Department as soon as it comes in.

A national committee has been appointed for the gathering together of this money; provincial and diocesan committees will soon be formed, and it is hoped the response will be generous. This is to be our "Special" for the next three years.

Since our last annual meeting the General Convention and Triennial of 1922 have passed into history. It is a satisfaction to report that our full representation, five women, were present at the meeting in far off Portland. Looking over some old reports of our Auxiliary several weeks ago, I found Mrs. Israel's account of the Convention in Richmond in 1907.

What she wrote then is all true today, and she can tell it so much better than I, that I venture to quote her exact words. "It was a privilege to attend those wonderful mass meetings; to hear the Bishops and Missionaries from all our foreign fields; to be present at the great Triennial service, when the magnificent offering of $224,251.55 was thankfully and joyously laid on God's altar (the United Thank Offering of 1922 was three times that amount.) No one could attend day after day those meetings of earnest women to discuss the best methods of furthering Christ's kingdom on earth without being filled with enthusiasm and deepest interest. The prevailing tone was one of consecration and prayer. The sad part of it is that we can not convey that enthusiasm to those who remain at home; that the petty strife and jealousy in our parishes, and the chill of indifference strike us on our return, and take away much of the zeal that had burned within us." All who are privileged to attend these meetings feel that I presume. After attending meetings of three or four hundred women, and gatherings of three or four thousand men and women, all keenly interested in the work the Church is doing, and eager to have a real share in that work, it seems futile to go to a meeting of ten or a dozen women in our home parish.

We seem to accomplish nothing by going to Sunday School every week and trying to make an impression upon a few boys or girls; but those things are just what makes possible such a splendid gathering as the General Convention. Each one of us is linked up with it in a very real way. The strength of the Church is not in General Convention, not in the Missions House, not in our few large parishes, but in the ordinary parish, where men and women are carrying on amid discouragements and difficulties, without the inspiration of numbers. The reward, if we are faithful is sure.

If we persevere we will hear the words spoken by our pitiful and merciful Judge, "Thou hast been faithful over a few things" (and then we will be ashamed of the little we have done, when we had so many opportunities and so much time which we have wasted). "Thou hast been faithful over a few things. Enter thou into the joy of thy Lord."

LAURA L. RUDDLE.

Reading Convocation

Any report of work done by the Reading Convocation during the past year must of necessity be brief for it was not until November that your Vice President had the honor of being appointed to that office. The Auxiliary was the guest of St. Barnabas' Church, Reading, on November 22nd. Dr. John W. Chapman brought a message of deep interest to the 100 delegates present.

The following shows the moneys that have passed through the hands of the Vice President.

General Fund	$ 321.10
Special Fund	401.20
Value of Box Work.....	2,659.25
Total.....	$3,368.53

These figures fall so far short of the amount reported on the Parish Branch Reports, that your Vice President begs the privilege for a foreward for the coming year. Thirty-six blanks were sent out before Thanksgiving with the request that they be returned by January 1st. These reports show that the Branches do not understand that all money must be sent through the Vice President, no matter how small the sum, nor to whom it is to be sent. Hundreds of dollars were contributed that cannot go in the report because they did not go through the hands of the Vice President. Let us aim this year to have the thirty-six Branches of the Auxiliary active and to have each dollar contributed go through the proper channel, so that it may be presented to the presiding Bishop and Councils as an accurate account of the work done by the Convocation. "Let the Star of the Morning lead us O, God, that we may journey on undismayed through this year and through all the years until we see the Christ face to face."

Respectfully submitted,

RUTH L. FRICK,

Organizing Vice President,
Reading Convocation.

Scranton Convocation

VICE-PRESIDENT'S REPORT.

The Scranton Convocation is glad to report three new Parish Branches, St. Andrews, Alden, and St. George's, Nanticoke; also one re-organized.

Although only recently organized, one of the new branches demonstrated its desire to co-operate by entertaining one of our neighborhood meetings; four others were held at other parishes during the year.

A most satisfactory Convocation was held at Christ Church, Towanda, November 1st and 2nd, with the Church Service League the leading thought throughout the sessions. Miss Elizabeth Lawrence of the Diocese of Western New York explained in detail the plan of organizing parish units and diocesan branches. We regretted that more of the clergymen were not there.

Funds which have passed through my hands, $901.85. Value of boxes, $1,758.55.

Constitution

ARTICLE I.

The name of this Society is the Bethlehem Branch of the Women's Auxiliary to the Presiding Bishop and Council.

ARTICLE II.

The object of this Society is to diffuse knowledge of the Missionary work of the whole Church among all people in the Diocese; to increase their interest and activity in that work; to encourage the formation of branches of this Society in every Parish and Mission of the Diocese; and by means of united and systematic effort to promote the work of Church extension.

ARTICLE III.

The Church is the Missionary Society. Every baptised person is a member of this Society; therefore all baptised women who aid the missionary work of the Church by their prayers, work or offerings are recognized as actual members of the Women's Auxiliary.

ARTICLE IV.

1. The Officers of the Society shall be a President, a Vice President, a Secretary, a Supply Secretary, an Educational Secretary, a Treasurer, a United Thank Offering Treasurer, an Organizing Vice President for each Convocation of the Diocese. Other officers may be chosen at the discretion of the Society.

2. These officers (except the Organizing Vice President and the Educational Secretary who shall be appointed by the Bishop) shall be elected by ballot at the Annual Meeting of the Society for terms of three years.

3. The President's tenure of office shall not exceed two consecutive terms.

4. The Vice President shall not serve for two consecutive terms.

5. The Convocational Vice Presidents and Educational Secretary shall be appointed by the Bishop.

6. The above officers shall constitute a Board of Managers to which the affairs of the Bethlehem Branch shall be entrusted.

7. A Nomination Committee shall be appointed by the President two months previous to the annual meeting, whose duty it shall be to prepare a ticket containing, if possible, the names of two candidates for each office.

ARTICLE V.

The duties of the President are to call all meetings, to preside at them, and to have the general oversight and direction of the work of this Society.

ARTICLE VI.

The duties of the Vice President are to assist the President, and in her absence, to preside at all meetings of the Society.

ARTICLE VII.

The duties of the Secretary are to prepare a report of the work of the Society for its annual meetings; to have charge of the printing of its reports and other documents, and to conduct such correspondence with the parent Society and other Branches as the President may direct and approve.

The Supply Secretary shall have entire charge of all the Box work of the Diocese.

ARTICLE VIII.

1. The duties of the Treasurer are to receive all moneys of the Society, to keep a full and accurate record of all receipts and disbursements, and to present to the Society at the annual meeting a full report of the same. She shall pay out money only by the direction of this Society, or its Board of Managers, except such sums as may be received for definite purposes. All money received for purposes outside the Diocese shall be forwarded to the Treasurer of the Presiding Bishop and Council.

2. The duties of the United Thank Offering Treasurer are to increase and deepen the interest in the United Thank Offering; to receive all money for this offering and with the advice of the Board of Managers to place this money at interest until it is presented at the next Triennial meeting of the Women's Auxiliary.

ARTICLE IX.

1. The duties of the Organizing Convocational Vice Presidents are to form new Parish Branches in their Convocations, to stimulate the missionary spirit and to increase intelligent interest in the missionary work of the Church. They are authorized to hold meetings within their Convocations and are free to conduct their work under the general approval of the President of the Society and the Bishop of the Diocese.

2. Each Organizing Convocational Vice President shall send to the Treasurer of the Society all monies except the United Thank Offering, received from its Branches immediately on receipt of the same, together with a detailed account designating the source from which, and the object for which they were received.

3. The Organizing Convocational Vice Presidents shall make an annual report to the Secretary of the Auxiliary of the work done in their Convocations, the same to be printed in the annual report of the Diocesan Branch.

ARTICLE X.

At each annual meeting the President shall appoint a committee of two persons whose duty it shall be to audit the accounts of the Treasurer, and the United Thank Offering Treasurer.

ARTICLE XI.

Before January 1st of each year, each Parish Branch shall send to the Organizing Vice President of its Convocation all moneys contributed for the Society, and also report of all work done, including the furnishing of boxes for Missionaries.

ARTICLE XII.

There shall be one general meeting of the Society in January of each year at such time as may be designated by the Bishop.

(This Article not yet accepted).

ARTICLE XIII.

Special meetings of this Society may be called by the President at the request of the Board of Managers or of four Parish Branches.

ARTICLE XIV.

Amendments to this Constitution must be proposed at one annual meeting and voted on at the following annual meeting when a two-third vote of the members present will be necessary to carry the amendment.
