REPORT

OF THE

Eleventh Annual Meeting,

April 25th, 1891.

The Eleventh Annual Meeting of the California Branch of the Woman's Auxiliary was held at St. Peter's Church, San Francisco, on Saturday, April 25th. The opening service was read by Bishop Nichols, who then greeted those assembled, and at the request of the President took the chair.

The roll-call showed a representation of thirteen parish branches. The reports of the Secretary and Treasurer were very encouraging, showing a growth in the work, and its extension on lines suggested by Bishop Nichols in special meetings which he had called. St. Paul's, San Diego, was declared to be the banner parish.

The offertory which was taken after the Treasurer's report, was devoted to general expenses. The President read a letter from Mrs. Kip greeting the ladies and regretting her inability to be with them.

The election of officers was next on the programme. The President, First Vice-President, Secretary and Treasurer, were re-elected with perfect unanimity. Vice-Presidents from the city parishes were elected on nomination of the representatives of the respective parish branches.

Under the head of new business, Mrs. Lawver moved that new branches in missions be allowed to report as Auxiliary work any church furnishings or Sunday school supplies given by them to their own missions during the first two years of their existence. Carried.

On combined motion of several ladies the officers were given more latitude in meeting central expenses.

Bishop Nichols called on the Rev. J. A. Emery to speak about St. Phoebe's Home. He gave a history of the institution, but might have omitted mention of the unfurnished condition of its house, had not Rev. C. L. Miel supplemented his remarks.

The Secretary had at hand membership cards for the Junior Auxiliary, which is steadily growing.

Bishop Nichols called on the Rector of St. Luke's for a few words, in which he expressed his pleasure that the work was increasing, and for his parish cheerfully resigned the banner to St. Paul's, San Diego.

After the Doxology and the Bishop's benediction, the meeting adjourned to assemble in Los Angeles on the following Tuesday, at 8 P. M.

MARY A. HAWLEY,
Secretary of the Meeting.

THE ADJOURNED MEETING.

April 28th, 1891.

In St. Paul's Church, Los Angeles, on the evening of April 28th, a large congregation took part in the Adjourned Meeting, the Assistant Bishop presiding.

After the opening service, the Secretary and Treasurer reported the year's work. The by-law providing special organization for branches in new missions was approved; and it was resolved to join the San Francisco societies in any plans proposed by Bishop Nichols for holding general missionary meetings.

The Rev. C. S. Cook, of South Dakota, gave an address on Missionary Work among the Indians, which won new friends for his people, and made the Auxiliary his debtor for an unusual pleasure.

At this service and at the informal meeting on the following Friday afternoon, twenty churches were represented. The collection was for general expenses.

This first convention meeting in the Southern Convocation brought together many workers for the first time. The hospitalities of "convention week" were a means of so prolonging Auxiliary intercourse that as delegates dispersed, taking with them diocesan offices, or themselves carrying to their homes new enthusiasm, the adjourned meeting threatened to become a perpetual meeting, and can have adequate report only in the records of the opening year.

SUSAN S. LAWVER, Secretary.

ELEVENTH ANNUAL REPORT.

The eleventh year of the California Auxiliary, whose close in this early Easter-tide, we to-day anticipate, is marked by increased activity in all avenues of effort.

Bishop Nichols has called together four general meetings at as many different places, and wherever he has gone, he has, when possible to do so, met our women and children.

By constant teaching of right motives, and clear direction to practical issues, he has raised and fortified the whole fabric of our organization; and, more closely bound together than ever before, we look out on the struggles of the coming year with the high courage of a household at unity in itself, and in alliance with all good neighbors.

Never before have our workers been so devoted or the quality of the work so good.

Peeping into "Boxes," the critical eye of a diocesan inspector sees in all wiser selection, more thorough attention to detail; and how brightly has burned the Lamp of Sacrifice, He knows, for Whose altar in many an obscure mission has been made the broidery and fair linen—the very crown and flower of Auxiliary needlework.

Five new branches bring the number up to thirty-three. Nine "Juniors" added to the three reported last year, and three other societies working with us, make the number of societies reporting through us to-day fifty.

This statement will explain brevity in noticing each.

In San Francisco the work of the Associated Parishes is done in such close co-operation with Parochial Branches, that only as a whole can it be correctly estimated. The Association has met from church to church eighteen times. Its meetings are the opportunity of the visiting missionary, and a means of interchange in many helpful details.

In August, at St. Luke's Church, Mrs. Willoughby Cummings and Miss Patterson, of the Toronto Branch, were welcomed by a large gathering of women from this and neighboring congregations and left charming memories of this first touch of sisterly hands from across the border.

On March 9th, at St. Paul's Church, many women had a long anticipated delight in meeting Bishop Hare in the few hours he could spare us on his way to Japan. He told of his Indian work, supplementing his address of the previous evening at Trinity Church.

The Rev. Thompson, who is doing such faithful service to his colored brethren of St. Thomas', Chicago, visited the meeting at Trinity on September 17th; and Miss Goepp, en route to Japan, was with us at St. Luke's on September 29th.

Of the eight parishes in this Association no two work alike.

The Church of the Advent does its work entirely in the Association, with the exception that a chapter of the Parish Guild has for its sole object the making and remaking of garments for the children in our Church institutions. The economy and real comfort evolved, are none the less valuable that they are not estimated in dollars and cents.

In Grace Church, two branches hold regular meetings. The Ministering Women and Children have contributed to missionary boxes and to Church institutions in value $149.95—and St. Agatha's Guild, supporting St. Agatha's Room in Maria Kip Orphanage, $90.30—with cash, $5. Total by Grace Branches, $245.25.

In St. Luke's, missionary interest permeates parish life. The whole Parochial Society, with its many chapters contributing through the Missionary Committee, constitutes the Auxiliary—a fine example of the principle of the Toronto branch—the existing parish society the missionary society, without separate organization.

St. Luke's Auxiliary reports—boxes, $617.21; cash, $653.00; total, $1,270.21.

The Sunday School is an arm of the service, subject to the influence of the Missionary Committee, and reports to the General Board through the Auxiliary, $18.00.

On the 19th of January a band of young girls—companions—meeting at the home of one of their number, organized as St. Luke's Junior Auxiliary. Two ladies have direction of the missionary studies and of the sewing. They have a mite box—"The Bishop's Box,"—which is given him at the end of the year for the object he may select. At Easter it yielded $6. Their gift to missionary boxes added, makes the sum of their offering $36. Total by St. Luke's, $1,319.21.

The women of St. Paul's Church work altogether in the Association. The Young Ladies' Guild contributed $3 to boxes.

St. James', Point Lobos, a mission of St. Paul's, gave its first collection, $3, to the "Auxiliary $800."

In St. John's Church, during Advent and Lent, Parochial Societies assume a share of the work, which is reported through the Association, and aggregates $62.20.

St. Peter makes occasional proffers of help through its Parochial Society, giving in this way, as reported by the Association, $43.45.

"The Soldiers of the Cross" are our youngest Juniors. They have named themselves, and elected their officers out of their ranks. Under two young ladies, their Sunday School teachers, they are to study about and work for missions. Are all the missionary boys willing to work without the girls, in St. Peter's Parish?

St. Stephen's has no local organization, but the M. C. L. does much work outside as well as inside the parish, part of which, to missions, it reports through us—$37.00. Other societies give frequent help.

In Trinity Parish, St. Mary's Guild keeps up its gifts of needlework and embroidery through the Association, valued this year at $21.56.

In Epiphany-tide, 1889, was formed in Trinity Church the Parochial Missionary Society, devoted entirely to domestic and foreign fields. It did good work that year, and on February 17th, 1891, became a branch of the Diocesan Auxiliary. Money is raised by subscriptions asked of the congregation. Boxes are made up during Lent and Advent, and cash is voted at discretion. Its last year's work sums—boxes, $306.85; cash, $75; total, $381.85.

In the Old Ladies' Home the society has not been active, but a member has given to Easter boxes $2.

The Mizpah Club is always cordial in giving a share of its interest to the mission field, and contributed at Easter, to a box, $11.95.

The new parish of St. Mary the Virgin, reports "good will and best intentions," which we can interpret to mean only a speedy joining of the ranks.

The organization known as the Associated Parishes of San Francisco, has given boxes valued at $633.80; cash, $771.67, total, $1,405.47. Branches in San Francisco, a total of $2,003.26. Total in San Francisco, $3,408.73.

In Christ Church, Alameda, Auxiliary activity has awaited the completion of the beautiful new church, due largely to the labors of women. It has given $10 in cash. But the young people have been more actively interested with us. A Junior Auxiliary organized in September has made a nice rag carpet for an institution and helped in other ways. The value of this work is not reported.

In the Advent, East Oakland, although there is no Auxiliary Society, the rector's sympathy and the ladies' interest continue to bear fruit, and we have received from this parish—cash, $13.10; boxes, $23; total, $36.10.

Missionary work in St. Andrew's, Oakland, had impetus in Miss Emery's visit. This branch reports—boxes, $19.05; cash, $37.15; total, $56.20.

St. John's, Oakland, also, has increased its work. The ladies have given to boxes, $30.40 ; cash, $23.75 ; total, $54.15. The Sunday School has given to a beneficiary in Bishop Armitage Orphanage, $30.00 ; and, by the Infant Class, $2, to the "Auxiliary $800"—which, with a Christmas gift to a mission Sunday School, gives a total of $33.60. Total by St. John's, Oakland, $87.75.

In St. Paul's, Oakland, the Guild is virtually the Auxiliary, as its work is almost entirely for missions ; and, besides giving time and money, it is always ready to "take trouble" in the aid of any general work. It reports—boxes, $120.50 ; cash, $489.85 ; total, $610.35. The Sunday School has taken a lively interest in objects presented by the Diocesan Secretary, and has given through the Auxiliary, to Sunday Schools, supplies valued at $21.35 ; cash, $2.50 ; total, $23.85.

The Mary Abbott Guild, our first children's society, is now a Junior branch, and reawakened to its duty—giving in boxes, $20.50 ; cash, $14 ; total, $34.50. Total by St. Paul's, $668.70. Total by Oakland Branches, $848.75.

St. James', Fresno, reports—cash, $10. The Sunday School Juniors—cash, $30 ; a box, $10 ; total, $50.

At Fresno Flats, St. Agnes' Guild has, by giving entertainments, earned money to keep up the Reading Room and Sunday School, with very little help in money from outside. And besides this—which cannot enter into our accounts, but which may be mentioned here as aggregating $63.75—has done acceptable work for the Church institutions. The Mountain Gleaners are, like our Juniors everywhere else, eager little workers. They have collected over seven hundred cancelled postage stamps and sent them to an English charity. They have worked diligently for Christmas and Easter boxes, and sent $5.10 to an Orphanage. By St. Agnes Guild—boxes, $25 ; cash, $10.50 ; total, $35.50. By the Juniors—boxes, $17.30 ; cash, $5.10 ; total, $22.40 ; Easter collection of the Sunday School for the fund for Widows and Orphans of deceased clergy, $1.80 ; Total by Fresno Flats, $59.70.

The Auxiliary at Trinity, Hayward, sent beautifully made garments to the Easter box packing, valued at $25, and added a cash gift of $5; total, $30. The package from the Sewing School had no separate value affixed, but the laboriously taken stitches told hopefully of latent powers working in these incipient Juniors.

In St. Paul's, Los Angeles, our Vice-President has more than kept up the record of the Senior Society, and has done all in her power to bring neighboring parishes into line.

The ladies of the Ascension, Boyle Heights, gave of their work to the Easter boxes, and this mission, with the Epiphany in East Los Angeles, contributed $1 each to the Emergency Fund. But here the greatest advance is among the Juniors. The Little Missionaries of the Ellis Avenue Sunday School report—cash gifts, $46.29; boxes, $72.10; total, $118.39—and send in a model report.

The Juniors in St. Paul's Sunday School, organized June 15th, 1890. The variety of their interests shows how well they have been taught, and Sunday Schools desiring to enter the Junior department will do well to confer with the Secretary. They report—boxes, $22.75; cash, $12.20; total, $34.95.

The Auxiliary in St. Paul's, the parent society, reports—boxes, $213.18; cash, $120.05; total, $333.23. Total by St. Paul's, Los Angeles, $486.57.

St. Mary's-by-the-Sea, Pacific Grove, continues a peculiar interest to the Woman's Auxiliary, and this year has made its best gift to the Church, our first candidate for the order of Deaconess. Its more easily assessable contributions are—boxes, $62.25; cash, $5.50; total, $67.75.

All Saints, Pasadena, which usually sends its gifts through the diocesan officers, made up this year its first missionary box. This, with a box sent as hitherto, is valued at $90. Cash gifts are $41, including the first Auxiliary offering to St. Phoebe's Home, $6. Total by Pasadena, $131.

In All Saints, Riverside, the Auxiliary has had as director Miss Maynard, our first Secretary. We shall expect it to continue the good results of this good leadership in the coming year. It reports—boxes to diocesan missionaries, $114.60; cash, $2; total, $116.60.

In Salinas, the M. C. League has become a Junior branch, and has worked for the institutions, but puts no value on its boxes.

St. Paul's, San Diego, sends such a wonderful report of church furnishings, fat boxes, good current coin, that I will at once do it best justice by saying it is this year ahead in the race, and with its record of $1,650.51 carries the banner. Of this the Juniors contributed $58.95. Value of boxes, $694.86; cash, $955.65; total, $1,650.51.

The Secretary in San Diego has, as our Vice-President in Los Angeles, made every effort to carry the Auxiliary into the active life of smaller congregations around her. In July, branches were formed in Trinity, Escondido, and in Grace, Oceanside, which work during Lent. Trinity reports—boxes, $15; cash, 70 cts.; total, $15.70. Grace, Oceanside—boxes, $12.30; cash, $3.40; total, $15.70.

St. Peter's, Coronado, organized in December, with eight members, and gives the third Thursday in the month. It sent at Christmas a box to a missionary valued at $38.30.

St. James, San Diego, contributed $1 to the Emergency fund. Total by branches in and around San Diego, $1,721.21.

The fourth year of the branch in St. Paul's, San Rafael, shows no diminution of interest, and an increase in gifts. It has sent boxes valued at $223.20; cash, $35; total, 278.20.

In Trinity, Santa Barbara, the Auxiliary works as hitherto, and has exceeded its previous record. Boxes, $130; cash, $16; total, $146.

The Santa Cruz branch sent $3.75 to a clergyman.

The Auxiliary in Christ Church, Sausalito, has done a varied work, far excelling any previous year, and reports boxes valued at $103; cash, $41; total, $144.

In Stockton, St. John's branch has kept up its growing work, sending out boxes valued at $136; cash, $12; total, $148. Owing to illness and removals no report of the Young Gleaners has been sent.

St. Paul's, Ventura, has been interested in Church Institutions, to which it has sent boxes valued at $12.50, which, with a cash gift of $5, sums $17.50.

In addition to the work of these branches, St. Peter's, Walnut Creek, has contributed to a box in value $1.

The missions at Selma, Bakersfield and Centerville, have each given $5; Hanford, $1; Tulare, $3.90; Pomona, $1; and National City, $1.

Diocesan receipts have been $429.93.

The sum of the work for the year ended is $8,232.69.

But these figures, representing the concrete things, boxes and cash, pregnant as they are with memories of the elaborate detail in gathering and dispensing, that always characterizes woman's work, do not bring to your mind the chief labors of the year. It has been a time of seed-sowing, and the quickening of many germs has made a multiplied demand on all our resources.

In August, Bishop Nichols called about him, at Grace Church, the churchwomen of the neighborhood, and after his first official greeting to the society, laid before it plans for the extension of the work. He asked for $800 to supplement the grant of the Board to the salary of the Diocesan Missionary—for greater interest in the diocesan paper, which should aid him to make it a missionary agency—and suggested a General Missionary Meeting to be held in San Francisco during the season about St. Andrew's day.

Later, in Oakland, at St. Paul's Church, he gave direction in these and pertinent matters. Similar meetings were held by the Assistant Bishop in San Diego and Los Angeles, as general in scope as California geography will permit.

At the August meeting we decided to try to raise the $800 asked for the salary of the Diocesan Missionary, which through friction in repetition has been dubbed the "Auxiliary $800."

$572.25 has been given by twenty-three parishes and missions, and we look to the remaining eighty-nine congregations for the rest.

Greater interest has been taken in the Church paper. But to make the department of Woman's Work a success we need something more than a report of work and meetings; and to get all the good we can out of the paper it should be taken by every churchwoman in the diocese, and its contents discussed at home and in the Church Society as are the daily news of the secular paper.

In November, the General Missionary Meeting in San Francisco, was a success greater than we had dared to hope.

Bishop Paddock came from the North and the Rev. Mr. Bugbee from the South, to help lonely San Francisco feel a little of the bigness it is credited with so generally.

The large congregations, well sustained interest, and vivid speeches, are bright in our memories to-day, and the children's service is a recollection that always stimulates us to try it again.

At the Convocation in St. John's Church—one of the missionary meetings—the Church Periodical Club was explained by the Vice-President for the Pacific Coast, and diocesan work and a Training House in San Francisco for Foreign Missionaries, were discussed.

At all these meetings, and by every other available agency, the Junior Auxiliary has been presented to our Branch. Mrs. Pomeroy has found it difficult to organize the C. P. C., but now that a special Secretary for California has been appointed, she will have a beginning, if we mistake not Miss Clark's ability to carry out our plans.

The Junior Auxiliary will grow, if our women will take the suggestions afforded by the workings of existing societies and apply them to local needs.

On February 4th, the Quiet Day at St. Stephen's, was by the universal verdict of the large congregation, better than ever before—a much larger attendance, a good collection, and what, in memory of past Quiet Days, we almost shrink from saying, more in the service. Perhaps it is only that the day was larger in all ways, and thus like those that had gone before, perfect in itself. The Rev. E. J. Lion failed to hold another, in San Diego, only because of the illness of the Rector at the time appointed.

The frequently discussed plans for some form of consecrated service, and for a Training House in San Francisco for Foreign Missionaries, are likely to have a common solution. Quickly on the acceptance of Miss Reed as candidate for Deaconess' orders, followed the proffer of the Rev. and Mrs. Emery to begin the work, and on April 8th, St. Phœbe's Church Training Home was opened to be the opportunity for these as the Assistant Bishop may direct.

The congregation assembled there epitomized Woman's work in the diocese, not one branch of its service lacked representation. St. Phœbe's Home is at once the end and the beginning of many Auxiliary hopes and plans, and a proof that behind many failures and much weakness there is something permanent in this Auxiliary—a society that has no material foundation, whose possessions are the gleanings of the day, only that they may be the gifts of the morrow.

In this very intricate work, which I have tried to report as clearly as possible, you can hardly have failed to note four centres of growth—San Francisco, Oakland, San Diego and Los Angeles. This would at once point to a change in our organization, with these points as energizing centres. But no diocesan lines co-exist with these conditions; the Auxiliary, provedly, has known "no North and no South;" her workers, whether Vice-Presidents, Secretaries, or privates in the line, are no sticklers for rank, or respecters of persons; the woman and her opportunity have made the work.

In our progress from centres outward, despite organization, may be found good argument for the principle, "in every city the Bishop." But we are not prepared to be irreverent, even in imagination, and to suggest the multiplication of Bishop Nichols by four—and the California Auxiliary, with all its dread of high organization, is not one of those back-boneless individuals that increase by division.

The things that have been, still may be. This growth has come from the cordial interest of the clergy and the devotion of women.

These factors are working in other centres, and they only are needed to make of every parish and mission in the diocese a shining place.

With the Bishop directing diocesan officers, the parish priest controlling local societies, harmony and unity of purpose are assured.

And then in every parish and mission we want some one woman who cares. Somebody who cares to know all about the Church Periodical Club, the Junior Auxiliary, what a Deaconess may be, and what is going on in the mission field. Somebody who cares that her own life and the lives of her sisters in the little congregation be not dwarfed to its narrow compass. Somebody who cares for the great issues to which she can lend her little energies and feel their thrill and power. Somebody who cares, not that things do not just suit her in this parish or that priest—but that anywhere in all the world there is one soul astray, one lamb unfolded. Not necessarily somebody clever, or very good even, only everywhere somebody who really cares.

Respectfully submitted,

SUSAN S. LAWVER, Secretary.

Constitution.

I.

The name of this Society shall be the "CALIFORNIA BRANCH OF THE WOMAN'S AUXILIARY TO THE BOARD OF MISSIONS."

II.

The object of the Society is to diffuse Missionary intelligence ; to increase Missionary activity among the women of the Diocese ; to unite previously existing Societies, and to encourage the formation of new Societies for Missionary work.

III.

The officers of this Society shall be a President and a First Vice-President ; a Vice-President from every Associated Parish ; a Secretary, and a Treasurer ;—to be chosen at the annual meeting, and approved by the Bishop.

IV.

The President shall perform such duties as usually pertain to the office. The First Vice-President shall preside in the absence of the President. The Vice-Presidents from the Associated Parishes shall preside in the absence of the President and Vice-President, taking precedence in the order of the numerical representation from their several Parishes ; and they shall make every effort to promote the interests of the Society in their several Parishes.

V.

The duty of the Secretary is to give notice of the meetings, and to record the proceedings ; to keep a list of the members from the Associated Parishes ; to prepare an annual report for circulation in the Diocese ; and to conduct the correspondence of the Society with Missionaries, with the Secretary of the Woman's Auxiliary, and with the Secretaries of the various Parish Branches.

VI.

The duty of the Treasurer is to keep an account of all moneys received and expended, and of all articles contributed for Missionary purposes, by the Associated Parishes, by Parish Branches, and by individual members.

VII.

All Parish Societies who so desire, may become members of this Auxiliary by appointing a Secretary and notifying the President. The Secretaries of Parish Societies are required to correspond with the Diocesan Officers, who alone correspond with the Secretaries of the Board of Missions, and transmit to them all moneys.

VIII.

The women of the Associated Parishes in San Francisco and the neighboring towns shall continue to meet together as hitherto, every member paying an annual fee of one dollar.

IX.

Two general meetings shall be held every year, the annual meeting during the session of the Diocesan Convention, and another in September, as the President shall appoint.

X.

This Constitution may be amended by a two-thirds majority of the members present at a meeting called for the purpose and duly advertised, the proposed amendment having been read at a previous meeting.

By-Laws.

This Society shall provide for the wants of the Missionaries in this Diocese, to the extent of its ability, before offering assistance elsewhere. All Diocesan Missionaries who may need help, and whom the Bishop may recommend, shall receive from the Society one box every year, and no Mission or Missionary shall receive aid from this Society without the consent of the Bishop.

A Work Committee shall be appointed by the President to prepare sewing for the Associated members.

The Society shall meet every Monday during Lent and Advent; fortnightly at other times, except during the summer vacation. These meetings to be held at the churches of the Associated Parishes in rotation.

Every Associated Parish and Parochial Branch shall make an annual pledge to central expenses, the amount to be voluntary, which, with the collections at the Annual Meeting, shall form a fund out of which shall be paid by the Treasurer all Diocesan expenses.

New Branches in Missions may report as Auxiliary work, such church furnishings and Sunday School supplies as they may provide for their own Missions during the first two years of the Branch's organization.

Junior Department.

“JESUS called a little child unto Him.”

PRAYER.

SUFFER me, O Blessed Jesus, to come daily nearer to Thee in Thy Kingdom, the Church. Help me to know and keep my baptismal vows. Make me loving, pure, obedient and truthful. Give me each day something to do for Thee and Thy Church; who art with the Father and the Holy Ghost, one God, world without end. Amen.

CONSTITUTION.

This Society is the California Branch of the Junior Auxiliary to the Board of Missions.

Its object is to interest young people in Missions.

To instruct them in Missions.

To systematize and make more efficient their gifts to Missions.

All Sunday schools and other societies of young people now giving to or working for Missions may join the Society without change in local organization, name or work, by signifying intention to work in co-operation with the diocesan officers of the Woman's Auxiliary.

New societies will receive from diocesan or local officers help in perfecting and adapting organization.

Individuals are made members by paying five cents, for which each will receive a membership card, with name and date of entrance, and by promising to use daily the prayer printed thereon.

These cards to be renewed at the expiration of the year, or when lost, at the same price.

Moneys received for them to be sent by local officers to the diocesan treasurer, and applied to the expenses of this department.

This Branch expects of societies in union with it, as its first obligation, a regular giving to the Lenten offering of the General Board.

All work proposed by the W. A. will have the sanction of the Bishops of the Diocese.

All work undertaken by local branches must have the full knowledge and hearty approval of the priest in charge of the parish or Mission.
