PRESIDENT'S ADDRESS

It gives me much pleasure to welcome so many of the women of the Diocese to our annual meeting, and we cannot fail to be encouraged by the reports just given, showing that in every District the work has progressed, while in several the results have been most gratifying. This success is to be credited very largely to the officers of the several Districts through whose personal efforts and untiring zeal the work has gone steadily forward; and I wish to avail myself of this opportunity to thank you all for your cordial support and co-operation. While rejoicing in our success, however, let us always remember that no matter how much the Auxiliary may grow in the future, how many new branches may be formed, nor to what extent our gifts of money may increase, it was Mrs. Knickerbocker who took this work in its infancy, when the branches were few and struggling for existence, and has brought it up to its present standard. During fifteen years she devoted to it her best time, thought, energy and zeal. She it was who inspired enthusiasm, endeavoring by every means in her power to show to the women of the Diocese her interpretation of the Missionary spirit, and to her honor be it said, she left the work well organized and progressing in its various departments.

Such conditions are a matter of congratulation, but they do not insure the future life of the Auxiliary, and to us, upon whom has fallen the responsibility of carrying on the work, these questions naturally present themselves: How are we to increase the interest already existing? by what means are we to arouse fresh zeal and enthusiasm? and above all else how are we to deepen our spiritual life, without which we cannot retain strength or vigor? It is true that in the study of missions, which opens up such great possibilities, we may acquire both interest and enthusiasm, but it is by examining the characters of the missionaries themselves that we shall learn the best means of developing our higher capacities. Nor need we confine ourselves to any special age or particular field of labor. Each life will disclose an unmistakable feature which may be described by one word "self giving." It is easy to see why this self-giving is both effective and far reaching in its results and never fails of its purpose, for by this means we shall cultivate in ourselves the spirit of self-sacrifice, which is the foundation of all missionary life. In proof of this, we have but to look over the mission field to-day, where we shall find noble Bishops, faithful Priests and deacons, loyal men and devoted women, whose whole lives are made up of daily acts of self-sacrifice, and who, like brave soldiers, have gone forth at the Church's call to bear the brunt of the battle. When we read of the noble examples of those who are giving their lives for others possessing fewer privileges, are we not filled with a fervent desire to make our work at home more effective by deeds of loving service, purer and sweeter by daily intercession, noble and more inspiring by constant acts of self-sacrifice? Thus through our example, others will be aroused from their indifference to a sense of the responsibility laid upon them to do their part of this work; will learn to appreciate the blessing of extending to others what we so richly enjoy, and will look upon every appeal for Missions as a fresh opportunity of proving their love and gratitude for the priceless gift of Christianity. Let us then give ourselves for as some one has well said, "The only real life is that which makes a sacrifice of self, and where through spiritual life we attain righteousness."

LOUISE C. IRISH.

Report of Church Periodical Club, C. N. Y.

From May 1, 1905, to May 1, 1906.

Number of Librarians	24
Number of Periodicals sent regularly.....	220
Odd Numbers of Magazines sent	750
Games and Pictures	21
Barrels of reading matter	9

The late Mrs. Mortimer Fargo in the year 1888 originated the work of the Church Periodical Club. Her wish was that by means of thoroughly systematized work, literature of every sort, which would be of use to Clergymen, Missionaries and Laymen, might be sent by those who possessed it to those who could not afford it, and to-day her wish is being realized, for the earnest work of the Church Periodical Club has proved itself a blessing to thousands of homes.

One of our Clergy says of it: "This Club stands for two ideas that are very material and instructive, true Christian economy and Christian helpfulness." The C. P. C. utilizes every book and periodical. It gathers up what would otherwise be thrown aside and forgotten and sends it out again to those who are destitute. The very small stipend paid to some of the Clergy renders it quite impossible for them to buy even one periodical. There are many of the laity who would gladly have some reading matter if they could afford it. This is where the C. P. C. comes forward to help. It is doing a grand work in the way of Christian economy in gathering up the fragments of our literature and sending them out to the Clergy on the frontier to prove to them that they are not isolated, but friends of all those who labor for the Lord.

THE BABIES' BRANCH

Prayer of the Babies' Branch

"God bless all the Missionaries all over the world, and all the Little Helpers, for Jesus' sake."

Text

"Little children love one another."

The Babies' Branch is intended to introduce the little ones into their missionary responsibilities at baptism. This is a Diocesan Society, not Parish, and the babies are expected to help with their gifts of a penny each Sunday, the missionary work of the church.

Four thoughts are emphasized by this Babies' Branch.

FIRST.—Every baby by baptism becomes a member of the missionary society and the church.

SECOND.—The first day of the week is the time to lay apart something for the Lord, thus forming the habit in the child's life.

THIRD.—This cannot be a parish society. It is something broader, teaching practically that the child belongs to the church at large.

FOURTH.—The gifts are to be divided equally between the Diocesan, Foreign and Domestic fields.

The fifth idea has already produced beautiful fruit. When the little ones are transplanted to paradise, their work does not cease, but each Sunday a penny is put in the box by the mother or other children, in memory of the little one, and a prayer offered for the children of the world.

Officers of the Auxiliary or, when there is no branch, the clergy, are asked to appoint in every parish a competent Directress who will constantly seek for members.

The Directress takes the full baptismal name and surname and the age of the applicant, and sends it a box. On every Sunday the child is to put one cent in the box and say or hear said the prayer and text.

Holy Innocents Day the money is to be taken from the box and sent to the Directress, the child keeping the box for the following year.

Four principles are thus enforced: That every child is by baptism a member of the missionary society—the church; that on the the first day of the week it should lay apart for the Lord; that prayer for missions is its constant duty; and that the field is the world.

It is hoped that all who take boxes will realize how important it is to take the best care of them, and train the "Little Helpers" to systematic giving and prayer, so that in the future they may become earnest and faithful workers for Christ.

Receipts from May 1, 1905, to May 1, 1906.
