REPORT
OF THE
WOMAN'S AUXILIARY
OF THE
CONVOCATION OF CHESTER
FOR THE YEAR ENDING
October 1st, 1897.

OFFICERS :

PRESIDENT (EX OFFICIO)

REV. G. A. KELLER, Dean of the Convocation

VICE-PRESIDENTS

MRS. G. G. FIELD, Coatesville

MRS. W. W. MONTGOMERY, Radnor

SECRETARY

MISS J. E. RINGWALT, Downingtown

TREASURER

MRS. JOHN T. REYNOLDS, Media

Secretary's Report

The two regular meetings of the Auxiliary to Convocation were held during the year, with three meetings of the Executive Committee.

The Annual Meeting of 1896 was held at St. Martin's Church, Radnor, at which time there was presented to the attention of the Auxiliary, by Dr. Lamb, the object and aim of the Society for the relief of disabled and infirm clergy, which cause met a ready response from the individual members of the Auxiliary. Miss Ives told us of her work among the Indians of South Dakota, where she had labored for more than a score of years, and Miss Emery gave us one of her good missionary addresses, all helping, we trust, in stirring in each of their hearers more zeal in the great work of missions at home and abroad.

Our spring meeting held at St. John's Church, Lansdowne, in May was filled with interest to all those who came together, in what may be termed one of the youngest Parishes of Convocation and the Parish to which as a mission the women of the Auxiliary were able to render quite material aid. The first $300 sent by the Auxiliary to the Convocational treasury was appropriated by the Convocation to St. John's Mission, for the furnishing of their chapel, exemplifying how this Society has been the Auxiliary to Convocation it was planned to be, by helping to establish and develop the Church within our own borders.

The meetings of the Executive, in conformity with the resolution passed at our last annual meeting, were held in the Church House in Philadelphia, and were well attended. The Executive came together to arrange for the regular meetings of the Auxiliary, and one meeting was called by the Vice President to discuss the question in regard to our last appropriation, which was referred back to us by the Treasurer of Convocation for adjustment.

One hundred and twelve delegates were present at the two meetings of the year, that exceeding by at least twenty five per cent. the attendance of last year. Thirty-one Parishes are represented by delegates; of these Christ Church, Ridley Park; Church of the Advent, Kennett, and St. Luke's, Chadd's Ford, are merely nominally connected with the Society, whilst St. John's, Lower Merion, has been without representation for several years and St. Mary's, Warwick, has never come in touch with us.

May we not urge once more upon the members of the Auxiliary, who are contiguous to these Parishes, the desirability of bringing the work of the Auxiliary to their notice, and enlisting in its behalf the co-operation and interest of the women of these several Parishes. We have accomplished much for the Church in many ways in bringing our women of the Convocation together; let us all strive still farther to promote her welfare by drawing all the Parishes of the Convocation into this work of enlarging and strengthening her borders, and receiving from one another the impetus for renewed effort in the several spheres of action where we have been placed. Our condensed report shows how even the weakest of our Parishes have been willing to help, according as they have been blessed, with the work of spreading the Gospel, caring for the sick, the orphan and the infirm, in our own land and beyond the sea. May the little leaven so spread and increase until the whole world "shall be filled with the knowledge of the Lord, as the waters cover the sea."

J. E. RINGWALT, Secretary.

NOTE.—The efforts of the auxiliary in the coming year will be directed to liquidating the mortgage upon the chapel at St. Stephen's Mission, Norwood.
