SECRETARY'S REPORT, 1915

With October first 1915 closing the thirtieth year of the Woman's Auxiliary to the Convocation of Chester, two great changes have taken place in our organization. The death of Miss Ringwalt, our Secretary since the first organization of this Society and secondly the revision of the Constitution and By-Laws.

We have indeed "passed into middle life with our work" with a steady devoted hand at the wheel. It remains now for us to carry our little missionary craft into bolder waters remembering gratefully Miss Ringwalts zeal and devotion, and asking that the Master will guide and direct our course, as we feel sure He has done in the past.

As Secretary pro. tem. I can think of no more fitting Report for this 1915 than the memorial which was read at the October meeting at Rosemont.

Jane Edge Ringwalt

On the 13th of April 1915, Miss Jane Edge Ringwalt entered into rest, after a brief illness. Her funeral took place from her home in Downingtown, Friday the 16th. Dean Taitt officiating, assisted by the Rev. Dr. Gummey, rector of her home parish.

For thirty years she was the Secretary of the Woman's Auxiliary to the Convocation of Chester, and spent much time in the faithful discharge of the many duties connected with the missionary work of the Convocation. It was a great pleasure to her when the meetings were attended by the women of the small country parishes, that through their attendance they might learn and carry home to their parishes the wonderful stories of the mission field, as told by those whose lives were spent in them.

She organized from St. James' Sunday School a girl's missionary society which maintained a Chinese girl's scholarship, this was the foundation of their Junior Auxiliary.

She was deeply interested in many other good works and gave herself unsparingly for the furtherance of them.

Many of the mission churches of our Convocation, as recorded in a late "Church News" bear witness to the inspiring influence and enthusiasm of Miss Ringwalt.

Resolved that this tribute be spread upon the minutes of the Auxiliary and that a copy be sent to the family.

Signed,

Eleanor Ashbridge,

Mary P. Perkins,

Elizabeth L. Montgomery,

Committee.

Elizabeth L. Montgomery,

Secretary pro. tem.

October, 1915.
