REPORT

The usual Spring and Fall Meetings of the Woman's Auxiliary to the Convocation of Chester were held in 1927. Both were well attended. The Spring meeting was held at St John's, Lower Merion. Bishop Garland explained what had been accomplished as a result of the Diocesan Campaign in our own Convocation.

Dr. Jules L. Prevost was the afternoon speaker and told most instructively of the rural work being done in Berk's County. The fall meeting was held at St. Martin's, Radnor. Mrs Stroud spoke of the Missionary Calendar and urged all to have one in their home. Mrs. Gould of Prospect Park told of their mission and of the great need for funds to "carry on".

The Reverend N. B. Groton, White Marsh, Pa., Chairman of the Young Peoples Fellowship in the Diocese, told of this important work and his keen enthusiasm was felt by all present.

Reverend A. H. Haughey of St. Mary's, Ardmore Pa., also spoke of the same work in his parish and all will remember his message of inspiration and the challenge of to-day more love for our Lord Jesus Christ, to bring out vitality in christian character.

Dean Taitt in his words of welcome stressed most earnestly the work to be done here at home.

An invitation was accepted to meet at St. Paul's, West Whiteland, Pa., in May 1928.

With our ever increasing opportunities let us go forward with zeal for service toward the extension of Christ's Kingdom.

SARAH R. THOMAS, Secretary
