SECRETARY'S REPORT.

DURING the year last past, we have held our two general meetings, the annual and semi-annual, the reports of which are as follows:

The seventh semi-annual was held at S. James' Church, Chicago, October 27, 1891. At the celebration of the Holy Communion at the morning service, nearly three hundred were present. Addresses were made by the rector of the parish, the Rev. Mr. Tomkins, and by Bishop Atwill of West Missouri and Bishop Graves of The Platte, all of which were listened to with much interest.

In the interval between the service and the afternoon meeting, lunch was served by the ladies of S. James' at the Parish House. The afternoon meeting was presided over by the president, Mrs. Ward. The roll-call showed thirty-nine parishes represented. The minutes of the last meeting were read and approved, after which the letters sent by Miss Emery were distributed, and the winter's work arranged as far as possible. Addresses followed by the president; Mrs. Cust of Joliet; and Miss Stahl of Galena. Miss Mailes of Osaka, Japan, was then introduced, and read a most delightful and instructive paper on the work among the Japanese. A collection, amounting to about $90, was taken for Miss Mailes' work. After a hymn and a few collects, the meeting adjourned.

The eighth annual meeting was held at S. Mark's Church, May 31, 1892, at 2.30 p.m. The opening prayers were said by the rector, the Rev. Mr. Wilson, who also, in a few words, welcomed the women of the Auxiliary to S. Mark's. The president, Mrs. Ward, then took charge of the meeting. After the roll-call and the minutes of the last meeting, the reports of the treasurer and secretary were read, following which were papers by the president, on the work in general, and Miss Arnold, on the Ministering Children's League. Next in order were reports by Mrs. Starbuck, on the Church Periodical Club; Mrs. Hibbard, on the Clergy Retiring-Fund and the Fund for Widows and Orphans of Clergy in this diocese; Miss Grosbeck on the work of the Girls' Friendly Society; and Mrs. Brower on the Library Committee. The election of diocesan officers followed. Mrs. Clark of Kankakee, Mrs. Locke of Grace, Mrs. McClurg of S. James, and Mrs. Brower of Epiphany, being named as a nominating committee. They reported the names of the former officers, with the exception of treasurer, Mrs. C. L. Raymond having declined to allow her name to be used. Mrs. O. W. Barrett of Trinity Church was nominated in her place. The secretary being instructed to cast the ballot for the officers nominated, they were declared elected.

While waiting the return of the nominating committee, Mrs. Ward spoke of several subjects which she wished to bring to the notice of the Auxiliary, among which was the suggestion that each member make, during the summer, some useful or fancy article, so that there might be a stock in hand when we were called on in the fall for contributions to Christmas-boxes, church-fairs, etc. She also made an earnest appeal for money for the education of an Indian boy, a work to be done in memory of the late Rev. C. S. Cook. A collection amounting to about $100 was taken for this purpose. Mrs. Ward then introduced Miss Adams, president of the Michigan branch, who read a graceful greeting from our sister branch of Michigan to the Chicago branch. Miss Adams then spoke on the subject of the Enrolment Fund, with a knowledge of her subject, an interest and enthusiasm that should bear fruit in our increased offering in Baltimore.

During the meeting it was voted to appropriate $25 for the memorial fund of the C. P. C., in loving memory of Mrs. Fargo. An invitation was given by Mrs. Locke, and accepted by the Auxiliary, that the annual meeting of 1893 be held at Grace Church, Chicago. A resolution was passed that the semi-annual meetings be hereafter held at the Cathedral, the Auxiliary bearing the expenses of the lunch served at that time. The following resolution was adopted by a rising vote:

The members of the Woman's Auxiliary of the Diocese of Chicago have heard with the greatest regret the announcement from Mrs. Chas. L. Raymond that she can no longer, consistently with home duties, retain the office of general treasurer of this branch. They can not allow her to retire without unusual expressions of regard and appreciation;

Resolved, therefore, That the Woman's Auxiliary of the Diocese of Chicago feel that, in the resignation of Mrs. Chas. L. Raymond, they are sustaining a great loss. To her unceasing care and devoted spirit they owe much of their success. They thank her most heartily for the same, and trust that, although no longer one of their general officers, they may not be deprived of her counsel and the inspiration of her presence.

Immediately prior to adjournment, resolutions of thanks were offered to Miss Adams and to the rector and ladies of S. Marks', after which the meeting adjourned to partake of a bountiful tea, provided by the ladies of S. Mark's.

The evening meeting was presided over by the bishop of the diocese, who gave a short but interesting address on Domestic Missions, being followed by the Rev. Mr. McGrath of Morgan Park, on Diocesan Missions, and the Rev. Sidney Partridge of Wuchang, China, on the work in that country.

In offering the report of this year, the secretary desires to call attention to the fact that although our figures fall behind those of last year about $2000, this is owing to the completion and paying over last year of the sum of $4000, the result of many years' diligent work by a few of the ladies of Trinity Church, Chicago, for the endowment of a bed in S. Luke's Hospital. Deducting this large offering from our last year's work, we have a gain in the general work of the branch of over $2000 over last year's work. And yet, notwithstanding this encouragement as compared with the general work of last year, it is also true that we have fallen below our "high-water mark" of the reports offered at our annual meetings of May, 1889, and May, 1890. Surely it is not Christian progress if "like a crab we do go backward." Reports matter little except as they show an interest, an earnestness, a love, and enthusiasm that must prove themselves by their fruits. Of the sixty branches on our list, eleven have this year maintained a silence which, in this case, is not golden. We would gladly welcome their voices in the coming year. We give a cordial welcome to three new branches: the Atonement, Chicago; S. Mathias, Fairbury; and S. Paul, Rogers Park. While not yet numbered with us by regular organization, S. Luke's of South Evanston has made a noble contribution to our report.

At the general meeting at Baltimore in October, the offering of the Auxiliary for the Enrolment Fund is to be made. If our prayers and gifts have been equal to our ability, then we may rest content, no matter what the result. If we have done our best in this, as in other work, we may be satisfied with small results; if not, large results should bring no satisfaction.

In closing, a few grateful words may surely be spoken of her who has given up her work as treasurer, an office filled by her so ably and faithfully since the organization of the Chicago branch, in October, 1884. Untiring, accurate, business-like, with clear judgment and warm interest, she has been a treasurer it is hard to spare. But the loss to the diocesan officers is even greater; only they can know how helpful have been the clear brain and warm heart that have worked so faithfully for over seven years. With grateful thanks to her who has laid down the work, we turn with earnest welcome to her who has taken it up, giving to her and to all the members of our Auxiliary for the new year of our work a hearty "God speed."

Respectfully submitted,

MARY DRUMMOND,

Secretary.

WHEATON, ILL., July, 1892.

TWENTY parishes in the diocese contribute to the work of this Society. Reports have been received from fourteen: Christ, Epiphany, Grace, S. James, S. Mark, S. Paul, S. Peter, and Trinity, Chicago; S. Mark, Evanston; Christ, Joliet; S. Paul, Kankakee; Emmanuel, LaGrange; Grace, Oak Park; and Emmanuel, Rockford.

In these 14 parishes there are 201 members, who have contributed during the year 349 periodicals and 100 Sunday-school papers, sent regularly, and 231 books, besides numerous other papers, Christmas cards, odd numbers of magazines, etc.

During the year, $12.00 was given by the Branches for the general fund of the C. P. C. The expenses of printing, etc., being met by the Woman's Auxiliary. Since January, 1892, six parishes have contributed $8.72 toward expenses.

Several other parishes are interested in this work, in addition to those above named, but the reports of their librarians did not reach me in time to be included in this year's report.
