THE PRESIDENT'S LETTER.

TO THE OFFICERS AND MEMBERS OF THE CHICAGO
BRANCH, GREETING:

AGAIN we are called to review the accumulated record of an eventful year, which puts a new song of thanksgiving into our mouths; because, in the face of great national and local depression and of many personal difficulties, there is manifest growth. And this growth, under the Divine blessing, may be traced to two special influences. Firstly, to the devotion of the acting members of your executive committee, (a devotion which might shame the truant president, had not a due portion of her time and thought been given to missions in distant fields). And, secondly, to the increasing interest apparent in the parochial branches; including the fresh impulse given to the Junior work, the root and branch of the future.

Doubtless the spirit of the missionary council left its impress upon the work of the year. And it is also encouraging to note that some seed-thoughts, dropped by the way of a former letter, having been diligently watered by other hands, have borne early fruit at the annual meeting, in the successful effort "to promote general expression and to increase the interest of the meeting;" and also in the Offering, which shows the beginning of interest in "the United Offering," which calls for yet closer attention since it must be presented in one short year.

From personal experience we can now attest that in "all the world around" no land is so favored as our own, and none in which woman finds so glorious an heritage. But there are many who should be heirs with us, some of whom have not even heard the summons across the great waters which lie between, while others are struggling for life against fearful odds.

And shall not we, who have entered upon privileged possession, resolve to twine together our time and talents, means and strength, as the strands of a strong rope, which shall be thrown out to hold up those who far and near are plunging into the breakers to rescue the perishing?

At home, the year is scarred by want and strife and fire; abroad, by earthquakes, war, and pestilence. Yet by the grace of God, more freely than ever before, have clear heads and noble hearts given themselves for the salvation of the weak, the erring, and the ignorant. But even greater vigilance seems needed in the Church militant. It has been said that God's work among men will never be accomplished, according to His perfect Will, until every one of His children has done a little of it.

With this in mind, then, and remembering too that by your own election your committee is called to lead in

"Another year of service,
Of witness for His Love,
Another year of training,
For holier work above"—

work upon which we may be called to enter ere the year has flown)—shall we not put forth fresh efforts to attract and to hold some earnest souls to whom we have failed to say "come with us and we will do thee good?" And that the Semi-Annual may be the door of entrance to a higher and nobler service, let us daily ask for each other and for ourselves "that we may both perceive and know what things we ought to do, and also may have grace and power faithfully to fulfil the same."

Earnestly yours,

O. VAN SCHAACK WARD,
President.

CHICAGO, September, 1894.

SECRETARY'S REPORT.

IN giving a report of the meetings held by our Diocesan Branch this last year, we have the pleasure of counting among them the one held at the time of our usual semi-annual. The presence of the Missionary Council of 1893 in Chicago enabling us to combine, in some measure, our meeting with the annual meeting of the diocesan officers. This meeting was held in S. James' Church, Chicago, on Monday, October 23. It was called to order by Miss Emery, who asked the president of the Chicago Branch to take the chair. After an opening address by Dr. Langford and a graceful and hearty welcome from Mrs. Ward, the reports of the various committees appointed at the last triennial meeting were read. These committees being those on "Systematic Giving," "Publications," "Missionary Workers," and "The Junior Auxiliary."

The afternoon meeting was opened with a hymn, which was followed by an address by Mrs. Tilton of Ontario; Mrs. Brierley of Africa, who was expected, being prevented from coming by illness. Addresses followed by Mrs. Twing, on her missionary journey around the world; Miss Carter, on her work in Minnesota; Miss Jarvis, on the Junior Auxiliary; and Miss Emery, on "The United Offering." The collection amounted to a little over $100, and was divided between Mrs. Brierley's work and that in Florida.

Owing to the expected absence of our President, Mrs. Ward, from the country for nearly a year, and the many obstacles that prevented the vice-presidents from assuming her duties in her absence, a special meeting was called (under By-Law 3 of the Constitution) for Tuesday, November 7, at Grace Church, Chicago. Mrs. Ward being absent, the Vice-President of the Northeast Deanery presided, and read Mrs. Ward's letter of resignation. Mrs. Locke offered a resolution that the resignation should not be accepted. After some discussion the vote was put and Mrs. Locke's resolution carried.

There being no further business before the meeting, it was declared adjourned.

The tenth annual meeting of the Chicago Branch was held in the Cathedral, Thursday, May 31, 1894. Morning services, with celebration of the Holy Communion, were held at 10.45, and were in charge of the Bishop. After an address of welcome and "Godly counsel" by the Bishop, the sermon was preached by the Rev. C. P. Anderson of Oak Park. About three hundred women were present at these services.

In the interval before the afternoon meeting, lunch was served in the Mission House by the Sisters of S. Mary. The afternoon meeting, in the absence of the President, was presided over by Miss Arnold, vice-president of the Northeast Deanery; the opening prayers being read by the Rev. Mr. Wright. The minutes of the last two meetings were read and approved, and the roll called, forty-one parishes responding to their names.

Then followed reports of the Secretary and Treasurer, the Fund for Widows and Orphans, the Comfort Club, and the Church Periodical Club. Miss Stahl then read a letter from Mrs. Ward from Thessalonica, giving a partial account of her journey. Miss Arnold followed with a few words, speaking, among other subjects, of the great missionary council being held in London. She also read a telegram from Mrs. Ward, desiring to be permanently relieved of her duties as President.

The election of officers being in order, a resolution was adopted that the chair appoint a nominating committee. Mrs. McDermid of Grace, Mrs. Wilson of S. Mark, and Mrs. Street of S. Chrysostom were appointed, and, in consideration of the doubt as to Mrs. Ward's acceptance of the office, reported the following names for president: Mrs. Ward, Mrs. Lyman of LaGrange, Mrs. Brooks of S. Paul, and Mrs. Brower of the Epiphany; the names of the other officers remaining the same. After some discussion, the balloting was proceeded with, and resulted in the election of the officers of last year.

A collection, amounting to about $66.00, was then taken for the United Offering. Papers on the subject of the United Offering were then read by Mrs. Raymond of Trinity and Mrs.

Wilson of S. Mark, and a resolution was adopted that "it is the desire of this meeting that the next United Offering be considered a fund for furnishing the support of a missionary bishop for all time to come." Then followed papers on "Printed Reports," by Mrs. Meacham and Mrs. Losey of Grace and Mrs. Frank Pardee of S. Andrew, the speaker on the subject being Mrs. Gregory of Grace. Owing to the lateness of the hour, the other subjects appointed for discussion were necessarily omitted.

After resolutions of thanks to the Bishop, the Sisters, the Rev. Mr. Anderson, and the Clergy of the Cathedral, the meeting adjourned.

Respectfully submitted,

MARY DRUMMOND,
Secretary.

WHEATON, ILL., May, 1894.
