THE PRESIDENT'S ADDRESS.

RIGHT REVEREND FATHER IN GOD:

We women of the Auxiliary esteem your presence with us to-day a great honor, and welcome you as our Head.

We are glad to see some of our clergymen present, thus manifesting their interest in our efforts, and to you, dear women, we extend the most cordial greeting. Nothing can be more satisfactory than your presence as an evidence of general interest and united purpose.

If there is one truth above all others that we should realize in this meeting, it is the presence of our Lord here in our midst. We have set apart this day as the final summing up for the year of the work which together we have undertaken in Christ's name and for His sake. We have heard the reports and have reason to rejoice in the results. Each individual knows how far her love and her offering has gone, and our Father knows; but together let us briefly review the year, its results, its plans and its hopes. Some of your committee have had the steep hills of experience to climb; in the effort the work may not have been as well and quickly accomplished. The time has seemed altogether too short for the hopes and plans deep in our hearts. The unvisited branches will realize the significance of this thought. We have as yet reached by word of mouth and face only thirty-two parishes, have spoken twice in eight of these and have been invited to speak in five others, but owing to illness in the family, we have had to decline. In every instance but two, the clergyman of the parish has introduced the work of the Auxiliary and the president, and here let me extend to them the united thanks of our women for their encouragement and support in our efforts to help them to send everywhere the glad tidings of the Gospel of Jesus Christ.

I am told, wherever I go, that where the mission work prospers the home work grows. We see it for ourselves, and yet strong business men have said that if we hold together the Auxiliary at all under the great financial depression, we do well.

The reports show for themselves the guiding hand of a loving and ever bountiful Father at the helm of this diocesan organization, moving His people to give and to do, not for that success which gladdens and extols self, but rather for the spirit which plants within the heart of every child His Cross and the grace to carry it.

Eight new branches have been organized. The brave little band of Western Springs was my first step in that direction. Then came the Juniors of Aurora, Batavia, S. Agnes, Austin, S. Bertha's of Trinity, the Juniors of Our Savior, the Juniors of Freeport, and a new branch in the Church of the Ascension, which seemed a fitting close of the year and a closer link to the heavenly world with the influence of the gentle life and triumphant death of Mrs. Wheeler resting like a halo over it. We have had ten regular monthly, and five special meetings, giving three hours each time of the best thought in our power to the general guidance of the work. Our Bishop came to the first meeting and started us afresh on our new or revised constitution, and has ever been our interested friend and faithful helper. From twelve o'clock until one, the monthly meeting is open to all, and while the attendance has shown a growing interest in the work of the Auxiliary, more branches might be represented and a much larger number present to join in the noon-day prayer.

At each of the monthly meetings a ten minutes' talk has been given on subjects pertinent to the work, followed usually by questions and discussions. Sister Francis presented the work of the Mission Home for Children, with the leading thought that a good home, good food and education is a strong medium for the saving of souls; the vast usefulness of the Church Periodical Club in reaching remote clergymen with fresh literature, by Mrs. Locke, and Mrs. Starbuck; the influence of Church education by Dr. Fleetwood; a letter from Dr. Walrath, giving a picture of Mrs. Brierly's life and death in Africa; another from Bishop Rowe telling of his new field in Alaska; and an address by Bishop Brooke of Oklahoma; bazaar boxes, by Mrs. Stirling; Diocesan and City Missions, by Mr. Rushton. These and others are the topics which have held our interest.

"The world is realizing the energizing power of the spirit and beginning to claim it as an heritage of the child of God," and so His work grows as we bring to it the receptive state of soul and body. "Go ye into all the world and preach the Gospel." Go to the uttermost parts of the earth, is a command which men are beginning to heed as did the disciples of old. In the 68th Psalm (revised version) we find these words, "The Lord giveth the word; the women that publish the tidings are a host," and our opportunities increase all the time with the bringing together of the nations.

Here in our cities we have the opportunity and privilege of administering to every nationality, and there is one work which ought to appeal to every woman in the Diocese, I refer to the absolute need of a woman as assistant city missionary, and hope to speak of this later.

In the midst of all the blessings of this day, and the thankful joy of being together, will it seem amiss to ask if we have been faithful to our motto, "Let self die, let God live." Have we, as branches and individuals, reached the highest fulfillment of our baptismal vows? Do we carry our part with love and light and life, so that there are no missing links in the chain of salvation? Let us see to it that no individual, no branch takes from us or ours the privilege and the blessing while they carry the burden of Christ's command, Go! Do! A brave word timely spoken often is a great deed. But why deal with these truths; let us live them! We know the joy of our self surrender, if only in a small measure, and the sweetness and gentleness that it gives while it makes firmer and freer the character. Do we know the meaning of consecrated service, the meekness and discipline necessary to "feed and blow into a flame" every flickering light and the Power behind all, which says, "I will uphold thee with the right hand of my righteousness."

As we pass along in our survey, it may be well to consider the three great aims of the work at large.

- I. Daily prayers for missions.

2. The reading and study of missions.
3. Systematic and conscientious giving for missions.

As to the first. In the history of the General Convention held in Minneapolis, October, 1895, these words are recorded and handed down to posterity. It is no wonder that the Auxiliary is so mighty when every one of its members are asked to pray daily for its success; and the success of those things for which it stands. That statement assumes that we live up to our privilege.

For the reading and study of missions, what shall we say? One of our duties is to find the weak places and make them strong. Let me ask the question, does every member present know exactly where our foreign mission stations are located, who the Bishops and other leading workers are? If not, how can we pray for them? Do we know the fields in which our own Diocese works, to say nothing of the work of the other fifty-six Dioceses and the needs of the other nineteen missionary jurisdictions. A plan for a half-hour reading club has been presented to the women of the Auxiliary and to the Junior Branch, but not very heartily taken up. In this Diocese we might expect more zeal on the subject, for Illinois is famous for its woman's clubs. I believe a half-hour reading club for the study of missions once a week could, and would, be highly successful, and especially so in the branches remote from the city. The use of the library belonging to the Woman's Auxiliary at the Church Club rooms would be an invaluable aid to the half-hour reading club.

The Library Committee will be glad of additional books and will always be ready to distribute those on hand.

Will not the enthusiastic club women take this matter to heart, and will not each member of the Auxiliary read at least one missionary paper or magazine? The Spirit of Missions is sent out for $1.00 a year. Read the articles and discuss them at your meetings; that alone will keep you in touch with the work and the needs. The Junior Auxiliary Publishing Co. is sending out beautiful little series illustrated and Sunday School leaflets, which ought to, and would interest every child, if a great mother heart would stand by to awaken and encourage such reading.

That our second object may stand before us in a significant way we will offer $5.00 for the best paper on Colored work to any member of the Woman's Auxiliary and the same sum for the best scrap book illustrated on Indian work to any member of the Junior Auxiliary. The amount offered is small, perhaps not large enough to be an incentive; but let it serve as a simple reminder of one of our great aims.

The third now comes before us. Systematic and conscientious giving. The proportion is fixed for us, it need not weigh on our conscience as to how much we give. "Of all that thou shalt give, me, I will surely give the tenth unto thee." The time to give is placed, "Upon the first day of the week let every one of you lay by him in store as God hath prospered," and the way to give determined, "Of every man that giveth it willingly with his heart ye shall take my offering."

Seven hundred and thirty-eight mite chests have gone out. We can put into practice our systematic conscientious giving by making such offering as we can one day in the week for the support and training of women missionary workers, sending the contents each September to the parochial treasurer for her to forward to the diocesan treasurer each September till the year 1898, when it will be offered up in Washington at the triennial meeting. Let our offerings be not confined or limited, but reach as far and as wide as the Master's love.

We congratulate you on your offerings thus far. The Brerley memorial of $200 is paid. The pledge to Bishop Gray, working amid many discouragements in Southern Florida, of $100 has been enthusiastically met, and the $100 offered to Bishop Hare towards a scholarship of $250 for the education of a missionary's daughter has been made. The Mexican McLaren scholarship of $60 has been sent to the Rev. Henry Forrester, who tells us that $80 would educate and clothe the child whom we have undertaken. The McLaren scholarship for a young Indian in South Dakota goes steadfastly along, as well as the many other contributions far and near.

We had hoped to have on exhibition some of the lace work made by Miss Carter's Indians. A lace sale will take place in the fall for the benefit of her work, the time and place to be announced later.

The quarterly Days of Prayer for Missions and "The Quiet Day" have been white mile-stones on our way, pointing to the blessed rest of God's faithful servants.

And now we offer up this brief year and all its efforts and all its failures to our Heavenly Father, asking him to put and keep in our hearts the desire to serve Him wherever he places us.

"Kingdoms wide that sit in darkness,
Grant them, Lord, the glorious light,
And from eastern coast to western
May the morning chase the night."

RECORDING SECRETARY'S REPORT.

The eleventh semi-annual meeting of the Chicago Branch was held at S. Peter's Church, Wednesday, October 23, 1895.

After the opening prayers and a few cordial words of welcome from the Rector of the Parish, the meeting was called to order by the President, who asked the Secretary to call the roll. This showed thirty-three branches represented by about 200 women.

The minutes of the last meeting were read.

Mrs. Lyman made a short address, speaking of the recent meeting of the Auxiliary in Minneapolis, at which Chicago had fifteen representatives, and reported the following pledges made there by the Committee in behalf of the Chicago Branch: for Brierly Memorial, $200; for Scholarship Bishop Hare, $100; for Southern Florida Bishop Gray, $100; for North Carolina Scholarship, $10.

Addresses followed by Mrs. Hunter of N. C.—who spoke of the special needs of S. Augustine's School.

Mrs. Hubbard, of the jurisdiction of Spokane, and the need of a hospital there.

A collection was then taken, amounting to $136.57. This was afterwards increased to $150, and was divided between Mrs. Hunter's work, and that of Mrs. Hubbard in Spokane.

Miss Emery made an earnest appeal for increased zeal in the work of the Auxiliary.

Bishop Brooke spoke of the mission field in Oklahoma and Indian Territory, and was followed by Bishop Leonard of Utah.

Pledges were made of $135.50 for Bishop Brooke, and $80.50 for Bishop Leonard.

Resolutions of thanks was offered by Mrs. Lyman to the ladies and Rector of S. Peter's for their generous hospitality, after which the meeting was adjourned.

The evening service began at 7.45—Bishop McLaren presiding.

Addresses were made by Bishop Nelson of Georgia, Bishop Graves of China, and Rev. Mr. Forrester of Mexico.

The offertory taken at this service, amounting to $62.83, was afterward increased to $80, and was divided between the work of Bishop Nelson and that of Bishop Graves.

A scholarship of $60 was subsequently pledged to Mr. Forrester, for the training of a child, to be known as the "Mexican McLaren Scholarship."

To both afternoon and evening meeting the speakers brought with them that atmosphere of faith and spiritual zeal which prevailed throughout the meetings of the Convention in Minneapolis—from whence they had so recently returned—and which added greatly to the interest of our Semi-Annual.

The twelfth annual meeting was held at the Cathedral on Thursday, May 28, 1896.

The Bishop celebrated Holy Communion at 10.30 A. M.—at which about 300 women were present.

The sermon by the Rev. E. M. Stires of Grace Church was most earnest and helpful, and claimed the close attention of his hearers.

After morning service, luncheon was served in the Mission house by the Sisters of S. Mary.

The afternoon meeting was called to order at two o'clock, by the President Mrs. Lyman. The Bishop opened the meeting with prayer.

After the calling of the roll, which showed a representation from 39 parishes, the minutes of the last meeting were read.

Then followed the reports of the year's work.

A combined report of the corresponding secretary and treasurer, showed a result of $17,071 19 in money and boxes, of which more than $6,000 has been given to the work in this diocese.

Reports were then read by the Secretary of the Comfort Club (Mrs. Blair), the Church Periodical Club (Mrs. Starbuck), the Society for the Relief of Widows and Orphans (Mrs. Hibbard), and the Mission Work of the Girl's Friendly Society—by the President Miss Groesbeck.

These reports were followed by the President's closing address. In speaking of the aims of the Auxiliary, Mrs. Lyman dwelt particularly on the reading and study of missions, and the benefits to be derived from the half hour Reading Club.

In this connection, the Committee offer two prizes for the coming year, to be awarded at the annual meeting: five dollars for the best paper on Colored work—to any member of the Woman's Auxiliary, and the same sum for the best scrap book on Indian work—illustrated, to any member of the Junior Auxiliary.

The election of officers was next in order. No nominating committee being appointed.

All nominations were made from the floor. The recording Secretary was instructed to cast the ballot for each in turn.

As there were no new names presented, the Committee remains the same as last year.

A report of the Babies' Branch was read by Miss Prophet of Trinity Parish, Chicago, after which the President spoke of the need of a woman to assist the City Missionary and earnestly commended the work to the care of the Auxiliary.

Rev. Mr. Rushton gave some practical illustrations of the need for such a woman in this field, and a letter was read from the Rev. T. N. Morrison, D. D., which said, "This is a step in the right direction."

The various branches responded heartily to these appeals, and $590 were soon pledged for this work.

The Bishop spoke a few words of earnest sympathy with the work of the Auxiliary in the past, and encouragement for the future.

Word was received from the Vice-President of the Northern Deanery, regretting her inability to be present at the meeting, and a letter was read from the Rev. J. C. Sage, thanking the Auxiliary for assistance given to St. Simeon's Mission at Clyde.

The offertory of the morning was given to the Cathedral. In the afternoon it was devoted to the work of the Sisters of S. Mary.

A resolution of sympathy for the sufferers from the cyclone at St. Louis was offered by Mrs. Ward of Grace Church.

After resolutions of thanks to the Bishop, the Sisters, the Rev. Mr. Stires, and the Clergy of the Cathedral, the meeting was declared adjourned.

Respectfully submitted,

M. D. MONROE,

Recording Secretary.

CHICAGO, May, 1896.

CHURCH PERIODICAL CLUB.

This year marks an era in the growth of the Church Periodical Club of Chicago. A western branch has been established here, including Indiana, Illinois, Iowa, Nebraska, Minnesota and Wisconsin, and the greater part of our work will hereafter be done in these states.

It is hoped that this step will be justified by greatly increased interest and efficiency, although nothing but the most careful attention by individual contributors, to the fulfillment of promises made by them, can ever raise the Club to its greatest degree of usefulness.

During the year 1895, 145 persons contributed regularly 369 periodicals; 21 different parishes are represented. 63 books on general subjects, 94 S. S. books, 32 Bibles, 31 Prayer books, 300 Hymnals, 50 Lesson papers, 105 Easter cards, 301 Christmas cards, 3 tracts, 275 Christmas Carols, 506 pictures and over 5,000 odd numbers of papers and magazines have been distributed.

As our plans for the new arrangement were in process of formation during the first few months of the year no appeal was made for funds and the report is very meagre.

At the annual meeting 1895 there was on hand a balance of $5.15 and the account for the year stands as follows:

CONSTITUTION.

ARTICLE I.

This Association shall be called THE CHICAGO BRANCH OF THE WOMAN'S AUXILIARY TO THE BOARD OF MISSIONS.

ARTICLE II.

The object of this Association shall be to unite all the congregations in the Diocese of Chicago in the different branches of missionary work, as conducted by the General and Diocesan Boards.

ARTICLE III.

Every parish or mission in the Diocese is a member of this Association, and, upon the payment of an annual-membership fee of one dollar, shall be entitled to a representation at the meetings of not more than seven delegates; each parish or mission voting as a unit, when such vote by unit shall be demanded by two parishes or missions.

ARTICLE IV.

SEC. 1. An annual meeting shall be held the day after the close of the Diocesan Convention, except when that day falls on a legal holiday, when the Executive Committee shall appoint another day, for the election of officers, the adoption of the annual report, and the transaction of such other business as may properly come before such meeting.

SEC. 2. A semi-annual meeting shall be held in the autumn, at the discretion of the Executive Committee; which meeting shall consist of an afternoon session for the transaction of business, followed by a general missionary meeting in the evening, when addresses shall be made by speakers approved by the Bishop and the Executive Committee.

ARTICLE V.

SEC. 1. The officers shall be a president, three vice-presidents—one from each deanery—a corresponding secretary, a recording secretary, and a treasurer, who shall constitute the Executive Committee and meet monthly.

SEC. 2. The Executive Committee shall have power, as necessity may arise, to appoint annually, with the approval of the Bishop, other officers, who shall not, however, be members of the Executive Committee.

SEC. 3. The duty of the president shall be to preside at all meetings of the Association and of the officers; to arrange for the organization of branches, to visit the same, and to have the general charge of the work, under the directions of the Bishop.

SEC. 4. The duty of the vice-presidents shall be to choose one of their number to preside in the absence of the president, and to co-operate with her in the general supervision of the work of the Association in the deaneries to which they respectively belong.

SEC. 5. The duty of the corresponding secretary shall be to conduct the necessary correspondence required by the Auxiliary, and to prepare such reports as are needed. The duty of the recording secretary shall be to send out notices of all meetings, to keep a record of the same, and to assist the corresponding secretary in the preparation of reports.

SEC. 6. The duty of the treasurer shall be to receive all special and general funds, to disburse the former as the donors indicate, and the latter under the direction of the Executive Committee, and to render an account of the same at the annual meeting.

ARTICLE VI.

Each branch shall submit a report of the year's work to the corresponding secretary of the diocesan branch, to be incorporated in the annual report and read at the annual meeting.

ARTICLE VII.

This constitution may be altered or amended at any annual meeting by a vote of two-thirds of the members present, subject to the approval of the Bishop.

BY-LAWS.

I. The election of officers at the annual meeting shall be by ballot, each parish or mission having one vote.

II. When a vacancy shall occur in the Executive Committee by death or resignation, or removal of residence from the diocese, the members of said committee shall have power, with the advice and consent of the Bishop previously obtained, to appoint an officer to fill the vacancy. The officer so appointed to serve until the next annual meeting.

III. Special meetings may be called by the president at such time and place as she may designate, for the purpose of stimulating interest in the work.

IV. It shall be the duty of every parochial branch to contribute annually a sum of money, the amount thereof to be determined by itself, to the Executive Committee of this diocesan branch, to be appropriated by them according to their discretion to the Missionary work of the church, which money shall constitute the General Fund of the Chicago Branch, and shall be so designated by the contributors.

V. The regular order of business at the annual meeting shall be as follows:

1. Offices of devotion.
2. Calling of roll by branches.
3. Reading of minutes of last meeting.
4. Reports of officers and committees.
5. Election of officers.
6. Unfinished business.
7. Miscellaneous business and addresses.

VI. These by-laws may be amended at any annual meeting by a majority vote of the branches present.

THE Annual Meeting is held on the day after the close of the Diocesan Convention.

The Semi-Annual Meeting is held in the autumn, generally in October, the date being fixed by the president, and due notice being given to all the Parochial Branches.

A meeting of the Diocesan officers is held on the first Thursday of each month, at the Church Club Rooms, room 510 Masonic Temple, Chicago.

The Quarterly Days of Prayer for Missions are held on S. Andrew's Day, and the Wednesdays in the Ember seasons of Lent, Whitsuntide, and Trinity.
