PRAYERS.

O God, to whom all Thy children are dear, we beg Thy blessing on the women who are banded in fellowship of love and good works, to the end that Thy name may be honored, Thy church edified and Thy servants helped; and we beseech Thee to fill the hearts of all faithful people with love of Thee and hunger for Thy Presence here and forever; all of which we ask for the sake of Him who died and rose again for us, Thy Son Jesus Christ our Lord. AMEN.

May Thy Holy Spirit take possession of our hearts and so sanctify our motives that we cannot will to do anything contrary to the precepts of religion or the interests of righteousness or the growth of holiness. And to this end give us a ready mind to receive Thy inspirations and a fixed determination to carry them into good effect, through Christ our Lord. AMEN.

---

Remember, in Thy great love, O Father, all little bands of believing folk who are striving to uplift and uphold the banner of the Cross in lonely places and distant parts of the world, and if the comfort of human sympathy doth not reach their ears, stand Thou very close to them and breathe words of courage and hope into their fainting hearts, for Christ our Lord's sake. AMEN.

FROM THE BISHOP, April 21, 1898.

DEAR WOMEN OF THE AUXILIARY:

There are other and better things in store for us at this meeting. Bishop Leonard of Ohio is here to present the colored work and to awaken a more material interest in the "black race" of our country, than we have ever manifested in this diocese. Our city mission work, also, is to be considered and the sum of $800 should be pledged. I know the zeal and activity of our branches, and that you will rise to the needs before you; but time is precious, so only a few words in the name of the committee you have unanimously chosen to re-elect as your servants and leaders in this great work. We thank you. It is a high honor and a great responsibility that you and our Bishop confer, and unless you share both with us, we shall fail. There can be no higher privilege than to be workers together in the service of our Lord. To you belongs the prerogative of holding us to our highest duty, to sustain and support us in every effort, to send faithful representatives to each monthly meeting who will not only carry back to the branches of the auxiliary an intelligent knowledge of its proceedings, but who are willing in all humility and gentleness to express their opinions at these meetings, and thus become ready to take up active and public service. You see how your work grows, and what need there is for consecrated woman to carry it on; for the bravest hearts fail, and the strongest hands grow weak. Who, we ask, is sufficient? And yet God's work must and will go on. In our weakness let us rise on the wings of faith to say, "Here am I," a glad and willing sacrifice. Fill us with Thy love, enable us with Thy Grace, and thus shall we be disciples and followers of the truths so faithfully taught by the clergy.

In all organizations, at least in all woman's work, we find differences in opinion as to methods, and some adverse criticism. In our Diocesan Branch the harmony of spirit has been unequaled; yet we would not be human if some criticism and unmerited praise had not tingled our ears with at least momentary pain and humility. Such, however, is wholesome in the extreme. By it we are put on our mettle to meet the highest and best demands, and on our knees to find the Source of all our strength. In return for your continued confidence, we offer ourselves anew, believing that your faith and your prayers will reap a still more abundant harvest of good things in the coming year. And why not?

The great Church Triennial convenes next October at Washington, D. C., and will send a wave of righteousness into every parish of the land. May I use this opportunity to call your attention to the "United Offering?" Let us keep the blue mite chest ever present with us in our homes or travels abroad. We carried from this Diocese to the last Triennial of 1895, $1,262.42, and next October we hope to offer a larger sum.

At the General Convention the officers of the different branches of the Auxiliary will be called upon to make and renew pledges; at least, their hearts would be cold indeed not to respond to the needs then set forth by those in authority, for the making known of Christ upon earth. We would have you realize with us that the highest compensation for a good deed well done, is the added power to do another. We were told in our Bishop's annual address, that it is the spirit of this age to reconsider everything; that hesitation saps the springs of activity, and chokes down enthusiasm. May every woman of the Auxiliary hold fast to that sublime faith which is not afraid to undertake, and to that grace of enthusiasm which wins for eternity.

MARY E. LYMAN.

THE UNITED OFFERING.

When the story of the United Offering has been told over and over until some feel as familiar with it as with their alphabet, it seems strange to learn that to many it still carries no meaning, and naturally calls forth no interest. As "knowledge must precede zeal," let us gather the sheaves anew and spread the news once more, trusting willing hearts will read it and gladly join with us in our offering of thanksgiving for what we have been enabled to do for the cause of missions, and what we still hope to do.

The United Offering of Woman's Auxiliary is the gift that is made as a whole once in three years. When the General Convention meets the Woman's Auxiliary has its grand Thanksgiving service. At this service the auxiliary makes a special offering to God to be used for the spread of His kingdom in the world. This offering is a gift in money from the women of the church entirely distinct from all other missionary work and pledges. It is designed to be collected during three years and presented at the Triennial service, which is held at the time of General Convention. When a United Offering was first planned the sum of $2,000 was asked for. This was raised and presented at the Triennial meeting of Woman's Auxiliary held in New York in October, 1889. One half of this amount was the gift of one woman. The offering was devoted to the building of Christ Church, Anvik, the first church in our Alaska mission, and to the sending of a new missionary to Japan. Encouraged by this good beginning, the friends and supporters of United Offering went forth to spread the news eagerly, and in sincere thankfulness resolved to make the next offering a larger and more representative gift. The end of the three years found a larger gathering at the Triennial service held in Baltimore, in October, 1892, and the offering amounted to $20,353.16. This offering was devoted to the Enrollment Fund, that brave effort to raise a large sum of money for the support of missions. The Chicago Branch had become interested and the diocesan officers worked faithfully to spread the cause among their branches, so the goodly sum of $1,931.18 was sent by our women to this offering.

The offering of the following three years was set aside as an investment in the hands of the general board, the income to be devoted to the support of a missionary bishop. The amount given this time was $56,192.35. This noble sum speaks for itself as to the interest in our United Offering. It was offered at the Triennial service held in Christ Church, St. Paul, in October 1895, and was the largest gift for missions ever laid on God's altar at one service in the American church. This offering came from every part of our own land; from Alaska, from China and Japan, from Africa, from colored people of the South and from the Indians, from many who once were heathen and now know the love of God, thus showing their thankfulness for the blessing in helping to spread the glad tidings to others. Our Chicago branch gave $1,262.42 to this offering, which is now called "The Woman's Auxiliary Missionary Episcopate Fund," and by action of the board of managers it was resolved to apply the income from this fund for three years to the support of the Missionary Bishop of Oklahoma and Indian Territory. Many hands joined in the gathering of this fund which for all time will support a Missionary Bishop in some field which might otherwise still be without a shepherd.

The next United Offering will be made on October 6 of this present year, in Washington, when the great Triennial service of praise and thanksgiving will be held. The resolution gives us our object as "the training and support of women workers in the mission fields of the church." It is hoped a large sum may be realized from our three years ingathering. The United Offering has grown to be an important feature of Woman's Auxiliary work. Each diocesan branch sends its share, including, it is hoped, a gift from every parochial branch and as far as possible one from every individual member. To help gather this together over 25,000 mite boxes have been sent out. In our Chicago branch we have some 1,100 of these little blue boxes. We ask those who will contribute in this way regularly to place a small sum in them. Should each holder of a mite box place one penny a day therein regularly for three years, we would have an offering of about $275,000.00 to present. What a surprise and joy such an act would be to the church at large! If every officer in the Woman's Auxiliary will realize that she has a personal responsibility in this matter of the United Offering, and will make an earnest effort through the members of her branch to bring the subject before every woman in her parish, a great surprise and joy may be ours next October. A kind clergyman of the church has said, "The Woman's Auxiliary has only begun her surprises for the church." "Nothing shall be impossible unto her." Each baptized woman should help this fund, where so little is asked and so much hoped for. Will not each woman ask herself what her own gift should be? Surely each woman should send something, that our Chicago branch may bear a good share of the offering when we gather in Washington next October. If we may but realize "there is no gift so worthy to be offered to God as that which will carry to His children the knowledge of His love," we will not miss our share in the joy of that hour. If a great offering can be made prayerfully and with thanksgiving, let it be given with the joyful hope that many a life may be lived for the glory of God and for the good of souls in the mission fields of the church.

CARRIE O. MEACHAM,

Cor. Secretary.

RECORDING SECRETARY'S REPORT.

The thirteenth semi-annual meeting of the Chicago Branch was held in S. Andrew's Church on Friday, October 22, 1897.

After the offices of devotion, and an address of welcome from the Rector of the parish, the meeting was called to order by the president.

The roll-call showed thirty-six branches represented, and about four hundred women present.

After the reading of the minutes, the president spoke of the responsibility of diocesan officers and the fact that we had but one more year in which to work for the United Offering before the Triennial convention.

She briefly reviewed the work of last year, and called attention to the fact that three of those who were present at our semi-annual meeting had "entered into life eternal."

The question of continuing the quarterly days for prayer was then taken up. It was decided that one day each year and one church service be substituted for the quarterly days previously observed, the same to be called the "Annual Day for Prayer for Missions," and to fall upon S. Andrew's Day, November 30; also that the Quiet Day service shall include special prayers for Christian work all over the world. This suggestion was approved and adopted.

The prize paper on the "Work Among the Colored People" was read by Mrs. W. C. DeWitt.

Further information on this subject was given by the Rev. Wm. V. Tunnell, Warden of King Hall, Washington.

Our honorary secretary, Mrs. Twing, spoke of the vastness of the work, the need for more workers, and the great progress made in the last four years in the foreign field.

She was followed by Dr. Boone, who gave some interesting facts in regard to the work in China.

Bishop Talbot presented the Rev. Mr. Coolidge, who made an earnest appeal in behalf of the Shoshones and their needs.

An invitation was received and accepted from St. Paul's branch, Hyde Park, for the annual meeting in May.

The following resolution of sympathy for the loss sustained by the Chicago branch of the auxiliary in the death of Dr. Langford, was offered by Mrs. Ward of Grace Church, and was endorsed by a rising vote:

"Resolved, that while the Woman's Auxiliary of the Diocese of Chicago shares the universal sense of loss in the translation of Dr. Langford to a higher sphere, it also thanks God for the example of untiring zeal, faith and patience, as well as for the inspiring reproaches of neglected duty; and its members pray that while he rests from his labors, his works may follow him in their more earnest and self-denying service for our common Lord and Master, by increasing and sustaining His laborers in the missionary fields."

CHICAGO, October 22, 1897.

The evening meeting was opened with prayer by the Bishop of Chicago. Addresses were made by Bishop Leonard of Utah, and Bishop Talbot of Wyoming.

The offering of the afternoon was devoted to general missions. In the evening it was given to the work of Bishop Talbot.

After a resolution of thanks to the speakers and the rector and ladies of St. Andrew's parish for their generous hospitality, the meeting was closed with prayer and the benediction by the Bishop.

The fourteenth annual meeting was held in St. Paul's Church, Hyde Park, on Thursday, June 2, 1898.

At the morning services the Holy Communion was celebrated by the rector—the Rev. C. H. Bixby—and the sermon was preached by Rev. T. N. Morrison, D. D., of the Church of the Epiphany, Chicago.

Luncheon was served at 12.30 by the ladies of the parish.

The afternoon meeting was called to order at half-past two o'clock by the president.

The roll-call showed a representation from forty-three parishes, and about five hundred members present. After the reading of the minutes of the last meeting by the recording secretary, a report of the Society for the Relief of Widows and Orphans of Clergymen was read by Mrs. Hibbard, and one from the Comfort Club was read by the secretary, Mrs. Blair.

The combined reports of the corresponding secretary and treasurer showed the total disbursements for the year in money and boxes to be $18,170.27, and the number of members to be 2,425.

Then followed the election of officers—the committee of last year being again chosen to direct the work of the Auxiliary in our diocese.

The president spoke of the great responsibility of diocesan officers, and the importance of sending faithful representatives from each parish branch to the monthly conferences of general and diocesan officers.

Bishop McLaren then introduced the Rt. Rev. Bishop Leonard of Ohio, who spoke of the necessity for a fraternity of common interest and enthusiasm in our work for the colored race, and briefly reviewed the efforts of the church to enter in and possess this land of promise.

The president called attention to the fact that our previous pledge of six hundred dollars was not sufficient to carry on the city mission work, and asked that at least two hundred dollars be added to our pledges.

The Rev. Dr. Rushton was asked to speak in behalf of this branch of the work, and after a five minute address the parishes responded at once and the whole amount of $800 was raised; our Bishop exclaiming: "Lo, what hath God wrought among us."

The offertory of the morning was for general missions. In the afternoon it was devoted to work among the colored people.

After a rising vote of thanks to the speakers, the clergy and the rector and ladies of St. Paul's parish, the meeting was adjourned.

Respectfully submitted,

M. D. MONROE,
Recording Secretary.

REPORT OF THE LIBRARY COMMITTEE.

The Library Committee begs leave to present the following report for the year ending May 31st, 1898.

The number of books now in the library is 71, 14 new books having been added during the year.

The number of annual subscribers has been 9. The number of books loaned 21.

Of the new books two, "The Light of Melanesia," and "The Study of a Melanesian Deacon," together with a late copy of the little periodical, "The Island Voyage," which has always been issued since Bishop Patterson's time, have been received from S. Mark's Branch, Evanston; and one, "Rambles in Japan," by Canon Tristram of Durham Cathedral, from the Epiphany Branch, Chicago. A duplicate copy of the second volume of "Church Work" has come from an unknown source. Nine volumes of "The Spirit of Missions" have been bound and placed in the library during the year. The numbers of this magazine are now complete from 1867 to the present time. The committee regret to report that they have, thus far, been unable to procure any numbers earlier than 1867. A complete set of "The Spirit of Missions," beginning with the first number issued in 1836, should be upon the library shelves. Such a set may be found at the Church Missions House, New York, and it seems of almost equal importance that all the numbers of our missionary magazine should be available for reference here in Chicago. The committee beg the co-operation of all the other members of the Auxiliary in securing these earlier numbers from 1836 to 1867.

Many numbers of "The Diocese" are still lacking. The secretary of the committee will be glad to communicate with persons having back numbers of "The Diocese," as it is important that a complete set of our own diocesan paper be in the possession of the library.

The following moneys have been received and expended:

CONSTITUTION.

ARTICLE I.

This Association shall be called THE CHICAGO BRANCH OF THE WOMAN'S AUXILIARY TO THE BOARD OF MISSIONS.

ARTICLE II.

The object of this Association shall be to unite all the congregations in the Diocese of Chicago in the different branches of missionary work, as conducted by the General and Diocesan Boards.

ARTICLE III.

Every parish or mission in the Diocese is a member of this Association, and, upon the payment of an annual membership fee of one dollar, shall be entitled to a representation at the meetings of not more than seven delegates; each parish or mission voting as a unit, when such vote by unit shall be demanded by two parishes or missions.

ARTICLE IV.

SEC. 1. An annual meeting shall be held the day after the close of the Diocesan Convention, except when that day falls on a legal holiday, when the Executive Committee shall appoint another day, for the election of officers, the adoption of the annual report, and the transaction of such other business as may properly come before such meeting.

SEC. 2. A semi-annual meeting shall be held in the autumn, at the discretion of the Executive Committee; which meeting shall consist of an afternoon session for the transaction of business, followed by a general missionary meeting in the evening, when addresses shall be made by speakers, approved by the Bishop and the Executive Committee.

ARTICLE V.

SEC. 1. The officers shall be a president, three vice-presidents—one from each deanery—a corresponding secretary, a recording secretary, and a treasurer, who shall constitute the Executive Committee and meet monthly.

SEC. 2. The Executive Committee shall have power, as necessity may arise, to appoint annually, with the approval of the Bishop, other officers, who shall not, however, be members of the Executive Committee.

SEC. 3. The duty of the president shall be to preside at all meetings of the Association and of the officers; to arrange for the organization of branches, to visit the same and to have the general charge of the work, under the directions of the Bishop.

SEC. 4. The duty of the vice-presidents shall be to choose one of their number to preside in the absence of the president, and to co-operate with her in the general supervision of the work of the Association in the deaneries to which they respectively belong.

SEC. 5. The duty of the corresponding secretary shall be to conduct the necessary correspondence required by the Auxiliary, and to prepare such reports as are needed. The duty of the recording secretary shall be to send out notices of all meetings, to keep a record of the same, and to assist the corresponding secretary in the preparation of reports.

SEC. 6. The duty of the treasurer shall be to receive all special and general funds, to disburse the former as the donors indicate, and the latter under the direction of the Executive Committee, and to render an account of the same at the annual meeting.

ARTICLE VI.

Each branch shall submit a report of the year's work to the corresponding secretary of the diocesan branch, to be incorporated in the annual report and read at the annual meeting.

ARTICLE VII.

This constitution may be altered or amended at any annual meeting by a vote of two-thirds of the members present, subject to the approval of the Bishop.

BY-LAWS.

I. The election of officers at the annual meeting shall be by ballot, each parish or mission having one vote.

II. When a vacancy shall occur in the Executive Committee by death or resignation, or removal of residence from the diocese, the members of said Committee shall have power, with the advice and consent of the Bishop previously obtained, to appoint an officer to fill the vacancy. The officer so appointed to serve until the next annual meeting.

III. Special meetings may be called by the president at such time and place as she may designate, for the purpose of stimulating interest in the work.

IV. It shall be the duty of every parochial branch to contribute annually a sum of money, the amount thereof to be determined by itself, to the Executive Committee of this diocesan branch, to be appropriated by them according to their discretion to the Missionary work of the church, which money shall constitute the General Fund of the Chicago Branch, and shall be so designated by the contributors.

V. The regular order of business at the annual meeting shall be as follows:

1. Offices of devotion.
2. Calling of roll by branches.
3. Reading of minutes of last meeting.
4. Reports of officers and committees.
5. Election of officers.
6. Unfinished business.
7. Miscellaneous business and addresses.

VI. These by-laws may be amended at any annual meeting by a majority vote of the branches present.

THE Annual Day of Prayer for Missions is held on S. Andrew's Day, November 30.

The Annual Meeting is held on the day after the close of the Diocesan Convention.

The Semi-Annual Meeting is held in the autumn, generally in October, the date being fixed by the president, and due notice being given to all the Parochial Branches.

A meeting of the Diocesan officers is held on the first Thursday of each month, at the Church Club Rooms, room 510 Masonic Temple, Chicago.

Different branches are asked to co-operate with the President in taking charge of the noon-day meetings. Interesting papers are read, and Missionaries speak on the work in their jurisdictions.

It is hoped that each branch will send at least two representatives to these monthly meetings.
