THIRTIETH ANNUAL REPORT
OF ITS
JUNIOR DEPARTMENT

1919

The following Prayers were adopted at the session of the Triennial Meeting of the Woman's Auxiliary held in Detroit on October 17, 1919:

The Prayer for the Woman's Auxiliary

ALMIGHTY GOD, our Heavenly Father, bless, we pray Thee, our work for the extension of Thy Kingdom, and make us so thankful for the precious gift to us of Thy beloved Son, that we may pray fervently, labour diligently and give liberally to make Him known to all nations as their God and Saviour. We ask this for His dear sake. Amen.

The Prayer for the United Thank Offering

O LORD, our Heavenly Father, we pray Thee to send forth more labourers into Thy harvest, and to grant them Thy special grace for every need. Guard and guide the workers in the field, and draw us into closer fellowship with them. Dispose the hearts of all women everywhere to give gladly as Thou hast given to them. Accept, from grateful hearts, our United Thank Offering of prayer and gifts and joyful service; and bless it to the coming of Thy Kingdom, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

MINUTES OF THE ANNUAL MEETING, 1918

The thirty-eighth annual meeting of the Connecticut Branch of the Woman's Auxiliary was held in the Church of the Holy Trinity, Middletown, on Friday, October fourth, 1918. The Holy Communion was celebrated at half past nine o'clock with Bishop Brewster as celebrant, assisted by Bishop Acheson, the rector of the parish, the Revd. F. F. German, and the Revd. H. J. Edwards.

The business session was opened at 10.15 with the President, Mrs. E. C. Acheson, in the chair. The minutes of the last annual meeting were read and approved and the Treasurer's and Secretary's reports were read and accepted. Then followed the reports of the various departments of the work, viz., the Comfort Club, the Committee on the Education of the Daughters of the Clergy, the Committee on United Prayer for Missions, the Church Periodical Club, the Connecticut Missionary Lending Library, the Church Missions Publishing Company, and for the Junior Department, the reports of the Chairman, of the Treasurer and Box Secretary and of the Little Helpers, all which were accepted.

The pledge list for the coming year, prepared by the Board of Managers, was read and explained, and approved by the meeting. A few words were said as to the needs of the Comfort Club and pledges amounting to $253.80 were made for the work.

The President made a short address, speaking of the work to be done by the Auxiliary and especially of the Advent Call to prayer.

At twelve o'clock noon-day prayers were said and were followed by an address by the Revd. Percy Dearmer, on the needs of India, which he knew from personal experience.

Luncheon was served by the Woman's Auxiliary of Holy Trinity parish, in Mrs. Acheson's garden, on Washington Street.

The afternoon session opened at two p. m., the Suffragan Bishop presiding. After a short service the session was devoted to the consideration of the part that the women in Connecticut should and it was hoped would take in the Advent Call—United Prayer for the needs of the World in the great crisis of to-day.

Bishop Brewster opened the discussions, followed by the Revd. Messrs. Sherman, Gilbert, Reynolds, Sutherland, Chauncey Linsley, and Morehouse.

A committee was appointed for the preparation of leaflets which it was hoped would reach the hands of every Church woman in the Diocese.

The offerings at this meeting, amounting to $283.30, were given to the Connecticut Bishops for Diocesan work.

Three hundred and thirty women and 55 clergymen from 78 parishes responded to the roll call.

Attest,

EDITH BEACH,
Recording Secretary.

ADDRESS OF THE PRESIDENT

The work of the Woman's Auxiliary in this Diocese has been encouraging during the past year. There are still weak spots, very weak spots, that need very special care, but there is a keener interest and greater appreciation of responsibility all through the work. Some new branches have been organized and some old ones revived.

The Educational work has developed in many places into a real part of the parish programme. This is most promising, for where there is a foundation of knowledge, well laid, the building up process is comparatively easy.

Since our last annual meeting there has been added to the staff a Diocesan Treasurer for the United Thank Offering. This has proved one of the wisest steps ever taken by your board, for when you realize what this Diocese did in a few months, under Miss Franklin's earnest and thorough generalship, you must agree that the future looks very bright and hopeful.

Under Mrs. Douglas's care the babies have been heard from as never before. There is a deeper significance in this than one realizes at first, for every baby's name added to the roll means the interest of a mother.

And so I might go on into every branch of the work for the development has been very general.

As is natural, after many years, we of the board find ourselves trying to put into effect new ideas with old working methods and we are forced to admit that we have come to the point where it is necessary to enlarge our scope and remodel our machinery that we may be better equipped for the new undertakings before us.

These new undertakings have been brought about by very important changes at the Church Missions House. Whereas there have been, in the past, three departments at the Church Missions House (Board of Missions, Board of Religious Education and joint commission on Christian Social Service), with separate boards and budgets, now under the Reconstruction plan there is to be one Executive Committee governing all three boards.

Therefore it was voted, at the convention, that we enlarge our work and become the Woman's Auxiliary to the Executive Committee.

A special committee has been appointed to confer with the Bishop to the end that the Woman's Auxiliary of Connecticut be reorganized to meet the new conditions.

One chief point, in the new plan, is to divide the responsibility of the work among a larger number of women. And so we beg that this matter be given thoughtful consideration and when the new order of things is established and the call to greater service comes that every woman will be ready to answer, "Here am I, Lord, use even me."

There is so much of interest that I would like to tell you concerning the General Convention, that it is a great temptation to wander from my particular department and talk in generalities, but suffice it to say that the hospitality extended to us in Detroit by the Churches of all denominations, bore in itself a peculiar message and a real invitation to work together in the one great cause.

Apparently all the churches were given over to the Convention and the First Presbyterian Church was the meeting place of the Auxiliary. All work, through the week, was suspended that we might carry on, uninterruptedly, the business for which we were there.

Of our 101 Dioceses and Missionary Districts, 58 were represented by full delegations (five delegates), 34 were represented in part and only five domestic and four foreign branches had no one to answer the roll call. You were represented by Mrs. Graham, Norwich; Mrs. Linsley, Torrington; Miss Franklin, Hartford; Miss Kingsbury, Waterbury; Mrs. Acheson, Middletown.

Every woman present seemed conscious of her responsibility as a delegate. They were all there on the King's business and not in any sense for their own pleasure or benefit. The attendance at all meetings and conferences was remarkable.

Many things of importance came up for our consideration. The United Thank Offering, which told a wonderful story of the women of our Church everywhere. The Junior Department, which has always worked with the Woman's Auxiliary, has like the young bird tested its strength and determined to leave our sheltering care and become the Junior Auxiliary working in co-operation with the Church schools and under the name of the Church School League of Service. We will miss their youthful enthusiasm, but we cannot question the wisdom of the step.

Another important change is in the organization of the Woman's Auxiliary at the Church Missions House. Miss Emery was appointed General Secretary of the Woman's Auxiliary by the Board of Missions, and was alone responsible to the Board (there being no general committee representing the Diocesan branches). Miss Emery resigned and Miss Lindley was appointed to fill the unexpired term. That term expired this year and this is what happened:

Miss Lindley was elected to the office of Executive Secretary for a period of three years, by the delegates sent to the convention of the Woman's Auxiliary. There was also elected an Executive Committee of 16 women to work with the Executive Secretary. One woman from each of the eight provinces and eight from the Auxiliary at large.

This is quite a departure from the old way of doing things and places the responsibility upon the women of the Church. This change has become absolutely necessary, in order to handle properly the affairs of the Auxiliary between conventions.

All through the convention there were two persistent notes that seemed to permeate to dominate every thought. The Nation-Wide Campaign, which is the all absorbing question in every parish to-day and co-operation, which means to us the federation of all the work of the women and girls of our Church, a "Church League of Service."

What does that mean? It means that there are six national societies in the Church. The Woman's Auxiliary, Girls' Friendly Society, Daughters of the King, Guild of St. Barnabas, Church Mission of Help, Church Periodical Club. All seeing the same vision, all striving for the same end and using many methods to further the Kingdom. Each society well organized to carry on the mission for which it was created. Each one proud of its record of membership, of meetings, of money raised and of good accomplished and yet conscious, always conscious of opportunities lost and of tremendous limitations.

It may be that Miss Lindley, Miss Sibley, Mrs. McGill, Mrs. Leaf, Mrs. Pease, and Miss Thomas, representing the six national societies, sounded the key note of our need and showed us the first step to be taken in the right direction, when they stood together before the women of the Auxiliary and pleaded for co-operation—oh, such a plea—that we might all work together. “A federation not in any sense a merger.”

We need teamwork, we need to get together. We need more consecrated service, more unity of purpose.

We were asked to go back to our own Diocese, to ask our own Bishop to call together committees from every society in the Church and to formulate plans for the working out of this ideal.

We have come back to Connecticut and Bishop Brewster has asked that such committees be appointed to meet with him in a week or so, to consider together the best organization for Parish Archdeaconry and Diocese to bring together all work of the women and girls in the Church as one big organization, “A Church League of Service,” working through various committees—Woman's Auxiliary, Girls' Friendly Society, etc.

Such a plan would surely make us realize our responsibility to the work as a whole and not merely toward the particular society to which we claim membership. It may make us realize our opportunity to interest all women and girls not now taking part in the life of the parish and persuade them that the Church needs them quite as much as the Red Cross did.

I do believe that one reason there are so many women not actively interested in the Church's work is because there is not enough real responsibility entrusted to them to make them conscious that the very life of the Church is their inheritance and that its success or failure rests largely in their keeping.

The clergy should be our guides and leaders. Our spiritual pastors and masters, but the Church and her life belong to us all.

The war has taught us many things and this is one of them, that the women of our Church were weighed and not found wanting when called to the service of their country. What will be our answer to the call of our Church for a fuller and more consecrated giving of ourselves.

Let us not hold back the tremendous task that is before our Church, but dedicate ourselves to it knowing full well that it is indeed a very real part of God's great purpose.

ELEANOR G. ACHESON.

REPORT OF THE CORRESPONDING SECRETARY

At the close of another year we find ourselves about to start on quite a different plan for the carrying out of the Woman's Auxiliary work as detailed in the report of our President.

We also find we are no longer Auxiliary to the Board of Missions, which has ceased to exist, as such, but are the Woman's Auxiliary to the Presiding Bishop and Council of the Church.

Let us all apply ourselves to learn all we can about the changes in our methods due to the adoption of Canon 58, at the General Convention held in Detroit last October; and also do all we can to bring about greater results in our Missionary work.

The sum given through the different departments of the Auxiliary for the Diocesan Apportionment was $2,970.30; our pledges amounting to $3,400 were over-paid, and $2,751.18 was given to specials, with $450.66 for the Current Expense Fund, making a total in money for all objects (exclusive of the United Thank Offering) of $9,123.34. The boxes, numbering 221, were valued at $13,279.83, making the grand total of $22,853.83.

It is important to call attention to the fact that the United Thank Offering figures are not now to be found in the Arch-deaconry Tables, which accounts for a seeming falling off in the totals.

The Diocesan Thank Offering Treasurer has worked diligently and most successfully, with very gratifying results, as her report shows. The very material increase in Connecticut's share in this last tri-ennial offering is in a large measure due to the fact that we now have a special treasurer for this department, and very largely also to the personality and devotion of Miss Franklin.

A careful reading of the detailed reports of the United Thank Offering, the Comfort Club, and the Box Secretary, will be enlightening and valuable, as well as the reports from all the committees.

It is urged that branches as well as individuals study these well, and familiarize themselves with the work of this Connecticut Branch of the Woman's Auxiliary.

The Annual Report is compiled after much work on the part of the officers and managers, and is intended to be helpful when read and studied by the Church women of our Diocese.

Surely, if this suggestion is followed more work will be done. Then, too, many women who can take no active part in parish work can by this means keep themselves in touch with what is being accomplished and what it is desired to do.

There has been an unusually large number of changes in the Board. Of the resignations of Mrs. Binney and Miss Davis Bishop Brewster writes:

"In the annual report of the Woman's Auxiliary I trust there may be included some fitting reference to two ladies who have for many years been rendering conspicuous service. I am glad to have opportunity to express my own appreciation of the service they have rendered.

"Mrs. John Binney's long experience as a Manager of the Woman's Auxiliary, her wisdom in the conduct of that office, her wide interest in the missionary cause, her intelligent and intense earnestness have made her one who will be much missed in the councils and the work of the Auxiliary.

"Miss Sarah E. Davis, as Secretary and Treasurer of the Comfort Club, has been a remarkable officer. In the concentration of her thoughts and purposes upon this work, in the delicacy of her dealings and of her confidential correspondence, and in her unfailing interest, untiring labor, and indefatigable devotion she has made a unique record. It may be truly said she herself was the Comfort Club. She has done for the clergy and their homes more than can be adequately told in words."

Mrs. E. B. Bryant is the new Secretary and Treasurer of the Comfort Club, with Mrs. C. F. L. Smith as assistant. Mrs. G. N. Lawson is the new Secretary for Middlesex. Mrs. E. S. Ballard, after five years of most efficient service as treasurer, has been obliged to relinquish this office, and Mrs. William B. Douglas succeeds her as Treasurer.

Mrs. Douglas was, for some time, the Secretary of the Little Helpers, now a department of the Juniors. These are no longer under the jurisdiction of the Woman's Auxiliary.

Mrs. Harriman, a Manager since 1899, has resigned, and Mrs. Davenport, who has served since 1902, also goes off the Board.

It would be difficult to estimate sufficiently the services of these two most earnest managers whom we shall miss so greatly.

Miss Stoddard, of New London, who has served for three years, has resigned. It is expected that three new Managers, to fill these vacancies, will soon be elected.

Miss Barnum and Miss Turner, valued managers from Litchfield Archdeaconry, have resigned, and Mrs. J. Chauncey Linsley, of Torrington, and Mrs. Henry W. Norton, of Salisbury, fill the vacancies.

Another change is made by Mrs. Walter Schutz's withdrawal from the Board. She has been the Assistant Secretary in charge of the Box Work for five years, working with great eagerness and consecration. Her yearly reports have been full of interest.

Mrs. J. L. Goodwin has been appointed Box Secretary in her stead. A new departure is that information as to all boxes, including those of the Comfort Club, is now obtained from Mrs. Goodwin.

With so many resignations and changes in the Board it is not possible to give each retiring officer her due mead of appreciation. We are grateful for the consecrated service and accomplishment of every one, and welcome, cordially, their successors, while praying for still greater devotion and efficiency in the Master's service in the future.

Respectfully submitted,

ISABEL HOMER GRAHAM.

REPORT OF THE BOX SECRETARY

This report covers the period from November, 1918, to January 1, 1920, and is the work of two secretaries.

Between November, 1918, and May, 1919, seven family boxes were sent to missionaries, and fifteen Indian school girl outfits provided. One catechist suit was purchased with money sent by the various parishes. General boxes went to eight different schools and hospitals.

Last fall Mrs. Schutz felt obliged to give up her work as Assistant Secretary, much to everyone's regret, and a new Secretary was appointed. Another change which took place at the same time was the combining of all the box-work in the Diocese under one Secretary, so that now the lists of the Comfort Club's needs as well as the missionary box lists are sent out by your Assistant Secretary.

Since last October the parishes have undertaken to provide for ten missionary families, and five Indian girls, and miscellaneous boxes have gone, or will go before long, to ten different mission stations in the South and West and one as far away as China. In addition to this twelve family boxes were sent to the Comfort Club.

There has been a good deal of interest shown in the box-work this winter and some very fine boxes have been prepared.

Those who receive letters from the recipients know how much these boxes mean to those who are doing the Master's work in hard places.

Respectfully submitted,

DOROTHY W. GOODWIN,
Assistant Secretary.

REPORT OF THE UNITED THANK OFFERING TREASURER

A year has passed since your United Thank Offering Treasurer, for as such the Tri-ennial of 1919 has decreed she must hereafter be called, took up the work of her office.

She found a year ago a few parishes with separate United Offering treasurers, women who devoted the best of their time and ability to the dissemination of information on that subject, and to the regular collections of the funds placed in the "Blue" mite boxes or contributed through the United Offering envelopes.

She found many parishes where the office of United Offering Treasurer and Parish Treasurer of the Woman's Auxiliary were combined in one representative.

The sum total of funds in the Fidelity Trust Company in Hartford, the result of two years' contribution, was approximately $3,200.

It became immediately evident that if the sum of $8,893.60, what Connecticut gave in 1916, be equaled, some vigorous attempt must be made to bring it about.

Announcements were sent in March to all parish treasurers in regard to times of payment of funds to the newly appointed treasurer.

These were followed the latter part of May by a letter of appeal, and, during the first part of September by 300 statements, addressed to clergy and to parish treasurers, and telling as definitely as possible, the amount contributed by each parish at the Tri-ennial of 1916 and what had been contributed thus far toward that of 1919.

The Treasurer offered her services with or without the illustrated lantern-slide lecture, to the Diocese and, as a result, she has made 34 visits to parishes and archdeaconry meetings in which the lantern-slide lecture was used 12 times.

A card catalogue of the Diocese, with the contributions of the parishes for the past 23 years, has been in preparation during the past year. It is not yet fully completed but the Treasurer hopes to make it shortly an accurate and up-to-date record.

In the final reporting last year, various sums were unavoidably reported twice, once by the United Offering Treasurer and again by the managers, and, in a few cases, due to the long period of the 18 months' fiscal year, some escaped mention in the manager's reports.

Due credit will be given each parish on notifying the Treasurer.

At the close of the fiscal year, ending December 31, 1918, the Treasurer reported total deposits in the Fidelity Trust Company, Hartford, as $4,144.80. The amount reported should have been $4,279.58, as two parishes in the Hartford Archdeaconry, although credited for full amounts in the Archdeaconry table, did not appear by name or amount in the treasurer's report. The parishes were:

St. Andrew's, Hartford.....	$ 3.00
St. John's, Hartford.....	131.78
	$134.78
	4,144.80
	$4,279.58

The treasurer of the Board of Missions announced at the Tri-ennial mass-meeting, held the afternoon of October 9, 1919, that United Offering of 1919 was four lives offered for the Master's service and the sum of $464.495.16 in money.

Of this sum, Connecticut gave $12,487.22, including $64.75 from the Junior Department and $53.00 from the Little

Helpers; $130.13 came from the Church Missions House, where it had been sent some two years ago by some one who wished to have it credited to Connecticut and evidently did not know how else to do it!

The difference between the amounts contributed by the Diocese in 1916 and in 1919 to the Tri-ennial show a gain of $3,593.62. The Tri-ennial of 1916 noted that in every Diocese and missionary district there should be held on the same day as the United Offering of 1919 was presented a similar service.

It being impossible for many reasons for the Diocesan Treasurer to arrange for more than one service in the Diocese, it was decided to hold the one service on October 9th, in the Cathedral parish and notices of it were sent to parishes in the immediate neighborhood, the Hartford Archdeaconry. About 100 women attended and the sum of $40. was received in the offering that day.

A full itemized account of receipts and expenditures for the year is appended and careful scrutiny and comparison is invited.

The records indicate that in 1914, the year following the Tri-ennial of 1916, 53 parishes out of the 209 parishes and missions in the Diocese "forgot" the United Offering and gave nothing towards it. About one-half apparently decided that the effort they have made in 1916 excused them from any effort the following year. The reasoning is fallacious; the result proved most unsatisfactory and although many, most, "came to" during the second year of the Tri-ennial and really worked during the third year, with most gratifying results, it is a practice that must be combatted most vigorously by every official, diocesan, archdeaconry or parochial.

The United Thank Offering should be a "gift of continual," not of occasional, remembrance, a gift of substitution; and substitutes need support which calls for systematic giving. The work it does grows in importance every year; 237 workers were supported by it last year. Of these, six were in training and nine were on the retired list.

Of these, one had a salary of $500; one had a salary of $350; five had a salary of $400; one had a salary of $200. These amounts speak for themselves.

So keenly did the delegates at the past Tri-ennial feel that the church itself should pay "the living wage," that it was voted that hereafter every United Thank Offering worker should receive $1,000 a year salary, except where board and lodging are supplied, and that from the offering of 1922, 10% should be set aside as a trust fund, the interest to care for retired workers.

The amount of $10,000 was set aside for buildings and the remainder was to be turned over to the Board of Missions, or its successors, for the training, sending and support of women workers. The usual recommendations for prayers and gifts of lives and means followed.

For the coming year the Treasurer would ask for a close co-operation between parish officials and herself, a real effort to put first things first, an earnest endeavor to excite in every woman an intelligent and prayerful interest in the United Thank Offering, particularly the use of the new prayer authorized at the last Tri-ennial.

She would recommend a canvass of each parish, a card catalogue or list of names of every woman in it, "a reason why" for every woman, whether she does or does not contribute to the offering.

She commends, further, the semi-annual occasion when the United Thank Offering is made uppermost in the minds of the women, and, if the parish is a large one a committee to assist the United Thank Offering Treasurer.

Some day we hope to bring Connecticut up to its proper place in the list of dioceses, not only in the amount of money it gives, but in the contributions its women can make in prayer, lives and general helpfulness.

There have been during the past year the deaths of two most faithful women who had acted in the dual capacity of parish treasurer of the Woman's Auxiliary and of the United Offering, Mrs. Sarah T. Acton, of Grace Church, Saybrook, and Mrs. Harriette Millard, of St. James' Church, Winsted.

Let us all pray for a deeper understanding of the "Spirit of Service for Christ's sake;" then let us go to work and do "Whatsoever he tells us."

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON THE EDUCATION
OF THE DAUGHTERS OF THE CLERGY

Five scholarships of one hundred dollars ($100.00) each were assigned by your Committee to five daughters of Connecticut clergymen, for the school year of 1918-19.

As there were no other applications the remaining two hundred dollars ($200.00) was divided between the five scholars. This seemed best in view of the increased cost at all schools and colleges. These scholarships are assigned to girls living in small towns where there are no facilities for even high school education or to those who need help in a college course as a good education is absolutely necessary for girls who must support themselves when school days are over.

SARA B. HUNTINGTON,
EDITH BEACH.

REPORT OF THE EDUCATIONAL SECRETARY, 1919

Since our last report there have been 33 mission study classes, of which two were for leaders. From these classes we have 16 leaders working in the Junior Auxiliary, the Girls' Friendly Society and the Church School.

There have been 10 Program Meetings, and six Reading Circles.

Nine parishes have had a class the third successive year; 10 had one for the first time.

There has been much more individual and group reading of the text-book, reference books, the Spirit of Missions, and the use of the Church Prayer League. There have been many new subscribers to the Spirit of Missions.

The Educational Secretary addressed three Archdeaconry meetings and 25 meetings where 51 parishes were represented.

The increasing interest and response in the Girls' Friendly Society is very encouraging.

There is more response to the call to leadership.

There has been greater co-operation among the parish organizations.

A central committee has been formed in Hartford for more intensive work in that Archdeaconry. Miss Jennie Pratt, South Glastonbury, is Chairman. The Woman's Auxiliary Girls' Friendly Society, and Daughters of the King are represented. We hope that this Central Committee will ultimately include members from all parish organizations.

The policy during the year has been to sustain the effort already made; and to do as much aggressive work as was consistent with the number of leaders.

We are in great need of leaders.

There is a much keener realization of the need to know more about the Church and her work. Often there is an eagerness to study when the different methods are explained. This aroused interest frequently dies out for lack of one person who will carry it on.

This lays a definite responsibility upon us as individuals.

Your Educational Secretary is fully convinced that this need would be met far more generously if every one of us would take the trouble to know what the outline for the year's work is; what simple methods there are for carrying it out; the variety of interesting material, some of which may be had upon request; and, lastly, to tell others about it.

This year the Church calls us to study the Church's Mission to the Immigrant. The nation is training leaders and forming classes in Americanization. This is a matter which deeply concerns every true American citizen. But, to quote from our text-book, "no Democracy is ideal or safe until the life and action of every citizen is guided by and founded upon Christian faith and practice." It is a responsibility resting upon every Christian that these peoples become American Christian citizens. The American Church recognizes this responsibility and gives us our text-book "Neighbors."

It will not only repay us to read this book, but we may go farther and say that every one of us should avail ourselves of the opportunity.

There is an excellent outline for program meetings based upon the text-book. This outline with material may be had upon request.

Your Educational Secretary will gladly spend a day in your parish and lead an organization session of a mission study class; prepare a leader or bring to you help and material, and show you how you may use it.

Your Educational Secretary recommends that we seek greater co-operation with the Daughters of the King and the Girls' Friendly Society. Diocesan officers of these organizations are members of our Hartford Central Committee. They will welcome and assist us in our effort.

The Nation-wide Campaign is developing leaders in all departments of the Church's work. We should be alive to this fact and look now for leaders in the missionary educational work. Your Educational Secretary will be glad to have the names of any possible workers.

God calls us as never before to help others to know more about the Church's Mission, that they, too, may know the joy of sharing in that Mission.

The opportunity is here. The means are ours. Let us respond to the call.

Respectfully submitted,

MARY S. NICHOLS,

Educational Secretary.

REPORT OF THE CHURCH PERIODICAL CLUB DIOCESE OF CONNECTICUT

Report from January 1, 1919—January 1, 1920, through thirty-seven parishes.

Current periodicals sent regularly.....	585
Contributors of current periodicals.....	404
Bibles, testaments, etc.....	6
Books, theological and secular.....	131

Old magazines and papers.....	2,156
Xmas and Easter cards.....	580
Picture cards and calendars.....	2,256
Boxes .....	23

Boxes, barrels and magazines have been sent from Greenwich, Norwich and Ivoryton to Seamen's Institute, New York City; 80 school books have gone from Trinity Church, Hartford, to Liberia; boxes of games have been sent to France from the Church of the Good Shepherd, Hartford, and boxes and barrels have been forwarded from Greenwich to Base Hospital, Eagle Pass, Texas, and Trinity Mission, S. C. About 200 magazines have been distributed in Boys' School, Meriden, Gaylord Sanatorium, Wallingford, and Shelton Sanatorium, Shelton.

It is with great regret and sorrow that I am obliged to report the death of Miss Eliza W. Ely, of Meriden. Miss Ely was one of our most faithful members, ever ready to assist us in our work and happy when she could be of service. Mrs. Burton Collyer has been appointed librarian of St. Andrew's Church, in place of Miss Ely. Other changes are as follows:

Miss Gertrude Ingersol has succeeded Miss Isabel Pitt, at St. John's, Stamford; Mrs. Charles Smith, Mrs. R. E. Hart, Trinity Church, Bridgeport; Miss Alice Fenton, Miss Julia Goodwin, Lime Rock, and Miss Richards, Miss Louise Bowen, Christ Church, Ansonia.

The librarians and assistants who have been added to our list during the past year are:

Mrs. Charles Wiggins, Pomfret Centre; Mrs. Alice Stevenson, St. Luke's, South Glastonbury; Miss Marjorie Turner, Torrington; Miss Gertrude Reynolds, East Haddam.

Our special contributors are Mrs. Beathe, Trinity Church, New Haven, and Mrs. Knapp, South Norwalk.

REPORT OF THE CHURCH MISSIONS LENDING LIBRARY

The Church Missions Lending Library was established several years ago for the purpose of assisting members of Missions. Study classes, in small communities at a distance from public libraries, to obtain the use of such books as they desired to study, without charge except for the return postage. With this end in view, books were carefully selected bearing upon all parts of our Mission field, and in order to make it possible to obtain a comprehensive view, other books covering the work of the entire Anglican communion, were added to the Library. It has been found that these books have supplied a long felt need, and certain classes of the books therein contained have been in regular demand.

But the Mission study classes make demands upon its members which many people are unable to meet. Particularly is this true of our women communicants, so many of whom are in charge of households, and who find it impossible to set aside daily hours for study. Yet many of these are keenly interested in missions, and would be glad to know more concerning their inception and progress. Your Board of Managers feel that this Missionary Lending Library can accomplish a much needed work in the direction of supplying Reading Clubs with books suitable for detailed study and discussion, and would be glad to have it utilized for such purposes.

There are fields of missionary activity in which our Church does little or nothing. On the East Coast of Africa and in the neighboring interior we have no missions. But the Church of England has long been actively and aggressively at work in this region, and the story of her endeavors, as given in the History of the Universities' Mission and the long list of lives of her martyr Bishops, martyrs in will or deed, and sometimes in both will and deed, is interesting in the extreme. The story of Uganda, too, is a veritable missionary romance, and Bishop Selwyn's work among the islands of Melanesia makes one realize how by faith men work miracles.

All these books and many more, of the highest interest and value, are in the Missionary Lending Library, and may be obtained by addressing the Librarian, at Trinity Parish House, New Haven. It is earnestly hoped by your managers that these books may be utilized, but as there are, in many cases, but one copy of each book, it is suggested that those interested should write to the Librarian that they may know what books await their disposal.

By order of the

BOARD OF MANAGERS.

TWENTY-SEVENTH ANNUAL REPORT OF THE COMFORT CLUB OF THE CONNECTICUT
BRANCH OF THE WOMAN'S AUXILIARY,
JANUARY 1, 1919, TO JANUARY 1, 1920

Owing to a severe illness last May, Miss Davis felt obliged to give up her much loved work in the Auxiliary, to the universal regret of all who knew the Comfort Club and of the members of the Board of Managers of which she was a charter member. She has always given to the work most untiring and devoted service, which is almost too well-known to need comment but should be recorded here. Whatever degree of success has been attained is largely due to her tact and loving sympathy. Begun in her own home in Trumbull Street, in a small way, in 1890, it has grown, under her loving administration, to large proportions, and has proved truly a comfort to many, not alone to the recipients but to those as well whose interest and work has kept the store-room shelves supplied.

It is a cause for great thankfulness that she is still able to further the work with her sympathy and counsel.

There has been received during the past year, $1,599.66, which with the balance on hand, January 1, 1919, of $350.38, makes a total of $1,950.04.

The boxes received for Diocesan and Domestic purposes were valued $6,353.83. Value of boxes sent into the Diocese, $3,954.60, for Domestic Missions, $250.00, making a total of $4,204.60.

At the annual meeting, held in Hartford last November, a very generous pledge offering of $612.00 was made, thereby enabling the Club to meet many demands upon its resources which would otherwise, of necessity, have been unanswered.

At Christmas time a large number of gifts were sent, attractively done up, ready for distribution. These were very much appreciated and added greatly to the winter boxes.

It is earnestly hoped that the parishes will further the work of the Club by assisting in the preparation of the spring and summer boxes, which should be ready by Easter if possible.

When boxes and parcels of clothing are sent, it is very important that a complete list of the articles be placed in the box, giving a conservative total value, and the name of the secretary or individual sending it. At the same time the Secretary of the Comfort Club should be notified by a letter addressed to her residence.

All boxes and parcels should be addressed Comfort Club, Colt Memorial House, Wyllys Street, Hartford, Conn. Not to the residence of the Secretary.

MRS. EDWARD B. BRYANT, Secretary and Treasurer,
30 Farmington Avenue.

MRS. C. F. L. SMITH, Assistant Secretary.

REPORT OF THE CHURCH MISSIONS PUBLISHING COMPANY

Since our last report was printed our most important publications have been, "The Beginnings of the Historic Episcopate," by the late Prof. J. H. Barbour, D. D., edited and introduced by the Rev. Lucius Waterman, D. D. The joint Handbook of the Company and of The American Society of Church Literature, and several editions of "Observation Trips to the Church's Outposts"—the last, issued in the fall, revised and considerably enlarged, now includes a new trip to "our Foreign Mission Field at Home," which has, also, been issued by itself for the benefit of those who are using the earlier edition. We are now re-issuing the smaller pamphlets, "Outlines for Conferences on the Bible," and for "Four Meetings on Prayer," which have run through a large edition and, as they are for devotional study, are especially fitted for the use of Lenten classes.

Among the smaller publications are several plays for the use of the Juniors and "A Hero of Minnesota," a tribute to Archdeacon Gilfillan, and a number of reprints of old numbers.

As a summary of the Company's work from its beginning and a survey of its outlook has been printed in the "Handbook," of which copies have been widely distributed, it seems unnecessary to add anything further to this report, except to reiterate our old statement that we see an opportunity to do still better and more useful work in the future, but our ability to seize this opportunity will depend largely, as it has always done, on your generous support and encouraging desire to use and disseminate the material issued by the Company.

The board of editors feels more than repaid for all its labors, when it receives as it has recently an encouraging message, such as the following, added to an order for a generous amount of material for the use of a parish study class, "Thank you so much for the many, many helps that the Company has furnished us." Some of those helps could not have been supplied if the one hundred dollars given annually by the Connecticut Branch of the Women's Auxiliary had not added its assistance to the Company's small income.

Respectfully submitted,

MARY E. BEACH,
Representative for the C. M. P. C.

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON A DAY OF
UNITED PRAYER FOR MISSIONS, 1919

Your committee sent cards as usual to the clergy of the Diocese and officers of the Woman's Auxiliary, suggesting that prayers and intercession be made on the feast of St. Michael and All Angels, for all Missions and Missionaries at home and abroad.

Respectfully submitted,

SARA B. HUNTINGTON,
CORA E. HARRIMAN.

ARCHDEACONRY TABLES

N. B.—It should be taken into account that for the first time the totals of the United Thank Offering do not appear in the Archdeaconry Tables.

OF THE
JUNIOR DEPARTMENT
OF THE
CONNECTICUT BRANCH
OF THE
WOMAN'S AUXILIARY
TO THE
BOARD OF MISSIONS

Collects

FOR THE USE OF THE MEMBERS OF THE JUNIOR DEPARTMENT

ALMIGHTY FATHER, Who hast promised in Thy Holy Word that they who early seek Thee, shall surely find Thee, we pray Thee send down upon us, Thy children, Thy Holy Spirit, that we may choose and love Thy way, and be kept ever in purity and peace. Give us some work to do for Thee, and draw us to follow every holy call, till we come to the likeness of our Master and our Lord. Grant this, we beseech Thee, for the sake of Thy Son our Saviour Jesus Christ. Amen.

HEAVENLY FATHER we pray Thee to bless us and all members of the Junior Auxiliary, with wisdom, zeal and constancy, in our work for Thee. Prosper the missions of Thy Holy Church; and strengthen with Thy Holy Spirit all who are engaged in mission work; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

JUNIOR DEPARTMENT OF THE CONNECTICUT
BRANCH OF THE WOMAN'S AUXILIARY,
30TH ANNUAL REPORT

Chairman

MISS SOPHIA G. PALMER, 171 Sigourney Street, Hartford

Report of the Chairman

For the first time in three years it is possible to report Junior Managers in all six of the Archdeaconries in the Diocese.

We all regretted very much to have Miss Loomis taken from the Junior Department, but we know that she will give the same splendid service as Manager of the Woman's Auxiliary that she gave as Junior Manager for Hartford Archdeaconry.

The new manager for Fairfield Archdeaconry is Mrs. George C. Thomas, of Bridgeport, and for Litchfield, Miss Fanny E. Davis, of Washington.

New Haven Archdeaconry reports two new branches. New London one, Fairfield one, Middlesex one, and several branches showing renewed interest.

Many Junior leaders have attended Mission Study Classes. Two branches report mission plays.

Middlesex reports one leaders' meeting and exhibition of Junior work with about sixty Juniors and leaders present.

Hartford Archdeaconry has had an exhibition of Junior work with leaders and members of nine branches present.

At the Tri-ennial in 1916 a plan was proposed for the Junior Auxiliary that was to be experimental until 1919. The plan was to do all the children's missionary work through the Sunday School.

The plan has been tried and at Detroit the following resolutions were passed:

(1) The Junior Department of the Woman's Auxiliary shall be separated from the organization of the Woman's Auxiliary.

(2) The Junior Department shall be the Junior Auxiliary to the executive committee of the church.

(3) That the Diocesan officers of the Junior Department of the Woman's Auxiliary shall cease to be the Diocesan officers of the Junior Department and shall become the Diocesan officers of the Junior Auxiliary of the executive committee of the church, except that one Junior officer in each Diocese or missionary district shall be retained as a member of the Woman's Auxiliary board, in order to keep the Woman's Auxiliary in touch with the work of Auxiliary, and one member of the Woman's Auxiliary shall sit upon the board of the Junior Auxiliary.

(4) That it shall be the purpose of the officers of the Junior Auxiliary to merge that organization as speedily as possible into the Church School Service League, conducted under a national central committee and a Diocesan central committee.

The acceptance of these resolutions separated the Junior Auxiliary from the Woman's Auxiliary. Its work will now be brought more closely in touch with the Church School Service League and will result in the inclusion of all young people within its ranks.

I speak for all the members of the Junior Department in expressing our regret that we will no longer be members of the board of the Woman's Auxiliary and with many thanks for the sympathy and encouragement that we have received in the past.

Respectfully submitted,

SOPHIA G. PALMER,

TWENTY-SIXTH ANNUAL REPORT OF THE LITTLE
HELPERS OF CONNECTICUT, 1919

"Little children, love one another."

Owing to the interest awakened in the Woman's Auxiliary throughout the Diocese, six new branches have been added to the Little Helpers' department this last year, and the Secretaries have taken up their work with an enthusiasm which is most encouraging.

The largest of the new branches is at St. Paul's, New Haven, with over one hundred members from whom we shall hope for a large offering another year.

A branch has been started at Christ Church, Hartford; one at the Church of Our Saviour, Plainville; one at St. Andrew's, Meriden; one at St. Mark's, Mystic, and one at St. Paul's, Willimantic.

I would like to mention, especially, a very wonderful branch which was established at St. Mark's, New Britain, only three years ago, and which sent this year an offering of $70.00, the largest amount ever received from a Little Helpers' branch.

The offerings from all the branches amount to $295.44 ($36.07 more than last year).

Respectfully submitted,

SARAH E. DOUGLAS,

Secretary of the Little Helpers of Connecticut
 MRS. WILLIAM T. HOOPER, 196 Fern Street, Hartford
