THE WOMAN'S AUXILIARY PRAYER FOR MISSIONS

ALMIGHTY GOD, our Heavenly Father, bless, we pray Thee, our work for the extension of Thy Kingdom, and make us so thankful for the precious gift to us of Thy beloved Son, that we may pray fervently, labour diligently and give liberally to make Him known to all nations as their Saviour and their King; through the same Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

THE PRAYER FOR THE UNITED THANK OFFERING

OLORD, our Heavenly Father, we pray Thee to send forth more labourers into Thy harvest, and to grant them Thy special grace for every need. Guard and guide the workers in the field, and draw us into closer fellowship with them. Dispose the hearts of all women everywhere to give gladly as Thou hast given to them. Accept, from grateful hearts, our United Thank Offering of prayer and gifts and joyful service; and bless it to the coming of Thy Kingdom, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

RELIGIOUS EDUCATION

OGOD, who hast sent Thy beloved Son to be unto us the way, the truth and the life, grant that we, looking unto Him may set forward the teaching power of Thy Church, to the nurture of Thy children, the increase of Thy Kingdom and the glory of Thy Son, Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

A PRAYER OF DEDICATION

OGOD, our Father, we dedicate ourselves anew to Thee and Thy service. Put into the heart of each of us such a love of Thee that we may truly love our neighbors as ourselves—a love that leaps the boundaries of race or color or creed or kind, that knows no distinction of class, that reaches out a saving hand even unto the least of these our brethren. Fill our lives with the single motive of service, and use us Lord, use us as Thou wilt, and when and where; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

A PRAYER FOR SERVICE

T EACH US, good Lord, to serve Thee as Thou deservest; to give and not to count the cost; to fight and not to heed the wounds; to toil and not to seek for rest; to labour and not to ask for any reward, save that of knowing that we do Thy will. Through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

FOR GOD'S CONTINUOUS SUPPORT

O LORD, support us all the day long of this troublous life, until the shadows lengthen, and the evening comes, and the busy world is hushed, and the fever of life is over, and our work is done. Then, in Thy mercy, grant us a safe lodging, and a holy rest, and peace at the last, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

A PRAYER FOR THE PARISH

O LORD Jesus Christ, Who hast promised Thy presence and power to all who obey Thy command to tell the nations of Thy love, bless we pray Thee our efforts to strengthen and extend the work of our parish. To all who shall take any part in our plans give wisdom and zeal. Bind our people in a closer fellowship. If any have grown careless, help us lead them back to Thy House that their love for Thee may be renewed. Teach us to pray, labor and give more faithfully for the extension of Thy Kingdom among men. Of Thy mercy we ask this, O Blessed Saviour of the world, Who livest and reignest with the Father and the Holy Ghost, ever, one God, world without end. Amen.

CLOSING PRAYER

O GOD, OUR Father, have regard to our prayers, answer them according to Thy will, and make us the channels of Thine infinite love and helpfulness, through Jesus Christ our Lord.

Amen.

A MESSAGE FROM THE RETIRING PRESIDENT

At the close of a term of office, it is natural to look back and reflect upon all that has happened during that period. This very thing has been going on in my mind in connection with the twelve very happy years that I have been permitted to work, as President, with the Connecticut Branch of the Woman's Auxiliary.

I am thankful that God granted to me the great privilege of helping to guide the work, through the several changes of policy and organization which our day and generation made necessary, to the place of larger usefulness it has in the Church to-day. Every department is better equipped to carry on the Master's work, and as we look back we can indeed be thankful for each year has, I believe, been a step forward in His service.

This is due, under God's guidance, to the faithful work of the splendid body of women in the Diocese, in the small places and in the large places alike. Everywhere there are loyal, consecrated women devoted to the Church and her work, always willing and ready to co-operate in any undertaking that is put before them. It is indeed a great privilege to know and work with the women of this Diocese. So long as I live I shall feel the warmth of the kindliness, the friendship and the affection that have so unreservedly been showered upon me in every place.

In times past I have said that the personnel of the Diocesan Board of the Woman's Auxiliary could not be surpassed. I now reiterate that statement, and I know whereof I speak. For twelve years they have worked hand in hand with me. There have been many perplexing things to think out and work out, and many difficulties to face, yet never once have I known a single member of the board to fail to do more and better work than was expected of her. I am proud to have been the chairman of such a board, and truly grateful that I am still to be a member of it, because it would well nigh have broken my heart to sever the connection. May I here thank, again, every member for all the kindness, thoughtfulness and patience that I have enjoyed?

The wonderful "Resolutions" presented to me at the Annual Meeting—a copy of which came to me at Christmas time, so beautifully executed and so daintily framed that it is a joy to look at—gives me a great deal to think about. I never read a more beautiful tribute in my life, and I am proud that your committee thought me worthy of it; but alas, in my heart I know myself better than that, and so a conflict goes on. This I do know, too, that it will be my constant prayer and my earnest purpose that I may day by day become more worthy of such confidence. With all my heart I say thank you.

To my successor in office I express the confidence that the same kindness, loyalty and untiring willingness to help, that have made the work so happy and possible for me during the past twelve years, will be given to her.

With Miss Loomis as our leader, with our eyes wide open to a new vision of our Church and her world-wide mission, and with the certainty of the loving guidance of Almighty God, let us go on and on and on.

ELEANOR G. ACHESON.

FROM THE PRESIDENT

The past year has marked progress in several ways. To note only gifts, the money contributed through the White Envelopes for the budget is $430.04 in excess of the preceding year. The United Thank Offering is $10,561.08 as against $7,545.63 three years ago. Thus we are well started toward our goal for the Triennial. Both these increases must be due to an increased number of givers, as well as larger gifts from those already interested. More women interested and working should be our aim.

The present year marks our fiftieth anniversary, and in preparation for that celebration we have set Wednesday, November 5th as the date of the Annual Meeting; and we have been fortunate in securing the new Bushnell Memorial in Hartford for the meeting. There were over seven hundred women at our last Annual Meeting in New Haven. I hope there will be not less than one thousand to celebrate our Semi Centennial.

JENNIE LOOMIS,

President.

MINUTES OF THE ANNUAL MEETING, 1929

The Forty-ninth Annual Meeting of the Connecticut Branch of the Woman's Auxiliary to the National Council opened at 9:15 A. M., with the service of Holy Communion, in Trinity Church, New Haven, on Thursday, November 7th, 1929. Bishop Acheson was celebrant, and was assisted by Reverend Charles O. Scoville, D. D., the Rev. H. W. Perkins of Trinity Church, and the Rev. Mr. Rogers of All Saints' Church. There were approximately sixty-five present. The offering was $15.

The business meeting took place in the Parish House on Wall Street, and was called to order by Mrs. Acheson, the President, at 10:35 A. M. Bishop Acheson offered prayer. The Secretary's report, approved and printed in the Annual Report, was omitted. Mrs. Douglas gave the Treasurer's report, calling attention to the need for $2,517.99 from the white envelopes before the end of the year. Upon Miss Nettleton's motion it was voted that this report be accepted.

Departmental reports were given as follows: Corresponding Secretary, Mrs. Plumb; Educational Secretary, Deaconess Peet; Supply Department and Comfort Club, Mrs. Bryant, who submitted the former in the absence of Mrs. Goodwin; Scholarships for Daughters of the Clergy, Mrs. Biddle, a splendid report, which elicited considerable applause; Missionary Lending Library, Miss Edith Beach; Church Periodical Club, Miss Katharine Matthies, who answered numerous queries in regard to the old Prayer Books and their use by a reply received that morning from headquarters. The Presiding Bishop had declared the new book the only one to be used, the old one to be relegated to the rear. Miss Matthies suggested that these latter be turned over to the Church Periodical Club to be sold for old paper. Mrs. Biddle again won applause for a most interesting report of the Prayer Partnership Plan. Miss Nettleton, Assistant Treasurer of the United Thank Offering, brought word of a very encouraging start for the next triennium. It was voted to accept all these reports.

Miss Loomis presented the recommendations of the Finance Committee, and on the part of the Board, moved their adoption as a whole. Her motion was seconded and they were thus accepted. She next offered the budget for 1930, of $9,650, with $1,650 to come from invested funds, and $8,000 from the white envelopes. The increase of $150 over last year's budget was due to an additional amount to be given to Scholarships for Daughters of the Clergy. Miss Loomis moved the adoption of the budget. It was seconded and carried.

The Morning Pledge was called, and the President stated that the total would be announced in the afternoon.

Noonday prayers were offered by Dr. Scovill.

An invitation was given to hold the next Annual Meeting in Christ Church, Ansonia. As 1930 will mark the fiftieth anniversary of the Connecticut Branch of the Woman's Auxiliary, and Bishop Acheson, in his own behalf and that of the clergy of Hartford, invited the organization to meet in the Cathedral—a more easily accessible center for all—the former invitation was extended to 1931.

Mrs. Acheson here stated that she had recently learned that Miss Edith Beach had been present at every Board and Annual Meeting since the first one, that she had been in the country. Bishop Acheson escorted Miss Beach to the platform to receive the applause of those present.

Interesting accounts of the Wellesley Conference were then given. Miss Frances Barney, of New Haven, mentioned the reasons why people should be urged to go; namely, people of all ages from all departments of Church work gather there; one has constant contact with missionaries, and great opportunity is given for study of those things helpful in all phases of Church work. She also told how it was possible for people to go—through the medium of special individual gifts, or through parishes sending a delegate from each organization. She stated that this gathering was a spiritual dynamic for all.

Miss Mary Louise Pardee, the Board member delegate, said that her account was somewhat of a business one, approached from the physical, mental, and spiritual sides. She spoke of the course on Personal Evangelism as being the one most crowded, and gave telling pictures of the Communion and Sunset Services, as well as the "experience meeting" with which the Conference closed.

The President expressed her hope that every office in every Archdeaconry might be filled by the fiftieth anniversary. The report of the Church Missions Publishing Company was then presented by Miss Mary Beach.

After ballots had been distributed to the voting delegates, Miss Clara Cole of Hartford, chairman, reported for the Nominating Committee. Mrs. Acheson requested that the Bishop take the chair for action on this report. It was voted that the Secretary cast one ballot for the slate as offered, and the following were declared elected: President, Miss Jennie Loomis; Vice-President, Mrs. E. C. Acheson; Vice-President, Miss Katharine A. Nettleton; Secretary, Miss Louise Noble; Corresponding Secretary, Miss Bessie L. Franklin; Treasurer, Mrs. W. B. Douglas; U.

T. O. Treasurer, Miss Katharine A. Nettleton; Supply Secretary, Mrs. J. L. Goodwin; Comfort Club Secretary, Mrs. E. B. Bryant; Church Periodical Club Secretary, Miss Katharine Matthies. Bishop Acheson introduced the incoming President, who was greeted by all rising, and who graciously acknowledged the tribute.

The Secretary then read resolutions presented on the resignation of Mrs. Acheson, which were accepted by a rising vote.

The meeting adjourned for lunch at 1 P. M.

Roll call in the Church at 2:20 P. M. showed 663 women, 53 rectors, and the Bishop present, a total of 717. The Morning Pledge was announced as $2,149.

The Missionary Meeting began at 2:30 P. M. Mrs. Harper Sibley, of Rochester, N. Y., who was the special speaker, chose as her topic, "Personal Glimpses of the Jerusalem Conference." This conference, held in March, 1928, brought together 250 representatives of fifty-one nations, among whom were fifty women, and half of whom were from the younger churches. They discussed the Church's mission and considered religious problems common to all countries. Mrs. Sibley's description of outstanding people of the various groups and her illustrative stories were of deep interest. She concluded her talk with a very lovely picture of the final week of the conference—Holy Week—and showed how much more significant all the events of that period became when observed in the actual places where they had occurred.

The offering at this service, to go to the Diocesan Quota of 1929, was $296.87.

Respectfully submitted,

LOUISE H. NOBLE,

Recording Secretary.

Resolutions Passed on the Resignation of Mrs. Acheson

Whereas, Mrs. Edward Campion Acheson, our President for the past twelve years, has felt it necessary, because of increasing responsibilities, to decline re-election to the office of President of the Woman's Auxiliary of the Diocese of Connecticut

Be it Resolved, That:

We, the officers and members of said Auxiliary in Annual Meeting assembled, here bear testimony of our high appreciation of the splendid and inspiring leadership of our retiring President.

The steady growth of the Woman's Auxiliary throughout the Diocese during her tenure of office proclaims her unusual executive ability, enhanced by a personal charm that has endeared her to us all. We assure her of our love and devotion, and are happy in the thought that as one of our officers we shall continue to share her invaluable counsel and inspiration.

To her we are deeply grateful for the vision which has led us on and upward in ever increasing service of our Lord and Master for the extension of His Kingdom, and we are grateful to the loving Father of us all for His gift to us of her leadership.

And be it further resolved, that these resolutions be spread upon the minutes, and a copy be presented to Mrs. Acheson.

ANNE WALTON JOHNSON

MARIE McLEAN ZACHER

LOUISE HOWARD NOBLE, Chr.

REPORT OF THE CORRESPONDING SECRETARY

You will notice in this report many changes in the Board of Managers and in the Archdeaconry Committees—the triennial election of officers taking place at the Annual Meeting in New Haven November 7th, 1929. For the year 1929 six thousand sets of white envelopes (the same number as for 1928) were purchased, and all but 150 sets were distributed by the Archdeaconry secretaries. We hope every set will be used this year.

Early in January the material for the Annual Report was collected, arranged and sent to the President, who completed it and put it in the hands of the printer. It was ready for distribution the middle of February, and in accordance with the vote at the Annual Meeting, copies were again sent to the Archdeaconry secretaries for distribution to all contributors through the white envelopes. Two hundred and fifty copies were sent by the Secretary to the clergy, board members, and other individuals.

The Secretary has attended to the necessary correspondence and during the year has sent out three hundred blanks, six receipt books, eighteen copies of the Constitution and By-laws, and the notices of the Annual Meeting.

Respectfully submitted,

ANNIE G. PLUMB,

Corresponding Secretary.

RELIGIOUS EDUCATION

The Educational Secretary has continued the plan of personal visits by invitation to the individual Woman's Auxiliary or Guild-Auxiliary branches throughout the various Archdeaconries of the Diocese. In many instances several parish branches have united in inviting other parishes to attend the meeting. Such meetings have been of valuable assistance in furnishing the opportunity to present the Mission Study subject and suggestions for program and discussion material. Correspondence has also been carried on with parishes where a visit was not practicable.

The Mission Study program for 1928-29 presented "The New Africa" and "Liberia," stressing the work of the American Church in the latter field. A list of text-books, supplementary reading, outlines for discussion groups and program meetings, with a personal letter, was sent to every parish which was listed as having a Woman's Auxiliary branch or a Guild-Auxiliary.

This department is deeply indebted to the Church Missions Publishing Company for its unfailing co-operation in the extension of the work by continuing to provide a central Diocesan source of supplies for the Mission Study program; and the facilities of a Lending Library, from which books have been (and are) available at the simple cost of postage to destination and return.

Conferences are always outstanding events of the Church year in the Diocese. The Connecticut Branch of the Woman's Auxiliary this year repeated its practice of setting apart a Scholarship Fund for representative leaders, chosen from their respective parishes by their rectors, to attend a Summer Conference. Eleven of the young people selected attended the Conference for Young People (Diocesan) at St. Margaret's School, Waterbury, Conn., and one, the Provincial Conference at St. Paul's School, Concord, N. H. The list included representatives of parishes in each Archdeaconry of the Diocese.

The Diocesan attendance of forty-six delegates at the Wellesley Conference exceeded that of any previous year. We earnestly hope that our church people, in planning their summer trips, will add this Conference as "one of the things not to be missed." Spiritual uplift, rich leadership, natural beauty of environment, the "Wellesley spirit"—all these, and more, are there to win leaders for the service the Church's field presents.

The Annual Report forms sent to the branches have come back in larger numbers this year. Some initiative steps in rural work are noted. Visits made and some home study encouraged. A new Bible class is a very hopeful sign in a new branch. A reorganized branch has taken up the study program with much zest and the other departments of the Auxiliary program. Of course, the program meetings with speakers on missionary topics, reading circles, and discussion groups, with growing co-operation with the Church School, Girls' Friendly, and kindred organizations in the home parish, are all phases of the year's report.

As we face the coming year we will not forget that the Woman's Auxiliary is founded on Prayer. Let us make Prayer the beginning and the end of every program which we undertake as we follow "Roads to the City of God" and gain a vision of the "World Mission of Christianity" as the months of the year pass on their way.

Respectfully submitted,

MARGARET S. PEET,

Educational Secretary

REPORT OF THE PRAYER PARTNERSHIP PLAN

The Prayer Partnership has been rich in interest the past year. The life of any one woman, no matter how uneventful, is well worth consideration, but how much more interesting is that of a dozen or more earnest, cultivated and consecrated women missionaries! I wish there was time to tell the story of every one of ours, but I may speak briefly of only a few.

One Sunday afternoon last summer my doorbell rang. Two ladies came in, one a very active associate in the Woman's Auxiliary, the other a beautiful stranger who smiled knowingly upon me, then said "Miss Barr." It was our dear Miss Barr, missionary in China, home on her furlough. You may be sure she had a warm welcome, as if she were my own loved daughter. She was on her way to China, having had a delightful visit at her Alma Mater, the Philadelphia Training School. The old missionary who had led her to offer herself to China was there to inspire her afresh. Now she knows by experience that bringing benighted Chinese women into the light of Christianity is the sweetest and most satisfying way of spending her strength and life. The glory of it deepens as she works. She told me about her work at St. Hilda's, of her social service labor in Wuchang, of fleeing for her life to Shanghai when the Nationalist Army took possession of Wuchang, of filling in the gaps while at Shanghai, of going to the Philippines at the S. O. S. call of Bishop Mosher. Then of her delightful rest at home. She is now at the head of St. Luke's Training School for Nurses, Manila. You will be glad to hear that she is the much-loved missionary of both the Woman's Auxiliary and the Girls' Friendly Society, in St. Mark's, New Britain. They invited in her other missionary partners, and gave her the opportunity at a special meeting of telling the story of her work. Just to look into the face of this charming, versatile, broad-minded woman was an inspiration. It seems to me that the union of all the societies in a parish in devotion to one missionary would be a source of power and unity. There is no good reason why young and old should hold aloof from one another in such a great enterprise.

Another missionary, Miss Anne Lamberton, has been home this summer. Through China's terrible troubles she stayed at her post, as the efficient secretary of both the Hospital Council and the Administrative Staff of St. Luke's Hospital, Shanghai, and has also been a teacher in the Training School for Nurses. Like Miss Barr, she has gone back joyfully to her work, and being a woman like ourselves, needs our prayers to encourage and strengthen her.

Before we leave China, we all remember Miss Ellen Jarvis, who was born and bred in a Connecticut rectory. She has served in various places in China and later in the Philippines, for several years. When many of the older missionaries fled to Shanghai for their lives, she attempted to sail for home; but was intercepted by Bishop Mosher, who was in great need of assistance. So she has been helping Deaconess Shaw at Bontoc, putting in long hours of service. All this at her own charges. Could there be a more complete offering of life to the Master's service?

We must not pass Japan by without speaking of lovely young Miss Boyle, who is there learning the very difficult language and getting acquainted with the people, laying the foundation of faithful missionary service.

We grieved much when winsome Maryland Nichols was snatched away by that fearful African fever. Her mother gave her joyfully to Liberia, for she herself wanted to go there before her marriage. Although we have been working in Liberia for many years, we have made only a good beginning. Now we have the opportunity to reap results. The way into the Hinterland has been successfully opened. Another young woman, Miss Meacham, has gone bravely to take up Miss Nichols' work in the House of Bethany, Cape Mount. It takes three months to exchange letters with that far-away place, but we must keep her constantly in our prayers. In loneliness, in a strange country, among a peculiar people, she needs Divine comfort.

But we must not linger in the foreign field, fascinating as it is. We must turn to our missionaries in the homeland. We have two in Alaska. It is a big leap from Tropical Africa to icebound Alaska, but Mrs. Molineaux has been at St. Peter's by the Sea, Sitka, for many years, laboring for the most part alone. She has charge of the week-day school as well as the Church School, the Sunday services, the funerals, and the confirmation classes, and her own home. We women consider the last a big job if it is well done. How much more is she doing! How happy she is when a priest comes to administer the Holy Communion! The brave, unwearied, veteran missionary! God bless her.

And Miss Helen Lambert, another Connecticut girl away up above the Arctic circle, has grown very dear to us. It grieved us sorely when the lamp exploded and burned her severely. Bishop Rowe quickly came to her rescue and she is now at home on furlough, not only for rest, but for more training in surgery. A nurse in far-away Allakaket must be ready for all sorts of emergencies. She has proved herself most capable, and will always count her Alaskan experiences as a great joy.

Miss Ella Pier, of Bear Mountain, West Virginia, writes to Mrs. Everest, her Prayer Partnership correspondent for St. Michael's, Naugatuck, "With grateful affection for all you have been in my life here since we knew each other." It is the simple expression of the sweetest friendship which has grown with the years. Miss Pier, away up in the mountains, needs Mrs. Everest and the faithful women around her, and they need Miss Pier. So it will be wherever the Prayer Partnership lives up to its privileges.

Oh, that there were time to speak of the wonderful work of Mrs. Hunt in connection with the Fort Valley School, Georgia. It is so sensible and far-reaching, really developing high Christian character, as well as business ability. It seems to me, if our wealthy church people understood the value of our schools for the colored people, they would pour their big gifts into them instead of into richly endowed denominational schools.

But I must stop. I cannot tell you about your other partners. Time is too short. They are a blessed company that should have our affection and loyal support. The Prayer Partnership is not asking for financial offerings, however. That is not its province. But we believe it will increase our faith in God's love for the world, and will arouse such a deep sense of our responsibility as workers with Him that we will pour out our treasures into our depleted missionary treasury, and that in the years to come there will be no necessity for stringent assessments to teach us our duty. We will make the necessary sacrifices for the sake of Him who called us to the blessed work of extending His Kingdom.

Respectfully submitted,

ANNA L. BIDDLE.

REPORT OF THE SUPPLY DEPARTMENT

During 1929 this Diocese sent boxes to so many different places that I will ask you to fix your mind's eye on a map of the world while reading this report, in order to picture to yourself the scope of the work.

Personal boxes have been sent to nineteen clergymen in seventeen different states, stretching from Maryland to Oklahoma and from Washington to Porto Rico. Fifteen women missionaries, all over the world, in this country, Alaska, Porto Rico, Honolulu, Liberia, China, and Japan, received Christmas gifts. The seventeen missions, schools and hospitals which were assigned to us for the winter of 1928-29 were as follows:

Five were in the mountains of Virginia—the Blue Ridge Industrial School at Dyke; Simmons' Gap at Beldor; Boys' Home, Inc., at Covington; and Tanner's Ridge and St. George's Mission, both at Stanley. In North Carolina we sent to St. Francis' Mission at Rutherfordton, and in Tennessee, the Emerald-Hodgson Hospital at Sewanee. Going west, we sent a few things to Taylor Hall, Racine, Wis.; the Hare Industrial School, Mission, S. D.; Rowland Hall, Salt Lake City, Utah; and St. Augustine's Mission, Fort Smith, Ark.; and large shipments to Christ Hospital, Topeka, Kansas; St. Andrew's Mission, Pine Bluff, Ark.; and St. Philip's Normal and Industrial School, San Antonio, Texas.

Now if you will let your minds take a three-stop flight around the world, you may picture the boxes arriving at St. Luke's Mission, Honolulu; St. Elizabeth's Hospital, Shanghai; and St. Catherine's Training School, Santurce, Porto Rico.

These boxes, together with a few which have been sent to missions on our 1929-30 allotment and to the Seamen's Church Institute, plus four Indian Catechists' suits, make a total of 240 boxes, valued at $12,474.46. The Diocesan Supply Fund furnished $342.63 of the amount and the boxes sent by the Girls' Friendly Society were valued at $329.19.

Respectfully submitted,

DOROTHY W. GOODWIN.

THIRTY-SEVENTH ANNUAL REPORT OF COMFORT CLUB

Probably the majority of those who read these lines are more or less familiar with this branch of missionary endeavor; but for the enlightenment of any to whom the words Comfort Club may be merely a name, this report offers an excellent opportunity to explain that this department, organized thirty-eight years ago, exists for the benefit of those of the clergy of the Diocese whose salaries are too small for the support of their families, and the proper education of their children. The gifts of clothing and household linens sent to these clergymen are considered as being supplemental to their salaries; and while this material aid need not be underestimated, the convenience of having things ready to wear, or to use, without the necessity of buying or making them, is an important phase of their helpfulness.

Several recipients of Comfort Club boxes have kindly said that the organization is appropriately named; and almost without exception, while voicing their gratitude, they do not fail to pay tribute to their "unknown friends," who, by their loving zeal and generous spirit of co-operation make this assistance possible. So those who contribute in any way to the work of the Comfort Club may well feel that their interest and gifts are truly appreciated, and that by helping to support this worth while undertaking, they are contributing substantially to the comfort and well-being of the occupants of more than one Connecticut rectory, thereby enabling them to render more efficient service for the Master.

During the past year contributions of money amounting to $465.78, and boxes valued at $751.76 were received from thirty-five parishes. Clothing and household linens with a total valuation of $931.25 were sent for Diocesan purposes; new clothing valued at $25.45 was sent to Bishop Colmore for Porto Rican hurricane relief work, and a special donation of furnishings to the amount of $25.00 was given towards equipment for use by the Church Army while in and around Hartford during the summer months.

More and more each year the articles requested in the lists submitted to the Comfort Club consist of things which must be bought, rather than made, with the result that it is often difficult to suggest satisfactory work for societies desiring an assignment of sewing; but household linens of all kinds are in constant demand, and the Supply Managers can usually furnish a small list of other articles which are always welcome additions to the Supply shelves.

Boxes or parcels should be sent to:

The Comfort Club

Diocesan House, 28 Garden Street,

Hartford, Connecticut.

A list of contents, stating itemized value of only such articles as are new, should be enclosed in each shipment, together with the name and address of the society or individual sending it—and in connection with ready made articles purchased at a discount, or as "bargains," it should be remembered that the sum actually paid, and not the original price, is the correct amount for valuation purposes; a duplicate list should be forwarded to your Archdeaconry Supply Manager, and a letter of notification should be sent to:

UNITED THANK OFFERING

In bringing to you my first report, or rather statement, as your Assistant Treasurer of the United Thank Offering I feel very humble indeed. For I have been trying to carry on for one who has served us so wonderfully, and it is a rather large order to follow in her footsteps. It is a great disappointment to all that Miss Franklin, who has been our U. T. O. Treasurer for ten years, was not able to continue with the work. In appointing an Assistant Treasurer it was hoped that with the bookkeeping end of the work out of the way that Miss Franklin might be able to do the other part, namely, the keeping in touch with the parishes by writing and later on by visiting. But this she has not been able to do; so I have tried to fill both places by letter writing, visiting parishes and attending Archdeaconry meetings whenever possible as well as by keeping the accounts. I hope that when the annual report of January 1st is printed that we will be up to the amount that we have set for ourselves.

The year, the first one of the Triennium, while it has not yielded all that it should in order to have us reach the goal that we expect to attain, we are well on our way. We all have so much to be thankful for that our little blue boxes should be full to overflowing. But it is from the education of others in the use of the boxes that we must expect to make our desired increase of 10% that the Diocese always hopes for, and has reached each Triennium thus far. One cannot put a price on Thankfulness, and it is in making the women realize how much there is to be thankful for and by expressing it by putting our mite in our little hungry open-mouthed blue box that we are going to gain. We cannot all go forth to do the Church's work. We all know that it is through this United Thank Offering that much of the forward work of the Church is carried on, and cannot we make the work still greater by always placing our bit in our box for the innumerable blessings we have received?

The amount carried forward from October, 1928 to January 1st, 1929, was $1,198.53, and the amount received since that date to November 6th, 1929, is $8,933.14. The interest on the account to date is $107.59, totalling for the first year of the Triennium, $10,239.59. This sum has been contributed by 197 parishes and missions.

The number of boxes sent out during the year is 841, and the number of envelopes 1,462.

As you will recall, the amount placed on the Alms Basin from the Diocese at that wonderful service last fall in Washington was $29,588.26, and if we go forward as we have always done in the years past we must raise before October 1931, $32,547.08, and that means $10,849.03 each year. There are still many parishes to be heard from, and so, as I have said, I am hoping that the balance needed, amounting to $609.44, to make that amount for our first year what it should be, will appear in the printed report of January 1st, and then we all shall have occasion to put an added thank offering in our boxes because we have reached the goal that we ourselves have set.

To add a few lines to my report of November 7th I simply wish to say that it is a case for an added thank offering as our goal for the first year of the Triennium has been reached, as you will see from the following summary:

REPORT OF FUND FOR THE EDUCATION OF THE DAUGHTERS OF THE CLERGY

This Fund was begun in 1875, even before the organization of the Woman's Auxiliary. Just to state the number of girls who have been helped by it does not describe adequately the good it has done in building up Christian character, developing social graces and strength to meet the responsibilities of life. It grew out of a great need.

Like all intelligent fathers, our clergy felt a deep anxiety for the proper education of their daughters, but were crippled by inadequate means. This is exactly the case now. The problem has grown far more serious. For a daughter of a clergyman even to do any work in her father's parish, not to speak of the outside world, her education must be more intensive and comprehensive than ever.

Life was simpler in 1875. As a rule a clergyman's daughter was trained to be a good home maker. To be a good Church woman, a faithful wife, a helpful daughter, was her highest ambition. How the times have changed! She has been thrust out into the business world, and woe betide the young woman who is inadequately trained! How can our clergy meet the situation? How, on an ordinary salary of $2,000, can they spare twelve or fifteen hundred to keep their daughters in school or college? It is a manifest impossibility, for all educational institutions have been compelled to increase their tuition and other expenses.

Has not the time come for us, in 1930, to realize our responsibility, just as our foremothers did theirs in 1875? The appropriation for this fund is $850—a very small sum for so good a purpose. This year it has been divided among seven girls who, bless their hearts, receive their respective shares gratefully, though they must mournfully wish it were more—just as we of the committee do. The largest grant is $150, the smallest $75. They are like the proverbial feather that keeps the camel's back from breaking. The Episcopal Church has always been devoted to practical good works. We may well be proud of its record.

Cannot something more be done to carry out the generous purpose of those who started this fund? Can we not raise it proportionately to what it was in 1875? Then $600, or even less, covered the expense for a year in a good Church school. Now more than twice that amount is needed. Our darling girls must have nourishing food, respectable clothes, and necessary books. Can we not help them more generously, so that they may become efficient women, fit for the service of our Divine Master, and dignified representatives of this grand old Church of ours?

Respectfully submitted,

ANNA L. BIDDLE,

MAIDA L. BRYANT.

DIOCESAN LENDING LIBRARY

Your Librarian feels that she must begin her report with a hearty "thank you," to all who have contributed to the general fund of the Auxiliary, from which the officers felt that they could apportion one hundred dollars toward the purchase of books for its Lending Library. In consultation with others the Librarian has expended this sum, and the books bought with it are in constant circulation.

The increase in the number of readers during the year has been very gratifying, and the Library should grow with them. Although the greater part are naturally of the Cathedral congregation—as are the workers—a number from outside the Parish, and even the city, have been among the borrowers. It is hoped that many others will make use of the mail service. The cost of the postage is the only charge. The borrower is asked to place within the book the stamps necessary to repay the expense of forwarding.

Our thanks are gratefully extended to the Dean, and the other members of the Cathedral staff, for their interest and help in the work; to the space allowed the Librarian from month to month in "The Evangel" for our report; to Miss Henke for keeping up her valuable work in getting books to shut-ins and her group members and her statistical work; and for books given to the Library by the Church Mission Publishing Company, the Rev. I. T. Beckwith, D. D., the Rev. Robert H. Burton, Mrs. James J. Goodwin, Mr. Sharp, and Miss Sarah H. Ripley. To the latter, also, for a combined writing desk and bookcase. To Miss Ripley, Miss Margaret R. Jones, Mrs. Albert Jones, Miss Katherine Jones,

Miss Agnes Gallegian, Miss Mary Tracy, Miss Alice Prentice, and Miss Alberta Gardiner for their assistance in the Library Sunday after Sunday. Through the very efficient help of Miss Mabel G. Schumacher the Library has been card-catalogued, and she also serves in the Library before and after the eleven o'clock service Wednesday mornings.

The Library contains about a hundred biographies (lives of missionaries, and other Churchmen and Churchwomen) and histories of missions, some in small pamphlet form, others in good-size volumes; books on the Bible and Prayer Book; others on personal religion, and some stories illustrating the power of the Church in early teaching, and in the every-day life of the individual. During the year there have been times when more than sixty books have been in circulation.

The Diocesan Lending Library, 45 Church Street, Hartford, Conn., will send a catalogue upon request. The Reading Room above the Library, in the south-east porch, is open daily from 7 A. M. to 5 P. M.

Respectfully submitted,

EDITH BEACH,

Librarian.

ANNUAL REPORT OF THE DIOCESAN DIRECTOR OF THE CHURCH PERIODICAL CLUB

Time flies so rapidly that it does not seem possible that I am making my second report to you as Diocesan Director of the Church Periodical Club; but I feel that a good bit of work has been accomplished this year.

Since last January I have spoken at Auxiliary meetings in Meriden, Middletown, Seymour, Southford, and Southport, and have attended the Fairfield and New Haven Archdeaconry meetings, where I also spoke. I likewise gave a brief report at the Diocesan Board meeting in May.

There are ninety branches of the Church Periodical Club in this Diocese, of which number twenty-two have no secretaries. I do hope that if there are any representatives of those parishes present, they will go home resolved to appoint a new parish secretary, for twenty-two really is too large a number to have inactive. Three new branches have been formed, in Milford, North Branford and Plainville, while three branches in which there had been no secretaries for some time appointed new ones. Six secretaries have resigned or died, and there have been seven changes of secretaries. I have received forty reports in response to report blanks sent out early in October.

Since January 1st I have received eighty-five letters from Miss Thomas, the Executive Secretary, and sent her thirty-one. I have received from the various parish secretaries one hundred and forty-nine letters and sent them one hundred and seventy-three.

There are 624 magazines being sent regularly by 290 donors, a slight drop from last year; but I think that is accounted for in the fact that more secretaries have been sending boxes of magazines. Christ Church at Redding has no regular secretary, but sent 200 books to clergymen and libraries, as well as 80 odd magazines. The Milford branch, only recently formed, is sending 25 magazines, for which they are to be congratulated. Other interesting figures are the 8,596 odd magazines and papers, 587 books, and 6,048 Christmas and Easter cards.

I am still hoping to see the day when there will be a secretary in each Archdeaconry, Hartford and New Haven still being the only two which have them. Miss Pauline Smith, of the New Haven Archdeaconry, has done splendid work, and I am sorry to report her resignation, which takes effect at this meeting. Her successor is Mrs. Burton Collyer of Meriden. Mrs. Dryhurst has continued her same fine work in the Hartford Archdeaconry, and I want to take this opportunity to thank her and Miss Smith, and the various parish secretaries, for their help and co-operation, without which it would be impossible to carry on this work.

Respectfully submitted,

KATHARINE MATTHIES,

Diocesan Director.

REPORT OF THE CHURCH MISSIONS PUBLISHING COMPANY

In the Story and Pageant Series, we have published "Dawn on the West Coast," by the Rev. Arthur Cochrane Peabody, rector of St. Paul's Church, Newburyport. This is a drama of Liberia, and depicts the changing conditions there, the introduction of the airplane, modern medicine, and other conditions of the present day.

"The Church and the Southern Highlanders," by the Ven. Walter C. Whitaker, Dean of Knoxville, and rector of St. John's Church, Knoxville, is a supplement of his "Southern Highlands and Highlanders," published by the Church Missions Publishing Company some fifteen years ago.

"Early Days in Minnesota" is a re-issue of three publications—an article by the late Deaconess Sanford, and letters by the Rev. J. Lloyd Breck.

"The Bishop's Kalendar" for 1930 has for its subject, "Canterbury," and includes a brief historical allusion to leading events and Archbishops, a tri-monthly calendar, and the Church's Fasts and Feasts for 1930, and is adorned with a colored illustration of the Cathedral and Palace.

The leading number of the year in the Soldier and Servant series was "Francois Coillard," a very complete biography, though condensed, of that pioneer missionary in S. E. Africa, by the Rev. James Thayer Addison, Professor of the History of Religion and Missions in the Episcopal Theological School at Cambridge. The second number was "Francis Xavier," by the same author. Both are written with great vivacity and fine scholarship.

The third publication is "Arthur James Gammack: Priest and Pastor," by his son, Thomas H. Gammack, in co-operation with Mrs. Gammack and other members of the family.

The last number will be "Reminiscences of the Rev. William Reed Huntington, D. D., Advocate of Church Unity," by one of his staff. It is no way supplementary to the authentic Life by the Rev. John W. Suter, D. D., its value being, that the writer knew Dr. Huntington from 1875 until his death, was on the staff of Grace Church under him for fifteen years, and that no other member has ever written such memoirs.

Forthcoming in 1930 is a life of Bishop Matoda, and one of the Rev. Dr. John W. Chapman of Anvik, Alaska, both by the provision of Mr. William E. Leidt, Associate Editor of the Spirit of Missions.

In Story and Pageant we have on hand "The Spirit of the Church," by Mrs. Ethel Bain, author of "The Road to Bethlehem," "Let There Be Light," and an African play introducing "Spirituals" by Miss Esther C. Averill of Worcester, Mass.

We are also making strenuous efforts to secure the reminiscences of Archdeacon Ashley, but it is said that it is a question whether anyone can get him to sit still long enough to dictate them. Mr. W. D. Swain, Nation Wide Campaign Secretary of South Dakota, has, however, made a beginning, and we are not without hope.

Plans are under way to print at an early date a short life of John Gardner Murray, our late Presiding Bishop, and the President of this Church Missions Publishing Company, to read, "A Short Life of John Gardner Murray, the late Presiding Bishop and the President of This Company."

Forthcoming as an extra number and Christmas gift book is a publication of very great interest, on the plan of Hertford in England and Hartford in New England, namely, York in England and New York in America. The article on York has been written by the Very Rev. Lionel Ford, D. D., Dean of York Cathedral; and that on New York by the Rev. George Francis Nelson, D. D., Honorary Canon of the Cathedral of St. John the Divine, who has been on the Cathedral staff longer than any other official, and is the Nestor of the New York clergy. This work is now in press.

We have the promise of a group of poems of St. Francis of Assisi, by the accomplished poet, Rev. Arthur Ketchum, Rector of St. Matthew's Church, Bedford, N. Y., who made a pilgrimage to Assisi last summer. This is an "extra," for a gift book.

Respectfully submitted,

MARY E. BEACH,

Representative of the C. M. P. C.

ARCHDEACONRY TABLES

The Archdeaconry Table has been made out to show the offerings each parish has given to the Budget, to Specials that have been given through the Auxiliary Treasurer, to the United Thank Offering, to the Comfort Club, and the total cash offerings. It shows the value of boxes given to the Comfort Club, to the Supply Department and the total box values; also the Grand Totals.

The advantage of this plan is that the whole record of each parish can be seen at a glance, instead of having to look in three different reports to find it. "Specials" indirectly reported are not included as none of the money passed through the Auxiliary Treasurer's hands.
