THE WOMAN'S AUXILIARY PRAYER FOR MISSIONS

ALMIGHTY GOD, our Heavenly Father, bless, we pray Thee, our work for the extension of Thy Kingdom, and make us so thankful for the precious gift to us of Thy beloved Son, that we may pray fervently, labour diligently and give liberally to make Him known to all nations as their Saviour and their King; through the same Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

THE PRAYER FOR THE UNITED THANK OFFERING

O LORD, our Heavenly Father, we pray Thee to send forth more labourers into Thy harvest, and to grant them Thy special grace for every need. Guard and guide the workers in the field, and draw us into closer fellowship with them. Dispose the hearts of all women everywhere to give gladly as Thou hast given to them. Accept, from grateful hearts, our United Thank Offering of prayer and gifts and joyful service; and bless it to the coming of Thy Kingdom, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

RELIGIOUS EDUCATION

O GOD, who hast sent Thy beloved Son to be unto us the way, the truth and the life, grant that we, looking unto Him may set forward the teaching power of Thy Church, to the nurture of Thy children, the increase of Thy Kingdom and the glory of Thy Son, Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

A PRAYER OF DEDICATION

O GOD, our Father, we dedicate ourselves anew to Thee and Thy service. Put into the heart of each of us such a love of Thee that we may truly love our neighbors as ourselves—a love that leaps the boundaries of race or color or creed or kind, that knows no distinction of class, that reaches out a saving hand even unto the least of these our brethren. Fill our lives with the single motive of service, and use us Lord, use us as Thou wilt, and when and where; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

FOR OUR PRAYER PARTNER

O LORD Jesus Christ, Who has sent Thy messengers into all the world to proclaim the good tidings of salvation, Grant that with pure heart and holy life, with loving zeal and steadfast faith, our missionary may witness in Thy name: that so through her Thy will may be done and Thy Kingdom come. We ask it for Thy Blessed Name's sake. Amen.

A PRAYER FOR SERVICE

TEACH US, good Lord, to serve Thee as Thou deservest; to give and not to count the cost; to fight and not to heed the wounds; to toil and not to seek for rest; to labour and not to ask for any reward, save that of knowing that we do Thy will. Through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

FOR GOD'S CONTINUOUS SUPPORT

LORD, support us all the day long of this troublous life, until the shadows lengthen, and the evening comes, and the busy world is hushed, and the fever of life is over, and our work is done. Then, in Thy mercy, grant us a safe lodging, and a holy rest, and peace at the last, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

A PRAYER FOR THE PARISH

LORD Jesus Christ, Who hast promised Thy presence and power to all who obey Thy command to tell the nations of Thy love, bless we pray Thee our efforts to strengthen and extend the work of our parish. To all who shall take any part in our plans give wisdom and zeal. Bind our people in a closer fellowship. If any have grown careless, help us lead them back to Thy House that their love for Thee may be renewed. Teach us to pray, labor and give more faithfully for the extension of Thy Kingdom among men. Of Thy mercy we ask this, O Blessed Saviour of the world, Who livest and reignest with the Father and the Holy Ghost, ever, one God, world without end. Amen.

CLOSING PRAYER

GOD, OUR Father, have regard to our prayers, answer them according to Thy will, and make us the channels of Thine infinite love and helpfulness, through Jesus Christ our Lord.
Amen.

THE PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

A New Year's greeting to all the members of the Auxiliary! The past year has been a time to test our faith and loyalty, and I feel that the Auxiliary has stood the test. True, we have met with a loss in gifts of money; how great I do not know. That was to be expected in a year when everyone's income has been seriously cut, and the calls for local relief have been unusually heavy. Even in money, however, the results have been surprisingly encouraging. The Morning Pledge has gone over two thousand dollars, and the offering at the Annual Meeting was a generous one.

But to judge of growth there are other standards to apply. For the first time our Archdeaconry offices are filled, and the women who fill them are giving faithful and intelligent service, which must result in better organized parish branches.

The Auxiliary, which is the representative of the National Council, should be a unifying force in each parish. Its field is the world, but its interests should begin with the parish and community. In too many parishes there are still little groups of women, one group working for the parish, the other under the name of the Auxiliary struggling along, trying loyally to do the work asked of it by the Diocesan organization, both groups weak in numbers and rather discouraged, never quite reaching their goal, because neither group realizes that their aim is really one, and that all working together would more than double their strength.

If each group would only take their parish as the center and the world as the circumference, parish problems would gain dignity as part of the greater problems of the Church at large, and world needs gain definiteness placed beside local needs.

The obstacles we face at home and abroad are selfishness and indifference. The goal we are all working for is Christ's Kingdom of love.

The coming year we are to try an experiment for which I ask your hearty co-operation. We plan to make the November meeting a great inspirational gathering, and for the first time we will try the experiment of holding in January a meeting wholly given over to business. Our year's work will be completed at that time, and our officers will be given sufficient opportunity to cover their work adequately in their reports. And even more important, there will be opportunity for individual members to discuss problems and ask questions. I believe that our strength is in proportion to the intelligent interest of each individual member in the work we are trying to do.

Judged by secular societies, we lack organization, but granting that our aim is spiritual, let us not undervalue form. In this world the spiritual to be effective must have substance. As Browning expresses it:

“Let us not always say,
‘Spite of this flesh to-day
I strove, made head, gained ground upon the whole!’
As the bird wings and sings
Let us cry, ‘All good things
Are ours, nor soul helps flesh more, now, than Flesh helps soul!’ ”

JENNIE LOOMIS,

President.

MINUTES OF THE ANNUAL MEETING, 1932

On Thursday, November 3rd, 1932, the Annual Meeting of the Connecticut Branch of the Woman's Auxiliary was held at St. John's Church, Bridgeport. The service of Holy Communion at 9:30 A. M., celebrated by the Right Reverend E. C. Acheson, with the Reverend A. F. H. Serent as assistant, was attended by approximately two hundred and fifty. Communion Alms amounted to $31.70.

At 10:36 A. M. the business meeting was called to order by the president, Miss Jennie Loomis, who requested the two official delegates from each parish to come forward to take places reserved especially for them. She then introduced Mr. Serent, who, acting as host in the place of the Reverend Mr. Sherman, confined to his home by illness, offered a brief welcome.

Annual reports, accepted as read, were given by the Recording and Corresponding Secretaries. The Treasurer's and the United Thank Offering Treasurer's interim reports were also read and accepted. Mrs. Douglas stated that $3,145.84 were due on the year's budget. Departmental reports from the Supply, Comfort Club, and Educational Secretaries, covering the year's activities, were presented and accepted, after which those from the allied departments, the Missionary Lending Library, the Church Periodical Club, and the Prayer Partnership, were heard. No action on these latter was necessary, as they are informative only. Miss Matthies read a letter just received from New York, containing an appeal for books for the Sunday School of St. Luke's Church, New Haven.

To save time the report of the Church Missions Publishing Company was deferred. Mrs. Acheson submitted for the Finance Committee four recommendations, previously approved by the Board. At her request the President explained the Woman's Auxiliary Special for which the offering at the afternoon service was designated. Miss Grammer, the U. T. O. worker in all the New England colleges where there are women, had found that curtailed train service and poor bus connections made it very difficult to go from place to place without a great loss of time and strength. It seemed wise for the Woman's Auxiliary branches of the first Province to purchase a car for her use, the running expenses and upkeep of which would be met from her allotment from headquarters. Miss Loomis hoped for $150 or more toward our share in making it possible for Miss Grammer to reach the approximately four thousand girls in the twenty-two colleges. Anything above the desired sum would go to the missionary speaker. It was voted to accept these recommendations as a whole, and upon Mrs. Acheson's motion they were so received. Upon her motion, also, the budget for 1933 of $8,660 ($7,160 from the white envelopes and $1,500 from invested funds) showing a decrease of $940 from last year, was accepted by vote. A special bit of business was next transacted. Miss Pardee moved that in recognition of her exceptional service to the Auxiliary, and as an expression of our deep gratitude, our former President, Mrs. E. Campion Acheson, be made our Honorary President for life, with a seat on the Board and a vote. A rising response unanimously carried that motion, and Mrs. Acheson was graciously received into her new office by the President.

The report of the Nominating Committee was called for and presented by Mrs. E. T. Wells of Stratford, Chairman, as follows:

President—Miss Jennie Loomis

Vice-President—Miss Mary Louise Pardee

Vice-President—Mrs. Frederick G. Budlong
Vice-President—Miss Katharine A. Nettleton
Recording Secretary—Miss Louise H. Noble
Corresponding Secretary—Mrs. P. H. Ingalls
Treasurer—Mrs. John A. Forsyth, Jr.
Treasurer U. T. O.—Miss Katharine A. Nettleton
Supply Secretary—Mrs. James L. Goodwin
Comfort Club Secretary—Mrs. E. B. Bryant
Church Periodical Club Secretary—Miss Katharine Matthies

For the first time since the selection of Diocesan Officers, the procedure was changed from appointment by the Bishop to election by the Annual Meeting, and ballots were cast by the official delegates from the parishes, under the direction of Mrs. C. H. Armstrong of Fairfield and her Credentials Committee. One hundred and ninety-two parishes with 384 delegates and 29 officers, a total of 413, were entitled to vote. It was announced in the afternoon that of this number, 179 votes were cast, 24 by officers, 155 by delegates, representing in all eighty-four parishes, and were unanimous for the slate as presented, with the exception of the Recording and Corresponding Secretaries, who each received 178 votes.

A plan for trial in the coming year was offered by the Board through the President. Since our business has increased in volume and our time is so limited that various reports have to be curtailed to meet the schedule, it seemed advisable to have two meetings: one, in November, to convene as a business group just long enough to vote adjournment of the business meeting to January and then to be made purely an inspirational gathering; the other to be open to all, but especially to the accredited delegates from the parishes. This, held early in the new year, would allow the compiling and presentation of complete Annual Reports rather than the interim statements now required. After several expressions of approval from the floor, it was voted unanimously to accept this tentative plan.

Noon-day Prayers were offered by The Reverend Frank S. Morehouse, Archdeacon of Fairfield.

The President stated that it has been customary to refer the Minutes of the Annual Meeting to the Board for action. It was moved, seconded and carried that the Minutes of the 1932 Annual Meeting be submitted to the Board for approval, as were the Annual Reports of the Officers.

The business meeting was declared adjourned at 12:25 P. M., when Deaconess Elizabeth Chappell spoke on the Retiring Fund for Deaconesses. She gave a short history of the growth of the order from the convents of the 5th century to the present time, and told why it became necessary for this special group to obtain a fund of its own, rather than look to the Church Pension Fund for aid. The Deaconess urged support of their efforts whenever possible in the parishes, and thanked Connecticut for its previous gift of $500.

At 2:15 P. M. the Morning Pledge and the Roll were called, and to the latter 661 women and 60 clergy responded, a total of 721. The President introduced the two new officers, Mrs. Budlong and Mrs. Forsyth, and announced the amount of the Morning Pledge to be $1,891. A message of greeting was sent to Mr. Sherman. At the service held at 2:30 P. M., the Right Reverend Frederick G. Budlong, Bishop Coadjutor of Connecticut, gave a brief explanation of the Budget, and told of the reorganization of work in the Diocese, with a special plea for the Church Mission of Help. The other speaker was the Right Reverend Edward Makin Cross, Missionary Bishop of Spokane, who created instant interest in his address by presenting his work in the guise of a book he was writing. The telling titles of the chapters, such as "Tumbleweed, Pest of the Prairies," and "Sagebrush and Greasewood," served as apt vehicles for description of the conditions in the northwest part of our country and the efforts of the Church to meet them. The offering was $297.75, of which $200 went to Miss Grammer, while the remainder, supplemented to $100, was given to Bishop Cross.

Respectfully submitted,

LOUISE H. NOBLE,

Recording Secretary

The Fall meeting of the Woman's Auxiliary will be held on Friday, November 3rd. This will be an inspirational meeting for all women of the Church—the business to be adjourned at this time to a meeting on Wednesday, January 10th, when all annual reports will be presented, and other business proper to come before such a meeting.

The place of these meetings will be announced later, and all women of the church are cordially invited to both.

REPORT OF THE CORRESPONDING SECRETARY

For the year 1932 fifty-five hundred sets of white envelopes were purchased, and all but a few sets were distributed. Early in January the material for the annual report was collected, arranged and taken to the printer. It was ready for distribution about the middle of February, and in accordance with the vote of the Board of Management, copies were sent direct from the printer to each parish in the Diocese, to officers and Board members, and to other individuals. Two hundred were mailed from the Diocesan House to clergy and others desiring them. There have been a few calls for copies during the year, and we are always glad to send to any one interested.

Your Corresponding Secretary attended the spring and fall meetings of the Board of Managers, also the Annual Meeting at Bridgeport in November.

The necessary correspondence has been cared for and three hundred and sixty blanks and forty receipt books mailed.

Respectfully submitted,

EMILY P. INGALLS,

Corresponding Secretary

REPORT OF THE EDUCATIONAL DEPARTMENT, 1932-33

After previous years of study in far fields of the world mission of Christianity, the mission study book of 1932-33 led us back to our homeland. "Building a Christian Nation," compiled by a noteworthy group of Christian leaders and presenting outstanding phases of the Church's problems in American life of today, was a challenge to the missionary spirit and service of our groups. The book list for supplemental reading was very rich in topics and scope of information.

In accordance with the usual plan for a new course, the Educational Secretary sent to each listed parish branch a letter presenting the new Mission Study subject, with lists of suggested reading. Later a like list of current publications obtainable at the public libraries was also sent. Personal visits for suggestion and instruction were paid throughout the year at requests of branch groups, especially at the generally preferred study season of Lent. Three Study Institutes were held; one day in each of two archdeaconries; three days in the third archdeaconry. They were planned for groups of parishes neighboring upon the place of meeting. Registration was received from 107 leaders; and 22 parish branches were represented. There were many additional visitors who did not register. There was a happily sustained interest, and later reports have expressed much help received for the branch programs. The Annual Report form has been returned by 68 parishes. Many letters, however, do come bearing some details of effort to learn more about the work of the Church in her mission fields. One of the delightful comments from one leader: "I just couldn't get it all in that report!" And there was still the other side of the report page!

The Woman's Auxiliary Scholarships for the Summer Conferences were awarded as follows: Wellesley, 5; Provincial, 2; Diocesan, 2. Conference attendance as reported by parish branches: Wellesley, 23; Provincial, 8; Diocesan, 12; Interdenominational, 7; Other Conferences, 7 (including S. C. H. C. South Byfield.)

Again we feel a deep sense of gratitude to the generous and never-failing co-operation of the Church Missions Publishing Company for the facilities of the Supply Center, where branch leaders have been able to place orders for desired textbooks and others; for the Lending Library, with its prompt response to calls for books throughout the Diocese.

The Archdeaconry Educational Secretaries in their separate fields are carrying on along the lines generally adopted for the missionary educational work of the Diocese. Reports received have been most encouraging, showing that each Secretary is coming into closer relationship to the branches in her home archdeaconry; bringing better understanding of the need and nature of mission study, while providing help to meet individual branch problems; and generously giving at call of time, effort, and consecrated talents to the missionary endeavor of the Church.

A wise Churchman has said, "To become aware of the Church's Mission one must first understand the Church's resources, and then become a part of her mission." It is a thought that we may well apply to the study courses of 1933-34: "Facing the Future in Indian Missions" and "Living Issues in China."

Respectfully submitted,

MARGARET S. PEET,

Educational Secretary

REPORT OF THE PRAYER PARTNERSHIP PLAN

This has been a year of many changes. The world has been in turmoil. It is in a worse state than when the war was raging. No one can prophecy the end, for the sword still hangs over our heads. Christians have much missionary work to do at home and abroad. The loss of our ordinary gifts has seriously crippled our missionaries, but they are brave and uncomplaining, and are at their posts.

At St. Mary's, Shanghai, they even are thankful that they may carry on. The war came to their doors, only a low barrier saved them from its fury, but the English Tommies were on guard during the day and our American boys from Manila during the night. When the cannon roared their hearts stood still because of the terrible suffering. They kept busy cheering their defenders, serving afternoon tea to the English and making warm clothes for our boys who suffered from the cold, bravely refraining from lamentation. They, moreover, rejoiced that they were to carry on a Christian school. Wise Bishop Graves refused to register. Their neighbors had registered, their school lost its Christian character and lost their students, who felt the great difference. These brave women say our prayers strengthened them. They know prayer has been answered. What an appeal to us, their prayer partners!

As we turn to the home field, we hear the same appeal. Do not forget us. Do pray for us. The reduction of salaries has been taken without complaint. They have simply "buckled the belt tighter" and labored on. Miss Wilcox, a nurse, who had done good service at Allakaket, has been transferred to Anvik, and Miss Hill is at Allakaket. They have a sensible way in Alaska of sending two women, a nurse and a general worker, to these out-of-the-way places. It is wonderful what results have been achieved; Christian standards have gained public recognition. Christian homes have been established and men and women are alive with hope and aspiration.

A book just out, "Thirty Years in the Golden North," paints a lurid picture of conditions in Northern Siberia. The Esquimaux have been pitifully neglected, unlike ours in Alaska. They are filthy and awfully ignorant without one glimmer of hope, the lowest of the low; but not so wicked as the whites who come to exploit them. Sometimes we are discouraged because success is so slow in coming, but we may rejoice that so much has been accomplished in Alaska.

The problem of the Indian has been a serious one from the beginning. Good men and bad have been struggling with it since the days of John Eliot. The church, much handicapped, has kept their sad condition before the nation and has pled for justice for them. What Bishops Whipple and Hare did for them is a thrilling story. But what has been done is only a fine beginning. We cannot stop until they take their place in the nation as intelligent self-supporting Christian citizens. The national government is now drawing all the children into well equipped schools, and the Church is to have free scope in building up Christian character. Our offerings of men and money are to be devoted to that great object. Our prayer partners are carrying out this policy. We have a fine mission at Ethete, Wyoming, among the Arapakoes. Mrs. Kent is the loved partner of our Collinsville Auxiliary, and Sister Alice Horner is at Fort Thompson, South Dakota, devoting herself to the development of the Crow Indians. She is a staunch Churchwoman, consecrated for life, rich in experience and fully able to train the children among their own people without sending them away to distant schools to become that sad anomaly Indians ashamed of their race and yet not equal to life in our complex civilization. The Church of the Holy Advent, Clinton, St. John's, Forestville, and Trinity, Waterbury, are their Prayer Partners. They have the joyful privilege of encouraging such a missionary and thus a share in the great work of unifying the nation. The chain which binds us together is strong only when every link is strong. Would that we could report in detail our work in the South. Both in the mountains and among the negroes we find rich results. Our prayer partner, Mrs. Hunt, works faithfully beside her gifted husband at the Fort Valley School. The negroes flock into it, for they realize it is a power house where they may have intellectual and manual training. Our orderly methods are just what they need, so say the most experienced Southern educators who have honored the Hunts. The Hunts' influence extends over a wide field. Mrs. Hunt has been the leader in establishing a school for delinquent negro girls. Their main object is to develop strong, steady, sensible Christian leaders for their own people. This also is the purpose of our Woman's Auxiliary Bishop Tuttle House at Raleigh, where more than twenty-five young women have been trained and are now at work among their own people. They know and we know that they must have the help of their white friends, but they also know they must do their very best to uplift the millions of their race. It is a big job which we all must unite in doing.

We are cultivating world friendships in this Prayer Partnership and it is thrilling to have even a little share in the great work of bringing the nations into the fold of Christ. It is worth all the self-denial and earnest effort we can summon. It is inspiring. The realizing of such a vision is so absorbing that the small evanescent things become as nothing to us. They pass and we pass, but the kingdoms of the world are to become the kingdoms of our Lord. The tiny seed is to be the great tree sheltering all the kingdoms of the earth.

ANNA L. BIDDLE.

FORTIETH ANNUAL REPORT OF THE COMFORT CLUB

During the past year $327.75 in money, and boxes with a total valuation of $296.62, were received from thirty-one parishes. New clothing and household linens amounting to $510.85 were sent for Diocesan Missions, and $33.71 for Domestic Missions.

A note of acknowledgment recently received contains the following: "Everything was just fine. I cannot tell you the joy and happiness the box brought to this home. We certainly feel that in the Comfort Club we have found very wonderful friends." A clergyman's widow, to whom a small Christmas check was sent, wrote: "The money was needed and appreciated. If my 'ship ever comes in' a big donation to the Comfort Club will be my first pleasure."

In several known instances rectors' salaries are very much in arrears owing to prevalent hard times, and even the comparatively slight aid given in this way is of inestimable value. Those who make such assistance possible are here assured that their thoughtful kindness and goodness of heart are truly appreciated, and that feelings of sincere gratitude go out to them from many who refer to them as their "unknown friends."

The requirements of this branch of missionary work are, as usual, clothing, preferably new, for men, women and children, and household linens; and to the various organizations who usually purchase, rather than make whatever they send, it is suggested that the money appropriated for the purpose be sent to the Comfort Club treasurer, who is able to buy many things at wholesale, and can therefore make a certain sum "go further" than would otherwise be possible.

Second-hand clothing of good quality, in first class condition, and at least fairly modern in style, or capable of being remodelled, can be used, and is most helpful; but it must be admitted that a large percentage of what is received fails to come up to these specifications and is entirely unsuitable for use here in the Diocese. It would therefore be well if many things now sent to the Comfort Club were instead forwarded direct from the parishes to the Domestic Mission field, where the need is urgent. Names of Mission Stations allotted to the Diocese—different ones each year—may be secured from Archdeaconry Supply Secretaries, to whom, of course, should be reported any boxes which are sent.

Boxes should be sent to:

The Comfort Club,
Diocesan House, 28 Garden Street,
Hartford, Connecticut

There should be enclosed in each shipment, or sent by mail under separate cover, a list of contents, stating itemized value of new articles only, with the name and address of the sender clearly indicated. All correspondence should be addressed to:

REPORT OF THE FUND FOR THE EDUCATION OF THE DAUGHTERS OF THE CLERGY

Reduced incomes are a common experience this year; but our seven daughters are receiving grants as usual, and we have the satisfaction of knowing many have been helped in the past who are now self-supporting or doing useful work. Last year one finished her course at St. Faith's and is now at the head of the Church School of one of our important parishes. Another has taken her first year in college with honors. Another is in training at St. Luke's Hospital, while all the rest are taking some form of special work. Every one receiving a grant has been carefully and sympathetically considered.

Sometimes we wonder why we do not have a Church School here in Connecticut, where all the girls as a matter of course may partially support themselves. St. Margaret's was begun upon that plan. Dr. Russell knew that the pocketbooks of the clergy were not fortunatus purses. We have two fine boys' schools, the Kent and the Wooster, conducted successfully on the plan of partial self-support. Since we do not now have such a school, why not send them to the public schools? It is true they give a fine practical education, but must leave out religious instruction. Sometime the students are shaken in the faith and are lost to the Church, a sad result to all concerned. So we who consider Church training essential must depend upon the Church Schools.

THE DIOCESAN LENDING LIBRARY

The Diocesan Lending Library continues to function in the southeast vestibule of Christ Church Cathedral in Hartford. It has had through the year the interest of a goodly number of the frequenters of the Cathedral and some from outside the city, many of whom have used it since the books, at the instigation of the Dean, were installed in the very convenient place they now occupy. Also, from time to time, books are called for from other parts of the Diocese. Catalogues will be supplied when asked for, and books will be sent promptly by mail, the only cost is that of the required stamps, and they should be laid inside the books as they are returned.

We are allowed a most generous space in the Christ Church Evangel each month, and we have tried in it to enumerate the new books as they are added to our shelves, and from time to time have called attention to such matters and books as we think may be of interest. By the thoughtfulness and generosity of interested friends about a hundred books have been added during the year. The Church Missions Publishing Company continues to give us its publications as they are printed. Miss Mary L. Randall, our trained Librarian, is now at work on a more complete set of index cards, which we are sure will prove most useful.

Mrs. A. C. Jones has consented to take the place of your Librarian during the months of January, February, March, and April. She, with our faithful assistants, Miss Elizabeth Howard and Miss Pauline Jones, who have been most constant and helpful all through the year, will be found in the Library Sunday and Wednesday mornings; but books may be taken out and returned any day from 6:30 A. M. to 6:00 P. M. by following the simple

REPORT OF THE SUPPLY DEPARTMENT

Considering the times, the work of the Supply Department has been quite satisfactory. People have shown a willingness to do what they could, and if the total value of the boxes is about $2,300.00 less than last year, it is certain that as much thought and work has gone into those boxes as in former years. It should also be taken into consideration that the price of clothing is so reduced that the material value of the boxes may not be much less than in other years.

Twenty-four family boxes were sent, and nineteen Christmas gift boxes to women missionaries, three Indian catechists received suits, and eleven missions were supplied with a variety of needs. These missions were: St. Peter's-in-the-Mountains, Callaway, Va.; two in North Carolina, namely, the Colored Archdeaconry in Asheville, and St. Andrew's Mission, Kinston; two Indian missions, St. Michael's Boarding School at Ethete, Wyoming, and St. John's-in-the-Wilderness, Redby, Minn.; another western one, St. Luke's-in-the-Desert, Tucson, Arizona; and the rest further afield, St. Luke's Memorial Hospital in Porto Rico; St. Andrew's Priory, Honolulu; St. Anne's School in the Philippines; All Saints' Church, St. Thomas, V. I.; and the House of Bethany School, Liberia. Two boxes have also been sent to the Seamen's Church Institute, and ten to missions on the new allotment.

Respectfully submitted,

DOROTHY W. GOODWIN,

Supply Secretary.

UNITED THANK OFFERING

This is the end of the first year of the three which will bring us to 1934, when we will present our offering at the General Convention. The women of our Diocese who know the privilege of giving through this means must have been making use of their Blue Boxes faithfully to have accomplished such results as the financial report will disclose.

Before giving you that part of my report I want to again stress, as I have done each year, the need of each one of us to become a missionary in her own name by first reading the story of the little Blue Box, its beginnings, its tremendous growth, and best of all, the wonderful work our offerings make possible. Then go out and tell the story to some one who has not yet become acquainted with the Blue Box and knows not the joy of returning thanks in this way for the innumerable blessings that we all have. If we really do this there would be no doubt of our gaining yearly in the amount of our offerings. Ask your parish United Thank Offering treasurer for material on this subject. It is most inspiring reading.

I do not want to close this part of my report without expressing my thanks and appreciation for the splendid work of the Archdeacons Treasurers; their enthusiasm, interest and work accomplished has made the Diocesan Treasurer's task much easier.

The financial report follows:

rules framed on the Library wall. Miss Mabel Schumacher continues to take charge of the numbering of the books. To all these the Librarian wishes to register here her most sincere thanks, as, she feels sure, will all others who are interested in the work the Library is striving to do. It is a great pleasure to work with such interested and faithful companions.

Books for the study course for the current year can be found in the Library, and we also have them for sale, and will gladly order any books if the publishers' names are sent with the order. If you are interested in the matter ask Miss Howard about a Reading Club soon to be formed in connection with the Library.

We may casually mention that at one time our cards showed seventy-eight books in circulation.

In closing I would like to quote from one of the Evangel reports the notice of the loss sustained by our Library force through the death of Miss Effy Sprague: "Though far from well and often suffering, she never failed to be at her post when it was possible for her to be there, perfectly and actively dependable. Her faithfulness and loving service was inspiring to come in contact with, and continually one wondered at and admired her bravery and her zeal. Surely in the blessed Paradise of God she rests in that 'peace which passes all understanding,' where those who love God serve Him day and night."

ANNUAL REPORT OF THE DIOCESAN DIRECTOR OF THE CHURCH PERIODICAL CLUB

October 1, 1931 to January 1, 1933

It has been a pleasure to see, as I made up my annual report for the Church Periodical Club, that there has been no depression in this department. Most of the figures show a gain, but figures alone do not tell all the story of work accomplished by the Church Periodical Club. They do not tell of the contact made by a lady in the Hartford Archdeaconry with a western girl who needed clothes for college, for without them she could not take advantage of a scholarship. A wardrobe was gathered by the Connecticut lady and sent to the grateful girl. It was correspondence with a recipient of a magazine that brought about this act of kindness.

Then there is the student who obtained material for school essays from magazines sent into the home by the Church Periodical Club.

I might tell of many more incidents like the above, but lack of time prevents, and we must get down to figures.

The response to my special pleas for the Library Fund was most encouraging, $72.70 having been contributed to January 1st. That is still far from Connecticut's quota of $297, but an improvement over the $12.00 sent last year. We must not forget this fund this year, for the money is needed more than ever to furnish books for libraries in the mission schools and hospitals in Japan, China, and the domestic field.

We now have ninety-nine branches of the Church Periodical Club, new ones having been formed at St. Paul's, Norwalk, and All Saints' Chapel, New Haven. Two formerly inactive branches have appointed new secretaries and are renewing their work. There are still twenty-four inactive branches, which is too large a number, and I do hope that we can reduce this figure in the coming year either by getting these branches to start anew or by assigning the old numbers to new branches.

There are now 658 magazines being sent regularly by 370 donors. This is an increase over last year of twenty-one magazines and forty donors. I hope the coming year will show an even greater increase, for certainly the number of people desiring magazines has grown, giving us an opportunity for greater service. It would be fine to observe children's book week by sending books and magazines to boys and girls who are looking to the Church Periodical Club to supply their wants. We must all know some boys and girls who would be willing to pass on their magazines to others less fortunate than themselves.

Postage rates have not increased, but still are a cent for two ounces, and this should encourage us to send magazines. I wonder how many of us realize that the total amount of the postage for forwarding most magazines for one year would cause us to miss only one or possibly two movie shows. Surely we ought to be willing to give up that much in order that some isolated home may receive entertainment of another kind.

Sixteen thousand, three hundred and thirty-six miscellaneous magazines, 3,824 Christmas and Easter Cards, six Bibles, 754 books, 7,476 picture cards and calendars, sixteen scrap books, and nine Victrola records have been sent during the year.

I have attended the Provincial Meeting in Manchester, Vermont, the May Diocesan Board Meeting, the Annual Meeting of the Woman's Auxiliary; and visited St. John's Auxiliary in New Haven and Trinity Auxiliary in Middletown since October, 1931.

You will recall I told in my 1931 report of the gift of a set of Encyclopedia Britannica, made by the Hartford Archdeaconry to Bishop and Mrs. Huntington. I want to share with you all part of Mrs. Huntington's letter of thanks: "I want to tell you how deeply grateful we are for the splendid gift. As we have travelled through Connecticut I have tried to thank the Auxiliaries which are helping, and it is added joy to find how interested everyone is in the gift. With four growing children we have felt greatly hampered without an encyclopedia during the past four years, and you may be sure that the entire family sends a warm and hearty 'thank you'!"

Some of the institutions aided in the Diocese were the State Hospital in Middletown, the Newington Home for Crippled Children, the Connecticut State Prison at Wethersfield, the Stamford Hospital, the Bridgeport Hospital, the Bridgeport Boys' Club, the Naugatuck Day Nursery, the Connecticut School for Boys, and the Veterans' Hospital in Newington. These are only a few of the many institutions helped in Connecticut, but they will give some idea of the type of places where our magazines, books, cards, etc., go.

Connecticut now has five Archdeaconry Secretaries whose co-operation means much to the Diocesan Director and who deserve much credit for their fine work.

Respectfully submitted,

KATHARINE MATTHIES,

Diocesan Director No. 3

ANNUAL REPORT OF THE CHURCH MISSIONS PUBLISHING COMPANY, 1932

To The Woman's Auxiliary of the Diocese of Connecticut:

Once more the Board of Managers of the Church Missions Publishing Company beg to thank the Woman's Auxiliary of this Diocese for their interest and help during our publication year 1932-1933.

The financial assistance is of great and appreciated value, for it covers more than two of our most useful publications, providing, as source material for the Mission Study Classes of 1933, the additional matter in the re-issued edition of "Indian Tribes and Missions," and the supplement to the same, and also partly pays for the China numbers described below.

Following is the list of publications in the Series:

THE CHURCH IN STORY AND PAGEANT

A Pageant of Christmas, by The Rev. John Mills Gilbert.

Frontiers and Pioneers of the Church in America, by the Rev. Percy Varney Norwood, Ph. D., Professor of Church History in the Western Theological Seminary at Evanston, Illinois. This is a very condensed summary of the Missions sent from Europe in early days for the establishment of Christian worship by any organization of any form of the Christian faith. To a student it serves the purpose of an outline map, the details of which are to be filled in.

The Joyful Gift, a play by Frances B. Barney of New Haven, the story of a worldly society woman whose thoughts are turned from pleasure to serious participation in the mission work of the Church. The "Blue Box" is kept before the attention as a concrete symbol. This missionary play has received the official commendation of the representatives of the National Committee of the Woman's Auxiliary at the office of the National Council of the Church, and is being urged by them for representation.

Part I of Indian Tribes and Missions, which is a History of the Indians of North America, has been reprinted. This is a valuable work, in agreement with specific research, and by it the habitat of every great tribe can be located on the map. Before it was issued, the Department of the Interior sent us all its latest reports. We have examined them all, and added what information seemed most vital; short and condensed, but significant. One brief statement interprets more than a century of history:

"War and Peace. Bulletin 14 (1924) gives a list of sixty-seven wars between white men and Indians within our present State boundaries between 1782 and 1898. The Report of 1931 is a pamphlet of ninety-one pages devoted exclusively to the pacific co-operation of the Government and the Indians in the field of Agricultural Extension and Industry."

In addition to this we wrote to the Bishops of all Dioceses and Missionary Jurisdictions in which we have mission stations to the Indians. There are 159 working mission stations in the States described in Indian Tribes and Missions, and 13 in Alaska, and reports received of additional work since 1925 are contained in the Supplement. As it now stands complete, Indian Tribes and Missions contains all the material of the edition of 1925-6, which was the enlarged form of The Church's Mission to the Indians, of 1913, and the Supplement bringing the history to 1933, all of which has been included in a volume bound in paper covers, and sold at the low cost of one dollar. This has been recommended to the Mission Study Classes of 1933 by the National Council.

A paper read by Mr. Raymond E. Baldwin, entitled, Christ Church, Stratford, at the celebration of the two hundred and twenty-fifth anniversary of the founding of that church, has been reprinted in this Series, and will be sent out with George Keith, by the Rev. Joseph Hooper, and Samuel Johnson, by a descendant, the Rev. Dr. George D. Johnson.

Two Letters of rare interest, one by Bishop Skinner of Aberdeen to Bishop Seabury on the occasion of his consecration, and Bishop Seabury's reply to the same, are also to be issued. These have never been printed before.

We have also in hand a really extraordinary work—a Pageant by Miss Inez Temple illustrating the Church at the time of Bishop Seabury's consecration. It is hoped that this will be given in every parish in the Diocese, and a copy will be sent to every clergyman of the Diocese, and to every Bishop of the Church.

In addition we hold in reserve a remarkable collection of thumbnail Sketches of Liberian Life, by the Rev. Elwood Lindsay Haines, who served there, entitled, Children of the Dark.

In the SOLDIER AND SERVANT SERIES we have set forth Glimpses of Missionary Work in the Diocese of South Japan (Kyushu) by the Bishop, the Rt. Rev. Arthur Lea, M. A., D. D., compiled by his sister, Mrs. Alfred Clark. In connection with recent affairs it may be noted that, so far as reported, not a Christian missionary, or school, or church, or hospital, has been molested in the Island Kingdom.

The succeeding number was Mrs. Alexander Hamilton a Witness that George Washington was a Communicant of the Church. Her affirmation, given to her great-grandson, the Rev. Alexander Hamilton, was that the Holy Communion was celebrated at the Inaugural Service in St. Paul's Chapel, and that Washington and members of his staff then and there received.

Arthur Cleveland Coxe and Christian Ballads carried his life, in brief, to the close of his rectorship of St. John's Church, Hartford, and St. Gabriel's Mission, Windsor, with a considerable selection from the Ballads. The sources of the life were from writings by Mrs. Albert Sioussat, author of "Old Baltimore," the Rev. Dr. Samuel Hart, the Rev. Dr. George S. Mallory, and the Dictionary of American Biography.

This was followed by Arthur Cleveland Coxe and the Paschal, based on the same sources, and the history of the Diocese of Western New York, by the Rev. Dr. Charles Wells Hayes, and contained also a large number of selections from "The Paschal."

A St. Mary's Teacher in the Famine District of China, by Margaret Hart Bailey, describes conditions there about ten years ago, and the pamphlet also has Follow-up Work at St. Mary's Hall, Shanghai. These sketches have been accepted by the Adult Educational Department, on the ground that conditions now are about the same. The author is now the wife of the Very Rev. Paul Humphrey Barbour, who is still Honorary Canon of Christ Church Cathedral, Hartford, and has recently been elected Dean of the Rosebud district, where he has charge of twenty-six Indian mission stations.

A forthcoming publication of great interest is the Life of Bishop William Croswell Doane, by the Very Rev. George L. Richardson, D. D., who has recently published a life of Bishop Hall of Vermont. The life of one of our greatest bishops, by this accomplished biographer, will be an exceedingly valuable addition to Church history.

In conclusion, we would again thank the Woman's Auxiliary of the Diocese of Connecticut for their valued aid and interest, and shall earnestly endeavor to continue our co-operation with them in the extension of the Kingdom of Christ.

Respectfully submitted,

MARY ELIZABETH BEACH,

Secretary of the Church Missions
Publishing Company.

ARCHDEACONRY TABLES

The Archdeaconry Table has been made out to show the offerings each parish has given to the Budget, to Specials that have been given through the Auxiliary Treasurer, to the United Thank Offering, to the Comfort Club, and the total cash offerings. It shows the value of boxes given to the Comfort Club, to the Supply Department and the total box values; also the Grand Totals.

The advantage of this plan is that the whole record of each parish can be seen at a glance, instead of having to look in three different reports to find it. "Specials" indirectly reported are not included as none of the money passed through the Auxiliary Treasurer's hands.
