Address of the President

It gives me great pleasure to welcome the delegates from the various parish branches of the Auxiliary, to this our annual meeting. In these meetings we come nearer and closer together, our interests are more united, our work better understood. The annual reports tell us of the work done in the smaller parishes, and by a discussion of ways and means for furthering and extending our aims and objects, new ideas are suggested and new avenues opened.

We are all working for one great end—Missions; and if we would make our labors effective, we must seek to know more, for only when we learn about the needs and opportunities can we hope to be interested and to arouse interest in others.

Woman's best work is that of influence. It is the leaven that gives life and power to every effort, and if each one of us could realize her responsibility, the work of the Auxiliary would not lag.

The grand meeting at San Francisco aroused zeal and enthusiasm, and the interesting address of Miss Emery further stimulated us—but how far short of all our intentions does our work seem!

I shall not detail lost opportunity or repeated failures, but will hope for better things in the future. Each year brings new work. There can be no retrograde movement. If we have done well this year, we must strive to do better in the next. The more we do, the more interested we become.

During the year it has been my privilege to attend the Missionary Meetings at Abilene, Terrell and Paris, and from each of these places we expect reports of good work done by the Auxiliary.

Woman's ability to work is established unquestioned. Let us each ask the question, am I doing what I can, praying, studying, giving?

Individual effort, a common purpose, and the knowledge of missions will surely accomplish the desired result.

LIBBIE G. WALLACE.

Minutes of the Fifth Annual Meeting

The Fifth Annual Meeting of the Woman's Auxiliary of the Diocese of Dallas was held on Wednesday morning, May 14, 1902, in St. Matthew's Cathedral, Dallas.

At 9 a. m. there was a special celebration of the Holy Communion, the Bishop being the celebrant. The annual address to the members of the Auxiliary was made by the Bishop. At ten o'clock, the Diocesan President, Mrs. Wallace, called the meeting to order in the choir room. After prayer, the roll was called and all but two parish branches were represented:

The Church of The Heavenly Rest, Abilene, ———; St. John's, Corsicana, Mrs. A. O. Buck; St. Matthew's, Dallas, Mesdames Thatcher and Easton; St. Luke's, Denison, Mrs. J. L. Drake; St. Andrew's, Fort Worth, Mesdames Shropshire and Edgell; Trinity, Fort Worth, Mesdames Beggs and Dickerson; St. Paul's, Greenville, Mrs. Bulbrook; St. Peter's, McKinney, Mesdames Boyd and White; Church of the Holy Cross, Paris, Mrs. H. C. Ferris; St. Stephen's Sherman, Mrs. W. J. Miller, Miss Walsh; St. James', Texarkana, Mrs. Rosborough; Church of the Good Shepherd, Terrell, Mrs. Christian; St. Paul's Waxahachie, ———; St. Stephen's, Sherman, Junior Auxiliary, Miss Imogene Balthrop.

The minutes of the third quarterly meeting held in Paris were read and approved. The President's address followed, after which were read the reports of parish branches and the Secretary and Treasurer's reports. Pledges were made for Diocesan Missions, St. Mary's College, and Alaska, and the annual diocesan dues paid.

The meeting then adjourned for luncheon which was served at the home of one of the members of the Cathedral parish.

At three in the afternoon, the President called the meeting to order, and the diocesan officers were elected by ballot. Appeals were read for the Church Home and Hospital, Orlando, Florida; for the Church work in Mexico, and for All Saints' Hospital, Fort Worth. Miss Emery's Report on Reports was read, and after a vote of thanks from the delegates for the delightful hospitality of the Dallas branch, the meeting adjourned.

ELIZABETH ROBINSON,
Recording Secretary.
