Prayers

For Peace.

O God, by Whose gracious Providence all things in heaven and earth are ruled; Hear our prayer, we beseech Thee, and grant peace in our time, that we and all Christian peoples may praise Thy Holy Name in godly union and concord; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

For the Suffering.

Almighty God, Who dost look down in fatherly love upon all Thy children; We beseech Thee to hear our humble prayers for those who suffer in the war which is now raging. Give them, we pray thee, the consolation of Thy grace; heal the sick, comfort the wounded, minister to the dying, and bind up the broken heart. All this we ask through the mediation of Thy Son, Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

For the Unity of Christendom.

O Lord, Jesus Christ, Who saidst unto Thine Apostles, Peace I leave with you, my peace I give unto you; Regard not our sins, but the faith of Thy Church, and grant to all thy children, throughout the whole world, that peace and unity which is agreeable to thy will, Who livest and reignest God forever and ever. Amen.

The Lord bless us, and keep us, The Lord make His face to shine upon us, and be gracious unto us. The Lord lift up His countenance upon us, and give us peace, both now and evermore. Amen.

Prayers

A Missionary Prayer.

O Eternal God, who has committed unto us the swift and solemn trust of life, since we know not what a day may bring forth, but only that the hour for serving Thee is always present; Grant that we may give ourselves with a ready will to make Thy way known upon earth, Thy saving health among all nations. Teach us, our Father, by Thine infinite love for us and for all men, to love those whom we have not seen, but with whom we may share the good things Thou hast entrusted to us. Help us to pray instantly, to give liberally, and to work diligently, that the coming of Thy Kingdom may be hastened, and that the sorrow of the world may be relieved, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

For the Woman's Auxiliary.

O, God to Whom all Thy children are dear, we beg Thy blessing on the women who are banded in fellowship of love and good works, to the end that Thy name may be honored, Thy Church edified, and Thy servants helped; and we beseech Thee to fill the hearts of all faithful people with love of Thee, and hunger for Thy presence here and forever; all which we ask for the sake of Him who died and rose again for us, Thy Son Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

The New Junior Collect.

O God, our Heavenly Father, we thank Thee for the gift of Thy dear Son. Grant that we who have received Him in our hearts may joyfully go forth with Him on many errands. Bless those who toil for Thee in far off places; comfort them in their loneliness; and unite our work to theirs. Accept our gifts; receive our prayers; and use us for the sake of Thy Son Jesus Christ, our Lord. Amen.

For Mission Study Classes.

O Lord, we beseech Thee to accept the endeavors of Thy servants engaged in this special work; and grant that it may be fruitful in blessing to themselves, and by Thy grace profitable to the edification of Thy Church; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Prayer to be Used by all the Little Helpers.

God bless all the missionaries all over the world and all the Little Helpers, for Jesus Christ's sake. Amen.

IN MEMORIAM*Sarah Giles Short

The Woman's Auxiliary of the Diocees of Delaware, is again called to mourn the loss of one of its senior officers, Mrs. Daniel Short, Vice-President for Sussex County. Mrs. Short was called the day before Trinity Sunday, June 17, 1916.

Although in feeble health, she fulfilled all her duties to the end.

At the last Executive Committee Meeting of the Woman's Auxiliary held in Wilmington, the last week in May, she took the journey as she so often had done, that she might be present. This was accomplished in much physical weakness and weariness, so that her fellow-officers feared she was over straining her powers of endurance; but the cheerful spirit, the unflagging interest which she showed was a lesson, and an inspiration to her companions in the church's work.

An even greater void has been left in her own parish for as a member of its guild and its Woman's Auxiliary, she has been the moving spirit for years. A resolution passed by the guild of St. Philip's Church, Laurel, speaks of the late president of the guild, as having for a quarter of a century guided its affairs with wisdom, zeal, good judgment and indefatigable earnestness, as one who loved with great love, her Lord and His Church.

Sallie F. Giles was born near Laurel, Delaware, February 13, 1848. She was the daughter of Isaac and Sarah Giles.

Her first husband, Mr. G. W. Horsey, died about twenty-five years ago. In 1894, she became the wife of Daniel Short, President of the People's National Bank of Laurel. In her hospitable home, she had an ever ready welcome for friends old and new, and especially do the members of the Woman's Auxiliary remember the warmth of her greeting.

She was one of the most prominent women in the State, and enjoyed the love and esteem of a large circle of friends.

Her interest in her Church was unabated even when failing health would seem to have been a valid excuse for giving up all work outside of her home. What stronger proof could she give of her devotion to her Church than the fact that she left the most of her estate to the Diocese of Delaware to be used for the maintenance of St. Philips' Church, Laurel. In this crowning action of her life "She being dead, yet speaketh."

Many tributes will be offered to the character of this noble Christian woman, but in no Society will she be more sincerely mourned than in the Woman's Auxiliary of Delaware. The members of its Executive Committee will ever treasure her memory, and hold her in affectionate and reverent remembrance.

PRESIDENTS' ADDRESS

Dear Friends of the Auxiliary:

At the close of this our thirty-second year as the Delaware Branch of the Woman's Auxiliary, let us take counsel together, giving thanks for the blessings and benefits of the past year and earnestly seeking to go farther and do better in the year that is to come.

We grievously miss the presence of our Bishop, yet are we sure that in spirit and in prayer he is with us to-day, and we send to him our affectionate greeting, with the earnest hope that he may be long spared to shepherd his people of Delaware.

Our last meeting was held at Christ Church, Christiana Hundred, and we are glad to be again welcomed by the same good friend of the Auxiliary, the Rev. W. H. Laird, at his present parish of Immanuel, Wilmington.

The October meeting at Seaford brought together many from the lower part of the State who are not always able to be present when our meetings are held in New Castle County. Those of us privileged to attend will long remember the many thoughtful kindnesses received from the hostess branch, making more than good the famed hospitality of Sussex County.

The Epiphany meeting was held at St. John's, Wilmington, where an enthusiastic congregation welcomed back to his old diocese and parish our own missionary from Delaware, the Rev. S. Harrington Littell, to whom we listened with pride and pleasure as he told the good news of the spread of Christ's Kingdom in the far off land of China.

Besides these stated meetings, we had with us at a meeting in October, at Trinity Parish House, Wilmington, Mr. and Mrs. Charles B. Pancoast. Mrs. Pancoast's earnest appeal for St. Luke's Hospital, Tokyo and the beautiful views thrown on the screen by Mr. Pancoast, made us long to have our share in this good work also.

We are always greatly indebted to our neighboring diocese of Pennsylvania for its helpful attitude towards us, manifested in past years by the sending of Mission Study class leaders, and this year, by the coming to us on April 5th, of their Bishop, the Right Rev. Philip Mercer Rhinelander, who conducted most spiritual and helpful "Devotional Hours."

From your diocesan officers, you will hear, in fuller detail than I can give, the result of the past year. Under Mrs. Bradford's able management, good missionary boxes have been sent. Let us pause to consider the unique work of these missionary boxes. They mean hours and hours of careful thought and patient toil—the cheerful labor of many willing hands. They are most direct and personal. They say to the lonely missionary, to the tired hospital worker, to the patient school teacher, to the poor whites of the mountian and to the red Indian of the plain, "My brother, my sister, this gift from me to you is the work of my hands. It bears the love of my heart. Let it be a bond between us."

To learn more of these our brethren, of the work and the workers, let us strive to increase the membership of our Mission Study Classes. So great is the privilege and opportunity offered by these Study Classes, we would that many more might avail themselves thereof.

There yet remains four months in which we may increase our United Offering. Present holders of the Little Blue Box we know have already given faithfully and conscientiously, but there are so many who know little or nothing of the United Offering and its mission. Will not those of us who do know, tell others, that all may have a share in the joy of increasing the amount of this, our woman's gift of gratitude for the blessings of the Gospel of Christ? The solution of greater giving lies, not so much in larger gifts from the few but in more gifts from the many.

Our United Offering Treasurer has striven by every means in her power to interest and instruct. The presentation of "The Little Blue Box" of which she will tell you, was a delightful means of instruction. The lecture and lantern slides sent from the Church Mission House for last night's meeting, were also of the deepest interest. Let us by earnest prayer and faithful endeavor, uphold the hands of our Treasurer of United Offering.

Surely all of us must have taken pleasure in the printed copies of our thirty-first annual report, so well and carefully prepared by our secretary.

Have we not all felt that the mantles of our so faithful secretary and treasurer, Miss Mary Lafferty and Mrs. Emma A. Lodge have indeed fallen upon our present secretaries and treasurer, and that the work so well begun by these of sainted memories, is going on as they would rejoice to have it?

I cannot close without a personal word of heartfelt appreciation of the loyal support given by my fellow officers, and of especial gratitude to our much loved honorary President for counsel, advice and encouragement; for the giving of her time and strength to go wherever asked, to do whatever called upon to do.

MARTHA P. DERICKSON BRINGHURST,
President.

Minutes of the Thirty-second Annual Meeting

---

The annual meeting of the Delaware Branch of the Woman's Auxiliary to the Board of Missions, was held at Immanuel Church, Wilmington, May 25, 1916, at 10.30 A. M. There was a celebration of the Holy Communion, Bishop Hulse of Cuba, celebrant, assisted by the Rev. R. W. Trapnell, rector of St. Andrew's, the Rev. Robert Bell of Old Swedes' and the Rev William H. Laird, rector of Immanuel.

The Rev. Mr. Laird welcomed the women of the diocese to Immanuel Church most warmly and mentioned that it was the first time Immanuel parish has had the privilege of entertaining the Woman's Auxiliary. He said the only thing lacking was the presence of our Bishop.

Bishop Hulse was the speaker of the morning. "The Church in Cuba," was his subject. First he explained about the size and population of Cuba. He said there about 10,000 American Colonists there and a much larger number of English speaking negroes from other West Indian islands, besides the native population speaking Spanish, which makes the work three-fold. A number of buildings are greatly needed in places where the work shows signs of permanence. There should be a school in connection with each mission. Two hundred and fifty dollars will equip a small school, and usually the tuition fees keep it going. Every effort is at present concentrated on raising $5,000 with which to build a church, school building and rectory in Santiago. The lot has already been purchased.

Bishop Hulse vividly described conditions in Cuba and it was the feeling of the meeting that it would be a privilege to help in the work there.

At noon-day prayers for missions were offered.

A letter from Bishop Kinsman was read in which he regretted his inability to be present and expressed good wishes for a well-attended and successful meeting.

A message of greeting and regret at his absence was telegraphed to the Bishop, at Birchmere, Bryant Pond, Maine.

Luncheon was announced at this time in the parish house, and a cordial invitation was extended to all present to partake. About two hundred women responded to roll call, representing sixteen parish branches. At 1.30 P. M. the meeting for business convened and was called to order by the President, Mrs. Frederick Bringhurst.

Minutes of the Fall meeting were approved as read.

The Treasurer reported:

Balance from 1914-1915.....	$ 106.12
Received from pledges and offerings.....	1496.16
<hr/>
Total.....	$1602.28
Paid out by check.....	$1465.13
Balance May 25, 1916.....	137.15
	$1602.28

On motion this report was accepted and ordered placed on file.

Mrs. McIlviane, honorary President spoke a few words of greeting and encouragement. The President's address followed in which she reviewed the year's work.

Reports were offered by the Directress of Missionary Box Work; Educational Secretary; Treasurer of The United Offering; Correspondent of the Church Periodical Club; Diocesan Agent for the Spirit of Missions; President of the Junior Auxiliary; Treasurer of the Mexican Division; Treasurer of the Little Helpers.

These reports were accepted and ordered placed on file.

A report of the Normal Mission Study Classes of the Provincial Synod held last October in Richmond, Va., written by Mrs. William H. Laird, was read by Mrs. Bringhurst, owing to the enforced absence of Mrs. Laird, because of her son's illness with scarlet fever. The paper was most interesting, and on motion it was ordered to be included in the Annual Report.

Pledges were received for the Mary Lafferty and Emma Lodge Memorial Fund, the interest of which will be devoted to the United Offering.

Articles VI and VII of the Constitution were read with the proposed changes. It was felt that the delegates were not sufficiently familiar with them to vote intelligently at this time. On motion it was decided that a printed slip containing Articles VI and VII as they stand and with the proposed changes be sent to each parish Branch for action, and that delegates be instructed to vote accordingly at the Fall meeting. Annual election of officers resulted in the re-election of officers of the preceding year. Junior Auxiliary officers also remain the same as last year. It was voted to change the form of the pledge for the work of the Rev. S. Harrington Littell to read: Hankow, China; Scholarship for All Saints' Catechetical School, which will make it count on the apportionment.

A rising vote of thanks was extended to the rector, Woman's Auxiliary, choir and all members of Immanuel Parish for the beautiful welcome they have given the Diocesan Branch to-day. There was also a unanimous vote of regret at the absence of the rector's wife, Mrs. William H. Laird.

An invitation to hold the Fall meeting at Trinity Church was accepted with gratitude.

On motion the meeting adjourned.

MARGARET H. REINHARDT.
Secretary.

TREASURER'S REPORT

Once more I wish to urge the necessity of all dues, pledges and offerings being sent through the Diocesan Treasurer in order that they may be credited in the report. Scholarships may frequently be sent in such a way as to apply on the apportionment if properly "Designated." May I again request that, so far as possible, all money be in the hands of the Treasurer before the 1st of May, to facilitate the closing of the year's accounts.

REPORT OF DIRECTRESS OF MISSIONARY BOX WORK

The destination and valuation of Missionary Boxes is stated in the Report of Parish Branches.

Four branches have made no report this year but two of these have not reported for several years, and of the others, one sent a contribution to the United Alaska box, and the other sent money instead of box work. Of the remaining twenty-one branches, all but three have made gains over last year's work. Our total gains over last year are $280.60.

United Alaska Box.

Sixteen branches contributed to this box, the value of which was $121.26. This includes postage $15.25 and insurance, 35 cents, which leaves $104.95 as the value of the articles sent. There were seven packages, weighing nineteen pounds each and each one was as large as the postal law allowed.

LOUISA L. BRADFORD.

DIRECTIONS FOR PARISH SECRETARIES

1. The Directress of Missionary Box Work of the Diocesan Branch has on hand letters sent from the Church Missions House, stating need of missionaries, hospitals and schools in the Mission field. When your branch is ready to start work, write to the Directress for Missioary Box Work for such letters.
2. When your branch has undertaken the work for which your selected letter calls, notify the Directress at once, sending her the name and address in such letter, and your own address and parish.

3. It is of the utmost importance that immediately after such decision all rejected letters be returned to the Directress.

4. Write to the missionary at once, stating when and from whom he may expect a box.

5. Write to the missionary as soon as the box has been dispatched, also to the Diocesan Directress for Missionary Box Work, Mrs. W. D. Bradford, Middletown, Delaware, with statement concerning value of box.

EDUCATIONAL SECRETARY'S REPORT

Since this year was set aside as a Review Year, it was decided not to hold a Normal Class, but allow each Parish to select its own course of Study. A meeting was called in February by your Secretary, of the leaders or prospective leaders of Mission Study Classes in, or near Wilmington. At this meeting the discussion and suggestions were very helpful and it was decided to hold another conference at the close of the year.

This second conference was held on May 24th. It was suggested that each parish be asked to urge the attendance of at least one member at a Summer School, and where possible, that a small collection be taken at each Class Meeting, the total sum of money collected to be used toward defraying the expenses of a delegate at a Summer School.

Another suggestion was that the "Mission Study Classes," be held at another time than during Lent. If possible, a Mission Study Class is to be held at Rehoboth, this summer.

Successful Study Classes, have been held at:

St. Andrew's, Wilmington, enrolled 13, average attendance 7; Book used, "Conquest of the Continent."

St. John's, Wilmington; enrolled 10; average attendance, 7; book used, "Conquest of the Continent."

Immanuel, New Castle, average attendance, 7; book used, "Then and Now."

St. James, Stanton and Marshallton, two classes: Auxiliary, 8
Girl's Friendly, 10; book used, "How Our Church Came to this Country," and "Conquest of the Continent."

At St. Peters, Lewes, the rector conducted a class, using the book, "The Southern Highlands and Highlanders." The following parishes have read from the "Spirit of Missions" at their Auxiliary Meetings: Christ Church, Delaware City; St. Paul's, Camden and Wyoming; Trinity, Wilmington; St. Ann's, Middletown; Immanuel, New Castle; Old Swedes, Wilmington.

A suggestion has come from Milford that after a parish has finished a course of study, the books might be exchanged with another Parish

Your secretary had the pleasure of visiting the St. Andrews Branch of the Auxiliary; two other visits were planned but could not be arranged.

Sixty-one Missionary calendars were sold this year, forty-five of these being sold by one member of the St. John's Branch, Wilmington. Respectfully submitted.

REPORT OF NORMAL MISSION STUDY CLASSES
OF THE PROVINCIAL SYNOD, RICHMOND, VA.,
OCTOBER, 1915, BY MRS. WILLIAM H. LAIRD

(READ AT ANNUAL MEETING.)

I have been asked to make a three-minute report of the Normal Mission Study Classes of the Provincial Synod held last October in Richmond, Va. I only wish it were possible to make such a startling report as would cause every woman here to wake to her responsibilities and privileges, so that no one would allow another year pass without enrolling herself in a study class.

It seemed to me that the keynote of the whole synod was that of "Preparedness," although that much overworked word was not used. Mrs. Pilsbury, who led the Woman's Normal Class, and Miss Lindley, who instructed Junior leaders, were speaking to women who seemed all alive to their responsibilities towards the world at large as members of the church militant.

I am aware that mission study is a subject which is unpopular with most of the laity, and even some of the clergy. Almost everyone believes in missions per se. It is getting unstylish and behind the times to express disbelief in so patent a principle. We realize that we are the products of missionary efforts, first in Europe and Great Britain, and then of that tri-colored spirit—part commercial, part explorative, part religious—which actuated our forefathers to settle here in America. But "Why have missions study classes?" you ask. For many reasons.

First, because it is as important for the member of the church to know what is being done on the missionary front as for the soldier to keep in touch with the happenings in the war zone. To be efficient, he must peruse his "Manuel of Field Practice," must study the best places for the establishment of military bases and forts, and the points of strategic importance. He must also find his inspiration for splendid deed of action through the noble examples of his comrades at the firing-line. And so it is not enough for us who are soldiers of Christ to sit securely at home and sing "Fling out the Banner," but must help to fling it. We must take the trouble to see where it floats, and where it fails to float; pressing forward ourselves, wherever necessary, to hold it aloft in the very front of the fight.

Second—Our Lord said: "Where the treasure is, there will the heart be also." I think the converse is likewise true:—If our heart is in the work, our treasure will soon follow suit, enabling us to meet our apportionments with ease, and to make such other sacrifices as may be necessary. True interest in any undertaking never fails to provide the means for its successful prosecution.

Third—Mission Study Classes are needed because we are woefully uneducated. I see you stare in incredulity, and yet it is true. College graduate though you be, club-woman, linguist, musician, society-leader, social service worker, you need, and need greatly the education which comes from Mission Study. By way of illustration, let me give a bird's eye view of the topic covered in merely one course—"The Conquest of the Continent"—First Lesson Topic—"The Church's Mission to the Nation;" embracing discussion of U. S. History, its expansion, possessions, and present relations with other nations. Also, a comparison of National with Church History. Lesson Two. Topic—"The Church;" with a discussion of our church, her history and work in America. Lesson Three: "The Indian and the Esquimau." Lesson Four: "The Immigrant and the Mormon." Lessons five and six: "The Negro." Lesson seven: "The Parish" seemingly a trite, narrow subject, but, studied well, it looms up as a great mountain of responsibility set in a vast prairie of opportunity. Is there nothing in all of this for you to learn, and does it not bear directly upon the intelligent discharge of our mission? How many for example, in the average audience are aware that the following distinguished men were members of the Protestant Episcopal Church: George Washington, George Mason, Thomas Jefferson, Patrick Henry, James Madison, John Marshall, Alexander Hamilton, Richard Henry Lee, Peyton Randolph, Robt. Livingstone, Chas. Cotesworthy Pinckney, John Morton, Robert E. Lee, Robert Morris and Caesar Rodney. In the reflected afterglow of such a heritage, where, tell me, is the man or woman whose heart does not respond to this splendid challenge, whose life will not be lifted to a higher level by the mere recital of the names of those in whose places they now stand, and whose magnificent work they must now carry on and develope?

Did you know, again, that out of the thirty-nine signers of the United States Constitution, twenty-five were Episcopalians?

Fourth. Through Mission Study we catch a glimpse of the real menace, or opportunity (it depends on us which it shall be) in the great hordes of immigrants which have already come, and which will continue to come, to our land. It is here we must learn to be prepared for the future, and to discover in good time, the best means of grappling with this tremendous question.

Fifth. In Mission Study Classes we are brought into closer touch with our Lord. Is it not worth while to go up into the mountain, even though the ascent be difficult, to meet him whose hands of blessing are outstretched over all the world? While there, our sense of perspective and values will become clearer and truer. We will see that, in reality, there is no dividing line between Home and Foreign Missions, and that they are eternally bound up together.

Sixth. We need the prayers of study classes, since we can only grow up to the measure of our prayers, if we know not for what we should pray, our spiritual stature is bound to be stunted.

Lastly, we are preparing definitely and intelligently for the coming of Christ's Kingdom. We are told to look toward this as the greatest of all events—a special blessing being promised to all those who watch and work for this end. How mortified we will be then when He suddenly appears, and we find ourselves unable to meet His gaze for very shame, in that we had no part in the preparations for His home-coming, had made no effort to hasten His return, nor even helped to bring in some guests to grace His feast, so lovingly spread for all!

I trust that each woman here may so see her need of mission study that, in the years to come, not one parish will be without this great stimulus to intelligent labor in God's work; not one woman will feel that she has even begun to do her duty, until she has mastered these fundamentals of Christian missionary education.

WILMINGTON, DELAWARE, October 1, 1916.

To the Treasurer of the United Offering:

With the greatest joy I am able to announce that our splendid United Offering for the Triennial Missionary Convention in St. Louis, this month, has more than surpassed our fondest expectations, reaching the considerable sum of $2910, $560 more than the amount sent three years ago.

The serious deficiency of more than $700, reported at the May meeting of the Auxiliary, was met by all the United Offering Treasurers with zeal and determination and the great result bears witness of their work.

I congratulate them all on their splendid achievement and hope that now while their enthusiasm runs high they will lay their plans for another year, remembering that it is every woman's and every girl's privilege to take part in this Thank Offering, and not only the limited circle of Women's Auxiliary workers.

Try to get systematic pledges of five cents a week from those who have not formerly shown interest in this work; show them that this is not a side issue of Church work, but one of the biggest things our Church women are doing all over the United States.

Ask your rector and Auxiliary president to co-operate with you in arranging a meeting to make definite plans and consecrate your annual offering. Thus do we make it a feature of the annual Church program.

Finally let me congratulate you again on your great Thank Offering and hearty co-operation with

ANNIE D. TALLMAN,
Diocesan Treasurer.

The annual $6.00, in full, was forwarded to Central Office of Church Periodical Club, New York, for C. P. C. work.

I want to make a most earnest appeal to all my librarians at this meeting for more assistance, in a financial way. They all have done nobly in a literary way, and I want to thank them, each and all, for their untiring efforts in advancing the cause of C. P. C. work. Now let us see how much we can do this coming year to make a better showing in the financial side of our report.
