REPORT OF THE PRESIDENT.

There were several changes in our officers during the past year. Our First Vice-President, Miss Gilliss, was obliged to resign through illness—a great loss to the Auxiliary, for she has always been a very active member of our board, and personally a dear friend of mine, whose illness will, I trust, soon leave her convalescent and able again to join us in consultation if not in active work.

Our efficient Treasurer, Miss Sawyer, was obliged to resign, but we are fortunate to have Miss Emily Matthews, our treasurer for many years return to us. Mrs. Grimes, our corresponding secretary declined being again a candidate, after doing her work most efficiently.

Mrs. Jewell and Mrs. Smiley were two new members of the board. The corresponding and the recording secretary will give details in their reports of work done in all the parishes. My thanks are due to my dear “co-workers” for the kind words spoken for them by the Rev. Mr. Dunlap and the beautiful basket of flowers presented to me at our last meeting. The whole service on that day was most delightful, with a fine address by Rev. R. Cotton Smith, of St. John’s Church, excellent music by the organist and choir boys, made it all very inspiring, ending in the afternoon by address by Rev. Mr. Bratenahl. With hopes of work during the summer and meeting in November,

JANE WILKES,
President.

ANNUAL REPORT OF RECORDING SECRETARY.

The presentation service for the United Offering, which has now become the opening event of each year for the work of the Woman's Auxiliary, was held at St. Margaret's Church, October 8th, at 8 p.m. The Rev. Herbert Scott Smith preached on this occasion a most interesting and inspiring missionary sermon.

Owing to the fact that St. John's Church was occupied with wedding ceremonies on the date of the opening meeting in November, it became necessary to postpone the usual morning services and luncheon until the December meeting.

The fall and winter session for 1914-1915 therefore opened at 2.30 p.m., November 3d, in St. John's Parish Hall.

The annual election of officers was held at this meeting. The resignations of Miss Gilliss, 1st Vice-President, Mrs. Grimes, Corresponding Secretary, and Miss Gordon, Educational Secretary, were accepted by the members with appropriate resolutions of regret and appreciation of services rendered in the past by these officers.

The Rev. Mr. Lee, from China, gave an address at this meeting.

The December meeting was opened with services for Corporate Communion in St. John's Church on December 1st, at eleven a.m., followed by a short business meeting and luncheon in the Parish Hall. Owing to the absence, due to illness, of the President, Miss Wilkes, the 1st Vice-President, Mrs. Albert L. Mills, was in the chair.

This meeting was of unusual interest and importance, because of the reports given by delegates who had attended the Provincial Convention held at Pittsburgh in November.

Mrs. Ely was the speaker for the day, giving an address on her personal experiences in China, and describing most graphically the conditions there, especially as affecting women and girls.

The Rev. Mr. Betticher, from Alaska, spoke at the January meeting of his work in that field, and his remarks contained the gratifying statement that credit for the good results of missionary efforts in Alaska should be given to the women workers there, and stated that the United Offering was supporting one-half of the women missionaries in that territory.

Those attending the February meeting had the privilege of hearing three speakers, namely: Mrs. Wetmore, from the Mountain Missions at Arden, N. C.; Bishop Howden, of New Mexico, and Mrs. Forrest, who told of local mission work done by the Guild of the Innocents.

Canon DeVries talked to the members at the March meeting concerning many problems with which rectors and their wives had to deal in some parts of this Diocese, particularly in Southern Maryland.

The Rev. Williamson Smith, of St. John's Parish, Washington, and Miss Tillotson, from the Church Missions House in New York, gave interesting matter for thought and effort at the April meeting.

Mission Study Classes were held during the winter, the textbook, "The Social Aspects of Foreign Missions," proving to be of unusual interest and merit.

Respectfully submitted,

KATHARINE F. ROBINSON.

REPORT OF THE CHURCH PERIODICAL CLUB.

April 1, 1914, to April 1, 1915.

The fact that there has been an increase over last year in the amount of money raised and the number of periodicals sent is satisfactory proof that the C. P. C. is each year more generally known and therefore more efficient. The sending of periodicals currently is accompanied by a two-fold blessing—the lonely are cheered, and the accumulation of magazines in the garret, which is a problem to the householder, is obviated.

REPORT OF THE EDUCATIONAL SECRETARY.

The educational work of the Diocesan Auxiliary began during Epiphany. Two normal classes were held under the able leadership of Mrs. McGrew and Mrs. Whitehead. The time and attention given by these ladies to the work deserves a much better support than has been given them.

Two very serious difficulties have confronted us this year, one in the resignation of the very efficient secretary and in the absolute inexperience of the new one, and the almost impossibility of securing leaders. Three of the large and most important Parishes were unable to hold study classes on this account. Two Parishes were supplied from other churches. St. Thomas' from Trinity and St. Andrew's from St. Stephen's. The attention of this Auxiliary is called to the value of the teacher training to be had at the various conferences to be held during the summer. It is the experience of all leaders that these conferences do more to develop Mission Study than anything else. Of the fourteen classes reported from last year, eleven were revived and seven new ones added. Several country parishes have kept in step by reading a book on Missions at their Auxiliary meetings. The total of the year's work is two normal classes, eighteen study classes.

Respectfully submitted,

VIRGINIA SMYLIE,
Educational Secretary,
219 C St., N. W.

REPORT OF THE JUNIOR AUXILIARY.

The Junior Auxiliary reports seventeen active branches. Two public meetings for children and leaders have been held this past winter, one in December and one in April. The speaker in December was Deaconess Peet, from Baltimore, and last month we had the pleasure of having with us the general Junior Secretary, Miss Grace Lindley, who won all hearts. At our monthly meetings for leaders, the subject for discussion has been the Junior book, "Building of the City." I have visited most of the branches and have found mission study an important feature with nearly all. In addition to our two public meetings, a parlor meeting was arranged for Miss Lindley at the home of Miss Mackay-Smith. About thirty-five young people were present, most of whom were uninterested in missions. They listened to Miss Lindley with delight, and expressed a wish afterwards to support a missionary and asked about mission study classes. We hope for greater interest from this meeting. The Juniors have raised for missions $260.50, which has been divided after paying our scholarship in Wuhu, China, aiding various missions, St. Luke's, Tokyo, St. Paul's, Beaufort, other industrial schools and various specials as well as Diocesan missions. We have sent twelve Christmas boxes to Nebraska and Stannardsville and Lydia, Va., the total value, $298.38, brings the total value of money and boxes up to $558.88. Next winter I plan to hold a mission study class in the early winter that the book may be taught in the branches by the leaders. We feel we have cause for encouragement this year and we expect great things next year.
