ELIZABETH LE QUESNE.

ANNUAL REPORT OF THE JUNIOR AUXILIARY.

Owing to sickness, the secretary was unable to send out the blanks to be filled and returned, so that our reports seem meagre. At a late date, the corresponding secretary sent out some blanks, but so far, we have but five responses.

St. Andrew's Branch, Cloquet, reports the sum of $59 raised, $34.83 of which was given in their own parish, and therefore does not count in the Missionary report. Twenty-five dollars they gave to general Missions.

The Church of "Our Saviour," Little Falls, reports two boxes sent, one to Cass Lake Indian School, and one to St. Mark's Hospital, Nenana. They are valued at $10 and $4.75 respectively.

St. Peter's, Duluth, reports the making of a quilt, valued at $2.50 to be sent next Fall, and two scrap Books (value 50 cents), also $5.00 sent for General Missions and 50 cents to Current Expense Fund.

St. Paul's Branch, Duluth, reports eleven members. They have been very successful in raising money. They have sent $15 toward the apportionment of the Parish, and at Christmas they sent a box to Nebraska, valued at $30.

St. John's Branch, Lakeside, has given the required amount of fifty cents to Central Expense; one dollar to the United Offering, and three dollars to General Missions.

Trinity Cathedral Branch, has 15 members. They sent a box valued at $6 to Cass Lake, and in money they sent $10 to Archdeacon Parshall for relief of destitute Indians, $15 to the Board of Missions for Bishop Rowe's work in Alaska, and $5 to General Missions, to apply on the Parish apportionment. They also joined with the S. S. in a box to the Vermilion Lake Indian School Xmas tree, valued at $14.25.

The totals are as follows:

St. Andrew's, Cloquet	$ 25.00
Our Saviour, Little Falls	14.75
St. Peter's, Duluth	5.50
St. Paul's, Duluth	45.00
St. John's, Lakeside	4.50
Trinity Cathedral, Duluth)	36.00
Box to Vermilion Lake	14.25
Total	$145.00

It is with regret that we accept the resignation of Mrs. Bardwell; we are the more sorry because her resignation is caused by serious illness.

H. M. MORRISON.

(For the Secretary.)

The extension work of Junior Auxiliary this year has been somewhat handicapped owing to the Secretary being unable to do as much as the work required.

In December I visited the Junior Auxiliary of St. Paul's Church, Duluth, and found the girls well and strongly organized. Doing very good work under the able leadership of Mrs. Kempton.

December, same day, visited the Juniors of Trinity Cathedral, Duluth, but being somewhat late I did not see much of their work but we had a nice visit and I talked with them and all seemed very enthusiastic under the leadership of Miss Ennockson. Later Miss Magner has been their leader and we look for fine results this coming year.

December, wrote ten (10) letters. Not any of the ten have been answered.

In February I wrote Rev. Harmann; not any answer, but later I visited the Ladies' Auxiliary of St. Peter's Church and found out the time of Juniors' meeting.

In April visited the Juniors and found eight girls very much interested but their leader was not with them; but if they always do as well as that day they can push forward without older ones for a leader.

In February I visited the Juniors of St. John's Church, Lakeside. The meeting was held at the Rectory and every one seemed enthusiastic. They were under the leadership of Mrs. McKnight, whom I know personally to be a well qualified leader for the girls along this line of work.

May 6, wrote Fergus Falls and sent all the literature on hand—a Year Book of Ladies' Auxiliary and reports of Juniors. Later I sent to Church Missions House, New York, and had them well supplied with literature. No report has been received from them as yet.

Most respectfully submitted,

SARA L. McCLARAN,
Extension Secretary.

LITTLE HELPERS.

The Leaders of the Little Helpers branches, in fact all the members of the Woman's Auxiliary, ought to feel encouraged because of the fact that several new branches have been formed. This year we have heard from several new branches; one at Leech Lake, which has sent in a good contribution. Royalton has also been heard from, though their contribution was put in with the Church Mission Fund. During the past two years the contents of all Little Helpers boxes in the Diocese have increased almost twenty-one dollars, and while we are glad to receive the money for Missions, we ought to be more pleased when we consider this twenty-one dollars means that there have been about 2,100 pennies put into the mite boxes and the same number of prayers said by our infant members during the past two years. Surely "out of the mouths of babes and sucklings Thou has perfected praise."

Other new branches are being formed and we hope to have a large increase both in branches and membership next year.

REPORT OF CHURCH PERIODICAL CLUB.

Madam President and Ladies:

Miss Mary McGiffert, Librarian for Trinity Cathedral, has a list of five contributors, who send magazines regularly.

Mrs. Walter Congdon, Librarian for St. Paul's, is out of town and unable to report.

Miss Small, Librarian for Brainerd, wrote saying she had not been able to work this winter.

Miss Gertrude Tennant, Librarian for Fergus Falls, has a list of eight regular contributors.

We have three new Librarians, Mrs. Ira Bouck promising to act for Royalton for the ensuing year; Mrs. Harry A. Johnson for Coleraine, and Mrs. Gallagher, Detroit.

Respectfully submitted,

FRANCES A. NESBITT,
Correspondent.
