FIRST AUTUMN MEETING.

REPORT OF ANNUAL MEETING.

The Annual Meeting of the Woman's Auxiliary of the Diocese of Duluth was held in Trinity Cathedral, Duluth, on Tuesday, June 5th.

The opening service was at 10 A. M., at which time the Bishop was Celebrant and Preacher.

The business meeting was called to order, at 11:20 by Mrs. Morrison, the President.

Mrs. Street, of Royalton, was appointed Secretary pro tem.

The president read her address, which will be found in the July issue of the Duluth Churchman. (As it contains matter that should be read by all members, it would be well for them to obtain the July number).

Alluding to one suggestion in the Address, Mrs. W. H. Gemmell, of Brainerd, at once suggested that a set of lantern slides be procured illustrating the work and history of the Diocese of Duluth.

A committee was appointed to consider this matter, and the advisability of acting upon the suggestion. The committee was: Mrs. W. H. Gemmell, Mrs. Mary Street, Mrs. J. A. Brown and Miss Pauline Colby.

Roll call followed, by the secretary, Mrs. Gemmell, at the same time pointing out upon the Diocesan map, the places of residence, as each delegate answered.

Nineteen parishes were represented, viz.: Brainerd, Cloquet; Trinity, Duluth; St. Paul's, Duluth; Cass Lake, Fergus Falls, Little Falls, St. Cloud, Redby, Royalton, Moose Lake, Pine Point, Wadena, Red Lake, Lakeside, Onigum, Brainerd, Leech Lake.

The Recording Secretary's Report was accepted as printed in the last Annual Report, without formal reading.

The report of the Corresponding Secretary was read and approved.

The report of the Treasurer was read, and referred to the Finance Committee for auditing.

The report of the United Offering Treasurer was read and referred to Auditing Committee.

Mrs. McClaran, Secretary of the Junior Auxiliary, being absent, her report was read by Mrs. Morrison, and approved. Her resignation was accepted with regret. The report of the Junior Auxiliary Treasurer was read and referred to the Finance Committee for auditing.

The report of the "Church League of the Baptized" (Miss Lucy Warner, Secretary) was read by the President.

A Letter of Greeting from the New General Secretary, Miss Grace Lindley, was read by Mrs. Morrison.

On motion, it was decided to adopt the roll call method of the Michigan Auxiliary at our annual meetings, and a committee was appointed to make out a suitable set of questions, to be answered in the roll call.

Morning Session closed with Prayers.

Luncheon was served in the Guild Hall by the ladies of St. John's Church, Lakeside, and of St. Andrew's, Park Point.

Business was resumed at 2 P. M. and Parish reports of much interest were given from every parish represented.

The report of the Secretary of the Little Helper's Branch was given by Mrs. Wanless, and on her recommendation, the auxiliary decided by vote to divide the money on hand in that treasury equally between the following: Children's Cot, in Hospital, Raleigh, N. C.; Diocesan Fund, Duluth; United Offering, and General Missions.

The report of the Church Periodical Club was given by Miss Nesbitt, and approved as read. By vote, the morning offering was given to the "Central Expense Fund."

Round Table Conference.

The Round Table discussion on "The Larger Vision," was led by Mrs. W. H. Gemmell, of Brainerd. The sub topics were allowed three minutes each for presentation. They were as follows:

"The Guild and the Lodge," presented by Mrs. Bouck, of Royalton.

"The Guild and the Woman's Club," led by Mrs. McKnight, Lakeside.

"The Guild and Its Place in the Church," presented by Mrs. Hans Christiansen, Duluth.

"The Guild and Its Relation to Church Finances," given by Mrs. J. A. Brown, Fergus Falls.

"The Guild and the Auxiliary," presented by Mrs. G. E. Renison, St. Cloud.

At 3:30 this Conference closed; all stood, and sang Hymn 583.

The Committees being now ready for report, the Finance Committee reported that they had found the accounts of all treasurers correct in every respect.

The "Box Committee" gave the value, and somewhat of the contents of our Diocesan Box.

The Extension Committee told of efforts to enlarge the Auxiliary, through literature, and Deanery Meetings.

The Committee on "State of Auxiliary at Large," gave a detailed, but concise report of our "Foreign Societies," "Home Organizations," and "Indian Work."

The Nominating Committee then brought in their report, and with one or two necessary amendments, it was adopted, subject to the approval of the Bishop.

(The List of officers thus elected, and appointed, will be found on page 2.)

The special committee on "Questions to be answered at roll call," made their report, which was adopted, and on motion, it was resolved to have the questions printed in the Duluth, Churchman.

*Questions to be answered at next annual roll call:

1. Number in your Parish Branch?
2. How many have United Offering boxes?
3. Have you a Home Department to interest those who cannot attend meetings?
4. How many subscribe for Spirit of Missions?

The President asked for pledges for Diocesan and Foreign work, which received the following response:

"The Pilgrimage of Prayer" was the subject of the Round Table discussion, led by Mrs. J. D. Morrison.

Introducing the subject, by telling of the purpose, and plan of the "Pilgrimage," Mrs. Morrison was followed by Mrs. Hilton of Duluth, who spoke on "The Reactive Power of Prayer." Miss Hunter gave a number of Promises of God to answer Prayer; Mrs. G. E. Renison spoke of Answers to prayer, giving some examples, in her own experience. This gave rise to many testimonies of the same nature from different women, and men present. Mrs. Ira C. Bouck, of Royalton, read a short paper on "Our Prayer Cycle?" and Mrs. W. H. Gemmell spoke for a few moments on "How Shall We Plan to Have Every Woman in Our Diocese Take a Share in This Great Cycle?" The closing topic was "How Shall We Follow It Up?" which was taken by Mrs. H. F. Parshall, of Cass Lake.

Mrs. Gemmell, Mrs. Parshall, and Mrs. Bouck were appointed as a committee to formulate some plan of "following up," to be published in the July issue of the Duluth Churchman.

The whole discussion aroused intense interest, and should form a good foundation for our "Week of Prayer" which is the first week in July.

The President then told of the death of Rev. A. O. Worthing, formerly a Priest in this Diocese, and by a rising vote it was decided to have the Secretary send to Mrs. Worthing a note of sympathy.

As a closing suggestion, the president advised for the next winter's study throughout the diocese, the subject recommended by the General Secretary, viz.: "Mission Studies From the Bible." For the Juniors she advised, the Book being published for that purpose, called "The Search for the Heavenly City." It may be had from The Church Missions House, 281 Fourth Ave., New York City.

At the request of the President, the committee on Programs then submitted the following recommendation: "That each Branch give one week in Lent, to a definite interest, i. e. 1. Our Indian, Swedish, and White needs in this Diocese. 2. Southern Mountaineers. 3. Colored work in Institutions, etc. 4. St. Luke's Hospital, Duluth. 5. Indian Hospital work on the Reservations. 6. International Hospital, China."

The meeting closed with the Doxology.

SPECIAL MEETING.

A special meeting of the Woman's Auxiliary was called by the President at 11 A. M., Wednesday, June 6, at St. Paul's Church, for the benefit of delegates from Indian Missions and others who through a misunderstanding were absent from the regular meeting.

The meeting was opened with a service of song and prayer.

The President explained the reason for calling the meeting and appointed Miss Rock interpreter.

The Treasurer read parts of her report which were of special interest to those present.

In her address, the President spoke of Christ's message to the world and of the responsibility of his followers, the women of the Auxiliary, in the spread of His gospel.

Blue boxes were distributed; their use, and the purpose to which the money is devoted explained.

Reports were given by delegates from the following branches:

St. Antipas, Red Lake, Mrs. Smith.

Ponsford, Mrs. Holsten, Miss Rock.

Redby, Mrs Fred Smith, Mrs. Neadnan.

Red Lake, Mrs. Joe Smith.

Onigum reported a Junior Branch with eight members.

Following a discussion it was decided that different parish branches write letters once a month to be sent to Mrs. Fred Smith, Redby, for general circulation among the Indian Missions, as follows:

St. Paul's, Duluth, July; St. Paul's, Brainerd, August; Trinity Cathedral, September; Onigum, Miss Colby, October; Cass Lake, November; Junior Branch, Royalton, December.

The President outlined the object and the development of the "Pilgrimage of Prayer," calling attention to the first week in July as the time for its observance in this Diocese.

The meeting closed with singing and was adjourned.

Secretary Pro Tem.

JUNIOR AUXILIARY MEETING.

The Juniors assembled for luncheon at St. Paul's Sunday School room, at noon, June 6th.

After luncheon the meeting was opened with hymns and prayers. The President made a short address of welcome, and roll call, by map of the Diocese, showed eight branches represented.

An address of welcome was then given by one of the Duluth Juniors, and responded to by the delegate from Cloquet.

Each branch was then called on to tell what had been found the most helpful in the home method of working; and what was thought the best thing that their branch had done during the year.

Suggestions for future work were in this way offered and exchanged.

Dr. Rollit spoke for a few moments on Mission work, and then, as there was a gale blowing outside, and a ship reported in danger, he led in prayer for those at sea, and the special hymn was sung.

Returning to the programme, Dr. Rollit, in the name of the Auxiliary presented the two pennants for the best Missionary Scrap Book. (The books were on exhibition, and received hearty admiration from all. They were seven in number). The Book won by section 3 was made by this section in St. Paul's Church, Duluth. The book won in Section 2 was awarded to the St. John's Lakeside Branch.

The next year's book, it was announced, will be on "China." The books for this contest, were on "The Indians of Our Own Country," and "Japan."

The Junior Auxiliary and the Sunday School was a topic spoken on by Mrs. Gemmell, of Brainerd, who has some experience in that way of doing the Junior work.

The President recommended the Juniors to take up the coming winter the study of a book to be given out by the Educational department at New York, on "The Quest for the Heavenly City."

The meeting closed with Hymn 249.
