MINUTES OF THE ANNUAL MEETING, 1920

The Twenty-Fourth Annual Meeting of the Duluth Branch of the Woman's Auxiliary was opened in Trinity Cathedral, June 2nd, 1920, at 9:30 a. m. Conjointly with the clergy and delegates attending the Diocesan Convention, the women made their Corporate Communion.

At the close of the Service, the business session was opened in the Bishop's Chapel, with Mrs. Morrison in the chair. The Roll Call showed an attendance of twenty—a small but interested group. This number was augmented later. The minutes of the last Annual Meeting were approved as printed in the Journal. The reports of the Corresponding Secretary-Treasurer were read and approved, the financial report subjected to the Auditing Committee's approval. By vote it was decided to publish last year's report of the Box Committee in this year's Journal, since it was accidentally omitted last year. Then followed reports of the various departments of work, viz.: The United Thank Offering, reported by Mrs. Le Quesne, Treasurer of that fund, showed a total of nearly $1000 and brought out the suggestion that the Second Sunday in September be generally observed in the Diocese as Blue Box Sunday; The Junior Auxiliary, reported by Mrs. La Londe, President, showed 13 working organizations in the Diocese, and 75 communications sent out; The Church Periodical Club, reported by Miss Warner, who was unable to be present, showed a year of splendid activity; Mrs. Jamar's report on the State of the Auxiliary-at-Large was full of interest and enjoyed by all; The Little Helpers' report showed a total offering of $16.58, which was disappointing to Mrs. Miner, our faithful Secretary, who begged for renewed interest in this branch of the Auxiliary work. All of these reports were accepted as read.

It was decided by vote that the Juniors' Central Expense fund be paid by the Auxiliary.

The President gave her Annual Address, welcoming the delegates as members of one household, the Church, and carefully explaining to them the new changes which have come into the Auxiliary since the Triennial last October, closing with an earnest plea that every Church woman make the Auxiliary work a vital factor in her life.

Luncheon was served at 12:30 by the guilds of the several city parishes in Trinity Hall. One hundred and ten guests sat down to a most delicious repast.

The afternoon session opened at 2:00 p. m. in the Guild Room of St. Paul's Church. The Rev. Joseph A. Ten Broeck of Calumet, Michigan, addressed the women on the plan of the Church Service League, explaining its purpose and showing how he had made a practical application of the idea in his own parish, uniting all the parish activities under the one head of the Woman's Auxiliary with five departments, viz., Missions, Social Service, Religious Education, Personal Religion, and Parish Aid. He particularly emphasized the work of Americanization as part of every parish program.

Mrs. William Sargent spoke informally of the Americanization work done during the year by the Cathedral branch of the Auxiliary, especially of the assistance rendered the Home Demonstration Bureau and the Neighborhood Visitor of the Board of Education. Mrs. Couper, President of the Cathedral branch, spoke of the various ways by which her branch had reached out into the five fields of service; the parish, the community, the diocese, the nation and the world.

A motion was made and carried to appropriate $5.00 from our Central Expense fund to pay our quota of the general expenses of the Provincial Synod.

The following resolution was read by Mrs. Couper and was adopted by a rising vote:

"Whereas Mrs. J. D. Morrison, the wife of our beloved Bishop, has for twenty-one years faithfully and zealously served as President of the Diocesan Branch of the Woman's Auxiliary, and whereas she has herself stated that she must decline re-election, feeling that this is the psychological moment for such action, inasmuch as the Auxiliary is passing into a new and larger life,

"Therefore, Be it Resolved,

"That we, the members of the Woman's Auxiliary in Annual Session, do hereby express our great appreciation of Mrs. Morrison's many years of devoted and unstinted service. Her leadership has always been an inspiration and its influence will continue to be a benediction upon the Diocese."

Mrs. Morrison gracefully thanked the women of all the Auxiliary branches for their support during her twenty-one years as President.

The Auditing Committee reported the Treasurer's accounts to be correct.

The report of the Nominating Committee, whose list of names had been approved by the Bishop, was adopted as read.

The report of the Committee on Constitution and By-Laws was, with a few amendments, adopted as read. It will be found at the close of this report.

Members were asked to sign petitions at the close of the meeting and to write personal letters to Congressmen and others that legislation become effective to protect the natives of Alaska from the inroads made by the Salmon Canneries upon their chief source of food supply, the fish of the Alaskan waters.

Mrs. Parshall, our Mission worker at Cass Lake, gave a splendid account of her work and recommended that a fund be started for the education of an Indian boy looking to his entrance into the Church's ministry, that he might, as far as education and equipment go, take equal rank with his white brother. The recommendation was unanimously adopted, and the Parshall Memorial Scholarship became a fact by the immediate pledging of nearly one hundred dollars. It was the sense of all the members present that this scholarship be the united work of the Diocesan Auxiliary.

Mrs. Couper, the new President, took the chair, and as her first official act appointed a Committee composed of Mrs. J. D. Morrison, Mrs. F. W. Paine, Mrs. H. F. Parshall and Mrs. J. G. Ward to devise ways and means to complete a fund of at least two hundred dollars for the H. F. Parshall Memorial Scholarship, to be in the hands of the Bishop by the first of August of this year.

With the presentation to the retiring President of an exquisite corsage bouquet of roses and lilies-of-the-valley from the Auxiliary, the Annual Meeting of 1920 adjourned.

HELEN E. KEMPTON,

Recording Secretary.

The President's Address will be printed in the October Issue of the Duluth Churchman.

REPORT OF CHURCH PERIODICAL CLUB

We have Seven Librarians in the Diocese and some other scattered work is being done.

The Guild, Grace Church, Royalton (Mrs. E. H. McGonagle, Librarian), subscribes for 2 copies of "The Witness" for clergymen.

The Guild, St. Paul's Church, Virginia, gives 2 subscriptions to "The Witness" and sends one other church paper and odd magazines.

St. Paul's, Duluth, until recently, had Mrs. L. W. Micks for Librarian, sends 9 magazines regularly.

Trinity Cathedral, Duluth, has Mrs. L. W. Micks for Librarian, but she received her appointment too late to make a report.

St. James, Fergus Falls (Mrs. James S. Brown, Librarian), reports 4 magazines regularly.

St. Stephen's, Paynesville (Mrs. T. C. Hudson, Librarian), reports 5 magazines sent regularly.

St. John's, St. Cloud (Mrs. Frank Beaver, Librarian), reports 2 magazines sent regularly and miscellaneous magazines sent at odd times.

Church of Our Saviour, Little Falls (Mrs. H. H. Tanner, Librarian), reports 3 subscriptions to magazines besides those of "The Witness" and "The Spirit of Missions" for the Carnegie Public Library in the town; 8 magazines sent regularly; "Old Young Churchman" sent monthly to 4 families and 1 Church School; miscellaneous magazines sent frequently to 7 different addresses; used material of The Christian Nature Series and odd Pussy Pictures to a mission worker; six weeks' subscription to "The Witness" sent to all the families in the parish during the General Convention and Nation-Wide Campaign.

In a small way we are trying to keep Church books of various kinds in circulation. They were sent to four isolated Church women and kept in circulation in the Parish, especially during the Lenten season.

Three dollars were sent to the Treasurer of the Church League of the Isolated and the names of several isolated people were sent to the Secretary that they might receive the magazine published for them. Many of the addresses of the magazines sent are furnished by the National Secretary.

If any officer of a Guild or of a Church School would like to have addresses for magazines or for Church School Lesson material, which is very much needed in weak parishes, the Correspondent would be glad to furnish addresses if she is communicated with.

Respectfully submitted,
LUCY M. WARNER,
Diocesan Correspondent.

LITTLE HELPERS

Secretary's Report of the Little Helpers of the Diocese of Duluth, May, 1919, to May, 1920

---

Letters have been written to every clergyman in the Diocese asking for the names of the Chairman in their parishes. Two replied; Rev. Arthur Goodger of Sauk Center and Rev. James Mills of Duluth.

Detroit has had a most competent chairman in Mrs. Drummond, who gave out a half-dozen boxes, the return being $1.85.

Miss Douglas of Nay-tau-waush has done faithful work in her parish, where the mite box offering was $3.50.

The work has been disappointing, since nothing has been gained in outside parishes. A new Secretary from St. Cloud or Duluth might get better results.

At the Triennial in 1916 a plan was proposed for the Junior Auxiliary, to be experimental 1919. This plan was to do all the Children's Missionary Work through the Sunday Schools. The plan has been tried, and at Detroit last October a resolution was passed separating the Junior Auxiliary from the organization of the Woman's Auxiliary, yet keeping in touch with the Woman's Auxiliary by retaining a Junior Officer in each Diocese as a member of the Woman's Auxiliary Board and one member of the Woman's Auxiliary as a member of the Junior Board.

This resolution also expresses the purpose of the Junior officers to merge the Junior Auxiliary as speedily as possible into the Church School Service League with a National Central Committee and a Diocesan Central Committee.

Respectfully submitted,

MRS. B. E. LA LONDE,

President, Junior Auxiliary.
