Address of the Bishop

It is always a pleasure to meet the members of the Woman's Auxiliary, for I know I am meeting with those who have the same interest at heart which I have; I know I stand face to face with those who sympathize with me in the work for the Master, and who are earnest, and anxious to further the blessed labor of extending GOD'S Kingdom.

I have often followed in spirit the faithful women who go from door to door seeking to collect the few pennies each month, and in thought I have sympathized with them, as they were turned away empty handed, and have felt for them as they were met with discouragement from one and another.

But after all, no matter how frequent the rebuff, there is no cause for discouragement, and no reason to feel aught else but sorrow for those who do not show an interest in the holy work. When GOD'S Messenger comes to a house, and is not received as a Messenger from the Holy One, GOD'S opportunity is rejected, the privilege is declined, and a misfortune has befallen the hapless inmates.

We want to get rid of ourselves in doing GOD'S work, and bear in mind we are GOD'S Messengers. We must do our part, and leave the result in the Master's hands—Unless the Spirit of GOD makes our words effectual, we shall talk in vain.

We ought to rely more upon the Holy Ghost, and speak as He gives us utterance.

I sometimes wonder if we go forth in the power of the Lord, trusting to the Holy Spirit to give us strength, and wisdom, and utterance; or whether we go forth in our own strength, relying upon our persuasive powers, and trusting to our importunity.

But there is still another side, which we ought not to forget. The servant is not above the Master.

The multitude took up stones to cast at Him. You all know how He suffered in the end of His life. Yet He was always patient, and continued His labors in spite of the opposition with which He met from those who ought to have welcomed Him. and supported Him in His work—He was wounded in the house of His friends; but the very opposition, and destructive policy of those in authority, made manifest His patience, His endurance, His sympathy, His love. Even on the cross He prayed for His murderers.

We are weak, and a very little suffering turns us away from our duty. Still there is such a thing as having a burden too heavy to bear; and at times it does seem as though our strength must give way, and we must fall under the load.

The cross is often heavy. The Master was borne to the earth by the weight of His cross, but there was found one to bear it for Him; the mad executioners compelled Simon the Cyrenian to bear it. We may be sure when our cross becomes too heavy, the Master's hand will relieve us.

I speak to you in this strain not because you have neglected your work, but because you are women, and have been given special spiritual powers, and a special capacity for holy work. There were three women and one man at the cross.

What happened there, I suppose will always occur. Woman is naturally more religious than man—It was through woman that the world was civilized. The Lord made her Mistress of the hearth.

You have done much—without your aid and work the Diocese would be in a sad condition, and my mail, bad enough as it is now, would be more full of pleadings, earnest pleadings, for the word of GOD.

The question has arisen in my mind whether you can do more; whether you fully realize you are GOD'S Messengers, and appreciate the gifts which you have received to work under the direction and care of the Holy Spirit? I am most grateful and most thankful for your aid and help.

You have helped me by your prayers, and you have fed the hungry, and have cheered the spirits of the workers in GOD'S vineyard.

We are in need of more money in the missionary treasury, and I appeal to you, and ask you, if you can do more?

I trust the systematic offering will be increased during the coming year, and that when we meet next time we shall find, through the spirit of GOD, we have grown stronger, wiser, and more earnest.

Address of Diocesan President

The thirty-fifth Annual report of the Woman's Auxiliary to the Board of Missions contains the following statement :

"It is interesting to notice in the year's reports from such branches as Alabama, Florida, and Georgia, that the officers dwell upon this sense of responsibility, the purpose of the Auxiliary to aid the Board, and the increasing need of understanding and appreciating its aims."

I would be lacking in my duty if I failed to grasp every opportunity to present to you, women of the Florida branch, the aims and needs of the Woman's Auxiliary, to the Board of Missions.

Do you realize that I am one of over nine hundred officers? And in accepting the office of president of the Florida branch that I have assumed a personal responsibility—that I must try in every way that lies in my power to acquaint the uninterested with the inspiring duty and blessed privilege of sharing in this work for missions.

If I emphasize strongly, it is my duty.

The aims of the Auxiliary are to create a deeper missionary knowledge, and interest among our women, young people, and children, and to form in them habits of daily prayer, constant reading and study, systematic and conscientious giving for missions of the Church. That GOD'S work perpetually demands greater supplies is the grand evidence of its progress and success.

It is your earnest co-operation I ask, interest the uninterested, surely by an investment of influence we could carry our work higher—woman like man, may be said to be a mysterious bundle of forces, moving through society, carrying blessings or blightings, gets its meaning from the capacity of others to receive its influence.

"We unconsciously exhale our influence for good or for evil, if our heart glows with love it warms, if frozen with selfishness it chills, if corrupt it poisons, if pure hearted it cleanses."

Let us use our influence for the upbuilding of the missions—spread our knowledge of the great work to be accomplished by the women—tell the uninterested of the great group of noble women who journeyed into the swamps of Africa, and the mountains of Asia, and the frozen fields of Alaska, making their way as missionaries of mercy and healing, Knights of the Red Cross and Veritable Daughters of the King, no cottage so remote as not to feel this new influence.

Are there not young women in the Diocese of Florida willing to join this band of women and devote their lives to this work for the Church?

Miss Thackara's example is a noble one, added to Miss Parkhill's—the gift of personal service is not lacking in the past from Florida—also by being more thorough and systematic and far reaching in our methods, with more frequent and united prayer, the development of study classes, though we may be far from the center of missionary work, seeing but seldom the workers in the mission field, we can study the lessons that come to us, fresh records of the hardships endured, sometimes of advance, then the story of hinderance.

Shall we fail to respond? Let us give a pledge of fresh endeavor. We could not flag and hesitate while under the influence of their example, let it prove a source of inspiration—Shall we begin with the Auxiliary Apportionment? "This expressed wish of the Board is the one practical work which the Board of Missions has set before the Woman's Auxiliary in recent years: that it shall contribute yearly to its treasury $100,000 that may be applied toward the annual appropriation to the mission field. The call came through the General Secretary of the Board in San Francisco, 1901; and his influence and encouragement have been a constant aid in making the work toward this end a habit in the life of the Woman's Auxiliary." The amount the Florida Branch is asked to contribute is, Women $60.00; Juniors $10.00; Babies Branch $70.00.

Your Diocesan officers feel assured that you will respond cheerfully to the apportionment plan. While emphasizing the strong necessity for the Florida Branch, keeping in touch with the Board of Missions, it must not be done at the expense of the mission work within our own diocese. The systematic offering must not decrease, but must be increased. I stated in my last annual address, that if only two thousand persons in the Diocese would give one cent a day the result would be seven thousand, three hundred dollars per annum. Let the officers of the branches take the Parish lists, go to every person named, and ask them to aid in carrying on the Bishop's work. The Northern, Eastern, Southern and Western parts of the diocese must come to the rescue—the reports in the Parish Leaflet and Florida Church News leaves no branch in doubt of the amounts contributed.

When the next General Convention meets in Richmond, in October, 1907, it will be to observe the three hundredth anniversary of the planting of the church in America.

There is to be a Thank-offering for three hundred years of English Christianity from the men of the church—At the same time the united offering of the Woman's Auxiliary will possibly be placed on the same altar. "Who will make it? The women and girls of the Woman's Auxiliary to the Board of Missions, and all other women and girls they can get to help. Here are some in China, and there are others in Mexico and in Africa; so far apart in miles, and so close in heart, who will unite to make it. Where and when will they make it? They will make it in Richmond, Virginia, on Thursday, October 3, 1907, when the representatives of the Woman's Auxiliary from New York to California, from Maine to Texas, from Alaska to Brazil will meet to make this united offering. Why will they make it?

Because for eighteen years, over and above the work of every year, each third year they have been accustomed to show their thankfulness by bringing their united gift to this united Service of Holy Communion.

TRIENNIAL AMOUNTS

1889—New York.....	$ 2,000
1892—Baltimore	20,000
1895—Minnesota	56,000
1898—Washington	82,000
1901—San Francisco.....	101,000
1904—Boston.....	150,000
1907—Richmond	What?

For what object will they make it? They will give $10,000 to put up some mission building. The remainder of the gift will train young women to be missionaries. Will send them into the mission field and support them there, and will care for them if disabled.

How can we help to make it?

If we have a united offering box, and have sent its contents each six months since October, 1904, to our treasurer to be put at interest, we must not let a day or week pass without dropping something in to send to the treasurer as a last remittance. If we have had no mite box, but have sent a yearly check, let us make this last equal to those of former years; larger if we can.

If we have not given heretofore let us give now in a measure to show that we appreciate what the greatness of such a united gift should be, made by women united in a common love for one Divine Lord, in one Holy Church, at work for one great end."

In my great desire to influence you I have quoted several paragraphs from a leaflet sent out from the Missions House— Shall we not respond generously to the call for the united offering? We gave $464.00 three years ago. Let us carry five hundred dollars to Richmond this great thanksgiving year! I am sure with the united effort of the Woman's Auxiliary, the Juniors and the Babies Branch this amount can be collected.

"Is not the crowning glory of mission work, that they who have learned the love of Christ shall pass His story on to those who do not know, that they, too, may have the blessed knowledge of His love?"

May 15, 1907.

M. STOCKTON YOUNG.

Report of Recording Secretary

The Seventeenth Annual Meeting of the Florida Branch of the Woman's Auxiliary was held at Gainesville, May 15, 1907.

The Bishop of the Diocese opened the meeting at 9:00 o'clock A. M. in Holy Trinity Church, by a celebration of the Holy Communion, and an address to the women of the Association.

The Bishop was assisted by the Rev. F. H. Craighill, Rector of the Parish.

After the service, the members of the Association assembled in the commodious new Hall of the Elks Club, which had been very kindly placed at the disposal of the Woman's Auxiliary.

Immediately before the meeting was called to order Mrs. John Freeman Young, the President, was presented with a very handsome silver mounted ebony gavel, by the Association, Mrs. J. G. Ruge making the following very happy presentation speech:

"Madam President, Co-officers, and women of the Auxiliary:

It is with sincere appreciation that I am privileged to feebly express our esteem and gratitude for our beloved President, who is ever willing and ready to assist us in any of our difficulties, and who through years of faithful service is as a wall of strength to us all; I tender to you Madam President in behalf of the Woman's Auxiliary this gavel, the emblem of authority, and we feel sure that in the use of this, as inscribed with our love and affection, that you will always continue to command the further good faith of your co-workers."

The report of Mrs. Wm. M. Stockton, President of the Babies Branch, was read by the Secretary.

On motion the Reports were all accepted.

The Treasurer's Report, owing to the absence of that Officer on account of illness, was read by the Secretary, and was received and approved.

The Corresponding Secretary read a report which was accepted,

Mrs. Drew Williams offered the following resolution:
Resolved: That the offertories on Auxiliary Day and at our Annual Meetings be given for Diocesan Missions.

Before adopting the resolution, Mrs. J. G. Ruge wished an explanation of how the apportionment for General Missions would in future be raised, if these offertories which have hitherto been used for this purpose, should be kept in the Diocese.

Considerable discussion ensued in regard to a proposed plan of assessing the Branches according to their numerical strength, and the President appointed a Committee on Assessment consisting of the following members: Mrs. Craighill, Mrs. Ruge, Mrs. Arnold, Mrs. Whitney and Mrs. Drew Williams.

Mrs. Ruge then moved the adoption of Mrs. Drew Williams' resolution which was carried.

Mrs. Stewart Worden spoke of the difficulties encountered by collectors in making people understand the objects of the Auxiliary Association, and Mrs. Drew Williams reminded her of the Bishop's words of the morning, when he said collectors should simply consider themselves Christ's Messengers.

Mrs A. E. Gray offered the following resolution which was adopted:

Resolved: That each delegate present at this meeting, be appointed a committee of one to thoroughly canvas her district, and endeavor to interest and induce all baptized members of the Church to become contributors to the Woman's Auxiliary Association.

Mrs. Gilmore spoke very earnestly in behalf of the Babies Branch.

Mrs. F. H. Craighill extended an invitation from Holy Trinity Branch to the delegates, to attend a reception at the residence of Mrs. E. E. Cannon, from four to six o'clock this afternoon, and to take a drive about the city on Thursday afternoon.

On motion of Mrs. Drew Williams the delegates accepted the kind invitations of Holy Trinity Branch.

The President called the attention of the delegates to the importance of redeeming the pledges made at the last Annual Meeting for the United Offering, and requested them to make a greater effort, as the desired amount of $500.00 has not yet been pledged.

The following statement shows the amount of the pledges as they stand at present:

Archdeacon L. E. Goodwin read the opening prayers and spoke a few words about the "Florida Church News," the Diocesan paper and the organ of the Woman's Auxiliary.

The minutes of Wednesday Morning's Session were read and approved.

The President again asked the Branches to increase their pledges for the United Offering, as the amount was found to fall short of the $500.00 desired.

Mrs. Stewart Worden pledged an additional $5.00 for Palatka, making a total of $15.00. Mrs. Whitney added another $5.00 to Fernandina's pledge of $25.00 making $30.00.

Mrs. Drew Williams made a short address on the subject of Mission Study Classes.

The Committee on Assessment then reported as follows:

Your Committee on Assessment of the Branches for the apportionment of the Florida Branch towards the $100,000.00 asked by the Board of Missions from the Woman's Auxiliery, yearly, respectfully report that they find the plan of ten cents from each contributor in the Branch, the most equal distribution of the amount. Mrs. Arnold offered the following resolution which was adopted.

Resolved: That the Woman's Auxiliary wishes to express its deep appreciation of the valuable services of the collectors. By their quiet, regular and self-sacrificing work the Systematic Offering is kept up, and though their names are not in evidence in the Annual Reports, they are written in letters of gold on a higher Honor Roll.

Mrs. J. M. Jones offered the following resolution which was adopted.

Resolved: That the delegates to the Seventeenth Annual Meeting of the Woman's Auxiliary extend most hearty thanks to Holy Trinity Branch, for the kind hospitality and lavish entertainment enjoyed by them during this visit; and be it further

Report of Corresponding Secretary

During the past year the Auxiliary has moved steadily forward. There have been a few changes in the list of Parochial Officers. Some of our most faithful workers have been compelled to retire on account of ill health or removal; but the fact that the vacancies thus caused have been promptly filled, shows that their spirit still dominates the Branch and the work will not be allowed to lapse. The Diocesan Committee note with regret the resignation of Mrs. B. F. Jordan, President of the Babies Branch and Vice-President of the Woman's Auxiliary, after several years of faithful and efficient service. The Bishop has appointed in her place, Mrs. Wm. M. Stockton, an experienced and enthusiastic worker.

Our most progressive move during the year was the adoption of the Parish Leaflet or Florida Church News as our official paper, and much of the Corresponding Secretary's work has been in connection with its subscription list and in gathering material for the Auxiliary Page. The Diocesan Committee assured the Editor that they felt confident of being able to secure at least one hundred and fifty subscribers, but, to our regret, all activity in that direction ceased suddenly when less than half that number had been reached. We have long felt the need of a regular paper as a means of communication between the Diocesan Committee and the Branches, and this excellent little paper is ours to use, without any expense to us and it does seem we are missing an opportunity in not doing our utmost to secure the requisite number of subscribers.

It is gratifying to note the more general observance of Auxiliary Day, when a continuity of prayer ascends from the Woman's Auxiliary of Florida for a blessing on their work and on the labors of those whom they are trying to help.

Missions study and regularly organized Mission Study Classes have become an established fact in our Diocese and their influence is felt throughout our work. Some of the text books recommended by the Educational Secretary are as absorbing as any romance.

At the last Annual Meeting we cheerfully voted the collections on Auxiliary Day and at the Annual Meeting of 1907 to our beloved Bishop to help him through a crucial year, and we rejoice to find a decided increase in our contributions to Diocesan Missions. But it is to be regretted that our Auxiliary Apportionment is still unpaid.

The Auxiliary Apportionment has never been brought prominently before the Branches, owing to the fact that the two collections mentioned have heretofore covered our assessment. It has been decided that this is an uncertain and irregular way to raise a definite sum and a Committee has been appointed by the President to apportion the small amount ($60.00) among the Branches. This will leave us free to dispose of these collections as we think best.

It would be well if the Branches in their zeal for outside work would remember that "designated" contributions count on our apportionment, while "specials" do not. Perhaps some members not familiar with Miss Emery's Reports, fail to see the distinction.

A "Designated Contribution" aids the General Board of Missions in paying its pledges to some particular field or missions and is counted on our Apportionment. As we are an Auxiliary to the General Board it is our duty to help it to the extent of our Apportionment, before indulging in "Specials," and do not forget that "Designated" Contributions are counted on our Apportionment.

After the Apportionment comes the United offering for sending women workers into the field. Of course, all of these objects are in addition to our regular systematic work.

There is much encouragement in this great truth, so ably expressed in a recent Sunday School Magazine:

"THE MISSIONARY WORK OF THE CHURCH IS THE WHOLE BUSINESS OF THE CHURCH AND IT IS THE BUSINESS OF THE WHOLE CHURCH TO GIVE THE WHOLE GOSPEL TO THE WHOLE WORLD AS SPEEDILY AS POSSIBLE."

Respectfully submitted,

MARY C. ARNOLD,
Corresponding Secretary.

Since last April the work of St. John's Branch of the Woman's Auxiliary has been carried on just as systematically and regularly as heretofore; in fact the Collectors are so faithful with their work that the contributors hardly realize that the first of the month has come when the call is made for their monthly dues. The Meetings are held regularly on the first Monday of each month. There are now two hundred contributors, and fifteen Collectors, besides three Officers. There is only a small increase in the systematic offering over last year, but the two years previous showed quite a gain, therefore, we feel that the work is growing.

As has been our custom for several years past, for Thanksgiving, we sent six barrels of clothing together with some magazines to Miss Dixon for her work among the Mountaineers of North Carolina; also at Christmas, the Missions of St. Mary's, St. Stephen's, and All Saints were each remembered with our $5.00 donations. As a Memorial to the Rev. Mr. Thackara, since 1899, we have sent yearly $25.00 to Miss Thackara for her Hospital for the Navajo Indians, so in March this same amount was forwarded. At Easter a check was given for the Bishop's Throne to be placed in the Chancel of our new Church.

The Sewing Circle continues to work industriously, and enables us to do all our work outside of the Systematic Offering, with the exception of the Triennial offering of One Hundred Dollars, to which amount we feel all women ought to be given the privilege of contributing, as it is for the support of women in the Mission field. During Lent a Mission Study Class was held every Thursday afternoon, the subject taken up being an account of the work done in the Islands of the Pacific.

We are glad to report a slight increase in our Systematic Offering this year and we hope to increase our number of contributors for the coming year.

During Lent our Mission Study was of the Island World of the Pacific, which was most interesting and instructive, and we hope to continue the study during the year at our monthly meeting after the business session.

The United Service on Auxiliary Day at St. John's Church (Jacksonville) was very helpful, and Arch-Deacon Webber's address most encouraging. We have had eight regular meetings in the Guild Hall, since May, 1906, and a service on Auxiliary Day in the Church. Our new Rector, Mr. Wyllie, prepared a special sermon for that day, and the collection amounted to $2.10.

We regret to say that we have lost three active members, by removal, during the past year, but our loss has been fully made up in three new members that we have received.

Our collections have been regular though small.

While we have twenty-seven members who contribute, only ten of them are active working members.

We have had three mission teas since January, the proceeds from all of which amounted to $16.40.

Mrs. Worden, our Directress has selected interesting articles, from the Spirit of Missions, to be read at the meetings instead of studying a special country as we did the year previous.

We sent an Easter Offering of bed linen, to the Children's Home Society of Jacksonville, Fla.

Junior Auxiliary Report

Another year's work is ended and we the officers are summing up the total so far as mortal eyes can see it and invite you to join with us in the reckoning.

That the amount raised is less and the number of subscribers smaller than last year is a matter of keen regret to us and thoughtlessness on your parts we are sure.

If the old Branches that were dormant last year and the new ones that are not yet aroused to the glory of their work would only resolve to do their utmost in the new year, how grand would be the total of 1908.

With the motto "The World for Christ," and our especial object of work to keep the Bishop in funds for the education of young men to the ministry, we surely cannot afford to be idle.

Just before Easter, Miss Alice Lindley, Corresponding Secretary of the Junior Auxiliary, Diocese of N. Y., gave the Juniors of Jacksonville a helpful talk, and on June twelfth, of this year, Bishop Weed held his Fifth Annual Meeting with the Juniors of this city, Telling them while some had been ordained there were other candidates for holy orders with years of work ahead of them needing every assistance the Juniors could give.
