PRESIDENT'S ADDRESS

Dear Friends of the Woman's Auxiliary:

Again we are met together to take counsel of each other, compare our aims and their results in the year that has gone, to rejoice and give thanks where we have gone forward, face our failures and try to see what mistakes have caused them, and then go forward in the new work laid out for us in the coming year.

Our first work is to meet the pledges already promised. A list of these will be found in each annual report. I hope it will be possible to accept a new pledge each year, because we do not want to stand still. The Bishop Rowe Scholarship assumed last year was met in full. The Church School of Waycross, Grace Church, contributed liberally to this fund, helping to send the $100.00 to Bishop Rowe, early in the year. I am glad to be able to report that the necessary legislation regarding the stopping of the salmon canneries at the mouth of the Yukon was passed. This was Archdeacon Stuck's last wish and the object of his most earnest work during the months of his visit to the States before his fatal illness. We are thankful that in some small measure we were able to help in thus saving the lives of many Alaskan Indians.

I hope you are all laboring, without ceasing, for the United Thank-Offering to be presented at Portland in 1922. Let us use every effort to make this offering at least $3,000. Mrs. Davenport's report shows we have, so far, made no advance in this offering beyond the same time in the last three-year period. Please take this matter up with your Parish Branch and endeavor to increase the offering largely in the next eighteen months.

There are many plans for our organization at present. I spoke to you last year of the new plans for the box work. Mrs. Wade, supply secretary from the Missions House in New York, was in Savannah in January and made this work most vital for us. There is one phase of this department in which we can all help, i. e., in stocking a supply closet for headquarters to draw on in an emergency. We wish to start this closet at once. Any articles usually sent in boxes can be sent to Mrs. E. C. Blount, Box Secretary, Waynesboro, Ga., new clothing of all kinds, hospital supplies, surgical dressings, sheets, pillow cases, towels, etc. No matter how small the quantity, send something, but it must be new. There is need for an unlimited quantity of knitted goods for the Seamen's Church Institute. Four times a year a report of what we have in hand is sent to the Missions House so Mrs. Wade knows where she can get certain articles when needed.

Another very important undertaking is the raising of $50,000 by October, 1921, to be known as the Emery Fund, the interest to be used for Missionaries from the foreign field at home on furlough. Mrs. F. B. Screven of Savannah has charge of this fund for the Diocese and will make her report to you later. She will explain it and I earnestly ask your co-operation with her.

The Synod of the Province of Sewanee (Fourth Province) which includes fourteen Southern dioceses from North Carolina to Louisiana, meets October 25th in Savannah. At the same time and place the Woman's Auxiliary of the Province meets. We in Savannah are looking for the help of the entire diocese in order to make this Synod profitable and helpful.

At this Conference you elect your delegates to represent you at the Synod. Savannah is preparing to entertain all who come, and we are hoping many old friends and new will be there.

I would like to stress the importance of the summer schools for Church workers. Our nearest school is at Sewanee, where the Educational Department of our Province has its headquarters. Do try and attend this school in August and I can promise you information, inspiration, and a broadening of all your views and knowledge concerning the Church and her mission.

So, dear friends, let us all "be up and doing," eager, well informed and inspired Church-women, remembering that in the words of our favorite mission hymn,

'Tis thine to save from peril of perdition,
The souls for whom the Lord His Life laid down;
Beware lest, slothful to fulfill thy mission,
Thou lose one jewel that should deck His Crown.

Faithfully yours,

SARAH S. C. HULL.

REPORT OF SECRETARY OF "SPIRIT OF MISSIONS"

I regret my inability to present to you a more complete record of the circulation of "The Spirit of Missions" in the Diocese of Georgia.

Soon after assuming the chairmanship of this branch of diocesan work I communicated with the Editor of "The Spirit of Missions," asking that a list of the names of the subscribers in the Diocese of Georgia be sent me. This list was received in May, 1920. In April, 1921, I made a similar request and I now have the pleasure of presenting to you the two lists. I have tried to arrange the two so that you can readily see the increase and you can also see the decrease. Looking at both sides you can see where greater effort is needed:

Brunswick, 13.....	gain 4	Albany, 5.....	lost 3
Savannah, 59.....	gain 9	Cordele, 5.....	lost 2
Augusta, 29.....	gain 5	Valdosta, 1.....	lost 1
Thomasville, 20.....	gain 12	Bainbridge, 3.....	lost 1
Waycross, 12.....	gain 1
Darien, 3.....	gain 1	Parishes remaining the same:
Jesup, 6.....	gain 5	Douglas, 1
Americus, 15.....	gain 10	Hawkinsville, 1

Comparing these reports, I find that there are one hundred and eighty-three subscriptions in the Diocese of Georgia, and this is a gain of about forty during the past year.

I wish to express my pleasure in being able to serve the Woman's Auxiliary of the Diocese of Georgia, in this capacity, and bespeak your most hearty co-operation with my successor.

Respectfully submitted,

(MRS. JAMES SILAS) ANNIE LEE WRIGHT,
Diocesan Secretary of "The Spirit of Missions."

REPORT OF DIOCESAN CHURCH PERIODICAL CLUB, 1920

31 Magazines sent regularly.

60 Odd Numbers sent.

31 Subscribers.

I have only received two individual subscriptions to my appeal for St. Paul's College Library, Tokyo, Japan. I shall write again to each Diocesan Church Periodical Club Librarian to ask the ladies and men of their church who do not wish to give books from their libraries to give money.

If the small churches through their members would give five ($5.00) dollars this could buy one good book worthy to be placed in a college library. We all as Christians wish to help this church College to become a university and to have an adequate library, so as to be a power in Japan.

Speaking of the good of the religious and secular periodicals sent monthly and weekly a Missionary Bishop said, "The periodicals help to keep up the morale of my clergy and lay helpers in out of the way missions." I am pleased with the responses I have so far this year, but we can do better. Bundles of good magazines are to be asked for soon, so as to reach Alaska and other out of the way places during the summer months.

I am sorry not to be with you, but I know you will urge the Convention to help make the Church Periodical Club a better organization in the Diocese and to assist in making the library of St. Paul's College an assured fact by August 1st, 1922.

ANNIE P. WRIGHT.
