Prayers for the Use of Parish Meetings

A Prayer for the Church at Home

LORD of all power and might, who rulest in heaven and in earth, and canst turn the hearts of men after the counsel of thine own will; we humbly pray Thee to awaken in all the members of our parish (our Missionary Society and the Brotherhood of St. Andrew), such a deep sense of their duty to maintain and set forward the work of missions, that by their faith and zeal Thy Holy Name may be glorified, and the bounds of Thy Kingdom enlarged through Jesus Christ our only Saviour and Redeemer. . . . . Amen.

A United Offering Prayer

ALMIGHTY GOD, Lord of the harvest, we humbly beseech Thee to send forth more labourers into Thy harvest, and especially to put it into the hearts of many faithful women to give themselves to Thy work in the Mission field; or, if they cannot go themselves, to give of their substance gladly, as Thou has prospered them, and so may the bounds of Thy Blessed Kingdom be enlarged, through Jesus Christ, Our Lord. . . . Amen.

O LORD, Who didst come to seek and to save the lost, and to Whom all power is given in Heaven and in earth, hear, we beseech Thee, the prayers of The Church for those who, at thy command, go forth to preach the gospel to every creature. Preserve them from all dangers to which they may be exposed; from perils by land and perils by water; from the deadly pestilence; from the violence of the persecutor, from doubt and impatience; from discouragement and discord; and from all the devices of the powers of darkness. And while they plant and water, send Thou, O LORD, the increase; gather in the multitude of the heathen, convert in Christian lands such as neglect so great salvation; so that Thy Name may be glorified and Thy Kingdom come, O Gracious SAVIOUR of the world; to Whom, with the FATHER and the HOLY GHOST, be honour and glory, world without end. . . . . Amen.

O GOD, Who hast prepared for those who love Thee such good things as pass man's understanding; pour into our hearts such love towards Thee, that we, loving Thee above all things, may obtain Thy promises, which exceed all that we can desire; through JESUS CHRIST our LORD. Amen.

Noonday Prayer for Missions

BLESSED SAVIOUR, who at this hour didst hang upon the Cross, stretching forth Thy loving arms, grant that all mankind may look unto Thee and be saved, through Thy mercies and merits Who livest and reignest with the Father and the Holy Ghost ever one God, world without end. Amen.

Resolution on the United Offering of 1919.

RESOLVED: That the United Offering of 1919 be given to the Board of Missions, to be devoted to the training, sending and support of women for mission work at home and abroad and to the care of such workers when sick or disabled—provided that at least $10,000 be expended for the erection, completion or renewal of a building or buildings in the mission field, approved by the Board of Missions on the recommendation of a committee composed of the President of the Board of Missions, the Secretary of the Woman's Auxiliary and the members of the Conference Committee of the Woman's Auxiliary. . . . .

ALSO, RESOLVED: That to our united gifts shall be added our united and earnest prayers that God will put it into the hearts of many faithful women to give themselves or of their substance to the work of the Master in the mission field. . . . .

President's Foreword

ST. PAUL wrote to the Ephesians a wish that I pray for you, "That Christ may dwell in your hearts by faith, and that ye, being rooted and grounded in love, may be able to comprehend with All Saints what is the breadth and length and depth and height and to know the love of Christ which passeth knowledge, that ye may be filled with all the fullness of God." (Ephesians III. 17-19). Fullness—So we come from the triennial,—our privilege so great we feel that we must share it with all we meet. Those who went to St. Louis as delegates were:—Mrs. Bullitt, Mrs. Wirt, Mrs. Drinkwater, Mrs. Steacy and Miss Hirlinger; alternates:—Mrs. Bausman, Mrs. Reynolds, Miss Darlington, Mrs. Tyndell and Mrs. Christman, and the others were Mrs. Darlington, Miss Mary Smythe, Mrs. Houtz, Miss Hale and Miss Martha Bullitt. It is hoped that many more will enjoy going to Detroit in 1919. Your representatives, Mrs. Perley, Mrs. Dunlap and Mrs. Bullitt felt their attendance at the Provincial Synod at Richmond to have been helpful and stimulating, making them acquainted with other Auxiliary workers, and bringing them in touch with better methods of work.

In New York and Newark, at the last convention, an officer of the Auxiliary addressed the Convention. Our Board of Missions granted us the courtesy of ten minutes during the session of the convention last May, and Mrs. Drinkwater and Mrs. Bullitt asked them for their help in our work. May this opening wedge some day lead up to the ideal—the House of Church Women, such as is found in California and eastern Oregon.

It is hoped every branch will invite the vice-president to make them a visit, and that every vice-president will visit every branch, and also that every Center in the diocese will arrange a meeting with the president. In California they have one hundred and sixty-nine branches, and every one is visited by the president once a year. During the past year the president went to several places she had not been to before, but she hopes to go to all the others during the coming year.

Box reports are to be in by June 1st, and reports of the finances by October 1st. A committee to draw up new blanks for use in the Diocese will consist of the president, secretary and treasurer and educational secretary.

Miss Elizabeth Newbold is coming home for her furlough next August. Let us give her a warm welcome and arrange that she may speak if possible, in every church in the Diocese, and have a special meeting with each Auxiliary branch.

Last January Miss Kathleen Watts, for three years our excellent Organizing Secretary of the Diocese of Harrisburg and for a year the valuable secretary, was obliged to go to Indiana. Mrs. Willard Porterfield, who had so ably filled her place as Organizing Secretary again helped the Auxiliary by becoming Secretary. She deserves not only our thanks but the highest praise for both her willingness to change her work and for her skill and system in the discharge of her office.

One of the great gains for the coming year is that Miss Elsie Shaeffer who has been so successful as our Educational Secretary, has kindly consented to become Junior Educational Secretary, as we need her even more in the Junior Auxiliary than we did as Leader of the study classes. I think this is the most important work in the whole Auxiliary and we appreciate Miss Shaeffer's unselfishness in readjusting her plans and preparation to this new work.

Let us consider our threefold work of Gifts, Study and Prayer from the standpoint of duty and privilege.

GIFTS

DUTY—To find out the amount of your apportionment to Diocesan Missions and General Missions, and then help to pay it, your pledges to Jonestown Home, and your help in sending a worker to the Carlisle Indian School.

PRIVILEGE—To give our United Thank Offering and to put a blue box in the hand of every woman and girl in our Diocese. Each branch is urged to have a United Offering Treasurer. For this triennial, Louisanna aimed to double their offering, and they raised $300 over the doubled United Offering. Let us try this year to make our United Offering at least $1200, which was our United Offering this past year, and then we may hope to double our offering for the next triennial.

In St. Louis it was suggested that we give our one day's wage or income on our birthday for General Missions.

Thinking of the help Mr. Littell gave us during the past year, may we contribute $80 for the education of a Chinese divinity student in the school in Hankow.

The Auxiliaries are aiming to raise $50,000 for St. Agnes' School, Kyoto, Japan, and the Harrisburg Branch pledged $200 towards this in St. Louis. It is earnestly hoped that all and even more than this may be raised during the coming year.

STUDY

DUTY—The study class in every parish our aim, and a study book in the home of every woman in the Church. The new Junior plan suggests to us that our first duty to our children is to interest our Sunday school teachers in the study of missions.

PRIVILEGE—The field is the world, and our privileges are great in this Diocese. Our Bishop is generous and broad-minded and encourages us in all our study of missions. Please read "The Spirit of Missions," do not only subscribe to it.

Bishop Brent at the United Offering Mass Meeting said a boy gets his ideals from his mother, and that his own mother had consecrated him as a missionary when he was a little boy, and from time to time would whisper in his ear her hopes for him. Are we bringing up our children with such an ideal in view?

PRAYER

DUTY—To use the Collect for Missions and our United Offering Prayer daily, and add to them the new Collects soon to be printed. The nations are looking to see what Christianity is doing for America, and this is soon coming to mean not only the United States, but all of America—North and South. We cannot attain this end without prayer. There are so many things for which we must pray. A splendid example of the use of prayer for the Auxiliary was given us by the Branch at Selinsgrove, where they had a beautifully arranged week of prayer in behalf of our Twelfth Annual Meeting, remembering all from the Bishops to those who took part in the pageant.

PRIVILEGE—Our privilege will be to join in the Pilgrimage of Prayer suggested by Miss Emery at the triennial, beginning with the first Sunday in Advent, December 3rd, and each week will be assigned to the Auxiliary in one or more Dioceses, with the request (1) that on the Sunday assigned to each Diocese the members of that branch take communion together, (in our Diocese the 11th of February), (2) that individually they repeat the special intercessions daily throughout the week and (3) that on one day in the course of that week each parish branch hold a special meeting for the purpose of making these intercessions. (4) On the Sunday next before Advent, November 25th, 1917, all members of the Woman's Auxiliary throughout the Church have a corporate communion and offer individually the intercessions of the "Pilgrimage of Prayer."

MARGARET E. BULLITT,
President.

Minutes of the Twelfth Annual Meeting of the Woman's Auxiliary of the Diocese of Harrisburg

The Twelfth Annual Meeting of the Harrisburg Branch of the Woman's Auxiliary was held in Lancaster, Thursday and Friday, November 2 and 3, the two branches of St. John's and St. James' acting as hostesses. The Executive Meeting was held in St. James' Parish House on the previous evening.

The meeting opened at 10 o'clock with a Quiet Hour, conducted by the Rev. Robert F. Gibson, rector of Trinity Church, Williamsport. The Rt. Rev. H. St. George Tucker, Bishop of Kyoto, then made a strong plea for the means necessary to rebuild and equip St. Agnes' School for girls at Kyoto.

Following noon-day prayers for missions, a group picture of the delegates was taken in front of St. John's Parish Building, after which luncheon was served by the women of St. John's.

At 2 p. m. the delegates met in St. James' Parish House. The registration showed 130 delegates present, representing 26 parishes.

The President, after calling the meeting to order, asked the delegates to recite with her the creed and the prayer for missions. She then made her Annual Address which was full of suggestions for the coming year.

Each of the four Vice-Presidents, the President of the Juniors, the President of the Little Helpers, and the Educational Secretary, gave a report of her work in a two-minute talk. Because Miss Anna Watts, the new Chairman of the Indian Work, was unable to read her report, Miss Culbertson performed that duty.

The President announced that Deaconess Newbold would be home about August 1, 1917, and suggested a series of meetings which would enable her to make a tour of the whole Diocese. She also stated that the delegates to the Triennial had pledged $200 to St. Agnes' School, Kyoto.

Rev. Mr. Littell's visiting card in Chinese was shown with a request that we educate a Chinese student. This would require $80 a year.

Pledges were asked for as follows: $50 for the Church Home at Jonestown; $150 for the work at Carlisle Indian School; $80 for the Chinese student, and $200 for St. Agnes' School, Kyoto.

Mrs. Darlington had given $50 for a scholarship at St. Hilda's School, Wuchang, which last year was credited to section B, St. Stephen's, Harrisburg. This year it will be credited as a prize to the Junior Branch winning the highest number of points for efficient work.

A plea was also made for help in repairing Christ Church, Anvik, the church built with the first United Offering.

It was decided that the pledge for St. Agnes should be given for the Dormitory which is to be a memorial to Miss Sallie Stuart, one of the founders of the Auxiliary.

Miss Hubbard, one of the Juniors' leaders of Philadelphia, suggested that we try to secure Miss Myers, once the head of St. Agnes, as the speaker at a series of parlor meetings for the purpose of helping St. Agnes.

Mrs. Bullitt announced that conferences would be held at the Church Missions House once a month, and that any one would be welcome to attend them.

Miss Mary Thomas, the Executive Secretary of the Church Periodical Club, gave a stirring little talk about the work of the Club. She emphasized first, the individual side of the work in distributing magazines, and second, the work of sending literature to Mission Sunday Schools. She made an earnest plea that the Branches adopt a Mission Sunday School and keep it supplied with necessary literature.

A motion to amend By-Law No. 1 of the Constitution to read "one month" instead of "one year" before the Annual Meeting, was carried.

The President then announced the Nominating Committee she had appointed: Mrs. Perley of Christ Church, Williamsport; Mrs. Warren Briggs, St. Luke's, Altoona, and Mrs. Francis Farquhar, St. John's, York.

Miss Hubbard, Miss Shaeffer and Miss Rich conducted study classes each afternoon, which concluded the day.

After supper had been served by the women of St. James', the delegates attended the Indian mystery play, "The Great Trail," given by members of St. John's in their Parish House. Too much cannot be said in praise of the way the beautiful pageant was presented. The entire audience watched with dimmed eye and listened in reverent silence from beginning to end.

Friday morning commenced with an early celebration of the Holy Eucharist at St. John's and a later one at St. James'. These were followed by an address on Diocesan Missions by our General Missionary, Rev. Leroy F. Baker.

Bishop Kinsolving then spoke to us of his work in Brazil, and closed with a thrilling vision of the joy of the life of Missionary Bishop.

After the noon-day prayers, which were read by Bishop Kinsolving, the delegates met once more in St. James' Parish House to complete the unfinished business. The first to come up was the proposition to pay $10 an issue to the Harrisburg Churchman for a page devoted to Auxiliary interests, the money to be taken from the Expense Fund. A motion to that effect was made and carried. The following committee to plan for the increase of the Expense Fund and added interest in the Harrisburg Churchman was appointed: Mrs. H. W. Hartman, Miss Hirlinger, Mrs. J. N. Putnam of Tioga, and Mrs. Mahaffey of Altoona.

The Nominating Committee reported the following nominations:—

For Vice-President-at-Large, Mrs. A. M. Drinkwater.

For Recording Secretary, Mrs. Willard Porterfield and Miss Anna May Baker.

For Corresponding Secretary, Mrs. J. R. Musser.

For Treasurer, Mrs. Edwin G. Steacy.

As there was but one candidate for each of the three offices, the Secretary was instructed to cast the ballot.

The committees appointed were as follows:

To plan for Miss Newbold's visit: Mrs. Francis Farquhar, chairman; Mrs. John Peck, Mrs. Briggs, Miss Lyons.

To raise pledge for St. Agnes: Mrs. Alan Perley, chairman; Mrs. Fahs Smith, Miss Elizabeth Bonham, Mrs. George Kunkel, Miss Mary Zeller, Mrs. H. J. Sommers, Mrs. Noel Smith, Miss Maynard.

To raise pledge for Chinese student: Miss Anna Watts, chairman; Miss Culbertson, Miss Logan, Mrs. Maurice Smith.

To stimulate interest in Carlisle Indian School: Miss Anna Watts, chairman; Mrs. Williamson McGowan.

Reports of the Triennial at St. Louis were read by the delegates who had attended the Convention: Mrs. Tyndall, Mrs. Wirt, Mrs. Drinkwater, Mrs. Bausman, and Mrs. Steacy.

Miss Hubbard and Miss Hirlinger each gave a brief outline of the new plan for Junior work. The President then announced that the Juniors of Blue Ridge Summit had won the prize for Junior efficiency.

A motion was carried that we send a message of regret and sympathy to our Bishop who was very ill at his son's home in New Jersey.

A rising vote of thanks and appreciation for the generous hospitality of the two parishes was made.

At the luncheon which followed, the acting chairman of the Nominating Committee announced that the election had resulted in 59 votes for Miss Baker and 29 for Mrs. Porterfield. Upon motion of Mrs. Porterfield the election was made unanimous.

The offerings at the meeting amounted to $81.09.

The meeting adjourned.

SUSAN A. PORTERFIELD,
Secretary

Report of the Archdeaconry of Harrisburg

The Vice-President of the Harrisburg Archdeaconry respectfully submits the following report from March, 1916, to October, 1916.

At present there are twenty-four branches of the Auxiliary. New branches have been organized in Camp Hill, Steelton, Lykens, and Mount Joy, also two branches of Section B—one in St. James, Lancaster, and one in St. John's, Lancaster. Churchtown, Marietta and Newport have sent no report this year, however the Auxiliary in Churchtown deserves special mention. The Parish is a small one, in charge of a Lay-reader, but $25 has been collected and sent as the Parish Apportionment. Some sewing has been done during the winter, though the articles have not yet been sent away. The President of this Branch, Mrs. K. S. Cummings, is eighty-seven years old.

The winter Archdeaconry meeting was held in St. Paul's Church, Harrisburg, and the spring meeting in Trinity Church, Chambersburg, at which time Dr. Frederic Gardiner made an address on "Religious Education" and Miss Cornelia Browne told of her work as a Missionary in the Philippine Islands.

From November to May, six Centre Meetings were held with an average attendance of 45. Two of these meetings were in St. James', Lancaster, two in St. John's, Lancaster, one in Manheim and one in Mount Joy.

Several new study classes were held during the winter, two of which were composed of young women of Section B age. One group has since organized as Section B.

The Mystery Play, "The Great Trail," was given in St. John's Parish House, Lancaster, with such success that it was necessary to repeat the play a second night, and a third performance was given on the night of November 2nd for the benefit of the delegates to the Twelfth Annual Meeting, held in Lancaster.

Report of the Northern Archdeaconry

In the Northern Archdeaconry there are only three branches of the Woman's Auxiliary. At Wellsboro, Coudersport and Tioga. For missions for 1916, Wellsboro Auxiliary sent a box valued at $50.00 to Rev. George Mayo of Virginia; Coudersport sent to Mt. Alto $30.00, to Jonestown, $19.60, United Offering for 1915, $5.00, for which they were not given credit, and $7.50 for the United Offering for 1916; Tioga sent a barrel to Rev. Mr. Coombs, valued at $10.00, to Miss Newbold for dolls, $3.00, to Rev. Mr. Mayo $6.69 cash, and a box valued at $12.00, to Geo. Gordon King, $20.00 for gift to St. Hilda's School, Wuchang, to Jonestown Home $2.00, to United Offering $11.00; which looks as if these three parishes were interested.

On February 3rd we had a meeting in Tioga, which happened to be a very disagreeable day. About fifty were present. We had with us our Diocesan President, Mrs. Bullitt, Rev. Geo. P. Mayo, Rev. J. W. Torkington of Wellsboro, Rev. Leroy F. Baker of Selin's Grove, and our own rector, Rev. F. H. Allison. It was thoroughly enjoyed by all present.

On May 11th we had a meeting in Lawrenceville. Not so many present, but a good meeting. We were so happy to have Mrs. Bullitt and Mrs. Wirt with us at that time. It means so much to us to have them with us. Rev. J. W. Torkington gave one of the best missionary talks it has ever been my pleasure to listen to, and why not? He was a missionary in Africa, four or five years, and knows whereof he speaks.

We hope to have a meeting in the early spring, either at Coudersport or Blossburg.

Report of Williamsport Archdeaconry

In making her annual report, the Vice-President of Williamsport Archdeaconry would respectfully remind you of the recent division of this Archdeaconry that was made by the last Diocesan Convention.

This has, of course, somewhat reduced the number of Woman's Auxiliary branches. We have, however, the pleasure of recording a United Offering from two new branches, with every prospect of increased activities. We now number in all sixteen active branches.

Four of the branches sent educational delegates to the Conference at Cambridge; this, we think, should greatly increase interest in, and encourage the formation of, study classes in our Archdeaconry this winter.

We have to report several interesting and helpful classes during the past Lenten season.

Owing to three serious epidemics in several parishes, the Center Meetings were largely curtailed.

It was the pleasure of your Vice-President to accompany your Diocesan President on a tour of visitations that extended to the New York state line. In Christ Church Parish, Berwick, the church women were most cordial, manifesting interest in our mission-message, and a number of United Offering boxes were asked for. In St. John's Parish, S. Williamsport, a splendid meeting was held; enthusiastic and inspiring talks given, plans evolved for enlarged future mission work and United Offering boxes placed.

At Trinity Parish, Jersey Shore, the rector had invited church women to meet us in the rectory. An informal discussion of Auxiliary topics seemed to elicit deep interest, especially in the Junior work. Visits were also made at Tioga and Lawrenceville.

The Mid-winter Archdeaconry Meeting of the Woman's Auxiliary, held in Christ Church Parish, Williamsport, was a particularly forceful one.

Owing to the illness of the Vice-President, the meeting was most ably conducted by the Diocesan President, Mrs. Bullitt.

The morning session closed with an address by Bishop Darlington on the Apportionment. The delicious luncheon served by Christ Church women was enjoyed jointly with clergy and men of the Archdeaconry also holding a session in Christ Church. In the afternoon two rare treats in missionary addresses were enjoyed. The first speaker was the Rev. S. Harrington Littell, of Hankow, China, whose narrative of Christian effort and accomplishment in China was most fascinating. The Rev. George P. Mayo told of the work being done for the mountain whites of Virginia. Every word was interesting and inspiring.

An interesting feature was the announcement by telegram of a gift from Mrs. Darlington of a scholarship to St. Hilda's School, Wuchang, China, in the name of the Auxiliary of St. Stephen's, Harrisburg. Announcement was also made that Mrs. Darlington would give another scholarship next year in the name of the Junior branch which should become the Banner Branch.

Election of the Archdeaconry Vice-President resulted in the unanimous re-election of the present officer, and a telegram was sent, informing her of the fact. Mrs. W. C. Robinson, President of Christ Church Auxiliary, Sec. A, presented a resolution pledging sympathy with, loyalty to, and high regard for the Board of Missions, and asked that a copy be sent to the secretary of the Board.

Owing to the illness of Miss Rich, the model mission class, prepared by her, was given by Mrs. Edward P. Almy.

With a vote of thanks to the women of Christ Church Auxiliary for their bountiful hospitality, the meeting adjourned.

The Spring Archdeaconry Meeting was held in St. Paul's Parish, Bloomsburg, on April 27th, beginning with the Holy Communion, celebrated by the rector, the Rev. F. O. Musser, assisted by the Rev. C. E. Betticher, of New York. The business meeting followed in the parish house, Mrs. Wirt presiding.

Mrs. Bullitt, Diocesan President, was introduced. She read a letter from Miss Emery on the two great wars: the material and the spiritual now taking place; and bespeaking co-operation in making this a year of prayer.

Mrs. Bullitt then conducted a Questionnaire on Parish Methods, which awakened animated discussion.

A conference on: "How can the Woman's Auxiliary accomplish its full purpose in a Parish" was ably conducted by Mrs. E. A. Ketchum, Organizing Secretary of the Bethlehem Diocese.

Mid-day intercessions by the Rev. A. C. Fleidner, of Danville.

Mrs. Woolley talked on the United Offering; Miss Rich on Church Educational Conferences; Miss Vance on Our Study Class.

The missionary speaker was the Rev. C. E. Betticher, whose graphic account of his work in Alaska held the undivided interest of about one hundred women.

Mrs. Porterfield, Sec., gave a strong talk on the sending and reporting of Missionary Boxes. Miss Bernard, of Bloomsburg, gave a fine report of Girls' Friendly Work.

The offering of $21.61 was used in payment of speakers' expenses.

A bountiful luncheon was served at 12:30 o'clock to sixty women, despite the very inclement weather; and supper to a large

C. P. C. PRAYER

O Lord Jesus Christ, Who art the Light of the World, pour out, we beseech Thee, upon all Thy servants Thy Holy Spirit of Wisdom and understanding that they may know the hope of Thy calling, the riches of Thine inheritance in the saints, and the greatness of Thy power to usward who believe. More especially we pray Thee to direct and prosper the Church Periodical Club that in all its prayer and labor it may be enabled to make the light of Thy glory shine forth in the dark places of the earth. And do Thou of Thy mercy and grace establish Thy Church in the truth of Thy Gospel who livest and reignest with the Father and the Holy Spirit ever One God, world without end. Amen.

LITTLE HELPERS' PRAYERS

FOR MEMBERS

God bless all the Missionaries all over the world, and all the Little Helpers, for Jesus' sake. Amen.

FOR LEADERS

Direct us, O Lord, in our Little Helpers' work with Thy love and favor, and further us with Thy continual help, that all our work may be begun, continued, and ended in Thee, and our Little Helpers grow up to honor and bless Thy Holy Name and help in extending Thy Kingdom in all the world. We ask it for Jesus Christ's Sake.

A PRAYER FOR MISSIONS ALL OVER THE WORLD

O God, who hast made of one blood all nations of men for to dwell on the face of the whole earth, and didst send Thy blessed

Son to preach peace to them that are far off and to them are nigh; Grant that all men everywhere may seek after Thee and find Thee. Bring the nations into Thy fold, and add the heathen to Thine inheritance. And we pray thee shortly to accomplish the number of Thine elect, and to hasten Thy kingdom; through the same Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Report of the Little Helpers of the Junior Department

Eight new branches have been organized during the year. Three old ones failed to send any report, leaving twenty-three branches in all. It is the earnest desire of your president that more children be reached during the coming year. Is there not some one who will start a branch as a memorial for a child who has gone, just as the Little Helpers were organized as a memorial to Gaylord Hart?

Literature and boxes will be sent upon request.
