REPORT
OF THE
WOMAN'S AUXILIARY
TO THE
NATIONAL COUNCIL
OF THE
PROTESTANT EPISCOPAL CHURCH
DIOCESE OF HARRISBURG

THE RT. REV. WYATT BROWN, D. D., LITT. D., BISHOP

1935 - 1936 - 1937

FOREWORD

This year in the Diocese of Harrisburg we are emphasizing the importance of building up the Church through the presentation of more men, women and children for Confirmation. The Church cannot remain static. It must grow or else diminish. This is essentially missionary work, and the members of the Woman's Auxiliary are exhorted to help the clergy of the Church in reaching the unconverted and the unchurched in their communities. The light that shines brightest at home will inevitably reach farthest into the darkness.

The following Report is a testimony to the magnificent and sacrificial work done by the Woman's Auxiliary of the Diocese of Harrisburg. Under the presidency of Mrs. E. M. Fleming, with the close co-operation of the faithful officers by her side, the Auxiliary has done noble, Christian service at home and abroad, and has made progress. The various branches were never more closely knit together throughout the Diocese than at the present time.

The Bishop urges all women of the Church to make active their membership in the Woman's Auxiliary which is inherent in their baptism. Join the mighty army and move forward under the banner of the Cross.

In concluding this Foreword, we desire to commemorate the faithful work of Mrs. Anna M. Drinkwater, one of the last of the women who organized the Woman's Auxiliary in Central Pennsylvania, faithful communicant of Trinity Parish, Williamsport, who died January 28, 1938. May her Lord reward her in Paradise according to her good work! We pray God's blessing upon the Woman's Auxiliary during the years which lie ahead.

Faithfully and lovingly,

WYATT BROWN,
Bishop of Harrisburg.

PRAYERS

WOMAN'S AUXILIARY PRAYER

Almighty God, our Heavenly Father, bless, we pray Thee, our work for the extension of Thy Kingdom; and make us so thankful for the gift to us, of Thy Beloved Son, that we may pray fervently, labor diligently, and give liberally, to make Him known to all nations, as their God and Savior. We ask this, for His dear sake. Amen.

UNITED THANK OFFERING PRAYER

O Lord, our Heavenly Father, we pray Thee to send forth more laborers into Thy harvest, and to grant them Thy special grace for every fellowship with them. Dispose the hearts of all women everywhere, to give gladly as thou hast prospered them. Accept from grateful hearts, our United Thank Offering of prayer, and gifts, and joyful service; and bless it to the coming of Thy Kingdom through Jesus Christ, our Lord. Amen.

Direct us, O Lord, in all our doings, with Thy most gracious favour, and further us with Thy continual help; that in all our works begun, continued, and ended in Thee, we may glorify Thy Holy Name, and finally, by Thy mercy, obtain everlasting life; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

FOR THE TRUE SPIRIT OF OUR WORK

O God, give us a pure heart, a clear mind, and a steadfast will, that all our work may be to the honor of Him who hath honored us with His love and fellowship, Jesus Christ, our Lord. Amen.

Bless us, O God, with a vision of Thy being, and Thy Beauty; that in the strength of it, we may work without haste, and without rest; through Jesus Christ, our Lord. Amen.

O God, grant us, in all our duties, Thy help, and in all our perplexities, Thy counsel. Lead us ever more deeply into the knowledge of Thy life, and make us faithful interpreters of that life, to our fellowmen; through Jesus Christ, our Lord. Amen.

PRAYER FOR ALL MISSIONARIES

Almighty and everlasting God, who dost govern all things in Heaven and earth, we commend to Thy Fatherly care all who Thou hast called to take part in the Missionary work of Thy Church. Watch over them, we beseech Thee, for good; defend them from all dangers both of body and soul; give thine Angels charge over them, and let Thy Holy Spirit strengthen their hearts, and prosper all their works to the glory of Thy Holy Name; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

FORWARD MOVEMENT PRAYERS

We pray Thee, O God, for Thy blessing upon the Forward Movement of Thy Church. Use it, we beseech Thee, to open our eyes to the needs of men for the Gospel of Christ, and to the opportunities that lie before the Church to extend His Kingdom. Stir up, O Lord, the wills of all Thy people to share in this work of gladness of heart and self sacrificing spirit; and let not our purpose slack until the kingdoms of this world have become the Kingdom of our God and of His Christ. Amen.

FOR THE FAMILY OF NATIONS

Almighty God, Our Heavenly Father, guide, we beseech thee, the Nations of the world into the way of justice and truth, and establish among them that peace which is the fruit of righteousness, that they may become the Kingdom of our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ, Amen.

The thirtieth Annual meeting of the Harrisburg Diocesan Branch of the Woman's Auxiliary was held in Trinity House, Williamsport, Pa., Tuesday and Wednesday, November 19th and 20th, 1935.

Tuesday afternoon, the Rev. Stuart Gast of St. Paul's, Bloomsburg, conducted the Quiet Hour. His meditations were based on this sentence, "And there was no room for them in the Inn 1900 years ago, would there be today in 1935?" He emphasized the need for silence and meditation.

Bishop Brown and the Rev. C. Rankin Barnes, Executive Secretary of Christian Social Service of the National Council, were the speakers at the evening mass meeting. When he has found his Saviour through surrender, the miracle is performed and he believes in missions." Dr. Barnes took for his topic "Today's Social Crisis Challenges the Church," stressing three points. First, the Church must clarify Christian responsibility for social righteousness. Secondly, the Church must improve the standards of her own social work. Thirdly, the Church must demonstrate Christian citizenship.

PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

Once more the time has come for another message, for an evaluation of our work. We must look for both strength and weakness and strive to find methods by which we can do our work more unitedly and more efficiently.

Three years ago when I attended General Convention I thought the height and depth of spiritual privilege had been reached; but the spirit of the recent Triennial and General Convention was more hopeful, more helpful and more inspiring. The feeling of unity and co-operation with each other was very marked. The theme of the Triennial was "Fellowship in Faith and Work" and perhaps I can illustrate the following out of that theme by telling you how the delegations were arranged and how distances were lost sight of in that Fellowship. Directly in front of the Harrisburg delegates was Lexington, Kentucky, to the right were delegates from Liberia, to the left New Hampshire, while Honolulu was slightly in front and Japan to the rear. At a luncheon table where seven persons were seated two were from the diocese of Pennsylvania, two from Minnesota, one from Iowa, I was from Harrisburg, and the seventh was Bishop Binstead of Japan. Loving the Japanese through his close association with them, he presented to us their side of the conflict with China and made us look upon them with, at least, more Christian charity. So much as background.

In Cincinnati as well as in summer conferences the fact again was stressed that the Woman's Auxiliary is Auxiliary to the National Council in every phase of the work of the Church. It is made up of all women united in working together for one great purpose, to extend His Kingdom, to do His work in our parish, our community and our diocese, and we should unite ourselves so as to do it more efficiently—all groups and all guilds in one parish group. This unified parish group may have many committees or chapters—Missions and Church extension, Altar work, Religious education, Choir work, Rector's Aid, Christian Social Service, etc.

This plan may not be put into operation at once, but it is a goal toward which to work, and will surely be a means of interesting more women, for certainly every woman has an interest in some part of the Church's work. Then the program of the Woman's Auxiliary will be the program of the Church, one program beginning in the individual soul and reaching through the world.

The work of the past year has been given to you in the reports of officers, and was well done by those officers. I am thankful to say there has been a fine increase in U. T. O., in Supply work, a very flourishing new branch has been organized on the unified plan at Blue Ridge Summit, more branches, among them Westfield, in Wellsboro Archdeaconry, doing supply work.

The plan of sending delegates to summer conferences using the Archdeaconry collections as means of paying the expenses has brought good results and will be continued next year. I urge you to send someone from your parish next year; we have the Blue Mountain Conference in our diocese, and a very splendid shorter one in Orkney Springs, Virginia, which I had the opportunity of attending.

Whatever of good has been accomplished has been with the aid of the devoted and faithful women of the diocese, and to all of you I extend my love and gratitude. It has been a joy to work with you and through you. I extend my thanks also to the clergy and to the Bishop who have been most kind. Let us go back to our parishes and missions resolving to make this year better than any previous year, each of us to interest some indifferent woman by finding out her inclinations and talents and so enlisting her in the work of the Church.

To come back to the Triennial. We heard much of the World Conferences at Oxford and Edinburgh; how much we find of unity with other churches and denominations, in our land and in foreign lands, agreement in communion, agreement in purpose; and it is significant of that unity that I could find no better way to close this message than with the words of that Japanese Christian, Kagawa.

DISCOVERY

I cannot invent
New things,
Like the airships
Which sail
On silver wings;
But today
A wonderful thought
In the dawn was given,
And the stripes on my robe,
Shining from wear,
Were suddenly fair,
Bright with a light
Falling from Heaven—
Gold and silver and bronze
Lights from the windows of Heaven.

And the thought was this:
That a secret plan
Is hid in my hand;
That my hand is big,
Big,
Because of this plan.
That God,
Who dwells in my hand,
Knows this secret plan
Of the things He will do for the world
Using my hand!

—Toyohiko Kagawa.

KATHERINE BEATTY FLEMING.

REPORT OF THE PRAYER PARTNER SECRETARY

1935-36-37

Dear Lord, who art in every place, make known Thy Presence to all Missionaries who are lonely or in danger, for Thou art their sure defense. Especially we pray for our Prayer Partner,—that with pure heart and holy life, with loving zeal and steadfast faith, she may witness in Thy Name: that so through her Thy Will may be done and Thy Kingdom come. We ask it for Thy Blessed Name's sake.

For this beautiful prayer we thank a priest of the Diocese and a branch Prayer Partner Secretary.

The Prayer Partnership plan was adopted at the Triennial meeting held in Portland, 1922. It was to give our missionaries the feeling of the supporting strength of the Church at home. Have them know that they are definitely and constantly in our thoughts.

The Prayer Partners are assigned the diocese by the National Chairman. The missionaries assigned this Diocese are as follows:

Miss Elizabeth Falck and Miss Annie Groff, St. Luke's Hospital, Shanghai, China.

Miss Elizabeth Graves, St. Mary's Hall, Shanghai, China.

Miss Gertrude Heywood, St. Margaret's School, Tokyo, Japan.

Miss Elizabeth Winegar, Charlottesville, Va.

Miss Annie Park, St. Ann's Preventorium, Mission Home, Va.

Mrs. Sarah Brownell, Monrovia, Liberia, W. Africa.

Deaconess Lydia Ann Ramsey, St. Andrew's Mission, Battle Mountain, Nevada.

The Deaconess has taken over Miss Charlotte Brown's Work.

Miss Charlotte Brown, 146 Massachusetts Avenue, Apt. 522, Boston, Mass.

During the year 1936 we had the pleasure of having three of our Prayer Partners visit the Diocese. Late in the winter Miss Annie Park paid a visit to all her Prayer Partners. At the Annual Meeting in November Miss Charlotte Brown told of her work in Nevada and Miss Elizabeth Falck spoke of the work being done at St. Luke's Hospital, Shanghai, China. At this time Miss Brown visited her Prayer Partners.

Last year one branch reported of appointing each month a different woman to write their Prayer Partner. This year several branches reported following this method.

I have requested the women to remember their Prayer Partners in their daily devotions. This is important if we want God's help in the work of the Church thru our missionaries, who know the power of prayer. One Prayer Partner in the foreign field wrote me—"Tell your women how much we do need your prayers out here, for strength of body to do our work, but most of all for inward strength to live and be as God would have us in our daily contacts with others."

Most branches report giving their Prayer Partner personal gifts and some give material aid to the work.

In July, 1936, I made the first report on the Prayer Partnership Plan and the way it functions in our Diocese, to the National Chairman, at her request, as she had to make her first report to the National Council.

Respectfully submitted,

TIVOLI FLEMING CRAWFORD,

Diocesan Prayer Partner Secretary.

August 4th, 1935

Whereas, By God's hand, our esteemed and valuable Diocesan Treasurer, Richard M. H. Wharton, has passed from the mortal to the immortal stage of life, and

Resolved, that we thank God for his useful and noble life, for the example of his devotion, loyalty and love for the church, which we may strive to equal; be it also

Resolved, that we express our feeling of deep loss in his passing, of sympathy toward his bereaved family. May the Spirit of comfort bring peace to their sorrowing hearts; be it further

Resolved, that these resolutions be spread on the minutes of the Woman's Auxiliary of the Diocese of Harrisburg, and that a copy be sent to the sorrowing family.

MRS. JOHN C. KUNKEL

December 31st, 1934

The Woman's Auxiliary of St. Stephen's Cathedral has been deeply grieved by the loss of one whose very heart and soul were wrapped up in its success.

Mrs. John Kunkel, Honorary President for life, was President of the Auxiliary eight years and all of that time she worked indefatigably for the cause she loved with her whole being, the extension of God's kingdom here on earth.

Goi called her Home on the last day of the old year, 1934. A woman of great charm, of deep and abiding faith, she was a real leader whom we were happy to follow. Our hearts go out in deepest sympathy to her son and to her sisters to whom she was so devoted.

MISS ELEANOR SHUNK

Once more the Woman's Auxiliary bows its head in grief over the loss of a devoted member, who died January 8th, 1935. Miss Eleanor Shunk was Treasurer of St. Stephen's Branch of the Auxiliary for many years. Upon the death of Mrs. Rockhill Smith she was made President, which office she filled with distinction until eight years ago. For eight years she served as Custodian of the United Thank Offering, which increased each year under her faithful stewardship.

Truly the Church has need of more such devoted and gentle women who work so steadfastly to carry out Our Lord's command, "Go ye into all the world."

To her niece and nephew our deepest sympathy is extended. The memorials for Mrs. John Kunkel and Miss Eleanor Shunk were prepared and presented by the Secretary of St. Stephen's Cathedral Branch.

RESOLUTIONS

1937

To the Rt. Rev. Henry St. George Tucker, our new Presiding Bishop and President of the National Council, we, the Woman's Auxiliary to the National Council, of the Diocese of Harrisburg, extend our congratulations and pledge to him our loyal support.

To Bishop Wyatt Brown, our Diocesan, we express our gratitude for his encouragement and wise counsel in our many problems,

Therefore be it resolved, that this Diocesan Branch of the Woman's Auxiliary extend to Bishop Tucker and to Bishop Brown our greetings, assuring them of our hearty co-operation with them in their efforts in the Diocese and General Church.

Whereas, it is 19 years since the signing of the Armistice which prefaced peace, and we still find ourselves struggling to solve the problem of international peace. Believing in the power of sincere prayer; we,

Resolve, that the members of the Woman's Auxiliary of the Diocese of Harrisburg pray earnestly for wars to cease, and also study means whereby the world may be educated in ways of loving kindness."

Since our last meeting in Harrisburg some of our faithful members have passed to their reward.

Grant them eternal rest, O Lord, and may light perpetual shine upon them.

Whereas, it has pleased Almighty God to take unto Himself the soul of Theodosia Reynolds Fisler, for many years a faithful member of the Woman's Auxiliary in Trinity Church, Shamokin; be it

Resolved, that we give thanks for her example of loyalty and devotion to the Church and know that in the Church Triumphant she still makes intercession for us.

Whereas: God is working His purpose out and you and I are the instruments He uses to attain that end. A member of our Branch has worked with great zeal and happiness to further successfully the command of the Great Commission to go out into all the world, and now Mrs. Albra Baker, better known throughout the diocese as "Mrs. Blue-Box Baker," has passed to her rest in Paradise. She was untiring in her years of devotion to the charge given her.

Therefore be it resolved, that those of us who are left behind be inspired by her spirit of loyalty and follow swiftly and closely to bring our own Blue-boxes into the first place in our hearts, and be it further resolved, to spread this resolution on the minutes, send a copy to her husband, and a copy be read at the Diocesan Meeting, in Carlisle.

May God's blessing rest upon her and give her peace and may light perpetual shine upon her.

MILDRED B. DAVIS, President.

MARY U. WALKER, Secretary.

St. Andrew's Branch, Harrisburg.

Whereas, we have learned with deep regret of the bereavement which has befallen Mr. and Mrs. Leslie McCreathe in the death of their son,

Therefore, be it resolved, that we express our deepest sympathy and assure them of our prayers for them in their sorrow.

Whereas, it has pleased a Divine Providence to take from our midst Eloise Wells, of Christ Church Parish, Coudersport, Pa., a faithful and devoted communicant, one time member of the Vestry and loyal worker in the Woman's Auxiliary, given to charity and all good works,

Therefore, Be it resolved: that our sympathy to the family and to the Parish be extended by the Woman's Auxiliary of the Diocese of Harrisburg in the passing of Mrs. Wells, whose life and works are her eulogy.

Be it resolved, that a copy of these memorials be sent to their respective families.

Be it resolved, that to the Rector and Parish of St. John's, Carlisle, we extend our sincere appreciation for their most cordial welcome and delightful entertainment of the Woman's Auxiliary of the Diocese of Harrisburg, their guests and speakers.

Be it resolved, that to Miss Groff, of Lancaster, who brought an interesting message of her work in China, and to Miss Gladys Spencer, of Wellsboro, whose work in Japan she so valiantly carries on, we extend our prayerful appreciation.

We also wish to express our appreciation for the great help given us towards a better knowledge of the mission work being done in Anking, and in South Dakota, by the Rt. Rev. Daniel Huntington and by the Rev. Vine DeLoria.

We thank the Rev. Gordon Wadhams for his most helpful and inspiring Quiet Hour.

We rejoice that Miss Batzle has recovered sufficiently from her serious illness to take up once more her duties as Secretary and to inspire us by her example of interest and fellowship.

We regret the sudden illness of Miss Caroline Gillespie and we send to her best wishes for a speedy recovery.

We wish to express to our retiring Treasurer, Mrs. R. D. Noe, our gratitude for her efficiency and faithfulness during her two terms as Diocesan Treasurer of the Woman's Auxiliary, and to welcome Mrs. Francis D. Daley, her successor, also Mrs. Lowry Mann, who succeeds herself as U. T. O. Custodian, and Miss Batzle as Secretary.

REPORT OF THE GIRLS' FRIENDLY SOCIETY IN THE

1935-36-37

The Girl's Friendly Society program includes social service, worship, missions and service to the Church. It emphasizes questions which are important to young people of today, personal problems, questions in religion, vocation and leisure time activities. I think the work among our younger girls should be carefully nurtured, more Candidate Classes should be formed. It is the "girl in the making" who can be reached and helped and if we will inform ourselves on the psychology of the adolescent girl and get close to her, I am sure we shall be blessed for our work.

Miss Sarah Morrison, editor of the G. F. S. Record, has been granted a leave of absence, it is interesting to know that her travels have taken her to Yangchow to see Florence Moore and St. Faith's School for Girls. The new mission object being the salary of a worker for St. Faith's, Yangchow, China.

There are five active branches and three candidate branches. Due to lack of leadership no new branches were organized in 1935.

At a Diocesan council meeting held at St. John's Parish House, York, Pa., December 18, 1935, there was an election of officers for 1936, Miss Mary Heiges, of York, was elected President succeeding Mrs. J. Charles Heiges.

I know that I shall miss the work very much, my interest will not be diminished because of my departure from the Presidency.

I want to thank every one for their fine spirit of co-operation and help.

Respectfully submitted,

MRS. J. CHARLES HEIGES,

Retiring Diocesan President, G. F. S.

1936

Due to financial conditions for the last few years the Girls' Friendly Society has been on a decline, but we can again rejoice as new enthusiasm is present. Recently two new branches have been organized. I have visited seven parishes, meeting rectors, leaders and groups.

Eighty-seven girls were guests at Camp Betty Washington during the past summer.

The ministers held a retreat at the Camp. The Rev. W. Josselyn Reed, Chairman.

1937

Due to the hardship felt by Girls' Friendly branches in meeting the National Girls' Friendly Society dues, many branches in the Diocese are inactive.

Following the advice of Bishop Brown the work of the Girls' Friendly Society in the Diocese will be carried on more as an individual Parish organization, until such time when more branches can be organized. The prospects are favorable for organizing several new branches this fall.

I will gladly contact any Rectors interested in Girls' Friendly work. Material is available at the New York National Office.

We are hoping to continue the work following the set-up of the Girls' Friendly Society National Program.

MARY McC. HEIGES,

Diocesan President,
The Girls' Friendly Society.

REPORT OF DIOCESAN EDUCATIONAL SECRETARY

1935-1936-1937

Madam President and Women of the Woman's Auxiliary:

The purpose of Missionary education is to present the need of the world for the life giving power of the Gospel of Christ and the bringing of individuals into harmonious and creative adjustment to God, to man and to life on a Christian basis. This development may be most fully realized by participating in the work and worship of the Church.

Judging from the demands for the addresses, reports and Meditations from the Triennial meeting 1934 and for the program suggestions to help in the follow up, the theme "IF WE BE HIS DISCIPLES" is meeting with a ready response in our Parishes and Missions. The FORWARD MOVEMENT is also stressing DISCIPLESHIP and we are eager to co-operate in every way with the educational plans of this Commission.

The special phase of "Missions in this Age" is LATIN AMERICA. The source book, "THAT OTHER AMERICA," by John A. Mackay, is an analysis of the Latin American situation, treating the relation of the Christian Church to the social and intellectual movements stirring in the countries to the south of us. It is a deeply religious book and deserves wide circulation among men and women of the Church.

Many excellent programs on Latin America were given throughout the Diocese and much worthwhile reading done. In many parishes those who had either lived or traveled in Latin American countries contributed pleasing and worthwhile travel talks. Some costume programs were given with many beautiful specimens of handicraft on display. Here were told the stories of our Churches work, outstanding missionaries, etc. There were plays and pageants—Rector's Book Shelves for Lenten reading—Regional meetings—Archdeaconry meetings—World Day of Prayer—Corporate Communions—Prayer and Meditation on Armistice Day.

I should like to recommend also two study courses for the younger women's groups. "IS WAR THE WAY?" by Lobinger, and "THE GHOST OF CAESER WALKS," by Leiper.

For the Winter of 1936 and '37 we have been given two themes for our study—A Preface to Racial Understanding by Johnson which is the source book for The Negro in America and Consider Africa by Matthews. Both of these topics are of unusual significance and timeliness. Quoting from Forward Day by Day: "Both are fine and we need both. The temptation will be to choose far away Africa. What we greatly need is to understand and live in Christian love with the great race which forms one-tenth of our Nation. The first step is by understanding."

We want in our study to secure facts about the Negro with the hope for a greater sense of understanding and better relationships.

Among the outstanding speakers in the Diocese during 1936 were Bishop Hobson, Dr. Hart, Dr. Glazebrook, Mrs. Beverly Over, Mrs. Harper Sibley, Mr. John Hartman, and Miss Sallie Dean.

As your Educational Secretary, I make the following report for 1937:

I have edited the Woman's Auxiliary column in the Harrisburg Churchman—written over a hundred letters in reply to questions on literature—programs—book sales, etc.; have planned programs for the year for several branches and have sent out an educational letter to each branch.

I addressed the Spring meeting of the Archdeaconry of Altoona on "Moslems in the Southern Philippines." This is the only Mohammedan work under the American flag, having been established by my husband for Bishop Brent.

I attended the meeting of the Harrisburg Archdeaconry and spent several days and evenings at the Blue Mountain Conference. I attended the Shrine Mount Conference at Orkney Springs, Virginia, at which our Diocese was well represented. This is a four days conference sponsored by the Woman's Auxiliary of the Third Province.

This conference for Auxiliary women is within the reach, both in length of time and money, of many women who would find it impossible to attend a more expensive and longer conference.

The theme of our study this past winter was "A Preface to Racial Understanding." With this as a text there were study and discussion groups, plays, pageants, program nights with outside speakers—Rector's book shelves with special Lenten reading.

The Missionary Education Movement is offering you two books for your 1937 and 1938 Missionary Theme. The Moslem World by Watson, and The Church in Rural America by Dauber. Either or both of the books mentioned for adults will be useful as background reading for our Church groups. Both are 60c each.

Miss Teague's book "Forward in Rural America," is written from the point of view of our own Church—the other two are interdenominational. This book on Rural America will include not only suggestions for procedure in presenting and discussing the subject but also source material in the form of extracts from many books and pamphlets.

I would suggest that each Woman's Auxiliary branch procure from the Church Missions House, 281 Fourth Ave., New York, a mimeographed copy of the Findings of the 1937 Triennial meeting. This may be had for the asking, and should be incorporated in your winter's program.

On November 22, 1937, under the leadership of the Right Reverend R. E. L. Strider, D.D., Chairman of the Commission on Religious Education of the Third Province, a meeting was held at Saint Mark's Church, Washington, D. C., for the purpose of arranging an Advanced Provincial Conference. The Board was organized and elected Bishop Strider as President; the Very Reverend Wallace E. Rollins, Dean of Virginia Theological Seminary, as Vice-President; the Reverend L. Carter Harrison, as Secretary; the Reverend Nathaniel B. Grotton, as Treasurer. The Reverend Malcolm E. Peabody was chosen Chairman of the Program Committee, the Reverend Oliver J. Hart Chairman of the Publicity Committee, the Reverend R. A. Magill Chairman of the Executive Committee. The new Provincial Conference will be held at Sweet Briar, Virginia, July 5 to 15, 1938. This conference will take the place of the Blue Mountain Conference and, in addition, bring in many others from all over the Province.

Your Educational Secretary edits for you a Woman's Auxiliary column in the HARRISBURG CHURCHMAN. Have a representative appointed in your branch whose duty it is to send items to Mrs. R. T. McCutchen, South Mountain, Pa., by the 5th of each month.

Please send your book orders to the Educational Secretary, as by so doing the Diocesan Auxiliary has the benefit of the commission.

Educational information is disseminated each month through the Woman's Auxiliary column in the HARRISBURG CHURCHMAN, please read your column.

Respectfully submitted,

FRANCES H. McCUTCHEON,
Diocesan Educational Secretary.

REPORT OF THE CHURCH PERIODICAL CLUB

Once again it becomes my happy privilege to bring you warm greetings from the Church Periodical Club and to offer a condensed report of its activities in this Diocese during the past year, together with some of the highlights of the Convention meetings held recently in Cincinnati, Ohio.

It is encouraging to note that more magazines have been forwarded during the year than heretofore. Not all of them have been sent through the mail, however, but some have been passed on to neighbors and to members of our families or taken to hospitals and other institutions. In doing so, many delightful contacts have been made and reported. This helps to put into action the motto in use since the early days of the C. P. C., namely, "A little time, a little work, a little prayer to go with every gift." The routine business connected with the office has been performed including, several hundred letters written in the interest of the work, renewals taken care of, new subscriptions entered, meetings attended, reports compiled and much miscellaneous work completed.

It is difficult to know just where to begin when reporting on our activities during the Convention. The meetings were numerous and the contacts made were many and varied. Some one said to me, "Your C. P. C. is certainly on the map during this Convention"—and it was!

The three most important events to my mind, were: The Corporate Communion, attended by several hundred persons and followed by a breakfast for the delegates and the invited guests, at which time we were addressed by Miss Lillie Hill, on her evangelistic work in and around Leaksville, N. C.; the Mass Meeting, presided over by Bishop Reinheimer, himself a recipient of the C. P. C. when doing missionary work in the West Indies, and a most delightful Tea, held at the Cincinnati Country Club, where we indulged in pleasant conversation and bid adieu to our associates in the work, as most of us were leaving the next day for our homes.

Our speakers at the Mass Meeting were: Bishop Kroll, of Liberia, who drew a comparison between the work there and that in Haiti, where he formerly served; Captain Conder, of the Church Army, who told of many ways in which the C. P. C. helped him in his work, and Professor Paul B. Rusch, who arose from a sick bed to tell us in a very entertaining way of his work among the young men and boys in Japan. A teacher in St. Paul's School, Tokyo, and head of the Brotherhood of St. Andrew, he praised us for our valuable help in keeping the school library up to government requirements. He told how one book sent by the C. P. C. was the means of converting a whole fishing village of three hundred people to Christianity.

We enjoyed many informal talks, daily, from missionaries and other recipients. Some came to the meetings by invitation, while others dropped in to voice their appreciation of help given them through the years. Canon Bridgeman related in a most interesting way his connection with the Armenian Theological School in Jerusalem, Palestine, and voiced his appreciation for the excellent library in English furnished for that institution. He said that the city is to be divided into three sections—Moslem, Jewish and American, but that only a small area is to remain Christian, although the Christians set the "tone" in the Church School for boys.

For press of time, I will but mention some of the other speakers giving a leading thought from each one—

Deaconess Bedell, at work among the Seminole Indians in the Florida Everglades, spoke of reading matter as a medium of friendly relations resulting in baptism.

Mrs. Demby, wife of Bishop Demby, said: "Reading matter gives the Bishop a chance to help Clergy and Schools in six states."

Miss Ethel Robinson, Puerto Rico, told of the educational benefits received from a memorial library placed in the Peggy Rogan Camp for girls at Ponce.

The Rev. David Clark, Crow Creek Mission, S. D., thanked the C. P. C. for magazines and books used in the Community House by Indians and whites.

Miss Bowden, San Antonio, Texas said, "St. Philip's Junior College owes its accredited standing to the library provided by the C. P. C."

Miss Gifford, Hocking Valley, Ohio, told of the encouragement library supplies give to a mining district where living is drab and hopeless.

Mr. Arthur S. Kean, formerly a teacher in Central China University, now in Carson City, Nev., considers his missionary service a life work. He told us of a small stamp club which he started, giving him contacts all over the world.

The Rev. J. F. Pritchard, a retired priest eighty years old living in Seattle, Wash., has received help from the C. P. C. since 1899. It has helped to make friends for him and for his work. He said that he holds the record as a recipient, having received magazines regularly from Miss Anne Randolph, Chestnut Hill, Pa., since his call to the Field in Montana, forty-eight years ago.

On January 10, 1938, the C. P. C. will celebrate its fiftieth anniversary. Plans are being formulated to suitably observe this event. Our object—the Endowment Fund! Our goal—$50,000! Our slogan—"Fifty Thousand in Fifty Years!" Each Diocese is to have a share in the celebration and it is hoped that in all parishes there will be a Corporate Communion on Sunday, January 9, and that an entertaining feature celebrating the birthday itself will be held sometime during that week. The Endowment Fund as it is now totals $47,365 and the offering of $212.26 given at the Corporate Communion in Cincinnati, will be added to this sum.

Just one week after our return home, we were shocked upon receiving news of the sudden death of Mrs. Otto Heinighe, National President of the C. P. C. for thirty years. Due to her advanced years—eighty-seven—she refused re-election and at the last business meeting an address of appreciation was tendered her and a standing vote passed making her honorary president for life. She conducted the meeting with charm and dignity, endearing herself to all with whom she came in contact. It was the culmination of a life of service in the C. P. C. and the closing act of her earthly service. We are grateful for her gracious leadership and our prayers do follow her in that Heavenly Life. May her soul rest in peace!

I hope that I have succeeded in emphasizing the benefits derived from the personal contacts with those in the Field and the spiritual inspiration and fellowship gained by the exchange of ideas and experiences.

Respectfully submitted,

EMMA B. ROTE,

Diocesan Director, Harrisburg.

JUNIOR WOMAN'S AUXILIARY

1935-1937

The number of Junior Woman's Auxiliary branches has varied through these three years, some branches being active for a time, then through lack of leaders or from some other cause, disbanding.

The work grows slowly, partly because of the character of the diocese, the branches being scattered over a large area; and it would seem younger women need the inspiration of occasional meetings with other branches, to exchange ideas, to discuss difficulties, and to have the stimulation of numbers.

Another reason for the slow development of branches is the fact that there are few parishes large enough to have many organizations. However, one encouraging sign of interest in Woman's Auxiliary work on the part of younger women is the growing number of these young women taking part in the work of the Senior Auxiliary. As a suggestion for senior branches a good method for drawing younger women into the larger work of the church is to have them act as secretary or treasurer.

There are now six branches of Junior women in the diocese, with several more in the process of forming. Work along all lines has been done, helping in parish projects, plays, pageants, U. T. O. plays, supply work. U. T. O. has been collected in most cases twice a year. Several women, including the chairman for this year, attended the Junior Woman's Auxiliary conference at Orkney Springs.

In spite of slow growth of branches, it is certain that younger women are taking their part in increasing numbers in the work of the Woman's Auxiliary to the National Council.
