SIXTH ANNUAL REPORT
OF THE
WOMAN'S AUXILIARY TO THE BOARD OF MISSIONS.

Right Rev. Father and Dear Friends of the Woman's Auxiliary, of Indiana:

The reports received by your Secretary this year demonstrate, as those of previous years have done, the truth of the old proverb, "Where there's a will there's a way." Could we only "stir up the wills" of our Churchwomen, the Indiana Auxiliary would be second to none in the results of labor for the extension of their Redeemer's Kingdom.

As I attended during the past year the semi-centennial celebrations of two of our parishes, and heard the record of self-denying labor and generous giving by which the seed was planted that has brought forth such good fruit, I marveled how it was that we could so calmly enjoy the good things thus provided for us and not feel impelled to extend these blessings and privileges to others and thus

"Repay the debt to regions solitary yet Within our spreading land."

As your representative it was a great pleasure to attend the Triennial Meetings of the Woman's Auxiliary in New York, Oct. 2d, 3d and 5th. It was both encouraging and inspiring to feel oneself a member of so grand a representative body of Churchwomen, and my gleanings from its meetings, the sessions of the Board of Missions in General Convention, and the great missionary meetings in the Academy of Music, as well as those of other branches of Church work, such as the Girls' Friendly Society and the Society for the Home Study of Holy Scripture and Church History, provided matter of great interest for my talks at Convocation and other gatherings. The meetings of Churchwomen, now a regular part of the sessions of Convocation, have been well attended. Much information has been given and much interest awakened in Missionary work which will, we hope, in time, result in the formation of many parish branches of the Woman's Auxiliary, to work systematically therefor. It was a disappointment to be unable, owing to absence in the East, to accept the kind invitation of the Rector of Trinity Church, Logansport, and attend the session of the Northern Convocation there Sept. 18th. Mrs. Wm. Willson, well fitted by experience in Missionary Auxiliary work in Florida, kindly took my place. The meetings I have attended were three:

St. James's Church, Vincennes, Nov. 12th and 13th. The occasion, the celebration of the semi-centennial of the parish as well as the session of the Southern Convocation, seemed a fitting one for the organization of a parish branch of the Woman's Auxiliary, which we welcome as an addition to our number, the only one this year.

The Central Convocation held its first session in Holy Innocents' Church, Indianapolis, Nov. 19th and 20th. Despite very rainy weather all the city Auxiliaries were represented at the Women's meeting on the 20th. My gleanings were appreciated, and the first work in connection with the Church Periodical Club was a result.

Feb. 2th, in St. Paul's Church, Richmond, at the second meeting of the Central Convocation, a large number of Churchwomen gathered to meet me, and the interest awakened by my gleanings resulted in the reorganization of the Woman's Auxiliary of that parish, for some time in abeyance, owing to change and vacancy in the rectorship and consequent discouragement of the workers.

The Parish Branches report as follows:

FRANKFORT, ST. LUKE'S.—Amidst many discouragements, the little band of five workers have raised $2.85 and sent it for Foreign Missions. It will be applied to Dr. Marie Haslep's salary. Mrs. J. L. Adair, President.

FORT WAYNE, TRINITY.—The Secretary writes: The Parish has been so occupied with erection of rectory and Parish house that we have done less work than usual.

Two boxes have been sent. Easter box to St. John's school, Logan, Utah, March 27th, valued at $19.47; Fannie Paddock Hospital, Tacoma, Washington, April 10th, value $43.70; cash to Bible House for Mormon scholarship $40; to Treasurer of the Diocese $50 for Diocesan Missions; $1 to Diocesan Secretary in payment annual dues. Total boxes, $63.17; cash, $91. Mrs. Alice P. Dryer, Secretary.

INDIANAPOLIS, CHRIST CHURCH.—The Woman's Auxiliary has held eight meetings, beginning in October. The custom inaugurated four years ago of holding these meetings in parlors has been followed. A printed program was issued as usual, embracing papers upon topics of interest connected with our work, with readings, recitations and music, to give variety. Systematic offerings have been received, and the amount thus gathered appropriated by vote of the society, under the provisions of its Constitution, two-thirds being devoted to Diocesan Missions, the remainder divided between Domestic and Foreign. A collection at each meeting provides for contingent expenses. From this fund and direct contributions all miscellaneous expense has been defrayed, such as printing, shipping boxes, etc., leaving the systematic offerings entirely for Missionary purposes. Two well-filled boxes have been sent. The first December 15th to Rev. C. H. Beaubien, Leech Lake, Minn., valued at $150.12; the second April 30th to Rev. A. W. Higby, Nashotah Seminary, Wisconsin, value $46.75. The Treasurer reports cash on hand June 1st, 1889, in the Contingent Fund, $4.18. Systematic Offerings, $261.66. Special for Melanthon Hoyt Memorial Church, Dakota, $2.70; for Mormon Scholarship, $35.20; Contingent Fund collected at monthly meetings, $3.99, making total receipts, $307.73, expended as follows: Diocesan Missions, $215.28; Mormon Scholarship, 1889, $16.75; for 1890 $40; special for Domestic Missions, $2.70; General Missions, $4.83; Foreign Missions, Dr. Haslep's salary, $20; expenses, $6.85; cash on hand Contingent Fund, $1.32; total, $307.93. Eighty members of the congregation have contributed regularly through Systematic Offerings, which have been gathered by nine collectors. A missionary tea given in the Guild room by the secretaries of the different divisions yielded $6.85 for the Mormon Scholarship, which is included in the above amount. Each year since its organization the Auxiliary has strengthened in numbers, work and interest. Miss Caroline H. Howland, President; Mrs. A. R. Hale, Secretary.

A beginning of work in connection with the Church Periodical Club has been made. A member of the Auxiliary sends regularly after her own perusal, Scribner's Magazine to a missionary in the Diocese, and by the same a valuable box of back numbers of magazines and pamphlets was recently sent to a missionary in Minnesota.

The Sunday-school class of Miss McDonough organized for work during Lent, and by articles made and an entertainment given soon after Easter realized $30.70 for the Orphanage Fund.

INDIANAPOLIS, ST. PAUL'S.—The good work of this Branch has gone on uninterruptedly, and as the Secretary well says has been a success in every particular. The day of meeting was changed for the convenience of members from Monday to Saturday. Eight meetings have been held, a regular program being given, consisting of opening exercises, a paper on some missionary topic, with conversation on the same, music and recitations, closing with light refreshments. The regular Christmas box was prepared, and sent this year to Rev. Mr. Ashley, of Fort Bennett, Dakota, valued at $84. Another box was prepared and sent in May to a college of divinity students at Petersburg, Virginia, value $34.80. The cash contributions are for Isabel Jenckes Scholarship in school at Layton, Utah, $40. Diocesan Missions, $50. Special for Melancthon Hoyt Memorial Church, Dakota, $3.35. Annual dues, $1. Total boxes, $118. Cash raised, $102.60.

The ladies work harmoniously. The attendance at the monthly meetings usually from twenty-five to thirty. Parlors for these meetings are generously proffered, and no trouble encountered in making collections, either of money, clothing or provisions, for any worthy object. The only difficulty is one which perhaps is met with in all churches, viz., that of interesting all instead of just a few in the work. Mrs. J. J. Bingham, President; Mrs. John W. Jones, Secretary.

INDIANAPOLIS, GRACE CATHEDRAL.—The expense of refurnishing after removal of the building to its new site, made it necessary that all the branches of the Woman's Auxiliary should unite in parish work. Their efforts in that direction are included in the parish work report. The following boxes have been sent: Rev. Fred Smith, Wild Rice River, Minnesota, January, 1890, value $50; Rev. Mr. Gilfillan, White Earth, Minnesota, December, 1889, value $50; a second to the same, January, 1890, value $25; St. Stephen's Hospital, at Richmond, Indiana, January, 1890, value $5. Total value of boxes, $130. Systematic offerings from the whole Auxiliary, $38.70. Diocesan Branch, $23. King's Daughters for Orphanage, $15. Total cash contributions, $76.70. Mrs. A. M. Poggs, President; Mrs. Michie, Secretary.

INDIANAPOLIS, HOLY INNOCENTS'.—This Branch, for the first time, started out with a printed program at the beginning of the year. Although somewhat interrupted by sickness, this has been carried out. Some excellent papers have been prepared, read and enjoyed by the members.

December 9th, a package of 15 hoods, made by the ladies, was sent to Miss Etta Knickerbacker, a niece of our Bishop, for the Indian girls of her school in Minnesota, valued at $2. Later, to the same, a box of mixed articles was sent, valued at $5. The Branch has raised in systematic offerings $10.50; of this $5.35 has been given to Diocesan Missions, $2.70 to General Missions, subscription to paper 60 cts.; $4 Church Building Fund; $4 Louisville Relief Fund; borrowed money, 10 cts.; $1 annual dues; cash contributions $17.75; boxes $7. Mrs. H. Barlow, President, Mrs. E. I. Schley, Secretary.

LAFAYETTE, ST. JOHN'S.—This Branch sent a box valued at $15 to a Diocesan Missionary. Officers not reported.

JEFFERSONVILLE, ST. PAUL'S.—There have been ten regular meetings of the Parish Branch. Articles selected from the Spirit of Missions and other Church periodicals have been read at these meetings. The Rector has been present at every meeting and made short talks on Missionary subjects. The Auxiliary has raised $58.33 during the year—this amount being the quoto expected from the Parish for Diocesan Missions. The Board consists of 10 members. Mrs. R. M. Hartwell, President, Miss Lela Jewett, Secretary.

MADISON, CHRIST CHURCH.—This Branch unites with all the Parish in a monthly meeting which the Secretary thus describes: Our week day service is held on Friday evening and the last Friday in the month is devoted to the Missionary Society. Evening prayer is read, after which an original paper is read, and a selected article, always bearing on Missionary work. So far the papers have all been prepared and read by ladies. We find this plan a most interesting one and hope to keep up the meetings so successfully begun. We raise our money entirely by monthly subscriptions. $60 has been raised for Diocesan Missions. One box was sent May 1st, to Mrs. M. Payne, Richmond, Virginia, value, $40. Mrs. S. E. Taylor, President; Miss Helen Sanxay, Secretary. A society of King's Daughters has been organized in this parish from whom we hope to have a report another year.

MUNCIE, GRACE.—This Branch has had ten meetings during the year on the first Tuesday of each month. Regretting to have somewhat fallen behind, the Secretary says: We trust next fall to commence again with renewed energy and zeal for the missionary cause; $15 has been raised and contributed for Dr. Haslep's salary. Mrs. C. J. McCulloch, President; Mrs. F. W. Henry, Secretary.

MICHIGAN CITY, TRINITY.—Owing to the building of the new church upon which all energies have been expended, the Secretary of the Auxiliary regrets to have nothing to report, but hopes for better things in the future. Miss A. C. Hartwell, Secretary.

NEW ALBANY, ST. PAUL'S.—The Secretary reports meetings of the Auxiliary are held weekly, except during the Lenten season, when we meet more frequently. Members have been assigned certain fields from which they report for the year. Number one reports from China, number two from Japan, three from Africa, four from Australia and other islands, five from the Freedmen, six from the Indian field, seven from the Diocese of Indiana, and so on. A box was sent May 15th to Miss Etta Knickerbacker, Wild Rice River, Minnesota; value, $11. Cash in Treasury for Diocesan Missions, $6.50. Mrs. G. A. Bicknell, President; Mrs. E. A. Maginnis, Secretary.

RICHMOND, ST. PAUL'S.—This branch reorganized February 19th, with Mrs. Test as President, and Mrs. Edmunds, Secretary. Since then they have prepared and sent a box of table and toilet linen to a Diocesan Missionary; value, $11.10.

TERRE HAUTE, ST. STEPHEN'S.—This Branch has now eighty-three members, and has raised $350.06 during the year. There have been contributed to the Diocesan Missions, $251.25; mission in Florida, $30; General Missions, $50; Foreign, for Dr. Haslep's salary, $10; annual dues, $1. Total, $342.25. Parlor meetings have been held during the winter with large attendance. At the last one about thirty-five ladies were present. In December a box was sent to Rev. Edward Ashley, Fort Bennett, South Dakota. This was filled by St. Stephen's Sisterhood and Miss Beach's Sunday-school class of King's Daughters; its value $50, is credited to the Woman's Auxiliary, through whom it was sent. Mrs. G. W. Bement, President; Miss O. A. P. Watson, Secretary.

Last summer Miss Delia Ramsay, of Aurora, organized a society of young girls, and with the assistance of some ladies of the parish they prepared and sent a box to Miss A. S. Edrington, Richland, Virginia, valued at $50.

The thanks of the Indianapolis Auxiliaries are due, as in past years, to Mr. Fargo, Superintendent of the American Express, who has kindly franked their boxes as far as his jurisdiction extends.

Another year is ended; you have heard its record. Another year is begun, and as its opportunities open before us we see first and most prominent of these Diocesan Missions. From each Parish and Mission a given amount is asked. Did we need a selfish motive for this work I would say by systematic giving and gathering money for this purpose you help Parish and rector to bear their burdens as well as your Bishop to bear his, and to extend the Church privileges you enjoy to those longing for them.

The Orphanage Fund is increasing, but it needs our earnest efforts that the increase may be more rapid.

Our missionary in China is faithfully laboring at her lonely outpost, and needs cheer and encouragement. Let us show by liberal contributions for her support our interest in her and her work.

The special object our Bishop puts before us in this new year is the furnishing of bed-rooms in the new building for the Indianapolis Institute. Individual members and branches of the Woman's Auxiliary, out of the Diocese, have aided him in its erection by liberal gifts. He now asks the Churchwomen of his Diocese to help him to furnish it neatly and comfortably. The furniture for one double room will cost about $60.

Which Auxiliary, Guild, Society or individual will first respond? Two or more Guilds in one Parish could unite to furnish one room, or two or more Parishes or Missions do the same.

One of the special lines of work undertaken by the Woman's Auxiliary, at its Triennial meeting, was interesting, and banding children together to work for Missions by encouraging the formation of Junior Auxiliary Branches, and asking that all children's societies report to the officers of the Woman's Auxiliary. All who have ever worked with them know how much children can accomplish when interested, and surely no better education could be wished for the "lambs of the fold" than thus early to be trained in loving service to the Good Shepherd.

Looking forward, dear friends, into the new year let us ask God that He will stir up our minds, and those of all His faithful people, that we plenteously bringing forth the fruit of good works, may by Him be plenteously rewarded. Respectfully submitted,

The missionary adds: "I understand a social is to be held the first Friday of every month in future, in order to pay off the church's indebtedness and put in some much needed repairs."
