PRESIDENT'S ADDRESS

To the members of the Woman's Auxiliary in the Diocese of Iowa:

Today we celebrate the Twenty-fifth Anniversary in this diocese and I believe we can do so with some pride in a strong spiritual organization which is pressing onward and upward, ever keeping in mind its noble purpose; to study, work, pray and give to the Glory of God and the Extension of Christ's Kingdom on Earth.

I am not going to thank you this year for your continued interest and co-operation for in many parishes this does not apply. We have in this Diocese Eighty-Eight parishes and missions but only about Thirty-Four working branches of the Woman's Auxiliary. Those who are interested and who do co-operate in every good work, need no thanks of mine to add to their joy in continual well doing; for they know full well how, over and over again, I thank God for their faithful devotion to a good and righteous cause. For those who have not even begun to be interested, and who have shown no co-operation, I would ask the united prayers and supplications of the faithful, for their speedy conversion.

I would refer you to a careful study of this annual report which by comparison with last year's, will show our material gain.

Some changes have taken place this year, the greatest of these is the removal from our circle by the angel of death of our devoted Sister and Co-worker, Miss Henriette E. Henningsen, at one time our Diocesan President, and at all times our valued friend and advisor, full of the spirit of Christ, generous beyond words, and faithful unto death. Her counsel will be missed and her absence from our meetings will remind us for many years to come of the genial warmth of her nature. Let me quote from her letter written last May, just before the Annual Meeting. "I am sorry to say I will not be with you this year. It is the first convention I have missed since '94." She resigned the chairmanship of the Cedar Rapids Deanery by saying: "The time seems to have come when I can better work in the ranks and help with my purse than by assuming official responsibility. I hope you will have a very helpful meeting at Sioux City and all pledges met at the close of the year. I shall be with you in spirit." As I am sure she was then, and is today.

These last words of this faithful woman should remind us all of that genuine interest so dear to the hearts of those who labor year after year hoping and praying that our pledges may be paid, and that God will put it into the hearts of many noble women to join with us in our well directed efforts.

Let us not be looking about us to find some new religious movement the truth our own Church has taught for years, but rather, let us work and pray as never before, for the success of That Church. It needs no new science to accomplish modern miracles. It was the simple faith taught by the Church we love, that saved the mortal life of Major Gracie from the doomed Titanic and it will also save his soul for all eternity. All that we need is that same simple faith and love to bring forth fruit fit for the Master's use — fit for the harvest. Let me urge you then, to go home from this meeting full of new zeal and a consuming desire to bring to pass the Miracle, the success which only united effort can accomplish.

In conclusion I wish to impress upon your minds the position of the Woman's Auxiliary to the Board of Missions in our Church life. Not long ago at the meeting of a Church Union in the state of Massachusetts, Dean Vernon spoke on "The Church and Reunion." He said several very interesting things and this among the others:

"We go into our churches and the first thing that strikes us in many of them is an atmosphere of unreality. There is the same atmosphere of unreality about many of us clergymen. We have not grasped the basis of religion. The form is there, but not the content. The ritual is there, but not religion. I hate the name 'High Church Episcopalian.' I abhor it. As men let us not draw distinctions like that. Leave questions about Churchmanship to the Woman's Auxiliary."

Now perhaps the Dean knew how safe a repository the Woman's Auxiliary is for all such foolishness. We have no time for such things. We are so busy doing the will of Christ and seeking to extend His Kingdom, that such superficial questions find no place in our Conferences. We have grasped the basis of religion, the realties, "For the Love of Christ Constraineth Us."

CHARLOTTE B. ARTHUR.
