PROCEEDINGS

The Iowa Branch of the Woman's Auxiliary to the Board of Missions met in annual session at Oskaloosa, May 12th, 1918.

The services commenced on Sunday with a corporate communion for the Auxiliary at St. James's church, the celebrant being the Rt. Rev. Harry S. Longley.

On Monday morning the Auxiliary met with the clergy and laymen in St. James's church and listened to the annual addresses of Bishop Morrison and Bishop Longley. At 11 a. m. the Auxiliary retired to the Guild rooms of the Presbyterian church for the transaction of their affairs. Bishop Longley opened the meeting with creed and prayers for missions. The president, spoke a few well chosen words of greeting to the women of the Auxiliary and then called them to order for business.

The reports of the secretary and treasurer were read and by motion carried were duly adopted. In the absence of the treasurer of the United Offering Fund, her report was read by Miss Francis of Davenport. Report accepted.

The chair made the following appointments of committees: Resolutions, Mrs. Webster Hakes, Muscatine; Mrs. Schramm, Burlington; Mrs. Lewis, Oskaloosa. Amendments, Miss Dysart, Dubuque; Mrs. Lantz, Des Moines; Mrs. Windle, Oskaloosa. Diocesan Co-operation, Mrs. Jackson, Council Bluffs; Mrs. Lirson, Council Bluffs. Sarah Swazey Morrison Memorial, Mrs. Watzek, Davenport; Mrs. Holbrook, Onawa; Mrs. Pollock, Dubuque; Mrs. Silzer, Des Moines; Mrs. Lantz, Des Moines. Religious Education, Miss Catell, Davenport; Miss Henderson, Cedar Rapids; Mrs. Lewis, Oskaloosa; Miss Dysart, Dubuque.

Miss Johnson, Correspondent Church Periodical Club, gave a very interesting report of the progress in her department. Mrs. Longley read a letter from Miss Lindley, General Secretary of the Woman's Auxiliary, touching upon the War Work of the Auxiliary.

Business was now adjourned for noon-day prayers.

Deaconess Wurtz gave a most interesting account of the work and conditions at St. Monica's Home, which was thoroughly appreciated. Adjourned for luncheon.

Two O'Clock P. M.

The Auxiliary resumed business at this hour. Bishop Morrison gave a most helpful talk to the women and was followed by the treasurer of the Diocese who gave some needed information on the subject of the apportionment.

The president read her annual address which was received with much interest.

Chaplain Long, from Camp Dodge, gave a most interesting talk on the subject of "Missions; Are They to Continue?"

Pledges were taken by the Treasurer for the coming year from the different branches. A discussion followed on the subject of the Sarah Swazey Morrison Memorial and a motion was carried to leave this matter to the committee in charge for this year.

Letters and appeals were read and also a telegram of sympathy was sent to Mrs. Gardiner of Clinton, expressing the sorrow of the Auxiliary at the news of the death of her sister. Father Williams, Chaplain of St. Katherine's School, spoke for a few moments on a memorial to be erected to the memory of Miss Marian Crandall, who was killed while in Y. W. C. A. service in France. The offering for the day was given to Father Williams for this purpose.

Pledges were taken for the purpose of answering some of the appeals just read. Pledges were as follows: Bishop Sage, assistance in Diocese of Salina, $44.25; St. Agnes Kyoto, deficit, $49.25; Children of Appalachian Mts., $30.

Adjourned.

Tuesday, May 13, 9:30 A. M.

The Auxiliary met again for business in the Presbyterian Church.

Bishop Longley gave a most eloquent talk on "What we give and what we receive in our work for missions."

Miss Henderson gave her report as President of the Junior Auxiliary and also a talk on the "New Junior Plan." The Junior Auxiliary then retired for their own deliberations.

The Educational Secretary gave her report as to progress in work under her charge.

Mrs. Larson, Council Bluffs, led a conference on "The work of the Woman's Auxiliary" which brought out many questions and much interest.

Reports from the different branches were called for and proved very satisfactory.

Two O'Clock P. M.

Reports of Deanery meetings were called for and were answered as follows:

Mrs. Cunningham, Cedar Rapids, reported for the Dubuque Deanery. Mrs. Schram reported for the Muscatine Deanery. Mrs. Larson, Council Bluffs, for the Sioux City Deanery. No report from the Des Moines Deanery.

Election of officers for the ensuing year resulted as follows: Mrs. H. S. Longley, President; Miss Henderson, First Vice President; Mrs. Gleason, Oskaloosa, Second Vice President; Mrs. Allingham, Secretary; Mrs. Cunningham, Treasurer; Miss Florence Johnson, Newton, Correspondent Church Periodical Club; Miss Dysart, Dubuque, Educational Secretary.

The resignation of Mrs. Crawford, of Davenport, being read and with much regret, accepted, the name of Mrs. Hall, of Marshalltown, was put in nomination for treasurer of United Offering, but upon her declining, a unanimous vote was cast for Mrs. Albert Copp, of Burlington, to fill this office.

A motion carried to leave the matter of election of Deanery Chairman to each Deanery for settlement.

The Committee on Amendments made the following suggestion: "That the words, 'Educational Secretary' be inserted after the words, 'United Offering Treasurer' in Article III, Section I, of the Constitution of this body." A motion to accept the amendment prevailed.

The Committee on Resolutions presented the following report:

Whereas, since our last meeting "it hath pleased Almighty God, in His wise Providence," to take into the rest of Paradise, the soul of the following named beloved member of the Iowa branch of the Woman's Auxiliary: Mrs. William Holmes, first president of the Auxiliary of Grace Church, Lyons,

Therefore, be it resolved, That we, assembled in Convention as representatives of the Iowa branch, do hereby record our deep sense of sorrow and loss in her decease, and our appreciation of her good example and steadfastness in the faith and labors of Christ's holy Church, praying that "she may rest in peace, and light perpetual shine upon her."

Respectfully submitted,

Mrs. Webster Hakes, Chairman,
Mrs. H. C. Schramm,
Mrs. A. M. Lewis, Committee.

The secretary was instructed to write notes of sympathy to Reverend and Mrs. John S. Cole, of Waverly, and Reverend and Mrs. George R. Chambers, of Harlan, in each case at the loss of a beloved daughter.

A rising vote of thanks was paid the members of St. James's parish, Oskaloosa, for their fine hospitality and the Secretary was instructed to write notes of thanks to the members of the Presbyterian Church, Oskaloosa, for many kindnesses and to the Commercial Club of Oskaloosa for a most delightful auto ride.

The Secretary was instructed to inform delegates elected to Provincial Synod last year that they hold over this year, as Synod was postponed till present year.

A rising vote of thanks was tendered Mrs. Longley for her most efficient services during the past year.

The Secretary's minutes of this meeting were now read and approved and after prayers meeting was adjourned to meet next year at Davenport.

CARA S. ALLINGHAM, Secretary.

PRESIDENT'S ADDRESS

To the Members of the Woman's Auxiliary of the Board of Missions in the Diocese of Iowa:—

This, my first year with you as your President, has been a very unusual one—a very trying one. Hearts are yearning for the loved ones "over there"—hearts are breaking with sorrow over the loss of loved ones, who, like the Master, have given their lives for others, and have gone to the Great Over There. We all are praying, sacrificing and working to make this world a better place in which to live. We are doing God's work. There is also another part of God's work that is our duty to perform. "These ye ought to have done and not to leave the others undone." "Go ye into all the world and preach the Gospel" is our command from the Heavenly Captain. If we lived our baptismal vows we would need no Woman's Auxiliary, but, lest we forget, this organization is a constant reminder that we have this duty to perform. If we could only see the enthusiasm that is shown in the Red Cross work manifested in our Church's work, I feel quite confident there would have been no war today. Let us as members of the Woman's Auxiliary be a nucleus in this Diocese of Iowa to arouse the women of the Diocese to the need of their best efforts for God and His Church. Let not the Missionary work be neglected in doing the work of the Nation, but in this day of sacrifice, let us make the sacrifice that both may be accomplished. Let us come to the Convention next year with renewed interest, and larger membership, a splendid army of women fighting for the extension of God's Kingdom and our Nation's honor. There has never been a time when we needed more than now the religion of Jesus Christ to sustain us, and what we need our heathen neighbors need also.

I can report a successful year; we have grown in interest, branches have been revived, pledges have been increased, study classes growing, and the work for the United Offering is advancing. Our Juniors are coming into their own. Two hundred and forty-five letters have been sent out. I have visited branches at Des Moines, Cedar Rapids, Waterloo, Charles City, Oska-loosa and Ames. Included in the two hundred and forty-five letters were three personal letters to the Presidents of each branch—the only means of contact we have aside from our Deanery and Diocesan meetings, in this large territory. We have received visits from Mrs. Biller of the Church Missions' House Staff, and from Deaconess Hargreaves of the Philippine Islands. A circular letter has been sent out to all branches in regard to the pilgrimage of prayer, which has been carried out in these United States during this past year. Four Deanery meetings have been held and will be reported by the Chairmen.

I would recommend the following: Every branch should come together for corporate communion on our regular day, St. Michael and All Angels, and at regular times throughout the year for new strength to carry out our work. Study classes should be held, that we may become familiar with our Church's Missions, and receive inspiration to carry it on. The privilege of having the United Offering Box should be given every woman in our parishes. Pledges should be increased. Many in the heathen nations have never heard of Jesus Christ; how shall we reach them if we do not increase our funds? We must grow; if we are standing still we are losing ground and it is natural to grow. I am not finding fault, but let me whisper, that as a Woman's Auxiliary we do not rank very high. We must not allow this in prosperous Iowa. Let us be missionaries in our own state, and fight the indifference to our Church and grow, grow. Remember the Junior work; upon this depends our future. The Juniors are well organized under an efficient leader. Mother them. Leaflets for our instruction are issued by the Board of Missions and may be had for the asking. There is a new set just printed, especially for Presidents, Secretaries and Treasurers which cost five cents a set. Please send for them. I should like to see a Diocesan Box Secretary; work is necessary for creating interest in some branches, therefore we should have some one in charge of this work.

I wish to make two appeals. Please write your President about your work. To all letters sent out to Presidents there have been very few replies. We need each other. The President can not always come to you, but in correspondence there can be a personal touch. This is one of our difficulties in Iowa, too large a territory to receive inspiration from each other in frequent gatherings. Second: this difficulty may be overcome somewhat by attending your Deanery meetings and the Diocesan meetings. Try to pay the expenses of at least one delegate to each of these gatherings.

May God bless your work, and may we all meet next year with reports showing increased work for Christ and His Church; may we have a share in hastening God's Kingdom.

HARRIET E. LONGLEY, President.

REPORT OF EDUCATIONAL SECRETARY

“Progress” has been the key-note of the Missionary Education Work this year, and we are glad to report gratifying results.

The Educational Secretary attended the Conference at Lake Geneva, Wis., last August. It was a great privilege. The beautiful lake, with all its attractive and restful environments, seems far removed from the outside world, where gigantic armies are grappling with each other along miles of battle fronts; desolating farm lands; ruining cities and villages; destroying cathedrals, and wrecking homes. In our study classes the very close connection between the Bible and World—Missions was strongly emphasized. “God’s Word and God’s Work should go hand-in-hand, and we should study the whole program.”

There are three types of Mission Study classes operating in the churches, and all seem to fill a place in the Missionary education of the present day.

1st.—The small intensive Mission Study class, limited in numbers, which meets for the study and discussion of some particular Mission book or problem. (Several of the Rectors have conducted these classes, and have added great inspiration and interest in the work.)

2nd.—Auxiliaries using the printed program, with topics covering the various Mission Fields of the church, and assigned to the different members.

3rd.—The Lecture Course. All have been helpful.

The Secretary attended the four Deanery meetings, and presented “The Land of Palestine,” as foundation work for Bible study, and in connection with our great task of reconstruction. She also visited thirty-one parishes and Missions, wrote two hundred and forty letters, and distributed six hundred and fifty leaflets.

“Winning God’s Country,” by Bishop Burleson, will be the text book for next year, and for the Juniors, “His Star in the West.” If ever there was need for an active, wide-awake church, throbbing with vitality, that time is NOW. The opportunities are wonderful,—unlimited in our home communities; in our great industrial centers; in the training camps at home and abroad; on the battle lines of Europe, and in the distant Mission Fields. Our hearts have been thrilled when the Service Flags have been placed in our churches, bearing a star for every brave soldier who has gone to the front. Shall we be less courageous than our boys? Our Church needs us in this critical hour. It needs our most careful thought, our most earnest prayers, our most devoted service, and we are honored with the responsibility of being fellow workers with the Great Commander. When we pass before the throne in the last grand review, may we hear our King say, “Well done, good and faithful servants.” CAROLINE M. DYSART.

ANNUAL REPORT OF JUNIOR AUXILIARY OF IOWA

To the Members of the Auxiliary to the Board of Missions:—Just a year ago this month I was elected to the office of President, and it has been one full of problems and difficulties for each and every Junior branch in Iowa. There have been so many activities along Red Cross and War Work lines for boys and girls, that in many branches, Junior work has suffered. This should not be. We find in St. Matthew, 23d Chapter and 23d verse, these words: "These ought ye to have done, and not to leave the others undone."

Of the four Deanery meetings held this year, I have attended two, the ones at Charles City and Mt. Pleasant.

At these meetings and by correspondence I have presented the New Junior Plan; also at Waterloo, before a number of Sunday School teachers from St. Mark's and Christ Churches, and also at Mason City at two conferences. Only one branch has been successfully started this year and that one, I have to report, is at Charles City. I hope by fall, Waterloo and Mason City may have organized branches. As yet there is not a Sunday School or Bible School in the Diocese which has fully adopted the "New Junior Plan."

The Study books this year for Juniors, "The Call of the King," for younger children and "Simon Peter-Rock" for older Juniors, has been recommended by the Junior President through correspondence.

In the fall I sent out letters to all Branches in the Diocese, asking them to have the Junior Collect read the first Sunday of each month at the Sunday School service and the children of the Auxiliary to make their corporate communion each month on the second Sunday.

A Round Robin letter was also started by the Cedar Rapids branch which wrote about its plans for the year and sent on to the next branch in the marked list. So that by six months or a year, each and every branch in the Diocese would have a personal letter from one of the officers of every branch organized for work.

The six months is up but as the Round Robin has not yet reached Cedar Rapids I cannot say how successful the plan has been, or will be. It is the opinion of Miss Lindley, who has been a Junior Auxiliary officer for many years—was Secretary of the Juniors at the Church Missions House—that "there is no part of the Auxiliary work more important than our Junior Department and everything Junior Leaders, Senior Officers and Members can do to make the children know and accept the Church's Mission, will be more than worth all it cost us." Will you of the Senior Branch give us your aid?

Respectfully submitted,

MABEL HENDERSON,
President Junior Board of Iowa.
