ANNUAL REPORT

OF THE RECORDING SECRETARY OF THE DIOCESE OF KANSAS CITY BRANCH OF THE WOMAN'S AUXILIARY TO THE BOARD OF MISSIONS.

To the Rt. Rev. E. R. Atwill, D. D., Bishop of the Diocese of Kansas City, and Women of the Auxiliary:

I herewith present my annual report of the work done by the officers and parish branches of the Woman's Auxiliary of the Diocese of Kansas City during the year of 1907-1908.

The regular meetings have been held and all have been well attended. There have been more delegates from branches outside of Kansas City and St. Joseph than usual, which has given us much encouragement.

We believe that knowledge of missions is increasing and interest in missionary work is extending among the women of the Diocese.

Several of the vice-presidents have taken up the work in their districts, and we are looking forward to great results from their active superintendence. Organized work is the most effective in all lines, and especially in missionary labors.

Our Traveling Secretary has made many visits to parishes where there have been no organized branches, and we already begin to see the good results of her visits.

The Bishop assures us that we have given him much help, which has made us very thankful.

We hope and pray that our zeal may be increased and that our efforts may be more abundantly rewarded during the coming year.

Respectfully submitted,

ZERELDA E. WOODSTOCK,

ANNUAL REPORT OF TRAVELING SECRETARY
OF KANSAS CITY DIOCESAN BRANCH,
WOMAN'S AUXILIARY, TO BOARD OF
MISSIONS FOR YEAR ENDING
MAY 14TH, 1908.

Number of letters written 78, number of postals written 32, number of letters received 45, number of postals received 19, number of visits made 22, as follows: Grace Church, Brookfield; St. Paul's, Kansas City; St. Luke's Mission, South St. Joseph (7); Calvary, Sedalia; All Saint's, Nevada; Grace Mission, Kansas City; St. Augustine, Kansas City; All Saints', West Plains; St. Mark's Mountain Grove; Christ's Church, Springfield; St. Philip's, Joplin; St. John's, Neosho; Church of the Advent, Lamar; St. Stephen's, Monett; St. Oswald's, Mound City.

In most of these places the communicants are few, and the faithful women are banded together in a Guild, from which everything is expected, indeed the financial welfare of the mission sometimes depends entirely on this Guild. Knowing this the Traveling Secretary knows also that a separate organization of branch of the Woman's Auxiliary would not be feasible, so in all instances has left the Woman's Auxiliary collects, asking for regular prayer, and where possible, a meeting of Guild once a month for prayer, reading and discussing some article in Spirit of Missions, in most all places has left mite boxes, sent from time to time literature obtained from Church Missions House, and at each place has urged attendance at the annual meeting of the Woman's Auxiliary. The results of these visits may not seem much in evidence in the financial columns of our report, but who can tell the result of faithful prayer, or the widespread influence of this study of missions. The Traveling Secretary has tried as your representative to be the point of contact between you and many isolated church women, to tell them of our work, of the work in the church at large for the extension of Christ's Kingdom, to have them feel that we are all together members of one body. The Church, and that the whole body, is strong only as its weakest member is strong.

In nearly all places I have been most graciously entertained and welcomed in homes and made most comfortable. Where this was not possible,—in Neosho and West Plains,—I was met at station and taken to a hotel, the bill being paid by the Women's Guild. This entertainment, I think, should be credited to Traveling Secretary Fund as much as the amounts given by branches which have made the visits possible.

Respectfully,

M. E. TURNER,
Traveling Secretary.

REPORT OF VICE-PRESIDENT OF SEDALIA DISTRICT.

I have written letters to church women in each of the following towns: Boonville, Marshall, Fayette, Blackburn, Lexington, Warrensburg, Pleasant Hill, Harrisonville, Nevada, Clinton and Versailles, asking if there is an auxiliary, state of finances, number of church papers received by members, and whether the organization is for missionary work alone, or study of missions combined with work.

Three answers have been received by me from Warrensburg, in which the writer said there was no auxiliary, and that they did not feel equal to organizing one; another from Clinton with the report that "on account of our financial condition, we have never organized a Woman's Auxiliary, knowing our inability to make it a success," and a third from Boonville, stating that there was no regular organization, and that they did not care to form one until a priest was in charge of the parish, but that the Woman's Guild contributed annually the sum of ten (10) dollars to the auxiliary through Mrs. Woodstock.

In February I visited Boonville and met with several ladies interested in missionary work. I suggested that a mission study class be organized, and that the "Spirit of Missions" be subscribed for, but through lack of interest nothing has been done. I am hoping that great things will be done in Boonville when there is a priest in charge of the parish, as there are a number of good church people who have done much to keep the church alive.

Respectfully submitted,

EMMA C. EVANS.
