NOONDAY PRAYER

WOMAN'S AUXILIARY PRAYER

MINUTES OF THE ANNUAL MEETING

The forty-fifth Annual Meeting of the Kentucky Branch of the Woman's Auxiliary to the National Council was held January 24th, 1929.

The meeting was begun with a corporate communion in Christ Church Cathedral at 9:30 A. M.

The Treasurer Miss Winston, reported that every branch except one had paid its Central Fund pledge and that this fund had a balance of $310.24. She asked the Auxiliary to think of giving not in terms of dollars: but as a service to Christ.

The chairman of tellers reported the election of Mrs. Starling Fagin as First Vice President.

The Secretary of Education, Mrs. McCormick, gave her report (see reports on following pages).

Announcement was made that Miss Winston would conduct a study class every week during Lent, at the Cathedral beginning February 14th 10:30 A. M. The subject for study, "The Prayer Book".

The election of Miss Mildred Buchanan for Custodian was reported.

Mrs. Mazyck gave the Noon Day meditation. She first acknowledged the gracious reception given her as a new worker in the Diocese. She took for her subject the Noon Day Prayer and said in part that in repeating this prayer we commemorate the greatest sacrifice of our Lord; and that we should count it a privilege to pray, give gifts and joyful service to make Him known.

She asked us to re-dedicate ourselves to Christ. A rising vote of thanks was given Mrs. Mazyck.

Mrs. Alex Galt Robinson asked if some member could assist in finding a home for a young woman factory worker.

Roll call showed one hundred and forty-nine in attendance.

Adjournment was made for luncheon.

AFTERNOON SESSION

A letter from Mrs. Johnstone, President of the Diocese of Lexington was read. Mrs. Johnstone sent greetings and regretted that illness had prevented her attendance.

A motion carried unanimously that the Secretary send a note of loving remembrance and sympathy to Mrs. Woodcock, Miss Fannie Anderson, Mrs. Musson, Mrs. Douglas and Mrs. Mason Barret who were unable to make their attendance.

A letter to the President from Mrs. Stanley Adams was read. Mrs. Adams sent a message of love and regretted she could not be present.

Miss Winston called attention to the opening of Wyndam House, situated at W. 108th St., New York City. This house was dedicated last October. Two of its rooms are to be furnished by the Woman's Auxiliary as a memorial to Miss Emily Tillotson, former member of the National Board.

The President spoke of the National Campaign to be put on to raise funds for St. Luke's International Hospital, Tokio, Japan. This will begin March 6th, Bishop Cook will speak here in its interest. Mrs. Davidson has been put in charge of the million dollar fund to be raised by the women of the Church. As a million is also to be asked of the churchmen it was thought best that in the Diocese of Kentucky they should work together.

Mrs. I. S. Homans took the floor and asked the branches to volunteer much needed help in making childrens' garments for the Family Service Organization of the Community Chest. Pledges to help were made by Calvary, Grace, Cathedral and St. Thomas branches.

Miss Mildred Buchanan read pleasing letters from two Chinese friends.

One from the Matron, T'sen of St. Hilda's School, Wuchang. She tells that this school has reopened with one hundred and sixty students. The other letter was from Dorothy T'so, a young girl student in a university of Pekin. Dorothy has been helped in her education by the Deaconess Scott Memorial Fund.

Mrs. Reeder came to the platform and expressed her pleasure at being present and her regret that more of her branch could not be present and get the inspiration of the meeting.

Miss Henrietta Bullitt also came to the platform and spoke in the interest of the proposed chapel at Grahampton to be built in memory of Father Gorter who gave long and faithful service there. She said the chapel is to be begun February 1st, and is to be built on the plan of the Church of the Redeemer.

The President introduced the speaker of the day, Mrs. George Biller. Mrs. Biller in her address outlined the activities of the National Training Center at Taylor Hall, Racine, Wis. She spoke of the many religious conferences held there by various communions, brotherhoods, auxiliaries, Sunday Schools and Y. W. C. A. and Y. M. C. A. organizations. In particular she described the parties given each Christmas for the past four years for the oriental students in our colleges. These parties have been successful in not only helping the oriental student to understand our religion but for oriental students to understand each others religion as well.

At the conclusion of Mrs. Biller's address the newly elected officers were installed by Canon Hardy.

Afternoon roll call showed a total attendance for the day of one hundred and sixty.

The Calvary Branch served the luncheon.

The offering, $63.50, was for oriental students work at Taylor Hall.

Adjournment.

THE PRESIDENT'S ADDRESS

Dear Friends and Co-Workers of the Auxiliary:—

We have come together again in Annual Meeting after completing our forty-fifth year of service, and the term of office of the present Executive Board. It was with a feeling of much trepidation that I began my duties as your president. I cannot begin to express to you what your devotion and loyalty, and that of my fellow officers have meant to me. With God's help and your splendid co-operation we have been privileged to continue our work for the Master.

The reports you will hear today show, in most cases, an increase over last year's. We led the whole province in giving to the Corporate Gift, and while we did not reach the goal we had set for ourselves in the United Thank Offering, our gift was a decided increase over that of the previous Triennium.

More encouraging than the gift of money is the growth in the spiritual life of the Auxiliary. Reports show that many of the branches are having monthly corporate communions, while a few are having them weekly. All branches include a devotional period in their meetings. It is only through frequent communion with the Source of all power that we can hope to grow.

The new Triennium opens up for us many opportunities. If we are to be worthy we must take our share in the essential thing needed in the Church today,—that Christ's Church shall be Christian. Looking out into the world from our homes to the uttermost parts, we find that the crux of the whole matter lies in ourselves, and the challenge comes to each of us, for we are the interpreters of Christ to our generation.

The great Triennial Meeting at Washington, last October, should start us forward in a wonderful way. The Auxiliary has put its hand to big undertakings. I hope that in this Diocese, every branch will study carefully and act on the minutes coming from that meeting. The suggestions and resolutions are in most cases quite definite and practical, and show how we can, as auxiliary to all departments of the National Council, include Christian Social Service, and Religious Education in our work for the Mission of the Church.

In closing, may I ask that during the coming three years, we endeavor to bring more women into the Auxiliary, especially trying to reach the younger women, and the business women. Many helpful suggestions are given in the Minutes of the Triennial. God has blessed our work, but think how much more we could do if our numbers are increased. Let our slogan be, "Every woman in the Church, enlisted in the Church's service."

May I leave with you the beautiful prayer with which the National Executive Board closed their report to the Triennial:—

"First, that we may come so close to Christ that our eyes may be opened to see Him where He is among us; and then, that we may have the call and the courage to adventure forth with Him into those wider human relationships where His further glory waits to be revealed to us, and by the mystery of His loving kindness, through us, to those whom we may bring to Him."

Affectionately,

Your president,

ELSA S. ALMSTEDT.

REPORT OF THE SECRETARY

---

The Executive Board of the Woman's Auxiliary during the past year held four meetings, all in the Cathedral House with Miss Almstedt presiding.

The total value of the year's work amounted to $10,317.97.

Reports show a total membership of seven hundred and two in twenty-three active branches.

Six United Lenten Meetings were held with an average attendance of one hundred twenty three.

The offerings at these meetings were given to Camp Woodcock, to St. Hilda's school, Wuchang, China, to Near East Relief, to the United Thank Offering, to the upkeep of a room in the Bishop Tuttle Memorial House and to the Supply Fund.

At these meetings interesting letters were read, among them one from Ruth T'sen, Wuchang, China, and another from Miss Catherine Califf, worker in the Appalachian Industrial School, Penland, N. C. The needlework of this school was exhibited and orders solicited.

The Auxiliary of the Diocese had a full representation at the Triennial in Washington, D. C. Miss Almstedt, Mrs. Alex Galt Robinson, Mrs. Starling Fagin, Mrs. H. C. Heimerdinger and Mrs. H. S. Musson served as delegates.

The Semi-Annual Meeting was held in the forenoon of November 9th, in Dudley Memorial Hall. There were one hundred and fifty present. The meeting was entirely given over to reports from the General Convention held in October.

The day's program was as follows:

The Opening Services of the Convention.—Mrs. Harry S. Musson.

The size of the Convention and the deep interest of the women.—Mrs. J. S. Douglas.

The Inspiration of the Convention.—Mrs. R. W. Hunn.

The Business Sessions and the Corporate Gift.—Mrs. Starlnig Fagin.

The Joint Sessions.—Mrs. Alex. Galt Robinson.

A bit of Class Experience in the Training Institute.—Mrs. George W. Grant.

The United Thank Offering Service in the Cathedral.—Mrs. H. C. Heimerdinger.

The Quiet Hour and the Day of Intercession.—Miss Elsa Almstedt.

The Noon Day Prayer.—Miss L. L. Robinson.

Mr. Dudley Musson exhibited pictures taken by him during the Convention showing views of the opening services and various scenes of the city.

The offering, $68.38, given at the meeting, was toward a memorial to Miss Emily Tillotson former member of the National Board.

I have attended all meetings and taken the minutes thereof: and have sent out notices at the request of the President.

My term of office closes today. Let me thank you for the privilege of trying to serve as your secretary, for it has been to me a needed auxiliary education and a means of Grace.

Respectfully submitted,

AMANDA E. GRANT, Secretary.

In making my report for this year I feel I must mention the splendid response that was made to my request for the layette for Mrs. Miller. As all of you remember that, say this layette displayed at Grace Church during the union Lenten meetings it was "a thing of beauty and a joy forever." I had the pleasure last summer of seeing the baby in one of the darling little dresses and hearing Mrs. Miller speak of her gratitude for our gift.

REPORT OF EDUCATIONAL SECRETARY

Twenty-six letters and questionnaires were sent out. Sixteen of these were returned and the answers show much progress in the educational work during the past year.

A wide-spread interest was shown in Dr. Sturgis' book, "A Church Awake". All but three branches reported using the book in some way. Either at program meetings or in Discussion groups.

The Educational Secretary conducted a normal class before Lent on "A Church Awake", and during Lent she had an interparochial discussion group at the Cathedral House, using "A Church Awake", as the Text Book.

Fifty copies of the book were sold during Lent, so it was being very generally read, and by many who were not able to join any of the study classes.

One branch studied the Book of Acts in connection with "A Church Awake".

Ten branches reported using the speakers from the Educational Committee.

Three branches outside of Louisville reported using the "Spirit of Missions" to obtain subjects for their program meetings. Several reported studying the six objectives of the Corporate Gift.

Two branches reported having classes on Church History. One branch outside of Louisville reported meeting once a week during the winter for study of the Mission Field.

All but two branches reported working in the Five Fields of Service.

Members of the Educational Committee are ready at any time to speak at the parish meetings.

One subject has been added to the list. Mrs. James McCracken is prepared to give a resume of the text book for this year, "A New Africa".

The speakers and the subjects at the last Lenten Meetings were:

Rev. S. H. Littell ..... Needs of China
Bishop Quinn—

Work Among the Young People of the Church.

Miss Higgins ..... Near East Relief.

Miss Winston ..... United Thank Offering.

St. Andrew's Church School—

Pageant on "A Church Awake".

Mrs. Allan McGregor—

Business of the General Convention.

Respectfully submitted,

GILMER R. McCORMICK, Edu. Sec'y.

The Fall United Thank Offering service was held in the Cathedral, Louisville, on the morning of October eleventh, the same day of the Presentation of the Offering in Washington, that the prayers of all might be united in that great service.

It was again my privilege to go to the Triennial meeting and to place the check from the Diocese upon the Golden Alms Basin. It was an increase of $764.21 over the offering in 1925.

When I accepted this office, which you so kindly gave to me six years ago, I did not at the time fully realize the honor bestowed, but one trip to a General Convention of the Church will make a Diocesan Custodian of the United Thank Offering, realize to the fullest the dignity and importance of her office.

I have, during the past three years, visited most all of the parishes in Louisville and I have given out 675 Blue Boxes. I have tried in a feeble way to arouse interest and to educate others, but I believe that the most successful thing I have done is to educate myself. I thank you for the opportunity given to me and retire.

Respectfully submitted,

MARY MINOT HEIMERDINGER, Custodian.
