ELEVENTH ANNUAL REPORT.

The initial year of the second decade of the Woman's Missionary Association of Long Island, opening as it did with much to cheer and incite to higher endeavor, closes with every encouragement to believe that the Divine blessing rests upon woman's work. "Hitherto hath the Lord helped us: He hath been mindful of us: He will bless us."

The tenth anniversary, held in St. Peter's Church, the Bishop of the Diocese presiding, was attended with unprecedented success and interest, seventy-two clergymen being present, and the largest congregation ever assembled on such an occasion within the Diocese.

The Rt. Rev. Jno. A. Paddock, Missionary Bishop of Washington Territory, preached the morning sermon upon mission work as done by women. It was not possible to forget, while listening to tender words of instruction from one so long and widely known in this Diocese, that he spoke of that which he knew; his own love for missions having led him to the extreme limit of our extensive national territory, where he was called, before reaching his "promised land," to part with his most precious and able co-worker, and to enter with his motherless children upon an untried life. Such faith, and God's grace, is all that is needed to bring the uttermost parts of the earth to a saving knowledge of Christ.

The change in Executive Officers at the annual meeting was most marked, and deeply regretted by the delegates, who were unwilling to relinquish the services of tried and efficient workers, and have done so only when forced to yield to the inevitable. Except in the case of one who leaves the Diocese, each retiring officer will retain her membership as a delegate, waiving no duty which may devolve upon her; kindly consenting to give to her successor the benefit of such counsel as experience has made valuable.

Changes have also occurred in the list of delegates, but not more than must be expected in a roll which numbers nearly two hundred, and from forty-six parishes. Some of these changes have been caused by removal, and some by appointment of rectors. Death has also visited us, leaving behind a trace of sadness.

Last June, the intelligence was brought by cable of the death of Mrs. Hugh Allen, which occurred in Florence, Italy, June 3d, 1883. Her loss will be deeply felt in every department of church work, her interest being limited to no special branch, all sharing in her gifts.

Five parishes have been added to our list, and their delegates enrolled. More still remain whose co-operation we would welcome. When we look over this beautiful Island Diocese, which is our goodly heritage, can we forget those whose lines have not fallen in such pleasant places ! Let every parish on Long Island be represented in the meetings of its women, learning where need exists, whether it be in distant China and Africa; within the borders of our own land, among the Indians and Freedmen; in the homes of the standard bearers upon our western frontier; or in the prisons and hospitals of the large city which is at our doors. All are alike our care ; all receive of the bounty with which God blesses us.

Would any of those who have in the past ten years seen this body of working church-women grow from its small beginning to its present importance, feeling herself grow and expand to the labor of the hour; be willing to go back to the old paths, and the time when, instead of the glowing story of church extension, which is sure to be her privilege at each meeting, an occasional missionary sermon was all she heard upon a subject now so dear to her, and of such vital importance to her spiritual welfare !

In proof of the interesting nature of the monthly meetings the average attendance has been 65 ; the smallest number being in April, when 48 were present; and the largest in February, when 112, from 32 parishes, braved the winter weather to hear the story of a life of twenty-eight years in China.

The churches represented in April were 20, the smallest number ; and in December, 35, the largest during the year. The average representation was 28 parishes for the-nine months of meeting.

It has been the aim of the President to have each and every branch of work represented by some speaker who has visited the mission, or made the life of a missionary his own ; and it is owing to her persevering efforts that the following record of interesting addresses is given : In October, the Rev. Mr. Bennet of Wyandotte, Kansas, for Domestic, and the Rev. Mr. Cook of Riverhead, for Diocesan Missions ; December, Mr. Herbert Welsh of Philadelphia, for Indian Missions ; January, the Rt. Rev. Dr. Riley, for Mexico ; February, Mrs. A. H. Thompson of Shanghai, for Foreign ; May, Mrs. E. F. Miles, from Washington Territory, for Domestic ; and in June, the Rev. Mr. Cain from Richmond, Va., for Freedmen.

DIOCESAN DEPARTMENT.

Diocesan work is the first step toward a general interest in missions. The leading work of the past year, and that which has been the most eminently successful in its appeal to the liberality of the churchmen of the Diocese, is St. Phebe's Mission and Mission House. The Mission is the outgrowth of a work begun in the public institutions, by the Kings County Convocation, as early as 1860 ; and in which the first woman worker was engaged as missionary, from St. James's Parish, in 1867. April 1st, 1869, the first year of the Diocese of Long Island, a woman was appointed by the Missionary Committee, on the nomination of Bishop Littlejohn, "Missionary-in-charge and to the Prisons and Public Institutions in Kings Co." So early in the new diocese was this mission adopted as a part of its work. The Mission House is of much later date, and is the result of many years of prayerful effort to promote an interest of greatest importance to the mission.

No report will be given apart from the one appended, which was made to the Bishop, and through him to the Diocesan Convention last spring ; and is a full history of a year of prosperity ; for a continuance of which your prayers are desired.

Since December, 1882, diocesan work has claimed a more extended and important place in the Association, by the adoption at that time, of a resolution to allow reports of all woman's work, done by representatives of this society, to be made through this source to the church generally. Inasmuch as all church work outside that of the parish, is mission work, there can be no valid objection to its report through this channel, simply because some of the incorporated charities are of date prior to the organization of the Woman's Missionary Association ; the great aim of which is, to band together all woman's work which heretofore existed in separate societies, narrowing the sympathies of many ; and by giving a more general knowledge of the whole, increasing the interest, advancing the cause of Christ, and forwarding His purposes.

The statistics show boxes sent to various points within the Diocese, amounting in the aggregate to $1,045.08 ; of which 7 boxes, or packages, were sent to Riverhead, valued at $576.04 ; to the Church Charity Foundation, for St. John's Hospital and the Homes, gifts amounting to $297.69 ; and to needy parishes, boxes valued at $175 ; which, together with $1,797.17 in cash ; and gifts of all kinds, including delicacies for the hospitals valued at $849.46, contained in the report of St. Phebe's Mission, makes the total for Diocesan purposes $3,695.36.

DOMESTIC DEPARTMENT.

The loss to the church militant in the death of the Rev. Dr. Twing, the beloved Secretary of the Board of Domestic Missions, was foreshadowed at the closing of the anniversary exercises of this Association last year. Loving words of sympathy were telegraphed to his bedside directly from the meeting, only too soon to be followed by intelligence which saddened the hearts of all who knew him, and of thousands who had enjoyed the benefits of his widespread influence. A feeling of loneliness comes over us when we remember that upon such occasions as bring us face to face with our fellow workers, we shall meet him no more. His presence alone was a plea for Domestic Missions. It is not ours to set an estimate upon the usefulness of such an advocate ; for long years to come must the pathway of the Domestic Missionary be illumined by the light of such noble deeds as die not with the mortal body.

The number of boxes sent to the Domestic field is the same as last year, 36. A small amount for unfilled orders, which was asked for by the general secretary to enable her to help a little, those whose calls for assistance had not been successful, was sent from St. Paul's Church, Glen Cove ; and it would be well if we could hereafter do something more toward helping to bear this burden.

The sum given to endow a bed in the Fannie C. Paddock Memorial Hospital, at Tacoma, W. T., has increased the fund for that purpose to $1,512.77.

FREEDMEN'S DEPARTMENT.

In response to the appeal from the Rev. Giles B. Cook and Mrs. Payne, which Miss Emery fully indorsed, asking that Long Island should give at least $150 to the colored Orphanage in Petersburg, Va., the assistance has been generous, the Orphanage having received $179. Mrs. Brent's work at Gordonsville, Va., which is also among the children of this long neglected race, has been given $266.25; and the Rev. T. W. Cain has been assisted to the amount of $193.29; which, together with the boxes sent to other places among Freedmen, brings the total up to $1,409.69, or $291.34 more than last year.

INDIAN DEPARTMENT.

For the Indian, four scholarships have been maintained—the Minnie Moore, the Cornelia Henshaw, the Hugh Allen, and one in St. Paul's School. Something has also been given the Indians known to us as the San Marcos, in whom we have been interested for years. Five boxes have been sent directly for the use of schools, valued at $385; and four have gone to other destinations assisting in Indian work. The value of eight boxes for the Indian department is $719.00 against $335.15 last year.

FOREIGN DEPARTMENT.

Four scholarships have been supported, of which one is sustained by the Association, in St. John's College, as the "Long Island Scholarship."

In June, 1879, a pledge was made by the Association for the payment of $175 annually, for a term of three years, for the education of Pedro Aguilar. The sum paid has been considerably more than that promised for each year, and the time extended one year; so that this work for Mexico is reported as finished. Some assistance has been given the Hospital at Osaka, Japan. A contribution of $50 in support of the life insurance fund for Foreign Missionaries has been made, and should be increased, it being only a just tax upon those enjoying the advantages of a Christian country; who should feel it a privilege as well as a duty, to pay this tribute to the memory, and toward the maintenance of the families, of such as go forth to war against the dark ignorance of heathendom.

MISSIONARY BOXES.

If the hearts could be read as the grateful letters are, it is safe to say that we should marvel that that which had cost us so little, had made others so happy ; and it would be cause for gratitude that the pleasure with which each box is packed, should be multiplied so greatly to the receiver. If "charity is a virtue of the heart, and gifts and alms are the expressions, not the essence of the virtue," then "he is truly great who is great in charity ; and they serve God well who serve His creatures."

The relation which this organization holds to the missionary is best subserved by the frequency with which boxes of clothing and reading matter are forwarded, bearing testimony of our remembrance and loving interest. The man who is called to go into distant fields, renouncing the privileges and pleasant surroundings of home, facing bravely the prospect of hard work and poor pay, has the assurance of God's blessing upon his spiritual labors ; and should have constant reminders of our cheerful support in matters wherein he has bodily need. If he obey the injunction, "Take no thought for your life, what ye shall eat ; neither for your body, what ye shall put on ;" it becomes our care that he be comfortably fed and decently clad ; lying down to rest with no such want to harass, and rising up refreshed ; able and ready to meet the demand upon him, giving as he has received. To this end the boxes are sent, freighted with supplies for the common uses of a home, as well as clothing and books for each member of the missionary household.

Eighty-two boxes have been sent through this Association during the year : to the Diocese, 17 ; to the Domestic field, 36 ; to the Freedmen, 20 ; and to the Indian, 8 ; to which is added a sewing machine for the Foreign, which makes the number given. The total value is estimated at $5,972.08. In cash value we exceed the amount given in the report of 1882 by $606.89.

The work of the business year which closed in June last with the usual election of Executive Officers, has been faithfully reported, with all statistics belonging to the Association. To God only is the issue known ; 'tis He alone who giveth the increase.

In Memoriam.

The eleventh anniversary of the Association occurs in November, and this we are not permitted to reach without the record of a sorrow which is deep and must be abiding, as the sweet and sacred memories of the past remind us that "here we have no continuing city." Since the annual meeting in June two delegates have "died in the faith," and have found that "city which hath foundations, whose builder and maker is God." The first was Mrs. George Peters, whose death occurred in July. In the parish and in the diocese, wherever there is work to be done for the needy, Mrs. Peters will be missed, and remembered with sincere affection.

For the first time in our history it becomes our sad duty to record a death in the Executive Board. Mrs. E. F. de Selding, for eleven years the faithful Treasurer of the Association, she who shared in every interest and anxiety of the society from the outset, and with a hope of continuing to hold the important office to which she was unanimously re-elected, is removed from us by the Hand which does nothing but in mercy.

While we are yet in the first shock of bereavement; while sorrow fills our eyes and hearts to overflowing; we know that she has left behind all of infirmity and weakness; that she has entered beyond the veil; that for her "death is swallowed up in victory."

At every step we shall miss her; her memory must lie deep in every heart associated with her in all these eventful years. Though the long-past grows dim, and recollections become softened, "the memory of the just is blessed," and hers must be a cherished and sacred thing, stimulating those who still walk in lowly ways to higher aims. "Precious in the sight of the Lord is the death of His saints."

Respectfully submitted.

ST. PHEBE'S MISSION,

No. 10 Lafayette Street,

FROM

April 1st, 1882, to April 1st, 1883.

"For I was an hungered, and ye gave me meat: I was thirsty, and ye gave me drink: I was a stranger, and ye took me in.

"Naked and ye clothed me: I was sick, and ye visited me: I was in prison, and ye came unto me.

"Then shall the righteous answer him, saying: Lord, when saw we thee an hungered, and fed thee? or thirsty, and gave thee drink?

"When saw we thee a stranger, and took thee in? or naked, and clothed thee?

"Or when saw we thee sick, or in prison, and came unto thee?

"And the King shall answer and say unto them, Verily I say unto you, inasmuch as ye have done it unto one of the least of these my brethren, ye have done it unto me."

REPORT.

The First Annual Report of St. Phebe's Mission to the Woman's Missionary Association, and through this to the Bishop, and the Missionary Committee of the Diocese, must follow closely upon the report presented at the tenth anniversary of the Association in November last, which was the first offered after the organization of the Mission under its present name, and with an established house.

That report was encumbered with a supplement, which became necessary in order to present a full year's work, the statistics of which will be included in this annual report.

LOCATION.

At the expiration of the first year of the existence of St. Phebe's Mission House, the present location, No. 10 Lafayette street, is found to be admirably suited to the work ; it is central and convenient for the churches sending supplies, the interested friends visiting, and the applicants seeking assistance. It has proved a very judicious choice on the part of those appointed to decide upon a home for the Mission ; and has been secured by lease for the term of two years from the first of May next. Consequently, we ask our friends and patrons to continue their visits and contributions for that length of time, at least, to the present address.

ASSOCIATES.

It is our pleasure to be able to say to those who are interested in St. Phebe's Mission, that Miss Katharine B. Latham, who has served the Mission devotedly in the past, is still the Associate-in-charge. Miss Sarah F. Brown also continues to fill acceptably the position of Assistant Associate.

Both these Associates are thoroughly in harmony with the Board, and in sympathy with the work, being much beloved by those to whom they minister in Hospital wards and in the Alms House ; directing by spiritual counsel those who stray from the paths of rectitude ; comforting with tender care and prayer, the dying ; gathering in the little ones and offering them to Christ in baptism ; visiting the poor in their own homes, and receiving in the Mission House such as are dismissed from the hospitals before they are sufficiently recovered in health to earn a livelihood.

Sister Eliza, who was mentioned in the last report as having returned to the Mission in the Spring, giving her renewed strength to the work in which her heart has been so long engaged, during the winter found it necessary, for her health's sake, again to visit the South; accordingly, she left Brooklyn in January for Raleigh, N. C. Before going she wrote an affectionate letter to the President of the Board of Managers of St. Phebe's, saying that her place in the Mission House might be filled permanently, as the Bishop had directed her on her return to the Diocese to assist Sister Julia at the Church Charity Foundation. She expressed pleasure in the anticipation of future visits to the Mission House and in hearing of the prosperity of the Mission ; sending messages of gratitude to each member of the Board, and to Miss Latham, whom she particularly mentioned as having left nothing undone which could make her comfortable or happy.

When it is remembered how long Sister Eliza has been connected with the work of the Diocese in the Public Institutions ; how ardent her zeal ; how unquestioning the faith which helped her through the trials of the early days of the Mission, we must give thanks to the All-Wise Director who permits her to see her labor of faith and love heartily adopted by the Diocese as one of its most important charities ; though she, with her ripe and valuable experience, be withdrawn from further active participation in it.

A few facts are taken from the monthly reports of the Associate-in-charge, showing the feeling which is warmed into life in the hearts of those who have lived for years in constant transgression of the laws of God and the State. Though some incidents of more thrilling interest might be chosen, the real and true work of the Mission can best be seen in the proofs of a deep and abiding conviction of sin, with the desire for a purer life, and a sense of gratitude to those who have helped them.

A little testimonial of feeling of the right sort from one of the convicts at the Penitentiary was made a few days ago. A man who was baptized nearly a year ago, sent his wife to the Mission House for the double purpose of having her "talked to," and having her carry a present to be forwarded to the clergyman who baptized him.

The present, a watch-guard, with a small cross attached, was his own handiwork, and the only thing he could devise or manufacture in the place of his confinement.

Extracts from letters from beneficiaries assisted through "hard times" and now in happier circumstances, might be given, but it may suffice to give one more instance of gratitude to cheer the co-workers in the Mission. A man found in jail, where he was serving a short term of sentence for a first offense, has never ceased to visit the Mission House, when his day's work was done, to see if he could be of assistance to the Association in carrying parcels, or messages, or doing some of the many things which are so essentially a man's work about a house; and this he has done faithfully for a long time.

TRAINED NURSES.

Early in December last the first St. Phebe nurse was engaged. Miss Coffin entered upon the duties of the office, but at the end of one month resigned. Miss Katharine B. Edgar has since accepted the position, and joined the corps of Associates. No effort will now be spared to carry forward this important branch of the Mission work, which it has been determined shall for the present be among the poor solely. It has been thought that it might be well at some future time for the Mission to supply nurses also to those who are able to pay for their services, thereby increasing the revenue for work among the indigent; but that time and work, if ever possible and practicable, is certainly not yet.

PHYSICIANS.

In connection with, and to facilitate the usefulness of the trained nurse, a circular has been printed and just distributed, asking the assistance of physicians in the different parts of the city, who may be willing to render free medical services upon receipt of applications signed by the Associate-in-charge. At this time we acknowledge gratefully the kind services of Dr. E. H. Bartley in response to the request of Miss Latham for assistance to the poor in the vicinity of the Mission House.

The following statistics will show as much of the work of the Associates as can be stated in figures; and though in much of it they have been assisted by the clergy, so have they always been present with the clergy in the services of the church held in connection with the Mission ; where, also, the co-operation of many ladies has made the service of praise very interesting to those who assemble for worship.

SUPPLIES.

With the exception of the summer months, when so many benefactors of the Mission were out of town, the supply of delicacies for the hospitals, and for the out-door sick, has been greatly in excess of any former year. The churches which have contributed in the past have kept up their interest, and continued to assist in all cases, often increasing their gifts with the demand which grows with the extension of the work. Other parishes have been added to our list of donors, and with liberal gifts and visits of inquiry, are giving very material aid and encouragement.

A list of the most pressing needs for the sick has been sent each month through the Woman's Missionary Association, with a letter of request to the Rectors of the churches promising supplies ; and tea, fruits, soups and cereals, with much useful clothing, has been the substantial result. Literature, which is always much needed, has been liberally supplied, and still the demand is for more. An Associate tells of a man suffering from nervous prostration, to whom the monotony of the hospital was almost unbearable, and to whom something to read seemed an absolute necessity ; she says : " He grasped so eagerly the magazines and papers I had for him, and thanked me over and over." A great need would be met by a supply of German reading matter of the lighter sort, magazines, &c. ; many of those whose wants come to the notice of the Associates being unable to read English.

Money has been sent in sufficient sums to meet the incidental expenses, the most important of which are for burials, car-fare, and expressage on baskets of delicacies which are too large or heavy for the Associate to carry to the hospitals, and an occasional gift for coal, or house rent in arrears.

It became necessary during the summer, when the supplies were reduced, to draw from this fund the means to purchase the most needful articles of food for the sick, but with God's blessing the supply of money, though at times very low, has never been entirely exhausted.

The churches which have contributed supplies in regular order for one month during the year, the month dating from the meetings of the Woman's Missionary Association, are as follows:

SPECIAL FOR CHRISTMAS, 1882.

At the Christmas season the most generous assistance was received from classes in Sunday-schools, and from several ladies, and a few gentlemen—laymen—in providing Christmas dinners at the Mission House, at the Penitentiary Hospital, the Alms House Hospital, and in a few homes of the poor.

For the Hospital Ward of the Penitentiary a Christmas dinner was given by Mr. S. D. C. Van Bokkelen. It was very complete, nicely served, and presided over by himself. He was accompanied by his daughter and two associates of St. Phebe's Mission, also by Mr. and Mrs. Jared Coffin, who sang hymns and carols before and after the meal, concluding with the Gloria in Excelsis, in which all joined. A very excellent and bountiful Christmas dinner was provided for ten persons at the Mission House, by Mrs. Edward Annan. Sixty toys from the Church of the Holy Trinity were distributed in the Flatbush Nursery at Christmas, Miss Hall, with friends, and an Associate from St.

Phebe's attending. Miss Ada Twing also distributed candies and toys at the same place. The Rev. Mr. Twing and family, with twenty of his parishioners, gave a musical service to the Alms House inmates on the Wednesday after Christmas.

Evergreens for decorations at the Hospitals were provided by the Church of the Holy Trinity. Ice cream for forty-three patients at the City Hospital was provided at Christmas, and Christmas cards were given to a few in the different Institutions.

Besides these gifts, we have had the animating influence of over four hundred visits from interested friends and inquirers at the Mission House, from which much good has resulted, both to the work and the workers.

CLERGY.

We recognize with thankfulness, and a thorough sense of the great value, the services of the Rev. Mr. Twing, who has acted as Missionary to the Flatbush Institutions; and those also of the Clergy generally throughout the city, whenever called upon; without whose aid the Associates would have been seriously crippled in their efforts.

The need of a Clerical Missionary whose whole time shall be devoted to St. Phebe's Mission, is a matter of great importance at this time; and it is very desirable that this barrier to the best interests of the Mission be removed before many more months roll around.

The work of a parish priest is so different in its character from that of a Missionary to a criminal under sentence, or the aged and sick in the Alms House and Hospitals, that a clear understanding of the spiritual need of each individual is impossible to one not set apart and giving his whole time and prayerful attention to it.

Though an excellent and blessed work has been done among this hitherto neglected class of our fellow-creatures, by the Clergy of the city, all that is possible has not been done, nor can be, except by a fully commissioned clerical Missionary, whose duty it shall be to work constantly in this field, as do the St. Phebe's Associates, who are Missionaries also.

SPECIAL ACKNOWLEDGMENTS.

The list of Clergymen meriting our heartiest thanks, remains as last year, with the addition of the Rev. Mr. Brown, Chaplain at the C. C. F.—Rev. Messrs. Twing, Snively, Reynolds, Washburn, Brown, Chaplain in the Navy, Adams, Brush, Joyce, Tighe.

The Associates desire to record their deep sense of universal courtesy and helpfulness shown them in the furtherance of their work, by the Warden, Superintendents, or other officers of the Institutions they visit, as also of the kind acknowledgments of physicians and nurses as to the aid the Mission affords, through them, to their merciful work.

GIFTS AND OFFERINGS.

In order to avoid a burden of debt in future, as in the past, and to escape all the depressing influences which go so far to retard any great scheme, whether for public or private benefit, we ask the churches represented in the Woman's Missionary Association to become responsible for a part of the cost of maintaining the Mission in its enlarged operations. It must be clear to all that a house with rent, light, fuel, and the salaries, with board of four Associates, one of whom is a trained nurse, cannot be sustained at the cost of the Mission in former years. The closest calculations have been made, and $3,000 will certainly be required to do all that is at present designed, and less ought not to be done in view of the great need and constant cry for help.

The churches are asked this year to assume the responsibility of $1,600, leaving the remaining $1,400 to individual effort. An earnest desire is felt by the Board that this amount shall be assured at once, and that churches and individual benefactors shall endeavor to become accountable for certain sums to be paid annually.

CONCLUSION.

In closing the First Annual Report of St. Phebe's Mission to the Public Institutions of Kings County, it is meet that we render to Almighty God sincere and humble thanks for all His blessings and encouragement in the organization of the Mission, and the establishment of the Mission House. Thanks are also given from overflowing hearts to the many benefactors from all parts of the Diocese, without whose assistance and liberality, from a human point of view, nothing could have been done.

To both Clergy and Laity there is a deep feeling of indebtedness for palpable proofs of an interest which has greatly lightened the labors of the first year, during which the whole structure of the Mission has been so disposed and arranged as to increase its usefulness. The response to the requests of the Board of Managers, made through the Woman's Missionary Association for money and delicacies has been so generous and prompt that the mind has been relieved from the stress of care and uneasiness for the daily support, and instead, given wholly to matters of vital import to the future of the Mission.

All has been done in love and harmony by the Board, with strictest fidelity to the contributors who trust to them the apportionment of their gifts ; and if we can so give account of our stewardship as " he that goeth forth bearing precious seed, and coming again with rejoicing, bringing his sheaves with him," to our Father who is in Heaven, the Father alike of the just and the unjust, be all the praise, and the honor, and the glory.

It shall be the duty of the Assistant Secretary to keep minutes of the proceedings of the Association and of the Board of Managers, and to send out all notices of the stated and special meetings of the same.

ARTICLE VII.

It shall be the duty of the Treasurer to receive and keep account of all moneys and materials contributed for the work of the Association, and to pay all drafts upon the funds, when countersigned by the President.

ARTICLE VIII.

The Constitution shall not be altered, except at an annual meeting of the Association—notice of the proposed change having been given at a stated meeting of the Board of Managers.

BY-LAWS.

I.

There shall be an annual meeting of the Association on the second Thursday of June in each year, at such hour and place as the Secretary, with the advice of the President, shall indicate.

II.

The election of Officers and of the Board of Managers shall take place at such meeting, and they shall continue in office for one year, or until their successors shall have been appointed.

III.

In case of the vacancy of any office, by the death or removal of its occupant, the same may be filled at a stated meeting of the Board of Managers ; and any one so elected shall continue in office until the next annual meeting of the Association.

IV.

There shall be no stated meeting in July, August or September.

V.

In all matters of importance, a resolution shall be brought before the Association and the Board of Managers, to be deferred to the next meeting for decision, unless passed by a unanimous vote.
