Meetings

Regular meetings are held from September to May on the last Monday of each month at 2:00 p. m.

Quiet Day during Lent.

Forty-fifth Annual Meeting, May 5 and 6, 1924.

The Ninety-first Annual Convention of the Diocese of Michigan will be held (D. V.) May 14 and 15, 1924. Place to be announced.

Please write to the Chairman of the Box Committee and Bureau of Supplies for missionary letters regarding boxes to be sent.

Please write at once to the missionary stating when he may expect a box and from whom. As soon as a box is sent please notify the Chairman of the Box Committee, giving its estimated money value.

Requests to Secretaries

Please send the full names and addresses of all parish officers to the Corresponding Secretary and notify her at once of any change of officers.

Please see that all notices of meetings sent out by the Secretary are printed in Church Bulletins or read by your Rector at the Church Services.

The fiscal year of The Protestant Episcopal Church ends December 31st of each year.

Please pay the pledges for the General Expense Fund, the Foreign pledge, the Domestic and all remaining pledges before December 31st.

The fulfillment of these requests will greatly aid the Diocesan Officers in their work.

The Prayer for the Woman's Auxiliary

Adopted September, 1922

ALMIGHTY GOD, our heavenly Father, bless, we pray thee, our work for the extension of thy kingdom, and make us so thankful for the precious gift to us of thy beloved Son, that we may pray fervently, labour diligently, and give liberally to make him known to all nations as their Saviour and their King: through the same Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

CONSTITUTION

ARTICLE I.—NAME.

This Association shall be called the Michigan Branch of the Woman's Auxiliary to the National Council.

ARTICLE II.—OBJECTS.

The objects of this Association are to unite the branches in a common interest; to promote the cause of Missions and Church Extension, Religious Education and Christian Social Service; to collect funds for these various purposes; to encourage the formation of new branches. Work must be done, each year, in the five fields of service, the Parish, the Community, the Diocese, the Nation and the World.

ARTICLE III.—MEMBERS.

All baptized women of the Diocese who desire to be members will be so regarded.

ARTICLE IV.—OFFICERS.

The officers of this Association shall be a President, three Vice-Presidents, one to be chosen from each Archdeaconry, a Recording Secretary and General Treasurer, a Corresponding Secretary, a Diocesan Treasurer, a Domestic Treasurer, a Foreign Treasurer, a Treasurer of the United Thank Offering and the Correspondent of the Church Periodical Club, who with the Director of the Church School Service League and the Head of the Little Helpers shall form the Executive Committee.

ARTICLE V.—FISCAL YEAR.

The fiscal year of the Association shall be from December 31st to December 31st.

ARTICLE VI.—MEETINGS.

The annual meeting shall be held on the first Monday and Tuesday in May.

Other meetings shall be held at the discretion of the Executive Committee.

ARTICLE VII.—QUORUM.

At Executive Committee meetings five members and at Association meetings twenty members shall constitute a quorum.

ARTICLE VIII.—AMENDMENTS.

This constitution may be amended at any annual meeting of the Association by a two-thirds vote of all members present; the proposed amendment having been submitted in writing at a previous meeting.

By-Laws may be adopted, amended or repealed at any regular meeting or annual meeting by a two-thirds majority vote.

Approved:

CHARLES D. WILLIAMS, Bishop of Michigan.

Detroit, May 1, 1920.

BY-LAWS

ELECTIONS, APPOINTMENTS.

SECTION 1. The officers, including the Auditors, shall be elected at each annual meeting. At the meeting preceding the annual meeting an informal ballot shall be given to a nominating committee appointed by the President at said meeting. This informal ballot may be cast by every member of the Association.

SECTION 2. In case of the absence, resignation or death of an Executive Officer, her place shall be filled by action of the Executive Committee, such action to stand until the next annual meeting.

SECTION 3. Each regularly organized branch shall appoint two delegates to every meeting of the Association, that each branch may be represented, but all the members shall have an equal vote on all questions except the Annual Elections, when the APPOINTED DELEGATES ALONE shall vote.

PLEDGES.

SECTION 1. At the annual meeting each branch shall signify in writing the amount it will give during the following year, to be paid through the Treasurers of the Woman's Auxiliary.

SECTION 2. As it seems only reasonable that each branch shall contribute something towards the general expenses of the Society, all branches shall contribute as liberally as possible, the MINIMUM AMOUNT for any branch being ONE DOLLAR a year.

DUTIES OF OFFICERS.

SECTION 1. The President shall preside at all meetings, and shall have general supervision of the work of the Auxiliary, and in her absence the Vice-Presidents shall preside in the order of their succession.

SECTION 2. The Recording Secretary and General Treasurer shall keep the minutes of all meetings; she shall receive and pay out, as necessary, the General Expense and the Extension Funds and such special funds as may be put in her care.

SECTION 3. The Corresponding Secretary shall give notice of all meetings, both of the Association and of the Executive Committee, and shall conduct the general correspondence of the Society.

SECTION 4. The Foreign, Domestic and Diocesan Treasurers, the Treasurer of the United Thank Offering and the Correspondent of the Church Periodical Club shall receive the funds and manage the affairs of her own department. She shall conduct the correspondence incident to her own work and shall procure and disseminate missionary intelligence relating to her own department.

COMMITTEES.

EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE.

SECTION 1. All matters relating to the general welfare of the Society shall be referred to the Executive Committee. It shall appoint Standing Committees which shall co-operate with it.

SECTION 2. Seven Standing Committees shall be appointed by the Executive Committee each year after the annual meeting.

A Committee on Missions and Church Extension, a Committee on Religious Education, a Committee on Christian Social Service, a Committee on the Box Work and Bureau of Supplies, a Program and Publicity Committee, a Finance Committee and a Hospitality Committee.

The Committee on Missions and Church Extension shall promote missionary intelligence and missionary activity among the women of the Diocese and shall superintend the work of arranging for meetings in different parts of the Diocese in the interest of forming new branches and strengthening the old ones.

The Committee on Religious Education shall arrange for Mission Study Classes throughout the Diocese and give all information regarding the work.

The Committee on Christian Social Service shall co-operate in the work of Christian Americanization, Hospital, Institutional and any other form of Christian Social Service.

The Committee on the Box Work shall supply lists of boxes obtained from the Church Missions House to parishes wishing them; shall have charge of the preparation of any general Diocesan Box and present the combined annual box report of all the parishes. This Committee shall maintain a Bureau of Supplies.

The Program and Publicity Committee shall make a plan for the meetings of the Association during the year, provide speakers subject to the advice of the Executive Committee, be prepared to advise parish branches who may desire to have assistance in arranging their yearly programs and do all necessary publicity work.

The Finance Committee shall have charge of the raising of all special funds, unless some special committee has been appointed, and shall be charged with any other similar work requested by the Executive Committee.

The Hospitality Committee shall arrange for the entertainment of speakers and delegates attending the various meetings.

ANNUAL REPORTS.

Each officer shall present a written annual report, also providing a copy for the use of the Recording Secretary.

All accounts shall be audited before the annual meeting.

ORDER OF BUSINESS.

1. Opening Prayers.
2. Call to Order—Roll Call.
3. Reading Minutes.

ADDRESS OF THE PRESIDENT

The reports which follow will present in detail the activities of the Michigan Auxiliary for 1922, and to each and every one of the faithful officers, committees and members is given an expression of grateful appreciation for work accomplished, as well as for the fine spirit in which all plans for advance have been promoted during the past year, and all the time before.

Since May 5, 1908, when you bestowed the honour of my election as President of the Michigan Diocesan Auxiliary, fifteen happy years have passed so rapidly and one annual meeting has succeeded another, each bringing its record of service, that now, on May 8, 1923, it does not seem possible we have been together so long.

Time in its flight has brought many changes. In the printed memorials we have endeavored to express our profound sense of loss in the passing to rest of our great leader and Bishop; of valued co-workers, and of our honored and beloved Presiding Bishop. Each passing year has brought its own similar record of those who, having served their day and generation, have gone to receive their reward. "Well done, good and faithful servant; enter thou into the joy of thy Lord."

They are "not dead, but living unto Thee"—and they have left us an example to follow in faith where they have led the way.

In the volumes which contain the records of the Auxiliary will be found printed statements of fine achievements which are of great value. Between the lines may be read a story of loyal, self-sacrificing devotion to the extension of the Kingdom of God which is above all price.

May I ask you each to accept from a thankful heart an expression of profound gratitude for a share in these records, and the privilege and opportunity of serving with you in our mutual work? In this association is included the Junior Auxiliary, the Church School Service League, the Young Woman's Auxiliary, the Episcopal Young People's Association and the Little Helpers—all working faithfully in their various spheres of usefulness under consecrated leadership.

We are all building upon the strong foundations so carefully laid by those who preceded us. It is a goodly heritage, and we pray that God, our help in ages past, our hope for years to come, will abundantly bless our work, and grant that we may both perceive and know what things we ought to do, and also may have grace and power faithfully to fulfill the same—our personal task and responsibility in His service.

Fiat Lux!

"Through the world, far and wide,
Let there be Light!"

ANNE E. SHIPMAN STEVENS,

President, May 5, 1908-May 8, 1923.

May 8, 1923.

A TESTIMONIAL TO
MRS. FREDERIC BECKWITH STEVENS, PRESIDENT
WOMAN'S AUXILIARY, DIOCESE OF MICHIGAN
1908-1923

On Tuesday, May 5, 1908, at the annual meeting of the Woman's Auxiliary to the Board of Missions, held in old Grace Church, Detroit, Mrs. Frederic Beckwith Stevens was unanimously elected President, and for fifteen years she has been our leader in all the work undertaken and carried on by the Michigan Branch.

It was with deep and sincere regret that the Auxiliary learned at the meeting held on April 23, 1923, that Mrs. Stevens felt that she could not allow her name to be presented for renomination, as it would not be possible for her to continue her service as President of the Auxiliary.

When we look back over these past fifteen years and review the work accomplished by her, and by the Auxiliary under her guidance, we realize something of the magnitude of the task, and the Executive Committee feel they desire to give some expression of their appreciation of the value of her service, and of the beautiful spirit and manner in which it has been carried on. They have honored me by requesting me to voice for them this appreciation.

Surely we have reason to be proud of our President, whose graciousness, thoughtfulness and generosity have so endeared her to the women who month after month have met with her, have felt the influence of her presence, and have seen her devotion to the missionary work so dear to their own hearts.

Her readiness to give of her time and means, by frequent attendance at the conference meetings held at the Church Missions House in New York City, of the Woman's Auxiliary National Executive Board of which she was an elected member from October, 1919, to September, 1922, has brought the Michigan Branch into very intimate connection with the National Society.

In journeyings often, she has visited many of the Auxiliaries of the Diocese and has given inspiration and cheer in many ways, to struggling missions, as well as to Diocesan and General Conventions of the Church.

The reports of the Auxiliary give evidence of its advance in every department of its work, and we desire now to assure our retiring President of our affectionate regard, and of our grateful thanks for all that she has done in the accomplishment of this advance.

ABBIE M. SAUNDERS FRAZER.

Woman's Auxiliary, Diocese of Michigan,
Annual Meeting, May 8, 1923.

PINEY MOUNTAIN SCHOOL

The Anne E. Shipman Stevens Scholarship which was voted to establish, will for the present be sent to sustain work among the children of Piney Mountain School, near Wytheville, Virginia, Diocese of Southwestern Virginia, the Rt. Rev. Robert Carter Jett, Bishop of the Diocese. Contributions for this Scholarship are to be sent to the Michigan Auxiliary Domestic Treasurer.

AN APPRECIATION
ANNE E. SHIPMAN STEVENS

If the story is ever written of the part the women have played in the advancement of the Church's Mission in the Diocese of Michigan the pages will be adorned with the names of several who have been leaders in one field or another, but no name will stand out with more marked personality and with greater honor than that one whom we highly esteem and admire, Mrs. Frederic Beckwith Stevens.

Though associated most prominently with the Woman's Auxiliary, scarcely an organization in the Church but has felt her influence either as officer or benefactor or, more desirable than all, as a deeply interested friend. Beginning with the youngest groups—the Little Helpers and the former Junior Auxiliary, now the Church School Service League—up through the Episcopal Young Peoples' Association, the organization of which she sponsored most helpfully, and the Girls' Friendly Society, whose beautiful banner is her gift and where for so many years as Vice-President and Trustee her counsel has been most highly respected, on up through various woman's organizations, parochial, diocesan and national, none but have tangible evidence of her co-operation and loyal support, and even on out among our denominational friends her presence has brought honor to the Episcopal Church.

In addition, she has found time for many organizations outside the Church: literary, musical, philanthropic and patriotic. And if you should accompany her into that most beautiful of all dormitories at the University of Michigan, the Martha Cook, you would hear her acclaimed as "Fairy Godmother." So it might truly be said that she belongs to the women of Michigan. But we as churchwomen are not jealous, because we feel that her greatest interest is centered in the Church.

Her unusual executive ability, her poise, her quick insight, cause her presence in any organization, either in the executive chair or on the floor, to produce an atmosphere of confidence and assurance. For it is then felt that not only will the wisest decisions be made, but that every gracious act, whether great or small, will be remembered.

The speaker remembers hearing Mrs. Stevens tell of the fear and trepidation which she once experienced when she was suddenly forced from the honorary seclusion of her office as vice-president of an important organization to take up the executive duties of the higher office. We who know her now can hardly picture her in such a state of mind. But may not the reason for this be found in the fact that the importance of the organization or the cause with which she allies herself calls forth such enthusiastic and untiring championship that the consciousness of self is entirely lost in the greater issue.

It seems, however, that after passing on all the various qualities that make up the personality of Mrs. Stevens, none distinguished her quite so well as generosity: generosity of means, time, strength, interest, and, above all, appreciation, with such a beautiful spirit of modesty permeating all that no individual has knowledge of all her gifts and deeds of thoughtfulness, many of which have been given or performed in the name of some organization.

We, the churchwomen of Michigan, are happy, indeed, Mrs. Stevens, to have this opportunity of voicing in your presence, our high regard for you, that you may be assured that you are enshrined in our hearts as you will always be in the memories of this Diocese. Yours is a real Christian Stewardship.

This expression of our appreciation is prompted at this time because, after fifteen years of service, your recent retirement from the important office of President of the Michigan Branch of the Woman's Auxiliary has focused our attention upon all you have meant and still mean to Michigan. We earnestly pray that we may continue to have your love, friendship, advice and wise counsel for many years to come.

CLARA ROBINSON WILLIAMS.

(Mrs. Don D. Williams)

House of Churchwomen, Diocese of Michigan,
Annual Meeting, Detroit, May 16, 1923.

ANNUAL REPORT OF THE RECORDING SECRETARY

The forty-third annual meeting of the Woman's Auxiliary, in the Diocese of Michigan, being that for the year ending December 31, 1921, was held in Christ Church, Detroit, on Monday and Tuesday, May 1 and 2, 1922.

On Monday afternoon a business session was held, at which the annual reports of the officers and chairmen of committees were given.

Mrs. Margaret Alden spoke of the Industrial School for Girls at Adrian and Mrs. William H. Spicer told of the work being done at Williams House, Detroit.

Following the adjournment of this meeting, an informal reception was held in the Parish House.

On Tuesday morning at half past ten o'clock a Memorial Corporate Communion was celebrated by the Rev. William D. Maxon, D. D., rector. Preceding the Celebration, Dr. Maxon read the names of those members of the Woman's Auxiliary who had died during the year 1921. He also spoke in a wonderful way of the life and character of Miss Jessie Strathearn Hendrie, United Thank Offering Treasurer of the Diocesan Auxiliary, who entered into rest on April 27, 1922. Dr. Maxon then read a beautiful memorial to Miss Hendrie written by Mrs. Robert Frazer.

The adjourned session of the annual meeting was called to order at eleven-thirty o'clock. At this time the election of officers of the Auxiliary for 1922-1923 was held. Also the election of delegates and alternates to the meeting of the National Organization of the Woman's Auxiliary at the Triennial Convention of the Church at Portland, Ore., in September, 1922, took place at this time.

Luncheon was served in the Parish House at half past twelve by the ladies of Christ Church.

In the afternoon the Auxiliary listened to a talk given by a Chinese girl, a graduate of St. Mary's School, Shanghai, China, who was attending the University of Michigan at Ann Arbor. Following this address, the Rev. Joseph A. Ten Broeck, rector of Trinity Church, Detroit, spoke on "The Nation Wide Campaign: What It Had Done for the Church and What It Had Left Undone."

Eight meetings of the Executive Committee, eight monthly meetings, one special meeting and the annual meeting for 1921 were held during the year 1922.

A Lenten Quiet Morning, including a Corporate Communion and Meditations, given by the Rev. Andrew Gill, rector of St. Matthias' Church, Detroit, was held in St. Paul's Cathedral, Detroit, on March 13; an Advent Service of Prayer with a Celebration of the Holy Communion was held in St. John's Church, Detroit, on December 4, the Rev. Robert W. Woodroffe, rector of the church, officiating.

An interesting and instructive Mission Study Institute was held on January 27, 28 and 29 in St. Paul's Cathedral. The subject for study was "The World Field of The Survey." Miss Emily Tillotson, National Educational Secretary of the Woman's Auxiliary, was the speaker on Sunday afternoon, January 29, her subject being "God's Great Family."

From the 6th to the 24th of September the Triennial Convention of the Church was held in Portland, Oregon. At the same time a meeting of the National Organization of the Woman's Auxiliary was held. The Auxiliary in the Diocese of Michigan was represented by the following delegates: Mrs. Frederic B. Stevens, Miss Julia Fish, Miss Winnefred Granger, Mrs. Julius Schaad, of Bay City, and Mrs. Charles D. Williams. Mrs. Williams was an alternate, taking the place of Mrs. William H. Spicer, who was unable to go to Portland.

The Diocesan Auxiliary gave to the United Thank Offering presented at the Triennial Convention, $10,577.29. This amount was given as the Jessie S. Hendrie Memorial Thank Offering, a recommendation to this effect having been adopted at the annual meeting held on May 1 and 2, 1922.

Again the Auxiliary wishes to express to their President, Mrs. Frederic B. Stevens, their grateful appreciation of her unfailing interest and devotion to the welfare of this organization. It is largely due to Mrs. Stevens' faithfulness and generosity that the Woman's Auxiliary has been able to carry on its work.

On January 9, 1922, Miss Julia Chester Emery died at her home in Scarsdale, New York. Miss Emery was the General Secretary of the National Woman's Auxiliary at the Church Missions House, New York, for forty years, and her life was devoted to this work.

On April 27, 1922, Miss Jessie Strathearn Hendrie died in Detroit. Miss Hendrie was the United Thank Offering Treasurer of the Diocesan Auxiliary and was beloved by all its members.

Mrs. Charlotte F. Moeller Mason, a former President of this Auxiliary, entered into rest on May 12, 1922. Mrs. Mason was elected head of the Diocesan Auxiliary in 1895, serving in that capacity for two years.

We cherish the memory of these members of the Woman's Auxiliary and realize that their strong, unselfish and useful lives will serve as an enduring inspiration to all of us. May they rest in peace and may Light perpetual shine upon them.

Respectfully submitted,

WINNEFRED GRIFFITHS GRANGER,
Recording Secretary.

The Corresponding Secretary sends to the Northern and Southern Archdeaonries sufficient number of copies of the Year Book required to supply each branch with one copy. The branches in the Detroit Arch-deaconry receive their copy at the meetings.

Acting upon a recommendation made by the Executive Committee, it was decided that on account of increasingly high printing rates, ten cents was to be paid for all extra copies.

AUDITOR'S REPORT

Above report audited and found correct.

DUDLEY W. SMITH,

Auditor.

December 31, 1922.

Pray ye therefore the Lord of the harvest, that he will send forth laborers into his harvest.—S. Matt. 9:38.

PRAYER FOR THE UNITED THANK OFFERING

Adopted October, 1919.

O Lord, our heavenly Father, we pray thee to send forth more laborers into thy harvest, and to grant them thy special grace for every need. Guard and guide the workers in the field, and draw us into closer fellowship with them. Dispose the hearts of all women everywhere to give gladly as thou hast given to them. Accept, from grateful hearts, our United Thank Offering of prayer and gifts and joyful service; and bless it to the coming of thy Kingdom through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

RESOLUTION ON THE UNITED THANK OFFERING OF 1925

Adopted September, 1922.

Resolved: That the United Thank Offering of 1925 be given to the National Council for the work of women in the mission field whose appointment has been approved by the Executive Board of the Woman's Auxiliary, including the training, sending and support of women workers and the care of such workers when sick or disabled; Provided, that one-tenth of the Offering be set aside and added to the permanent trust fund to be invested and administered by the National Council, the income to be applied to the support of retired United Thank Offering workers; also Provided, that the sum of not less than $25,000.00 be devoted to the erection, completion, or renewal of a building or buildings approved by the National Council on the recommendation of the Executive Secretary of the Department of Missions and the Executive Board of the Woman's Auxiliary.

Resolved: That to our united gifts shall be added our united and earnest prayers that God will put it into the hearts of many faithful women to give of themselves or of their substance to the work of the Master in the Mission Field.

Resolved: That the box in which the United Thank Offering of the women of the Church is gathered be called and spoken of as "The Little Blue Box"; that this title be changed in literature, plays, etc., which now mention it as a "Mite Box."

Resolved: That instructions on "The Little Blue Box" regarding the opening of the boxes be changed to read as follows: "This box should be opened each Spring and Fall and the contents sent, through the Parish Custodian or Treasurer, to the Diocesan Officer for the United Thank Offering."

A gift of two plated silver Chalices and Paten was made by Trinity Church for the Supply Department, Altar Work.

Respectfully submitted,

HEBE HURD SPICER,

Diocesan Supply Secretary.

CARRIE MATHER BALLINGER JENKS,

December 31, 1922.

Assistant Secretary.

Owing to the illness of the Diocesan Supply Secretary, it has been found impossible to make a full report of the work for 1922. The above report is a partial one, compiled from monthly reports by the Assistant Secretary, Mrs. John H. Jenks. No financial report is given.

The allotment for the Diocese of Michigan is sent by the National Supply Secretary to the Diocesan Supply Secretary, to whom all requests concerning Box Work are to be sent by parish branches. Mrs. William H. Spicer, to whose splendid organizing ability we are deeply indebted for the inauguration in the diocese of the new plan for the Supply Department, which under her guidance has been so successful, owing to illness has been obliged to give up the work. Mrs. John H. Jenks, 111 Gladstone Avenue, Detroit, who has been assisting, is now the Michigan Diocesan Supply Secretary. All requests and correspondence are to be sent to Mrs. Jenks. For the Northern Archdeaconry, Miss Pauline Mer-shon, 431 North Franklin Street, Saginaw, and Mrs. Daniel L. Quirk, 304 North Huron Street, Ypsilanti, for the Southern Archdeaconry, will again direct the work in their respective fields. Their efforts and interest are shown in their fine reports.

REPORT OF THE CHURCH PERIODICAL CLUB

January 1, 1922, to December 31, 1922.

For the past three years the Church Periodical Club has concentrated its efforts upon the equipment of St. Paul's College Library, Tokio, Japan, and with remarkable success. Fifteen thousand dollars was the sum asked for, and over seventeen thousand was raised.

Had not this goal been reached the college would not have become a university, as the equipment of the Library was one of the requisites demanded by the Japanese government.

To this amount Michigan contributed five hundred dollars, of which twenty-five was given by the Episcopal Young People's Association, and over one hundred and eighty by the Church School Service League. The remainder was given by various organizations and individuals.

A bookplate, with the seal of the college, was placed in each volume. Many of these books were memorial gifts.

In addition to the five hundred and seventy dollars, this diocese gave ten dollars to the set of books on American History, which was given by the National Church Periodical Club in memory of Miss Julia C. Emery.

The plan of the Club for the next three years is to spread its effort over several institutions where libraries are needed rather than to concentrate on one. However, Michigan will work for the equipment of a Medical Library at St. Luke's International Hospital in Japan, which was one of the objects chosen. While it is the work of the Church Periodical Club to assemble these books, we look to the various organizations and individuals for gifts to this object, and hope that we may meet with the same generous response which was given to our appeal for St. Paul's Library.

The past year eighteen institutions in the Diocese have been aided by the Club, and in this way we are endeavoring to co-operate with the Social Service Department of the Diocese.

Four hundred and twenty-five current numbers of periodicals have been sent regularly to some given address. Over twelve hundred books and eight thousand Christmas and Easter cards, also pictures, games, music and victrola records to all parts of this country and to foreign lands.

The Club has been saddened by the death of two faithful librarians, that of Mrs. Mary A. Harvey, St. Paul's Church, Jackson, March 24, 1922, and that of Miss Lucie B. Calvert, St. John's Church, Detroit. Miss Calvert was librarian for over seven years and her interest and love for the work was shown by a bequest of one hundred dollars to the Endowment Fund of the National organization.

During the year the librarians have held four meetings. Too much praise cannot be given these librarians for their splendid work, especially in procuring gifts for St. Paul's College Library.

We wish to express our appreciation and thanks to our President, Mrs. Frederic B. Stevens, for her ever kind and generous interest in the Club. We wish that we might personally thank each individual and organization that has contributed to the work. We thank you one and all.

REPORTS OF VICE PRESIDENTS

DETROIT ARCHDEACONRY

The office of Vice President of Detroit Archdeaconry, in which I have served from 1907 to 1923, has been a great privilege. Now that I am removing from Detroit, while many valued associations in Christian work will be changed here, yet opportunities will be presented in other fields under different conditions—to which may be brought the experience gained in the work we have been doing in Michigan. Sixteen years in retrospect seems but a short time, but how many changes have come! The Triennial Meeting of the Woman's Auxiliary held in Richmond in 1907 was the first time I was honored by election as delegate. Then followed the 1910 Triennial in Cincinnati, when Michigan was honored by having our Diocesan president, Mrs. Stevens, elected as presiding officer for the business sessions of the Auxiliary. In 1913, in New York; 1916, in St. Louis; 1919, in Detroit, it was through your kindness that I was elected as one of the Auxiliary representatives.

More highly valued even than these evidences of confidence has been the association with the women in the parishes in carrying out the plans made for enlarging the work and in spreading the Gospel message through a spirit of self-sacrificing service.

I wish to thank you all for your support and Christian fellowship, and pray that God's blessing will rest upon the work and the workers.

ALICE BLODGETT CRAIG.

May, 8, 1923.

Vice-President, Detroit Archdeaconry.
May 1907-May 8, 1923.

SOUTHERN ARCHDEACONRY

The opportunities for visiting throughout the Southern Archdeaconry have not been frequent this year, but have been accepted whenever an invitation has been received.

Year Books and pamphlets have been mailed to all branches, and numerous letters written.

A much greater interest has been shown in the Ann Arbor branch, due to the establishment of the Church Service League.

A fine Easter box was sent from this branch, and a very good program was presented for the year's work.

The interest in the work of the Educational Secretary has increased greatly, and there is now a well established association of workers from Ypsilanti and Ann Arbor.

We feel sure that the work of the Auxiliary is growing and that the future holds great things for us, but we must, each and every one, do a share.

Respectfully submitted,

ANNIE CONDON,

Vice President, Southern Archdeaconry.

December 31, 1922.

NORTHERN ARCHDEACONRY

The Vice President of the Northern Archdeaconry having filled the office only since the first of December, 1922, has done little, except getting acquainted in a very small way, with the work and some of the nearby parishes.

Year Books and personal letters to the presidents of the several branches of the Woman's Auxiliary in the Northern Archdeaconry have been sent, and thirty-three other copies of the Year Book have been disposed of. Thirty-five letters have been received and thirty-seven letters written.

On the morning of March fifteenth, 1923, a Quiet Hour for the women of the Northern Archdeaconry was held in Calvary Memorial Church, Saginaw, conducted by the Rev. Kerwood Alexander, of Christ Church, Flint.

The service was most impressive, and the sermon, especially prepared for the women of the Auxiliary, was much appreciated by all who heard it.

On May first a conference with the rector of Trinity Church, Alpena, was held, looking forward to the re-establishing of an active branch of the Woman's Auxiliary in that parish.

It is hoped that during the coming year your Vice President in the Northern Archdeaconry may be allowed to be of service, particularly to the parishes in the more isolated parts of the Archdeaconry, where it is not easy for the women of the Church to come in contact with the well organized branches of the Woman's Auxiliary.

Respectfully submitted,

HATTIE S. APPELBE,

Vice President, Northern Archdeaconry.

THE ELIZABETH FISKE LOCKE STEVENS
DIOCESAN MEMORIAL LIBRARY

During the year the following books have been given to the library:

From Mr. George H. Stevens, "Races and Immigrants in America," John R. Commons; "America, via the Neighborhood," John Daniels; "Immigrant and Community," Grace Abbott; "New Homes for Old," Saphronisba P. Breckenridge; "Old World Traits Transplanted," Herbert A. Miller; "Jesus Christ and the World Today," Grace Hutchins and Anna Rochester; "Grammar of Belief," Charles Lemuel Dibble; "The Trend of the Races," George E. Haynes; "The Rising Tide of Color," Lothrop Stoddard.

From Miss Winifred G. Granger, "The Kingdom and the Nations," Eric M. North; "From Survey to Service," H. Paul Douglass, and "The Spirit of Missions" for 1922, which has been bound.

From our President, Mrs. Frederic B. Stevens, a flat top oak desk and chair, which add greatly to the appearance of the room as well as the convenience of the librarian, and those who consult the books.

This library is in the alcove of the hall on the second floor of St. John's Parish Building and it is much desired that the books have a large circulation.

Respectfully submitted,

DELIA WARRINER,

Diocesan Librarian.

REPORT OF EDUCATIONAL COMMITTEE.

Education each year becomes so much more vital a thing and the missionary enterprise so tremendous an undertaking that any reported achievement seems most meager in contrast. Nevertheless the educational program of the Woman's Auxiliary grows steadily each year in importance and reaches an ever increasing number of women.

Our women are reached through two main channels:

1. The many, through the study of the text books leading to service to their fellows.
2. Through consecrated leadership.

Considering the second group first, I cannot speak highly enough of the leaders, who have given their time and their skill and their strength to the leadership of one group. There are some who are trained leaders. It is a great pleasure and satisfaction to find how many Episcopalsians have become trained and are selected for leadership in civic and social groups of many types. More and more of these leaders are devoting this training to the work for the Church. But many leaders, by far the greater majority, are women, who for the sake of the Kingdom are forgetting themselves and their own supposed experiences and are letting the Holy Spirit speak through them, that the work of the Church may be carried through the world. We need many such leaders. Our large groups often need to be broken into smaller groups that the study of the text books may be more intensive, the business of the Church's mission seem more imperative, and the responsibility for the carrying forward of our Lord's Kingdom an intensely personal and individual enterprise, as well as a glorious co-operation movement of a great body.

No finer tribute to the devotion and consecration of these leaders could be shown than that beautiful Communion Service recently held at St. Andrew's Church with the Chairman of the Board of Religious Education, the Rev. William L. Torrance, as Celebrant, and the Conference following, when twenty-five leaders and educational secretaries told of their experiences during the Lenten Study just completed.

We have in this Diocese two opportunities for the training of leaders, the annual January Institute and the Diocesan Summer Conference, to be held this year from July 5 to 12, at Hillsdale, Mich.

The first group, that greater body of women, who through study are becoming more intelligent about the Church's mission and are taking to heart the deficit of the general Church, which means curtailment of the Missionary Work on the field, are making their study practical through the carrying out of enterprises suggested in and by the class. Almost every class reported, as the result of their study this year, service to the immigrant or the negro at home or abroad.

Every parish is urged to have an Educational Secretary. Every parish is urged to have one or more leaders attend the January Institute and the Summer Conference. If we expect to draw leaders from other parishes, we must furnish leaders for other parishes.

The report of the Educational Committee for January, 1922, to December 31, 1922, shows twenty classes held, with an attendance of two hundred and ninety-six in the Woman's Auxiliary. In the Episcopal Young People's Association four classes were held, with an attendance of fifty-five young people.

There were thirty churches reporting program meetings.

The subjects studied were The Survey, The Task of the Church, General Missions, The Alaska Mission, and Bible Study.

The Mission Study Institute was held in January, 1922, preceding the semi-annual all-day meeting of the Auxiliary and was under the leadership of Mrs. W. A. Atkinson, Educational Secretary. The subject studied was the second half of The Survey. Miss Emily Tillotson, National Educational Secretary of the Woman's Auxiliary, spoke at the all-day meeting.

At the Summer Conference held at Hillsdale, Mich., Mr. E. E. Piper had a class on the discussion method.

Respectfully submitted,

ELIZABETH S. THOMAS,
Diocesan Educational Secretary.

December 31, 1922.

REPORT OF PROGRAM COMMITTEE

January 1, 1922 to May 8, 1923.

The chairman of a program committee lives continually in the past, present and future, for, while she may be breathing contentedly or otherwise over past developments with an anxious eye turned toward the future, she must keep her mind active on the present. The compiling of a program is but one-third of the committee's responsibility—the more difficult and important task lies in its fulfillment, and happy indeed is the program committee who can feel that the year's program has developed the ideas which were conceived in the beginning.

It was the idea of this committee to present the Task of the Church, not as the book of that title had done, but rather using the latter as an outline. Using the General Convention of 1922 as an opportunity of setting before us how the Church was considering its task, we had presented to us the activities of the House of Deputies, the Woman's Auxiliary and the Church Service League. From that point we considered the Task of the Church in several of its branches, following this with a presentation of our responsibility and the sources of power needed to accomplish the task, and ending with some of the practical results, especially in this Diocese.

The program committee, like all other organizations of the Diocese, experienced a tremendous loss in the death of Bishop Williams. Though the Auxiliary was very dear to the heart of our Bishop, there was one point upon which they could not agree and that was the Quiet Morning service. This year, as always, he maintained that he was "no good at Quiet Mornings," while we of the Auxiliary always insisted that no one filled us with more hope, zeal and inspiration. So with reluctance he consented. But less than three weeks before that time he had left us, and we were forced to receive our inspiration not from his lips, but from his life and works, which have been immortalized in this Diocese.

Again we had asked him to come, as last year, to the business meeting, before the annual meeting, in order that he might add the final word to the year's program by telling us the results of the Forward Movement. But that was not to be. The speaker who came in his place, who will be mentioned below, pointed out that the Forward Movement began when Bishop Williams was consecrated in 1906, and we of the Diocese must continue it as the most appreciative memorial we could create.

The first Corporate Communion of the year was held, as usual, on St. Matthew's Day, September 21, 1922, in St. John's Church, Detroit,—the rector, Rev. Robert W. Woodroffe, officiating.

As an unexpected opportunity developed of learning of the Church's Task in Missions, a special meeting of the Auxiliary was called to hear the Rt. Rev. Logan H. Roots, Bishop of Hankow, China, who told us of the new outlook and vision of the people of China and our responsibility in helping them fulfill it.

At the first regular meeting of the year, held in St. John's Church, Royal Oak, October 30, Mr. R. McClelland Brady told us of the activities of the House of Deputies, while our President, Mrs. Stevens, told us, altogether too briefly, her "Personal Impressions of the Convention" as a whole.

On May 27th in the Church of the Ascension, continuing the subject of the Convention, Mrs. Julius A. Schaad told of the activities of the Woman's Auxiliary meetings, while Mrs. James H. McDonald told us the latest news of the Church Service League.

On December 4th we had a special Advent Service of Prayer in St. John's Church, conducted by the Rector.

Again resuming our topic, on December 18th in St. Philip's and St. Stephen's Church, the Rev. Harry C. Robinson presented a world-wide survey of the Task of the Church in Religious Education. As a concrete illustration of one form of Religious Education, the Church School Service League of St. Philip's and St. Stephen's Church presented a Christmas play—"The Child's Christmas Dream"—under the direction of Miss Phyllis Loughton and Miss Dorothy Heuff.

On January 26, 27 and 28, 1923, the annual Institute for Mission Study intervened, followed by the all-day semi-annual meeting in Trinity Church. The program was divided into two parts. First we considered the Woman's Part in the Task of the Church, Mrs. William L. Torrance and Mrs. Charles D. Williams being the speakers. In the second part the Rev. Allen M. McEvoy spoke upon the Task of the Church in the Diocese, with particular emphasis upon the rural district where he had had considerable experience. This part of the program brought forth a lively discussion.

At the meeting in Epiphany Church on February 26th, the Rev. Robert W. Woodroffe of St. John's Church, gave a most helpful talk upon Christian Stewardship. He pointed out that the task of the church is world-wide and is our responsibility.

The Quiet Morning set for March 5th, as mentioned, above, was changed into a Memorial Service for Bishop Williams, held in St. Paul's Cathedral. Those taking part were Archdeacons Widdifield and Ramsay, who read the Epistle and Gospel, the Rev. John Munday, of Grace Church, Port Huron; the Rev. William L. Torrance, of St. Andrew's Memorial Church, Detroit, and Dean Warren L. Rogers of the Cathedral, who each gave a short address upon the characteristics of Bishop Williams. Of these the most prominent mentioned were his greatness, which was hidden in his simplicity, his friendliness, courage, faith and vision. A splendid testimonial from the Auxiliary, written by Mrs. Robert E. Frazer was read by Dean Rogers.

On March 13th an extra meeting was called to hear Deaconess Harriet Bedell, who is working in an Indian school in Stevens Village, Alaska.

The main topic of the program was resumed on March 19th, in St. Peter's Church, when the Rev. Andrew S. Gill of St. Matthias' Church told us what he thought were the principal Sources of Power by which, having considered the task and the responsibility of our stewardship, we could accomplish the task. These are study, prayer and the Holy Communion, the latter being, he said, the greatest act of prayer.

At the business meeting in preparation for the annual meeting when we had expected Bishop Williams to tell us of the Progress of the Church's Mission, Mr. Charles O. Ford spoke to us. He told us that although the financial part of the Forward Movement had fallen far short of the requirements there were many evidences of spiritual development which, from Bishop Williams' point of view, was more important, for his was the idea of service rather than finances. He worked continually on one basis—Christian Fellowship.

It was from the suggestion of this talk that the program for the annual meeting was arranged. It seemed fitting at such a time that we should dwell upon that which was the keynote of all Bishop Williams said and did. So those who have had actual experience in the field of which they speak will present to us the Opportunities for Christian Fellowship in the Five Fields of Service as follows:

Mrs. Charles E. Edinger will tell of an experiment to promote the spirit of Christian Fellowship in the Parish.

Mr. Wayland D. Stearns will speak of the opportunities for Christian Fellowship in the Community, using his experience as Diocesan Superintendent of Social Service.

Miss Clara Wolbert, Superintendent of Williams House, will tell how Williams House is an expression of Christian Fellowship on the part of the Diocese.

Mrs. Henry J. Nicol, at one time connected with St. Barnabas' Mission, Wytheville, Virginia, will point out the need for Christian Fellowship toward those of our nation—the Mountaineer.

Mrs. H. J. Maxwell Grylls, using her own slides, will tell of the opportunity in the world, taking Japan as an example.

Again the chairmen of the Program and Publicity Committee wish to acknowledge their indebtedness to Mr. Irwin C. Johnson for his splendid articles in the local and church papers.

We cannot close this report without a personal tribute to our beloved President, Mrs. Frederic B. Stevens, who has always been so helpful and generous in her co-operation with this committee. To have had an opportunity to be associated with her has been deemed not only a rare privilege but also an education.

Respectfully submitted,

CLARA ROBINSON WILLIAMS,
Chairman of Program Committee.

SARAH DUNNICA STEWART, Publicity Chairman.

RECOMMENDATIONS

At the annual meeting held on May 2 and 3, 1921, the following recommendation was adopted:

"The Executive Committee recommends to the Diocesan Auxiliary that for the next three years, 1921-1923, the income from the Rufus W. Clark Memorial Fund (about $100.00 a year) be sent to the Rt. Rev. Walter H. Overs, Ph. D., Bishop of Liberia, to be used for the aid of young men in his Diocese, who are studying for the ministry."

At the annual meeting held on May 1 and 2, 1922, the following recommendation was unanimously adopted:

"The Executive Committee recommends to the Diocesan Auxiliary that the United Thank Offering for 1922 be called the Jessie Strathearn Hendrie Memorial United Thank Offering, in memory of Miss Hendrie, the United Thank Offering Treasurer in the Diocese of Michigan, October, 1914-1922, who died on April 27, 1922."

SPECIAL FUND OF $75,000 FOR 1925

At the triennial meeting of the Woman's Auxiliary held in Portland, Oregon, September, 1922, it was voted that a special fund be raised during the next three years, "At least $65,000 for the purpose of establishing in the City of New York a house to be used by Missionaries on furlough who may wish to study during their months at home and for Missionaries in training who desire to take special courses in subjects which the schools and colleges in New York offer."

In addition $10,000 to be raised for the establishment of a training school for colored deaconesses and Church workers at Saint Augustine's Raleigh, N. C. Announcement concerning the raising of this fund in the Diocesan Auxiliary will be sent to all Parish branches.

IN MEMORIAM
MISS JESSIE STRATHEARN HENDRIE

April 27, 1922

It having pleased an All-wise Father to call home to Himself the spirit of our beloved friend and co-worker, Miss Jessie Strathearn Hendrie, the Diocesan Branch of the Woman's Auxiliary desires to place on record an expression of the deep and sincere appreciation felt by every member of that organization, of the life of devoted service which Miss Hendrie has rendered to the Auxiliary and to the Church.

Having been deeply interested in the Missionary work undertaken by the Church, and hearing of the need of help among the children in the Philippines, Miss Hendrie voluntarily gave her services at the school which had been established in Manila, under the name of the House of the Holy Child.

Going to Manila in November, 1910, she remained there for a year, caring for, and winning the love of all its inmates by her graciousness and sweetness of manner, and her labors in their behalf.

After her return to Detroit, she continued her interest in the Mission of the Church, and on the first of October, 1914, was appointed Treasurer of the United Thank Offering of the Diocesan Branch. In the more than seven years during which she has served the Auxiliary in that office she has most devotedly and successfully performed the duties which it entailed. Her deep sympathy with all for which that offering stands, and the objects to which it is to be devoted, rendered her most earnest and successful in her appeals to the women of the Church.

To those who heard her report read at the Diocesan meeting, held on the 24th of April, the news that she had passed away on the 27th of the month, came as a shock from which it has been hard to recover, and we can only say,

"For all the saints, who from their labours rest,
Who Thee by faith before the world confessed,
Thy Name, O Jesus, be forever blessed, Alleluia."

and pray that when our summons comes, we, also, may be ready.

May 2, 1922.

IN MEMORIAM
MRS. CHARLOTTE F. MOELLER MASON

May 12, 1922

How grateful to the sad and weary heart, is the assurance in God's holy word that "There remaineth a rest for the people of God."

One after another the Almighty Father is calling His dear ones, to leave this present world and enter into this rest. Such a call came to Mrs. Charlotte F. Moeller Mason, on the 12th of May, 1922, and quietly and peacefully her spirit took its flight to join the blest companionship of saints above, for which her life on earth had been a fitting preparation.

Mrs. Mason had become a communicant of St. Paul's Church in 1870, and being much interested in all the activities of the parish, she was one of the earliest and most active members of the Woman's Auxiliary to the Board of Missions in this diocese. For several years she was a member of the Executive Committee, having a special interest in the Box Work and Mexican Missions.

In 1895 she was elected President of St. Paul's Parish Branch and for ten years thereafter served the Auxiliary in that capacity with marked efficiency and devotion. During her incumbency the first mite boxes, for the collection of contributions for the United Offering, were distributed among the members of the Auxiliary.

A Mission Study Class was regularly organized and it proved so interesting and profitable that it was continued as a permanent feature of the regular meetings.

Because of the fact that Mrs. Mason's daughter, Charlotte Mason Littell, had given her life to the missionary work of the Church, and was stationed at Hankow, China, her parish branch of the Auxiliary, was kept very closely in touch with the work there.

In October, 1905, Mrs. Mason resigned the office she had been so ably filling in St. Paul's Branch of the Auxiliary, as she had been elected President of the Diocesan Branch, and felt that it would be impossible to perform the duties incident to both positions.

From October, 1905, until October, 1907, she presided over the work of the Diocesan Branch, her service being memorable as advance and changes were taking place in the Mission work of the general Church, and with characteristic zeal and fidelity she entered into every effort of the Auxiliary, to increase its efficiency in the work it had in charge.

But in September, 1907, the Auxiliary heard with deep regret, that on account of severe illness Mrs. Mason was obliged to resign her office as President.

She had won the love and esteem of all her associates in the work, by the force and beauty of her character and the charm of her personality and it was hard to give her up. From that time on her life was one of suffering, with intervals of relief. When occasionally she was able to attend the services of the Church, or some special meeting, her presence was always greeted with affectionate welcome.

And so surrounded and cheered by her loving family and friends, with an undying interest in the Church she so greatly loved, with steadfast faith and a sure hope, she passed the time of her sojourning here until at last she fell asleep.

"Asleep in Jesus, blessed sleep,
From which none ever wake to weep,
A calm and undisturbed repose,
Unbroken by the last of foes."

October 30, 1922.

Abbie M. Saunders Frazer.

RECOMMENDATION

Adopted unanimously at monthly meeting, October 30, 1922.

The Executive Committee recommends to the Diocesan Auxiliary that a fund be raised in memory of Mrs. Charlotte F. Moeller Mason, President of the Woman's Auxiliary, Diocese of Michigan, October, 1905, to October, 1907, and that the income from the invested amount be given to some school or object designated by St. Paul's Cathedral Branch of the Auxiliary, of which Mrs. Mason was President for ten years.

IN MEMORIAM

RT. REV. CHARLES DAVID WILLIAMS, D. D.,

Bishop of Michigan, 1906-1923

Died Ash Wednesday, February 14, 1923

"I heard a voice from heaven saying unto me,
Blessed are the dead, who die in the Lord,
Even so, saith the Spirit, for they rest from their labors and their works do follow them."

At a Diocesan convention held in Christ Church, Detroit, in 1905, the Rev. Charles David Williams, D. D., of Cleveland, Ohio, was elected Bishop of the Diocese of Michigan.

Subsequent to the election, but prior to his entering upon the duties of the office, at a gathering of prominent and representative men of this city, the Rev. Dr. Rufus W. Clark, of sainted memory, spoke of the coming Bishop as follows: "I feel that in the coming of Dr. Williams we have an event in which we can feel unqualified pride. He is a notable example of Christian manhood. He is a man of righteous and strong convictions. Under his guidance, as he is led of God, the work of the Diocese will take on new life."

On Ash Wednesday, February 28, 1906, Bishop Williams preached his first sermon in St. Paul's Church. On Ash Wednesday, February 14, 1923 suddenly his work on earth was laid down and his spirit took its flight to realms above.

To the very last he had been engaged in plans for the prosecution of his work and the news of his death came as a shock to the entire community. On Sunday, February 18, throughout the city, from pulpits of all denominations, words of praise and appreciation of his life and character and the work which he had accomplished during his seventeen years among us, bore witness to the truth of the prophecy uttered by Dr. Clark.

His life had been one of service marked by courage, sincerity and devotion. Seldom has there been such a demonstration of affectionate interest, of deep sympathy and sincere grief, as that which marked the last rites to the beloved Bishop.

To the Woman's Auxiliary of the Diocese, the news of his death came fraught with a sense of personal loss. He had from the first been very near to us in our work, inspiring us to greater zeal and devotion. We knew how his heart yearned over the needs, the suffering and the irreligion which prevailed and how ardently he strove to arouse in others a desire to aid in bringing in the Kingdom of Christ to the world.

He told us from time to time of specific needs, and of the help we could render him. The pathos of his words mingled at times with humorous touches, as he told of existing conditions, still lingers in our memories. Among these memories are those of Quiet Mornings spent in this Church, when he led us in prayers and meditations of deep spiritual significance.

To such a service which had been planned for today, to be held in this place with him to lead us, as before, we had been looking forward with earnest anticipation, but our Heavenly Father has otherwise ordered, and we bow in submission to His will.

Let us read and take into our hearts the New Year's message, sent out by our Bishop, concluding with this blessing:

"May the God of hope fill you with all joy and peace in believing that ye may abound in hope, through the power of the Holy Ghost."

March 5, 1923.

MEMORIAL TO THE
RIGHT REVEREND DANIEL SYLVESTER TUTTLE, D. D.
Bishop of Missouri
Presiding Bishop of the Church
1903-1923
Died April 17, 1923

"For all the saints, who from their labors rest,
Who Thee by faith before the world confessed,
Thy Name, O Jesus, be forever blessed, Alleluia."

This was the hymn, a hymn of triumph, rather than of mourning, which was sung by thousands, who were gathered in Christ Church Cathedral, in St. Louis, on the afternoon of Friday, April 20, 1923, to attend the funeral of the Right Reverend Daniel Sylvester Tuttle, the Bishop of the Diocese of Missouri, and the Presiding Bishop of the Protestant Episcopal Church in our country.

From far and near had come messages of sympathy and memorial gifts of flowers and in the procession which followed the casket containing the body of the beloved Bishop, who had passed to his eternal rest, were twenty Bishops and some forty Clergymen, in addition to the large choir of men and boys and other friends and mourners.

Bishop Tuttle was the oldest Bishop in the Church, in point of consecration, and for twenty years had been known as the Presiding Bishop. At the General Convention of the Church, held in New York in 1866, he had been elected Missionary Bishop of Montana, with jurisdiction in Utah and Idaho.

At the time of his election he was rector of the parish church in Morristown, New York, having served in that capacity for the four years, which had elapsed since his graduation from the seminary, and his ordination as Deacon on the 29th of June, 1862.

The news of his election to this high office was brought to him by two of his classmates, but he could not believe that they were in earnest, until it was confirmed by Bishop Potter and Bishop Lay who came as the committee from the House of Bishops to inform him of the fact. "But," was his reply, "that cannot be, for I am only twenty-nine years old."

After due consultation they told him that he could not be consecrated until he had attained the mature age of thirty years, yet that would not affect the election. So he was advised to return to his parish and continue his work there until he had passed his birthday. This he did, remaining there for nearly seven months, and on the 1st of May, 1867, he was consecrated Bishop of Montana.

On the Monday before he had bidden good-bye to his dear country parish, where, as he says in his reminiscences, he had "enjoyed peace, rest, love and happiness," and he asks, "Was it any wonder that it was in sorrow that I turned away and yet I knew and felt the truth of Keble's words, and with God's help was honestly walking on the way to prove them."

"Think not of rest, though dreams be sweet,
Start up and ply your heavenward feet,
Is not God's oath upon your head,
Ne'er to sink back on slothful bed?
Never again your loins untie,
Nor let your torches waste and die,
Till when the shadows thickest fall,
You hear your Master's midnight call."

And now came the beginning of the work to which he had devoted himself at his consecration. This involved the pain of a long separation from his young wife and infant son. There were days and weeks of travel, passing through tribes of hostile Indians in a disturbed section of the country, and in the aftermath of the Civil War. Many roads were so dangerous to the traveler that he carried his pistol in his hand.

The immensity of the field over which he was to exercise Episcopal supervision must have seemed terrifying to one who had never before been west of New York State, but our Bishop was indeed a man in every sense of the word, and especially a man of God, bent on a mission which he felt was given him by God.

The field comprised some 340,000 miles, with a population of about 155,000 inhabitants and over this jurisdiction he presided for about fourteen years, when Montana became a separate district and was placed under the charge of Bishop Brewer.

Bishop Tuttle continued to care for Utah and Idaho, until 1886, when he accepted a call to become Bishop of Missouri, where he spent the remaining years of his life of eighty-six years, fifty-seven of them having been spent in active service as a Bishop of the Church.

This record marks a unique experience, as it is far longer than that of any Bishop, now living, in any communion. One can scarcely think of the Church with which he has so long been identified, without thinking of him as he has been and recalling some of the outstanding characteristics which gave him such a hold upon all who came within his influence.

The combination of his Apostolic simplicity, his evangelical fervor, his unique personality and his loving compassion, is so impressed upon the hearts and minds of all who knew him that it cannot be erased. As Bishop Johnson of Missouri so beautifully writes of him: "One thinks of Bishop Tuttle's life in its three-fold aspect. First, as the heroic Missionary Bishop who was sent out to shepherd the untamed West, and who adapted himself to the task in such a fashion as to win the enthusiastic affection of those who knew him in those stormy days. Then, as the Presiding Bishop equally apt in addressing a group of children or adding dignity to the consecration of a Bishop. And thirdly, as he carried with him the dignity of his office, which none cared to question, as well as the simplicity of manner which none feared to approach.

No one doubted that he was a man and a most unusual man. He seemed to have that quality which our Lord described as salt, which, in him, never lost its savor. His presence was a benediction."

It is said of him that at the Portland convention he was alert, vigorous, and hardy and as up-to-date and progressive as the youngest prelate in the Church. He was the Celebrant at the great United Thank Offering service held on the 7th of September, 1922, and I think the women of the Church must all have read the Bishop's statement regarding it as it appears in the October number of the "Spirit of Missions."

May we not give thanks for the wonderful grace and virtue declared in this special servant of God, whose life and ministry we have been privileged to behold.

REPORT OF THE LITTLE HELPERS

January 1, 1922 to December 31, 1922.

The year has ended and with it a knowledge that God has been with us and blessed the work among His Little Helpers. The branches have borne much fruit. We rejoice that one of our old branches has been revived and that our new ones are showing evidence of increasing growth. If you will look at our gifts you will find that we have obeyed the command of the Master, "To go out into all the world." That is where our love, our prayers and our gifts have gone.

The leaders of the Little Helpers in their own Parishes have given generously of their time and ability to promote this work and the results are noticeable. See the beautiful service in Trinity Parish, seventy Little Helpers led by the flag bearer and a small vested choir of boys who were or had been Little Helpers, came singing "Onward Christian Soldiers." The Rector conducted the service of praise and thanksgiving; very pretty and touching was the sight of the little ones standing when their gifts were presented to God and then to bow their heads while they listened to the beautiful memorial prayer and to the names of their little companions who had laid down the cross and were with the Good Shepherd amid the green pastures of Paradise. After the service a story was told of a little Chinese girl. Then seated at prettily decorated tables, ice cream and cake were bountifully served. This is a picture of many of the annual meetings of this Diocese.

Among the leaders who have done splendid work are Mrs. Manglesdorf of Trinity Church, Miss Girling of St. Joseph's, Mrs. Wilkinson of St. Stephen's and St. Phillip's, Detroit; Mrs. A. S. McClenahan of St. Stephen's, Wyandotte; Mrs. A. T. Brennan of Grace Church, Mt. Clemens.

Is the work among Christ's little ones sentimental? This question is sometimes asked of us. No, a thousand times no. It is the greatest work of all, because, without a sure and firm foundation any structure will fall. When the great message of Jesus Christ is woven into the warp and woof of these young lives, we have Christ's own promise that we cannot fail. We can build on the rock a structure that will stand for all time, if we do it in His spirit. The work of a leader of the Little Helpers is no easy or thoughtless task, but one of love, unfailing hope, and abiding faith in the Great Leader. The leaders of the Little Helpers are going forth in the name of Him who loved all little children to greater and more consecrated service. Pray for them that they may bring many little ones to Christ that He may bless them.

Some years ago we noticed at one of our annual meetings a little boy who seemed very interested in the missionary story; each year we looked for those bright eyes and smiling face, and we found them. He always took up the offerings. Then one time he was not there. We asked the reason why and were told, "he is in high school and is taller than you." My Little Helper had grown up and was too old to be a member, but did he lose his interest, no indeed. His little sister was a member and he often asked questions about the work. Greetings were sent him at each annual meeting, even when he was a dignified Senior at the University. A short time ago a message came over the phone: "Archer has passed on." Our hearts were saddened. The day was darkened and we wondered at the Providence which called one apparently in the beginning of a career of great usefulness and at the time he was so much needed. Yet we are assured there has been no waste. God knows best when a life has accomplished its mission and when that life is needed for higher and nobler service in the land beyond. Archer Davis would have graduated from the University of Michigan next month. As Archer was laid away there was placed on his casket, amid a profusion of floral emblems, the little tribute of flowers which is sent to each Little Helper who has entered into the Paradise of God.

"Sometimes, long after the sun has set,
As we watch at the close of day,
The sky is bright with a rosy light
Mid the evening shadows gray.

Long after a beautiful life has gone
To that fairer world on high,
Our lives are bright with its lingering light,
For a true life cannot die."

Since sending our last contribution to the Mary E. Hart Memorial Fund, we learn that the Little Helpers have completed their united gift of $5,000.00 for the Church at San Juan Mission, Farmington, New Mexico, and had nearly $200.00 extra, which Bishop Howden wrote would be set aside for an altar. The Little Helpers of Michigan have received a letter of grateful appreciation from Mrs. Effie Potter, of Buffalo, N. Y., chairman of the Mary E. Hart Memorial Fund, thanking them for their great interest and generous gifts in memory of a most consecrated and devoted Church woman whose life was fragrant with good deeds to her Master and to all His Little Helpers. This memorial is made of stone, but it will be a living one because many of God's future workers will be brought to this font to be made members of Christ, children of God and inheritors of the Kingdom of Heaven.

Then, later, at this altar, to receive at the hands of their Bishop, the seven-fold gift of the Holy Spirit, in Confirmation. Afterwards to partake of the body and blood of Christ to strengthen and refresh their souls and bodies, that they may be able to fight under Christ's banner the world, the flesh and the devil and to continue Christ's faithful soldiers and servants unto their lives' end. Again they will come to be married; and after life's joys and sorrows have ended and God has called them home, all that is mortal of them will be brought again to receive the blessing and benediction of the Church.

The Little Helpers are profoundly thankful that they have been permitted to have a share and to testify their love to the glory of God and in loving remembrance of Mary E. Hart, in such a beautiful gift and they wish to thank their mother, the Woman's Auxiliary of Michigan, for their gifts to this memorial, given in the name of the Little Helpers.

Respectfully submitted,

LILLIAN FRANCES ARMSTRONG,

Head of the Little Helpers.

REPORT OF DIRECTOR
CHURCH SCHOOL SERVICE LEAGUE, 1922

The Church School Service League followed the plan adopted last year, of holding a conference, each month, on the date of the Detroit Normal School for Teacher Training, held at St. Paul's Cathedral on the third Tuesday of the month.

At these meetings all C. S. S. L. problems were discussed and the work for each block was outlined by each of the field secretaries in turn.

Great interest was shown in the five fields, in fact the two hours given to the conferences did not seem nearly long enough to discuss the ways and means of working in them, and planning the amount of work that could be done, and each secretary vied with the others in the attractive ways in which she presented the work of her field and the way in which she wished the branches to take part in it. The leaders were equally keen in the interest they showed in pledging the amount they were willing to do.

In addition to the conferences a letter was sent out at the beginning of each block, explaining the work of the blocks and telling the leaders what help was needed.

The diocesan director of the C. S. S. L. has visited the branch at Ferndale; spoken to the teachers and pupils at the Roseville Mission Sunday School, and explained the C. S. S. L. to the teachers at St. Andrew's Church, Ann Arbor.

Mission study classes were held during the year at all churches where there was a Church School Service League.

An informal meeting was held on February 10 to introduce the mission study books. Two special meetings were held, one on March 10, to meet Deaconess Bedell, who told about her work in Stevens Village, Alaska, and one on April 21, when Miss Frances Withers spoke to the C. S. S. L. leaders in a most helpful way.

The reports sent in from twenty-seven schools doing work in the five fields showed that $2,003.62 was given for Parish work; $1,487.84 for Community work, such as helping the needy, making garments for the Needlework Guild, helping the Associated Charities, and the Protestant Orphan Asylum (3270 East Jefferson Avenue), giving toys to the community center, and Christmas gifts to Eloise, giving to the community fund, paying rent for two old ladies, furnishing wood for a poor family, helping a woman at the Arnold Home, sending baskets of fruit and gifts to the Children's Free Hospital at Christmas, and many other things.

In the Diocese, $565.64 was given, this includes $67.04 for the Van Fund. In this automobile van which travels throughout the diocese, services are held, under the direction of the Rev. William F. Jerome, missionary.

In the field of the Diocese also, kindergarten chairs were given for Roseville Sunday School, shingles for the Incubator, the portable Church; for Bishop Williams' Advent offering; for Williams House; helping the diocesan social service department, and for a number of other things. For mission work, in the Nation, field money was given for work in Virginia; to Bishop Gailor; for work in Arizona; for Deaconess Routledge for work in the Philippines; for Indian work; for an automobile for the Montana clergy; and for several other funds, in all, $2,394.68.

In the World field help was given to Boy Scouts in France; to Bishop Overs of Liberia; to the Armenian orphans; the children's ward in Tokyo, Japan, hospital; for a scholarship for a Chinese boy; for the support of French children; and for a number of other objects, $2,281.02 in all.

The birthday thank-offering for 1922 was $280.00.

Christmas boxes were sent to the Cuttington School, Cape Palmas, Liberia; to Balboa Station, Liberia; St. Andrew's Mission Leaksville, N. C.; Bluemont, Virginia; Morgan's Mills; the Seaman's Institute, San Francisco; Oneida Mission, Wisconsin; and to Au Sable, Michigan.

ANNUAL REPORT CHURCH SCHOOL SERVICE LEAGUE

January 1, 1922, to December 31, 1922.

During the year 1922 there have been eight regular monthly meetings held and one annual meeting in May, of the Church School Service League leaders, with an average attendance of fifteen. One committee meeting of the executive board was held on May 14th at the Diocesan Offices to decide on a tentative plan for the work during the coming three years. This plan was to be presented at the meeting of the Diocesan Department of Religious Education by Miss Edith Maurice, Director of the Church School Service League, Diocese of Michigan.

The program of the work for the year has been to interest all parishes in the Diocese in the League, to urge that each send a representative to the meetings, and to give helpful instruction for week-day work and study in the five fields of service.

The actual work accomplished through the League has been wide and varied in character. Some of the Christmas Box work consisted in sending money for candy, and gifts to the Oneida Indians, Oneida, Wisconsin; and to one hundred men in the Seamen's Institute in San Francisco, California. A full report is presented by the box work secretary.

In the Community this year two hundred and ten stockings were sent to children in the hospitals, and two hundred and fifty dollars given to buy gifts for four hundred patients at Eloise.

Money and equipment to meet diocesan needs were sent to Arch-deacon Jermin, Bay City; Emmanuel Mission, Detroit, and the Community Church at Roseville. Games and scrap books were sent to the Rev. H. G. C. Martin, for distribution at the Poor Farm. It was voted to use the money left over from this diocesan work as a nucleus for a Van Fund, to help carry on that work in the Diocese.

The work in the Parish block was made unusually interesting, for samples of the work done were sent to the General Convention in Portland, for the Parish Field Exhibit. This exhibit proved to be a great success and was of great interest to all who attended the Convention. It was a large and varied collection of articles made by the children in parishes throughout the diocese, as well as in Detroit, and was indeed one for which Michigan can be proud to have been responsible.

The final report of the Birthday Thank Offering showed Michigan second only to Central New York, with a total of $570.00. This offering for 1922 was presented at a service held during the General Convention in Portland on Sunday afternoon, September 10. Bishop Tuttle and Bishop Rowe both spoke at the meeting.

In January, 1922, a questionnaire was sent to all parishes in the Diocese asking for information regarding the various children's organizations; the membership of each; the amount of money given and work done in the five fields including box work by the several parishes. Out of the eighty which were sent out a report was received from forty showing a total of $10,834 given by Church schools.

Respectfully submitted,

DOROTHY MARQUIS JOHNSON,
Secretary Church School Service League.

REPORT OF WORK IN COMMUNITY FIELD, 1922

At the request of the Diocesan Department of Social Service, the Church School Service League assisted in bringing Christmas cheer to seven local institutions. Their greetings were given in different ways, as will be enumerated below. Seventeen of the C. S. S. L. groups participated in this work in Wayne County.

The work may be itemized as follows:

Receiving Hospital: Carols sung in various wards.

Grace Hospital: 220 gifts and bags or boxes of candy and fruit were supplied for the children of the clinic. Carolers also sang here.

Highland Park Community Center: Gifts and carolers.

Harper Hospital: Carolers for the wards.

Juvenile Detention Home and Psycopathic Clinic: Christmas tree decorations and many gifts were sent here, as well as the carolers.

Children's Free Hospital: Choir and carolers.

Eloise: $160.00 was given the Diocesan Social Service Department to purchase gifts, fruit and candy for the aged women of this institution.

The list of C. S. S. L. groups that contributed to this fund will appear in the Treasurer's report. There were other groups who generously furnished gifts made by the children; or boxes made by the various classes and filled with fruit and nuts.

The Chairman certainly feels warm appreciation of the work done by each group, especially when it is recalled how little time was allowed for this work, and that the time came at a season when there is so much else to interfere and distract. We hope to remedy this next year.

SARAH S. MacGUFFEY,
Chairman Work in Community Field.

CHURCH SCHOOL SERVICE LEAGUE
REPORT OF MISSION STUDY, 1922

We held Normal Classes for leaders at the regular session of the Diocesan Normal School in December. There were four classes:

- Primary Mission Stories, led by Mrs. Robert Livingston.
- China Hsing (Forward March in Orient)—Mrs. Thomas Weber.
- Tales of the Great South Seas—Miss Nellie McAuley.
- Attention (Junior Survey)—Miss Elizabeth Thomas.

Miss Thomas held an extra session of her class on the following day.

The reports show that eleven churches have had mission study classes in Epiphany or Lent. The number of classes is twenty-seven, with an average of 402 children between the ages of four and twenty-one or over attending. In some cases the Episcopal Young People's Association and Girls' Friendly Society or older groups are included in the parish organization of the Church School Service League, so we have not attempted to get the exact age of some of the participants. The text books used were largely those taken up in the Normal Classes with the addition of Archdeacon Stuck's book on "Alaska Missions," the "Task of the Church," and miscellaneous literature.

There have been twenty-four leaders. Some of the results and activities have been very interesting. One class had a regular examination, twelve out of eighteen passing over 75 per cent. Two classes dramatized the stories and are giving plays for the parish. In one class the members wrote stories, a prize being given for the best; the best being so hard to judge because of the excellence of all that a second prize was offered. In one small parish the whole school, about fifty children, excepting the very little ones, studied Course VI together, and the effect of their interest and that of an extra week-day course upon the Lenten offering was such that it was increased from the $18.00 of last year to $80.00 for this year.

The largest number of children enrolled in classes from one Church was eighty-six; the number from Grace Mission, Bay City. In this senior class fourteen seniors received rewards for perfect attendance. Their primary class is being held after Lent so that weather may not interfere, and they have thirty children enrolled.

We look forward to a still better year for 1923.

Respectfully submitted,

ELIZABETH W. WEBER.

Diocesan Educational Secretary.

1922 REPORT OF THE EPISCOPAL YOUNG PEOPLE'S ASSOCIATION

Though we know that it is not only wise but necessary that we should be governed by reasonableness in preparing and presenting a record of the year's work, yet a desire will assert itself to write into the review the best stories of the past, teeming as they are, with the splendid examples of sacrifice and service, the events and thoughts, which have been put into the building of a work, the history of which has now served two general conventions—the Convention in Detroit in October, 1919, and the Convention in Portland, Oregon, in September, 1922.

In the development of an acceptable educational program for the Lenten season, the general subject chosen was Christian Character, and was divided into a series of six talks, the leaders being representative in business life, education, recreation, the law, civic affairs and the home, this latter vital subject was taken by Mrs. Charles D. Williams. The classes were held in St. John's Chapel and were uniformly well attended by representatives of the local branches.

With a desire that the leaders have had to study and to know more about the underlying principles of their own organization, a pageant was written by Miss Jane Hicks, one of the Vice-Presidents of the Association, assisted by a talented committee, and served commendably to define Friendship, Service, Study and Prayer, with an emphasis put on their compelling motives.

Bishop Williams was the celebrant Palm Sunday, April 9, 1922, the observance of the regular Annual Corporate Communion; the attendance was large, this being the most highly regarded service of the year. Deep gratitude has always been felt by the young people for the affectionate generosity shown by Bishop Williams in regularly conducting this service on Palm Sunday, notwithstanding the fact that it was one of the busiest days throughout the year for him.

The annual meeting was held in St. John's Church House, May 25, and the address was made by Professor S. L. Joshi, Professor of Literature, Bombay University, India.

Great interest was shown in electing delegates to the Gambier Conference, June 26 to July 7. The delegates testified to the inspiration which had been experienced and that they had been impressed by the fact that everyone's effort and service, great or small, was accounted as of definite value.

The fact that it was convention year and that a general program was to be presented as well as studied, and that its success as a Forward Movement depended upon the unity of the church, the Program Committee resolved that what we want to do now is to find out what the mission of the church is? How to get to work? What can we do?

The Rt. Rev. Logan H. Roots of Hankow, China, headed the program and was announced as the speaker for the first general Fall meeting, which was held in St. Joseph's Church.

A lecture series on the Forward Movement, the general topic, The Church Militant, claimed the attention of the Association on the Monday nights beginning November 27 and lasting until December 18. This topic was divided into "The World's Need, The Church's Opportunity," "A Romance of Missions," "Out of a Job," and an illustrated talk on "The World's Greatest Battle Line." The speakers were Bishop Charles D. Williams, Archdeacon Charles L. Ramsay, Rev. Samuel S. Marquis and Mr. Charles O. Ford.

Pledges to the amount of $175.00 were made to the Christmas Fund, which this year was devoted to Williams House in the Diocese, a home for young women and gave to the young people of the Association one of the happiest experiences in the history of the work. It was truly a thoughtful Christmas, complete as affectionate care could make it and was joyously offered by young people to young people. There were gifts and candy for each girl, a tree, beautifully trimmed, and one of the best Christmas dinners.

The Kenyon College play given December 26, was as usual a success and with a substantial profit of $283.00 repaid the Association for the effort of supporting this annual enterprise.

New branches have been steadily forming and several groups have satisfactorily to themselves reorganized to bring the report down to date, we are rejoiced to state that a new chapter was organized in St. Paul's Cathedral early in April, Dean Rogers having given it his cordial endorsement.

We find ourselves greatly interested in the reports that came in and realize that what we have been doing in our Diocese, and have blazed the trail in so doing, is now being done or at least attempted elsewhere throughout the Church.

The conviction is here that we must make the venture of faith in the idealism of youth, and especially now at this time of special interest on the part of the Church in its youthful members, and in their utilization in Christian service.

The serious barrier has been, but no longer must be, a lack of qualified leaders.

Respectfully submitted,

JULIA M. FISH,

Executive Secretary.
