SECRETARY'S REPORT.

Dear Friends of the Auxiliary :

Another Annual Meeting finds us with increased numbers and enthusiasm. Three new branches have been added to our list: Tower, St. Peter and Rockford.

In the following branches there has been an increase of gifts: St. Paul's, Duluth; the Cathedral, Faribault; St. John's, Janesville; Grace, Holy Trinity and St. Mark's, Minneapolis; Christ Church, Red Wing; the Church of the Good Samaritan, Sauk Centre; Ascension Church, Stillwater; St. James' Church, St. Paul; St. Paul's Church, Winona, and St. Mary's, Merriam Park; St. Paul's, Belle Creek; St. Mary's, Tower; and Church of the Holy Communion, St. Peter; reports are especially to be noted.

In the sum total there is only a small increase over last year, but then the lines have been drawn more closely upon what constitutes Auxiliary work.

Missionary meetings were held in January, addressed by Miss Sybil Carter, at St. Paul's, Gethsemane and All Saints' in Minneapolis; St. Mary's, Merriam Park; St. John the Evangelist, St. Paul's and Christ Church, St. Paul. In spite of severe weather and much illness these meetings were large and interesting.

On May 6th the President called a general meeting of the Auxiliary at Christ Church, Red Wing, to appoint officers for the Convocations as follows:

Mrs. D. M. Baldwin, vice-president Southern Convocation;
Miss Sybil Carter, vice-president Northern Convocation.

On May 10th a meeting was held at St. Mark's Parish House, Minneapolis, which was addressed by Miss Carter, Mrs. H. P. Nichols and Mrs. Alden, urging quarterly meetings for the study of the "Literature of Missions."

At this meeting a committee was appointed to prepare a programme for the first general meeting to be held in November.

On June 24th, a meeting was held in St. Paul's Sunday school room, Duluth; over sixty women were present, who were addressed by Mrs. Ward, president of the Chicago Branch, Miss Carter and Mrs. Ware of Breck School at Wilder, Minnesota. These meetings will doubtless result in giving an impetus to the Auxiliary work in Minnesota, and with the increase of Diocesan officers, we hope to visit all the small parishes.

In this large Diocese we have this year but few Junior Branches reported. Every member of the Auxiliary should take an interest in bringing our young people in touch with the Mission work of the Church. Existing societies are not asked to change their names or methods of work, but simply to report their Mission work through the Auxiliary.

Dear friends and officers of Parish Branches, will you not help us, that another year we may have a Junior Branch and a Librarian for the Church Periodical Club in your Parish?

CORNELIA BAXTER,
Secretary.
