Woman's Auxiliary.

1898-99.

Prayer for the Woman's Auxiliary.

O LORD Jesus Christ, who in the days of Thy flesh didst accept the services of faithful women, who ministered unto Thee of their substance. Be pleased, we humbly ask, to bless our endeavors to aid and encourage missionaries. Put into our hearts the things we should do and say to promote Thy glory. Grant that we may never be discouraged under difficulties, but go forward in faith and hope—looking unto Thee. Have pity on those who know Thee not, on those who are far from the Church of their fathers in a strange land; visit them with Thy salvation, and grant that all may be speedily brought to acknowledge Thee as their Lord and Master, Christ. Hear us, and answer this our prayer, for Thine own name's sake. Amen.

---

For Moon-Tide, Daily.

“And I, if I be lifted up, will draw all men unto me.”

BLESSED SAVIOUR, who at this hour didst hang upon the Cross, stretching forth Thy loving arms, grant that all mankind may look unto Thee and be saved, through Thy mercies and merits, who livest and reignest with the Father and the Holy Ghost, ever one God, world without end. Amen.

HEAVENLY FATHER, we pray Thee to bless us and all members of the Junior Auxiliary, with wisdom, zeal and constancy, in our work for Thee. Prosper the missions of Thy Holy Church, and strengthen with Thy Holy Spirit all who are engaged in missionary work, through Jesus Christ, our Lord. Amen.

Report of the Secretary.

On the whole the condition of Auxiliary work in our Diocese is encouraging. The unorganized branches of Cokato, Henderson, Le Sueur, Albert Lea, and Blue Earth have been added to our list. New interest has been awakened in other parishes as the financial report shows.

The total of cash reported and boxes sent shows an increase of $575.50 over that of last year, and while this is gratifying we are not increasing our membership as we ought, the same number of missionary letters are taken year after year, the offerings at our meetings are very small, and it was a bitter disappointment at the annual meeting to find the mite chest returns this year $85.00 less than usual. We all were in better circumstances to give than for many years, and where temporal prosperity has been abundant, should our giving for Christ's sake be so small? By referring to the treasurer's report it will be observed that the falling off is largely in our strong parishes. With over twenty-five hundred mite boxes in our Diocese we should not feel satisfied with a return of less than a thousand dollars a year. Now that we realize that many small deficits makes a large aggregate, doubtless another year we shall redouble our efforts and increase our gifts.

The quality of our missionary boxes sent this year was good. We aim to have all the boxes of the best which loving interest in the needs of the missionary will suggest. It is love which is woven into the warp and woof of Auxiliary work which assures a blessing to worker and receiver.

The one disappointment of the annual meeting was the retirement of our faithful and much loved President, who for twelve years so efficiently and acceptably presided over the Auxiliary. Our loss is the rich gain of the Indian work of the Church to which Mrs. Brunson devotes herself in association with Miss Carter. By removal from the diocese we have lost the active interest of Rev. and Mrs. H. P. Nichols who were always ready to respond to any call from the Auxiliary. The recovery of Mrs. Gilbert, wife of our beloved Bishop Gilbert, to comparative health and her return to her home and family is a cause for thanksgiving to our Heavenly Father. Our semi-annual meeting at Faribault on June 7th, and our mid-winter meeting March 8th, were largely attended, while the Quiet Day services held under the auspices of the Missions Classes of St. Paul and Minneapolis had but an average attendance of eighty-nine. Possibly the very severe weather may account for the small attendance.

February 10th, Rev. J. J. Faude, D. D., conducted the meditations at the Quiet Day services in St. Mark's, Minneapolis, and Bishop Gilbert conducted Quiet Day services in St. Clement's, St. Paul, on Tuesday the 7th of March. We desire to express to our beloved Bishop Coadjutor how constantly and increasingly we are under obligations to him for his counsel, sympathy and inspiration, oftentimes bringing sunshine and hope out of discouragement, and depressing and perplexing conditions.

The Interparochial Missions Classes of Minneapolis and St. Paul meet monthly during the working church year. Both have reached that period when the faithful ones in each must bear in mind that they are passing through the critical period in their existence and now their future must be assured. The addresses at the Auxiliary meetings in Washington and also at the Missionary Council at St. Louis emphasized the dignity and importance of Mission Study Classes. The Auxiliary is generally arousing much interest through lectures, missionary teas, lawn meetings and stereoptical lectures. Mrs. Twing, the Honorary Secretary of the Auxiliary, suggests that the dawn of the new century be observed by special meetings of prayer and thanksgiving to Almighty God for the marvelous advance made in the cause of missions. We refer with pleasure and satisfaction to the sustained interest in the Woman's Column in the Record so efficiently edited by Mrs.

Denis Follet. I am sure this work is much appreciated by all the women of the Auxiliary, also her efficiency as assistant secretary. The Church Periodical Club continues its good work in the hands of the faithful secretary, Miss Charlotte Folds, 614 South Ninth street.

The Junior work has suffered from a too frequent change of officers, and Miss Sleppy, after serving so faithfully and efficiently, finds herself obliged to resign because of press of other duties.

Your secretary made twenty official visits at the suggestion of Bishop Gilbert and by the invitation of the Bishop of Iowa presented to the women of the Iowa Auxiliary our methods of work in Minnesota at their annual meeting in Davenport on the 24th of May, 1899.

Your President, Secretary and twenty-six representatives from the Minnesota Auxiliary enjoyed the pleasure and privileges of attending the Auxiliary meetings during the General Convention in Washington in October, 1898.

In conclusion may I be permitted to express a few words of personal gratitude to each and all of the parochial officers who so faithfully and promptly and most courteously responded to all requests, and in sending in such clear reports. By their loving words and sympathy they have made the work seem light. More of us remember now to bring a bill for the annual dues and for the offering, also to convert the mite box returns from each parish into a check or P. O. order properly drawn and properly endorsed. What a change from the day when our five or six hundred dollars was brought to the annual meeting mostly in pennies, checks not endorsed and P. O. order drawn indiscriminately on St. Paul, Minneapolis or New York.

It has been my aim all these years that I have tried to serve you as secretary, to complete my ten years of service and then retire. I felt that you should have younger and more elastic service for we all get into ruts as the years move on, but to have been elected your president was more than I could expect and to have come so affectionately and unanimously from you and as a command from my Bishop, I felt the call must be respected. I accept the trust and in my feebleness shall do my best for our beloved work.

This passing from secretary to the president's duties I hope will still keep me in touch with the various parish officers, for the many letters which have been exchanged during the past five years have framed warm friends of those whom I have seldom seen. As this is my last report as secretary it may be profitable and interesting to review the past five years of our work. Then the Diocese was not divided and we numbered thirty-seven parish branches; now we have sixty-four branches; thirty-five organized and twenty-nine ~~un~~organized. Then we had but one meeting in the year, while now we have three general meetings and we also observe the day of intercession for Missions. Interparochial Missions Classes have been in successful operation in St. Paul and Minneapolis and two Quiet Days are observed, one in St. Paul and one in Minneapolis.

We had then made our first United Offering of $353, our last offering was nearly $1,000.

In these days of multiplied charities and organizations in and out of the church, and such demands on our strength, time and means, it seems remarkable that the results of our work are so encouraging. In the next five years there will be many changes. One by one our members are being called Home by our Heavenly Father. The present only with its glorious opportunities for service is ours.

This year we mourn the death of Mrs. Thomas Irvine, of St. Paul, who was an interested member and liberal contributor in St. John's Parish.

The General Auxiliary has lost one of its most helpful officers, the wife of Bishop Tuttle of Missouri.

Since our annual meeting we have suffered a very sad bereavement in the death of two devoted members of our Auxiliary. Mrs. T. C. Hudson, wife of the rector of the church at New Paynesville, and Mrs. C. E. Mayo, of St. Paul.

Mrs. Hudson planted the Auxiliary in every parish where she went. Until the division of the Diocese she was constant in her attendance at our meetings and since then she has joined each year in our mite offerings. Her helpfulness and cheer were an inspiration to Auxiliary workers, who knew and loved her dearly.

Mrs. C. E. Mayo was our first president and served faithfully for five years. We heard of her death with a thrill of pain and her sweet face, like that of Mrs. C. W. Nash and Mrs. S. L. Hill, will ever remain fresh in our thought of the annual gatherings of Auxiliary workers.

‘ ‘Tis sweet, as year by year, we lose
Friends out of sight, in faith to muse,
How grows in Paradise our store.”

CORNELIA BAXTER, Secretary.

MINUTES.

The eighteenth annual meeting of the Minnesota branch of the Woman’s Auxiliary to the Board of Missions, was held in the church of S. John the Evangelist, St. Paul, Oct. 4th, 1899.

Bishop Gilbert conducted the service at which the Holy Communion was administered.

The annual address was by Rt. Rev. Samuel Cook Edsall, D. D., Bishop of North Dakota. The rector, Rev. Dudley W. Rhodes welcomed the women of the Auxiliary and the visiting clergy.

The business meeting was called to order by the acting president, Mrs. Wm. B. Folds, of Minneapolis. In response to roll call 34 parishes were found to be represented by 219 delegates.

A letter of resignation was read from the president, Mrs. Cora R. Brunson, and the secretary authorized by a rising vote to express our regret that she must resign, and our gratitude for the very satisfactory and efficient service she had rendered as president for the past twelve years.

Luncheon was served by the women of S. John’s parish to 325 persons. At 2 p. m. the women reassembled for prayer and ad-addresses by Bishop Gilbert and the Rev. C. Edgar Haupt. An appeal was made for the Breck School by Mrs. Blanch Hand, and for an industrial school for the colored work in Florida by Mrs. G. G. Stevens of Rushford.

The Bishop appointed Miss Cornelia Saunders, of St. Paul, as secretary of the Junior Auxiliary.

The minutes of the last meeting were read by Mrs. Follett and approved.

The reports of the secretary and treasurer were accepted, also reports from the Juniors and Church Per. Club and tellers.

The mite returns were divided according to custom, one third for foreign, one third for domestic and one third for diocesan missions.

On motion of Mrs. D. W. Rhodes forty dollars was sent to the board toward the salary of the Rev. George B. Pratt, missionary in charge at Puerto Rico.

The election of officers resulted as follows: President, Mrs. Hector Baxter, of Minneapolis; Secretary and Treasurer, Mrs. J. W. Bishop, of St. Paul. A rising vote of thanks was extended to the women of S. John's for their hospitality. An invitation was accepted from the women of S. Mark's, Minneapolis, for the next annual meeting.

A missionary meeting was held in the evening and addresses made by Bishop Gilbert, Bishop Edsall and Rev. C. Edgar Haupt.

Respectfully submitted,

MRS. DENIS FOLLETT,

Secretary, pro tem.

Report and Plea for the Junior Auxiliary of Minnesota.

FROM JUNE, 1898, TO SEPTEMBER, 1899.

Once more we desire to plead for the introduction of the Junior Auxiliary work into every parish in the Diocese. It is not enough that the women of the church shall inform themselves for the purposes of intelligent work and giving to the Missions but it is a necessity that the young people of the church shall be equally well-informed.

The Junior Auxiliary course of study is a systematic, well-planned one. The privilege of membership is a right accorded by baptism and the simple objects of the society point towards a definite information regarding Missions; a definite time of prayer for the Missions and the direction of right activity towards a definite system of the giving of labor, money and self to the Missions.

Wherever the work has been given a fair trial, the results have been most favorable to healthy interest in Church and Sunday School work and in the amounts given. If there is need of unity in purpose and work among men and women of the church, why not among our boys and girls also? Is there no greater incentive to giving than an attractive mite-box and the requests to "fill this so that our class, our parish or our diocese shall rank foremost in the list of givers,"

Truly, many parishes, struggling beneath heavy burdens, feel incapacitated for greater liberality, but it is the person trained to sympathize with the larger needs of the world; who is alive and conscious of the needs of the home. Love and Missions do find their beginning in the home, but surely not their ending there. There is a lamentable lack of workers among our young people arising from a need of definite purpose. These, the Junior Auxiliary would reach. Without special Missionary training, how can these young men and women receive the necessary stimulus for self consecration to the ministry and to the Mission fields. Surely among all their faithful members of the Woman's Auxiliary present there is at least one woman from each parish who will make the mission work among the children her special care. The one hundred letters scattered throughout the diocese this year in behalf of the work are simply of no effect unless there can be found a capable leader for each parish branch. In your prayer for the Missions this year, don't forget your own children.

Early in the year the Board of Missions set apart the second Sunday after Epiphany and the following Monday for special Missionary instructions, services and pleas for the Lenten mite-boxes, among the young people. Eight branches responded to this plea and it is hoped that a more hearty co-operation will be the result of next year's renewal of the experiment.

Most of our branches are composed of the Parish Sunday School as a whole which resolves itself, once a month into a Junior Auxiliary school for the purpose of study, besides holding weekly or semi-weekly meetings for practical work. It is a pleasure to note the work of the Busy Bees of White Rock, a chapter of tiny people who live at a considerable distance apart, yet manage to meet and come to the front with an annual report and it is a cause for rejoicing that the branch of one of our small towns has practically "boxed the compass" with its generosity while still another group of children have extended the labor of their hands from extreme north to south and yet find it possible to feed annually, forty hungry children from the mission field of a sister parish which in time, gives enthusiastically of its little because the children are enthusiastic students.

One of our strongest branches has suffered this year from the lack of its former capable leader but has been recently revived, though too late for this report. The following branch has failed to report - S. Paul's, Owatonna.

Please note in the following financial statement that the Advent and Easter offering of the mite boxes are not included and that though there may seem to be a decrease in the amount of money given it is really an increase over last year. There is a decided increase of $88.25 in the known value and number of boxes sent out, besides a number of boxes, the value of which is unknown.

MADAME PRESIDENT AND WOMEN OF THE AUXILIARY:—

In submitting my yearly report of the Church Periodic 1 Club I wish to say a few words:

The good of this branch of the Auxiliary work depends on each one of you and without your hearty co-operation and faithfulness it cannot live. The Librarians do their part, but they can not take the responsibility of sending the magazines. Some are very regular in sending the periodicals, as we hear from the recipients, while others are careless and after a time do not send the magazines and do not notify the Librarians.

Let us try to be regular this coming year and remember that if anything is worth doing at all it is worth doing well, and so do our little faithfully.

Three efficient Librarians have notified me that other church duties will prevent their continuing in this work, and I trust that their places will be filled soon and that the interest will not cease, but grow.

OGOD, who hast made of one blood all nations of men for to dwell on the face of the whole earth, and didst send Thy blessed Son to preach peace to them that are far off and to them that are nigh; Grant that all men everywhere may seek after Thee and find Thee.
