Almighty God, who in all ages hast called holy women to be helpers and workers in Thy service; we pray Thee to bless the members of the Woman's Auxiliary of the Diocese of Nebraska, whom Thou hast called to a like ministration. Give them the hearts of thankfulness for the honor Thou hast put upon them. Of the reports sent out the middle of April, Schuyler was the first to respond and St. Andrew's the first among the Omaha branches.

Meetings of the Omaha, South Omaha and Florence branches have been held the last Friday in each month, with the exception of December, in the different churches in the following order: St. Mark's, Florence; St. Matthias', St. Philip's, St. Barnabas and St. Paul's. The January meeting was held in the Lecture Room of the Public Library, where a stereopticon lecture on Mexico was given.

These auxiliaries completed the study work on Mexico and have adopted Japan as the subject for the coming year. The offerings at these meetings, amounting to $33.78, were used for the expense fund of the Woman's Auxiliary of the Diocese, with the exception of that of the business meeting in April, when half of the offering was given the Diocesan Librarian, as usual.

Ninety-five reports, one hundred and twelve cards have been sent out and twenty-one notices given to the newspapers.

Respectfully submitted,

Donations in money are always gratefully received, because there are things to purchase which our Societies cannot make, such as overcoats, clerical suits, shoes, etc.

To the women of Plattsmouth, Lincoln and Beatrice, I wish to give a word of praise for the beautifully prepared and thoughtfully chosen things sent in their boxes for me to place. In every case the recipients have expressed the warmest appreciation. While the Diocesan box is under my supervision, it is a personal matter, and as such I wish to thank each and every one for their generous co-operation.

Respectfully submitted,

MRS. J. A. TANCOCK.

Report of the Junior Auxiliary

For the year 1911-12 the Junior Auxiliary of Nebraska reports fourteen branches, a membership of 222. The offerings for all purposes aggregate $534.50 and the pledges for next year $131.50.

A very promising branch at St. John's, Omaha, was discontinued during the past year because the mission was disbanded. St. Philip the Deacon has organized a Junior Auxiliary. Holy Trinity, Lincoln, has reorganized after an interval of some months. One rector of the Diocese, after several years' effort to establish a branch in the usual manner, has solved his problem by calling his Sunday School a Junior Auxiliary.

Last Christmas the Juniors of Omaha and South Omaha sent to the Sunday Schools of the Sand Hills region in Western Nebraska a box valued at $138.25, exclusive of freight. Mrs. Geo. Ware wrote a most appreciative letter of thanks for these gifts.

Beside this Christmas box, the Juniors have sewed for Clarkson Hospital and worked in many ways to raise money for their pledges and for parish aid.

It is encouraging to report greater interest in mission study. The Junior leaders have held their usual monthly meetings this year, and to the business and social features have added a missionary program. They studied the course "From Jerusalem to Juneau," outlined by the Board of Missions. Several parish branches have regular missionary instruction. The talk given last fall by Rev. Mr. Hoare of Point Hope, Alaska, was a great inspiration to the Juniors.

By invitation of Miss Johnson, principal of Brownell Hall, the Junior Auxiliary held its annual all-day meeting this year at the Hall, on Saturday, May 4. About 160 were present, including the Bishop and several of the clergy who have always shown such kind interest in the work.

To them and to all friends the Junior Auxiliary extends sincere thanks and bespeaks their prayers for future blessings.

Respectfully submitted,

EDITH EARLE,
Secretary Junior Auxiliary.

Prayers for the Use of the Woman's Auxiliary.

WLORD JESUS CHRIST, who in the days of Thy flesh didst accept the services of faithful women, who ministered unto Thee of their substance. Be pleased, we humbly ask, to bless our endeavors to aid and encourage missionaries. Put into our hearts the things we should do and say to promote Thy glory. Grant that we may never be discouraged under difficulties, but go forward in faith and hope—looking unto Thee. Have pity on those who know Thee not, on those who are far from the church of their fathers in a strange land; visit them with Thy salvation, and grant that all may be speedily brought to acknowledge Thee as their Lord and Master, Christ. Hear us and answer this, our prayer, for Thine own name's sake. Amen.

BLESSED SAVIOR, who at this hour didst hang upon the cross, stretching forth Thy loving arms; grant that all mankind may look unto Thee and be saved; through Thy mercies and merits, who livest and reignest with the Father and the Holy Ghost ever one God, world without end, Amen.

---

BEAVENLY FATHER we pray Thee to bless us and all members of the Junior Auxiliary, with wisdom, zeal and constancy in our work for Thee. Prosper the missions of Thy Holy Church, and strengthen with Thy Holy Spirit all who are engaged in missionary work, through Jesus Christ, our Lord. Amen.
