REPORT OF SECRETARY AND TREASURER.

THE nineteenth annual meeting of the New Jersey Branch of the Woman's Auxiliary was held at St. Michael's Church, Trenton, on Wednesday, April 25th, 1894. One hundred and fifty delegates representing thirty-four parishes were present, together with a number of the clergy. At 10.30 a. m. the morning session opened with a celebration of the Holy Communion, the Bishop of the Diocese officiating, after which a cordial welcome was extended to the members of the Auxiliary by the Rev. O. S. Bunting, the rector of the parish. Missionary addresses were made by the Rt. Rev. C. C. Penick and the Rev. Theodosius S. Tyng, of Japan, the former presenting with his usual vigor the claims and needs of the Commission for Work among Colored People and the latter making a forcible appeal for the building fund of St. Paul's College, Tokio. At one o'clock the meeting adjourned to the parish house where a most generous luncheon was served by the ladies of St. Michael's church.

At the afternoon session the reports of the vice-presidents of money and boxes sent to the different departments of the mission field were submitted and were as follows :

For Diocesan Missions.....	$1,020.87
“ Freedmen “	2,992.68
“ Foreign “	922.50
“ Mexican “	213.50
“ Indian “	750.00
“ Domestic “	4,113.00
Total.....	$10,012.55

The reports of the corresponding secretaries of the Upper, Middle and Lower Divisions were also read, after which the librarian of the Lower Division presented her report. In the absence of the librarians of the Upper and Middle Divisions their reports were read by the secretary. The details of these reports will be found elsewhere.

The president, Mrs. Clark, in her annual address gave an interesting review of what had been accomplished during the past year, making many wise and practical suggestions by which the work of the Auxiliary might be made more effective.

In order to provide in the Constitution for an officer to take charge of the work of the Junior Auxiliary, which is about to be organized in the diocese, Article V. was amended by adding after the word "missions" in the first clause, the words, "and one for the Junior Auxiliary Work."

The annual election resulted in the election of Mrs. Benj. Williamson as vice-president of the Junior Auxiliary work; Mrs. Thomas Roberts as vice-president of Indian Missions, and Mrs. E. C. Grice as corresponding secretary of the Lower Division; Miss McKeen having declined a re-election. With these exceptions the former officers were reinstated.

Three parishes during the year have been added to the list: St. Andrew's, Bridgeton; All Saints, Scotch Plains; Church of the Ascension, Gloucester. It is hoped that the day is not far distant when every parish in the diocese may be found working with the Auxiliary and sharing the inspiration that comes from fellowship and organization.

The receipts from the Ten Cent Missionary Assessment Fund amounted to $148.76, the largest sum ever collected from this source, fifty-nine parishes contributing. With the addition of the balance on hand of $8.86, the fund amounted to $157.62, from which the following appropriations were made: Building fund, St. Paul's College, Tokio, $50.00; Thank offering for Church Missions House, $50.00; education Japanese boy, Osaka, $25.00; Diocesan Associate Mission House, $25.00.

In giving a summary of the year's work it is encouraging to record that the total in boxes and money is $10,261.87, showing an increase of $1,037.11 over that of the preceding year.

The treasurer's report is as follows:

PRESIDENT'S ADDRESS.

"Gather up the fragments that remain that nothing be lost."

Thus the inspired writer gives the command of his well-beloved Divine Master. We are not informed what became of those fragments, but we are assured that nothing blessed by our Lord can ever be lost or returned to Him void. Might it not be for us a pleasant thought, that after fulfilling their arduous task in feeding the multitude, the disciples were invited to cluster upon that hillside around their blessed teacher and with Him seek the refreshment so needed for weary minds and hungry bodies ; from Him learn the lesson of the hour.

Perhaps, we cannot tell, this may be the reason, the church in general devotes the fragments, which remain after other work, to the missionaries and their needs. However this may be, we are here to-day to report upon our fragments, blessed we trust, in the cause of missions. There has been great need for women's efforts for women during the last hard winter, and few parishes in our diocese but have found it true that "the poor ye have always with you." Very early in the season calamities and pestilence followed close by upon each other in our Southern borders. The calls were imperative, and all hearts were stirred and hands outstretched to aid the suffering States. Then the financial troubles grew more and more apparent, work was insufficient for the support of honest laborers, and their families needed care. It has been a blessed work. In every city and town the poor and the rich have drawn closer together in these needs, and heroic plans have been devised to aid in this distressing time, nor has a blessing been denied to our efforts for relief.

Church work (by this we mean our own parish work), must always hold the first place in the hearts of loyal women, but the Church should not claim all their aid, for we can never forget that the last command of our risen Saviour was "Go into all the world and preach the gospel to every creature." To those unable to fulfil in person this command, the duty is plainly to send substitutes.

Domestic Missions in New Jersey have done great service in many hospitals and schools the past year. The fact that we have been unable to prepare as large a number of boxes for our missionary friends this season only shows that duties nearer home have claimed our attention, and unselfishly we have denied ourselves one of the purest pleasures connected with mission work, to which we will doubtless turn in the future with renewed interest. A missionary bishop at one of our meetings showed so conclusively the need and blessing of these boxes, that all felt grieved no more could have been attempted. He told us that these hard-working men, whose salaries are so insufficient for their needs and support of their families, were always taught that the Women's Auxiliary would supplement by boxes these deficiencies, and they really could not possibly exist without their help. It was with fear and trembling that reports for domestic work were counted, but the result has proved this to be still dear to the hearts of our women, and though we are several hundred dollars less than last year in our record, there have been many unmistakable proofs of growing interest, and we can only "thank God and take courage" for the future.

Workers for the Freedmen have done good and noble service this year. Scholarships have been met as usual, hospitals assisted, orphanages cared for. It could hardly have been otherwise, when the deep devotion and consecration were so glowing and full in the heart of our Vice-President.

When the fearful storms which last year devastated the Southern coast, and submerged the Sea Islands, the sad affliction of our brethren caused in all parts of our Northern, Eastern and Western States, a Herculean raid upon the attics of almost every home, and rescued from their depths quantities of clothing laid by, which were despatched in boxes and barrels to the sufferers, thereby assuring also the present generation that second-hand garments will not soon again be found suitable for our Auxiliary Missionary boxes.

Since Bishop Kendrick's cheering account of his Mexican tour, the skies look brighter, and the way clearer for work in that country. If ever there was a faithful officer found to aid this, at times almost hopeless work, we have in New Jersey been most favored with the exertions of our good Vice-President. She has been gladdened by letters received from children supported by the two scholarships in our Women's Auxiliary which would do credit to any schools in our own land. The orphanage has been paid for, and the children are living memorials of the splendid work which Mrs. Hooker achieved in that dark region, and to which she gave her life and means. Can we not increase our interest in Mexico?

Indian women are surely developing unlooked-for gifts in the work which they are able to do. Lace-making in Minnesota, under Miss Sybil Carter's devoted efforts, has solved a problem of many unknown qualities and quantities.

The thirty Auxiliary Branches in South Dakota are living witnesses to the text "Freely ye have received, freely give," as we see the women pouring out the contents of their mite chests to educate babies in a Chinese orphanage—to such as these surely missions are no failure. Are they not examples for us to follow as regards Foreign Missions? For this work our hearts are more anxious than for any other; not for the result—that is God's part—but for the means we are willing to give to carry it on. Earnestly we must pray the Lord of the harvest not only to send the laborers, but to give us grace to support them at their stations. This lesson the Church seems harder to understand than others, and we can only pray that our eyes may be opened, our tongues loosed, and our hands taught to do to others as we would have them do to us.

Diocesan Missions are becoming better understood by the women of the Auxiliary. The thirty-three mission stations in the care of the convocations are most telling object lessons, and the hope that the Bishop may realize his wish in the new Missions House will surely stimulate to greater zeal. For all these purposes, no more useful agency can be found than consecrated systematic giving, where the weekly pence become the yearly pounds, and by whose aid alone can woman regularly give of her own to Missions. Let us turn now to the encouragements in the year past. We have organized three parochial branches, and the new parishes are working nobly—they number now 70, which is about the count of the diocesan branches in our Woman's Auxiliary.

We have had six pleasant division meetings, harmonious and helpful. Two meetings of the executive board have been held, with, we trust, good results. At our conference meetings we have been privileged to see and hear missionary bishops and clergy, who have interested us in their work, and stirred our hearts to action. Nor can we ever forget the ministrations of our own Bishop, who, ever willing to aid and counsel us about subjects so dear to his heart, has attended the meetings with words of cheer and encouragement and taught us by his unselfish spirit that all missionary effort is the one great blessed influence in the Christian life.

We feel the necessity of each Vice-President being present at these meetings, to set forth the work they represent and urge it forward, as cannot well be done by letters.

There have been some very pleasant parochial meetings, where the rectors have invited us to consult about our work, and shown that they are truly in sympathy with it. For what can an Auxiliary accomplish if not aided and instructed by their Rector in Missionary duties? When all come to fulfil the last wish of a now sainted Bishop, as he counselled the members of the missionary council upon the duty of regular instruction and prayers for the mission work of the church, we shall need no greater inducements to fill to overflowing the treasury of our Board of Missions, but shall gladly gather up the fragments according to the text, and pray ever the Lord of the harvest to increase them an hundred fold.

Respectfully submitted,

SARAH H. CLARK,
President.

M. L. CLARKSON,

*Vice-President.*REPORT OF UPPER DIVISION.

During the past year two meetings have been held in the Upper Division, the first in St. Luke's Church, Roselle, Oct. 14th, and the second in St. Paul's Church, Rahway, Jan. 10th. At both of these meetings, which were largely attended, addresses were made by visiting bishops and clergymen from the missionary field, who urged the pressing needs of every branch of the work. The meeting in Rahway was of unusual interest, it being the first time the Auxiliary had ever visited St. Paul's Church and on account of the presence of our Bishop, who can seldom find time to attend a Division meeting. At the autumn meeting appeals were made in behalf of the Freedmen, among whom floods and disease had caused great distress. Everywhere the effect of hard times on the missionary work has been disheartening. Earnest prayer should be made by every member of the Auxiliary that the coming year may prove more encouraging for the "laborers in the harvest."

Respectfully submitted,

H. P. TAGGART,

Corresponding Secretary.

REPORT OF LIBRARIAN OF UPPER DIVISION.

A corrected list of publications regularly mailed to missionaries and other church workers by members of the Upper Division of the diocese shows many changes and a marked diminution in number from previous reports. Eight parishes only are contributing, and of those two are to be credited with more than half the amount of reading matter sent. The list is as follows :

	Papers or Magazines.
St. John's Church, Elizabeth	20
Holy Cross, Church, Plainfield.....	12
Trinity Church, Elizabeth.....	8
Holy Cross Church, Perth Amboy.....	5
Christ Church, Elizabeth.....	4
Grace Church, Plainfield.....	3
All Saint's Church, Scotch Plains	2
Christ Church, New Brunswick.....	1
Total.....	55

Formerly we sent ninety.

The Churchman and Living Church naturally take the lead in point of number. In addition there are copies of other church publications and of the leading secular magazines. These find their way to twenty different dioceses and missionary jurisdictions. A few books, tracts, cards and leaflets and full volumes of Churchman for 1892 and '93 have been sent to those who would appreciate them, as well as prayer books and hymnals of the old edition—Christ Church, New Brunswick, sending many.

Your librarian believes that missionaries are still being benefitted by reading matter obtained in the first instance through this Auxiliary, which is still continued to them by those who having removed from this diocese no longer report to her. These removals, several deaths and some unrenewed subscriptions account for the diminished list.

Five parish secretaries failed to answer inquiries in this department of our Auxiliary work. There may be members who, distributing their reading matter, do not let their good deeds be known, thus depriving their parish of the credit it should have.

Holy Cross, Plainfield, has a Parish Librarian, an officer other parishes would do well to adopt.

Your librarian has never been fortunate enough to receive a gift of money for her work, although in previous reports she has not omitted to hint that she was not averse to donations of this sort. A fund for postage and for subscriptions to periodicals in special cases could be used to good advantage.

Trusting for continued and increasing interest the ensuing year, this report is respectfully submitted.

LUCIA E. CATLIN,
Librarian Upper Division.

REPORT OF MIDDLE DIVISION.

There have been two meetings held in the Middle Division during the past year. The first was in St. Andrew's Church, Lambertville, on the fifteenth of October. Bishop Scarborough was present, Mrs. Neilson, Mrs. Twing and several of the diocesan officers. The second meeting was held in Trinity Church, Trenton, on the sixteenth of January. Addresses were made by Bishop Talbot and Rev. Herbert Sowerby, who had been a missionary in China, and others. Not many parishes were represented at these meetings, but much enthusiasm was shown by those present.

HELEN F. CONOVER,
Corresponding Secretary.

REPORT OF LIBRARIAN OF MIDDLE DIVISION.

The Middle Division from the towns of Trenton, Princeton, Elizabeth, Freehold, South Amboy, Middletown, Allentown, Red Bank, Asbury Park and Shrewsbury have sent papers of different kinds to about seventeen clergymen, scattered about in the States of North Carolina, Wisconsin and Minnesota. A few papers and magazines go to other States. Trenton and Shrewsbury sent a number of old hymnals, prayer books and leaflets to missions in Virginia and North Carolina.

My only request at present is for a few more regularly mailed copies of the Churchman, mailed direct by subscriber when through reading. I can give addresses of clergymen to any who are willing to send copies.

Respectfully submitted,

LUCIE M. FRANKLIN,
Middle Division Librarian.

REPORT OF LOWER DIVISION.

From April, 1893, to April, 1894, there were two meetings held in the Lower Division of the New Jersey Branch of the Woman's Auxiliary to the Board of Missions. The first was in Trinity Church, Mount Holly, on the twenty-seventh of October, 1893, and the second in St. Paul's Church, Camden, on the twenty-sixth of January, 1894.

REPORT OF LIBRARIAN OF LOWER DIVISION.

While making a report of the Librarian's work in the Lower Division, New Jersey Branch of the Woman's Auxiliary, I am glad to say that there are evidences of a growing interest. Although encouraging reports have been received from parishes not heretofore working with us, there is but slight increase in the number of publications sent, owing to the fact that some contributors did not renew their subscriptions to various periodicals formerly sent. At present seventeen parishes are sending regularly to about twenty dioceses and missionary jurisdictions over one hundred periodicals, as follows: Churchman, Living Church, Church Standard, Church Review, Eclectic, Spirit of Missions, Young Churchman, Young Christian Soldier, Church Mission News, American Church Sunday School Magazine, Parish Visitor, G. F. S. Magazine, Century, Scribner's, Harper's Monthly, Forum, Youth's Companion, Ladies' Home Journal, Home Queen Housewife, Delineator, and at intervals Demorest's and other magazines, most helpful to the wives of missionaries who are obliged to do their own sewing. The sum of nine dollars has been received from four parishes which has enabled the Librarian to send direct from the publishers the Churchman, Eclectic and Forum, also a number of copies of the Calvary Catechism, needed for a Sunday school. Occasional papers, numbering probably over one thousand copies, also a full year's numbers of the Arena, several volumes of Scribner, Century and Harper, G. F. S. and Christian year calendars, Christmas and Easter cards, booklets, pictures, leaflets, etc., have been most gratefully acknowledged by those receiving them. It has been suggested that parishes having no literature to dispose of may help greatly by giving small sums of money which may be used by the Librarian in the purchase of a much needed book. On more than one occasion a very modest request has been received for old copies of Commentaries on the Gospel, "in case any should be offered." May we not hope that having received so much encouragement during the past year, every parish will unite with us in this good work before the next annual meeting.

Respectfully submitted,

D. A. KELLEY,

Librarian Lower Division.
