REPORT OF SECRETARY AND TREASURER.

THE New Jersey Branch of the Woman's Auxiliary held its twentieth annual meeting at St. Mary's Church, Burlington, on Wednesday, April 24th, 1895. Thirty-six parishes were represented by about one hundred and fifty delegates. After the celebration of the Holy Communion, a cordial welcome was extended to the members of the Auxiliary by the assistant minister, Rev. Wm. P. Taylor, in the absence of the rector of the parish. Much regret was also felt that the Bishop was unable to be present.

At noon, after the mid-day prayers for missions, an impressive missionary address was delivered by the Rev. Dr. Langford, which was well fitted to inspire the Auxiliary with new enthusiasm for the new year's work. At one o'clock the Auxiliary was most hospitably entertained at luncheon by the ladies of St. Mary's Church. The business meeting followed, at which the vice-presidents presented the following reports of money and boxes sent to the different departments of mission work :

For Diocesan Missions.....	$1,074 89
" Freedmen "	757 54
" Foreign "	802 00
" Mexican "	227 55
" Indian "	1,335 25
" Domestic "	3,697 84
Junior Aux. Work.....	375 91
Total.....	$8,270 98

The annual address of the president, Mrs. Clark, the reports of the corresponding secretaries and librarians were also read, the details of which are given elsewhere.

A new and interesting feature of the work was the establishment, in connection with the Auxiliary, of a Missionary Literature Bureau. In order to provide in the Constitution for such a bureau, Article V. was amended by adding after the words " Junior Auxiliary work " the following :

"There shall be one vice-president whose duty it shall be to take charge of a Missionary Literature Bureau, said bureau to consist of books, maps, reports and all other literature that may be helpful to the women missionary workers in the diocese. Said bureau to be for the use of all members of the Woman's Auxiliary in the diocese of New Jersey."

With the consent of the Bishop, it was decided that hereafter there should be but two divisions of the Auxiliary in the diocese, and that these should follow the lines of the Convocations of New Brunswick and Burlington, and be known as the Upper and Lower Divisions of the Woman's Auxiliary. It is hoped that this change will simplify the working of the Auxiliary and at the same time increase its strength.

The annual election resulted in the reinstatement of the former officers, with Mrs. F. S. Conover as vice-president of the Missionary Literature Bureau.

The following appropriations were made from the Ten Cent Missionary Assessment Fund, which, with the balance on hand, amounted to $142.37: For education orphan boy, Osaka, $25.00; Deaconess Home, China, $50.00; St. Mary's School, Spokane, $25.00; missionary deficit, $42.37.

The Auxiliary has added two to its list of parish branches during the year—Church of the Redeemer, North Plainfield, and Trinity Church, Matawan.

PRESIDENT'S ADDRESS.

Twenty-seven boxes for Missionaries, besides those sent to hospitals and schools, show most conclusively the interest the women of New Jersey take in Domestic Missions. Though our gifts of money bear witness to the stringency of the times, yet the busy fingers of our workers and their devotion betoken deep sympathy, as they have poured forth a wealth of love and self-sacrifice for our earnest clergymen in the West and South.

In one instance a box was filled, and many sacrifices made for a western rector, when the young parish had not even a church of its own in which to worship. Our Father in Heaven sees not as man seeth, and we rejoice in commending the work of the Domestic Branch during the past season.

The faithful, untiring efforts of our vice-president for the Freedmen have borne good fruit. We owe these colored brethren more than we really can appreciate, and if we have not large means to bestow, we surely can offer for them our daily prayers, which are their right and our bounden duty. It is a great comfort to feel that we, as an Auxiliary, are pledged to a definite effort for their benefit. Let us look carefully for the results of our labors.

The teacher we promised to support will doubtless aid in the good work among the Indian women of Minnesota; but let us ever remember the many more tribes of our red brothers and sisters to whom our country owes a heavy debt, which we are bound to pay with ever increasing yearly interest.

The example of the Christianized Indians of South Dakota, where more than thirty branches of our Woman's Auxiliary attest the wonderful work there accomplished, shows that nothing falls upon stony soil in that Diocese.

But the Alaskan needs, so vividly portrayed by Mr. Prevost, send out a trumpet call for earnest prayer and faithful Christian effort. Let us study the Indian problem, before deciding upon the merits of the work, in every Diocese where they are found.

For Mexico we would ask renewed interest and gifts. We know that the vice-president has the hardest task in mission work, which, while apparently considered neither Domestic nor Foreign, is yet liable to be overlooked, amid the many calls which appear nearer our own homes.

For Foreign work we hardly know what to think. The meagre sums collected for missions abroad, either show our prayers for the heathen to be very few, or our faith very weak, and the knowledge we possess most imperfect. Perhaps more has been collected in the churches, and reported through the rectors.

Mexican and Foreign needs remind one of the words written by a devoted Bishop of our Church, in charge of the Commission to our colored heathen, while kindly commending "Systematic Giving," he adds: "But we need and will need more and more right proportion in giving. It is ten times as hard to divide a dollar, so it will do most good, as it is to give the dollar. We must study more and more due proportion, for it is just here the greatest wisdom of the giver is needed, i. e., gift of brain, as well as gold. This means our co-operation with Jesus." Do we, my dear sisters, measure our giving by the standard set by our Blessed Master? Let us ask for faith, knowledge and wisdom in this all important soul-saving matter.

Our Diocesan Vice-President has received the usual assurance that our women do not forget their first duty after their parish church work. We are, however, hardly doing all we ought for the Diocese, perhaps because the objects nearer home are sometimes overlooked.

Our librarians report very favorably of their work, which compares most creditably with that of the Church Periodical Club in other dioceses, and which we find to be of greater benefit in our own.

We have been privileged to attend six most interesting Division meetings the past season. In going to distant and new working parishes, it has been very pleasant to meet the workers and become personally acquainted with the members. We have had rousing missionary addresses from those in the fields of work, and, doubtless, good seed has been sown in the hearts of our women.

The Executive Committee has met twice for earnest discussion of the different branches of our mission work. Out of these conferences has grown a new Junior Branch Auxiliary, of which our able, active and skillful organizer and present vice-president has, according to the Bishop's wish and advice, formed already a remarkably large number of branches in the few months of work. She has been aided by a very accomplished secretary and treasurer, who has shown great ability in work among the young.

Eight years ago it was deemed advisable, on account of the growth of our work in the Diocese, to divide into three sections, under corresponding secretaries, the parishes of the New Jersey Auxiliary.

We have found the plan to work effectively, but with some disadvantages in the manner of division. Now, with the expressed desire of our Corresponding Secretary of the Middle Division, and the concurrence of our Bishop, it has been decided by the Executive Committee to ask for a new division upon the lines of the two missionary convocations; so that instead of three, we may have but two sections.

We would also ask your approval of a new branch of work, which our rapidly-growing Auxiliary really seems to need. It has been considered expedient to form a "Missionary Literature Bureau" for the purpose of supplying the whole Diocese with books, pamphlets and maps for the instruction and pleasure of every parochial branch, which must be benefitted by this new departure from our usual methods of missionary efforts. The plans and rules will be further discussed when permission has been received from the Bishop, and voted upon by the delegates.

One word more, in conclusion, my dear friends, with God's grace, let our motto ever be in the Lord's name, and for the interest of His work, "Advance."

Secretary and Treasurer Junior Auxiliary.

REPORT OF UPPER DIVISION.

Two meetings have been held in the Upper Division during the year—the first in Christ Church, New Brunswick, Oct. 11, and the second in Trinity Church, Elizabeth, Jan. 9. At the meeting in New Brunswick, resolutions were passed expressing the sympathy of the members with our Bishop in his late illness, and their gratification at the news of his prospective recovery.

A novel feature of the meeting in Trinity Church was the presence of several representatives from the Presbyterian and Methodist Churches, who, upon an invitation of our President, gave our delegates some information as to the management of Woman's Missionary Societies in their respective churches. Among the speakers at these meetings were Bishop Johnston of Texas, and the Rev. Mr. Prevost of Alaska.

Respectfully submitted,

H. P. TAGGART.

REPORT OF MIDDLE DIVISION.

There have been two meetings of the Middle Division during the past year. The first one was held in Christ Church, South Amboy, on the 18th of October. Rev. Mr. Yen from China was present, and made a most interesting address. Miss Ives, of South Dakota, was also there and told us of her work among the Indians. The second meeting was in Trinity Church, Princeton, on the 17th of January. Bishop Scarborough was with us for the first time after his long illness. We also had an address from Bishop Wells of Spokane. At these meetings the vice-presidents of the different branches also spoke on behalf of their work.

Respectfully submitted,

HELEN F. CONOVER,
Corresponding Secretary.

REPORT OF LOWER DIVISION.

The two regular meetings of the Lower Division were held in Trinity Church, Swedesboro, Oct. 31, 1894, and St. Mark's Church, Hammonton, Jan. 24, 1895. At both these meetings there were speakers from a distance. Bishop Gray of Florida, Mr. Forrester of Mexico, the Rev. Mr. Prevost of Alaska and Miss Sybil Carter, besides which the vice-presidents of the different branches made urgent appeals for their work. There were two Neighborhood Meetings in November—one on the 23d, at Christ Church, Riverton, the other at St. Paul's, Camden, on the 28th. The interest evinced in the Neighborhood Meetings—that is the gathering together of the workers of near-by parishes for purposes of discussion and encouragement—makes the Lower Division deem it advisable to arrange for a series of such meetings, to be held during the months of November, December, February and March.

The regular meetings have not been so well attended this year as formerly, but it is earnestly hoped when the work opens again in the Fall each parish belonging to the Auxiliary may feel it encumben upon itself to send one or more delegates to the Division Meetings, that both by their presence and prayers a deeper interest in the furtherance of the work may be accomplished.

Respectfully submitted,

MARY V. GRICE,
Corresponding Secretary.

REPORT OF UPPER DIVISION LIBRARIAN.

Sixty papers and periodicals have been sent regularly from nine parishes in the Upper Division. These have been received by missionaries and church workers in over twenty dioceses and missionary jurisdictions. Cards, leaflets and other miscellaneous matter have been mailed also.

I regret that I have been obliged to refuse requests for the Churchman and Church Standard, being unable to find any one who could send these papers.

I beg that every one who does not at present make wise disposition of Church and other good periodicals, after reading, will join us in this work, which gives comfort and cheer to many a tired missionary. Perhaps some who have no reading matter to offer can send a small gift of money for postage, or to pay subscriptions, or to supply books in special instances.

Hoping that parish Secretaries will frequently bring these requests before their respective branches, and that soon every parish may be represented, this report is

Respectfully submitted,

LUCIA E. CATLIN,
Librarian.

REPORT OF MIDDLE DIVISION LIBRARIAN.

There has been a decrease in the number of Church papers sent from the Middle Division. Unrenewed subscriptions seem to be the main reason. Some of those interested in sending papers complain that the clergy to whom they are sent make no acknowledgment.

Trenton has again sent a number of old Hymnals for poor colored missions in the South. Shrewsbury has sent some old and new books to the West.

Last year seventeen clergymen were supplied, this year but thirteen, with the Churchman or Living Church.

Respectfully submitted,

LUCIE M. FRANKLIN,
Middle Division Librarian.

REPORT OF LOWER DIVISION LIBRARIAN.

There is some difficulty in giving a correct report of work done in this department on account of changes which have taken place. Sometimes a removal makes it uncertain whether publications continue to be sent. Then, again, the Librarian is not always notified when persons fail to send the promised periodical, but the following is believed to be a fair statement:

Nineteen parishes in the Lower Division are now sending reading matter to twenty-one dioceses and missionary jurisdictions, the following being a list of publications mailed regularly:

Fifteen copies Churchman, twelve copies Church Standard, eight copies Living Church, eleven copies Spirit of Missions, one copy Church Review, two copies Church Eclectic, four copies American Church Sunday School Magazine, eight copies Parish Visitor, eleven copies Young Christian Soldier, two copies Young Churchman, thirteen copies Church Mission News, one copy Sunday School Times, seven copies Girls' Friendly Magazine, one copy Forum, four copies Century, one copy Arena, two copies Harper's Monthly, ten copies Ladies' Home Journal, one copy Woman's Progress, one copy Youth's Companion, one copy Housewife, two copies Delineator. Total, 118.

It will be remembered that many appeals have been made for money to defray the expenses of sending large packages of magazines, papers, etc. In answer to these appeals eight parishes have contributed, as follows:

Trinity Church, Moorestown.....	$1 00
Christ Church, Woodbury.....	2 00
St. Mary's Church, Burlington.....	1 85
Grace Church, Merchantville.....	50
St. Paul's Church, Camden.....	59
Christ Church, Riverton.....	50
Trinity Church, Mount Holly.....	1 00
St. Stephen's Church, Beverly.....	50
Total.....	$7 94

This sum has helped very much in paying freight, expressage and postage on boxes containing about seven hundred copies of prayer books and hymnals of the old edition, a large number of Sunday School library books, partly worn, to persons asking for them, a full year's numbers of Scribner's and Harper's Monthly, large packages Young Christian Soldier and other papers, leaflets, Sunday School, Christmas and Easter cards. A number of books, among which were Church Doctrine, Bible Truth, Holy Living, Commentary on Te Deum, Good Friday Addresses, Christ and His Church, Black Letter Saints, nine copies Scripture History for the Young, and many good Sunday School instruction books.

The Churchman has been asked for by two or three. Will not some parish send a year's subscription for this paper, to be sent to a hard-working Archdeacon in the West?

Respectfully submitted,

D. A. KELLEY,
Librarian Lower Division.
