Secretary's Report.

The twenty-second annual meeting of the New Jersey Branch of the Woman's Auxiliary to the Board of Missions, was held in St. Michael's Church, Trenton, Wednesday, April 28, 1897. Thirty-eight parishes were represented by over one hundred and fifty delegates. At the opening service, and in the celebration of the Holy Communion, the Bishop was assisted by the Rev. Dr. Jones, Rector of St. Michael's Church. The Rev. Dr. Langford, who had been asked to address the meeting, was most happily introduced by the Bishop, who took the opportunity to speak in glowing terms of the never-failing courage and energy of the General Secretary to the Board of Missions.

Dr. Langford gave a synopsis of the work of the Missionary Board from its beginning. An address so full of instruction and encouraging results, could not fail to warm the hearts of his hearers to greater efforts in the future. The Bishop spoke a few words in the interest of the Missions House and introduced the Rev. Mr. Knight, who gave a very interesting account of the work.

At the afternoon meeting reports of the different branches of the mission field were presented and read as follows:

For Diocesan Missions . . . . .	$ 536.23
“ Indian “ . . . . .	1530.14
“ Freedmen “ . . . . .	1595.36
“ Mexican “ . . . . .	337.00
“ Foreign “ . . . . .	1140.87
“ Domestic “ . . . . .	3937.03

The Junior Auxiliary reported thirty branches and amount raised in boxes and money, $725.66, included in the above figures.

A new feature of the work, introduced this year, is the Babies' Branch. The Rev. Dr. Jones, Rector of St. Michael's Church, Trenton, made a strong appeal in behalf of these little ones for a share in our work, and Mrs. Jones accepted the position of Secretary of this Branch.

Five new branches have been added to the roll: St. Paul's, Westfield; All Saints' Memorial, Lakewood; All Saints', Navesink; St. Peter's, Rancocas and St. John's, Somerville.

At the annual election all of the officers were re-elected. Miss Tweedy, who has for seventeen years filled the offices of secretary and treasurer, finding herself unable to give the necessary time for the combined work of the two offices, requested that the work be divided, she to retain the treasurership and a new secretary be elected. The delegates expressed their appreciation of Miss Tweedy's long and faithful service in their behalf by a rising vote of thanks, and elected Mrs. Charles J. Taggart to act as secretary.

Respectfully submitted,

HATTIE P. TAGGART,

Secretary.

President's Address.

It may truly be said that the spirit of missionary effort is the life-blood of the church. Without this heaven-born aid parochial life languishes and dies. "It takes faith, hope and love to work for Missions," as Bishop Nichols said in Minneapolis, but it returns to the heart a reflex flow of each of these graces.

Given a grand church, buildings unexceptional, music of the highest order, crowded pews, with no special interest in missions outside of its own belongings, and the pulse of spiritual life beats feebly, the bright blood fails to warm the hearts of the worshippers. But in some humble chapel, with its plainer surroundings, its heart-felt praise and prayer glowing with love for the Master and longing to tell his name to the untaught world, there surges and burns the spiritual power which makes itself felt to all within the sound of its soul-stirring worship.

We may not measure our work by its gifts of money. The interest which shows itself forth by attendance upon the meetings for conference and prayer, is more helpful than large collections, which are often forced by motives foreign to the true spirit of love and charity.

And we come to-day with thankful hearts, feeling that in the past year the work of our Auxiliary has grown and prospered.

At Woodbridge we were favored to hear from Bishop Gailor most earnest, stirring words which can never be forgotten, and at Roselle Bishop Hare's account of his work might well warm all hearts and strengthen their desires to aid more effectively in the missionary cause.

In the Lower Division deep interest has been shown by the large attendance at the meetings held at Moorestown and at Camden. The neighborhood meetings have been a source of pleasure to the officers privileged to attend them. These are now a strong feature of our work in both the Upper and Lower Divisions. Continually meeting together, face to face, and heart answering to heart in conference, has been a benefit to the workers. Two meetings of the Executive Committee have been held during the year; one in conference with the parochial secretaries, last May, in Christ Church, Trenton, and the other in March, in Elizabeth. While we in New Jersey in common with all others, have felt the hard times lessening our receipts, we have also been cheered by the increasing interest in the members of our Woman's Auxiliary to the Board of Missions. We are grateful for the continued and greater aid from the Rectors, who have been interested in our meetings and kindly invited us to "come again."

At the last meeting of the Diocesan Officers, in New York, it was suggested that a change of work might be profitable to the parochial branches; that instead of preparing boxes for one particular Freedman or Indian School each year, we might gain new interest and broaden our views by looking into the needs of some other part of the mission field, and studying human nature in a less trodden path. It is only necessary for our women to learn of want and their hearts urge them to immediate assistance. Mission work cannot be successfully moulded upon the straight rules of local charities. Love is the fulfilling of the law, here and ever. System in our gifts as well as work is most helpful. One of our neighboring Diocesan Branches reported through the Systematic Giving Committees that their Diocesan mission work had prospered greatly by the cent a week plan, which obtains in every parish.

We are hoping for added interest in Diocesan work in New Jersey, when some systematic method has been found of collections regularly for it. During the past winter a new enthusiasm in the work of domestic boxes has prevailed. It gives so much pleasure to the recipients, only excelled by that felt by the donors. Never can we measure the true helpfulness of this work, as we read the grateful letters, showing new life and energy brought forth by the loving work of sisters far away into the hearts of the tired worn-out missionaries and their wives. Each instance only quickens future efforts. As one parochial secretary writes, "It makes one want to do a great deal more, when they are so grateful for what does not seem so very much that we have done." One of our parochial branches has done some beautiful work in loving memory of a dear one gone Home. It has enjoyed making for clergymen and their churches in the mission field, vestments, stoles and chancel embroideries, thus brightening and lightening the hearts that receive their gifts. So true is it, that in seeking to do for others, comfort and help comes into our own lives. The Mexican problem has become clearer to many through the earnest study of the subject which our vice-president has made. Might it not be a good work for our Juniors to take up and learn to help their young Mexican sisters in their efforts to teach others? We find by their own report this year that the Juniors are alive to their work and responsibilities in the church, and the hopes resting upon them for the future.

Several parishes have already inaugurated the work of the "Babies Branch," and all must feel we cannot begin too early to train the young idea to give and pray.

The Missionary Lending Library has been enriched by some beautiful maps of China, Japan and Indian Stations. These will be of benefit to the work.

Our Librarians have enlarged their labors, and many church papers, periodicals and other literature find their way to homes longing for them and blessed by their use. May I ask the parochial secretaries to remember that no reports of work done for city missions or other charitable work not connected with the Board of Missions, can find a place in our annual report, except such as may be strictly for Diocesan missions under our own Bishop.

The Elizabeth Branch and Christ Church have met with a sad loss in the death of a faithful sister and vice-president. Fully ready for the Master's summons, Miss F. L. Hawley entered into her reward and rest on the 16th of last November. Faithful in all her duties for her church and missions, devoted to the sick and sorrowful prisoners, she heard with joy the blessed approval, "Sick and in prison ye visited me, enter thou into the joy of thy Lord."

May not all these loving memories make us rejoice and be thankful that so much has been done for our Lord Jesus Christ, and that to us are given for our encouragement the words of our King: "Inasmuch as ye have done it unto the least of these my brethren, ye did it unto Me."

Respectfully submitted,

S. H. CLARK.

Report of Upper Division.

Two meetings have been held in the Upper Division; in Trinity Church, Woodbridge, October 8, 1896, and St. Luke's Church, Roselle, February 9, 1897. An increasing interest in the work of missions is shown by the large attendance at these meetings. Addresses were made by Bishop Hare, of South Dakota; Bishop Gailor, of Tennessee; Miss Sybil Carter and Mrs. Hunter, of St. Augustine's School, Raleigh, each one telling of much good already accomplished, and begging for renewed sympathy and aid that the good work may go on. Five new branches have been added to the roll during the year: All Saints' Memorial, Lakewood; St. Paul's, Westfield; St. John's, Somerville; ~~and~~ St. Peter's, Rancocas; and All Saints, Navesink.

Respectfully submitted,

H. P. TAGGART,

Corresponding Secretary.

Report of Lower Division.

The stated meetings of the Lower Division were held in Trinity Church, Moorestown, October 21, 1896, and St. Paul's Church, Camden, February 24, 1897. The monthly neighborhood meetings were held in Beverly, Mount Holly, Burlington and Merchantville. Never in the history of the work have there been larger or more enthusiastic gatherings. Especially is this true of the stated meetings on both days; there was evinced by the large attendance a growing interest in the cause of missions.

The needs of the work were ably presented by Archdeacon Brady, Bishop Talbot, the Rev. Mr. Kinsolving, of Brazil, Mr. Hunter, of Raleigh, N. C., and the vice-presidents of the various branches.

The neighborhood meetings have also been eagerly attended, but they have lacked in force for a want of definiteness. At the last meeting in Merchantville, it was proposed for the next winter's work to deepen the interest in the cause by a study of the lives of our noted missionaries, hoping thereby to catch a loftier inspiration for our own labors. Therefore, at the neighborhood meeting next September there will be a paper read, written by one of the members of the auxiliary, on the life of Dr. Hill, of Greece. We cannot but feel that what is needed most is a spiritualizing of our forces, a deeper comprehension of the power of prayer in the work and a firmer reliance on our Father, with whom "All things are possible."

Respectfully submitted,

MARY V. GRICE,

Corresponding Secretary.

Missionary Lending Library of the Woman's Auxiliary of New Jersey.

The Lending Library, which was started two years ago for the purpose of giving information on the subject of missions, has been gradually increasing, until now it contains a number of books, papers and maps. Any parish desiring to hold a missionary meeting by applying to the librarian, Mrs. F. S. Conover, can have books or maps sent to them, which they can keep from two to three weeks, then return to the librarian. It is hoped in this way to increase the interest in missionary work by giving a clearer idea of what is being done in all parts of the world by the different societies, and especially by the Woman's Auxiliary to the Board of Missions. The books consist of biographies of workers in the mission field, and of short histories of the work carried on. Several maps have been given to the library within the last few months; these have proved most useful, especially in interesting children. Donation of books or money will be most acceptable. It is hoped that more parishes will in the future avail themselves of the opportunity of procuring reading matter at the small expense of postage.

Report of Librarians.

The reports of Division Librarians are very encouraging. Hundreds of books, papers and magazines, also Easter and Christmas cards from the New Jersey Branch of the Woman's Auxiliary have found a welcome in the missionary field. A Junior Branch in Mount Holly sent a large box of Sunday School books to a mission in North Carolina. It is impossible for us to estimate the good done by this branch of our work, as some missionaries, in acknowledging the receipt of magazines and papers, state that when these have been fully enjoyed at their mission stations, they pass them on to others. One lady, a teacher, writes that The Churchman, received by her, is the only one in town, and is eagerly read by several families. The librarians are most anxious for donations in money for postage; much reading matter donated has to remain on hand for lack of means to pay postage.

Diocesan Constitution.

I.—NAME.

The name of this Society shall be, "THE NEW JERSEY BRANCH OF THE WOMAN'S AUXILIARY TO THE BOARD OF MISSIONS."

II.—OBJECT.

The object of this Society is to interest all women in the general missionary work of the church, to communicate missionary intelligence, and to secure increased contributions and prayers for the spread of the gospel of Christ.

III.—OFFICERS.

The officers of this Society shall consist of a president, vice-presidents, secretary and treasurer, division corresponding secretaries and librarians, to be chosen by the delegates from parochial branches at the annual meeting, and approved by the Bishop.

IV.—EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE.

The Executive Board shall be composed of the president, vice-presidents, secretary and treasurer, and corresponding secretaries. The board shall meet twice or more each year, these meetings to be arranged by the president.

The Right Rev. Bishop of the Diocese shall be a member ex officio of the Executive Board.

V.—DUTIES OF OFFICERS.

The president shall preside at all meetings and perform such duties as usually appertain to that office. The president and vice-presidents shall have charge and oversight of the several branches of mission work respectively—one for Domestic, one for Indian, one for Freedmen, one for Foreign, one for Mexico, one for Diocesan Missions and one for the Junior Auxiliary Work. There shall be one vice-president whose duty it shall be to take charge of a missionary lending library, to consist of books, maps, reports and all other literature that may be helpful to the women missionary workers in the diocese; said library to be for the use of all members of the Woman's Auxiliary in the diocese of New Jersey.

The secretary shall call the roll at the annual meeting, and prepare and read the minutes, performing all duties belonging to the office; and the treasurer shall take charge of all moneys appropriated to the incidental expenses of the Society.

The corresponding secretaries shall send to the rectors, vice-presidents and parochial secretaries notices of each Division meeting, keep the minutes of said meetings, make an annual report of the same, and diffuse among the parishes intelligence concerning the missionary work of the church.

The collections at Division meetings shall be used for the contingent fund of the Auxiliary and sent to the diocesan treasurer.

Librarians shall communicate with all the parochial secretaries about such literature as may be contributed for missionary work, and keep an account of all given and where sent, reporting the same at the annual meeting.

VI.—REPRESENTATION.

Any parish may become a member of this Society by appointing a secretary and notifying the president. The secretary of the parochial branch is expected to correspond with the diocesan officers, and they alone correspond with the secretaries in New York, and transmit to them all moneys.

A membership fee of ten cents shall be paid annually by all members towards a general missionary fund. Each parish shall send to the annual meeting two or more delegates.

VII.—MEETINGS.

The annual meeting shall be held the last Wednesday of April. On the second and fourth weeks in October and February, there shall be meetings respectively in the Upper and Lower Divisions to enable the vice-presidents to present their several branches of work. Any other meetings which may be deemed advisable can be held at times proposed by the parishes or corresponding secretaries and concurred in by the president.

VIII.

The constitution may be amended by a two-thirds vote at any annual meeting. Any proposed alteration in the constitution must be submitted to the Executive Board in writing before bringing it before the Auxiliary.
