REPORT OF SECRETARY.

The Secretary feels that in presenting this Twentieth Report of the Woman's Auxiliary of the Diocese of Newark, she has little that is new to note. The work done has been upon the old and tested lines. Our meetings have been held regularly, and our ranks have been mercifully blessed, in being almost the same as last year. Our report begins as usual with the notice of the Annual Meeting on the first Wednesday of November, in St. Luke's Church, Montclair, where we were privileged to hear Bishop Gilbert, of Minnesota, Bishop Penick and Bishop Gailor of Tennessee, together with Mrs. Twing, the Honorary Secretary and Miss Emery. I think that the benefit of attending such meetings and listening to the stirring appeals of these laborers in the missionary fields, could scarcely be more emphasized than by the fact that one member of our Auxiliary Branch, hearing the Assistant Bishop of Minnesota tell of the touching need of an Indian station, was moved to give a check so generously large as to cover the expenses of that work for a year. The hospitality received at the hands of the good people of St. Luke's, the beautiful new church and parish rooms, will long be remembered by those who were present. The Secretary would suggest that each active member of our Auxiliary should make it part of her business to bring one other person to these meetings during the coming year, as a means of increasing our work. We greatly need individual personal effort to multiply the channels of doing good.

We are glad to record the first Report of the Junior Auxiliary, and its showing of work already accomplished is happy augury for its future. Nothing can be more important than the proper and systematic training of the young, to take the places of those who may fall by the way.

It will be observed that by an alteration of the By-laws, an Appendix has been added to this year's report, containing the amount of strictly Church Work of Women, in connection with charitable institutions. The subject of the United Offering has received an unusual amount of attention throughout the past year. It is a source of gratitude that so goodly a sum has gone out from our Diocese towards this object of endowing a permanent Episcopate for some Missionary Jurisdiction.

Our branch of the Woman's Auxiliary was gladdened by the addition to its membership of the Parish of Saint Peter's, Morristown, with its large list of delegates. They are most cordially welcomed. By the alteration of By-Law in the Constitution, which was amended by a majority vote, it will be seen than an Appendix has been added to our report of work done by women on strictly Church lines, in charitable Institutions in the Diocese. Praying that the coming year may be one of greater usefulness, and larger growth in our several departments, and above all asking the prayers of each member for increased spirituality, earnestness of purpose and personal consecration, the Secretary respectfully submits her report.

HARRIET C. CHRISTIAN, Secretary.

REV. GEORGE S. BENNITT, President.

THE HOUSE OF THE GOOD SHEPHERD.

This home for aged and infirm persons is carried on by the united efforts of most of the parishes in the Oranges. The sources of income are: Charges for care of inmates, paid either by friends of inmates or by parishes; gifts of money or supplies, and some regular monthly contribution paid within a parish to a parish treasurer. At present every room is occupied, making a family of twenty persons whose every necessity is provided for by the management. The Purchasing Committee during the year expended the sum of $2,764.98 for the general running expenses of the house. Besides this, bills for coal, repairs, etc. are met directly by the Treasurer. If it were not for gifts of pound packages at Christmastide by the church Sunday schools, of canned fruits, pickles, etc., from the store closet, from the the parishes, in November, and of fresh fruits and vegetables during the summer, the money in the hands of the Treasurer would be entirely inadequate for the needs of the old people. By timely help, the management has been able to give comfort and rest to many a weary one and looks with confidence to the friends of the old and helpless for ability to continue their work.
