SECRETARY'S REPORT.

The Secretary comes before the members of the Auxiliary in her report for the year '96 and '97 with a feeling of regret that more progress and larger gifts are not to be noted. Thirty-one dollars less in the total than that of last year, but if carefully examined it will be found that more has been done for the Diocesan Missions and less for both Colored and Domestic. The number of parishes represented is not increased as it ought to be. The average attendance of members is just about the same. May we not hope that with the revival of business prosperity our branch of work may find itself both able and willing to do a great deal more in the coming year? Surely if we could realize individually our responsibility in this matter of Missions the report of the deficit, which comes to us so often from the Board of Missions, need never be made. The last appeal of our much loved and deeply mourned General Secretary ought to inspire us with greater zeal and urge us to more earnest effort.

Our report begins as usual with the minutes of the annual meeting, held in St. Paul's Church, Englewood, on Wednesday, November 4th. Holy Communion was celebrated by the Bishop of the Diocese, assisted by the Rector, the Rev. Mr. Flichtner and the Rev. William Hughes, of Morristown. There was a most gratifying attendance of the clergy and the members of the Auxiliary. The cordial welcome of the Bishop, together with his words of appreciation of the work of the Auxiliary, were an inspiring commencement of the occasion. He regretted his failure to secure any Bishops from the missionary fields, and the absence of Bishop Holly, of Hayti, who was expected, was apologized for. The Rev. Dr. Hughes gave an admirable address upon Missions. He was followed by the Rev. Mr. Flichtner, who spoke particularly of Mexican Missions. He gave a full and most interesting account of the work in Mexico and begged that some to whom he spoke might be moved to pay the very small salary of one of those devoted priests, who are laboring there under such unusual difficulties.

An adjournment was made for luncheon, which was served in the new parish house, where every arrangement was made for the refreshment of the guests. A vote of thanks to the ladies of the Parish was offered and accepted and all present seemed to be glad that they had made a special effort to be there. In the afternoon the Bishop asked the Rev. Mr. Christian to tell something of what had been done at the late Missionary Council. He was followed by the Rev. Mr. Hills, of Westchester, who spoke in the interests of the Junior Auxiliary, giving a most instructive account of his methods concerning it in his own parish. The benediction pronounced by the Bishop closed the exercises of a most successful day.

Respectfully submitted,

HARRIETT C. CHRISTIAN,

Secretary of the Woman's Auxiliary of the Diocese of Newark.

Before January first of each year they shall send to the Treasurer all the Membership Fees and Parish Assessments, and shall give to the several Directresses the money contributed for the various departments of work.
