SECRETARY'S REPORT.

---

When the Secretary is called upon to review the work of the year past it is always with thankfulness that she notes even a small advance upon the total of other years.

This is the case now and although we must always realize that we fall short of what we can and ought to do, yet we may well be encouraged by what the report for the year past indicates. The General Secretary, in a circular to the Diocesan officers of the Woman's Auxiliary, emphasizes the need of more earnest prayers for Missions, first on the part of each member, then the giving of money conscientiously and systematically, and lastly the sending of boxes.

A more punctual attendance at the monthly meetings of the Auxiliary, on the part of the appointed parochial delegates, would be very efficacious in producing more substantial results. At these meetings the needs of the several Directresses are definitely explained, letters are read coming directly from the missionary fields, and interest excited which ought to bring both service and money. All this, however, is so much more strongly stated by speakers and writers at every meeting and in every missionary publication, that it is almost unnecessary to refer to it.

The Secretary would take this opportunity to urge upon the Secretaries of Parochial branches, the importance of sending in their reports correctly made out. If a monthly statement could be made of money to the Treasurer and of boxes to the Secretary, with date of each and to whom sent, it would greatly facilitate the preparation of the yearly report.

SECRETARY'S REPORT.

The Junior Auxiliary this past year has kept up its interest, we have gained one new Branch but have lost one, so in numbers we are the same. Nearly all the Junior Branches show good work done.

At our October meeting held in Trinity Chapel, Newark, there was a good attendance and we heard two very interesting speakers, the Rev. Mr. Merrill of Oneida, Wisconsin, and Mrs. Brooks of Cuba. Our Spring Missionary Rally, held at Christ Church, Belleville, was not very well attended owing to the very stormy weather. Those who came felt repaid by the interesting address on Missions in Japan by the Rev. Dr. Correll, one on Diocesan Missions by Archdeacon Mann, and one on the growth of Missions by Rev. Mr. Bradner of New York. After the service refreshments were served in the Sunday School room, after which all returned to their homes, only regretting that more could not have been there.

Respectfully submitted,
 EMMA W. ABBOTT,

MAY 19, 1900.
