NOONDAY PRAYER FOR MISSIONS.

Blessed Saviour, who at this hour didst hang upon the Cross, stretching forth Thy loving arms; grant that all mankind may look unto Thee and be saved: through Thy mercies and merits, who livest and reignest with the Father and the Holy Ghost ever, one God, world without end, Amen.

O Lord, Jesus Christ, who in the days of Thy Flesh didst accept the services of faithful women who ministered unto Thee of their substance; be pleased, we humbly ask to bless our endeavors to aid and encourage missionaries. Put into our hearts the things we should do and say to promote Thy glory. Grant that we may never be discouraged under difficulties, but go forward in faith and hope, looking unto Thee. Hear us, and answer this our prayer, for Thine own Name's sake. Amen,

O God, who hast made of one blood all nations of men for to dwell on the face of the whole earth, and didst send Thy blessed Son to preach peace to them that are far off, and to them that are nigh; grant that all men everywhere may seek after Thee and find Thee. Bring the nations into Thy fold and add the heathen to Thine inheritance. And we pray Thee shortly to accomplish the number of Thine elect and to hasten Thy kingdom, through the same Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

CONSTITUTION AND BY-LAWS.

ART. I The name of this society shall be The North Carolina Branch of the Woman's Auxiliary to the Board of Missions.

ART. II. The object of this society is threefold—viz:—Prayer for Missions, Study of Missions and Work for Missions.

ART. III. The officers of this society shall be as follows, a President, Vice-President, Secretary, Treasurer, four Convocational Secretaries; two Secretaries and Treasurers for the Juniors and two for the Babies' Branch; Secretaries for the United Offering, and C. P. C.

ART. IV. All the women of the Church are, by baptism, entitled to be members of the Woman's Auxiliary, and this active membership shall be recognized by annual contributions to the Central Fund.

ART. V. There shall be an annual meeting of this society; time and place to be decided by the executive board.

ART. VI. The Diocesan officers constitute the executive board and, under the Bishop, direct the work of this Branch of the Auxiliary.

ART. VII. This Constitution may be altered by a two-thirds vote of any Annual Meeting.

BY LAWS.

1. It shall be the duty of the President to call meetings, preside over them, and have general oversight of the whole work.

2. It shall be the duty of the Vice-President to act in the absence of the President.

3. It shall be the duty of the Secretary to conduct the correspondence of the society; to prepare for the Bishop and the Diocesan Convention an Annual Report of the work of the Auxiliary and to have printed for circulation a report of the work and of the Annual Meeting.

4. It shall be the duty of the Treasurer to receive all moneys and disburse the same.

5. It shall be the duty of the Convocational Secretaries to keep in touch with the existing branches and to form new ones.

6. It shall be the duty of the Secretaries and Treasurers of the Junior Auxiliary and of the Babies' Branch to have the oversight of the work in their Branch; to receive all moneys and pay out the same by May 1st; and to send an annual report to the Secretary.

7. It shall be the duty of the Secretary for the United Offering to arouse interest in the fund by correspondence and the circulation of literature.

8. All moneys shall be paid quarterly to the Treasurer; the last payments to be made not later than the first day of May.

REPORT of the Diocesan Secretary of the Woman's Auxiliary to the Bishop at the Convention held in Tarborough, May 16th and 17th, 1907.

Rt. Rev. Father in God:

In reviewing the work of the Woman's Auxiliary for the past year I find that little change has taken place in us externally. We have had a healthy, natural growth; in interest, in offerings and in numbers;—I trust there has been spiritual growth as well.

For the first time since I have been in office there has been no change in the list of Diocesan Officers; and this body, from longer experience, and better knowledge of each other and of their required duties, has done better work. The semi-annual meetings of the Officers and members of the Auxiliary during the sessions of the Convocations have also added to our interest and efficiency; and I would suggest that these meetings be held each fall when there is no Triennial Meeting of the United Auxiliary.

I regret to report the loss, by death, of several valuable parochial officers; but the influence of their life and works is still with us to help us.

I have visited during the past year; the Woman's Auxiliaries of Tarborough; Lawrence; St. Mary's, Edgecombe; Rocky Mount; Enfield; Christ Church, Church of the Good Shepherd, St. Mary's and St. Savior's, Raleigh; Mayodan; Madison; Stoneville; Duke; St. Matthew's, Hillsboro and St. Athanasius, Burlington. The Juniors Auxiliaries of Tarborough; Christ Church, St. Mary's and St. Saviors', Raleigh; Mayodan and Hillsboro.

I have also visited several factory towns; and have endeavored to interest all the branches in our Diocese in the good work which is being done by our Church and her Missionaries among these people. In Duke I organized a branch of the Woman's Auxiliary; and in Mayodan, where I had organized the women a year ago, a branch of Juniors, composed of more than forty factory children.

The work done by the Junior Department this year has been especially encouraging; the old branches have grown and new branches have been formed.

Not quite so many branches have reported a Mission Study Class as did last year; but our women do not forget the Intercessory Days which are very generally observed.

Twenty five years ago a Branch of the Woman's Auxiliary was organized in this Diocese, at a meeting of the Convention held in this parish. It was composed of six branches, only FOUR of which are in the present Diocese of North Carolina. Their members amounted to 119; their offering $261.60. Today we have have 123 branches, including the Junior Department; 2132 members, and our offerings amount to $4,434.42.

This may sound encouraging; and yet I pray that we may not be satisfied until every Parish and Mission Station has a missionary society; and we are doing not WELL—nor better than we did last year—but the best that is in us.

Besides these regular offerings we have placed on God's Altar this morning a gift;—I know not how much; it may be small; I trust it is great. But whether great or small it is given to Him as a Thank Offering;—that He has caused His light to shine upon us; and that we are allowed to carry that light to those who sit in darkness.

May our offering be precious in His sight!

MINUTES OF OFFICERS' MEETING.

The Diocesan Officers' of the North Carolina Branch of the Womans Auxiliary held a business meeting in Calvary Chapel, Tarboro N. C., May 16th, 1907, at 11:30

The following officers were present:

Mrs. John Wilkes, President.
Miss Kate Cheshire, Secretary.
Mrs. Dorian Blair, Treasurer.
Mrs. R. H. Lewis,
Mrs. R. W. Winston,
Mrs. John T. Bennett,
Miss Addie Smith,
Mrs. E. G. Rawlings,
Mrs. W. J. Smith,
Mrs. Frank Spruill.

Miss Emery's request that we consider the advisability of limiting representation of Diocesan officers at our Triennial Meetings was duly considered and the following resolution adopted.

Resolved:—That four delegates with four alternates from each Diocese be sent to the Triennial Meetings of the Woman's Auxiliary.

Miss Cheshire was requested to prepare certificates for credentials to be used by delegates attending the Triennial Meeting in Richmond, Va., October, 1907.

Miss Cheshire was also asked to have leaflets for United Intercessory services printed, these to be sent upon request of Parochial Secretaries. Meeting adjourned.

KATE S. BENNETT,
Recording Secretary.

MINUTES.

At 3:30 Thursday afternoon, May 16th, 1907, The Woman's Auxiliary of the Diocese of North Carolina assembled in Calvary Chapel, Tarboro, N. C. Bishop Cheshire opened the meeting with prayer, followed by the singing of Hymn 249. Very briefly the Bishop spoke words of welcome and encouragement to this gathering and Mrs. John Wilkes, President of the Auxiliary called us to order. Most graceful and hearty was the welcome extended us by Mrs. Charles Parks, President of the Calvary Branch, Tarboro. Mrs. Wilkes responded for the Auxiliary. Our hearts were full of thankfulness as we listened to Mrs. Wilkes' address and her sketch of the twenty-five years growth of the Auxiliary in this Diocese. Miss Cheshire, Diocesan Secretary, voiced the sentiments of every woman present when she spoke loving words of appreciation of Mrs. Wilkes' devoted service to the Auxiliary for the past quarter of a century. A rising vote further expressed our satisfaction with our honored President.

Mrs. Dorian H. Blair, Treasurer, read her report. Mrs. Blair urged all Parish Branches to send money direct to her, thereby saving trouble and confusion.

Mrs. R. H. Lewis, gave us a concise account of work done for the past year in the District of Wake.

Mrs. R. W. Winston, of Durham, her co-laborer in the Raleigh Convocation gave us ideas for future improvement as well as facts of work accomplished.

Much to the regret of the Auxiliary Mrs. John Van Landingham, of Charlotte, was detained at home by sickness in her family.

Mrs. John T. Bennett reported for the District of Guilford, Convocation of Charlotte, her work being confined to writing the various Branches in this District and endeavoring to stimulate interest in our Jubilee Offering and in Mission Study. The death of three parochial officers was mentioned and much deplored, viz:

Mrs. Thos. R. Sharpe for many years President of Leaksville Branch Woman's Auxiliary.

Mrs. Robt. E. Gibson President All Saints' Woman's Auxiliary, Concord, N. C.

Mrs. M. E. MacCauley the faithful Secretary of St. Paul's Woman's Auxiliary, Monroe, N. C.

Miss Addie Smith of Scotland Neck, our able Secretary for the United Offering made a report showing the Diocesan Branches are unusually interested in our next Triennial Offering to be made in Richmond, Va., October, 1907.

The United Offering is nearing the $1000.00 mark with one more collection to be taken.

Owing to continued ill health our faithful Secretary of the Church Periodical Club, Miss Rebecca Cameron, was unable to be present. Miss Cheshire read her report.

Miss Cameron resigned her office, but this resignation was not accepted.

Miss Jarvis of Connecticut was then introduced to the Auxiliary.

A letter from Miss Emery, read by Mrs. Wilkes, asked that the North Carolina Branch of the Woman's Auxiliary observe St. Matthew's Day, September 21st, 1907, as a day of special intercession for our mission work.

A most gratifying letter from Miss Emery on the subject of the Apportionment for North Carolina was read by Miss Cheshire.

Apportioned $320.00, the North Carolina Branch has given $413.67.

Roll Call by the Diocesan Secretary followed. The number of Diocesan officers and the unusually good attendance of delegates showed how deeply our hearts have been aroused by the "Silver Jubilee Offering".

As the Parishes were called many of their representatives gave us hints for future use and enthusiastic words speaking increased interest in every form of mission work.

Miss Addie Smith made a plea for the work of our Church in Duke, N. C. It is desired to place our efforts in this new mill town on a practical basis.

Rev. J. J. Chapman of Kanazawa, Japan, to whom we had listened with so much interest in Calvary Church Wednesday night gave us a ten minute talk about his work in Kanazawa. This missionary with one native helper occupied a thickly populated field as large as the State of North Carolina.

His account of the embroidery school in Kanazawa and the exhibition of his stoles fashioned and and embroidered by Japanese women was most interesting to us all.

At 6:00 o'clock the meeting adjourned and the delegates and visitors assembled at the residence of Mr. S. S. Nash where a reception was given by Calvary Parish to the members of Convention and the Woman's Auxiliary.

Friday morning at 10:30 the Woman's Auxiliary and many in the Junior ranks gathered in Calvary Church to attend our long anticipated Jubilee Service. It was a Jubilee indeed. From the first ringing notes of Hymn 580 till the two hundred or more communicants had received the soul-strengthening food of the communion administered by our Bishop assisted by faithful Priests, there was devout attention to the service. Particularly happy was the magnificent tribute paid by Rev. Harris Mallinckrodt to the work and love of Woman all over the world.

Mr. Mallinckrodt chose for his text 13th, 14th and 15th verses of the forty-fifth Psalm.

The silver offering was collected by the four Deacons—Crosby, Brown, Blackwelder and Trott and received by Rev. Alfred Berkeley during the singing of Hymn 478. This offering amounted to $755.00.

This service held in the Church of such lovely proportions and hallowed memories, enhanced by beautiful music will be a life long delight to those who were fortunate enough to participate in it.

Immediately after service Rev. Thaddeus Cheatham of Wilson read the report of our Diocesan Secretary to the Bishop and the Convention called to order for that purpose.

From our happy Jubilee Service the Auxiliary met in Calvary Chapel and was called to order by Mrs. R. W. Winston.

Roll Call during the meetings showed one hundred and three delegates present besides many visitors.

Minutes of Diocesan officers meeting were read and approved.

The discussion of leaflets to be used at the Intercessory services was taken up.

The Auxiliary decided to use the same form of service as heretofore and the Diocesan Secretary was requested to have 1,000 of these leaflets printed for distribution to the various Parochial Branches.

A telegram of greeting from the Woman's Auxiliary of the Diocese of East Carolina was read.

The resolution concerning the advisability of restricting the attendance of Diocesan Officers at Triennial Meetings was fully discussed, the members present agreeing with the Diocesan Officers in the following resolution.

Resolved :—That four delegates—with four alternates—from each Diocese be sent to the Triennial Meetings of the Woman's Auxiliary.

Mrs. DeLaCroix of Oxford was asked to give us some particulars of the work of Miss Ellen Hicks, of Oxford, who is the only woman from the Diocese of North Carolina at work in a far distant field. Miss Hicks is a trained nurse of experience and has been at work under Bishop Brent in the Philippines. She is temporarily in the United States. It was moved, seconded and carried that Miss Hicks' work in Manila be added to our next pledge list.

Meeting adjourned.

At 3:30 P. M., May 28th, one of the most interesting of our sessions was held.

This meeting was attended by representatives from various Branches of the Junior Auxiliary as well as by the Seniors.

Mrs. S. D. Rawlings, Secretary of the Junior Auxiliary in the Convocation of Raleigh, gave us an account of magnificent work done by the Juniors.

She noted one new Branch, Holy Innocents, Henderson.

St. Mary's School is in the lead.

Miss Cheshire read us a letter from Mrs. M. A. Bland Secretary Junior Auxiliary in Charlotte Convocation.

Mrs. Bland reported 3 new Branches formed and bright hopes for future gifts and study among the Juniors.

Miss Cheshire with her cordial, tactful manner welcomed the Juniors, their mothers, aunts and leaders. The Tarboro Juniors attended and their report showed them to be a compact, well organized body.

An interesting account of the work done by the Babies' Branch in the Convocation of Raleigh was read by their Secretary Mrs. Frank Spruill.

Mrs. W. J. Smith to whose heartfelt and untiring efforts much of the success of the Babies' Branch in this Diocese is due read her report as Secretary of this department in the Charlotte Convocation.

As the Silver Offering had not reached the $1000.00 mark a collection amounting to $18.64 was taken up and Miss Cheshire received further pledges from individuals and parish branches. The greatest enthusiasm prevailed and our offering speedily climbed to $921.00. Later payments showed us to have given more than 1000 silver dollars to be used for some Diocesan work not yet decided on.

Artistic and beautiful silk bags in which the offerings from various Branches were laid on the altar were exhibited.

A collection for Miss Hicks' work was taken up and amounted to $17.30

Miss Jarvis of Connecticut made a most interesting address on the mission work of our Church in various fields.

Her talk was given mainly to the Juniors but older heads found pleasant information in it. Miss Jarvis is a fluent, graceful speaker and exemplified the Chinese expression of Christian workers, those with "the light in their faces". She answered several questions asked her by Junior Directors then gave us a graphic account of the work of Mr. and Mrs. Stanton in the Philippines, among the Igorotes.

With a rising vote of thanks to the Tarboro ladies who did so much to make this never-to-be-forgotten Annual Meeting a success the Auxiliary adjourned to meet next year in Raleigh.

Respectfully submitted,

KATE S. BENNETT,

Recording Secretary.

After the regular business session an adjourned meeting of the Junior Auxiliary was held and Rev. Alfred Berkeley gave an informal talk on the life and experiences of a missionary in a factory town.

From 6:00 o'clock to 7:00 Mrs. Stamps Howard delightfully entertained the members of the Auxiliary, their visitors and friends.

At 8:00 o'clock on Friday evening was held the last great service of our Jubilee Meeting. Bishop Cheshire gave an interesting sketch of the work of the Auxiliary in his Diocese; and strong missionary addresses were made by the Rev. Mr. Cheatham on General Missions; Rev. Mr. Barber on Foreign Missions, and Rev. Mr. Berkeley on Missions to the Children. An additional offering of $35.85 was made for the Silver Jubilee Fund.

CONVOCATION OF RALEIGH

TWELFTH ANNUAL REPORT

APRIL, 1907.

Little Baby Helpers
Greet us here again,
Each with baby pennies
In its tiny hand.

Sending out glad tidings
Over seas and lands,
Sending forth their pennies
From their baby hands.

Sending to the regions
Of the frozen North;
Sending to the Islands
Of the torrid South.

Helping other babies,
Helping aged men,
Helping weary mothers,
Helping heart and hand.

Help from Baby Helpers
To those of aid in need
Is winged with a blessing—
Is help Divine, indeed!

When in day of Judgment
The Heavens are unrolled,
Every penny given
Will be harp of gold.

Suffer little children,
Said the Christ of old,
Suffer little children
To enter in the fold.

Theirs the crown of glory!
Theirs the smile of joy!
Theirs the sweetest story!
Baby girl and boy!

“God bless all the missionaries all over the world, and all the little helpers, for Jesus sake. Amen!”

“And Jesus called a little child unto Him and set him in the midst of them, and said, “Verily I say unto you, except ye be converted, and become as little children, ye shall not enter into the kingdom of heaven.

“Whosoever, therefore, shall humble himself as this little child, the same is greatest in the kingdom of heaven.

“And whoso shall receive one such little child in My name, receiveth Me.”

"SUFFER THE LITTLE CHILDREN TO COME UNTO ME AND FORBID THEM NOT; FOR OF SUCH IS THE KINGDOM OF GOD."

REPORT OF UNITED OFFERING.

As Secretary of the United Offering I extend the cordial thanks of the Woman's Auxiliary to the Women of the Diocese, to whose noble efforts we are indebted for the sum which the Treasurer reports $904.21, and with the prospect of another offering in September, there should be a goodly sum carried to Richmond in October. I distinctly recall the feeling of timidity which came over some of us when the idea of a United Offering was first broached—For it was to be over and above the regular work of the Auxiliary. In 1886 the little sum of $82.00 was carried home in a handkerchief. Then came the request for $56,000.00 to endow the Bishopric of Alaska. It was promptly met, and with each triennial, the mark has steadily grown higher, until it reached the $150,000.00 in 1906. The Diocese of North Carolina sent $1,000.00 as her share in that. What will be our portion in this our Silver Jubilee Year? The use which is made of this money is far reaching in its results. There are 52 women workers who are dependent on the United Offering for their support. There are 15 of this number sent to the State of North Carolina, 6 to our Diocese, 6 to Asheville, and 3 to East Carolina.

I would like to call your attention to one fact, that it is partly due to this Diocese that we have a United Offering in a United Church. Only two Southern Bishops attended the General Convention which met in Philadelphia in 1865. Bishop Lay, Missionary Bishop of Arkansas, Bishop Atkinson of North Carolina. The Diocesan Convention had elected your former beloved rector, Rev. Jos. B. Cheshire the clerical delegate, and Mr. R. H. Smith of Scotland Neck the lay delegate. In the Memorial Sermon on Bishop Atkinson which Bishop Lay delivered before the Convention of North Carolina, May 18th, 1881, he says, "To the tact, the gentleness, the manly outspokenness of Bishop Atkinson the church is indebted for the honorable result of this venture." A lay delegate from Tennessee told a lady (not being aware that she had ever known him) that the Conservative conduct of Mr. Richard H. Smith in the House of Lay Delegates, was equally effective. People urged Dr. Cheshire not to go, for fear of some harm happening to him in those troublous times. But they spoke to the wrong man. If there ever was a soldier of Christ ready to light under the Banner of the Cross, he was one. This place, this occasion, stir up feelings of loyalty and reverence for him which must have utterance. Trinity Church, Scotland Neck, claims a share in the tribute paid to him by loving hearts.

TO THE JUNIORS OF THE CONVOCATION OF RALEIGH.

MY DEAR JUNIORS:

The pledge ($40.00) to the Holy Trinity Orphanage, Tokyo, Japan, for the tuition of Yoshio has been paid. $26.25 by ten branches of this Convocation. The Secretary of the Convocation of Charlotte reported Four ($4.00) from two branches. The deficit ($9.75) has been drawn from the Central Fund and forwarded as a gift from you.

The Central Fund has been further depleted by eight dollars ($8.00) paid Treasurer of the Woman's Auxiliary for printing Journal and Two Dollars ($2.00) for incidentals.

The United Offering, up-to-date, is	-	-	-	43.09
Interest	-	-	-	3.79
				$46.87

Will you not join with the Convocation of Charlotte and strive to place on the Alms Basin at the Triennial Meeting at Richmond, one hundred shining gold dollars, a gift from the Juniors of the Diocese of North Carolina, worthy of Him who has made childhood the days of pleasantness and peace?

Sincerely yours,

SALLY D. RAWLINGS.

TO THE JUNIORS OF THE CONVOCAATION OF CHARLOTTE:

It is with unfeigned pleasure that I review the work of the Juniors in this Convocation in the past year. The report is most gratifying, the more so that the keynote is more and better work next year. In a few cases the work has fallen short of last year's, but in each case with good reason.

I wish to urge Directors, Officers and Juniors to study, work, pray, give, keep the interest alive, interest others both in and out of their own parish. Every parish however small or weak should have a Junior Branch. Let us put our shoulder to the wheel and strive to have every son and daughter of the Church taught their duty towards the Church's Missionary work, and impress upon them that it should be their pleasure as well as duty to do their part towards fulfilling our Saviour's command "Go ye and preach the Gospel to every creature."

THE BABIES' BRANCH OF THE WOMAN'S AUXILIARY OF NORTH CAROLINA
CONVOCAATION OF RALEIGH

TWELFTH ANNUAL REPORT 1907.

Little Baby Helpers
Greet us here again,
Each with baby pennies
In its tiny hand.

Sending out glad tidings
Over seas and lands,
Sending forth their pennies
From their baby hands.

Sending to the regions
Of the frozen North,
Sending to the Islands
Of the torrid South.

Helping other babies,
Helping aged men,
Helping weary mothers,
Helping heart and hand.

Help from Baby Helpers
To those of aid in need
Is winged with a blessing—
Is help Divine, indeed!

When in day of Judgment
The Heavens are unrolled,
Every penny given
Will be harp of gold.

Suffer little children,
Said the Christ of old,
Suffer little children
To enter in the fold.

Theirs the crown of glory!
Theirs the smile of joy!
Theirs the sweetest story?
Baby girl and boy!

TWELFTH ANNUAL REPORT OF THE BABIES' BRANCH
CONVOCAION OF CHARLOTTE

1907

MY DEAR LITTLE HELPERS:

This year when your Seniors are celebrating the Silver Jubilee, it is a great pleasure to report, that although your numbers are only three more than last year and your branches not quite so many, yet your offerings are a little more. You have been able to do a little more to spread the Gospel—the Glad Tidings. Our branch at Mocksville, of only one member, has been transferred to the Juniors.

Your gifts have gone to Japan to teach and train one orphan girl, to China to carry comfort to a sick child, to the Thompson Orphanage to help the Superintendent care for his seventy little ones. And here, too, the memorial gifts have this year gone to help care for the youngest child at the Orphanage—a wee little girl hardly three years old.

A part of your pennies have found their way to the mountains, to Bishop Horner's school at Valle Crucis, and a part to St. Augustine's School. We have not forgotten our retired Clergy, but a small gift goes to bring some help to these faithful ones who have given their lives for others and are now forced to "rest from their labors."

This year a special appeal was sent to the many branches in the Church, asking help to rebuild the Akita Kindergarten in Tokyo, a Kindergarten supported by the babies as a memorial to their leader, Gaylord Hart Mitchell, which was destroyed by fire last summer. Five dollars was given for this from three friends, one being the little girl enrolled as the first member of the North Carolina Babies' Branch.

The United Offering, the United work of the Babies, and the Central Fund have received their share, leaving just one bright silver dollar to add to the Silver Offering. For the Babies must have some share in this Thanksgiving service, and in 1932 when we come together to celebrate our Golden Anniversary, may the ranks of the Woman's Auxiliary be filled with those, who as babies learned to bring their treasures to Him who said, "The silver is mine and the gold is mine" and may they all be His "In that day when He shall make up His Jewels."

MRS. W. S. SMITH,

Charlotte, N. C., April 1907.

Affectionately,

A. T. SMITH

Silver Jubilee

President's Address and Report of Twenty-five Years of Auxiliary Work

FRIENDS, MEMBERS OF THE WOMAN'S AUXILIARY:

I am glad to be permitted to meet you again,—especially glad to meet you in Tarboro, the place where the North Carolina Branch was organized, and where we now meet to celebrate our 25th anniversary.

My address today will give you a short history of this Branch, its growth and its work. I am sure you will all feel grateful to our Heavenly Father for what He has enabled us to do for His service, and I ask you all to pray fervently that we may do more in the future in token of our gratitude.

In 1871, the General Convention of the Episcopal Church, in session at Baltimore, Md., established the Woman's Auxiliary to the Board of Missions as the authorized agency for Woman's Missionary work. All mission societies were directed to be merged in it—and all Woman's work was requested to report to the Convention through it. It is the only association for Woman's work that reports directly to the General Convention.

In October 1881, I asked Bishop Lyman if it would not be useful to establish a branch of the Woman's Auxiliary in the Diocese of North Carolina. He accepted the suggestion, and directed me to begin the work at once. Following his direction, I wrote to Miss Emery, Secretary, at the Church Mission Rooms, and in accordance with her instructions, I wrote to every Clergyman and to many women in the Diocese, which then comprised the whole State. The idea was well received, but establishment of branches was slow.

At the Diocesan Convention in Tarboro May, 1882, six branches reported and were organized as the North Carolina Woman's Auxiliary. I was elected Diocesan Secretary on the Bishop's appointment.

The six branches which formed the nucleus of our Auxiliary, were Trinity, Asheville; first organized as a Missionary Society in 1873.

St. Paul's Branch, Edenton; which dated from 1873.

The Branch in St. John's, Fayetteville; which had existed for a long time as a Parish Aid Society.

St. Peter's, Charlotte.

St. Matthew's, Hillsboro.

St. James', Lenoir.

This was our beginning in May, 1882, with about 100 members.

In May 1883, in Charlotte, the first annual report showed $666.44 as the financial value of the year's work. At this meeting ten branches reported.

In this year, East Carolina was set off as a separate Diocese, and soon organized its own Auxiliary, but the number of Branches in our own Diocese grew steadily.

In 1890 the Junior Department of the Auxiliary was established, with Miss Mary E. Horner as its head; and in May, 1891, five Junior Branches reported $272.65 as the sum of their work and boxes. In 1906 there were 34 Branches with 713 members, and the sum of $778.00 reported as the year's work of the Juniors. We may well be proud of them.

In 1895, the Missionary Jurisdiction of Asheville was set off, but the Auxiliary seemed to increase by sub-division, as the total sum of the work of the North Carolina Branch in the next year was more than any previous year, $1,913.64.

In 1895 also, the Babies Branch was organized, and the Blessed Babies have been helping the cause finely. Their Directors must tell their history.

In 1896, I was obliged to resign the office of Secretary and Treasurer, and the Bishop appointed Miss Horner as Diocesan Secretary.

It was also then deemed advisable to appoint more officers, the duties having outgrown one head, so the Bishop announced this list:

Miss Mary E. Horner, Diocesan Secretary.

Mrs. John Wilkes, Honorary Secretary.

Mrs. Montford McGehee, Raleigh, Sec'y of the Convocation of Raleigh.

Mrs. T. N. Hill, Halifax, Secretary of the Convocation of Tarboro.

Mrs. John Van Landingham, Charlotte, Secretary of the Convocation of Charlotte.

Miss Agnes Hairston, Davie County, Secretary of the Convocation of Salisbury.

Mrs. H. H. S. Handy, Secretary for the Junior Auxiliary.

Mrs. W. J. Smith, Scotland Neck, Directress of the Babies Branch.

The Auxiliary grew and increased under these new heads. Changes were made from time to time, as deaths occurred or officers moved away, but always the sums reported amounted higher, with increase in Branches and in membership.

In 1904, Miss Horner was compelled by ill health to resign her office, and in accordance with the earnest and insistent requests of the Auxiliary, the Bishop appointed Miss Kate Cheshire as her successor as Diocesan Secretary. Mrs. W. H. S. Burgwyn was made President. The following year, in Charlotte 1905, Mrs. Burgwyn resigned, and the Bishop then appointed me as President of the North Carolina Branch. I value this title very highly, because I know it represents the love of the Auxiliary women, as well as my Bishop's regard. But I only consented to hold the office on condition that the Secretaries were to do the work and let me be simply a figure head. I am too old for such work, and besides have much to do in the Church Hospitals in Charlotte.

But it is delightful to meet the Auxiliary women, and I cherish their regard and esteem as most precious. If I can't do much more, I can at any rate cheer you on.

Surely God has been good to us and has helped us in His service. And I trust our Jubilee Offering tomorrow will show our faith and our gratitude.

I have prepared a table which I am sure will interest you. This is the work of 25 years.

The Junior Department is to be congratulated on this report. May their Motto ever be—Upward and Onward—and may each year show us more of our young people engaged in Missionary work.

The total amount of the work and gifts of the three Branches of the Auxiliary is, for the Woman's Auxiliary,	$42,328.08
Junior Department,	10,567.68
Babies Branch,	1,522.81

Let us pray that our next 25 years' report may at least double this. The need of Missionary effort grows greater daily. Let us see to it that our interest, our gifts and our prayers grow in proportion. We must not relax our efforts, nor indulge in hopes that some one else will give and labor and pray. The work to be performed is OURS, with God's grace and favor to strengthen us.

May God's blessing rest upon the North Carolina Auxiliary, and on each of its members. And may He grant us to meet again—here or hereafter.

Respectfully,

JANE R. WILKES,
President N. C. Branch Woman's Auxiliary.

May 17th, 1907.
