The Fourteenth Annual Meeting.

At Painesville, beginning on the evening of Oct. 3, and continuing through the day of Oct. 4, the representatives of the Ohio Auxiliary came together in St. James' church.

Evening prayer was offered, and the full choir was present. The service was indeed full of spiritual help. The rector, Rev. Frederick B. Avery, gave us a hearty welcome in an address to which Bishop Leonard responded.

The venerable Archdeacon Kirkby gave one of his addresses, in which the merriment of a happy heart and the sympathy of a tender one, brought laughter and tears closely together.

The venerable Archdeacon Brown of Ohio then spoke appreciatively of woman's work, especially in this diocese, and appealingly for the future. A truer and better man and servant of God does not live than our Archdeacon. It is in his power to come very near the expecting, eager hearts in the Church, and Churchmen should stand by him with all the help he needs.

On Wednesday morning, services were held at half past eight, in Memorial Hall of Lake Erie Seminary, the Bishop for Africa, the Bishop of Ohio and other clergy participating.

The business meeting of the morning began in the chapel, at eight o'clock, and continued until the hour for Holy Communion. Satisfactory progress was made in the pledges. The Secretary's report was made at this meeting, and the united offering for the next Triennial explained. The roll-call showed nineteen branches, represented by forty-eight delegates.

Holy Communion was celebrated by Rt. Rev. Wm. A. Leonard, D. D., Bishop of Ohio, assisted by Rt. Rev. Samuel D. Ferguson, Missionary Bishop to Africa. Bishop Leonard in his address made an earnest plea to the Ohio Auxiliary to "despise not the day of small things," and to cultivate the grace of perseverance.

God helping us, we, the Ohio Churchwomen, will not forget or fail.

Then followed the address of Mrs. O. V. S. Ward, president of the Chicago branch of the Woman's Auxiliary. This was a rare treat, and we are glad to give it in full in the Church Life.

The business session was then resumed by a statement of the proceedings of the Warren meeting last year.

Mrs. Boalt, as committee on the division of the Auxiliary in parts corresponding to the convocations, reported that, owing to the expense, such a division was not practicable at this time; but asked that until such expense could be borne, the present advisory committee of the Ohio Auxiliary be enlarged by members from different parts of the diocese. This was afterward done by the appointment—with the approval of the Bishop—of Mrs. John Mack, of Sandusky; Mrs. Eliza R. Cooper of Mount Vernon, and Mrs. W. J. Hitchcock, of Youngstown (Mrs. Hitchcock and Mrs. Cooper have since signified their inability to accept the office). The advisory committee now consists of Mrs. Theodore Bury, Mrs. C. S. Bates, and the vice-president, Mrs. L. Lascelles. of Cleveland; and Mrs. John Mack.

Mrs. Adams, of Trinity, Cleveland, chairman of the committee on Mission Schools, made a most satisfactory report concerning these schools, leading us to believe with her, that the teachers of these schools are making every effort to give a sensible, helpful training to their pupils.

Mrs. Boalt made a brief report of the Baltimore meeting, a full report having been made last fall in Church Life. While on this point, Mrs. Boalt spoke of the need of empowering the duly authorized representatives of the Ohio Auxiliary to enter as diocesan officers into the meetings of officers at the general meetings of the Woman's Auxiliary, although these representatives might not be regular diocesan officers. A committee to draw up a constitution for the Ohio Auxiliary having been proposed, the matter of empowering representatives to act as officers was left to such committee.

Assent to the appointment of a committee on constitution having been given Mrs. Boalt appointed Mrs. F. H. Brown, of Warren, chairman; Mrs. C. E. Lester, Trinity, Cleveland; and Mrs. Theodore Bury, St. Paul's, Cleveland.

The question of having a set time for our annual meeting, say the last Tuesday and Wednesday in September, or the first Tuesday and Wednesday in October was referred to the committee on constitution.

The Bishop of Ohio then presented his statement of his use of the money paid him by the Woman's Auxiliary, which we give below. The resignation of Mrs. C. S. Bates of the office of vice-president was then presented. As this was on account of poor health we had to accept it, though we did it with great reluctance. Mrs. Bates has given herself to this work so unreservedly, so efficiently, that the Auxiliary owes to her much of its present strength. Her wisdom gave to the Auxiliary some of its best methods, and her energy its greatest successes. We are glad that she is to remain in the advisory committee. The Bishop appointed Mrs. L. Lascelles, of St. John's, Cleveland to take Mrs. Bates' place as vice-president.

The invitation of the Steubenville Auxiliary to hold the next meeting in their parish was referred to the advisory committee.

The lunch, as well as the reception of delegates and entertainment in private homes, showed the zeal, the systematic methods, the hospitality and the royal goodness of the Painesville people.

The after-dinner speeches of our brothers were full of wit and happiness.

The secretary is of the opinion that they like to come to women's meetings.

The address of Bishop Ferguson was worth to us the journey to Painesville. This closed one of the pleasantest of meetings. So helpful was it that already we can feel the promise of a fruitful year. Painesville! May God bless the rector and those earnest women.

It seems to us that the members of that parish are true descendants of members we have known, and who are among the saints for whom we bless the Holy Name.

MRS. F. H. BOALT,
Secretary Ohio Auxiliary.

The Bishop's Report.

The Bishop of Ohio begs to report to the Woman's Auxiliary of the diocese, that through Mrs. Boalt he has received from time to time checks for money amounting in all to $366.66; on this year, $317.83; last year, $48.83.

With this valuable aid he has been able to pay one-half of the stipends of our two missionaries in Cleveland. Rev. A. Lealtad, among the colored people, and the Rev. P. A. Molling, among the Germans of the West Side. The other half of these stipends is paid by the Board of Missions of our Diocese, and in this way, very directly, are your funds used as auxiliary to our endeavors in Church extension. Mr. Lealtad is doing successful work among his people. There are about seven thousand colored people in Cleveland, our See city. They are educated, intelligent, excellent people, and the services of our Church are being set forth attractively and winningly before them. I was able to confirm a fine class at old St. Peter's chapel, which the Cathedral and Home trustees have loaned for Mr. Lealtad's mission. Dr. Molling is a German, in Deacon's orders. He has built a home for himself at the very extreme west of Cleveland. In constructing his house he planned a chapel room on one side, where, with appropriate fittings and furniture, he holds his regular Sunday services. He has baptized a number of children and presented good classes for holy confirmation. As a doctor of medicine, he ministers to the sick bodies of the people, and is highly esteemed "for his works' sake" in all the neighborhood. I thank you, dear women of Ohio, for your benevolent and generous aid in this mission work, and beg earnestly for your continuance of assistance during this coming year.
