THE PRAYER FOR THE WOMAN'S AUXILIARY

Almighty God, our heavenly Father, bless, we pray Thee, our work for the extension of Thy kingdom, and make us so thankful for the precious gift to us of Thy beloved Son, that we may pray fervently, labor diligently, and give liberally to make Him known to all nations as their Saviour and their King; through the same Jesus Christ, our Lord. Amen.

INDIANS' HOPE

O God of all the peoples of the earth, we implore Thy blessing on the Indian tribes, the oldest inhabitants of our country. Pardon the oppression and wrong which we have inflicted on them. Grant that with justice and consideration our nation may care for its wards. Prosper, we pray Thee, all endeavors to win them to the knowledge of Thy Son, and to build them up in Christian faith and life. Protect and bless all who minister to their spiritual and temporal needs, and reward all who seek their good, through Jesus Christ, our Lord. Amen.

THE PRAYER FOR THE UNITED THANK OFFERING

O Lord, our heavenly Father, we pray Thee to send forth more laborers into Thy harvest, and to grant them Thy special grace for every need. Guard and guide the workers in the field, and draw us into closer fellowship with them. Dispose the hearts of all women everywhere to give gladly as Thou hast given to them. Accept, from grateful hearts, our United Thank Offering of prayer and gifts and joyful service; and bless it to the coming of Thy Kingdom through Jesus Christ, our Lord. Amen.

PRAYER FOR MISSION STUDY

Merciful Lord, we beseech Thee, cast the bright beams of Thy light upon the little groups that come together in Mission Study Classes throughout the Church: Grant them grace, to hear and see, that they may make known abroad Thy love; in that light to speak understandingly one to another of the work of Thy Holy Church and set forward her mission, in obedience to Thy commandment and according to Thy purpose, through Jesus Christ, our Lord, Amen.

COLLECT OF THE COMMISSION ON EVANGELISM

Almighty God, whose Son Jesus Christ came to cast fire upon the earth; grant that by the prayers of Thy faithful people a fire of burning zeal may be kindled and pass from heart to heart, that the light of Thy Church may shine forth bright and clear; through the same Thy Son, Jesus Christ, our Lord. Amen.

SUSAN RAMBO BENEDICT

It was with a sense of very great shock and very real sorrow that the members of the Woman's Auxiliary of the Diocese of Pennsylvania heard of the death of Mrs. Louis R. Benedict, and the following resolution of sympathy and appreciation was sent to her family:

"She walked with God and she was not, for God took her.

"Susan Rambo Benedict was taken on December 12 from the Mission sewing she loved, to rest with her Heavenly Father, whom she faithfully served. She inspired others to share her pride in perfect workmanship. Her meticulous care in every detail of the work of the Supply Department for twelve years has made her loss irreparable to all who were associated with her.

"Our Church is proud of the splendid ability she showed in furthering the work at Red Cross headquarters.

"Her friends in the Auxiliary cherish her memory and shall ever be inspired by the example of her untiring devotion."

ANNUAL REPORT OF THE PRESIDENT

In presenting my first report as your President, I want in the very beginning to acknowledge my thanks to the members of the Executive Board for their unfailing courtesy and co-operation. They are a splendid group of women to work with and I am deeply grateful for the privilege. I also want to thank the officers and members of the Parish branches for the cordial welcome they have given me and for their responsiveness to any and all suggestions that I have made. Without such help the year's work could not have been done.

Your first instruction to me was to appoint a Committee whose duty it was to nominate an Educational Secretary. This I did in May, 1932, with Mrs. Nathaniel Groton as Chairman. The Committee secured Mrs. James F. Bullitt, who accepted an appointment for one year, but who has since, I am happy to say, accepted the election for the remaining two years of the term.

During the year several appointments have been made. The first, that of Mrs. Harry F. Baker as Chairman of Mission Industries, who each Wednesday during the year has had a display of articles made in a number of our Mission Stations, both domestic and foreign. In addition she has visited eighteen branches, thus carrying the work into the Parishes. Mrs. Baker has done splendidly this past year and I am hoping she will continue.

Mrs. Lewis G. Morris has been appointed Devotional Chairman and may be called upon for help in developing the devotional part of our meetings. This is one of the most important parts of our Auxiliary work, though often quite neglected. There is however, increasing attention being paid to it as evidenced by the fact that 100 Parish branches had Corporate Communion this past year and 28 Parish branches had days of Intercession, while others had Quiet Days, Classes on Personal Religion, and one participated in a Week of Prayer.

A Field Department has been organized and to date four Convocational Chairmen have accepted their appointment.

Mrs. Edward Ingersoll for Norristown

Mrs. James T. Davis for Chester

Mrs. Henry Dillard for North Philadelphia

Mrs. James Kennedy for West Philadelphia

The object of this department is to develop the Auxiliary branches so that each one will be participating to the full in the Auxiliary program. We have met each month since October, and one result of our work was the President's Meeting in April, when seventy-eight branches were represented. The meeting proved so helpful that a second meeting was asked for, and is to be called early in the Autumn.

The Elizabeth Price Martin League for Service was also organized and there are already two units at work, one at the Philadelphia General Hospital, the other at our own Episcopal Hospital. Reports of both of these units follow. Mrs. William Jefferys has been appointed Chairman for Volunteer Service and may be seen at the Church House on Wednesdays after the meetings. If you wish to give volunteer service I am sure she can help you find the place where that service will be most effective.

It is interesting to find that Auxiliaries in addition to the great amount of work done for our Supply Bureau are also working independently for institutions in their community, thus we find that twenty-two branches sewed for hospitals (Germanatown, Episcopal, Frankford, Temple, Bryn Mawr, Abington and Philadelphia General), six branches do Needlework Guild work, others are working for the City Mission, Chapin Home, Western Home for Children, Western Temporary Home, Home for Incurables, House of Rest, Sheltering Arms, and Social Service League of Bala.

Devotional Day was a rare treat for those of us who spent it with the Rev. H. W. B. Donegan, then Rector of Christ Church, Baltimore, now Rector of St. James, New York. Because of the wrong choice of the day less than three hundred attended. We shall not make the same mistake again.

The Epiphany Missionary Day was an inspiration to us all; nearly 1000 women attended to hear the thrilling messages of Bishop Burleson, who came to us as Vice-President of the National Council to tell us of the opportunities the Church is facing in the domestic field; Dr. Tyler, recently elected warden of St. Michael's Ethete, Wyoming; and Mother Ursula, who gave us a very vivid picture of the Church in China during these troubled days.

We had our first Epiphany Tea at the Church Training and Deaconess School, 708 Spruce Street, when more than a hundred women attended, each bringing a gift for the School and becoming better acquainted with it. It is hoped this will become an annual event.

The Executive Committee of the Department of Missions also entertained at the School the foreign students, members of our Church, attending the University of Pennsylvania and Temple University. China, Japan, Cuba, Spain and Hawaii were the countries represented.

Mrs. Harper Sibley, a member of the National Executive Committee, of the Woman's Auxiliary, was with us in January and spoke at the meeting of the Foreign Committee and again in Holy Trinity Parish House that evening, when she spoke particularly of the report known to us as "Rethinking Missions."

Miss Grace Lindley, the National Executive Secretary of the Auxiliary, attended our Annual Meeting and gave us a stirring address on the future opportunity of the Auxiliary.

Your Executive Board has followed the example of the National Board and elected a representative of the Girls' Friendly Society to membership on the Board. Mrs. C. William Spiess, President of the Girls' Friendly Society, is serving in this capacity.

I do not want to specially emphasize our gifts of money, but I do want you to know that the five Standing Committees contributed during the year $20,250.02 for Quota and $5,760.86 for Specials; if we add $3,364.95 for the Supply Bureau, $17,056.86 for the Unemployment Bureau, $667.83 for Missions Study Offerings, and last but by no means least $21,974.72 for United Thank Offering, we shall find it amounts to $69,075.24.

Truly, money is a sacrament; the outward and visible sign of our love for our Risen Lord.

Thus during the year we have tried to realize the three-fold aim of the Woman's Auxiliary—Prayer, Study, Gifts—and in so doing helped to turn this world into the Kingdom of our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ.

Faithfully yours,

LEA F. HILL.

Our meetings began on September 28 with the celebration of the Holy Communion with Bishop Taitt as celebrant. Afterwards he spoke to us of the splendid examples of service rendered in many places, which are the greatest sermons of Christianity. Mrs. Haff, from the Church Missions House in New York, urged us to take up the study of the Indian as planned for the Auxiliary this year. This became our keynote and our meetings have been especially devoted to the study of the whole field that we might have a good background for the understanding of our Church work for the Indian.

In October, Mr. Sniffen, of the Indian Rights Association, told us of the injustice done to the Indians of Alaska by fishing companies of the United States. He commended our Church work at Fort Defiance, Arizona, and in other places.

In November Bishop Burleson cheered us with good news from various Indian fields; and told us that no note of discouragement was sounded by the missionaries in these difficult times.

The January meeting was held in conjunction with the All Day Missionary Day at St. James's Church. Dr. Barret F. Tyler was the speaker. Just a year ago the Rev. A. A. Hastings had told of the splendid work at Ethete, Wyoming, and it was with grateful and keen interest that we heard Dr. Tyler, who is the Rev. Mr. Hastings' successor, tell of the beautiful growth of this work.

At the February meeting an informal discussion was held on "Facing the Future in Indian Missions," which is the title of the Mission Study Book for the year. Mrs. Woodward, our President, made us recall what the Indians have lost through us. Mrs. Bonyne then gave the practical present side of the Indian. She said that she was frequently asked if the Indian population was not dying and if the work was worth while.

However, figures show that in the last ten years the Indian population has increased 25,000, and that there are at present 360,000 Indians; of these 41,000 are untouched by any denomination. We are trying to solve the problem by education, medical treatment, industrial training and religious education.

In order to have a better understanding of the Indian field Mrs. Woodward invited Mrs. Lauderbaugh, a member of the National Board of the Presbyterian Church, and who has visited and inspected the Indian reservations; to tell us of the work for Indians done by her Church. Mrs. Louderbaugh first spoke in glowing terms of our Church's work among the Dakota Indians and of the great love Presbyterians have for Bishop Burleson. The Presbyterians have concentrated on their evangelistic work in Southwest Arizona, having helped to reclaim this reservation from a desert waste, where there were famine and death for the Indian. They are stressing medical work with special emphasis on Nurses' Training Schools. Mrs. Louderbaugh spoke of the Indians' great task of living his life today; no race has a greater one.

In April Miss Lindley, Executive Secretary of the Woman's Auxiliary, gave a delightful impromptu talk. Often when she is traveling in various parts of the country and meets those who are lonely and miles from any churches she is asked, "Where is the Church strong?" "Philadelphia" is always her answer. Several parishes had had entertainments during the month in the interest of Indian missions and reported gratifying results and received thanks for their co-operation. A member of the Indians' Hope Association having asked for more specific data on our Indian Missions, Mrs. Woodward had written to each Bishop in whose diocese or missionary district there was an Indian reservation. Each Bishop had replied, and these replies Mrs. Woodward had compiled into a leaflet entitled "Indian Missions in the United States, 1933." The leaflet was read and copies were given to each delegate at the meeting.

The May meeting was held at Mrs. Woodward's house in Chestnut Hill. Mrs. Arthur Van Harlingen made a most urgent appeal for Dr. Silk and his work at Orleans, California. Mrs. Van Harlingen has received many letters from Dr. Silk and because of his real need of support asked any delegate to help him in some way during the Summer. Sister Horner, from Fort Thompson, told us of the real blessings derived from the Community House by every Indian man, woman and child who goes there. The house is in constant use from nine in the morning to ten at night.

In looking back over 1932 the Domestic Committee sees much to be thankful for and feels that the Parishes have accomplished more than any one could have expected in these times. Our only gage for work done is in dollars and cents, but we like to remind ourselves that this is merely the outward and visible sign; the real work is whatever share we have in what is accomplished in a spiritual way in the field, in helping those men and women to carry on.

We have tried to do our utmost to support the National Council Program, by concentrating on objects that count on the Quota, to which we sent $4,292.25. For Specials $768.00, this being a little more than last year, but as we sent only a very small amount for advance work our total is less.

We were obliged to give up our Treasurer, Mrs. Bullitt, who has helped us so marvelously for so many years, but we feel we have a real share in the splendid work she has done for the Auxiliary as Educational Secretary. We are very fortunate in having Mrs. Jacob S. Disston, Jr., to take her place.

Once more our sincere thanks to the Parishes and Delegates who have done the work. I wish we could perpetuate a little of the inspiration we received from the following speakers. (This report is from January, 1932, to May, 1933; the financial is for the twelve months).

January, 1932, Mrs. Grafton Burke spoke of the marvelous work of the Hudson Stuck Memorial Hospital, Fort Yukon, Alaska. A hospital that the Church may well be proud of.

February—Father McVeigh Harrison, St. Andrew's School, St. Andrews, Tenn., told of the work the school is doing for the boys in that country. At that time many of the public schools were closed for lack of funds.

March—Our old friend, Mrs. Wetmore, came to give us news of Christ School, Arden. She is undaunted in spite of serious cuts, which mean curtailment and heartbreaks.

We also had Mrs. Habersham, who showed moving pictures of Missions in the Philippines, to which she had paid a recent visit.

April—One of the most convincing speakers we have ever heard was Archdeacon Poyseor, Diocese of Marquette, Mich. He had worked gloriously at Crystal Falls for forty years.

May—Rev. Robert Y. Davis, San Juan Mission, Farmington, New Mexico, spoke of the rural work and its difficulties and discouragements.

October, 1932—Bishop Moulton gave us by his optimistic personality just the note of encouragement that we needed to start the Winter's work, and told of St. Mark's School, St. Mary's School and Roland Hall.

November—Bishop Robert's description of his great district of South Dakota was thrilling. A discouraging year, but South Dakota refuses to be discouraged.

December—Charlotte Cheston Moret came to greet us and tell of her year in Labrador. And the Rev. H. P. Corser, Wrangel, Alaska, described his work there, which went back thirty years.

January, 1933—Dean Springer, Church Deaconess Training School, Philadelphia, gave an outline of the aims and work of the school, stressing the present-day need for more specialization for the different kinds of service. The graduates are working in all parts of the world.

February—Bishop Abbott's description of his mountain work stirred everyone. Here are many people asking for the administrations of the Episcopal Church. He is terribly handicapped by debt, lack of clergy and workers.

March—Mrs. Wetmore came to give us her greetings. Bishop Booth, of Vermont, talked of domestic work as he had known it in the West. The keynote of his address was our dependence on God and our interdependence on each other.

April—We had an informal conference about our work, stressing the need for interesting more Auxiliaries; this lack is so largely due to lack of knowledge; can we not try to increase this knowledge?

Dr. Mockridge gave us a half hour of most helpful devotional meditation.

May—Mrs. Williamson made a most urgent appeal for clothes for a missionary in Oklahoma.

The Rev. Goodrich H. Fenner, Secretary for Rural Work, National Council, New York, was encouraging as to the plans that are being made by the Church today, for this work, which is so important.

101 Parishes were represented

91 Parishes contributed

32 Parishes contributed each month

24 Parishes sent delegates each month

30 increased their contributions over last year; to these I hardly know how to express my appreciation and gratitude.

We are grateful for what has been done, but not satisfied.

- MARGARET PACKARD.

The Foreign Committee took up its work for 1932 with a realization of the world situation and its challenge to the Church. Early in the year the National Council was faced with the pitiful necessity of cutting its already inadequate budget by one million dollars. Not a salary but was reduced, and hundreds of thousands of dollars worth of work ceased.

It was suggested that we reduce our budget 10 per cent., but this was not done, and the same sum was assumed as usual. It was paid, though not without difficulty, and we are grateful to the parishes whose splendid support under Mrs. Haines' fine leadership and inspiration made this possible.

We have new fields of interest and responsibility now, for by the action of the last General Convention all the possessions of the United States outside of this continent have been assigned to the Foreign Division of the Department of Missions of the National Council. This means that Haiti, Porto Rico, Santo Domingo, Alaska all become foreign responsibility.

Two great disasters occurred during the past year, bringing much loss and suffering in their wake. I speak of the hurricane and tidal wave which visited Porto Rico in September, and of the hurricane which visited Cuba in November. They were the worst ever experienced in the West Indies. Thousands lost their lives, thousands more were injured, and fifty thousand homes were destroyed. Crops were completely wiped out, and the people left without means of sustenance.

In Mexico we acquired a splendid native bishop, Bishop Salinas e Velasco, who is ably assisted in his work by his wife.

The Laymen's Foreign Missions Inquiry, financed by Mr. Rockefeller, with seven denominations represented in its personnel of fifteen men and women, was presented in Philadelphia by Mrs. Harper Sibley, of Rochester. Mr. and Mrs. Sibley were both members of this Commission and are communicants of our Church, of whom we may be justly proud. Mrs. Sibley after these nine months spent in the Orient, when she visited in the home of every Bishop of our Church in the foreign field, urged us to look into the future with great hope. True, we must rethink some things, perhaps many things, but we must see new adventures at every turn and fresh miracles every day. "The day of foreign missions is by no means ended," Mrs. Sibley said.

In the words of Canon Earp, who conducted our devotional meeting in Lent, "we must lay our hands upon the great power of God to give to the needs of the world today, and by sharing and giving we also bring blessing upon ourselves."

Respectfully submitted,

ELLEN FRAZIER TILDEN,
Recording Secretary.

The meeting of January, 1932, started the year's work fittingly, with the Rev. Cyril Bentley telling of his work as Dr. Patton's assistant of the American Church Institute for Negroes. The Committee had pledged $400.00 to the Institute for which he was very appreciative, as it was the first sum definitely pledged toward the $5,000,000.00 endowment fund of which they hope and dream. Nine thousand students in nine schools is a large undertaking, and the Rockefeller and Rosenwald Foundations testify by their aid what they think of the importance of this work.

February brought two speakers to the meeting whose subjects dovetailed perfectly and gave a well-rounded picture of the new attitude, trends and needs of the negro. Miss Winston, of Louisville, Kentucky, represents the Fourth Province on the National Executive Board of the Woman's Auxiliary and by that Board was elected a member of the Commission on Interracial Co-operation. She feels that too often in the past help has been given the negro without his co-operation. A better understanding of when to help and where to encourage him to stand on his own feet is of infinite benefit in solving some of the problems of this race. Archdeacon Baskerville recounted the pitiable state of the greater part of the colored population in the Diocese of South Carolina, due to bank failures, overproduction, unemployment and the rest of the familiar conditions of the depression. A promise of better things to come was felt when he told of sanitation, hygiene, care of the sick and the training the parochial schools were giving to his people.

The Rev. Edgar H. Goold, President of St. Augustine's College at Raleigh, N. C., came in March to tell of the hopes and plans and changes in his ever-growing school. Founded in 1867, it is the oldest institution for negro training in the State.

St. Agnes' Hospital, on the grounds of the school, was started by Mrs. Hunter, wife of the first president of St. Augustine's. The hospital not only trains young colored women as nurses, but helps the sick in the community. The Bishop Payne Divinity School is to move to St. Augustine's as soon as funds are available, and with the Bishop Tuttle Training School for social service leaders and religious teachers it will be a most complete educational center.

In lieu of a speaker in April, Mrs. Hill made direct appeals for help for the Bishop Tuttle Training School and St. Augustine's College and for the scholarship fund at St. Paul's, Lawrenceville, which has always helped poor students and will no longer be able to do so unless contributions are forthcoming. As Mrs. Hill had been elected President of the Woman's Auxiliary of the Diocese it would be necessary to find a new Chairman for the Committee. A Nominating Committee was appointed to report to the May meeting.

The last meeting until the Fall was held in May at the Churchwoman's Club with a splendid attendance. Miss Richards, from the Bishop Tuttle Training School, was the speaker, and tea was served afterwards. The only thing that marred the occasion was the knowledge that it would be the last time Mrs. Hill would be present as Chairman of the Committee. She spoke graciously of her appreciation of the honor the Diocese had bestowed on her and also of her regret at leaving the Committee. Mrs. Fox, Chairman of the Nominating Committee, then presented the ticket, which read as follows: For Chairman, Mrs. Genung; for First Vice-President, Mrs. Roberts; for Second Vice-President, Mrs. Birckhead; for Secretary, Mrs. Jenkins; for Assistant Secretary, Mrs. Raymond; for Treasurer, Mrs. Lockwood; for Assistant Treasurer, Mrs. Davis.

I am unable to refrain from introducing a personal note here to say how acutely I feel the wide gap between my predecessor in office and myself, and it is only with the realization of how much the delegates themselves do toward making this committee a success that I am able to assume my new duties without too much trepidation.

The speakers continued to be most interesting all Fall and Winter. Ludie Willis, the young colored woman we helped while she was at the Bishop Tuttle Training School, came in October and told us of her work in Philadelphia, where she now has a position.

Mrs. Dillard, a former Chairman of the Committee, told us in November of a recent visit she had made to Voorhees

School, at Denmark, S. C., to one of the trustees' meetings.

In December the Rev. John Irwin, Assistant Secretary of the Publicity Department of the Church, was the speaker. His subject was outlining the worth of the work of the American Church Institute for Negroes and the non-institute activities. The aim of both is not so much to do things for the negroes as to help him to learn to accomplish things for himself. The General Education Board writes that the Institute's handling of the difficult financial situation in all the schools places it at the top of the list of those receiving assistance from that Board.

In January, Mr. Ribble, from the American Church Institute, started the work off for the year again with news of the activities of that organization.

Bishop Demby, of Arkansas, came in February to report on the Church's work among the colored people there and to beg our support. Archdeacon Baskerville also made a vivid plea in a short five-minute talk for help for negroes of the Diocese of South Carolina.

The Rev. Thorne Sparkman, assistant at the Church of the Redeemer, Bryn Mawr, was the devotional speaker on Ash Wednesday afternoon. Everyone who heard him seemed deeply impressed by his address.

In April the Rev. Charles Brooks, President of St. Mark's School, Birmingham, Alabama, was the speaker, and it was extremely interesting to hear about this school and the unique place it held in the educational program of the negro. It is a small school, kept so purposely, and doing individual work among its students in a way that Hampton, Tuskegee or other large schools cannot do.

Mr. Blanton, head of the Voorhees School at Denmark, South Carolina, and a member of the quintet that sang at the Churchwoman's Club the Winter before, was a most inspiring person to have at the last meeting for the Spring. Quiet and scholarly, he combines a forceful personality and a wide knowledge of the negro aims and needs. His faith in his race will surely be justified by those under his influence.

The officers wish at the end of these thirteen months of high endeavor and successful undertakings to thank all the delegates for the enthusiastic support they have given and the fine reports they have taken back to their parishes.

The Diocesan Committee wishes to quote a paragraph from a prayer of last year: "Most solemnly do we assure ourselves that we shall not to our lives' end, nor beyond that, forget this beautiful and this true soul, Elizabeth Price Martin. But with Thee, O God of all mercies, lies the gift for us, as it lay for her, of steadfastness in service and of love unfeigned in the following of Thy errands of mercy and of justice."

Our gracious leader, Mrs. J. Alison Scott, heard our prayer and has led us through this year with courage and put behind us a fine record of work accomplished.

Our meetings have been very well attended, averaging 129 delegates, with 77 parishes represented.

In June we had our election of officers. In October we had Dean Shreiner tell us of the Church Farm School, and our boy, Fred Webb, and his progress. In November Mr. Wilkins told us of the Galilee Mission, and Mrs. Jump of her splendid prison work. In December we heard Dr. Jefferys tell of the Juvenile Court work started by this Committee, with Mrs. Herbert Clark as its head. January we were delighted by Mr.

Groton, whose subject was "Missions and Missionaries of Our Diocese. February, Miss Betty Wistar gave us a very enlightening account of the Junior League's work among the blind, and Mr. Sinclair, himself blind, of the State Council for the Blind, explained their work. March, our own Sarah Lowrie inspired us anew, speaking of the Elizabeth Price Martin Fellowship, and Miss Peck of their work at the Sheltering Arms. And then, in April, after Mrs. Fox's splendid report of the Episcopal Group's part in the Sixth Educational Week for the Blind, we spent the rest of the morning listening to Mr. Edward Baczewski's work among the foreign born.

In this brief summary of our meetings it is impossible to tell of the work accomplished. The Treasurer's Report will show what money we have given, but all the members of this Committee must feel gratified by the many, many calls we have been able to fulfill; and so, Amen.

Respectfully submitted,

KATHERINE C. REED,
Secretary.

"Our whole aim: To be intelligent Church members, with a well-rounded knowledge of what our Church is doing everywhere and for what She is responsible, and to find out how we can help. Also to create such interest in our younger people that they will read, and take their part, even though time does not allow them to come to stated meetings. That all this may lead to the development of more intelligent Christians and a deepening of our spiritual lives." (N. H., J. W. A. Program, 1932-1933.)

There have been seven meetings of the Executive Board of the Junior Woman's Auxiliary of the Diocese of Pennsylvania held during the Winter of 1932-1933 at the Church House. These meetings were attended by the diocesan officers, the chairmen of the standing committees and the presidents of the branches or their representatives.

At the first meeting it was voted that each branch should pay 10 per cent. of its income to our Treasurer every month, to be designated for either Quotas or Specials. This motion was clarified at a later meeting so that branches depending for their income on one major money-raising event during the year would have to pay 10 per cent. of that income only once.

Speakers from various organizations in the Church were present at nearly every meeting to tell of the opportunities for the branches to help through Red Cross work, the Supply Department, the Department of Religious Education, St. Martha's House, The Sheltering Arms, Bishop Abbott's work in Kentucky, Braille work and the Elizabeth Price Martin League for Social Service.

A "flying squadron" composed of representatives from many of the branches was formed to provide speakers to attend meetings in parishes other than their own and to help organize new branches.

Monthly reports covering the activities of each branch as to meetings, work, speakers, finances, etc., were submitted by the presidents.

Respectfully submitted,

MIRIAM HUSSEY,
Recording Secretary.

There are now eighteen branches of the Junior Woman's Auxiliary of the Diocese of Pennsylvania, and the following report is a summary of their activities taken from the reports sent in to the Executive Board each month.

DEVOTIONS

Every group started their meetings with some devotions, while many had unusual and helpful services; several had Corporate Communion.

DELEGATES TO THE FIVE STANDING COMMITTEES

During the Winter the number of delegates sent in to the five Standing Committees of the Diocese increased.

We would like to have more attending these committees, but we do feel encouraged by the interest shown in these committees and their work and the co-operation of the Juniors as a result.

MISSION STUDY

The study of Missions, both foreign, domestic and city, was participated in by all the branches both in study and speakers. During Lent all held study classes either among themselves or led by their rector, or a day with the Woman's Auxiliary of their parish. One group made a map showing the location of all the missions for the Supply Bureau's use. The same group compiled a scrapbook of articles written about missions during the Winter.

DRAMATICS

An increased interest in dramatics was shown, both in Parish Pageants and in Miss Cairns' Committee. Representatives from several branches took part in the "Great Trail" given at St. James's Church on May 7.

RED CROSS WORK

The amount of sewing done for the Red Cross was quite surprising. Some groups worked every month, others occasionally, but all did some Red Cross sewing.

SUPPLY BUREAU

Twelve groups either sewed or made surgical dressings or knitted for the Supply Bureau.

CHURCH PERIODICAL CLUB

Interest was shown in the Church Periodical Club in the collection of magazines and books and the giving of subscriptions.

ST. MARTHA'S HOUSE

Medicine bottles and paper bags for rummage were collected throughout the Winter for St. Martha's House. Through the efforts of one group, a manufacturer of paper bags will, next Winter, supply quantities of these bags both to St. Martha's and the Episcopal Hospital. Also a number of girls taught sewing at St. Martha's and helped at rummage sales.

MISSIONS

Other groups were interested in other missions in the city. At the Italian Mission at Sixty-fifth and Vine Streets moving pictures and other services were given once a month; at the Bedford Street Mission sewing was taught; one group was especially interested in St. Francis' Mission in many helpful ways, giving money, paying for the mission's telephone, giving a sewing machine, etc. Another group took an interest in the Girl Candidates and Girls' Friendly at St. Andrew's Chapel each week. Clothing was sent to the City Mission and other missions.

THANKSGIVING

At Thanksgiving many baskets of food were given by the different branches to needy families in their parishes and vicinities, and money was given to the Episcopal Hospital.

CHRISTMAS

Under the able leadership of Mrs. Walter J. Odiorne, our Christmas Box Chairman, many groups contributed articles and work at Christmas time. Gifts were sent to Deaconess Young at St. John's House; one group packed and sent 80 boxes of candy for the children there, and also helped Deaconess Young at the children's party; five J. W. A. branches took care of the 42 Juvenile Court children, under the care of Miss Alfriend, providing clothing, toys and candy; one group filled 20 boxes with small gifts, such as toilet articles, stationery and handkerchiefs, and sent them to 20 patients in the Women's Ward at the Philadelphia General Hospital. In addition to Mrs. Odiorne's Committee, other branches gave, in their immediate neighborhoods, baskets of food, clothing and toys, money to their rectors for their discretionary funds, dinners, and their services in various Christmas activities of cheer. One group sent 18 gifts to a mission in the Virgin Islands, and another two cartons of toys to San Juan Mission; one Junior group of a J. W. A. group filled 68 stockings for Workman Place; two groups sent $5.00 in personal gift boxes to missionaries in Alaska and Japan.

EPISCOPAL HOSPITAL (AND OTHER HOSPITALS)

Interest in the Episcopal Hospital grew during the Winter. Some groups sent representatives there each week, some began plans for more active service next Fall. Seven hundred and fifty-eight articles of various kinds of sewing, clothing and jig-saw puzzles were sent there during the Winter. Layettes were made and sent also to the Philadelphia General Hospital and local institutions.

UNEMPLOYMENT

Many branches co-operated with Miss Cairns' Dramatics Committee in selling tickets and sending money for the play given at the Chapel of the Mediator to aid Miss Dickson's unemployed women. Several groups made special efforts and gave entertainments with the Woman's Auxiliary to raise funds for helping the unemployed. One group raised $100.00 at one entertainment for this purpose.

SOCIAL AND WELFARE WORK

In one way or another, the branch of the J. W. A. gave their services in their parishes for social and welfare work. Each week motors were used to take children and mothers to local clinics. Clothing was delivered locally, also groceries. Trained nurses were taken on their visits. Scrapbooks and jigsaw puzzles were made for the hospitals. Clothing was sent to St. George's Mission, Luray, Va.; Bishop Abbott in Kentucky, and Miss Bowman, St. Philip's College, Texas. Stockings were collected for Mrs. Jump's prison work. Curtains were made for Parish Houses; linen and silver counted; cassocks and cottas mended. Sweaters were knitted for local distribution. Money was given to rectors to purchase coal and food, and to pay rent for needy families. One group arranged to take its members to lectures, another took a blind woman to and from church on Sundays, still another group delivered flowers at Easter to those people in the parish who were ill. Two groups gave a tea for the young women at the Deaconess Training School, and for the nurses at the Home for Incurables. Members of some branches are attending courses on Social Service, others are leading Sunday School and Church School classes, and singing in their parish choirs; also helping in their parish Girls' Friendly, Girl Scouts, and Girl Reserves, Altar Guild, Needlework Guild and U. T. O. One group prepared and served supper for the Main Line Sunday School Association. Almost all branches have co-operated in the preparing and serving of church suppers and lunches and parish entertainments. All have had special parties and sales to raise money for their special needs, and have also co-operated with the Woman's Auxiliary to raise money. The All-Day Missionary Day and the Day of Prayer were observed in many helpful ways. On the Day for the Blind at Gimbel's store, in Philadelphia, motor corps work was done in transporting the blind to and from the store, and one group gave food and helped to serve lunch in the tea room there, the proceeds of which went to the blind. In addition to the 10 per cent. sent each month to the J. W. A. Treasurer, many sent sums directly to the five standing committees of the diocese upon special pleas. Other branches gave donations of money and sewing bags to the Indians, to St. James' Clinic, and Christmas and Easter offerings. The eighteen J. W. A. branches' total expenditures, over and above the Treasurer's Report, amounted to $891.26.

Respectfully submitted,

JEANNETTE ANDREWS STOCKTON
Vice-Chairman.

The Second Annual Supper-Meeting of the Junior Woman's Auxiliary of the Diocese of Pennsylvania was held on Monday evening, May 8, at the University Club. One hundred and fifty-six people were there and an entire floor of the club was given over for our use. Not only were our branches well represented (one parish having twenty-two members present), but members of several parishes who have not as yet formed Junior Auxiliary branches were with us. Our Chairman, Mrs. Hewson, presided, and the President of the Woman's Auxiliary, Mrs. Hill, gave the blessing. During and after supper reports were given, and officers for 1933-34 were elected. Miss Sallie Phillips, of Washington, D. C. (who is National Chairman of Young People's Work in the Church in the United States) was our guest speaker, who inspired and thrilled us with her message; she urged us all to remember the prayer-slogan C*A*P*I*T, a composite word meaning:

C	Confession
A	Adoration
P	Petition
I	Intercession
T	Thanksgiving

and asked us to cap the day with prayer and to cap the night with prayer, as prayer is the centre of our whole life. It seemed especially fitting that we had planned to attend a short service of Auxiliary Intercessions and silent prayer at St. Mark's Church after our meeting adjourned; and I am sure we were all thankful to cap Miss Phillips' admonition with our intercessions.

In closing, I would like to express my gratitude to the six members of the Supper Committee, whose co-operation and splendid work made the Supper-Meeting the success it was.

Respectfully submitted,

TALIAFERRO FORD THOMAS,
Supper Chairman).

ANNUAL REPORT—1932

Forty-six volunteers, representing fourteen parishes, accomplished the work of the Supply Department during the Winter of 1931-1932.

To the Mission Fields:
20,683 articles of new clothing, household supplies, dispensary articles;
953 knitted articles;
13,678 surgical dressings;
At a value of.....$16,953.38
To Diocesan Institutions:
1,676 articles of new clothing and household supplies;
383 knitted articles;
At a value of.....$ 2,080.45
This work required:

106 different patterns with a sample garment for each pattern;
 17,000 yards of material were used;
 6,975 cut garments were assembled;
 7,000 directions for making garments were typed;
 12,983 notions enclosed in the assembled garments;
 4,313 yards of ribbon, strickerie, lingerie tape, tape, bobbin, elastic;
 2,388 yards of bias were purchased and 1,195 yards were cut by hand.

Our last report ended with a plea that the auxiliaries should learn, each year, about the missions for whom they are working. More than one parish has attempted to do this, but I want particularly to mention that the Juniors of St. Mary's, Wayne, have made a beautiful map, which now hangs in my office, showing all the missions we are supplying this season. To accompany this map they have collected information about these missions and made a most interesting scrapbook.

We have had many changes in our personnel. Mrs. Benedict's sudden death was a great sorrow and an irreparable loss to all of us. Mrs. Williams, who had been connected with the Department from the very beginning, moved away from the city, and for various reasons Miss Dallas, Mrs. Vaucelain, and Miss Randall had to give up their work here. We miss them all personally, as well as for the splendid work which they did.

We have been more than fortunate in finding new recruits. Mrs. M. R. Butler has been a most efficient chairman in charge of notions. Mrs. John Mockridge, Mrs. Barton C. Hirst, and Mrs. S. Hudson Chapman took hold of the Pattern Committee, when we were badly in need of new ideas, and by doing an immense amount of work have discarded many of our old patterns and provided us with many new ones. Now they ask you, the practical sewers, to collect patterns which are economical and simple, and bring them to us in the early Fall.

Under Mrs. Walker's able management the Shop has done amazingly well, considering business during the past year. There is actually a small amount of profit which will go towards the overhead in our Department.

Mrs. Baker has been most successful in selling the Mission goods, by taking them to the Parochial Auxiliary meetings. In this way many people who never came to the Church House have become interested.

The auxiliaries have all had such a struggle this Winter, and have risen so nobly to the emergency, that I cannot close without expressing my personal thanks for all they have done to help complete the season's work.

ADELINE P. PAUL.

In the interest of economy the condensed report of contributions and box work through the Supply Department has been omitted. This information may be secured by applying at the Supply Department at the Church House.—Ed.

UNEMPLOYMENT COMMITTEE

Generous and loving gifts from an increased number of givers have made it possible to continue the work of the Unemployment Committee. (Giving packages of sewing to women to be made in their own homes).

While the actual receipts and expenditures are less than last year, it is interesting to note there have been more contributors, which shows greater knowledge of the work; more women were employed, which means the average weekly wage was reduced, not the price per garment; and more garments were handled; this last being made possible by using Red Cross garments as part of the medium for our work.

Work has been provided for various lengths of time to 208 women. In addition eleven women were interviewed with help refused. One hundred and twenty women were interviewed and placed on the waiting list. This has placed us in touch with 339 women. To provide work for these women volunteer committees have again worked faithfully week after week preparing 15,425 garments, viz.:

Infants' garments	2,369
Girls' garments	8,677
Boys' garments	2,605
Women's garments	1,774
Total.....	15,425

This required 37,000 yards of goods and 96 patterns.

In addition, our employed women have made 4,626 garments for the American Red Cross.

The unemployment office has this year added to its activities the handling of Red Cross garments. These garments, made of cotton supplied by the Federal Government, are distributed within the area of the S. E. Pennsylvania Chapter. Cut by the Red Cross, they have been sent to us, thence distributed to the parishes or other groups, and upon return to us after a rigid inspection returned to Red Cross headquarters for distribution by them. Those helping with the making of these garments should feel gratified with the work accomplished. The expense does not permit printing a detailed report. The total cut garments received are 14,554, total returned 14,142, still outstanding 400. This record shows the largest amount of work done by any group.

To return to the Unemployment Committee, we have continued this year making garments for sale (429), which has brought a return and enabled us to use money a second time.

We have also handled 1216 pieces of work provided by customers.

Four thousand six hundred and sixty garments await distribution and 2,091 are cut ready for Summer employment. This shows the office has handled this year about 50,000 garments.

This past Winter the distribution of the new garments has proved as great a blessing as ever. Shipments have been made as follows:

Church Institutions of Philadelphia.....	16,375
Civic Distributing Centres Within Philadelphia.....	5,353
To Our Own Missions Outside the Diocese	3,058
Total.....	24,786

This report shows a greater number of garments distributed than cut. Distribution includes all garments made last Summer, the cutting of which was recorded in our last report.

Above and beyond the financial help this work has brought to our women, the mental and spiritual benefits cannot be measured. The very personal interest and sympathy which all of our workers have for our women is a very real part of our work. These long Winter months have seen many heartrendering situations arise. As I write, a long series, one after another, pass through my mind. Through many and various ways we have tried to meet the various needs, but ever and always have we tried to assist the women to meet their own problems courageously. Many letters and other tokens from our women express clearly their appreciation of this type of help.

Women everywhere throughout the diocese have given a sympathetic interest to this work and have been inspired to labor for it. This in turn has inspired and sustained the workers in more immediate contact with the women in need. Won't you continue your prayers, and when you pray, bear in mind all those near and far who cherish this work and, above all, those for whom we work.

O Loving Father, who forgettest not though we forget, make us, who in Thy light rejoice, more mindful of the world's distress, and more intent to fill the darkness with Thy light. Through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

ANNA D. DICKSON.

ANNUAL REPORT OF THE DIOCESAN EDUCATIONAL SECRETARY

After having worked under Mrs. Hill's direction for seven years I knew that she was an excellent leader, but when I attempted to take her place I was amazed that any one person could have planned and carried out such a program, the impetus she gave us has carried us along through this year.

We now have a Department for Education, a Director, an Advisory Committee of three, and six Secretaries for Convocations who meet on the last Wednesday of each month, and go especially to parishes who have no educational parish secretaries. Do invite them to visit your Auxiliary. They are: Mrs. W. W. Morris, Chester; Miss Margaret Brown, Germantown; Mrs. Hunsicker, Norristown; Mrs. Gossling, North Philadelphia; Mrs. Bonyne, South Philadelphia; Mrs. Carson, West Philadelphia.

The Parish Educational Secretaries are carrying the information of educational plans to their branches and may help the Parish Presidents by securing speakers.

Educational Day, on October 27, was well attended and plans were made for the Winter in each group in the morning, with a general conference of auxiliaries in the afternoon.

On November 7 and 8 Miss Margaret Marston, Secretary of the National Auxiliary for Education, led three sessions each day on "Facing the Future in Indian Missions," and on December 5 and 6 a similar institute was conducted on "Living Issues in China."

The Normal Class for the study of China in Epiphany was opened and closed by the Educational Secretary, and the other leaders were Mrs. Henry Dillard, Mrs. Fulweiler, Mrs. Lyons and Mrs. Bonyne.

As there was a great demand for leaders on American Indians Mrs. VanHarlingen kindly conducted a course of three sessions at the Church Training and Deaconess House on Friday evenings, and in Lent came in touch with fifteen parish groups.

The inspiration from the Lenten Mission Study work was shared by a number of the leaders meeting Wednesday afternoon in Holy Week, and good suggestions were made for the future.

In 1933 there were 47 classes, 22 institutes, 10 single meetings, 12 joining with another parish, making a total of 91 contacts.

At the closing meeting "The Tail of the Dragon," well acted by a cast arranged and directed by Mrs. Kent, of the Supply Department, gave great pleasure and a wonderful idea of the struggle in China between the new and old ideas and the difficulties encountered by the young Christian.

Hearty thanks are due to: The Educational Staff, Deaconess Adams, Mrs. Joseph Bennett, Mrs. Frank Bonynge, Mrs. Elliot Brewer, Mrs. Caleb Cresson, Miss Chrisman, Mrs. Corliss, Miss Cutterly, Mrs. Henry Dillard, Mrs. Clarence Gardiner, Mrs. Fulweiler, Mrs. William Haines, Mrs. Harnum, Mrs. Hornby, Miss Huey, Miss Elizabeth Jenks, Mrs. Kribbs, Mrs. Kennedy, Miss Landis, Mrs. Lyons, Mrs. W. W. Morris, Miss Oetley, Miss Plumley, Mrs. Studevant, Mrs. Temple, Mrs. John Thomas, Mrs. J. N. Welsh, Mrs. Underhill and Mrs. Van Harlingen. These leaders are all volunteers, but the parishes are asked to pay transportation expenses.

The offerings from the classes who studied the American Indian of $244.73 went to help provide electric light for the operating room in Dr. Silk's Hospital for Indians at Orleans, California. Those who studied China gave $423.10 for new beds in St. Elizabeth's Hospital for Women and Children in Shanghai, China.

My heart is full of gratitude for all the help and interest and generosity shown this Winter and for the many sacrifices made to carry on this work. Let us "be strong and of good courage, for God is with us."

MARGARET E. BULLITT,
Diocesan Director for Education.

UNITED THANK OFFERING—1932

The Spring in-gathering for 1932 did not show any marked effects of the hard times, when $11,174.08 was presented at St. James's Church on April 28. Mrs. Ingersoll had a balance carried over from amounts received between October, 1931, and April, 1932, of $1,481.53, and with $1,037.11 received after the presentation service, and until I took over the books in June a total of $13,692.72 altogether for the Spring Offering. However, in the Autumn we received a staggering blow! The full force of the depression hit us when only $4,804.14 was presented at Holy Trinity Parish House. The Fall meeting of U. T. O. Treasurers was held in conjunction with the Diocesan Educational Day of the Woman's Auxiliary. Up to the Fall presentation $380.69 had been received, and after it $3,097.17, a total of $8,282.00 for the Fall offering, and a grand total for 1932 of $21,974.72.

The corresponding year of the last triennium, 1929, netted $29,010.93, so we are about one-quarter behind. If everyone will work with a will and will try to find the joy that comes from the daily use of a Blue Box the deficit can easily be made up by September, 1934.

MARIAN D. VAN PELT,
Treasurer.

CHURCH LEAGUE FOR THE ISOLATED

Report June 1st, 1932, to May 31st, 1933

There have been four stated meetings during the year, the first one beginning with a Corporate Communion, when the Rev. J. C. Gilbert, of Grace Church, Hulmeville, was the celebrant, and gave a most helpful talk on the need and value of meditation and prayer.

On Educational Day Miss Eastwood helped us with very practical suggestions for our work, and the findings of her talk were reported at the general conference later in the day.

We are greatly encouraged by the co-operation of the various church organizations, and the steady growth of interest in the Diocese.

The Christmas letter from our Bishop to five hundred of our members brought great blessing and appreciative response; also the Daily Bible Readings from the National Council. From there, also, four times a year, goes "The Friendly Visitor," with a special message and news from the Mission Field. Material was sent to each one with a personal letter on the World Day of Prayer, March 3, that they all might have part in the intercession for the needs of the Church and the world.

We hope that with our increasing number on the Committee—now thirty-six—that every year will bring us in closer touch with more lonely and disheartened persons.

Limited space deters us from giving the names of our Committee.

Any correspondence may be sent to me, and any information desired about the work will be gladly given.

The challenge to us is the same as of old: "Prove me now herewith, saith the Lord of Hosts, if I will not open you the windows of heaven and pour you out a blessing that there shall not be room enough to contain it."

LETITIA GLENN BIDDLE, Chairman.

ELIZABETH PRICE MARTIN LEAGUE FOR SERVICE EPISCOPAL HOSPITAL UNIT

The Episcopal Hospital Unit of the League has been organized practically eight months and renders the following report of its activities:

A Training Class for Volunteers in Church Social Work was arranged with the able assistance of Dean Springer. The course consisted of six lectures, given by outstanding executives in the field of Social Work in Philadelphia. The class visited St. Martha's, Church Training School, City Mission and the Social Service Exchange. The attendance at these lectures, though small—averaging fourteen students—was nevertheless noteworthy in its results. Eight individuals are now active volunteers, contributing regular services as an outcome of this class. We would like to include the names of these volunteers in this report.

Miss Marjorie Robertson, St. David's, Radnor, has been teaching music and group singing one day weekly at the Sheltering Arms. She conducted a closing recital at the time of the Annual Board Meeting and received hearty congratulations from the Board members on her accomplishments.

Miss Ruth Fleming, Haddonfield, gives one afternoon monthly at St. Martha's House—clerical and hostess work in one of the clinics.

Miss Mary Carr, Calvary, Germantown, is giving one day weekly in the Occupational Therapy Department of the Episcopal Hospital. She also is teaching reading, writing and arithmetic to children in the Orthopedic Ward. These children spend weeks and months in the hospital, so this teaching, even though meagre, is very valuable.

Miss Elizabeth Jakob, Calvary, Germantown, gives one day weekly as librarian at the Episcopal Hospital. She has already collected and catalogued a library of about 350 volumes, and distributed over 1,000 magazines. She reports that the patients are eager to have the reading material and jig-saw puzzles.

Miss Agnes Conant, Calvary, Germantown, is acting as assistant librarian at the Episcopal Hospital, giving one day weekly.

Miss Margaret Lennig, Holy Trinity Church, Philadelphia, is organizing a motor corp service for the Episcopal Hospital. She has also secured the promise of twenty-eight layettes for the Maternity Ward.

Mrs. Scheffey and Mrs. Bird, St. Asaph's, Bala, are serving on a Social Service Committee of the Episcopal Hospital.

The Elizabeth Price Martin Guild has also organized a Social Service Committee, under the present chairmanship of Rev. Nathaniel Groton, to advise and assist the Social Service Department of the Episcopal Hospital. Plans are under way to enlarge the Committee in the Autumn to make it a Woman's Auxiliary to the entire Hospital and Harrison Home.

Many contributions of clothing, books, puzzles and entertainment and motor services for the Hospital have been secured through the activities of the Guild.

The Junior Woman's Auxiliary group of the Chapel of The Mediator gave an entertainment at the Harrison Home, which was greatly appreciated. One of the ladies in the Home, who is deaf, remarked that she would so enjoy seeing fancy dancing. This might prove a suggestion to some of our branches of Woman's and Junior Woman's Auxiliaries who plan to furnish entertainment to the hospital this coming year.
