THIRTEENTH ANNUAL REPORT
OF THE
Pittsburg Diocesan Branch
OF THE
WOMAN'S AUXILIARY
TO THE
BOARD OF MISSIONS.

The season's work began with the monthly meetings in September, when Miss Carter made an interesting address on her mission among the Indians. She stated her needs to which a liberal response was made in the way of clothing, groceries, &c. Several of the officers and delegates, attended the meetings in Baltimore, during the General Convention, and took part in the proceedings, which should have had a most stimulating effect.

The annual Diocesan meeting was held in Trinity Chapel. The President, in her opening remarks, urged upon all, greater zeal and earnestness in forwarding the great work in hand. A paper was read by Mrs. G. A. Gormly, on missionary work, in the past twenty-seven years. Addresses were made by Bishops Garrett and Talbot, telling of their work and needs. On Sunday evening, November 6th, there was a general Missionary meeting in Trinity Church, when the same Bishops made addresses. Bishop Talbot, as usual, aroused the interest and sympathy of his hearers. Bishop Garrett thrilled the audience by his vivid word-pictures of the condition of the country, without religious and moral influence, and urging the importance of education, and possessing the land now, for future generations.

The same objects suggested by Miss Emery were taken up for the present year, and the sum of six hundred dollars pledged to their support. In addition much interest being felt in Diocesan Missions, it was resolved to assist in supporting some scholarships, and the offerings for that purpose have been quite liberal. At a monthly meeting, attended by Bishop Whitehead, and the Rev. Mr. Rodgers, general missionary, much information was given as to the straitened condition of some of the smaller parishes, and the noble efforts of a few devoted church people longing for the services to which they had been accustomed. One such account appeared in the April CHURCH NEWS. A personal narrative by one of the three ladies made it still more interesting.

It is encouraging that some of the small parishes are becoming interested, and contributing packages of clothing &c., for joint boxes. The same invitation is extended to all. Though the little work of one parish may seem a small thing, yet the grand result of union and system is shown, when occurs such a summing up, as was witnessed last October, at the Auxiliary Meeting in Baltimore. What might be the result, if every parish, of every state and territory in the Union—and but three are not represented in the Auxiliary—were to bring an offering, small though it might be. The women of the Auxiliary, and many others, had a great benefit conferred in the “quiet day,” conducted by the Rev. Father Huntington. That and the following days were filled with teachings, which should lift all who heard them, to a higher plane of life. May another opportunity be afforded to enjoy such teaching, must surely be the earnest desire of all who heard him.

The monthly meetings have been fairly attended, despite the severe winter. Several papers were read calculated to increase interest in missions. One was on Miss Goepp's work in Japan, by Mrs. Byllesby, and one on Missions in Africa, by Mrs. F. R. Brunot. Another opportunity of hearing Miss Carter, was afforded, on her return from the East. She finds the work hard, but is not discouraged, even by the hard winter, and the many difficulties to contend with.

The Periodical Club is doing good work under the care of the efficient correspondent for the diocese, Mrs. H. M. Doubleday, and the interest seems to be increasing. No small amount of effort and self denial, on the part of the senders, appears to bear richer results than this systematic plans of furnishing reading matter to those unable to supply themselves with the Church papers and periodicals, so abundantly published. Almost every parish might have a librarian, to see that such matter is collected and sent away to the given addresses.

We have come to the close of another season's work, and find no reason for discouragement. If we have not done all that we might, the sums pledged, have been made up readily, and without any difficulty, and a considerable amount has been contributed for the diocese in addition. A number of parishes have contributed most generously in money, and some others, which were, perhaps, unable to give cash, have sent packages of clothing very neatly made, and showing a genuine interest in the matter. From such contributions three boxes were filled in April, and sent to St. Elizabeth's School, in South Dakota, St. Augustine's School, Raleigh, N. C., and the Divinity School at Parkersburg Va.

Visits to parishes not already working with the Auxiliary, have been made by some of the officers, and such visits are generally productive of good results.

At the Triennial Meeting, in Baltimore, a great work was suggested for the coming three years. The endowment of a Missionary Episcopate. The sum of fifty thousand dollars is requisite. More than double the amount contributed to the Enrollment Fund, at that time. It seems a great deal to undertake, but it might be done, by systematic and united effort, and, at no time has such a work been needed more than now, when so many new Bishops are being sent forth to occupy the land. It is none too soon for us to put our hands to this work, or whatever else may be decided on, if we are to have part in it, and join in the united offering of the Woman's Auxiliary, in eighteen hundred and ninety-five.

Encouraged by the past, though humbled by our short comings and hopeful for the future, with all faith in our great Master's care and love, let us press forward in the years to come.

MRS. J. O. SLEMMONS, Treasurer.

REPORT OF JUNIOR AUXILIARY FOR 1893.

In view of a Report, the condition of the Junior Auxiliary for the past year is not satisfactory. The parishes in the city in so far as they are in contact with the Secretary, have done fine work, but there has been a great falling off of interest in the country parishes whose Branches were established in the last year. It is both difficult and expensive for the Secretary to visit these outlying parishes, although she tries to keep up the interest by letter, but the main difficulty lies in the lack of workers, willing to spend and be spent in the cause of Missions. Usually there is one woman in the parish, and seemingly only one, who has the ability and inclination to set the children to work. In at least four of the Reports sent in from the younger Branches, this invaluable woman has been unable to carry on the work, and the mantle of Elijah is not only not asked for, but not accepted when offered and pressed upon Elisha. Shall we not try to overcome this tendency to indifference and try by persistent and consistent effort and attention to keep on the good work.

During the visit of Bishops Talbot and Garrett, a Children's meeting was held on Sunday afternoon, at which there was a large gathering of children and their elders, and all entered heartily into the singing and listened attentively to the addresses. In response to an earnest appeal from Bishop Talbot, the children pledged themselves to send money toward the furnishing of rooms in St. Margarets' school, and money has now been forwarded. A collection was taken amounting to $36.01, which was divided between the Bishops who made the addresses.

The work has been planned for next year, and letters from Miss Emery, show how much the missionaries need our help. Let us then be up and doing and never fall behind in our loving labor for Christ and his cause.

ANNIE S. PHILLIPS,
Secretary.
